

FIVE BREAK OUT OF NEW JAIL

How Prisoners Cracked 'Tool-Proof' Jail

THREE FELONS STILL AT LARGE

Three of five felony prisoners who escaped from Howard County's new "tool-proof" jail early today remained at large at noon.

The other two were apprehended soon after the break which apparently occurred shortly after midnight.

The five escaped by ripping out a section of bars in Cell Block No. 1 and then battering through masonry under a north window on the fourth floor of the courthouse. Once their exit was cleared, the prisoners swung to the ground on a rope of tied-together mattress covers.

Apparently, the escapees had spent several days removing rivets holding the barred walls of the cellblock. Two lumps of putty were found in the jail this morning, and officers theorized that the putty had been used to stick rivets back into their holes after they were loosened.

Pieces of steel from the jail and a four-by-four wood block apparently were used to break through the masonry outside the wall underneath the barred window through which they escaped.

Still at large at noon today were David Leach, under two four-year sentences on forgery and theft convictions; Thomas Ray Taylor, charged with armed robbery and who escaped from a Stanton policeman last Friday; and Johnny Edward Springer, who was sentenced to three years in prison on a theft conviction March 2.

Randall Hendrix, who pleaded guilty to murder without malice last week and accepted a five-year sentence, was recaptured about a block from the courthouse shortly after 1 a.m. today by city police.

Jack Thompson, who was sentenced to five years as a result of a robbery conviction, was caught at 2:45 a.m. in northwest Big Spring by Police Capt. M. L. Kirby and T&P Special Officer Leo Hull.

Hendrix Capture Led To Break Discovery

Capture of Hendrix led to the discovery of the jail break.

Policemen W. T. Cole and J. D. Campbell arrested Hendrix when they saw a suspicious person at the Crighton Tire Company in the 200 block of W. 3rd Street. Cole immediately recognized Hendrix and it was discovered he and the four others had broken out of the jail.

More than a score of peace officers from Howard and surrounding counties gathered in Big Spring and this morning started scouring the countryside for the three other escapees.

Ranger John Wood of Midland and Deputy Sheriff A. C. Abernathy of Martin County found footprints along the T&P Railway tracks just east of Big Spring and by noon had traced the tracks past Sand Springs. A plane also was checking the railway and Highway 80 east of Big Spring.

Horses were being brought in from the Wilkinson Ranch west of Big Spring, and bloodhounds were to arrive here this afternoon to take up the search.

Twelve men, either convicted or charged with felonies, were confined in Cell Block No. 1. The door to the block was closed, but doors to the various four-man cells had been left unlocked, it was disclosed this morning.

Prisoners who declined to leave the block after the way was cleared were E. O. Grant, convicted on worthless check charges; W. A. Smith, convicted of forgery; Thomas Wilson, whose conviction on a morals charge has been reversed; and William McNew, Wayne Myrick, James Wren and James Webb, all in jail on felony theft charges.

Officers were unable to explain source of the putty and the four-by-four wood block which were found in the jail.

Authorities believe the jail break started several days ago. The prisoners are thought to have used a spoon or some similar instrument to remove a steel frame from a light fixture.

The frame then apparently was used to pry a section of angle iron from the side of a cell door. The pieces of steel apparently became tools for removing the rivets holding the barred, outside sections of the cell block.

Once outside the block, the prisoners removed the aluminum sill from a window in the north side of the fourth floor of the jail. Several pieces of tile and brick then were broken out of the wall under the window, and the escaping felons crawled through the hole below the bars of the window.

Rope Fashioned Of Mattress Covers

A rope was fashioned of the jail's mattress covers and the prisoners swung either to the ground or to scaffolding on the north side of the building. The scaffolding was in place in connection with the wrecking of the old courthouse.

The prisoners apparently were wearing regular civilian clothes at the time of their escape. A pile of white covers, such as are worn in the jail, was found on the inside. Sheriff's officers said some of the prisoners in an adjoining cell block had their civilian clothing in the jail and that it could have been passed into Cell Block No. 1.

Hendrix and Thompson both were wearing civilian clothing when they were arrested.

The new jail, described as virtually escape-proof when it was occupied for the first time less than two months ago, has a guarantee, architects reported this morning.

Lloyd J. White of San Antonio, vice president of Southern Steel Company which designed and constructed the jail, was contacted by County Judge R. H. Weaver and was flying to Big Spring this morning. White had already heard of the jail break and had dispatched a truck loaded with tools and equipment.

The new jail, one of the most modern in West Texas, is divided into three sections, or cell blocks. Completely surrounding the confinement area is a corridor along which officers may walk and inspect the interior.

The barred sections separating this corridor from the cells were riveted together, and it was one of these sections which the prisoners removed.

Each block has four cells, each equipped for four prisoners, and a central "tank" or dayroom. Doors to the various cells are controlled by switches on the outside of the cell, but all had been left in the open position and prisoners were free to go to any point in the block.

Screaming Vietminh Troops Tossed Back

By LARRY ALLEN

HANOI, Indochina (U)—Screaming Vietminh shock troops surged today to within half a mile of the heart of the Dien Bien Phu fortress, then faltered and fell back, taking their dead and wounded with them.

Masses of the Communist-led rebels staged the attack from the encircling hills in a driving rain, firing rifles, pistols and machine guns and throwing grenades and spears. French-manned American guns tore wide gaps in their ranks. A French army spokesman said thousands of the rebels were cut down.

Unofficial estimates of the Vietminh dead and wounded in the four days of battle for the wire-ringed plain, in a strategic sector of northwest Indochina, rose to between 6,000 and 8,000.

Broken, bullet-riddled bodies of rebels dead dangled like scarecrows on the barbed wire as the outnumbered French Union forces fought desperately to keep the plain out of rebel hands.

It was the most savage battle of the seven-year Indochina war. Early today the outcome—certain to have a major effect on the Geneva conference next month—was still in doubt.

The fighting which began Saturday afternoon raged furiously through last night as thousands wildly screaming Communist-led rebels, backed by artillery from Communist China, charged repeatedly into the bristling, American-armed defenses of the fortress plain.

The "do-or-die" fanatic rebel charges over the mounting bodies of their own dead resembled the Communist onslaughts on United Nations troops in the Korean War. For the first time in the long Indochina war, the Vietminh abandoned their guerrilla tactics for an all-out frontal assault.

In the first 48 hours of fighting, the Vietminh wrested two northern and northeastern strongpoints from the French Union defenders. But the French high command said the center of the Vietminh-encircled plain was still intact and the balance of the outer perimeter also was still holding.

They predicted the defenders would hold until the rebels had worn themselves out. The French said they had killed 2,500 attacking Vietminh and wounded as many more. They admitted "appreciable" losses out of their own garrison of French, Moroccan, Vietnamese, Algerians, German Foreign Legionnaires and Thai tribesmen.

The French in Saigon predicted the Vietminh could not maintain their intense attacks of the past 48 hours longer than two more days. By that time, they said, the rebel troops and their supplies—the latter painfully trekked by coolies over the hundreds of jungle miles from Chinese dumps—would be exhausted.

French Union defenders balked their striking power within the wire-bristling, bunkered heart of the fortress as the rebels threw wave after wave of yelling troops at the defenders.

The light rain turned the dusty plain into a sea of bloody mud as the American-supplied guns of the French worked like scythes, mowing down the Vietminh. The French claimed at least 1,500 rebels died in taking the northern hill post.

Throughout last night artillery roared as the French and Vietminh tried to silence each other's positions. As the duel went on, the Vietminh flooded into the plain by the thousands from the surrounding jungles, charging madly time and again towards the barbed wire and bunkers.

Time after time the French smashed them back. The big question was whether, with their furious disregard for their own losses, the rebels could eventually drive over their own dead, and into the heart of the French operational headquarters.

Shivers won friendly applause when he bluntly broke the tax raise news to the lawmakers in the opening joint session yesterday.

But a little later a Senator made a personal privilege speech calling the governor "a Republican running as a Democrat." The speech, by Sen. Jos Russell, Roysse City, apparently had no connection with special session issues.

Shivers told the Legislature it can raise the $25,600,000 needed to give teachers a $402 annual pay raise, and state workers a $10 monthly boost, with these taxes: Beer—An increase of 63 cents a barrel, to $2.

Natural Gas—A new gathering tax of one-half cent per 1,000 cubic feet.

Business Franchises—A 75 cent increase per $1,000.

Shivers made a fervent plea for appropriation of funds for buildings, especially at the School for the Deaf at Austin which he called a "firetrap." He asked for $10,000 for improvements there, at the dental school, Southwestern Medical and Eastham Prison Farms.

Shivers told the Legislature that there was enough money on hand to meet these building expenses, without new taxes.

Proposal Would Withhold Duval County's Funds

AUSTIN (U)—Sen. Kilmer Corbin, Lubbock today, introduced a resolution calling on state agencies to withhold all funds to Duval County and its political subdivisions until missing records are produced or a satisfactory audit made.

It was a joint resolution requiring action by both the Senate and the House.

Corbin's request to take the resolution up immediately ran into objections from two senators, Abe Kazen Jr., Laredo, and Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo.

The resolution was referred to the State Affairs Committee.

The resolution said, that by reason of "deplorable conditions involving state funds it is evident that corrective action should be taken by the affected state agencies immediately."

Duval County affairs are currently under joint state and federal investigation, with Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd charging irregularities in the use of state money.

The resolution referred to a special study by State Auditor C. H. Cavness requested by Shepperd. The special audit report, it said, shows that the records of the Benavides Independent School District were missing in their entirety for all the period prior to Sept. 1, 1953, except the tax records and the minutes of the board's meetings.

Municipal Water Tank Overflows

Big Spring's large million-gallon water storage tank located in the 2200 block of Lancaster was overflowing this morning, and several breaks were reported in water pipes over the city.

Cause of the overflow and breaks was the pumping of too much water into the city storage facilities by the Colorado River Municipal Water District, said City Manager H. W. Whitney.

Water was not supposed to have been pumped from the Martin County wells into the Big Spring system later than 9 p.m. Monday. After checking the water consumption yesterday, city water superintendent Roy Heister had asked that the pumps be stopped at that time.

For some reason the pumps were not stopped, and water was flowed into Big Spring all night. Manager Whitney got a call at 5 a.m. today informing him that the storage tank on Lancaster was overflowing.

The pumps were stopped in short order following the report, but not before several breaks resulted in water pipes here. Whitney said he knew of at least four breaks, but that there might be others. Water repair crews were out all morning and could not be contacted.

The city has three other million-gallon storage tanks, but they were not reported overflowing. They are located in city park, on scenic mountains, and in North Big Spring. Another quarter million-gallon tank is located on a hill just behind the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Death For Reds Bill Introduced

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN (U)—The death penalty for Communists or others who would overthrow the federal or state government by force was provided in a bill introduced in the Legislature today by Rep. Robert Patten, Jasper.

It was offered as bills to boost taxes, raise teachers pay and put more heat on Communists began rolling through the legislative mill on the second day of the special session.

Patten's measure outlaws Communists and all others "no matter under what name" whose object is to forcibly overthrow the government. It declares there is evidence establishing existence of "an international revolutionary Communist conspiracy" that constitutes "a clear and present danger" to the state and federal governments.

The Patten bill declares membership in the Communist party to be a felony punishable by "death or confinement in the penitentiary for life or any term of years not less than 10."

Gov. Allan Shivers has submitted Communism control as one of the topics to be acted on in the special

Ridgway At Witness Table

Gen. Matthew Ridgway, Army Chief of Staff, sits between Army Secretary Stevens, left, and Air Force Secretary Harold Talbot at the witness table in an open hearing on the new military budget. Ridgway's statement sounded like the first official protest from the Pentagon against the proposed reduction of Army forces. (AP Wirephoto).

Guerrilla Warfare Pioneer Asks That His Record Be Cleaned Up

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's Pardons Board will be asked to consider the pardon plea of Yank Levy, master of the "quick, quiet kill" who once taught American GIs the niceties of guerrilla warfare. Levy became best known in the early 1940s as a former soldier of fortune—he fought in Palestine, Transjordan, Mexico, Nicaragua and Spain—and as an active instructor in guerrilla tactics for both the British government and the United States. A book he wrote still is considered one of the best published manuals on the subject.

This is Levy's story as it comes from the Jewish Committee for Personal Service in Los Angeles and Philadelphia's Jewish Family Service: He is now confined to a Los Angeles hospital, suffering from arthritis. A social worker's report stated his principal aim in life is a "clean record." Back in 1927, Philadelphia police arrested five men and woman on charges they were responsible for a series of holdups. The authorities said in the apartment where the five were seized they found also a small arsenal of weapons.

Levy and the others were brought to trial. He was convicted and sentenced to a 25-to-30 year sentence. He served six years and then was deported to his native Canada. From there he moved on to Spain and the life of a guerrilla.

On the strength of his record, the British hired him to teach his art to members of the Home Guard. Then, the U. S. used him as its first instructor at a school for guerrilla warfare. After World War II, he contracted arthritis. His savings from his book and lecture tours dwindled because of his mounting medical expenses. That was his status when the Los Angeles social agency found him—broke. And he wanted above all else a "clean record." The Los Angeles committee contacted the Philadelphia Jewish Family Service. Atty. Hanley Rubensohn, a member of the service's personal aid bureau, volunteered to help. A fund was raised to send Rubensohn to California for a personal talk with Levy.

Rubensohn reported back to the other members of the board he was convinced Levy had paid his debt to society. That's why Rubensohn came to Pennsylvania's state capital today to argue Levy's case, to ask the Pardons Board to wipe out what Yank Levy claims is the only real blot on his record.

New Atom-Smashing Wonder Machine Unveiled In California

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The greatest thing yet in atom smashing—a mammoth machine which will lead scientists onward into the exciting mysteries of the atomic nucleus—was unveiled today at the University of California. With this electronic giant scientists may turn up some more surprise discoveries such as those which led to the atom bomb. A vast new field for deriving energy from matter is among the possibilities.

Although scientists had to learn something about the nucleus to make the A-bomb, they still don't know much about it. To find out more they must bust the atom more thoroughly than ever before. The new machine, called the bevatron, is designed to do that. The bevatron, a part of famed Prof. Ernest O. Lawrence's radiation laboratory, is a racetrack-shaped affair of steel and copper 135 feet in diameter and 14 feet high—the largest nuclear research instrument in existence. It weighs 10,000 tons, about the weight of an ordinary-sized U. S. cruiser. It cost 9 1/2 million dollars and was financed by the Atomic Energy Commission. Six years were required to design and build the machine. The actual construction required four years. A month ago the machine was cautiously started for the first time. It whipped up a thin beam of atomic projectiles to a feeble 20 million volts. Gradually it was accelerated until on March 12 it produced atom bullets of five billion volts in energy.

The previous record was 2.3 billion volts, made by the cosmotron in the AEC laboratory at Brookhaven, N.Y.

When scientists were smashing atoms in the days preceding the atomic energy era the only known nuclear particles were protons, neutrons and electrons. Out of that limited picture of matter eventually came the discovery of uranium fission and the bomb. As the atom-smashing machines in Berkeley and elsewhere increased their power the atom was smashed more devastatingly, until now there are some two dozen known nuclear particles.

And the end is not yet. Many of these particles have a lifetime of only a few millionths of a second, then they change into something else. Or one of them changes into two or more others. There is no certainty as to what the really unchangeable fundamental specks are that constitute matter. The bevatron may settle some of this uncertainty. When the fundamental parts of the atomic nucleus are known, researchers will know better what they can do with the pieces. With the bevatron they now are entering an "anything can happen" era.

For the next three weeks or so the bevatron will be given its "shakedown tests," then will go to work on experiments. Its main job will be to produce cosmic rays where they can be studied under laboratory conditions.

Pigeons Can't Sleep

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Home pigeons have insomnia. A housewife complained to police last night.

Officer G. A. Eusto said the woman explained it this way: A floodlight burns all night in a neighbor's back yard. It keeps the pigeons awake. They get so sleepy they often tumble off roosts. Several have been seriously injured. The woman wanted police to tell the neighbor to turn off the light so her pigeons can get a little shut-eye. Officers were investigating.

'Voice' Chief Offers Plan

NEW YORK (AP)—Director Theodore C. Streibert of the U. S. Information Agency today suggested that American businesses pool their public relations resources to make friends abroad. "Such a combined program, demonstrating the vitality of the free enterprise system," he said, "would be one of the most effective means of combatting communism."

Streibert made the suggestion in a speech prepared for the International Advertising Assn. and the Export Managers' Club of New York.

He described in detail the reorganization of the U. S. Information Agency since it was made independent of the State Department last August. He said the agency's in Voice of America radio broadcasts, in news releases and films abroad is relying on "objective factual news reporting and commentaries based on facts."

He said the agency for the first time has a "clear-cut mission, given to us by the President." "The essence of this mission," he said, "is that it is our job to identify ourselves with the legitimate aims of other people—to demonstrate that we have a mutuality of interest, and that we can work together for peace, freedom and progress—to unify the free peoples against communism without war."

Senate Republicans Delay Farm Price Issue Decision

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican leaders postponed indefinitely today a showdown fight on the choice between supporting farm product prices at the present high levels or switching to the flexible system President Eisenhower advocates.
Majority Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) told a reporter that he had put off to an uncertain date the calling up for debate of a wool production bill that was to trigger the fight on the key farm issue in this election year.
Both sides seemed willing to have the showdown postponed. Delay until May appeared likely.
Originally, Knowland had planned to bring up the wool measure, which is a part of President Eisenhower's farm program, either yesterday or today.
But he did not call it up yesterday and, as the Senate recessed, announced quietly that today the lawmakers would return to the Hawaii-Alaska statehood bill.

Hall, Mitchell Can Claim Debate Draw On McCarthy Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican and Democratic national chairmen, Leonard W. Hall and Stephen A. Mitchell, apparently can claim an audience-awarded draw in their verbal 10 rounds over Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).
The two party leaders debated last night before about 1,000 Georgetown University students, whose cheers and boos seemed pretty evenly divided.
Mitchell asserted the Republicans don't deserve the vote of young people because "they have failed to bring McCarthy under control."
Declaring that the GOP is conducting a "campaign of vilification that can destroy us all," he said:
"We must not put slander and calumny upon each other for if we do, we destroy the system under which we live."
Hall replied, in effect:
"Look who's talking about us."
"You ought to go back and read some of former President Truman's speeches," he shot at Mitchell, adding:
"I won't ask you to read the letters he wrote."

Government Offers To Dismiss Its Suit Against Meat Men

CHICAGO (AP)—In a surprise move, the government has offered to dismiss "without prejudice" its $4-year-old civil anti-trust suit against four of the nation's major meat packers.
The suit against the packers—Swift, Armour, Wilson, and Cudahy—was started in federal court Sept. 15, 1948, and charged monopolistic practices. It asked that the companies be dissolved and reorganized into 14 separate and competing companies.
The trial was to have started May 19 before Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan, said Raymond F. Hayes, master in chancery who has been hearing preliminary arguments and motions.
Hayes said after the government's offer to dismiss "without prejudice," he gave the government a week's extension for the filing of its briefs to allow the defendants time to consider the offer.

Army Begins Hiring Of Dockmen Under Civil Service At Gotham

NEW YORK (AP)—The Army began hiring dock workers under civil service rules today to load transports and cargo ships tied up at its strike-bound bases, but the response of workers was slow.
An hour after the usual time for the start of the day shift, only 65 of the 400 men needed at the Brooklyn Army base had been processed, screened and put to work.
An Army spokesman said the men still were coming in, but very slowly. He said none had been hired at Staten Island, where 350 dock workers are needed. He also said none had been reported hired at Jersey City, N.J.
About 500 persons demonstrated at the entrance at the Brooklyn base for half an hour today before they were broken up by police. No violence was reported. Several pickets took up posts at the entrance.

School Trustee Race At C-City Has 4 Hopefuls

COLORADO CITY (AP)—The deadline for candidates for the school board at Colorado City passed at noon Monday, with no increase in the field of four hopefuls.
The election is set for April 3, with two vacancies to fill. Outgoing trustees are Abbie Northcutt and Dr. J. D. Williams.
Northcutt has removed himself from the race because of a heart ailment.
Dr. Williams, 45-year-old Colorado City veterinarian, has announced that he will seek a second three-year term. Dr. Williams has been critical of school administration and at the last meeting asked that the board take action to rescind the contract of Ed E. Williams, superintendent of schools, voted last year—on the grounds that the contract voting was illegal.
The board took no action on the matter and Williams has said that he still considers it an issue.
New candidates are:
Johnny M. Moore, 34-year-old attorney, who declined to comment on the Williams controversy. Moore, who has served as a director in the Colorado City Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce and the Country Club, was an FBI man prior to World War II and went into Army intelligence in 1942, serving three years overseas.
Dr. Oscar Rhode, 43, of Colorado City surgeon, said that he thought too much had been said about the board equableness already and added, "I have no ax to grind and don't want to fire anybody."
Rhode was a Major in the Army Medical Corps during World War II and since his return to Colorado City has served as Commander of the American Legion and as president of the Lions and Chamber of Commerce.
The fourth candidate is Arch T. Caffey, 55, head stillman at Col-Tex Refinery. Caffey says that he is familiar with school problems from the parent's side, since he has had six children to attend Colorado City schools. Two are in high school now. Caffey laughed when asked his opinion of board differences saying, "I don't want to get mixed up in that mess."

The call for civil service longshoremen—approved by the Pentagon—was issued by Brig. Gen. Calvin de Witt Jr., commander of the New York port of embarkation.
The civil service employment means that the longshoremen will be working directly for the government and not for stevedoring firms under contract to the government.
Eleven ships destined for European and Indochinese ports are tied up at Army bases by the outlawed waterfront strike, now in its 12th day. Some of the equipment awaiting loading is bound for hard-pressed French forces fighting the Communists in Indochina.
De Witt, whose work call was issued late yesterday, said he was confident the hiring of dock workers as temporary civil service employees would prove as effective in getting service ships loaded as it was during the wildcat waterfront strike by members of the International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) in 1951.
The strike is an outgrowth of the battle between the ILA and the AFL-ILA for certification by the National Labor Relations Board as bargaining agent for the harbor's 24,000 longshoremen.

Public Bodies Are Obligated To Let The People Know Of Actions

Last year the Committee for Advancement of Freedom of Information of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity with 22,000 members, filed scores and scores of protests against secret meetings of school boards, boards of public health, tax commissions, city councils and county commissions "from one end of the country to the other."

On principle no public group elected to transact the people's business has any right to exclude the press and public from its meetings, except on those very rare occasions provided for by statute. Wise old John Garner is quoted in Harold Ickes' diary as saying "there ought not to be any executive sessions of any congressional committee."

Here Is Another Of Those Things Which Need To Be Sifted For Truth

The McCarthy-Cohn - Schine-Stevens - Adams-et cetera Donnybrook has more angles than Carter had oats, but one solid fact emerges from the dust of battle: The Senate owes the country the duty of probing this unlovely affair to the uttermost reaches of the subject.

Chairman of this committee is Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), a man who enjoys the respect of his colleagues in both parties, a man who could be depended upon to maintain the investigation on the same high plane as that enforced by Democrat Dick Russell of Georgia in the investigation of General MacArthur's ousting as Far East commander.

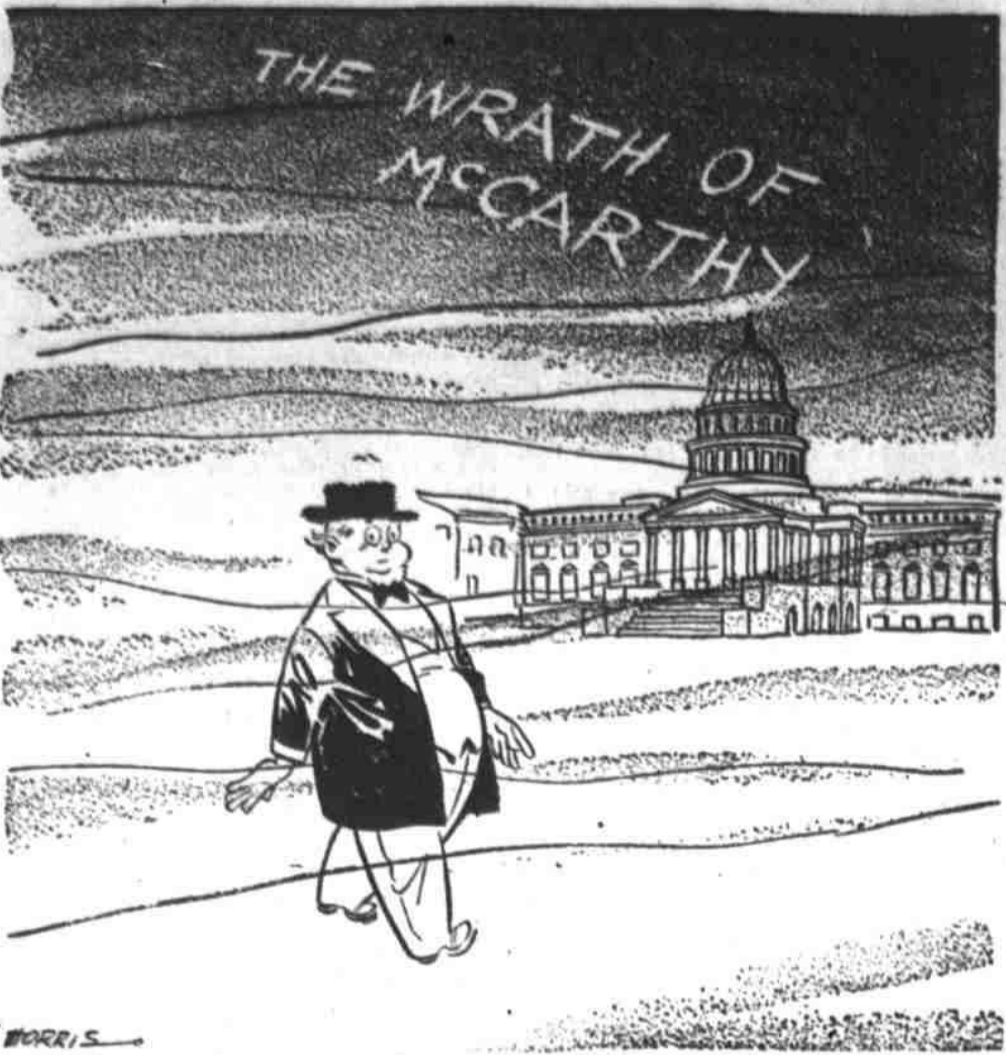

Washington Calling—Marquis Childs Krupp Back In Business, But Cartel System Is On Way Out

ESSEN, West Germany — The name of Krupp has stood for at least three generations as the trademark of the industrial power of Germany, and, above all, the power of the coal and steel complex in this Pittsburgh of the Ruhr Valley. It is, therefore, a measure of the restored Germany to be received by Alfred Krupp, the present head of the family, in the offices of the company which are in a grimy fortresslike building.

Death ended the fabulous career of Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," on this day in 1903. During his twenty years as justice of the peace and operator of the "Jersey Lilly" saloon at Langtry, Bean had become a nationally known figure. Perhaps his greatest notoriety came when, in 1896, he staged the world heavy-weight championship fight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Peter Maher on a sandbar in the bed of the Rio Grande—a location made necessary because Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Chihuahua had forbidden the bout. With ringside seats selling at $20 apiece and beer at a dollar a bottle, Bean found this promotion a very profitable venture.

HERITAGE DAYS

The Texas ad interim government selected David G. Burnet as president on March 16, 1836, while Mexican treachery took the lives of Captain King and his fellow captives, made prisoners by General Urrea's cavalry the day before, were marched to the slope of the hill on Goliad road. There, a mile from the Refugio church, they were stripped of clothing and became victims of a firing squad's bullets.

The only native Texan elected to serve in the temporary government was Lorenzo de Zavala, chosen vice president by a unanimous vote. Carson, a former member of Congress from North Carolina who trailed Burnet in the election for president, became the choice for secretary of state. Others named by the convention included Bailey Hardeman, formerly of Tennessee, secretary of the treasury; Thomas J. Rusk, a native of South Carolina who moved to Texas from Georgia, secretary of war; Robert Potter, a former member of Congress from North Carolina, secretary of the Navy; and David Thomas, who came to Texas from Tennessee, attorney-general.

This Day In Texas

Death ended the fabulous career of Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," on this day in 1903. During his twenty years as justice of the peace and operator of the "Jersey Lilly" saloon at Langtry, Bean had become a nationally known figure. Perhaps his greatest notoriety came when, in 1896, he staged the world heavy-weight championship fight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Peter Maher on a sandbar in the bed of the Rio Grande—a location made necessary because Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Chihuahua had forbidden the bout. With ringside seats selling at $20 apiece and beer at a dollar a bottle, Bean found this promotion a very profitable venture.

DAVID G. BURNET, above, by a scant seven-vote majority, was elected president of the ad interim Texas government. As such, he became critical of Sam Houston's continued retreat, imploring the Texan commander to strike at the enemy to halt the "Runaway Scrape" of the Texans fleeing from their homes.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports transcript: MAL WHITFIELD, the great Negro runner, when asked if he had a formula for the four-minute mile: "Sure. Run as fast as you can as long as you can — then sprint the rest of the way."

BERNARD RAINES, Midway basketball coach: "I look for a boy with spring in his legs quicker than I look for height. That's why Jack Williams of HCJC impressed me so."

TOM McADAMS, father of the Steers' Tommy and a member of the Quarterback Club: "It wouldn't surprise me if all the west stands in Steer Stadium are reserved for the season by local fans next fall."

EDDIE STANKY, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals: "Speed and proper amount of daring can't be over-emphasized with any club. A safety-first ball club is a second-division club."

SAMMY BAUGH, the associate football coach of Hardin-Simmons, who visited in Coahoma recently: "We're still looking for a quarterback."

WAITE HOYT, one-time pitching great, when asked how he could detect the first sure signs of age slowing down a player: "You first detect it in your write-ups."

DAN LEWIS, commenting on the ball-carrying ability of the 1953 Big Spring ace, J. C. Armistead: "Sure, he can run. But I'd rather see him bl-ck."

A NEW YORK GIANT PLAYER, commenting on the fact that a steady stream of film people were suiting up and working out with the full approval of Leo Durocher: "One thing about it, we'll have every actor in California in good condition."

ROBERT ANGEL, in the first quarter of the recent football game between the Exes and the Steers: "Is there a Red Cross man in the stands?"

TOM YEWIC, who quarterbacked Michigan State to a win in the last Rose Bowl game: "The Spartans had a great freshman squad this past year. Our varsity had to pass in order to gain ground on them. Michigan State will have a great team next year."

CAP SHELTON, veteran Howard Payne track coach: "It's impossible to go 100 yards full throttle."

AL McCARTY, new manager of the Wichita Falls Longhorn League club: "I'm in the best physical shape since I got out of the Army in 1946. I'll play anywhere the club needs me this spring."

NICK KERWABY, general manager of the Detroit Lions: "Television has helped pro football, just as it has hurt minor league baseball. That's easy to understand for we play only about once a week and have no minor leagues, whereas baseball plays about every day and has numerous teams in the lesser leagues around the country. What does it take to make a financial success of pro football? There are three things you must have to keep a team in the black. First, you need a good exhibition schedule. Then you must sell the TV and radio rights at a good price, and you must have a good program with plenty of advertising."

CARL COLEMAN, coach at Big Spring High School: "We still must develop a line before next season."

BILL THOMPSON, Paris News: "I think there'll be another attempt to form a Red River Valley League next winter. Too many good towns in this area are without baseball this year."

STEERETTES VANQUISH MIDLAND SIX, 27-17

The Big Spring High School girls' volleyball team set the stage for their important clash with Lamesa next week by triumphing over Midland here Monday afternoon.

The triumph was the 17th in 18 starts for the Steerettes, who have lost only to Sweetwater this year and that in a non-conference match. Bernice Bice, with Louise Burchett at the net, paced the locals in scoring with 11 points. Big Spring led at half time, 16-7.

In vanquishing the visitors, the Big Springers registered their fourth conference win of the campaign. Two have come at the expense of Midland and the other two from Odessa.

The Big Spring Bees, who actually have a more amazing streak going than does the A team, also won, 46-10. Half time tally in that one was 28-5. Alice Ann Martin placed the scoring with ten points.

The S'erettes reserves have lost two games in 12 starts to date but none to B teams. The Sweetwater and Monahan regulars beat them in the recent Big Spring tournament.

On Friday night at 7:30 p.m., the Big Springers host Abilene in a warm-up test. B teams of the two schools clash at 6:30 p.m. On Monday, the locals invade Lamesa, at which time they will seek their third win of the campaign over the Tornado Queens, defending champions in conference play.

Bowls May Quit Team Scramble

DALLAS (AP)—A plan to take the "rat race" out of the Cotton and Sugar Bowls is being talked by the Southwest and Southeastern Conferences.

Cotton Bowl officials conferred with the bowl committee of the Southeastern Conference at Memphis, Tenn., over the weekend and discussed a plan whereby the bowls would wait until a week after Thanksgiving to contact teams.

In this way, Felix McKnight, president of the Cotton Bowl, said, the frenzied grabbing of teams by the bowls would be done away with and the big games left on the football schedule the first week in December would not be hampered.

This is only a suggestion and neither of the groups in the meeting was empowered to make any kind of rule.

A plan will be submitted to the Southwest Conference, which controls the Cotton Bowl, at the spring meeting in Waco May 14-15. The Southeastern Conference also will have to pass on it.

McKnight explained that if the plan is approved, it would mean that the two conferences would not receive a bid from the bowls until the date specified. Thus there would be no such thing as signing up teams before the football season ended. This, it is pointed out, has injured the games left on the schedule, cutting down on interest and attendance.

With the Rose and Orange Bowls having teams, the only bowls left to select teams are the Cotton and Sugar. The Southwest Conference champion is committed to the Cotton Bowl and the Southeastern Conference traditionally sends a team to the Sugar Bowl. But neither bowl has a tieup between two conferences.

Gola Bell-Wether Of LaSalle Team

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Tom (The Team) Gola, who acted almost as a playing coach for the talented sophomores of LaSalle, takes on an added responsibility here Friday night in the semi-finals of the National Collegiate Basketball Championship.

It will be up to him to uphold the reputation of the 1954 All-America team. He's the only one left in tournament competition.

Despite the wave of upsets—one of the greatest in the 16-year history of the NCAA Tournament—the one-to-five average of All-America is the same as last year.

According to Gola, in a youth Bob Houbregts of Washington paced his team into the semi-finals a season ago.

Gola, a 6-7 junior, will be under even more pressure than Houbregts was because his LaSalle team will be the favorite. Washington, third in 1953, never was picked to do better.

With Gola on this year's All-America team were Don Schindt of Indiana and Bob Pettit of Louisiana State, whose clubs were beaten in the Iowa City regional and Frank Selvy of Furman and Cliff Hagan of Kentucky who did not play in tournament competition.

Favorites have been so vulnerable so far in this year's NCAA tournaments that LaSalle ought to be willing to pay somebody to act as a stand-in.

Not one of the semifinalists showed in the nation's top 10 in the Associated Press poll last week. But the experts juggled madly when the tournament results came in and LaSalle wound up No. 6 in today's ratings. Penn State, which didn't get a vote prior to the Iowa City triumph, ranked ninth. Southern California was 11th and Bradley 12th.

Penn State and LaSalle, 250 miles apart in Pennsylvania, face each other for the first time this season in the first game here Friday.

Cabinet Members To Tell Canadians Of Tariff Plans

By JOHN SCALI
 WASHINGTON (U) — Four top Cabinet officers were reported today to be ready to meet behind closed doors with a high-ranking Canadian government group led by Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson.

The American delegation, headed by Secretary of State Dulles, arranged to meet behind closed doors with a high-ranking Canadian government group led by Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson.

Pearson in a speech yesterday before the National Press Club said Canada and other North Atlantic Pact allies would insist on being consulted before the American government adopted any decision for "instant retaliation" against any foe which broke the uneasy cold war peace.

But, since today's conference was set up as strictly a financial and trade review, it appeared unlikely that Pearson would seek any assurances from Dulles at this session about America's new defense policy.

Dulles, backed up by Treasury Secretary Humphrey, Commerce Secretary Weeks and Agriculture Secretary Benson, was reported ready to give these pledges to the Canadians:

1. The Eisenhower administration will turn its back on any demands the Republican administration embrace high tariff policies.
2. The President soon will ask Congress for specific authority to extend the reciprocal trade policy, conceived under former President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration, to permit further American negotiations with friendly governments for reduced tariff duties.
3. Despite a mounting store of surplus agricultural products, the United States does not intend to "dump" its board on world markets but will dispose of it to help free nations, after prior consultation with its allies.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

The long-buried city of Pompeii has provided objects which were used by Romans 19 centuries ago. Among these are the remains of several beds.

One bedstead from Pompeii is 17 inches high, four feet wide and seven and a half feet long.

The bed which I have described was lower than was common in the homes of wealthy Romans. Some of those people had beds which rose four feet above the floor. When a person was ready to go to sleep at night, he had to climb one or two steps to get into his bed!

After the fall of the Roman Empire, the bed customs were changed in some parts of Europe. Most German tribesmen who swept through southern Europe were content to sleep on animal skins, or on leaves which they placed inside long, open boxes.

Learning about the Roman beds, some of the Germans in Italy and elsewhere adopted better beds. In general, however, the people of Europe were content with simple bedding during the first half of the Middle Ages.

In England the Angles, Saxons and Jutes commonly slept on wooden benches. Often the benches were fastened to the walls of rooms. Stacks of leaves or straw covered the wood at times.

During the Crusades, the men of Germany, France and England traveled to countries which had been civilized for a longer time. They saw beds of types which they never had known before, and brought home ideas for better sleeping.

The kings and nobles of western Europe soon adopted better beds. In a quaint picture made by an artist of the Crusades period, we see a king in his bed. To us it seems amusing that the king was shown wearing his crown while trying to sleep. The artist, however, might have asked, "How would anyone know I was picturing a king if I didn't put a crown on his head?"

Tomorrow: Large, Costly Beds.

POSTPONED AGAIN AND AGAIN

Dan Dailey Gets Lots Of Experience Waiting

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (U) — Meet the most postponed actor in Hollywood — Dan Dailey.

The lanky hooper hasn't acted in a picture since early last year, although he has been slated to reach the camera time and again. Here's his sad tale:

"It all started last May when I was supposed to start 'There's No Business Like Show Business' with Ethel Merman. Walter Lang who was going to direct the picture, fell ill and it was postponed a month. His condition didn't improve, and the studio wanted him to direct the film. So it was postponed indefinitely.

"Then I was set to make an independent picture called 'Susan Slept Here.' I had a piece of the picture and everything. After several postponements, the whole deal was sold to Howard Hughes and shifted to RKO. More postponements.

"Meanwhile, Fox was getting ready to make 'Pink Tights.' They wanted to know when Hughes would be through with me. Well, Hughes hemmed and hawed as only he can. Finally Fox said I couldn't do 'Susan,' and Dick Powell was cast in it.

"One day I show up for work in 'Pink Tights,' which I was to make with Marilyn Monroe and Frank Sinatra. Frank had already been working a week. I appeared and waited for two hours. No Marilyn. I was told to go home.

"After sitting around for weeks waiting for Marilyn to fill those pink tights, Dan was pulled out of the cast and assigned to the re-started 'Show Business.' Now it looks as though he's really going to work. At least he's doing dance rehearsals. He's not counting on anything until the cameras are actually rolling.

He has no complaints about his plight. He has collected his weekly check of a few thousand dollars and done the things he likes best—riding his horses and skiing.

"The only trouble is that both those exercises stretch out the calf muscles," he said. "Since I started the dance rehearsals, I've been pounding the muscles back down again. I limp around the house like an old codger."

"In these times, it doesn't make any difference," he replied. "If you can come up with a good picture every three years, you can stay in business."

India May Put New Teeth On Caste Ban

NEW DELHI, India (U) — India may put fresh teeth into her constitutional ban on the creed of untouchability.

The lower house of Parliament has accepted for consideration a bill providing up to six months in jail and a fine up to $105 for persons who excommunicate or otherwise injure those who once were outcasts.

The bill provides that courts may order cancellation or suspension of government grants of land, money or other facilities to any church, temple, hospital, school or hotel which refuses to admit an "untouchable."

Mr. J. O. Lynch left this spot (Greyhound Bus Terminal) at 2:44 p.m. for Memphis. Mr. Lynch is very pleased.

Why? Because his fare was only $15.60 (plus tax). Because he had his choice of 10 convenient schedules. Because he boarded a super-comfortable Greyhound Coach, knowing he would travel relaxed, free from driving strain. Going some place?

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT

MISTER BREGER

Tiny Woman Has Needed Strength

DETROIT, March 16 (U) — To 86-pound, 5-foot-2 Mrs. Gloria Fair it was hardly believable that she had that much muscle.

But there was the record. Mrs. Fair, 35, held back a driverless car rolling down her driveway yesterday to keep it from crushing 5-year-old Bobby Emerson, her fifth marriage neighbor boy. One rear wheel already had started over his body.

Bobby was unconscious when removed but revived and was found not badly hurt.

"I can't believe it," Mrs. Fair said of her feat.

Barbara Hutton To Return To Gotham

PALM BEACH, Fla. (U) — Barbara Hutton, Woolworth heiress, leaves this resort by train today for New York, her fifth marriage apartment on the rocks.

Portfiro Rubrosa, whom Miss Hutton married in New York last December, was still occupying the house where they lived for the past few weeks and a secretary said he did not know how long he would remain.

Miss Hutton moved out Thursday and since then has been staying with an aunt, Mrs. James P. Donahue, at the exclusive Everglades Club.

Nowinski To Nolan Change Not Topical

DETROIT (U) — Jerome Nowinski, 28, became Jerome Nolan by court assent yesterday but he said the approach of St. Patrick's Day positively had nothing to do with it.

He gave "social reasons" for his desire. His wife Aileen is Irish, his boys are Patrick Michael, 6, and Dennis, 2, and many of his friends are Irish.

No Injuries Listed In Monday Mishap

Cars driven by Lamess and Seminole men were involved in a collision near Finkle's Liquor Store on Highway 27 north of Big Spring at noon Monday.

Sheriff's officers said Rufus Lee Burleson, Seminole, and Charles Edward Brown, Lamess, were operators of vehicles involved in the mishap. No one was injured.

By 1963 when I retire, I expect to have saved $11,250 on the Payroll Savings Plan.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN DO IT, TOO

Here's what the Payroll Savings Plan did for Bryan Holloman

Mr. Holloman first registered for the Payroll Savings Plan in April, 1942 while working in the Norfolk Navy Shipyards for $63.60 a week. By 1951 he had saved $4,325 in Bonds. And now he is well on his way to that $11,250 for his retirement.

The Payroll Savings Plan makes you save money before you can spend it! To join the Payroll Savings Plan all you do is go to your company's pay office and sign up to have a certain amount saved out of your salary each payday. Sign up for as little or as much as you like—it can be as little as a couple of dollars a week. Then each payday, this amount is automatically saved for you out of your pay check—before you can get your hands on the money to spend it—and invested in interest-earning U. S. Savings Bonds in your name. The Bonds are then turned over to you.

It's safe—it's simple—it really works—and you won't even miss the money! Payroll Savings is safe—for U. S. Savings Bonds are as safe as America itself. It's simple—for once you sign up all the work is automatically done for you. It really works—because it makes you save money, and at a good 3% interest. And best of all—you won't even miss the money you're investing.

Payroll Savings worked for Bryan Holloman and it will work for you! Today, join the Payroll Savings Plan when you work. Or, if you're self-employed, join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. These Plans help you constantly save money, and at a good 3% interest!

The U. S. Government does not tax the interest. The Treasury Department thanks you for your patriotic donation, the Advertising Council and

WALKER BAILEY

Bailey Seeks Re-Election As Superintendent

Walker Bailey has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election as county superintendent, subject to the Democratic primaries.

In making his announcement, he had the following statement: "The County Superintendency is an elective four-year term. The County Superintendency has jurisdiction over the common school districts, or rural schools, in the county, but has no legal jurisdiction over the Independent School districts. He does assist the superintendents in the Independent school districts in an advisory capacity relative to Texas school laws, and with regulations of the State Board of Education and of the Texas Education Agency, our State Department of Education. He is the intermediate school officer of the county acting between the local schools and local school boards and the Texas Education Agency."

"I believe my training in school administration plus the experience I have gained while serving in the capacity of your County Superintendent qualifies me to serve you better as a county school administrator. Let me assure you, the electorate, that whatever your school problems are, I shall be glad to discuss them with you, trying to solve them to your satisfaction."

"I shall try to see all of the voters in the county before election day, but if I should miss seeing you, please accept this as a sincere appeal for your vote and active support."

"I wish to humbly and sincerely thank the voters of Howard County for the many favors and support you have extended to me in the past," he said.

ONE MONTH TO GO Under 40 Per Cent Of Cars Inspected

Motorists have less than a month in which to comply with the state auto inspection law, and it appears that there'll be a last-minute jam at local inspection stations.

Highway Patrol officials here say that only about 40 per cent of Howard County cars have been inspected. That means about 6,000 vehicles must be checked prior to the April 15 deadline.

The officers also say they will enforce the inspection statute rigidly after April 15. Every vehicle must bear a windshield sticker certifying it has passed the test.

Inspection stations in Big Spring report that the number of auto owners requesting the inspections has increased sharply in the past few days. One of the larger concerns said that from 80 to 100 cars are being checked each week now.

On a state-wide basis, about 65 per cent of all motor vehicles have been inspected, according to Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Garrison sees little chance of a "log jam" at inspection stations in most cities.

However, nearly a million Texas cars still must be checked, Garrison said.

George W. Busby, Chief of the Safety Department's Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, announced that inspections are now being conducted at the rate of 150,000 weekly and that no stations are experiencing a capacity business.

"In the weeks remaining before the inspection deadline," Busby said, "the licensed stations will be fully capable of taking care of every vehicle in the state remaining to be checked without undue waiting or inconvenience unless too many folks put off having their autos inspected until the last minute."

The tests a car must pass have been simplified considerably since enactment of the auto inspection law in 1951. Brakes, lights, horn, windshield wipers and steering mechanism are the principal items checked under a modification of the statute.

The 14 inspection stations in Howard County are Fowler and Fowler Service, of Coahoma, and Clark Motor Company, Big Spring Motor Company, Driver Truck and Implement Company, Eason Brothers Garage, Jones Motor Company, Truman Jones Motor Company, Tidwell Chevrolet Company, McEwen Motor Company, S&S Wheel Alignment Service, Shroyer Motor Company, Marvin Hull Pontiac Company, Lone Star Motor Company, and Big Spring Hudson Company, all in Big Spring.

Probe Continues Into Bexar Crash

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Investigations continued today in the auto crash death near here yesterday of two Randolph Air Force Base airmen.

Three men were injured in the four-car collision which killed Airmen Marvin C. Kuerth, 19, and Woodrow F. Kerwood.

Kuerth's home was listed at Worthington, Minn., but the home and age of Kerwood were not immediately made known.

George Magnuson and Fred Hurst said they were trying to reconstruct the accident to determine exactly what happened. The deaths were the 18th and 19th for Bexar County in 1954.

Would Change Day

Dallas Adopts New Slum Clearance Act

DALLAS (AP)—A slum clearance and rehabilitation program patterned after the Baltimore, Md., plan was adopted for Dallas last night by the city council.

The program will be based on strict enforcement of the city's health, fire and building laws. Under the plan owners of dwellings will be required to bring their buildings up to standard. Where rehabilitation is not possible, the buildings will be condemned and razed.

The city manager will be authorized by the plan to appoint a full time assistant to coordinate the work of the health, building inspection and fire departments in enforcing the city ordinances.

Lady Churchill Is Object Of Threat

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill called in Scotland Yard today to deal with a threat to his wife, Clementine.

The threat came in a letter in the morning mail to 10 Downing St., the Prime Minister's official residence.

Lady Churchill is 69. Churchill's aides refused details of the letter but said it has been sent to the commissioner of police "for him to take any action he considers necessary."

They said Churchill occasionally gets abusive or eccentric letters. Any that look sinister are sent on to the police at once.

Model Claims She Is Still Married To Benny Girl's Mate

NEW YORK (AP)—Joan Scott Baker, a 21-year-old model, claims she is still legally married to the man who last week married comedian Jack Benny's daughter in a lavish Hollywood wedding.

The blonde, blue-eyed model said a Virgin Islands divorce granted Jan. 29, 1953, was no good because neither she nor New York stock broker Seth H. Baker, 26, was a bona fide resident of the islands at the time.

She filed a suit in New York State Supreme Court asking that the divorce be set aside and that she be granted a separation plus support and maintenance. She said she and Baker were married in Florence, S. C., July 19, 1951, when he was an Army private.

Baker—now honeymooning with Benny's adopted daughter Joan El, in Hawaii—filed a denial through his attorney, claiming the divorce was valid and that Miss Scott had accepted a $5,000 settlement.

In Hollywood, a spokesman for Benny said the comedian's attorneys had checked Baker's divorce before his wedding to Miss Benny and "found the divorce entirely legal."
