Summer sort of came to an end. Sixty high at midnight, then thirty high at noon. Some had freezing rain, but we had three inches of snow and that is about gone. Did you notice how red the sun was as it went down a few evenings?

The weather experts say LaNina is the cause of the dry weather and it is going to continue. Seems a good part of the nation is having a drouth.

We had a fair turn out at the elections. E. L. said 19 at their place and Sweetwater reported 32. As far as I know, Gore and Bush won.

Mellie Stone said her granddaughter, Johnny Lynn Beeson, Burns Flat, and Kathy Heinsohn visited her during the week

Neva and Leland Bartlett have been visiting the Perrys. They stopped by to visit E. L. and Wilma Fowler on their way to Amarillo and home.

I had a short visit in town with Mrs. Arrington and Irene Lowe. I went to school with Donny Long ago.

My soap, "One Life to Live" was up for some awards the other night. If you remember when it started years ago, the main characters said they were from Elk City and a little village out west. Had to be Sweetwater! Those are gone now.

Steve and Sue Harding, Natalie and Emily, Littleton, Co., have been visiting his mother, Mary Ann Harding, and Mary Bollen at Erick. They left for home this morning. We hope they had good roads.

Theresa Nabors dropped by to visit and brought me a very nice birthday present.

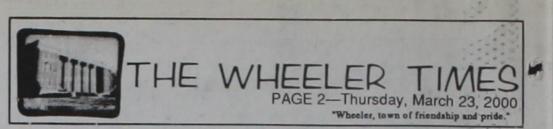

Sweetwater had a number of students showing livestock in the Roger Mills Show at Cheyenne. Came home with a lot of ribbons and awards. They were Dustin Hogg, Shane Yarbrough, Ben Tignor, Steve Bentley, Tyson Perry, Ricky Yarbrough, Michael Richardson, Danny Ferrell, Ricky Hanson.

And Lacy Fowler, Nathan Reed, Levi Greer, Jana Hanson, Cade sites, Bailey Davis, Lindsay Coffey, Angela Prather, Heather Dolloff, Dylan Perry, Trampis Fowler, Nathaniel Quinn, Chase Arrington. Dustin Hogg won the Sr. Swine Showmanship award. Lindsay Coffey won the Sr. Sheep Showmanship award.

Lucille Hardy was out from Sayre to spend the day with Theresa and Wilbur Nabors.

Lorita Johnson visited Saturday with Helen Smith. She was getting information about the Dempsey School.

Just had a nice surprise. Bert and Barbara Bass of Pampa dropped by to visit, they had been to Elk City. They were really entranced by my his folks. Ray and Doris aren't very well

Birthday folks are Ray Smith, Tyler Steele, Lee Mayes. Lois Flowers, Sherman Wilson, Esther Flowers, Carolyn Barham, Dylan Perry, Nathan Dunlap, Amber Anderson, Meloney Wilcox, Ray Lyn Stucker, Don Riley, Charles Hagerman and Truman Alexander. Happiness to all.

I've been watching OETA and their fund raising programs. I was amazed at how many call in from out of state-Texas, Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas, and New Mexico have been heard from as well as Oklahoma.

OETA also had "I Remember Oklahoma". Well, I remember Oklahoma too. We went over to Erick in 1928 to see the runners in the race from California to Chicago. I know in my mind they came in from the west but still in my heart I see them coming from the east. Andy Payne won, you know.

I also remember us going over to Erick in our model T to see a special movie. I'm not sure whether it was the first Talkie or "The Covered Wagon". Anyway, when we got to the river, the bridge was gone. Earl Hill and another man were there with teams and for a dollar they towed us across the raging river. And we kids thought the movie was worth it all. Didn't hear Daddy complain.

In the Remember Show they had a picture of the Sayre courthouse. And signs mentioning the Roger Miller Highway and Sheb Wooley street. Brad and Brendon Atkinson have been home from college this week. E. B. and Eva and the boys visited her mother, Faye Moore at Taloga. Leonard Smith was out to see about Maxey's Sunday. They went down to St. Patrick's day celebration at Shamrock Saturday. Ed hoped his beard might win a prize, but they chose others. But he did look kinda cute.

Clifford and Euline Walser were eating at Maxey's Sunday. Also Robert and Kim Andis and family with Kim's dad, Clark Blair and lots of Zybachs.

Don't forget the bridal shower for April Purcell, bride-elect of Michael Snelson at Briscoe Cafeteria Sunday, March 26, at 2:30 p.m. Everyone invited.

When Sylvia (Bradstreet) Brown died, Jan. 17, 1998, her sister-in-law, Billie Brown took a tiny rosebud from the flowers on Sylvia's casket. She put it in dirt and eventually it rooted and grew, and produced most gorgeous roses. She recently sent Rosalie Keelin and her sisters, Floy Larkin and Joy Garrison pictures of the beautiful roses. Rosalie felt it was a gift from Sylvia.

Lou Dean Douthit visited Rosalie Keelin one day.

Rosalie enjoyed calls from her sister, Thelma Bailey at Dexter, New Mexico and Joey Keelin at Pasadena, Texas.

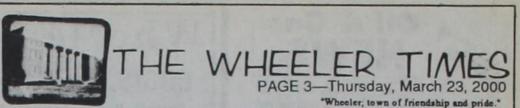

Briscoe Community Church is now having Sunday night services at 5:30. Pastor Johnny Crawford preaches and Rosalie Keelin is there to help with the music. She really plays well. Shorty Crawford visited Sunday night. Barbara Williams and Denise and babies have been coming, too.

Friday night, March 17, 2000, Joe Bob Kinnaman and Kathrina Hart, were united in marriage in the lobby of the Schnieder Hotel at Pampa. It was too cold for the Gazebo across the street. Kathrina's grandfather Hart, performed the ceremony. Several friends and relatives were there to wish them well. Katrina has two little girls, 6 and 7 years old. Joe Bob's three are a little younger. they will be making their home in Pampa. Joe Bob works for Control Equipment on Price Road. Katrina Works for a day care. Best wishes to you all. Some there were Lou Dean Douthit, Bob and Debbie Kinnaman and Kirbie, Donnie Barr, Corey and Audrey Kinnaman and Zane from Reydon, and Jeree Wood and many others. including Dalton, Alyssa and Drestrie Kinnaman.

Correction: Peggy North visited her sister-in-laws in Pampa recently, one from North Dakota-not Don's mother, who is deceased. Sorry I goofed.

A reception followed with bride's cake and a strawberry topped lucious groom's cake. Gordon and Barbee went to Las Vegas for a honeymoon. The children stayed with her mother, who lives at Decatur. Pray for this family.

LA RESPUESTA

Ha oido alguna vez decir " fuera feliz si tuviera....."? Para muchos esa expresion terminaria con cosas como un automobil mejor, una casa mas grande, nueva ropa, mas dinero y asi sucesivamente. Pero a menudo esas cosas van aconpanadas de responsabilidades y carga, no de felicidad duradera. Un auto mejor y una casa mas grande significa pagos mas elevados. El tener mas dinero lleva a un aumento en los gastos. Las cosas que parecen garantizar la felicidad a menudo anaden mas molestia a la vida. La felicidad no esta en las cosas materiales y la verdadera felicidad no puede hallarse a no ser en una vida plenamente consagrada a Jesucristo. en EL esta la fuente de la felicidad, permita que las verdades de este mensaje lo animen en su andar espiritual. En vez de permitir que las filosofias y las circunstancias de este mundo determinen su felicidad, permita que el Espiritu Santo use la Palabra de Dios para darle verdadera felicidad. En Mateo 5: 3. dise Bienaventurados los pobres en espiritu, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos.
