Senate Committee Resumes Quiz Of McGraw Partner

Attorney General Protests Dragging Of Wife Into Department Inquiry

DALLAS, Feb. 23 (AP)—The senate committee investigating Attorney General William McGraw fired another fusillade of questions today at his former Dallas law partner, Tom C. Clark, now an assistant United States attorney general.

Clark was interrogated for the third successive day on matters contributing to the large increase in his earnings after McGraw became a state official. He admitted the increase was substantial and testified to the receipt of several big legal fees, but added he never exerted improper influence on any state official or legislator.

Seek Removal Of Barracks

Park Board Asks City To Clear Structures

Eventual removal of all the city-owned buildings from the city park was requested Wednesday by Will Mann Richardson, chief clerk for the state park board.

Richardson, writing to City Manager E. V. Spence, pointed out that the buildings were erected by the CCC as temporary affairs and were never intended to be left, that they constituted an "eye-sore" to the scenic mountain state park, and that park regulations forbid the private ownership of buildings on state park lands.

Said Richardson: "We understand that these buildings are being used by the city for the construction of additional facilities at some of the city schools, and we would appreciate it if the remainder of these barracks could be removed shortly."

Spence said that one of the buildings is being used for a school.

Opposition To New British Policy Gains

Chamberlain Prepares For Overtures To Italian Govt.

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP)—British government opposition gathered strength today for continued attacks against the nation's new foreign policy of European appeasement outside the league of nations.

The opposition backed the idealism of Anthony Eden, who resigned the foreign secretaryship rather than pursue Italian friendship talks under circumstances which he held would indicate Britain was yielding to pressure from the fascist Premier Mussolini.

Chamberlain, who held it was his duty to seek peace with Mussolini and Germany's Hitler and avoid "the frightful question" of war, was reassured in his policy of practical dealings by a 330 to 168 vote of confidence from the house of commons.

The conservative party premier planned to confer tomorrow with Viscount Halifax, acting as temporary foreign secretary, and with the Earl of Perth, British ambassador to Rome who was called back to London for instructions on the Italian talks.

Lord Perth was expected to return to Rome immediately after seeing his chief and at once to open negotiations with the Italian foreign minister, Count Galeazzo Ciano.

The United States was injected briefly into the debate by Winston Churchill, former cabinet minister, who said "millions of people there who are our enemies have been armed with the means to mock the sincerity of British idealism."

Likewise, he asserted, American "working for closer cooperation of the two countries on parallel lines are downcast, baffled and bewildered."

Sec. Swanson Advocates U. S. Title To Submerged Coastal Oil Lands

Proposes Move As A Measure For Nat'l Defense

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Secretary Swanson asked the house judiciary committee today to approve, as a defense measure, the Nye resolution calling for the United States to take title to submerged coastal oil lands.

"In a letter to Committee Chairman Sumners (D-Tex.), the navy secretary said petroleum reserves within the off-shore three-mile limit were being exploited by some municipalities as well as private interests.

"No act of congress has been passed," he said, "to assert the national and paramount right of the United States to the use of these submerged lands in the furtherance of a constitutional purpose."

"Petroleum is a typical product which contributes substantially to the maintenance of the navy," Senator Nye (R-ND), author of the legislation, asked the committee to give "the most earnest consideration" to the proposal, saying it would permit the United States to supplement its dwindling petroleum supply.

Although he could not estimate how much oil might be recoverable from the submerged lands, he said there had been "magnificent" private development of such oil bearing sands by private interests. He said if congress approved his resolution the courts then could be asked to certify such government title and government departments would be compelled immediately to initiate the court litigation.

Former Representative Thomas Blanton of Texas told the committee title to submerged lands off the California coast already rested with the federal government. Should it develop oil reserves there, he said, it would obtain "hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue."

FD ASKS FUNDS FOR SCHOOL PROGRAM

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNITY IS URGED

Ickes' Suggestion Viewed As Expression Of Hope

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Secretary Ickes' call for Anglo-American unity against fascism and communism—avowedly made in the role of a private citizen—received immediate interpretation by Washington observers today as a general expression of official hopes.

These observers pointed out that Britons who heard a radio speech by Ickes yesterday necessarily would judge these words against a background of his position as a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet.

"The community of interest that exists between Britain and America, as well as between other peoples who believe in democracy should be strengthened."

"Democracy can not live side by side in the same country with either fascism or communism. Totalitarianism, either of the right, or of the left, is alien to the spirit that dominates the English-speaking democracies of the world."

Ickes, emphasizing that he spoke only as an individual, said the president alone is "charged with responsibility for foreign affairs."

He was reported to have written his address before the resignation of Anthony Eden, Great Britain's foreign minister.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull remained silent on European developments, but both were known to be studying them closely.

Senator Borah (R-Ida) said he believed England, by her gesture of friendship to Germany and Italy, had abandoned any hope that she could depend on America as an ally in war.

Direct Raid On Air Base At Formosa

Decisive Action May Be Near In Spain's Civil War

By The Associated Press. Dramatic blows were struck in the world's two wars today as European tension leaped into watchful waiting for the effects of Britain's new "realistic" diplomacy.

Seven Chinese war planes, Domei (Japanese news agency) reported, raided Japan's colony island of Formosa and dropped ten bombs on a Japanese air base.

A Japanese army communiqué said the Chinese bombs missed their mark, struck private homes and caused several casualties among women and children.

It was the first time the Chinese had carried the war in the Orient to Japanese soil. The first air raid ever inflicted on the empire and the first time since 1904 Japan had been subjected to foreign bombardments.

In Spain, combined land, sea and air attacks following the recapture of Teruel, threatened to develop into the decisive action of the civil war.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces, receding from the defeat of last December 21 that cost them their Aragon stronghold, struck back, regained Teruel and drove deeper into government territory toward the coast.

Government reports, however, minimized Teruel's significance as a military base. In the coastal fighting, they reported, two insurgent vessels were believed to have been disabled in a battle with government planes.

Recall Generalissimo Franco's highest commanders in China, it was disclosed, have been recalled. The most important replacement was that of General Iwane Matsui, Japanese commander in the Shanghai area, by General Shunroku Hata, who was inspector of military education, one of Japan's three key military posts.

Chinese successes were given as the reason. Reports indicated Chinese guerrilla attacks in the Hangchow-Nanking-Shanghai area have held up Japan's advance in the south. Regular Chinese army forces on the central front still stoutly resist Japanese forces attempting to smash the Luangshai corridor.

British opponents of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's "realistic" diplomacy, who have replaced resigned Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's "idealism," indicated they would not let the defeat of a motion of censure in the house of commons end their attacks on his policies.

The Earl of Perth, British ambassador to Rome, nevertheless, was to return to London for instructions for friendship talks with Italy, and political circles forecast an early British approach to Germany.

Berlin remained confident British realism would strengthen Germany's demand for colonies and would be no barrier to the pacification of Czechoslovakia.

France, facing isolation on the continent, prepared to strengthen her defenses and indicated she, too, might step a new diplomatic course. Foreign Minister Yvon Delboeuf intimated France also might seek to improve her non-cofriendly relations with Italy.

Gen. Pershing Is Improved

AEF Commander Is Suffering From Heart Ailment

TUCUON, Ariz., Feb. 23 (AP)—Physicians attending Gen. John J. Pershing said today, following a lengthy consultation, that the 77-year-old soldier "is definitely better."

A statement issued by Dr. Roland Davidson after he and Lieut.-Col. R. U. Morrison had completed an examination said the condition of his heart, which caused considerable anxiety yesterday and last night following a sudden relapse, "is entirely satisfactory."

"Col. Marietta and myself have just completed an examination of General Pershing," said the bulletin. "There is very definite improvement in his condition since the last relapse last night."

Dr. Davidson said the most probable cause would be toward 8 p. m. (EST).

General Pershing, 77, more than a week from a pneumonia and a complication, was removed from his hotel quarters in the Tucson sanatorium yesterday after a relapse which caused considerable anxiety.

Col. Marietta, heart specialist, was ordered here.

AUSTIN, Feb. 23 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed a life sentence assessed Mrs. L. Dancy of Jones county for the poison-limonade murder of Mrs. J. T. King, her landlady.

She tried her motion on claims evidence failed to show she mixed poison with the limonade or caused Mrs. King to swallow it.

Fulton, Ark., Threatened By Waters

Residents Begin To Evacuate As River To Record High

FULTON, Ark., Feb. 23 (AP)—Faced with the worst flood threat in the history of this little river town, Fulton residents today began hasty evacuation after engineers announced they would guarantee to hold back the rampant Red river only until dark.

All but a few of the 293 residents had refused to leave last night. The river reached an all-time high of 36.5 feet, 11.5 feet above flood stage, at noon today, and was licking at sandbags atop the mile-long stretch of levee protecting the town.

Refugees from the town were seeking safety in the hill section north of here where many of them have friends and relatives. There was no general concentration.

A few townspeople departed last night but most remained behind, hopeful that the giant protecting levee, which had defied other floods for more than 90 years, again would hold.

The Missouri Pacific railroad announced at Little Rock that government engineers in the district informed it the levee between Index and Fulton was expected to stand the rise.

Frank Ward, Fulton toll bridge keeper, said he did not think the levee could continue to hold the rising waters. He said a minor break yesterday was plugged with a new earth embankment which was beginning to weaken.

Approaching Fleet Maneuvers Held In War Time Secrecy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The navy surrounded with wartime secrecy today its forthcoming fleet maneuvers in the Pacific where more than 50,000 men and officers will test the fighting strength of 150 war craft.

Naval officials disclosed the secrecy order while the house naval committee heard Rear Admiral William B. Du Bose, chief of naval construction, testify it would cost $3,200,000,000 to provide a separate fleet to defend the Atlantic coast.

Zog Sisters On Way To Amer.

Rumor Albania Royal House Is In Search Of Monied Husbands

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—With names curiously reminiscent of Eugene Field's fabled Wynken Blynken and Nod, who also set forth to sea, three royal Balkar beauties—maiden sisters of King Zog I of Albania—were on the high seas today en route to the United States.

Bound on a broadly-hinted quest for American husbands, the three princesses from the so-called "powder keg kingdom" of Europe are Myseyen, 28, Ruhije, 27, and Maxhide, 26.

They are to arrive in New York next Monday on the Italian liner Conte Di Savoia.

King Zog himself has plainly indicated that the continued spinsterhood of the trio, the youngest of six sisters, has been a source of growing concern.

Strikingly attractive, with wide-set luminous eyes and luxuriant dark hair, each has had suitors aplenty, but—

While eligible bachelors among the royal houses of Europe have paid the sisters marked attention inevitably they have shied at linking their ancient lineage with Albania's parliament-created Princesses—sisters of the newsmaking among reigning monarchs.

It was not until 1927 that Zog, a one-time tribal chieftain from the Balkan hills, an erstwhile revolutionary firebrand, proclaimed himself king.

Now that the 42-year-old bachelor monarch has selected the daughter of an American for his bride, with the wedding ceremony set for May, he has let it be known that he would consider American husbands—preferably with heavy bankrolls to bolster the finances of his tiny mountain kingdom—as "suitable" matches for the U. S. bound sisters three.

Bounty Paid On Rabbits COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UP)—Lincoln county pays a bounty of two and one-half cents for each rabbit killed by its residents. The rabbits have done considerable damage to farms in the county. A pair of rabbit ears furnishes the proof needed to collect the bounty.

Reading and Writing

THE UNVANQUISHED, by William Faulkner, (Random House, 62¢)

Those who prefer William Faulkner when he concentrates on hedgerow matings and births in a ditch may be a little disappointed in "The Unvanquished," which to this reader seems close to being the best book he has done so far. Man is a pretty contrary specimen; Mr. Faulkner (Erskine Caldwell too) has seemed a little childish to certain people when occupied with the sport of getting four-letter words past the censor.

Anyway, Mr. Faulkner's great gift is and always will be his ability to make past time into present time. "The Unvanquished" is a superb example of it, even if most of the book came out of the short stories Faulkner has written for a certain reasonably strait-laced magazine. These stories he has set in line, rewritten to some extent, and formed into a continuous narrative, which has a pleasant quality of carelessness, but no lack of force and point.

"The Unvanquished" is about the last years of the War Between the States, of the days when Mississippi was overrun with Yankees when the slaves were in a ferment to "cross Jordan," and when finally the manor house of the Sartoris clan was burned and Granny, her grandson Bayard, and Ringo, his negro playmate, were left to do the best they could with nothing.

Included are a number of incidents familiar to magazine readers; notably that delightful one wherein the two boys fire on an approaching squad of Yankee raiders, kill a horse, hide beneath Granny's skirts—and make a friend of Colonel Dick of the Yankees. This, many will remember, led to Granny's recovering her silver (and a good deal more) when it was stolen, and indirectly caused her to set up in the business of stealing Confederate mules and reselling them to the raiders who had taken them in the first place.

There is an air of gentle incredulity over it all, a warm feeling that one is living through a turbulent period in good company and a fine narrative art in the book. It slows up only when Mr. Faulkner's art creeps up on him, and he goes stream-of-consciousness for brief spells.

YOUR MILEAGE MERCHANT ADVISES...

Try to have the two cars slightly "staggered"—not exactly in line with each other. This often helps if bumpers lock, especially when the car with its bumper below can reach a drain or similar depression. Another way is for the car with its bumper on top to get up on a curb or "hump." All of that is "just in case."

Now ask the poor fellow who wants your help to get into HIGH. Tell him to keep his clutch pedal down, letting it come back gradually only after you get his car under way.

Do your pushing with your LOW gear. That's easiest on your car...for half a block. Then if the other fellow's car hasn't started, have him get into neutral and push him up to a nearby Mileage Merchant for Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze like yours. That can't help but get him started... (the Mileage Merchant will know what to do if the battery has entirely given up the ghost). And then the rightest way to dodge further battery trouble, dangerous oil dilution—and embarrassment—is to make a point of getting sure-starting Conoco Bronze all winter! Continental Oil Co.

Blacksmith Finds Anvil Helps Keep Her Young At Age Of 65

By the AP Features Service
BALTIMORE—Socially prominent Mrs. Savannah Barrett Butt enjoys being a blacksmith at 65 as much as she used to enjoy riding to hounds.

True, the horseshoes the former Georgia belle forms wouldn't fit a shetland pony. They're miniatures and make excellent decorations for ash trays. Mrs. Butt also produces wrought iron and brass antique reproductions, door knockers, foot stappers, andirons and book ends.

The demand has increased so that she has had to employ two assistants. Now she is outgrowing her cellar workshop.

Mrs. Savannah Barrett Butt At Her Power Drill

Mrs. Butt is a sister-in-law of the late Major Archie Butt. Her husband, Edward H. Butt, a cotton broker, died in 1929. When the depression left her with a diminished income in 1932 she turned to smithing.

"What was I to do?" she asked, as she patted a jig saw with a work-begrimed hand. "I refused to be supported by my daughter and I couldn't find a job."

"I just love this creative work. It's almost as much fun as fox-hunting but a good deal more useful. It keeps me fit and young and drives my worries away."

Mrs. Butt raised Irish hunters in England where she moved at 22 shortly after her marriage. She operated a dairy farm.

During the war, she worked in a munitions plant and afterwards "drove everything from a Mack truck to a Rolls Royce." She returned to the United States in 1918.

"Now I just dream about my workshop," she said, giving a 15-pound door stop an affectionate tap with her 10-pound sledge.

Attorney May Gain Fortune

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23 (AP)—A Philadelphia attorney who hunts hidden treasure with a law book instead of a spade expected today to add nearly $4,000,000 to his bank balance as an "informant" under Pennsylvania's escheat law.

At Michael Edelman's behest the Dauphin county court yesterday ordered State Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman to collect $16,000,000 in unclaimed corporation funds.

The court ruled a 1929 law entitled Edelman to 25 per cent of collections because he filed the information on which the state can base its claim to the "lost" money.

Edelman estimated that collection would cost $540,000, leaving him a split of approximately $3,840,000 to be paid him after the money actually is in the state treasury. The funds, including unclaimed dividends, stock and debts on which interest has matured, are held by 30 corporations, some of them railroads and major utilities.

By escheat, such funds revert to the state when citizens fail to claim them after seven years, but ordinarily no action is taken until the original owners die.

'SWEDE' COMIC 'PENGUIN STOOGES' N' COMEBACK

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23 (AP)—Melting like a fish cart on Friday, it glided to combine dollars and cents. El Brendel climbed back in the movie limelight today.

Penguin Pete was perched on his shoulder and sliced halibut was in his pocket as Brendel took Shirley Temple by the hand for a crucial scene in her new picture.

It was the scene where Shirley, "Little Miss Broadway," gets an idea how to lift the mortgage on a hotel for down-and-out actors.

"Jumping jimminy!" cried Brendel, one of the down-and-outers.

But Pete, the penguin, merely looked wise. He earns $100 a day in the movies. No matter what the script says, he has all the halibut he wants to eat.

For El Brendel, Hollywood's forgotten Swede, the penguin is a bird of good omen.

A decade ago, he scored his first big hit when he carried a goose around in "You Never Know Women." Then he teamed up with a cat in "Happy Days," a donkey in "The Big Trail," and a dog in "Ol' Man's Big Moment."

"When I ran out of animals," Brendel says, "I ran out of a job." His bland face, a map of Scandinavia, wrinkles into a wry grin as he says it. And you might never guess it wasn't funny.

No more Swedish than Robert Ayler, Elmer Goodfellow Brendel was born in Philadelphia and has been a comedian 30 years.

Rain Forces Allred Plane To Land At Newark Airport

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Weather conditions gave Governor James V. Allred of Texas an extra hundred miles or so airplane ride on a trip to Washington.

His plane was unable to land in Washington last night because of rain and fog. It flew on to Newark, N. J., where Allred transferred to a train and moved on to Washington.

He came here to oppose before a congressional committee a bill to place submerged coastal lands under government control.

Concerns Reminded That Chain Tax Is Now Due

All business operators were reminded again Wednesday that they must pay the so-called "chain store" tax regardless of whether it is a small stand or one of a series of business houses.

Every business house is subject to the single store tax provisions of the tax act recently upheld by the supreme court.

Notices were received by the division offices of the state comptroller Wednesday, indicating that a deadline will soon be fixed for payment of the tax. Every day after the deadline that the tax is not paid constitutes a separate offense and is punishable by a fine from $25 to $100.

Operators of any type of business concern are urged to call by the division office of the comptroller in room 408 Petroleum building and there fill out an application. Free notary service is available at the office.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART

A Muddled Affair

Joe Rodgers of the Midland Reporter informs us that Jim Payne, Roosevelt baseball mogul who operated a West Texas-New Mexico league franchise in that city last season, has been replaced by Neal Rabb but Jim, who is living here at the present time, says that he is selling his franchise to Beaumont and that Neal has nothing to do with it.

Two weeks ago Jim was ready to go back to Roosevelt to prepare for the opening of spring training but something went wrong.

He announced this morning that he was propositioned by Jack Zeller of the Beaumont club and several Roosevelt business men about giving up his part of the club for a price.

What his price was he did not say but he has decided to forsake the national pastime for other fields.

Invites Golfers

With warmer weather coming on, Pro Harold Akey of the Municipal golf course has issued another invitation to all young golfers under 21 years of age to take advantage of the city's offer to get in their practice holes free of charge every Saturday morning.

Due to the fact that the approaching district junior golf tournament, which will be held here in mid-August, is open to all golfers under 21 years of age, Akey raised the age limit of those who might practice free.

During his spare time the pro will give pointers to all willing parties.

Big Spring was not represented by a single golfer when the tourney was conducted in San Angelo last year and Akey is hoping that at least 50 local amateur players will go out this season.

A story from Sweetwater relates to the effect that Bobby Clark, former pro middleweight boxer of that city, is training about 30 Sweetwater youths to bring to Big Spring for a boxing get-together Friday night.

No one here seems to know anything of the venture.

If Clark is coming here he evidently is going to bring his card and his fans with him.

TEXAS U. SLASHES MUSTANGS TO AID ARKANSAS ALONG

By The Associated Press
The top-ranking Arkansas Razorbacks slash with the Southern Methodist Mustangs in a two-game series Friday and Saturday at Fayetteville. The Mustangs, losers in the University of Texas Longhorns 25-23 last night, are back in third place. Baylor, victors over Texas Christian University last night, moved into second place.

The Methodists, whose defense of their cage title was upset by the Texas University Longhorns last night, has four more games to play; Baylor has three more, and Arkansas, two.

While Arkansas and Southern Methodist University are battling it out Friday night, Rice will play TCU, and Saturday night Rice will play Baylor.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, just returned from Waco where they had to split a pair with the Baylor Bears, have only two games in which to prepare for the tussle with SMU. They must win both games to take the pennant. A split would tie Arkansas with the winner of the SMU-Baylor game provided these teams win their other games.

The Methodists found the Texas defense too light last night for their usual scoring spree. At the half the score was 10-10. Moers, Longhorn guard, scored 12 points.

Baylor stayed in the fight for conference honors by virtue of a second-half rally last night that spelled defeat for TCU. The Baylor Bears trailed 18 to 19 at the intermission as TCU's Jack Reedy sank a field goal just before the gun. TCU kept the pace with Baylor until about middle of the second half when the Bears began drawing on well-aimed shots by Germand and Shahan, that gave Baylor a 43 to 37 victory.

Defeat By Corbett May Hurt Fred Apostoli's Title Hope

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23 (AP)—San Francisco's biggest boxing upset in many years today left young Corbett, veteran Franco southpaw a 10-round victor over Fred Apostoli, uncrowned middleweight king, who was a 2-1-2 to 1 favorite to wallop his aging conqueror.

Corbett, who won and lost the world's welterweight title before Apostoli started professional fighting, took five rounds of yesterday's outdoor battle. Apostoli battered his way to a pair, and three were even.

The Fresno, his right eye closed and his mouth and nose battered appeared nearing the end of his resistance at the close of a punishing tenth round when Referee Toby Irwin awarded him the decision.

A holiday crowd of 13,000 persons paid an estimated $25,000 to see the battle in Seals baseball stadium the first outdoor fight here in three years.

Unmarked
Apostoli, nine years younger than Corbett and recent winner over Marcel Thil of France and Middleweight Champion Freddie Steele in a non-title bout, was virtually unscathed by the leather barrage which he took in the seventh and eighth rounds with jolting head punches.

Corbett, who at 33 has had 17 years of ring experience, presented a left-handed offense that Apostoli, former bellhop, could not master. He won the first five rounds.

Apostoli, former national amateur middleweight champion, found the range with punishing blows in the seventh and eighth when most of the damage was done to Corbett's face.

The sixth, ninth and tenth rounds were even, and both fighters were slugging furiously at the final bell in a closing rush that had the spectators standing or on their feet cheering.

Corbett (Ralph Giordana) considered the victory over his fellow Italian the first step in his attempted comeback as a middleweight. He weighed 160 pounds to 159 1-2 for Apostoli.

McCrigh and Thomas Share High Scoring Honors

GARNER, Feb. 23 (AP)—The Big Spring Trojans played a man-for-man defense here Tuesday evening in a clash with the Garner independent eagles but unfortunately they guarded each other more than they did the opposition and Squeaky Thompson's charges took hit a new low by dropping a 16-13 decision.

The Big Spring boys couldn't discover the exact location of their own goal when the affair opened and they got no help from the Garner quintet during the 40 minutes that it took to play the game. They were hitting somewhere around the hoop at the final whistle but it was still "no go" as far as actual scoring was concerned.

At that, the Garner quintet never got very far in its point making. So bad was the shooting on both sides that the referee threatened to bring another basketball on the courts and allow each team to take pot shots at the net.

Durwood McCrigh was tops in scoring for the Big Spring team with seven points while R. C. Thomas rolled in the same amount for the Independents.

Nation's Amateur Aces Qualify For Houston Tournament Today

By FELIX B. MCKNIGHT
HOUSTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Only 23 championship flight places awaited one of the sharpest bands of amateur golfers ever grouped together in Texas as the 15-hole qualifying round got under way today in the 54th annual Houston Country club tourney.

Par shooters were as common as highway billboards as the first threesome teed off on a course made heavy by rains that caused tournament officials to temporarily shorten the distance of one hole. A rain-swollen bayou on the par-four eighth hole cut it down to a par-three from a temporary tee.

National Amateur Champion Johnny Goodman of Omaha, Neb., readying for an invasion of England with the Yankee Walker Cup team, got top billing, but a varied assortment of champions were in the field.

Goodman on Hand
Goodman, once national open at the British amateur, had two days of practice behind him. Two trips around the course netted 75 on the par 35-35-70 course. Par was cut a stroke by the altering of the eighth hole.

Two times winner of the title, Johnny Dawson, the California amateur who long has ranked as one of the nation's best, was listed among the strong favorites with Goodman; Reynolds Smith, Texas titleist and Walker Cup player; Don Schumacher of Dallas, Trans-Mississippi champion; David (Spec) Goldman, former national amateur finalist, and Edwin McClure, handsome defending champion of Shreveport, La.

Four former Walker Cup players, including the veteran George Rotan of Houston, members of the first American amateur team were entrants. Walter Emery of Houston, runner-up for the American amateur in 1935; Ed King, and now planning a shot

White, also former national collegiate champion, and young Bobby Biegel, former Southern champion, now bidding for a comeback.

Yates, Haas Missing
Officials received last-minute messages from Charlie Yates of Atlanta and Freddie Haas, Jr., of New Orleans, members of the current cup team, that they would be unable to attend.

Texas also liked the chances of Jack Minger, Dallas' former Southern champion; rangy Harry Ford, former state titleholder; Bill Welch, winner of the South-west conference title in 1936 and '37; blond Lonnie Wendland of San Antonio, former state municipal king; Billy Bob Coffey, runner-up for the state title last year and now a student at Louisiana State university.

Mann Has Plenty Of Following, Black Is Dubious

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis weighed in at 200 pounds even today for his 15-round title bout with Nathan Mann of New Haven, Conn., in Madison Square Garden tonight. Mann scaled 183 1-2.

Louis weighed three pounds more than he did for his successful title defense against Tommy Farr last August but was six pounds under the top weight of 200 he carried into the ring against Natie Brown last February.

Mann was being examined by Dr. William Walker, New York state athletic commission physician, when Louis stepped into the room. Consequently they shook hands briefly, exchanged a perfunctory "hello" and let it go at that.

Betting odds still favored Louis at 1-to-3, and there was little prospect they would shorten before ring time, about 9 p. m., central standard time.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Anything, or practically nothing, can happen at Madison Square Garden tonight, when Joe Louis exposes his heavyweight title for a maximum of 15 rounds against Natie Mann, a rugged, resolute young fighter from Connecticut.

A good right-hand puncher, Mann might possibly lay one on the big Negro's chin and pick up the marbles. On the other hand, the betting is about 3 to 1 that the affair will run true to form, that Louis either will knock Natie kicking of sleep him up like a Virginia ham.

With the house scaled from a $15.50, prospects were for a near-sellout with gross receipts of better than $100,000.

Louis draws 'em, and 4,000 were reported en route from New Haven on special trains to watch their Mann take his cut at the championship.

It is, in some respects, one of the strangest heavyweight title bouts on record. Mike Jacobs announced the match somewhat casually a couple of months ago, but nobody appeared to take much notice until the last few days. All of a sudden it seems to have dawned that Louis actually is risking his crowns against one of the better young fighters.

"Doesn't Make Sense"
There has been little talky talky partly because of a brooding uncertainty in the minds of the fight writers. The story first went around that Louis would "loan" his championship to Mann for a time, thus relieving himself of the necessity of fighting Max Schmeling next June. But it's been denied now that that wouldn't make sense, because who is Mike Jacobs to kick a million-dollar gate out the window?

No, the best belief now is that they are going to do it dead-on the level tonight, and that if Mann does score an improbable victory he will have to do it the hard way. He looks like a pretty tough one for Louis to be taking on this close to the Schmeling engagement, but Joe's managers declare the champ insisted he didn't want a set-up.

"Honest, he told us if he couldn't lick Mann or anybody else around this country he wouldn't have any business fighting Schmeling," said Julian Black. Louis has given his same answer to anybody who asked him about it in training camp.

Mann, who is about three inches under the bomber's six feet, two inches and weighs a dozen pounds less, will carry a good record into the ring tonight. He hasn't dropped a fight in 18 months, his most notable win in that period having been a 10-round decision over Bob Pastor.

Horse Cuts Third Teeth
CALGARY, Alta. (UP)—A 30-year-old horse owned by O. E. Webber is cutting a third set of teeth and still "going strong." Webber has driven the horse to hard twice a week for the last few years and attributes the animal's longevity to "right living."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—Without Calumil—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Bare! to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this isn't flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. One ounce of your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sick, weak and the world looks gray.

A new bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these new, old Calumil Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and strong. You feel "up and up." Happiness, health, rest, and life is making his bow. Ask for Calumil before anything else.

Huge Reception In Capital Opens M'Nutt-For-President Campaign

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP) - Indiana democratic leaders, disdaining halfway measures, went into society on a grand scale today to give a "coming out" party for Paul V. McNutt, their 1940 presidential hope.

They took over a good share of the Mayflower hotel for a spectacular reception late this afternoon. Invitations went to 2,700 federal officials and other Washingtonians.

It was hinted broadly, however, that gate-crashers wouldn't be refused a chance to shake hands with the tall, white-haired high commissioner to the Philippines.

The Indiana visitors, who preceded McNutt to the capital, bustled in and out of their 35 suites, greeting acquaintances and holding impromptu conferences.

McNutt, who has held the Philippine post since he left the Indiana governor's chair last year, returned to the United States a few days ago for the expressed purpose of reporting to President Roosevelt on insular affairs.

Senator Ellender (D-La) was the marathon performer, speaking against the bill for 46 hours, including one stretch of six daily sessions.

The party lacked the presence of two of the country's most prominent democrats. President Roosevelt was in Hyde Park, N. Y., and National Chairman Farley was in Florida.

NEGRO IS CHARGED

GALVESTON, Feb. 23 (AP) - A 21-year old negro was held in jail here today charged with theft of a truckload of beer.

The suspect, Jim Charles, also was accused of robbery by assault in connection with the loss of the merchandise by G. T. Tucker, Port Arthur truck driver.

Tucker told authorities that a hitchhiker who attacked him with a tire tool took the truck and 200 cases of beer.

TWO SOVIET NAVY CHIEFS EXECUTED

MOSCOW, Feb. 23 (AP) - The secret execution of two former commanders of the Soviet navy was disclosed today in published versions of a speech by Commissar of War Klementi E. Voroshiloff.

The two were Admiral Vladimir R. Orloff, who was ousted as commander-in-chief of the Russian navy last year, and Admiral A. K. Sivkoff, who had been replaced as admiral of the Baltic fleet.

Voroshiloff, speaking last night on the eve of the Red army's 20th anniversary, named Orloff and Sivkoff in a group with the executed Marshal Mikhail Nikolaevitch Tukhachevsky and a half dozen others as "fascist bandits, traitors and spies" who have "been wiped off the face of the earth."

AUSTRIAN WORKERS BACK SCHUSCHNIGG

VIENNA, Feb. 23 (AP) - One million Austrian workers were reported today to have signed a resolution supporting Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg, who negotiated with Reichsfuehrer Hitler the Berchtesgaden pact of February 12.

One interpretation of this action was that socialist, monarchist and Jewish sympathizers were pooling forces against the nazis, whose influence was admitted to the government of the republic by the pact.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23 (AP) - James Bleasing, 28, found life in a mansion thrilling while it lasted.

There was no response when he knocked at the door of the Schwinn mansion Monday in search of a handout.

Bleasing entered - through a window. A well stocked larder helped him get through a meal quite satisfactorily.

Bleasing moaned at a police station last night. "I got stiff and really thought I was a millionaire.

So when two carpenters came to fix the window, I yelled to them to quit the racket; they were disturbing me. If I had kept my mouth shut -"

TODAY AND TOMORROW

By Walter Lippmann (Mr. Lippmann's column is published as an informational and news feature. His views are personal and are not to be construed as necessarily reflecting the editorial opinion of The Herald-Editor's Note.)

MR. BLIVEN REPLIES Mr. Bruce Bliven, the editor of "The New Republic," has written me the following letter, with the request that I publish and comment upon it.

Your article published February 12, commenting on the attitude toward foreign policy of Dr. Charles Beard, Mr. Frederick Libby and myself, seems to me a serious misstatement of our position. I am sure these two gentlemen would agree with me in welcoming most warmly friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain.

What we want to know, and have great difficulty in finding out, is just how these friendly relations are to be implemented. For instance, important men in British public life have recently suggested an agreement among the United States, Great Britain, France, the Netherlands and the U.S.S.R. for joint action against any aggressor who invades the territory of any one of them.

You argue that the intentions of the Fascist powers are not known, and that, therefore, it is unfair to ask what are our government's intentions. This sounds like an invitation to imitate the dictators. I remember, moreover, that on other occasions you have made the point that the democracies ought always to make clear in advance what they propose to do.

You charge those who hold our general point of view with believing the United States is aggressive and Japan is not. Discussion of this is made almost impossible by the fact that Japan is now waging forward a brutal war of aggression, as wicked as the modern world has ever seen.

Speaking for myself, I do not for a moment suggest that we should be indifferent to what happens throughout the world. I am in favor of doing everything for which there is a reasonable chance of success, to help the cause of justice and democracy.

BRUCE BLIVEN.

Before commenting on Mr. Bliven's letter I might say that I have no desire to misrepresent his position or that of Mr. Beard or of Mr. Libby, but it is a nuisance to see that I have misinterpreted it.

In regard to the statements in Mr. Bliven's third paragraph, I cannot agree with his suggestion that the United States or Great Britain are in any sense of the word "aggressive" in respect to Japan.

Man About Manhattan

by GEORGE TUCKER NEW YORK-It does seem at times that the theater moves in mysterious ways.

Whether feast or famine, chicken or feathers, there is always some curious circumstance that invites wonder or calls for the talents of a Hans Christian Andersen to explain.

I have in mind that cornucopia of good things that poured out of its sweetmeats a few weeks back.

Four new plays came to Broadway in one week, and all were hits. Yet one was written by an Irish school teacher who never before earned more than $10 a week.

The other night, sitting in the dusky glow of a nightclub, I was talking with Billy Rose about the why and whereof of success and failure on Broadway.

Probing the matter further, we discovered that every one of the man's major hits had been written in conjunction with Abbott.

Well, concluded Rose, "a lot of people go great with Abbott and don't do so good when they get away from him."

THREE DIE, 18 HURT IN MEXICO BLAZE

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 23 (AP)-Three men were killed and 18 persons injured by fire which swept the mining village of Maguarichio, Chihuahua State, yesterday.

Dynamite set off by the fire killed Benito and Antonio Soto, brothers, and Marcelo Casas.

Isn't moving, the actors-at least for one scene the other day-are mechanically transported.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD-First day after he announced he would sail for the West Indies in his new boat, Errol Flynn received 24 letters from fans who wanted to go along-with or without pay.

The new boat, formerly the "Avenir," is being rechristened the "Sirocco." As Flynn doubtless is aware, sirocco is the name given in Algeria to the sirocco, or "big hot wind."

Little Man In "White Banners" Claude Rains plays the role of a benevolent gentleman who gives fatherly advice to young Jackie Cooper.

A parking lot attendant button-holed me for five-minutes telling me what a terrible picture "A Damsel in Distress" was.

EMPIRE FOR A LADY

Chapter 32 CONVERSATION IN THE DARK

I had to go up there, of course. The rebellious wife was the toughest on the Palowit river, and the whole Palowit district was a nest of the worst pirates on the coast.

The Malays had found that a good vigorous development of piracy among the Dyaks made their extortion and taxation a great deal more profitable by providing the Dyaks with something worth taking.

Because that little party of Tenyaling riflemen were on government duty when attacked, a strong show of punishment was essential.

He was all wrong about this, of course. Definitely, the rajah must stay in Balingong, a guarded and supposedly mighty figure in the reserve.

When all this was done I lay down for a while in my own stuffy bunk, and tried to catch an hour's sleep.

I sat there a long time, my nerves drawing tighter every minute, which is the effect that waiting for morning always had.

She said, "I can't sleep either; there simply isn't any sleep in this night."

"Are you sure you aren't getting a fever?" I asked her. "Today I thought you looked as if you were. If you come down with one of these fevers I'm going to tear up Suman-tang."

"There's nothing the matter with me, except that I can't bear to think of your going up that river."

One of the contradictions about this girl was that while she was inflexible in her determination to carry out her father's ambitious plans, she was always terribly shaken by the actual means which had to be employed.

I said, "I don't expect any fighting. The Palowit people don't realize that they're going against white men. When they find that out they'll probably take to the jungle. I'll burn a few houses to make them more careful next time, and come home."

"They're going to fight," Christine predicted. "And in the jungle they'll have every advantage. It's only on the sea that they fear the big ships and the big guns."

"Nonsense," I said. "Those monkeys are going to make tracks that will smoke."

We sat silent, looking out toward the river. Not that we could see much out there. Presently, though after our eyes were accustomed to the setting, we began to make out the dim drift of fireflies over the Siderong.

She said, "They look like the lights of junks drifting in the ghost of some Chinese river."

She swayed to peer through the folds of the curtain, so that for a moment she leaned against me. At that touch the heart seemed to go out of me; that girl could have an effect upon me such as nobody should have on anybody else.

TEXANS PRAISED FOR HELP IN SOIL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Cooperation of land owners in adopting practices to check soil loss from dust storms in the Texas plains has won praise from the soil conservation service. "It has been about the best in the country," Gordon K. Zimmerman, of the conservation service, said following a trip to Amarillo, Tex., and Dalhart, Tex., in the plains area, on which he studied effectiveness of methods used to check wind erosion. He also commended the pursuance of conservation practices by farmers in the Texas black land belt to combat soil loss from water erosion. Zimmerman said the cooperation in the plains area was gratifying because "the need there was so acute."

"There is still wind erosion there," he said, "but the men in the regional office at Amarillo were well pleased with the way the work is showing up."
 "Rain was scanty two years ago and last year, but there is a better cover on the ground than several years ago."
 He said good results had been obtained in attempts to bind the soil to prevent wind loss by planting grain sorghum and milo broom corn and leaving the stubble to protect the ground through the winter.
 He said excellent progress had been made in the Texas black land area in reducing water erosion by strip cropping, contour planting

Formosa Hit By Chinese Air Raids

Jap Island Colony Reports Heavy Casualties

SHANGHAI, Feb. 23 (AP)—Russian-made planes flown by pilots of undisclosed nationality carried out a Chinese air raid on the Japanese island colony of Formosa today, said Chinese dispatches from Hankow.

The Chinese reports said the expedition struck with lightning speed from a height of about 15,000 feet and returned unscathed to its base.

TOKYO, Feb. 23 (AP)—Seven Chinese warplanes raided Japan's island colony of Formosa today, inflicting "numerous casualties," Domei (Japanese news agency) reported.

It was the first time since 1864, when a British-French-Dutch fleet bombarded Simonsoki, that territory of the Japanese empire had been subjected to hostile foreign bombardment. It was the empire's first air raid.

An hour before noon, the raiders swung over the Japanese air base on the outskirts of Taihoku, Formosa capital, and dropped ten bombs. A city of 276,000, Taihoku is near the northern tip of the island.

The raiders then bombarded points in Shichiku province, on the western coast of the island.

An army communique charged that the Chinese planes killed or wounded women and children at Taihoku and Shichiku City.

It said that "an obscure number" of planes appeared over the colonial capital, flying at such an altitude that anti-aircraft guns were unable to reach them. "Consequently the bombs landed far from the local airfield, hitting private houses and causing several casualties among women and children. There was no serious damage."

The communique said Shichiku City was bombed in the same manner an hour later.

(A general air alarm was sounded throughout the island, and the "all clear" signal was not given until 3:42 p. m.)

Legion Plans For Smoker

Session Slated For Thursday Evening At Country Club

All ex-service men, including those who have not been contacted personally by members of the reception committee, are urged to attend the American Legion's "smoker" at the Country Club Thursday evening.

The meeting has been called to begin in earnest the rejuvenation of the local organization and toward securing permanent quarters for the regular meetings.

Post Commander W. R. McEwen, who will be in charge of the evening functions, will call the social to order and disperse of any business that might be at hand. McEwen announced that the "get-together" was strictly a social affair and all business discussions would be cut as short as possible.

Carl Blomsheld, C. L. Rowe and J. Y. Hobb will be in charge of the entertainment and have promised a glittering array of "artiestes" while "Mess Sergeant" Grover Dunham and Cliff Wyle have given an assurance that nothing in the way of edibles will be lacking for all hungry "dough boys."

More than 100 are expected to attend the function.

The local unit will build toward a goal of 500 total membership, McEwen announced.

TO RECONSIDER DECISION ON OIL HOLDINGS

AUSTIN, Feb. 23 (AP)—Although she had indicated she did not wish to press the suit further, the supreme court today received a motion asking reconsideration of its recent decision that Mrs. L. A. Joiner had no right to property of her former husband, L. A. Joiner, discoverer of the East Texas oil field.

The motion for rehearing had been filed by her attorneys in the suit prior to another asking dismissal which was signed by herself and apparently filed by other attorneys. Because the latter had not been agreed to or waived by the attorneys who filed the motion for rehearing, the motion for rehearing was submitted to the court as a routine proceeding.

In the application to dismiss, Mrs. Joiner said she did "not wish further to prosecute" the suit.

Election Laws Are Upheld By Court

AUSTIN, Feb. 23 (AP)—The supreme court today sustained the constitutionality of two laws governing the contest of elections.

The laws, articles 2069 and 2070 of the revised civil statutes, authorize contests of elections, other than those to choose officers, to be brought by citizens in district courts.

The matter reached the supreme court on certified questions from the Eastland court of civil appeals in a case involving consolidation of the Hobbs independent school district in Fisher county and the Camp Springs common school district in Seary county.

CLIPPER DELAYED
When Perry Rows With US Agent

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 23 (AP)—Fred Perry, the English tennis star, and Raymond Ford, an internal revenue agent, staged a half-hour tax debate at Pan American airport here today and delayed the departure of the Bahaman Clipper ten minutes.

Perry was flying to Nassau for an exhibition today with Ellsworth Vines, Walter Senior and Berkeley Bell. Regulations provide that aliens earning a living in the United States must pay their income tax before leaving the country and Ford declined to grant Perry's departure permit until the rule was complied with.

Perry insisted he had paid a $3,500 income tax here last year and he would not pay the current tax until it was normally due.

After a noisy scene, which attracted a large crowd, Vines finally offered to guarantee Perry's return and to pay Perry's tax if he did not return and the departure permit was issued on that basis.

COURT RULES AGAINST JONES

MACON, Ga., Feb. 23 (AP)—Federal Judge Bascom S. Deaver ruled today Robert Tyre (Bobby) Jones Jr., Atlanta retired golf champion cannot recover $53,339.57 income taxes for 1931 and 1933.

Jones sought to recover taxes imposed on sums paid by Warner Brothers Pictures Inc. to his father, as trustee, for Bobby's work in a series of motion pictures.

The golfer and his father, Robert T. Jones, Atlanta lawyer, testified the sums were held in trust for use of the golfer's three minor children.

The elder Jones had purchased the golfer's services for the motion pictures for $1,000. Judge Deaver found that father and son had entered into a contract Nov. 13, 1930, after learning "a substantial federal income tax burden would be imposed upon the earnings from his personal services."

The golfer's father obtained $101,000 from Warner Brothers for his son's services in 1931 and $35,200 in 1933.

Lord Astor Says Small Issues Should Not Be Reason For Next War

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 23 (AP)—Great Britain's new foreign policy of conciliation with Europe's dictators is based, Viscount Astor, English statesman, believes, on the conviction of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's supporters that "small issues" should not be the cause of another World war.

Lord Astor characterized the dominant foreign sentiment in England as favoring a policy of limited commitments as opposed to the group desiring to cooperate with France and Soviet Russia "in maintaining even by war the status quo in Europe under the guise of collective security."

The majority faction, he said today, feel "that the democracies of England and the British dominions would not and should not force another war on relatively small issues."
