

British Claim Flight Over Nazi Capital

Freighter Reported Sunk; Nazi Peace Offer To Be Ignored

By DWIGHT FITKIN
LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—A night reconnaissance flight by British planes over Berlin and the sinking of a British freighter by an armed raider were marked today on the credit and debit sides of Britain's wartime ledger.

Announcing the first British flight over the German capital, the air ministry said that "successful" air reconnaissance by day and night had been carried out over Germany and that the night reconnaissance included Berlin and Potsdam. There were no other details.

The attack on the 5,051-ton British freighter, Clement, in the south Atlantic by an armed raider was announced by the ministry of information. The communiqué said the raider had not been identified, "but the correct steps are being taken."

The exact position of the sinking and what happened to the crew were not given.

Sinking of the Clement brought the total British losses since the war's start to at least 31 ships.

Announcement of the reconnaissance flight over Berlin was followed by assurance to the house of commons that any German planes which try to raid London "will get the reception they deserve."

Prime Minister Chamberlain informed commons that he would wait until tomorrow to tell members what the government thought of the Russian-German partition of Poland and of the peace gestures emanating from Berlin.

Ignore Offer
Britain strengthened herself for hostilities on the World War scale, apparently intending to ignore any Nazi-Communist peace offer.

The first official reaction to indications that Adolf Hitler would propose through a neutral power that the war be called off on a basis of the partition of Poland came from fiery Winston Churchill, British first lord of the admiralty.

Churchill told Britons last night "we are going on to the end."

Prime Minister Chamberlain was expected to amplify the government's stand in a message to the house of commons today on the German-Soviet Russian treaty of "friendly" relations which will give the house his fifth war review at another session tomorrow.

But no further statement from his war cabinet was expected before the British government learns the details of Hitler's plan.

Meanwhile, King George's first proclamation under the armed truce act approved by parliament at the outbreak of war, raised Britain's men called to the colors almost to a potential 500,000.

An information ministry communiqué told of a dogfight yesterday over Germany's Siegfried line between five Royal Airforce planes and 15 German air fighters.

It acknowledged that three British warplanes were shot down but said eight of the 12 men in the British crews were observed escaping by parachute.

It said two German planes were shot down.

The nation heard its red-haired admiralty chief broadcast in a voice that burned with defiance.

"It was for Hitler to say when the war would begin," Churchill said.

Dance Team To Appear Here

Enroute to New York for a series of programs at the world's fair, the championship El Paso square dance team will be presented in a brief program Tuesday at the municipal auditorium.

Accompanying the dancers will be Jack McDonald, president of the Broadway of America Highway association, and L. A. Wilke, secretary-treasurer of the unit and executive secretary of the El Paso Gateway club. The trip is being made under the joint sponsorship of the two organizations to advertise the Broadway as the only snow-free, all year, great transcontinental highway in the nation.

In addition to appearing at New York, the dancers will make a two day stand in Washington.

The team, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Greggerson, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hinton McIntosh and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen, will dance in all towns along the Broadway either enroute or on the return trip.

MORE AMERICANS ARRIVE HOME

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Swedish-American liner Gripsholm arrived today with 1,188 passengers, 761 of them American citizens, after a 10-day voyage from Gothenburg, Sweden, made via the far north Atlantic to avoid war hazards.

The Italian liner Vulcania also arrived today from Trieste by way of Naples, Genoa and Lisbon, with 1,329 passengers of whom 664 were Americans.

Latvians Land In Moscow For Conferences

Agreement Would Bolster Reds' Position In Baltic Sea

By WITT HANCOCK
MOSCOW, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Latvian foreign minister, William Munters and two secretaries of the Latvian foreign trade commission landed at the Moscow airport at 10:30 p. m. today.

BERLIN, Oct. 2 (AP)—German news agency reports from Rannas today said Foreign Minister Juozas Urbys of Lithuania would follow the ministers of Estonia and Latvia to Moscow for conferences on the changing Baltic line-up.

Urbys is expected to depart tomorrow.

(Estonia signed a pact with Russia September 28 handing over vital military privileges to the Soviet Union. The Latvian foreign minister went to Moscow today.)

5:15 p. m. (8:15 a. m. CST) today. They were met by foreign office officials and the staff of the Latvian legation.

The Latvian legation said merely that Munters was coming "to clear up the situation created in the Baltic by Soviet-German and Soviet-Estonian pacts."

Latvia, which has excellent harbors—some of which are fortified—on the Gulf of Riga and on the Baltic, provides a natural trade outlet for Russian shipments to the west.

An agreement with Latvia similar to the one Russia made with Estonia would strengthen the Soviet position in the Baltic.

Unofficial reports from abroad said that Russia had shifted 20 divisions of troops from the Estonian border to the Latvian frontier, but there was no confirmation here.

Turns To Southeast
Announcement of the Latvian minister's impending visit was coupled with indications that Russia is seeking to bolster her position in the southeast by formulating a plan to keep the Balkans neutral under the leadership of the Kremlin.

Presentation of this plan, in former quarters expected, would Rumania for return of Bessarabia, the rich oil region Russia lost after the war.

Rev. Garnett Resigns Post

Rev. W. S. Garnett, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist church, Sunday submitted his resignation to his congregation after five years in the pastorate here.

In resigning his place, Rev. Garnett said that he planned to rest for about a year and that he hoped to remain in Big Spring during the time.

His resignation, he said, would become effective as of Nov. 1. Rev. Garnett came to Big Spring from Stanton five years ago. Other pastorate he has held include those at the First Baptist church in Midland and at Magnolia Park Baptist church in Houston.

In addition to his duties as pastor of the church here, Rev. Garnett has been active in denominational affairs, particularly in district and associational work.

Burglary Charge

Jack Copeland, arrested by city officers last week and transferred to the county for action, was charged with burglary Monday.

Copeland, who police picked up on a prowling complaint, asked for an examining trial, declaring that he was not attempting to enter a house, rather he was seeking to get a pair of shoes to replace boots which he claimed had been stolen.

Justice of Peace J. H. Hefley indicated that an examining trial would be held in the next day or two.

Russia Speeds The Communization Of Poland

(Editor's Note: The first foreign correspondent ever given an inside view of the Red army on the march, Melvin K. White, leader of the Berlin bureau of the Associated Press, tells here how Soviet Russia is taking over Eastern Poland.)

By Melvin K. Whiteleather
BREST-LITOVSK, Russia, Oct. 2 (AP)—Soviet Russia is communizing eastern Poland as fast as the Red army advances into the partitioned Polish state.

Supported by truck loads of communist literature and large quantities of Joseph Stalin, communism is being brought nearer central Europe.

Borah Says Embargo Repeal Would Involve U. S. In War

Debate Opened On Neutrality Act Revision

Sen. Pittman Assests Present Law Favors Nazi Germany

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Senator Borah (D-Idaho) asserted today that if congress lifted the arms embargo to Europe's warring nations, he did not "see how" the United States could refuse to send armies to help the allies "in their hour of greater need."

The veteran Idaho senator took the senate floor to voice the views of the opposition to the administration's neutrality bill to repeal the arms embargo after Senator Pittman (D-Nev) had asserted that retention of the present law's embargo was "a discrimination in favor of Germany."

Pittman, chairman of the foreign relations committee, was the first speaker in the momentous neutrality discussion.

Reading a lengthy prepared address, Borah charged that the administration bill to revise the neutrality law had been accepted in Europe as an attempt to aid Great Britain and France in their struggle with nazism.

Repeal of the embargo, he contended, would be likely to put this country in the position where it could not deny further help to the democracies.

"Can we," he demanded, "under the program we are now adopting and the reasons for adopting the same, stay off the battlefields of Europe with our young men?"

"Having changed our laws and our policies that we may, as openly and repeatedly declared, send our arms because of their urgent

WAR INCREASES UNEMPLOYMENT

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The European war has increased Great Britain's unemployment problem.

Unemployment increased 69,236 from Aug. 14 to Sept. 11, eight days after war was declared, the labor ministry announced today. This brought the total unemployed to 1,330,928.

The decline of jobs was attributed to the curtailment of hotel services, entertainment and sports events because of the war.

Livestock Producers Turn To The Records Of Former War As Chart Of Price Trends Of The Future

CHICAGO, Oct. 2 (AP)—Livestock producers, watching market prices of their meat animals rise and fall in the wake of a new European war, today thumbed through records of a quarter century ago to make plans for farm operations in coming months.

Although government experts warned against over production and economists suggested that this war might have a far different effect on commodity prices than was experienced in 1914-18, the high prices of late World War days were recalled by every stockman old enough to remember. They called hogs "farm diamonds" in those days.

The average price of hogs now is about $2 per hundredweight below what it was at the outbreak of the World War. In July, 1914, the average was $2.70. It was up to $9 in August but back to $7.10 at the end of the year.

"Through 1915 the average ranged between $6.40 and $7.90, but by mid-1916 the rise was under way and by April, 1917, when the

French Claim Nazi Airmen Fought Off

By JOHN LLOYD
PARIS, Oct. 2 (AP)—French military reports today said French forces had consolidated their positions and removed thousands of small mines left behind by Germans on the western front.

They said the French had taken advantage of the absence of heavy fighting and that only numerous, localized encounters continued.

Unusual aerial activity marked the past few days, it was asserted, with Nazi fliers making stiffer efforts to turn back allied reconnaissance flights.

An account of a battle fought Saturday over German territory, disclosed today, said three French and five German planes were shot down.

The secretary of state read the statement to his press conference. He said this government would continue to recognize Count Jerzy Potocki as Polish ambassador to Washington, and that the American ambassador to Poland, Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, would remain near the Polish government, which has now gone to Paris.

The secretary's statement was interpreted by officials to mean also that the United States recognized the legality of the transfer of powers from former Polish President Moscicki, who resigned in Rumania after fleeing from Poland, to the new president, Wladyslaw Raczewicz, who is now in Paris.

Surprise Attack Costly To Japs

HONGKONG, Oct. 2 (AP)—Several hundred casualties were reported today in the wake of a surprise Chinese attack on Japanese guard posts along Hongkong's mainland border.

A hard rain grounded Japanese planes and resulted in comparative quiet along the front tonight.

Chinese forces were reported to outnumber the Japanese ten to one and the Japanese situation was described by observers as precarious unless reinforcements arrive from Canton or Swatow.

Disappearance Of Poland Ignored By Washington

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The United States refused today to recognize the disappearance of Poland which Secretary Hull termed "the victim of force used as an instrument of national policy."

Hull said that "mere seizure of territory does not extinguish the legal existence of a government."

"The United States, therefore, he added, continues to regard the government of Poland as in existence, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution of Poland."

The secretary of state read the statement to his press conference. He said this government would continue to recognize Count Jerzy Potocki as Polish ambassador to Washington, and that the American ambassador to Poland, Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, would remain near the Polish government, which has now gone to Paris.

The secretary's statement was interpreted by officials to mean also that the United States recognized the legality of the transfer of powers from former Polish President Moscicki, who resigned in Rumania after fleeing from Poland, to the new president, Wladyslaw Raczewicz, who is now in Paris.

Many To Bid On Water Job

With approximately 20 sets of plans out, the city expected some closing figuring when bids are opened Tuesday at 3 p. m. on work to be done under the amendatory applications.

J. K. Alewine, resident engineer for Fresse and Nichols, city engineers for the waterworks improvement project, said that a score of contractors had requested plans with the view of submitting bids.

Included in the letting will be such items as a 1,000,000 gallon reservoir in the southern part of the town, covers for this reservoir and two existing ones in the city park area, moving water mains from Gregg to Lancaster street, installing a master gate meter from the well supply south of town, and other work pertinent to the project.

In addition, a portion of the $46,000 set aside to give the waterworks project "complete usefulness," a small sum will be used to care for overrun on the original project and the balance for erecting a caretaker's cottage at the Moss Creek lake.

Hull Too Busy To Celebrate His 68th Birthday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull, engrossed in one of the most strenuous periods of his career, observed his 68th birthday anniversary today. He was too busy for any celebration.

The white-haired Tennessean who has repeatedly sought to throw the weight of the United States into the scales on the side of "order under law," was dealing with a world in much of which force prevailed.

A believer in more liberal trade as a path to world peace—one of the tenets of his trade-agreements program—Hull saw trade between some great nations utterly cut off by war and other nations reorientating their whole commerce for the struggle.

War has brought a vast amount of work to the gentleman from Tennessee, who already has spent 30 years in the service of the United States—22 years in the house of representatives, two in the senate, and six as secretary of state.

MEXICAN MINERS KILLED IN BLAST

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2 (AP)—The national mining union today reported 99 miners were killed and two injured in a coal mine explosion near Pals, Coahuila state, yesterday.

An accumulation of gas was blamed for the blast.

The mine was operated as a cooperative by the workers.

Green Asserts AFL For Arms Ban Revision

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 2 (AP)—President William Green declared today the American Federation of Labor was willing to support President Roosevelt's plan for repeal of the arms embargo if such action would not involve the United States in war.

In his keynote address to the federation's 59th convention, the veteran AFL leader reminded delegates of President Roosevelt's message to the special session of congress recommending repeal of the arms embargo to safeguard the peace of this nation.

"We are willing to accept his word and give him support in his legislative program," Green said, "with the understanding that it is for the purpose of keeping us out of the European war."

Green warned that United States involvement would mean "labor will be regimented" and "labor's gains will be wiped out overnight."

The convention opened amid forecasts of stormy debates on such issues as labor peace, threatened suspension of two of its oldest unions, and a proposal that the United States offer to bring about peace in Europe.

The executive council, in its annual report issued on the eve of the convention, made the whole topic of war and neutrality a definite subject for convention action by advocating the role of an international peacemaker for this nation.

The council report contained strong criticism of totalitarian governments.

The administration was urged to follow a "judicious policy" on neutrality to avoid involvement in war.

R-Bar Dinner Tickets Sold

Reservations for 70 people had been made to noon Monday as members of the good will and trade extension committee of the chamber of commerce launched a ticket sale for the R-Bar neighborhood dinner Thursday evening.

Several of the writers had not reported reservations and Pat Kinney, chairman of the drive unit, was confident that reservations would number more than 100.

T. J. A. Robinson easily outstripped the field in the drive, reporting 19 pairs of reservations, or tickets for 38 people.

Cliff Wiley, program committee chairman, said that a portion of the program had been arranged and that the full schedule would be announced Tuesday.

Making reservations (for a pair of tickets unless otherwise indicated) were F. M. Bomar, Byron Moore, Charles Landers, L. M. Brooks, Pat Kinney, Alfred R. Collins, J. E. Collins, Cliff Wiley, C. Y. Ciano Parley With Hitler A Short One

Italy, Nazis Said To Be In Complete Agreement On Future Moves

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
BERLIN, Oct. 2 (AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler today said to his ally, Premier Mussolini, what he said were the three main points of his conversations with Il Duce's son-in-law, Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano.

These points were given authoritatively as:
1. The possibilities of the future in Europe, including Italy's share in what will or may happen.
2. Germany's conception of various spheres of interest in eastern Europe.
3. The possibilities of giving effect to the German thesis that the European war should be ended now.

These sources intimated further that Hitler, in his speech before the reichstag some time this week, would give the world Germany's conception of the peace possibilities.

Count Ciano left Berlin today for Rome concluding the first conversations between the Rome-Berlin axis partners since the outbreak of war.

Although there was no official comment on the result of Ciano's conversations with Fuesher Hitler and German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, the speed with which they were concluded indicated to observers that both countries were in complete agreement on future moves.

Ciano arrived here only last evening.

Italian circles said the hoped-for conversations had resulted in full clarification of questions arising from the present European situation, especially the new relations between Germany and Soviet Russia.

Some observers saw in Ciano's visit new reason for believing that Premier Mussolini may assume the role of mediator in a "final peace offensive" by the reich.

Ciano left Berlin by train at 12:02 p. m. (G. M. T. C. S. T.).

Observers speculating on Mussolini's possible assumption of the role of mediator noted that semi-official comment in Berlin stressed the "European mission" of Il Duce.

RICE, ARKANSAS AND HORNED FROGS SEEK TO REESTABLISH GRID REPUTATIONS

PURPLE, HOGS OPEN LOOP SCHEUDLE
By FELIX B. MCKNIGHT
DALLAS, Oct. 2 (AP)—The groggy Southwest Conference came off the floor at the count of nine today, still seeing double after a weekend battering that dropped three of its proudest battlers. Flattened were Rice Institute, Arkansas and Texas Christian, but the Texas Aggies, Texas and Baylor were still swinging and mapping strategy for a little avenging along the intersectional front next weekend.

While their brethren are out visiting, Texas Christian and Arkansas open the conference race at Fayetteville—a game the experts were saying only a couple of days ago belonged to Arkansas but now is just a big question mark.

Defeated, 6-2, by U. C. L. A., the Christians, nevertheless, looked better in defeat than the Arkansas, three-touchdown losers to a Mississippi State team that had been gifted with two touchdowns by the handicappers before game time.

The Christians, their Jack Odle's passing hampered by a wet ball, ran rings around U. C. L. A., but gave out of steam inside the ten-yard stripe twice and brought away nothing but a decisive victory in statistics. Arkansas, figured to be a strong title contender, showed nothing startling against Mississippi State in absorbing a 19-0 licking.

The "something" that seems to afflict Rice Institute's clubs apparently is still around. Almost unanimous choices to win the flag, the Owls, despite some yeoman work by Ernie Linn and Olie Cordill, spilled a 12-0 lead over a badly crippled Vanderbilt team and lost 13-12, in the last four minutes.

Yanx' Hurling Corps Said To Be Ailing

Gomez's Side Bothers Him; Pearson May Go In Second Game
By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—The limb started to creak under the weight of the "experts" over the weekend, with indications that the Yankees' 'best balanced' pitching staff had suddenly become completely lopsided.

A couple of kinks, one in Red Ruffing's trusty right arm, the other in Lefty Gomez's side, suddenly turned all the world series analyses into a considerably battered set of humpy dumplings, although things grew somewhat righted with the latest communications from the Yankee stadium battleground.

Bovines To Odessa Friday

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

Winsett Nance, the rugged tackle who figured largely in Pat Murphy's grid plans for the year, has checked in his suit for the time being. His eyes, which have troubled him some time, caused his withdrawal.

Winsett underwent a medical examination soon after the season opened and thought at first he would be able to play. Murphy rigged up a special helmet which made it possible for some time, caused his withdrawal.

His withdrawal cramps the mentor's plans for the conference schedule and with Odessa looming just ahead the outlook is definitely shady. To fill Nance's place,

Broncs Rated As No. One Team Of District

The Big Spring Steers open their District 3-AA football conference schedule Friday evening in Odessa, renewing relations with that team after a lapse of several seasons.

The Odessians, playing their second season under Joe Coleman, now loom as the standout team in the circuit, having scored three successive wins, the latest an impressive 18-6 victory over Austin High of El Paso, a team that defeated them, 39-0, last fall.

The local tutor, Pat Murphy, scouted the Broncs in their Saturday evening triumph. His charges are expected to be dispatched through a strenuous scrimmage the early part of the week.

The Yearling gridder's football game with the Colorado City Juniors will be played under the lights at Highland Park field Thursday night. Coach Howard Schwarzenbach has announced.

Breckenridge, Tyler Loom As Top 11's

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff
The championship campaign will be in full bloom along the Texas schoolboy gridiron trail this week.

Interdistrict games last week established leaders in each section but the 21 conference tilts on the schedule this weekend will serve to bring forward favorites in the district races.

As the teams hitched up their belts for October's grueling drive, these teams stood out in the state on the bases of a month's play:

West Texas—Giddens, Amarillo and Breckenridge.
North Texas—Gainesville, Masonic Home and Woodrow Wilson.
Central Texas—Corsicana and Waco.

East Texas—Tyler and Lufkin.
South Texas—Austin, Breckenridge (San Antonio) and Austin (Houston).
Gulf Coast area—Corpus Christi, Port Arthur, Kingsville and Robstown.

Thirty teams are unbeaten and untied and five have been tied but have not met defeat.

Tyler's Lions meet inscored on Kilgore, Breckenridge tangles with Stephenville, Conroe plays Austin (Houston) and Edinburg takes on Kingsville, all conference games except the latter.

There also are 21 interdistrict tilts scheduled, headlined by the clash between Amarillo and undefeated Breckenridge.

Breckenridge's battering Buckaroos and the air-minded Tyler Lions drew most of the comment. These teams bid fair to set some kind of scoring record if they maintain their present standards. Each has run up over 100 points, Breckenridge in two games and Tyler in three.

Besides those previously mentioned the unbeaten, untied teams include: Electra, Midland, Odessa, San Angelo, Sweetwater, El Paso High, Gainesville, Paris, Masonic Home, Forest (Dallas), North Dallas, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Corsicana, Livingston, South Park (Beaumont), Kerrville, Austin, Brownsville, Harlingen, McAllen and Robstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tate attended the Norman, Okla., game and Mrs. Tate is remaining in Ardmore to visit there for the week.

Pat will alternate Clifton Patton and McWade McDaniell at the post. Patton, a 188-pound junior, has been showing to the best advantage to date. The other tackle slot is being held down by Douglass Pyle.

Vols Need But One Win Over Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Oct. 2 (AP)—Nashville's Vols, with three wins to their credit, came to Texas today hoping to annex a fourth and thus clinch the Dixie series at the expense of Fort Worth.

The Tennesseans trounced the Texas leaguers at Nashville yesterday, 7 to 3, to make the series 3-2. Both clubs left by train immediately after the game.

Tonight's battle was expected to be largely a pitching duel between ace George Jeffcoat and Fred Marberry, veteran Cat hurler. Each has won a game in the current series.

The Vols' lawyer-pitcher, solemn Sam Nahem from Brooklyn, was credited with yesterday's victory, holding the Texans scoreless until the sixth inning when Chatham's grounder paved the way for two markers.

MISS LANE'S NOTES

Inomnia, some folks say, is a curse to the owners and a disease to be avoided, feared, and overcome. But looking at the situation from another point of view, there are a lot of advantages.

When the clock has struck one, two, or three and the sleepless one is lying in bed with wide open eyes and an active mind, the thing to do is to get up and prow about.

Drop in an all night "eatery" and you are sure to find some fellow sufferers and symptoms, cures, and various tips can be discussed. By the time you have heard of the man who hasn't slept for two weeks straight, you can go back to bed and be happy with your own case.

And if you are unwilling to get up and dress, you can get up and read. Take some book you have always been meaning to read but never have had time. Or maybe you need to answer some baying letters. This is bound to make you sleepy.

However, there is one thing that is a quick stop to sleeplessness that came into our possession at school. It's an economics book that is a three page maximum to closed eyes. For fear of prosecution we withhold the name of the book but it has been known to put whole groups to sleep at eight o'clock classes.

The next time you have counted sheep so long that they make faces at you as they jump the fence, just relax—there are a lot of things you can get done while everyone sleeps.

WOOL WITHOUT WEIGHT IS NEWS

The news in 1940 wools is warmth without weight. These New Yorkers wear fall frocks whose sheer crepe weaves reflect it. At left is one of the new shirt-and-skirt frocks (noteworthy in sportswear clothes) combining a gray-green shirt with a deeper green skirt whose flap pocket buttons. Dark olive green belt and buttons spike it. Taupe brown wool makes the frock at the right, whose full skirt hangs in unpressed pleats and whose bodice is buttoned with gold globes.

Echoes, Sidelights On The War

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Danish government today instructed its minister in London to protest that a foreign airplane flew over the islands of Falster and Lolland, near the German frontier, last night and dropped leaflets whose text indicated they were of British origin.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—Apparently reflecting war department efforts to "sterilize" the army, officers have been retired recently as physically unfit at the rate of about one a day.

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The British government advised the house of commons today that sportsmen might be asked to make sacrifices to aid wartime economy. Agriculture Minister Dorman Smith said the government was considering whether to restrict fox hunting and was consulting county war committees on the advisability of putting sheep to graze on golf courses.

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Oct. 2 (AP)—Ignace Jan Paderewski, famous pianist and former premier of Poland now living here, sent his secretary to Paris today with a letter giving his support to the new Polish government.

ROME, Oct. 2 (AP)—Italian and foreign diplomats expressed a growing concern today that Italy might be forced into the European war if Britain and France turned down a peace offer by Adolf Hitler. Officials were silent on Foreign Minister Count Ciano's visit to Berlin, but many Italians said they thought Hitler was asking Italy to present a peace proposal to the fuhrer—and be ready to enter the war in the event of its rejection. Newspapers indicated such an offer might include a proposal to create a new Poland, much smaller than the old one, and with a government similar to Slovakia's.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 2 (AP)—The Swedish steamer Gunad, 1,198 tons, was torpedoed today off Hantsholm, Jutland, and her crew of 18 rescued. The vessel, built in 1891, was bound for Antwerp. Her home port was Gothenburg.

OSLO, Oct. 2 (AP)—The master of the sunken Norwegian freighter or Solnas said today he believed the ship was the victim of a new torpedo technique. He said no explosion was heard in what he described as a new-style torpedoing of the Solnas last Thursday. "The Solnas was stopped in high seas, preventing the Germans from coming aboard," he said. "Five engines heard a hissing sound, then felt a bump. The submarine disappeared and five minutes later the Solnas began sinking from holes in the engine room and bunk room, indicating that a new device penetrated the ship's hull without an explosion."

LONDON, Oct. 2 (AP)—A catchy ditty—"We're Going to Hang Out the Washing on the Siegfried Line"—is being plugged in London night clubs and vaudeville as a successor to the World War song, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

With the tune reminiscent of "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag," the words of the chorus go like this: "We're going to hang out the washing on the Siegfried Line, 'Have you any dirty washing, Mother dear—' 'We're going to hang out the washing on the Siegfried Line. 'Course the washing day is here. 'Whether the weather may be wet or fine, 'We'll just rub along with a care. 'We're going to hang out the washing on the Siegfried Line. 'If the Siegfried Line's still there.' The song was written by Michael Carr and Jimmy Kennedy, both of Irish extraction.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 2 (AP)—Kálmán Hübny, "Little Fuehrer" of Hungary's Nazis, writing today in Virradat (Dawn), demanded that the government remove all restrictions on his party and restore it to full rights. The article by Hübny, who Saturday challenged Baron Laszlo Vay, government party leader, to a duel over political issues, appeared with a photograph of Adolf Hitler and quotations from the German Fuehrer's speeches.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 2 (AP)—Once proud Field Marshal Edward Smigly-Rydz, commander of Poland's vanquished legions, was described by refugees today as a broken exile, shunned by fellow officers who coldly regard him as a general who deserted his doomed but fighting army. The field marshal, along with a number of other Polish officers, is interned at a Craiova hotel. Germany was reported, at the same time, to have protested to Rumania because Refugee President Ignace Moscicki of Poland was allowed to resign and name a successor while on Rumanian soil. Moscicki resigned Saturday and named Wladislaw Raczkiewicz, who is in Paris, as his successor. He had been kept in "limited" domicile but left for Paris after resigning.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

There's more blood on Europe's harvest moon.

We are rapidly nearing the end of the astonishing phase of comparatively inactivity in the war between Hitler and the Anglo-French allies, and the immediate future should see the lid begin to rock.

The Nazi chieftain has been holding his hands in hopes of getting peace as soon as he had crushed Poland.

The sparring will finish when he officially recognizes (what he already knows) that there are no buyers for peace at his price.

Once that prospect is written off the books it is likely that the "complete war"—wholesale bombings and intensified submarine activity—which the Nazis have been threatening will get under way.

Hitler is persisting right up to the eleventh hour in his efforts to end the war to his own satisfaction. This is due to two reasons:

1. He frankly wants to avoid a major war with the English and French.

2. He wants to register with world-opinion the claim that he is a man of peace and that the Anglo-French allies are the aggressors. The corollary to this is that if he is driven to desperation, he will be justified in using desperate means for defense.

The belief that Signor Mussolini might be called in to act as Herr Hitler's peace salesman was further strengthened by the visit of Italian Foreign Minister Ciano to Hitler in Berlin over the weekend.

Meantime, of course, the Nazis are holding over the allied heads the threat that Russia may join Germany in the war unless the allies agree to peace.

England last night gave a sweeping answer to Hitler through its master manipulator of words, the great Winston Churchill, recently appointed first lord of the admiralty.

"We are going on to the end," declared Churchill in a broadcast. How long will it take England to win? Well, says Churchill, that depends on "how long Herr Hitler and his group of wicked men, whose hands are soiled with blood and corruption, can keep their grip upon the docile, unhappy German people."

That colorful sentence summed up one of Britain's chief aims—to cause a revolt among the people of Germany.

Whatever Russia may do about lending military support to Germany, Soviet Leader Stalin continues to pull prime feathers out of the Nazi goose.

The Muscovites today summoned Latvia's foreign minister for a conference. Informed quarters said the purpose was to negotiate a "non-aggression" pact giving Russia military and naval concessions similar to those she obtained from little Estonia.

This would further strengthen Russia's position in the Baltic. Thus Hitler sees an important source of influence slipping from him.

At the same time Stalin conferred with Turkish representatives, and diplomats in Moscow believed he was formulating a plan to keep the Balkans neutral.

Informed quarters also expected Moscow would demand that Rumania return Bessarabia, the rich oil area which Russia lost to Rumania after the World war.

Gerald Mann Makes Good

As the months wear on, one of the youngest state officials continues to grow in the esteem of all political factions in Austin.

Time after time Governor O'Daniel has handed Mann tough questions such as the barber bill, the fair trade act, his "pass-the-hat" plan for paying pensions, and Mann has consistently ruled with vigor and clarity without regard for the political consequences of his act.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—War news far behind the front: Is something wrong with the Siegfried line? Military men here say that German counter attacks against the slowly-penetrating French indicate the Germans are afraid their west wall is not too stout.

Sound tactics would be to wait until the French have penetrated within perhaps two miles. By then the lighter and more effective German artillery could get at them and beat the French to soup.

Retired Marine General Smedley D. Butler shoves into Washington bound for Boston. He is winging his way over the U. S. in a series of one-night stands speaking against repeal of the arms embargo.

"General," we ask, "what's your view on this business?" "Why, bless you, boy, if a man came into your store and bought poison to kill his neighbor, you would have an interest in what he was doing.

Robbin Coons Hollywood Sights And Sounds HOLLYWOOD—Two careers in the same family: Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements.

For 13 years of marriage and literary partnership they have been one of the town's most successful and prolific teams.

Three days a week Miss Ryerson goes to the studio where she is under contract. Colin Clements stays home to write. Their home is Shadow Ranch, a acres with dogs, monkeys, birds, rabbits, flowers, fruit and trees.

They keep fairly regular working hours. Their one-act plays ("as good as $1,000 invested at 4 per cent," one of them said) are enacted in schools, little theaters, churches all over the country.

They have practically "retired" from Hollywood. Once a week, on Sunday, they have open house for friends. They don't try to mix gadding with writing.

'SEEING AMERICA FIRST'—Automobiles of tourists line the four-lane highway atop Uncle Sam's $76,000,000 Boulder dam about 25 miles southeast of Las Vegas, Nev. Proof of the popularity of the dam sights are figures for August visitors: 108,528 tourists visited Boulder dam in 29,182 cars and 216 buses during the month. Planes numbering 115 also flew over with 446 passengers.

WAITED 56 YEARS—A third meeting helped seal matrimonial intentions of W. R. Storms, 84, of Marysville, Wash., and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilks, 64, of Seattle. They first met at Newton, Mo., when he was a youthful evangelist. Both married, they met again 20 years later at Helix, Ore. Last fall they met again, a widow and widower, at Yakima, Wash. Wedding plans followed.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S PEEK-A-BOO!—Reflected in an auto's hub cap, the United States capitol is the merest shadow of its real self. Note the shrinkage in the cameraman, too.

ONLY THE BEGINNING—Here are the first of 30,000 bins being put up at Tab, Ind., for storage of government-owned surplus corn, turned over by farmers in settling 1937, 1938 corn loans.

AND WAS HE SURPRISED!—Of all the women Chauffeur John Durkin, 31, might have tried to kiss in a New York subway, he chose a dark-eyed charmer in a heavy veil. She turned out to be Frances Murphy (above), bearded sideshow artist who didn't want to be kissed. His shock and Miss Murphy's left hook helped chasten Durkin by the time a cop came.

FOXY—You can almost read the pedigree in the silver foxes used for this Dein-Bacher wrap with a detachable hood, shown in New York. The furs are mounted on concealed satin gorges; opened fan-like, alternating satin and fox show.

WEIGH-IN AT INDUSTRIAL NURSERY—Harry Dean Lyons, six months, can't understand the fuss being made over him by Mr. and Mrs. John Swisher, but he's the first baby in a newly-opened industrial nursery—believed the first such nursery in the U. S.—at a cigar-manufacturing plant in Jacksonville, Fla. Planned to benefit 2,750 men and women employees who must arrange to have their youngsters cared for in working hours, the nursery has facilities for 150 children from six months to six years of age. It'll operate on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

ROLL OUT THE BAREL—When it's meal time for "Chicoutimi," the little bruiser prefers a barrel but not for drinking purposes—except in a roundabout way. This is a typical luncheon scene at the Memphis, Tenn., home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sneed Williams, Jr., with Ceell Williams, 10, holding bottle. Ceell's father brought the pet back from a Canadian hunting trip.

SLAP-HAPPY MAXIE—Now us down, if it isn't the former world's light-heavyweight champion, "Slap" Maxie Baumbach, long since joined up with the prize-catchers in Hollywood. Maxie, a veteran of more than 100 ring battles, owned the Lord Prohibition outfit in giving a party's commencement. Maxie's not above falling off the stool when he also runs a night club.

The senator, who recently returned from a tour of Europe, has decorated his office in Washington, D. C., with posters denouncing Germany's influence. The walrus head is a trophy from a hunting trip to Alaska.

declared, "but it is not for him or his successors to say when it will end."

"It began when he wanted it and it will end only when we are convinced that he has had enough."

He told the nation that "a large army has already gone to France" and that "British armies upon the scale of the effort of the great war are in preparation."

He also made this friendly gesture to Italy: "We appreciate in England the reasons why this great and friendly nation of Italy, with whom we have never been at war, has not seen fit to enter the struggle."

Entitled Respect

Of Britain's own position, Churchill declared "we believe we are entitled to the respect and good will of the world and, particularly, of the United States."

The admiralty chief dr. 7 a parallel between the present conflict and the American Civil war, declaring that "all the heroism of the South could not redeem their cause from the stain of slavery, just as all the courage and skill, which the Germans always show in war, will not free them from the reproach of Nazism with its intolerance and brutality."

been considerable artillery and reconnoitering activity. A British plane, which apparently had penetrated some distance behind the German lines, was reported shot down east of Fadenborn on the Weser river.

The Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz, which frequently forecasts action of the German foreign office, referred to Mussolini as the herald of the people who today constitute the real peace front."

Informed quarters placed increasing emphasis on what they termed the German-Russian-Italian centre to end "this purposeless conflict."

Speculation on outcome of the conversations between Hitler and Ciano was accompanied by indications that the Fuehrer is preparing concrete proposals for presentation to the Reichstag this week.

Hitler's Volkischer Beobachter hinted at possible expansion of the Rome-Berlin axis if Nazi-communist peace overtures are rejected by Britain and France.

French

tacked by 15 German planes.

After a "long" fight, eight of the French ships returned, it was said, bringing "valuable" photographic information concerning German positions.

The French announced capture of a small number of prisoners, from whom they said valuable information on German defenses in advance of the Siegfried line was expected to be obtained.

Semi-official sources said French police had captured more than 60 Nazi villages during the first month of the war.

French guns, they said, now dominate the industrial valleys of the lower Saar, Blies and Lauter rivers.

British tonnage were reported flowing eastward. Poles throughout the world were urged to join a Polish army to fight beside the British and French. Officials said they hoped to recruit at least 200,000 volunteers from Polish ranks in the United States and Canada.

French military circles heard reports that on the western front doubled during the past month and the "axi front-line strength was estimated by Paris observers at more than 1,000,000 men."

Paris commentators expressed belief the Siegfried line reinforcements were called in more in fear of a possible large-scale French attack than in preparation for a German drive.

The regular monthly report of County Agent O. P. Griffin Monday showed that 25 4-H club boys were feeding out 34 calves as their demonstrations. In addition, 100 boys in the county were feeding out 18 with crop demonstrations.

This brought the total number of checks to 1,216 and the aggregate amount of payments to $118,098. It was estimated that approximately $28,000 is outstanding.

Livestock

United States declared war, hogs were selling close to $15. A record high of almost $22 was reached in July, 1919.

Livestock experts said the price pattern of the past month has been almost a duplicate of the 1914 market but it puzzled many farmers because much of the early war boom gain has been wiped out. Hogs last week averaged $6 and 75 cents per hundredweight. The closing top was around $7.25 compared with a peak of $9.40 on September 4. Prior to the start of German-Polish hostilities, the top was just under $7.

Last week's choice cattle top was $11.40, about 60 cents below the war boom high but $1 better than late in August. Ten dollars bought the best spring lambs, compared with $10.75 on Sept. 7.

With the return of more normal supplies of meat and more normal buying habits of consumers, wholesale prices of beef, fresh pork and lamb now have declined from 3 to 41 per cent from peak levels reached three weeks ago, according to the Institute of American Meat Packers.

be accompanied by demands upon the World War.

The Russian program, diplomatic circles said, calls for an agreement with Turkey designed to strengthen the Soviet position in the Black Sea. Moscow, they declared, seeks to prevent Turkey from reaching any agreement with France and Britain that would leave the Bosphorus open to allied warships in event of conflict with the Soviet.

The situation, it was believed, was the subject of a four-hour conference last night at the Kremlin between Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu, Russian Premier-Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov and Joseph Stalin.

British and French quarters in Moscow showed no concern over these developments of the diplomatic front. Instead, they indicated they would be pleased if the negotiations resulted in confining the war to western Europe.

Neutrality

call, will we, can we, in the hour of greater need, should that hour unfortunately come, refuse to send our armies."

"Having put our hand to the plow and declared the reason therefor when the furrows are comparatively smooth, will we turn back when we come to the roots and stumps of impending defeat?"

"I do not see how we could," doubt most seriously if we would. The only way I see that we can stay out of this war, having taken the first steps and the reasons for taking them, is for the war to end before we get there."

Borah departed from his prepared address to say:

"This law was not intended to prevent war in Europe. It was to prevent the sale of arms and ammunition to warring nations of Europe. It is the law of the land and no arms have gone to Europe."

Referring to former Gov. Alfred Smith's assertion that the "law has not worked," the Idaho senator said:

"It is working. It is preventing profits out of the sale of arms."

"How has it not worked?" he asked.

"We know," Borah said, "that the manufacturers of arms and munitions are quite active in a desire to repeal the existing law. Why? Because it is working."

Speaking as chairman of the foreign relations committee, Pittman offered the administration's neutrality bill to repeal the arms embargo as "the most important legislation that has ever been proposed to congress" and said it was designed "for the purpose of keeping us out of a European war."

Long before the Nevada senator opened debate for proponents of new neutrality legislation, crowds overflowed the senate's galleries.

"The administration bill would wipe out the present embargo against the sale of armaments to warring nations, would require belligerents to take title to goods purchased in this country before shipment and would regulate that Americans goods be carried to belligerents in non-American vessels. In addition, the president would be authorized to designate combat areas which American vessels and citizens could not enter."

"No such grave situation has threatened the world in all history as the current conflict abroad. He said these developments abroad had aroused a feeling of fear and distrust in the minds of all people," but added:

"There would seem to be, fortunately, no sufficient grounds for fear of being drawn into this war as we were forced into the World War, so long as we conform to the admitted precepts of international law and prevent our citizens from subjecting themselves to destruction in the mad war raging in Europe."

Vice President Garner warned the galleries at the start of the session against conversation, packed though they were, with spectators lining the walls.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the democratic leader, urged members to keep their discussion "on a high plane befitting the United States senate."

The Nevada senator said opponents of the legislation had contended repeal of the arms embargo would favor France and Great Britain, because they presumably would control sea commerce with the United States.

"We might put it the other way," Pittman argued, "and say that the maintenance of the embargo is a discrimination in favor of Germany, because it prevents Great Britain, which is surrounded by water, from purchasing in our market arms, ammunition and implements of war, whilst Germany, being a land power, has access to arms, ammunition and implements of war that may be manufactured in Russia, Italy, Rumania, Yugoslavia and other countries."

Pittman said he had "every confidence" in President Roosevelt's declaration that he intends to do everything possible to keep the United States out of war. Also, he said, he was confident Mr. Roosevelt would not misuse any discretionary powers granted him by neutrality legislation. In this connection, however, Pittman said many mandatory provisions had been written into the bill because authority should not be delegated "where it is unnecessary, to the president or any other single man or group of men. We know that the delegation of such authority is not only unnecessary but unwise."

Citing the proposed prohibition against transportation of goods to belligerents in American ships, Pittman contended that "if our vessels can not carry on commerce with belligerents and the belligerent powers know it, there will be little excuse, if any for the destruction of American vessels on the high seas with the inevitable loss of our seamen."

Pittman deviated from his prepared speech several times, once to criticize "some thoughtless persons" who, he said, "are saying that Woodrow Wilson led us into war and that Franklin Roosevelt is leading us into war."

Asserting that it was the loss of lives of American seamen, and not destruction of American ships that caused the United States to go to war in 1917, Pittman declared:

"Yet we bear men in high places charging today that Woodrow Wilson led us into the war. It was the country that took the Congress of the United States into that war."

Borah was one of the leaders 20 years ago in the historic fight against American entrance into the league of nations.

MARKETS

Wall Street

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—Stock market prices backtracked today in the latest full day's session in more than a month.

Leaders dropped fractions to around 3 points at their worst but finished above their lows. After a fairly brisk start, at which the trend was lower, volume dwindled. Transfers approximated 800,000 shares.

The advance in the steel operating rate to 87.5 per cent of capacity from 82.5 was about in line with expectations.

In the meantime the American Iron and Steel Institute reported August payrolls in the industry were the highest for any month in nearly two years. September figures were expected to show a continuation of the upward trend.

Preliminary estimates of rail road freight loadings for last week indicated the nation's carriers did some of the best hauling for many months.

Indicted For Perjury

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)— Fraser S. Gardner, a Washington "political researcher," was indicted by the district court grand jury today for perjury before the house committee investigating un-American activities.

The indictment charged that Gardner, who had applied for an investigative job with the committee, told it, under oath that he had had no connection with William Dudley Pelley, or the Silver Shirts organization Pelley heads.

Gardner "well knew" that such testimony was "false and untrue," the jury charged.

CANTOR IN PULPIT

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 2 (AP)— Stepping out of character as an enterpriser, Eddie Cantor took the pulpit of a Baptist church last night to make a plea for the preservation of Christianity and democracy. Referring to the arrest of clergymen in German, he remarked: "You can't keep God in a concentration camp."

WAR BULLETIN

There was dancing in Berlin Saturday night for the first time since the war began, probably because of our army's showing against Furman.

They say Northwestern is beginning to get a little jittery about Ohio State. Also that Oklahoma may sneak up on Lynn Waldorf in Saturday's opener just like U. C. L. A. did against Texas Christian.... (Oklahoma learned more about football in that Orange Bowl game with Tennessee than in its ten previous starts)... Them old cow hands from the Rio Grande are pouring into the garden for the rodeo.... Eighth Avenue has gone wild west.... Yip, yip!

Tip: Don't sell the Texas Aggies short.

FOUR STARS TO—

Clemson for holding Tulane, U. C. L. A. for beating Texas Christian, Purdue for scaring the wit out of Notre Dame, Mississippi for beating Louisiana State and Vandy for upsetting Rice.... Another coach who rates a bow is Ray Wolf of North Carolina, who made the touted Wake Forest team look like a bunch of prep schoolers.

Nation's Football Leaders Launch Intersectional Program This Week

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (AP)—With one eye on the box office and the other on the mythical national championship, the nation's leading football teams launch an impressive intersectional program this week which may be of benefit both ways.

Already off to a good start with such impressive results as Pittsburgh's 27-6 victory over Washington, Minnesota's 62-0 rout of Arizona, Mississippi State's 19-0 triumph over Arkansas, the 36-0 beating Missouri handed Colorado and Vanderbilt's 13-12 upset of Rice last Saturday, the intersectional warfare is under way.

East. Although they won by aerial gymnastics, Pitt's Panthers already have shown they're among the best in the east. West Virginia, despite a 44-0 win over West Virginia Wesleyan, hardly figures to stop Pitt this week.

Holy Cross, which trimmed Manhattan, 28-0, faces Louisiana State, 14-7 victim of Mississippi. Fordham, after trimming Wayneburg, 34-7, faces Alabama, 21-0 victor over little Howard, Army, which had trouble stopping Furman 16-7, faces easier southern opposition in Centre while Navy tackles Virginia's good team after trimming William and Mary 31-6.

Tech Plays Temple The leading all-eastern pairing is Carnegie Tech against Temple, which dropped a 3-2 decision to Georgetown Friday. The "ivy league" barely gets under way with Columbia-Yale and Syracuse-Cornell in its leading games.

Midwest: Minnesota showed that it has all kinds of power to toss into the Big Ten campaign but is due to get a real test against Nebraska, which fought Indiana to a 7-7 tie, Notre Dame, whose hard-won 3-0 triumph over Purdue showed the Irish are in the forefront, faces untested Georgia Tech.

Ohio State opens against Missouri. Northwestern starts off with Oklahoma's Sooners, who were disappointed by their 7-7 tie with Southern Methodist. Michigan opens against Michigan State.

Indiana and Iowa start the Big Ten title race at Iowa City while Iowa State and Kansas, a pair of losers, meet in the first Big Six tussle. Wisconsin, which edged out Marquette 14-13, plays an intersectional game against Texas, 12-0 winner over Florida.

South: Duke's Blue Devils, Rose Bowl losers last January, open against Colgate, which dropped a 7-6 decision to New York University. The Blue Devils whipped Davidson, Southern Conference rival, 28-4 last week. North Carolina, Southern Conference leader after a 36-6 triumph over Wake Forest, should make it three straight against Virginia Tech. Other conference games are Clemson-North Carolina State, Richmond-Washington and Lee and V.M.I.-Davidson.

Vandy Active The Southeastern Conference also gets down to business, with Vanderbilt, whose passes beat Rice in the last 4 1-2 minutes, facing Kentucky, 21-0 winner over V.M.I. US May Abandon 'Little America,' And Claim Other Antarctic Area

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (AP)—The United States may abandon "Little America" in the Antarctic to British claims and take title instead to territory lying further east.

Officials of the forthcoming government expedition to the South Pole disclosed this possibility today when they removed their headquarters from Washington to Boston. There they will complete preparations for the trip.

The party will embark from the Boston navy yard in November. Although the flagship North Star, under command of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, will proceed directly to the explorer's old base at Little America, a permanent camp may be established east of this British-claimed territory, the officials said, between 70 degrees and 150 degrees west longitude.

That would put the American flag over an area never before claimed by any nation, they explained, and would avoid possible conflict with rival British operations.

In authorizing the expedition, congress anticipated staking a claim for the United States based on discoveries by the second Byrd exploration in 1933-35 and on South Pole data obtained by Lincoln Ellsworth.

A definitely defined American possession at the South Pole, experts say, would make possible accurate weather information for aviation and naval operations in the south Pacific. This would be of value to the United States in event of a war and would make possible weather forecasts for the new airmail service between the United States, Australia and New Zealand.
