MODERN OVEN-CLEANING OPTIONS

Today's consumer has three oven-cleaning options to choose from.

These options include the standard porcelain-enamel oven, the self-cleaning oven and the continuous-cleaning oven.

Actually, each type is a porcelain-enamel oven but differences involve performance as well as required use and care.

Standard Oven

The standard oven uses a conventional porcelain-enamel finish.

There is only one way to clean this type of oven—manually using a homemade or commercial oven cleaner.

Self-Cleaning Oven

With the self-cleaning oven, a separate cleaning cycle is used.

The door is locked and controls set to permit the oven to heat to temperatures around 900 degrees F.

In the two to three hour cleaning cycle, food splatters and spills are oxidized or burned off with only a small amount of white or gray ash remaining.

After the one to two hour cool-down period, unlock the door and wipe up ash residue leaving a spotless clean oven.

Continuous-Cleaning Oven

With the continuous-cleaning oven system, oven soil is gradually reduced to a "presentably clean" condition through the specially treated surface activated during normal baking or roasting procedures.

This clean-while-you-bake system works most efficiently at high temperatures (475 degrees F. and above) and for longer periods of time.

Heavy spillovers usually need additional attention after the oven cools usually soaking and/or light scrubbing according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Purchase Cost

The purchase cost of the self-cleaning oven is higher than the standard porcelain-enamel or continuous-cleaning oven.

However, with more insulation, the self-cleaning oven is more energy efficient during normal baking and roasting.

These ovens use three to four kilowatt hours of electricity per cleaning, so the oven cleaning cost averages about 15 cents depending on local rates.

By comparison, cleaning the conventional oven often requires 75 cents worth of commercial oven cleaner for each manual cleaning.

Consumer Expectations

If the consumer selects the standard porcelain-enamel oven, she can expect to clean it manually.

If she selects the next costlier continuous-cleaning model, she can expect it to maintain a "presentable clean" appearance with occasional supplementary "light" manual cleaning.

If she selects the self-cleaning system, the consumer can expect a higher initial purchase cost—offset over the life of the range by higher operating efficiency, lower cleaning costs for fully automated cleaning.

Thursday Review Club Meeting

Texas Heritage and the beauty it offers through our National Parks was the theme at the meeting held Thursday night at the home of Marianna McGaughey.

In so much as National Parks give Texans so much pride in the beauty and grandeur of the state, a lecture on the Guadalupe Mountains National Park and Chamizal National Memorial was presented by Kathleen Cross.

With Texas Heritage, being the central theme, the program concluded with a poem describing all that Texas has to offer, entitled "Texas Welcome," presented by Jo Bedowitz. Berniece all then read the story, "Legend of the Blue Bonnet" by Mary Daggett Lake.

Club members are in the process of assembling a "Kitchen Privilege Kit" to be sent to M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. Work on this kit will continue for several months.

Marianna McGaughey served as hostess for the 14 members present. Gwen Gornett and Linda Allen were welcomed as guests at the meeting.

Other members in attendance were Jo Bedowitz, Kathleen Cross, Paula Britt, Linda Daughtry, Berniece Hall, Kathy Hill, Noveline Loyd, Mickey Porter, Karen Puryear, Jane Reeder, Ruth Rogers, Vivian Jones and Donna Walser.

I was very happy to be asked by Representative Bob Simpson to Co-sponsor HB 880 that would exempt the Opportunity Plan Inc. from Ad Valorem Taxation. This is a non-profit corporation located campus in Canyon. It has loaned millions of dollars to worthy Panhandle students who attend colleges and universities throughout the state. For many years the students receiving these loans were primarily students of West Texas State University. It is my understanding they now make loans to students attending other colleges and universities.

Mr. Milton Morris of Canyon if the founder and great sponsor of this fine program. Both the Federal Government and the State of Texas would do well to consult Mr. Morris on how he has had such a phenomenal record of collection on these loans. The loss ration has been less than two percent. I'm sure you have read where the loses of the Federal Government Educational Loan Program have run into the hundreds of millions. Loses by the state of Texas on student loans have been in the tens of millions. At the present time the State of Texas in cooperation with the local school districts picks up the $1,500.00 annual tab it cost to send each student to grade and high school. I feel the state has a real responsible here. We need the best without waste at this level. In addition the States picks up a $2,500.00 tab per year for each of the college and university students. This represents about half of the $5,000.00 annual cost of sending one student to a college or university. It is a well established and documented fact that college and university graduates will increase their life time earnings in the hundreds of thousands of dollars by gaining a degree. I feel a hard look should be taken on all loans and outright grants to students in higher education. Visitors in our office this week from District 66 included the following from Quitaque: Phil Barefield, Monti Stephens, David Brunson, Bruce Patrick, Warren Merrell and O. R. Stark, Jr. Other visitors included Floydada residents Alton Higginbotham and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pitts; Pampa residents Jack Osborne and Raymond Maddox.

The committee on Government Organization, of which I am a member, heard testimony this week on the reestablishment of its first government agency. We heard five hours of testimony on one bill that would reestablish the state bar.

This committee was created to handle all the Sunset Legislation. During the 65th Legislature, a law was passed that would cause every state agency to expire at a predetermined time. If new legislation is not passed to activate these agencies they will expire when the sun goes down up in their Prayers, to Bro's M. B. Smith, Ernest McGaughey and Jerry Hogan for their spiritual help, the consolation they brought us. Those who rendered the beautiful music and singing. For the beautiful floral offering. For the memorials, cards, tele-

Mail Service to Iran Suspended

Suspension of civilian mail service to Iran has been extended to cover surface mail, the U. S. Postal Service announced today. The effect is to eliminate all civilian mail service between Iran and the United States.

Airmail service to Iran was suspended January 9, 1979.

Postal officials said the latest action was taken because of the lack of reliable air and surface transportation either in or out of that country.

The suspension means no U. S. post office will accept civil mail bound for Iran until further notice. Mail currently in the postal system destined for Iran will be returned to sender. Postage will be refunded for mail returned because of the suspension of service.

WHEELER PUBLIC LIBRARY BOOK REVIEW

"A New Kind of Country" is the moving story of the renaissance novelist Dorothy Gilman sought and found in a starkly beautiful coastal village in Nova Scotia. In the new rhythms of her daily life, chatting with the lobstermen and fishermen and their families, gardening, watching the seasons and their moods, reflecting on herself and her universe, she comes at last to a turning point. On the rugged seacoast of Nova Scotia Dorothy Gilman found a new landscape of the soul. The book splendidly recounts her search for inner strength, personal identity, self-esteem, peace. The heightened sense of self she achieves is, indeed, the new kind of country we all seek.

In "The Prophet of Fire," by John Creasey, Dr. Palfrey is confronted with the most crucial assignment of his life. His mission to secretly cross into Russia, locate a certain man in hiding from Communist authorities deep within that country, and bring back news of his fate to the leaders of the free world. The man he must find - the Reverend Charles Cannon - was smuggled into Russia more than three years ago. The skirmishes and acts of protest he master minded soon brought him into sharp disfavor with Communist authorities, and his life was always in jeopardy. He was the "Prophet of Fire," named for the fiery cross he used.
