Disbarment Trial Begins In South Texas

ALICE, Tex. (AP)—Dist. Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin, once ousted from his position by the Texas Supreme Court, today began a fight to keep his lawyer's license. A jury trial will determine the issue, brought by the Texas State Bar Assn. It seeks to disbar Laughlin, who formerly was backed by South Texas political leader George Parr.

Reds Smash Slave Revolt

MAIZURU, Japan (AP)—More than 150,000 slave laborers revolted against their Russian guards in Siberian forced labor camps last May, a Japanese repatriate said today.

Commission Named To Arrange For Birdwell Extension

County commissioners this morning appointed special commissioners to secure right-of-way for an extension of Birdwell Lane about a half mile to the south. The commissioners will appraise the right-of-way needed for the road and will specify awards to be made to owners of the property. The extension will be designated as a ranch road of the unpaved class, was asked in a petition signed by Edward K. Fisher and seven others.

Charles McLellan, Former Solon, Dies

AUSTIN (AP)—Charles S. McLellan, 55, Eagle Lake, Tex., who served in the Texas House from Colorado and Austin counties from 1940 to 1950, died yesterday.

Southeast Railroad Strike Outlook Bright

ATLANTA (AP)—Chances of settling a Southern strike of railroads were somewhat better today but negotiators remained deadlocked in the strike-ridden telephone walk-out. Conditional agreement was reached last night on appointment of a neutral arbitrator in the Louisville & Nashville Railroad strike which is affecting 14 states. But the factions disagree on what the arbitrator should consider.

House Rejects Beer Tax Hike By Narrow Vote

AUSTIN (AP)—The House rejected a proposed beer tax increase by a narrow margin, 70-68, today, jeopardizing efforts to compromise on the administration tax program. A quick lunch recess was ordered until 2 p. m., with both opponents and backers of the administration's three-pronged tax bill trying to rally strength before debate was resumed.

The vote came after Rep. Stanton Stone of Freeport, sponsor of the measure, promised the House would get a chance to consider as many amendments to the bill as it desired. Members were riled last week when backers of the bill cut off debate and tried to prevent further amendment.

A more harmonious attitude was apparent today when the bill was laid out for consideration at 10:38 a. m. "You're going to give us a fair shake of the dice and a reasonable length of time in which to run with our amendments!" asked Rep. Maury Maverick of San Antonio.

"That's right," said Stone, who earlier had told a reporter he thought an acceptable compromise would be worked out. Rep. J. O. Gilliam of Brownfield, who helped lead the fight against quick passage of the bill, agreed. The two conferred on acceptability of increasing the beer tax 50 cents a barrel and making the production tax on natural gas permanent at 8 per cent. The natural gas tax now 9 per cent is scheduled to drop back to 8 per cent Sept. 1 and then to 7 per cent a year later.

Stone said he would not go along with Gilliam's proposal that one-fourth of the proposed increase in gasoline sales tax be allocated to counties for purchase of right-of-way.

"But I think the beer and natural gas propositions will win enough support to pass the bill," said Stone as he moved from desk to desk in the House to test sentiment of the members. It was exactly a week ago the House spent all afternoon and night debating and amending an administration-backed bill to increase levies on gasoline, cigarettes and beer and wine licenses, and then rejected the whole package, 79-68.

That plan called for another beer tax increase to meet apparent strong demand for such a tax by opponents of the gasoline tax. Over the weekend there was talk of attempting to add a $1 a barrel beer tax increase to the measure as a compromise to meet apparent strong demand for such a tax by opponents of the gasoline tax.

Einstein Dies

Albert Einstein, noted physicist, died today at Princeton hospital.

Noted Wizard Led Way To Atomic Era

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—World-famous scientist Albert Einstein died at 1:15 a. m. (EST) today at Princeton hospital. Einstein, 76, had been admitted to the hospital at noon Friday. The hospital said the cause of death was a rupture of the main artery of the body. A man who shunned publicity, he had entered the hospital Friday with only his intimates knowing he was ill. The shy, white-haired scholar was credited with making possible the atomic bomb by disclosing a small quantity of matter could produce vast amounts of energy. Einstein stood as the foremost theoretical mathematician and physicist in the world.

Farewell For Chou En-lai

Red China Premier Chou En-lai, left, shakes hands with Commander W. L. Clark, aide-de-camp of the Crown Colony of Singapore, after Chou's plane was grounded by bad weather in Singapore. In center is R. K. Tandon, Indian commissioner of Malaya. Chou later flew with his party to Jakarta, next stop on his trip to Bandung for the Asia-African Conference.

Afro-Asian Legates Cheer Anti-Red Talk

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—Iraq's Foreign Minister Fadhl Jamall denounced international communism before the Asia-African conference today and drew prolonged applause from many of the 29 delegations. Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and others from Peiping sat with set faces as Jamall charged "international communism is a materialistic religion that breeds hatred among classes and peoples." Prime Minister Nehru's Indian delegation also heard the speech in silence.

"Communism is a new form of colonialism much more dangerous to us than the old colonialism," declared Jamall, whose Arab country is linked indirectly with the North Atlantic powers through an alliance with Turkey. "No nation on earth is free from its effects."

Premier Mohammed Ali of Pakistan, which has a mutual aid treaty with the United States, walked across the conference room, shook hands with Jamall and congratulated him at the end of the speech.

Chief delegates were delivering 15-minute policy statements in a program which it is believed would go into tomorrow. Indonesian President Soekarno opened the conference with a declaration that the population of Asia and Africa, totaling more than a billion, "can inject the voice of reason into world affairs."

Soekarno, one of Asia's greatest orators, spoke slowly in flawless English. "Perhaps how more than at any other moment in history," he declared, "society, government and statesmanship need to be based upon the highest code of morality."

"We are living in a world of fear," he continued, "fear of the future, of the hydrogen bomb and of ideologies. I hope this conference will give guidance to mankind. . . . Will point out to mankind the way which it must take to attain safety and peace," he said. "I hope it will give evidence that Asia and Africa have been reborn, nay — a new Asia and a new Africa have been born."

The only other major speaker at the opening public session was Indonesian Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo, elected conference chairman unanimously. He was nominated by Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and seconded by Red China's Chou En-lai, Jordan's Foreign Minister Sayyed Wahid-Salaih and Philippine delegate Carlos P. Romulo.

Iraqi Foreign Minister Fadhl Jamall circulated a statement vigorously denouncing communism as a "new form of colonialism more deadly than the old one." He also defended military alliances such as Iraq's pact with Turkey and Britain as essential for self preservation until such time when the Communists may change their minds and hearts.

Jury Forming In Vice Murder Trial

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The presiding judge began organizing a jury for ex-Prosecuting Attorney Arch Ferrell's murder trial today without ruling on a defense motion for postponement. That decision is expected after Special Judge J. Russell McElroy questions prospective jurors on defense complaints that public bias and prejudice exist against Ferrell.

The 38-year-old ousted Phenix City prosecutor, who rose to power during the heyday of vice in that crime ridden community, is the second of three defendants called to trial for the slaying of Alabama Atty. Gen. Nominee A. L. Patterson. The judge will draw a panel of 56 from which a 12-man jury will be chosen.

One defendant, former Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller, has already been convicted of the Patterson murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. A motion for a new trial has been filed. Former Alabama Atty. Gen. St. Garrett also is under indictment for the slaying of the crippled estate senator who would have become attorney general at the expiration of Garrett's term in January this year.

Patterson won the Democratic nomination for attorney general on a pledge to drive gamblers and gangsters out of Phenix City. He was shot to death outside his law office there last June 18. He was to have testified before a Jefferson County (Birmingham) Grand Jury which was investigating complaints of vote fraud in the June 1 primary. Patterson was nominated in the primary.

Ferrell, Garrett and Birmingham Atty. Lamar Reid subsequently were indicted on charges of padding the election returns for Patterson's opponent, Lee Porter of Gadsden, in an attempt to change the outcome. Ferrell was acquitted on the vote fraud charge. Reid, pleading solo contumacious (no contest), was fined $500 and sentenced to six months. Garrett, who is under treatment for a mental disorder in a Galveston, Tex., hospital, hasn't been tried on either count.

Patterson's murder touched off a wholesale vice cleanup in Phenix City, Ala. The bodies of Floyd McElroy, 24, and Bennett Riverer, 49, were recovered from the Trinity River West Fork here. FORT WORTH (AP)—A fisherman slipped under water yesterday and another—who could not swim—jumped in to save him. Both drowned. The bodies of Floyd McElroy, 24, and Bennett Riverer, 49, were recovered from the Trinity River West Fork here.

Here's Good News For Lovers Of Gnus

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Keepers at Sydney zoo had some good news for lovers of gnus today. They proudly proclaimed the arrival of a new gnu. Few gnus are born in zoos and fewer still grow into big gnus. Prospects for this newest gnu are good, keepers indicated.

SENATE GROUP OKS VET LAND OVERHAUL AUSTIN (AP)—A proposed constitutional amendment that would authorize another 100 million dollars for continuing the scandal-smear veterans land program and reorganize the board was Senate committee approval today. The action was taken on a voice vote after the author of the proposal, Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, told the committee he agreed with those who believe there is nothing wrong with the program "except that it needs an honest administration."

"With the land commissioner we now have, I believe we are going to have that," said Moffett. Moffett offered two amendments to the proposal which the committee adopted. One would remove the governor and attorney general as members of the board, adding in their place two private citizens to be appointed by the governor. The land commissioner would continue as chairman.

The other amendment called for submitting the proposal to public vote in the general election of next year rather than in August of this year. Both amendments followed recommendations of the American Legion's state executive committee, presented the Senate committee by State Commander E. L. Jackson of Cisco. Meanwhile, Gov. Allan Shivers sent a message to the Legislature urging emergency funds for the various investigating and law enforcement agencies now looking into the land program. Specifically, the governor asked: 1. Re-appropriation to the attorney general's office $20,000 which remained unexpended from the 1954 appropriation of $30,000 to the state auditor. 2. Appropriation of $20,000 to the internal security division of the Department of Public Safety. Shivers also asked that $25,000 be made available annually to the Veterans Land Board for looking care of necessary expenses arising out of the state's civil suit in recovery money allegedly taken fraudulently from the state in connection with the program. The American Legion's executive committee has given its seal yesterday to additional financing and nine returns for the fund-raising program.

FORT STOCKTON, Tex. (AP)—A four-hour fire cracked through the top story of the three-story Stockton Hotel last night, forcing all guests into the street. Nobody was hurt.

Former O'Daniel Aide Dies In Austin

AUSTIN (AP)—O. P. Lockhart, who helped in W. Lee O'Daniel's first campaign for governor and was later appointed state life insurance commissioner, died yesterday.

Negro Riot Hero Lingers Near Death

RUSK, Tex. (AP)—A Negro patient who tried to save a ward attendant from a brutal beating in Saturday's riot by 80 criminally insane Negroes lingered near death today at Rusk State Hospital.

Four other persons of 13 injured in the bloody uprising remained hospitalized.

Pharo Tilley, near death from multiple skull fractures, was beaten when he tried to help E. B. Taylor, a ward attendant also hospitalized from severe blows on the head and body from a baseball bat.

In Ward 7, where a sadistic murderer and a sex fiend led the riot, an uneasy calm prevailed.

"I think we've got this thing licked," Dr. James A. Bethea, executive director of the state hospital system, said yesterday.

The 80 rioted Saturday morning and held Hospital Supt. Dr. James Castner and two others hostage six hours.

Texas Ranger Capt. Bob Crowder persuaded Ben Riley, 22, the riot's "brain," to call it off.

Riley and Joe Murphy, the other ringleader, rattled off a long list of complaints as the reason for the riot.

The basic complaint, Castner said, apparently was their contention attendants mistreated them.

Yesterday, Castner conducted a 3½-hour investigation into the complaint of brutality.

"I found no evidence of brutality by attendants," Bethea said, "but I did find evidence that some patients had mistreated other patients."

Riley, a strutting strongman who says he's the "son of God," killed a man in Kansas. He was found insane there and returned to his native Texas.

Murphy, from Dallas, has two criminal assaults against women on his record and two attempted murders.

Castner was not injured. He "traded" himself as a hostage, so Dr. L. D. Hancock and others injured in the riot could get medical attention.

Hancock was "jumped" as he made his morning rounds. Riley and others took his keys, broke open tool boxes and armed themselves with scissors, grass cutters, ice picks and heavy files. They broke off the legs of tables and used them for clubs.

Humphrey Bogart stars as Captain Queeg and Jose Ferrer is the defense counsel Barney Greenwald in the return run of "The Caine Mutiny" at the Jet. The Technicolor production of Herman Wouk's best selling novel will play Tuesday through Friday. Also starring in the film is Van Johnson, Fred MacMurray, Robert Francis, and May Wynn.

Hungarian Reds Admit Nagy Ouster

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Hungary's Communist party made public today its long-expected purge of Premier Imre Nagy. Former Deputy Premier Andras Hegedus was elected to succeed him as head of the government.

The Hungarian Parliament elected Hegedus in a session today shortly after a party announcement said Nagy had been fired and stripped of all party posts for causing "grave damage to the party, to the people's democracy and to our social building."

The brief announcement also said Mihaly Farkas had been ousted from the party's five-man secretariat for supporting Nagy's ideas and expelled from the party's political committee and central leadership (the central committee).

Nagy's formal ouster had been anticipated ever since the party's central committee rebuked him five weeks ago for "right wing deviationism."

The 58-year-old leader had espoused the new look emphasis on consumer goods which the Communist countries quickly discarded when Georgi Malenkov was demoted from Russia's premiership.

The party sharply criticized Farkas for reflecting Nagy's views but its verdict was milder in his case. The announcement said he would be "commissioned with other party work."

At its March meeting, the central committee charged Nagy with being the "chief preacher of anti-Marxist ideas" which it blamed for a sharp drop in production.

The party also accused him of supporting "opportunists and right-wing deviationists."

Sleeping Sickness Victim's Progress Laid To Prayer

CHICAGO (AP)—A young suburban couple believes the prayers of neighbors are helping their 6-year-old, brown-eyed daughter to recover from sleeping sickness.

The child, Gayle Russell, lies in a coma at Lutheran Deaconess Hospital. Eyes open, she stares at her parents but does not recognize them. She screams and cannot eat.

But she is beginning to move her arms and legs. Two weeks ago they were completely paralyzed. She was given a 50-50 chance to live. Now, the doctors say, the odds have improved.

Gayle's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell of Morton Grove, just north of Chicago.

Russell said last night Gayle's improvement seemed to coincide with a call for prayers issued by spiritual leaders of three Catholic churches, three Jewish temples and several Protestant churches in Morton Grove and three neighboring communities.

Neighbors heard of Gayle's illness and reported it to their pastors. Several pastors asked their congregations a week ago to pray for Gayle's recovery. Others mentioned the child in prayers at church services last week and again yesterday.

The Skokie News, a neighborhood newspaper, said last week, "The entire community continues to pray for Gayle."

The Russells are Catholics. "I think she's getting better," Russell said. "I think the prayers of all those people are helping her."

He said his wife agreed the prayers were helping.

Gayle has been in the hospital six weeks. She entered for an appendectomy. But two weeks after the operation she developed an ailment doctors diagnosed as encephalitis, commonly called sleeping sickness.

The doctors said she apparently developed peritonitis after her appendix was removed, and that this in turn caused toxic poisoning in her system which caused the encephalitis.

Truman Accusations Bring GOP Blasts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman's accusation that the Eisenhower administration is guilty of political trickery with serious foreign and domestic issues brought heated retorts yesterday from GOP ranks.

"Neither vicious personal attacks on the President nor the ridiculous efforts to undermine his outstanding record in office will succeed," chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee said.

Truman did not mention Eisenhower by name, but delivered a blistering attack on his administration Saturday night at a big Democratic dinner honoring Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn.

In a speech reminiscent of his 1948 "give 'em hell" campaign efforts, he charged the Eisenhower administration with bad management, blunders and with trying "political tricks with the grave and serious issues of both foreign and domestic policies."

The dinner, which attracted some 3,000 Democrats from all over the country, climaxed a two-day party rally during which the national committee discussed plans for the 1956 campaign.

The sessions produced no new word on the intentions of Adlai E. Stevenson, the former Illinois governor who lost to Eisenhower in 1952. Stevenson has made it clear it will be several months before he makes any decision. He leaves from New York today on a month-long business trip to Africa.

Stevenson rivaled Rayburn and Truman in applause at the 2100-plate dinner for the speaker.

Truman, lauding Rayburn as "a great American," asked his hearers not to "forget how soundly and securely we have built this country so that it has even been able to withstand some pretty bad management of the country during the last two years."

He said the present administration "has been playing politics with our security, our foreign policy, with our civil service and with our nation's resources."

He assailed handling of Eisenhower's announcement in 1953 that the U. S. 7th Fleet would no longer be assigned to prevent any raids on the Communist Chinese mainland by Chiang Kai-shek. That canceled a portion of Truman's order, issued at the start of the Korean War, designed to prevent attacks by either Chiang or the Reds across the Formosa Strait.

"The Republican administration must have known," Truman said, "that the picture of an unleashed Chiang Kai-shek invading China was a barefaced political fraud."

Rep. Judd (R-Minn.) accused Truman of speaking "with the facts concealed behind his own misstatements." Rep. Keating (R-NY) called the speech a "most unfortunate" setback to bipartisanship in foreign policy.

Segregation Arguments Sound Lot Like Ultimatum

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—The United States Supreme Court heard something from some Southern states this week that sounded a lot like an ultimatum.

If the court orders an immediate end to segregation of white and Negro school children, they said, then there won't be any public schools in some states.

Lawyers representing Negroes and the federal government took the position that was pretty much scare talk—that when it comes to a showdown there won't be as much trouble as some people predict over putting into effect the Supreme Court's decision that segregated schools violate the Constitution.

Even the Southern states said they can work things out—if the problem is left to their own school boards and there is enough time to remold the attitudes of people brought up in the biracial tradition.

Right there is the crux of the arguments that took up four days of the Supreme Court's time last week. The question is how and when to enforce its ruling, handed down 11 months ago today, that racial segregation in public schools goes against the guarantee of equal rights for all under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

Should the court issue a decree turning the enforcement problem back to federal district courts in which the segregation cases developed? Or that, the answer all along the line was "Yes."

Well, then, should it tell these courts that segregation must be ended immediately, and Negroes admitted to the schools of their choice, or should it allow for a gradual period of adjustment?

The answers on that split off in three directions.

There was the repeated refrain from Dixie that there must be no deadline and no definite orders to change. And Chief Justice Warren said that it isn't a question of attitude but of conforming to court decrees.

Both Warren and Frankfurter aimed their remarks at a South Carolina attorney, S. E. Rogers, who told the court:

"We do wish to work within the framework of the decision. But we do know there must be a change of attitude and those attitudes can't be changed quickly. . . . To say that you have got to change the attitude simply doesn't change it."

Rogers mentioned attitudes, too, when Warren asked whether an "honest attempt" would be made to comply with the court's decision against segregation.

This issue of changing attitudes and obtaining public acceptance was pinpointed time after time, by attorneys for Delaware, Florida, Virginia, Texas and North Carolina.

President Eisenhower has said he believes the court won't be arbitrary and will take emotional and practical problems into consideration. As the administration spokesman before the court, Sobeloff said that "Attitudes are to be considered but attitudes are not to control."

Throughout the arguments, some of the court members appeared to be pleased when some of the states said they have taken steps toward integration and to bristle a bit when others reported none.

Appealing for time, as opposed to a court order for immediate end to segregation, South Carolina attorney Robert McFligg Jr. said that to direct authorities in his state "to comply tomorrow or else, that would destroy the school system." Similarly, Atty. Gen. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. of Virginia, said he measured his words in declaring: "We are facing the bleak prospects of serious impartment or possible destruction of the free public school system."

Asst. Atty. Gen. Beverly Lake of North Carolina said a decree to integrate at once would bring "turmoil and confusion" and probably "a death blow" to the public school system. He said there might be "racial tensions and animosities unparalleled" since the days of the Ku Klux Klan.

Atty. Gen. Richard W. Ervin of Florida said a "do it and do it now" rule might arouse local resentment, but:

"If you allow us the opportunity to work—not against some deadline—we can bring about complete integration."

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd of Texas warned against possible "social and economic upheaval" from integration before the people are ready to accept it.

To all of which Marshall retorted that those arguing delay mentioned only attitudes and public opinion polls and offered no real plans for desegregation at any time. He said there was no semblance of legal authority for saying that "If you don't give me what I want, I'll close up the public schools."

"There is nothing before this court," the Negro lawyer said, "that shows any justification for giving this interminable gradual adjustment."

China Reds Building Formosa Air Power

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has received intelligence information that the Chinese Communists are engaged in "an extensive buildup" of Red airpower opposite Formosa, which the United States is committed to defend.

Announcing this at Augusta yesterday after a conference with the President, Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen the buildup had "grave implications." He described it as:

1. "More intense and more broad in its scope" than the United States had been aware of until a few days ago.
2. A buildup which "indicates a higher degree of capability" on the part of the Communists to launch an attack "than we had been aware of a few weeks ago."

In a formal statement after a two-hour meeting with the President, Dulles said:

"In relation to China, we discussed the grave implications of an extensive buildup, now in progress, by the Chinese Communists of offensive airpower on the China mainland opposite Formosa."

Dulles' elaboration on the buildup came at a brief news conference at a hotel after he had left the Chief Executive's vacation headquarters at the Augusta National Golf Club.

His remarks and his prepared statement, which was approved by Eisenhower, stirred new interest in a prediction attributed last month to Adm. Robert B. Carney that the Reds would be capable of launching an assault on the Chinese Nationalist Matsu Islands by April 15.

The prediction the Communists would be set for an attack on Quemoy, a nother off-shore island, about May 15 was also attributed to Carney.

Carney, chief of naval operations, later flatly denied he ever made such a prediction. Some newsmen who attended a dinner where Carney expressed his views challenged the admiral's memory of what he said.

Dulles' remarks yesterday appeared to raise a question whether a Communist attack in the Formosa Strait might jibe pretty

Salk Gift For Humanity's Sake

Following the pattern set by its developer, President Eisenhower has offered the whole world, free and slave, unrestricted use of the Salk anti-polio vaccine. Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed it, has refused any personal profit he might have realized and continues to live on what one well-wisher calls "his meager college pay" at the University of Pittsburgh laboratory.

In refusing any personal profit from his service to humanity, Dr. Salk followed the example of Sir Alexander Fleming, the British bacteriologist who discovered penicillin, and many another scientist before him.

Dr. Salk's attitude is the same as that of the millions of ordinary Americans who gave their dimes and dollars to the March of Dimes — service to humanity does not bear a price tag. Their philosophy is expressed in the Prophet Isaiah's hail to the coming Great Physician:

"Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

We have no doubt many a money-grubber will look with contempt upon Dr. Salk's disregard of the profit motive; why, the man's a sucker! Think of the millions he might pile up in a few short years!

And it's more than likely that Russia and its satellites will look the President's gift horse in the mouth, in search of hidden traps and time-used bombs. Either that, or they'll claim Russia developed the whole thing a long time ago.

Nevertheless, the President's offer to share the vaccine and the secrets of its processing with all the world, friend and foe alike, is in consonance with the spirit that prompted the March of Dimes, that kept Dr. Salk and dozens of other researchers burning the midnight oil, and that dictated Isaiah's evocation of the Messiah.

In spite of all you hear and see to the contrary, the acquisition of money is not the be-all and end-all of existence. The love of God and one's fellowman is.

Gen. March Earns His Own Place

The man who landed 2,000,000 American soldiers in France by Armistice Day in 1918 died in Washington Wednesday at the age of 90. He bossed the American Army in one of the great crises of history, but few of this generation ever heard of him, and his passing was noted briefly on the inside pages of most newspapers, if at all.

He was, of course, General Peyton C. March, once chief of staff of the United States Army. The headlines and the enduring fame went to some of his subordinates, the most notable example being the late John J. Pershing, commanding the American Expeditionary Force, but it was March who organized, trained, equipped and shipped the two millions overseas to bring a world war to an early end.

Native of Pennsylvania, March graduated from Lafayette College in 1884 and from West Point in 1888. He participated in the suppression of the insurrection in the Philippines, was an observer in the Russo-Japanese war with the Japanese forces. He had gone to France in 1917 as a colonel, won promotion to brigadier as commander of the American artillery, and in March of 1918 was brought home as acting chief of staff with the temporary rank of major general. In May of that year he was confirmed as chief and given the rank of full general.

On June 30, 1920, General March's rank reverted to that of major general, and he retired by his own request in November of 1921 in the same rank. It was not until ten years later that the man who had made the landing of 2,000,000 troops in France possible was named to the permanent grade of full general.

Like a good many quiet operators, Peyton C. March seemed to avoid the headlines and contented himself with doing an efficient job without fanfare. The limelight for which some generals seem to yearn held no attractions for him. He was a professional soldier who devoted his active lifetime to the nation's service, and he lived as quietly after retirement as he had while putting two million American soldiers across the Atlantic and just as unobtrusively bringing them back again. He has a well-earned place in the history books.

Another Great Load Lifted From Housewife

Civilization in this best-of-all centuries is flowering in every direction. How marvelous it is to be alive in a great age in which the first pound of pre-sliced butter has just been introduced into the super markets and in which "his" and "her" steaks are now available to a discriminating public through the same medium!

About the only "must" items heretofore missing in my pre-digested, pre-pressed, pre-cooked, ready-mix life have been pre-sliced butter and "his" and "her" steaks. Now that these two innovations are on the market, my cup runneth over.

Now that the terrible drudgery of slicing butter has been removed from the aching back of the American housewife, she will have an extra 2.7 minutes per day in which to study French, bid five no-trumps, try that new lipstick, weed the garden, or read a good book.

Butter sliced into neat, antiseptic slices, just like those served in hotels and the corner coffee pot, is now available at a premium of only one or two cents per pound, putting it within the reach of all Americans who are dedicated to gracious living.

It comes with 16 identical pats to the quarter-pound or a sum total of 64 to the full pound, or just about enough per pat to completely frustrate an Idaho baked potato.

Even so, this is a tremendous help to us homemakers who can now face each new day secure in the knowledge that, as the evening sun goes down, we shall no longer be exhausted by our hand-to-hand tussle with the family butter.

No more of those old, ragged butter pats like mother used to make!

The "his" and "her" steaks, another tribute to American ingenuity, are available in Cleveland super markets today.

But what Cleveland chews today, the rest of us will eat tomorrow.

A chain of Cleveland markets is now wrapping in one sanitary transparent package two steaks — a giant, economy-size porterhouse that is "his" and a smaller one for "her." If there are kids in the household, I guess they toss Fido for the bone.

Although I realize that these "his" and "her" steaks are a gigantic stride forward, nonetheless, I do have a teeny-weensy reservation about them. Who, for example, is to say "her" hasn't got as much sirloin capacity as you know who?

In the steak department in our household, I pace the Head of Clan Robb, and I hate the prospect of having to toss in the future for "his" porterhouse. It could make for bitterness.

And it is also the experience of this household that, for age and weight, any lady guests let loose on a sirloin can out-eat the "his" guests in a breeze. However, since this "his" and "her" steak development obviously comes under the head of progress, I hail it.

As a housewife, there is but one further development for which I scan the skies. Speed the day when American inventiveness will perfect a silver polish that can be put in the electric dishwasher to polish a whole load of silver at once. Then the last shackle will dissolve.

Belligerent Rats

CAMPBELL, Ohio (AP) — Councilman Frank Reichard, after hearing complaints about rats at the city dump, went down to the dump himself. He reported to his fellow councilman that a big rat attacked him, forcing him to flee from some distance before he finally was able to kill it with a stone. After Reichard's experience, the city started scattering rat poison on the dump.

Expensive Meal

DETROIT (AP) — Who says rabbits like only carrots? One little rascal favors Fuji-mums — dozens of 'em. Fuji-mums are rare Japanese chrysanthemums. One day a rabbit slipped into the Detroit Flower Show and nibbled up 35 of them.

Leland J. Gilmour, a horticulturist, said 35 Fuji-mums make quite a meal, even for a starved rabbit.

Bandung Problem: No Unity Basis

WASHINGTON (AP) — The West thinks it has troubles. But the 29 Asian and African nations opening a conference today at Bandung, Indonesia, have troubles, too.

They sent more than 600 delegates there, representing over one billion people who include Christians, Buddhists, Moslems, Hindus, Communists, anti-Communists and nations such as India called neutralists.

What they have in common is that they are from Asia, Africa, and the Middle East and that most of them are colored. Russia and the other big white powers — the United States and the West Europeans — were not invited.

While the United States and its Western Allies have differences, they are at least united in common defense against communism. The delegates at Bandung do not have even that kind of unity.

India's Prime Minister Nehru may have to struggle with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, if not for leadership of the conference then at least to chart its direction or to prevent it from following Chou out the window.

Nehru, great critic of the West and soft-talker about China, is a tough anti-Communist at home. Chou will probably be asked by some delegates to promise not to start war by attacking Formosa or to team up in its defense, led by the Philippines' Carlos Romulo.

That will put him on the spot since Red China poses as a peace lover but has vowed to take the islands. At the same time Nehru and Chou have blasted the anti-Communist Southeast Asia defense organization.

That group's members — the United States, Britain, France, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Thailand and Australia — banded together for mutual defense against attack by the Communists of China or North Viet Nam.

Of the eight members only Pakistan, the Philippines and Thailand were invited to Bandung. If the organization is assailed at the conference they can be expected to team up in its defense, led by the Philippines' Carlos Romulo.

At the conference Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser would like support for the Arabs' dispute with Israel, which isn't there. But the Arab nations at Bandung — Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iraq — don't see eye-to-eye on everything, either.

The first three have criticized Iraq for signing a defense treaty with Trukey, which, although present at Bandung, is allied with the West and is not a member of the Arab League.

Some of the Africans and Asians at Bandung — with plenty of reason to remember the long history of West European colonialism, imperialism, exploitation and practice of white supremacy at their expense — will probably tee off on the West.

But at the same time the non-Communists among them, if they make any pretense at reality, must regard Red China as a new threat to their independence.

Red China will try to spread the gospel of goodwill to its neighbors although those neighbors, at the moment they are critical of the West, know the West is the biggest deterrent to Communist China's inclination to gobble them up.

Nevertheless, the West may suffer some damage at this conference if, despite the divergent views of the delegates, the result is increased suspicion and hostility to the West.

Armor Safest For Bullfights

MADRID (AP) — The safest costume to wear to a bullfight is a suit of armor.

It comes in handy to protect you from the wrath of the fans, or aficionados, if things go wrong.

Your typical Spanish bullfight aficionado is a rabid individualist who makes even the most leather-lunged American baseball fan seem like a wax statue of Casper Milquetoast.

He is a perfectionist. The deadly ballet of a bullfight is more of an art form than a sport. Everything must go strictly according to Hoyle or the aficionado takes it as a personal affront, and his howls can be heard from here to Seville.

If he thinks the performance is too lousy, he may even go down into the ring himself to show the matador how a bull really should be fought.

This actually happened last Easter Sunday at a bull stabbing I attended out of curiosity, along with some 24,000 regular patrons of this cultural medium.

A bullfight follows a classic pattern. Ideally it is held on a hot bright windless day.

The bull comes loping in, fierce and surging with power, and is dragged out dead and bleeding by mules less than half an hour later.

In those few moments he is run until he is partly winded, methodically weakened by a man on horseback who lances his shoulder muscles until he can hardly lift his head. Three daring men on foot then run up and stick brightly colored darts in his wound to goad him to the limit.

The bloody pageant reaches its climax when the matador, after flagging the beast back and forth with a cape like a maddened railroad locomotive, leans forward on tiptoe and drives his sword over the lowered horns into the confused bull's weary heart.

Each part of the ceremony is a ritual. Every graceful movement of body and cape by the matador is as meaningful to the true aficionado as a jitterbug step to a teen-ager in America. The bull must be blindly brave, the matador skillfully courageous in toying with the horned deity.

Nothing went right from then on. The aficionados jeered the picadores for punishing the bulls too much. They jeered a bull every time he paused to try to figure what kind of a strange pasture fate had landed him in. They jeered the president of the bull ring. They jeered the matadors for being too cautious. Some of them even began to jeer each other.

As the seventh and last bull of the day was being worn down, a young aficionado leaped into the ring. He took off his coat, and waving it like a cape, fancy-stepped three times out of the way of the charging bull before attendants hustled him out.

It took the disconcerted matador three sprints to finish off the bull.

Later I heard that 39 fans had been arrested during the rioting that followed.

Officer Charges Resort Orgy Area

AADMORE, Okla., April 18 (AP) — A Carter County undersheriff charged today that the nearby Lake Murray Resort was the scene of frequent drinking and sex orgies among teen-agers.

Undersheriff Leroy Baker said the most recent spree occurred Easter weekend.

Baker said a deputy, James L. Woodley, investigated disturbance reports and found young couples having sex relations out in the open in a camping area.

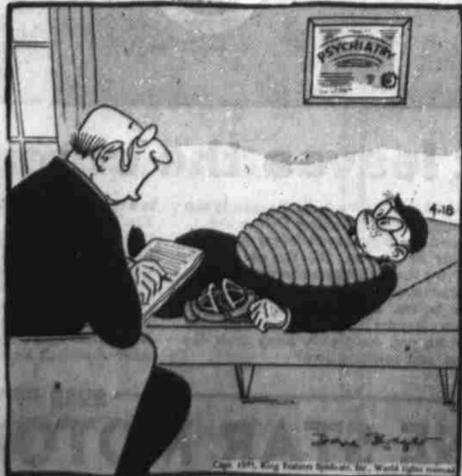

He said there were 150 to 200 youngsters at the resort, and that many were "pretty intoxicated."

Danes To Open School For Polar Youngsters

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, April 18 (AP) — An elementary school with a different curriculum will open at Thule in Northwest Greenland next fall.

In addition to the three Rs the students will get lessons in shooting, driving a dog team and building a kayak. There also are courses in seal hunting and how to handle a harpoon. The students will be all Eskimos.

Small-Talk From The World Of Sports

Facts, fancy and figures for the sports filbert.

Billiards, or games like it, date back to 400 BC. The word "billiards" probably came from the French word, "bille", which means "stick."

The English generate no enthusiasm for baseball; in fact, do not even understand it, but they are responsible for its existence. The game was evolved in its very early years from a combination of English cricket and English rounders.

The oldest sports, in the proper order, are running, throwing and wrestling. Checkers is the oldest game in the world. Jai alai is considered to be the fastest game in existence.

The Chinese did not take up fishing until 900 BC but since have devised more methods to capture fish than any other nation on earth.

John L. Sullivan, first of the so-called "modern" Heavyweight champions, made a million dollars in his time, though his biggest fight purse was only $14,000.

Ty Cobb's largest annual income from baseball amounted to only $35,000 but he's said to be worth more than $15,000,000 now.

And Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the wrestler, reportedly has made more money exclusively from sports than any other individual—something like $15,000,000.

Sofball was started in Minneapolis as recently as 32 years ago.

The first Olympic Games were held in 776 BC but the Winter Olympics have been conducted only since 1924.

The original ball used in basketball was a soccer football. Dr. James Naismith is generally credited with inventing the game but some persons contend that a sport similar to basketball might have existed in ancient times. This is based upon the finding among Maya ruins of a modest-sized enclosure which was a court, and where hoops much like those used in the present game, were found attached rather high up on the walls at each end of the arena. The first modern game had nine men on each side.

Sonja Henie, the glamorous ice skater, won the Norwegian nation figure-skating championship when she was but ten years of age.

Paul Berlenbach, who defeated Mike McTigue for the Lightweight boxing championship of the world in 1925, is the only man ever to win both Olympic boxing and wrestling championships.

Four square feet cowhide, cut into 24 separate pieces, are required to make a baseball catcher's mitt.

Ohio State University respects a strange custom. Representatives of the school plant a buckeye tree on the campus of every school it meets in football.

The Moors were unwelcome when they landed in Spain and started taking the dons apart but they are credited with introducing "bull-fighting" there. The Moors, it seemed, had a lust for slaughter, the sight of blood and death.

The city of Montreal, Canada, has no fewer than 127 lighted outdoor ice rinks.

Red Grange, included on most all-time All-American football teams, scored only six touchdowns in his senior year at Illinois. Doak Walker, the SMU great, probably enjoyed his greatest success in college as a sophomore.

In 1894, football rules were amended—cutting the playing time in the game from 90 to 70 minutes and no play would be allowed in which more than three men were in motion at the time the ball was snapped.

At one time, the number of players on a lacrosse team ranged from 75 to 200 men.

A race horse travels a distance equivalent to seven times his own length in one second while in full stride.

Champ Among Corporations—General Motors

For years, this question has been racking my brain: "What is the world's biggest corporation?"

You read that General Motors Corp. is the world's largest privately owned industrial enterprise; that Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. is the top financial corporation in the country, that American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is the largest utility.

That's a lot of hair-splitting. What we need is a champ — without qualification. The biggest U. S. company would automatically be the world's biggest. But how do you measure bigness in business?

Metropolitan Life, for example, struts the biggest balance sheet. That's why it's called the world's largest financial corporation. In total assets, it's followed closely by AT&T. But Metropolitan isn't up there with General Motors in sales, U. S. Steel Corp. in number of employees, or Standard Oil Co. (NJ) in earnings.

Obviously, then, no single yardstick for "biggest" is possible. Into the reckoning go the number of jobs the company provides; the assets of the business; earning power, which is a measure of efficiency and profitability; and, finally, you mustn't forget sales — the story of how much people are willing to pay for a company's products or services.

In sales, General Motors is tops by a wide margin, followed by Standard Oil (NJ).

1954 Sales	Assets (1954)
General Motors $9,800,000,000	Metropolitan Life $13,100,000,000
Standard Oil (NJ) 5,800,000,000	American Tel. & Tel. 12,800,000,000
Metropolitan Life 4,900,000,000	Standard Oil (NJ) 6,600,000,000
American Tel. & Tel. 4,800,000,000	General Motors 5,100,000,000
United States Steel 3,300,000,000	United States Steel 3,300,000,000

In assets — amount of money that has been invested in the enterprise by bondholders, stockholders, policyholders — Metropolitan leads AT&T by a "mere" three hundred million:

1954 Earnings
General Motors $896,000,000
Standard Oil (NJ) $34,000,000
American Tel. & Tel. $50,000,000

In earnings power, GM exceeds its closest rival, Standard Oil, by a third:

1954 Earnings
General Motors $896,000,000
Standard Oil (NJ) $34,000,000
American Tel. & Tel. $50,000,000

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Big, gravel-voiced Andy Devine may be launching a brand-new career as a dramatic actor.

This is nothing new for Andy, who has had a good dozen careers since he started in the movies as an extra almost 30 years ago. He has done everything from slim collegiates to big-billed Westerners.

Andy's now a Kansas City cop who tries to solve a gangster killing in "Pete Kelly's Blues." He was chosen for the role by Jack Webb, the Joe Friday of TV's "Dragnet" who is starring in the film as well as directing it.

"It's a straight role, my first in 17 or 18 years," Andy explained.

"I'm a guy who's trying to track down crime — and I get no help from Webb in doing it."

Andy walked into his dressing room for a chat. He put his bulk down on a couch and nearly sank to the floor. He's a big man, but the weight doesn't bother him.

"Once I got a little worried and I went to my doctor about it," he related. "But he told me not to be concerned. He said it was senseless to expect everybody to be thin. All my people were big-bodied and heavy; I guess I was destined to be, too."

Andy's current reading is around 290-300 pounds, but he has been as high as 348. He said he's not a big eater.

"My trouble is that I'm a piecer," he explained. "Whenever I walk past the refrigerator door, it automatically swings open. My wife always keeps cold fruit, and if there happens to be a pork chop, I might grab that, too."

He remarked that he hasn't had a drink in nine years. When he was pushing 350, he became alarmed. He went on the wagon and lost a pound a day for a month.

As every young TV watcher knows, Andy is the Jingles of the Wild Bill Hickok series.

In addition, Andy is starring in another TV series. He is taking over for the late Ed McConnell, the veteran kid show emcee who had his "Smiling Ed's Gang," and he has already made a supply of 52 films. They'll start in August.

Besides his professional duties, Andy is the longtime mayor of Van Nuys. It's strictly an honorary post, but it keeps him busy. Van Nuys is a suburb of Los Angeles in the San Fernando Valley.

Metropolitan Life	200,000,000
United States Steel	195,000,000
xDividends to policyholders plus increase in surplus funds.
And in job-making, General Motors is 100,000 up on AT&T and more than double, U. S. Steel:

No. of Employees
General Motors	577,000
American Tel. & Tel.	475,000
United States Steel	268,000
Standard Oil (NJ)	155,000
Metropolitan Life	50,000

Thus, in the three out of four categories — sales, earnings, and jobs — General Motors is tops.

Yet, in assets, it's less than half as big as Metropolitan Life and American Telephone & Telegraph. But assets, as stated in a balance sheet, reflect only dollars invested. Sales, earning power, and the number of jobs reflect the economic influence and power of a company's assets.

Metropolitan Life is a custodian of savings and security for its policy holders. These savings are largely in bonds. The company handles money rather than products. The Metropolitan, though first in dollars, is outranked by the other four members of the Big Five as an employer.

American Telephone is in second place in assets and number of employees behind Metropolitan and GM respectively. It's third in earnings behind GM and Standard Oil and it's fourth in sales.

To me, the ranking of the one and two spots is easy. GM, first and AT&T second, I'd put United States Steel in third place, even though it is surpassed in earnings, sales, and assets by Standard Oil (NJ). Its 268,000 employees to Standard Oil's 155,000 is controlling. Then, in fifth spot goes Metropolitan, notwithstanding its leadership in assets.

Ranking of this sort is subject to argument. General Electric topped U. S. Steel in earnings last year. And G. E. had 55,000 more employees than Standard Oil and 160,000 more than Metropolitan. So GE might try to enter a claim to a place among the "Big Five of Corporate-dom."

But when all four measures are considered — employees, sales, earnings, and assets (I'd put them in that order of importance) — the No. 1 spot, without argument, goes to GM. As of the end of 1954, it's the world's largest corporation — the champ.

Indoor Sports Will Observe Anniversary

Marking the 25th anniversary of the founding of the national organization of Indoor Sports, the local group is planning a birthday party for Saturday evening.

The affair will be given in the small auditorium of Howard County Junior College, with Claudia Arrick, president of the Big Spring chapter, in charge. James Horton, past president, will give the ritual followed by a short musical program directed by Mrs. Nell Frazier.

The Indoor Sports Club hopes that by participation of more disabled persons in club activities a greater number of physically handicapped people will be encouraged to become gainfully employed citizens, actively taking part in all phases of community life.

This club is striving to show the nation's employers of the nation's business—and statistics will bear them out—that the physically handicapped persons make better than average employees.

This organization is self-governing, non-profit and independent and is composed of handicapped people whose purpose is to encourage and provide opportunities for active participation in self-planned social and recreational activities.

Special stress is placed on all members cooperating in civic, religious, social and fraternal organizations in order to bring about a better understanding and acceptance of the seriously physically handicapped by the able-bodied.

The group pledges its support to any legislation that aims at giving the handicapped better opportunities for employment and more adequate facilities for a more normal life than they now have—which would put them at least on a par with the average able-bodied citizen.

Contrary to some thinking, this is not just a local organization but an international one with a membership of over three thousand seriously handicapped people of all ages. Almost every type of disability is represented and these include both civilian and veteran.

The membership covers every section of the United States as well as Alaska, Canada, Great Britain and other parts of the world. There are 73 chapters in the United States which include the Texas chapters at Big Spring, Weatherford, Plainview, Borger, and Amarillo.

Crowning Glory

Angela Lansbury wearing a crown here, but she doesn't have to—her crowning glory can stand in any company. Angela, who stars in Paramount's "Court Jester," passes on some of her hair care tips to Lydis Lane.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Angela Talks Of Care Of Figure, And Hair

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD—I've known Angela Lansbury since she first came over from London to play the cockney maid in "Gaiety." Since then she's settled in Hollywood and has two small children.

When I visited her recently at Paramount where she is making "The Court Jester" we talked about the problem of getting your figure back after having a baby. Angela had been through it twice and knew something about it.

"I had a terrible time getting back to normal after my first baby," she told me. "I didn't start exercising right away and as a result of my procrastinating when I finally got down to it, it was really hard work."

"I didn't make that mistake the second time. When I left the hospital I had a series of exercises to try after 3 weeks, and another set for later. I worked at them faithfully and this time I was back to my normal measurements in a short time."

"Not that I believe in doing too much too soon," she added. "Your doctor is the best authority on how soon you should start working out. Lying flat on your back for a while gives your organs a chance to fall back into place."

"Of course," Angela continued, "regaining your figure often means revising your diet, too. I check my weight regularly. Quite often after a round of parties or during the holiday season I find I've gained a few pounds, and I start in immediately to cut down. I limit myself to two meals a day. This may not be practical for someone who is away from home but around the house it's easy to lower your intake."

Angela is a natural blonde but she has had to change the color of her hair many times for movie roles.

"This can be disastrous if you don't take steps to counteract the drying effect of bleaches and dyes. A good oil treatment takes care of this in most cases."

"My hair is the kind that looks pretty only when it's clean so I shampoo it as often as several times a week."

"That's a lot of time to spend on one phase of grooming," I commented.

"Not really, because I have a hair dryer. It was a gift to me and I can honestly say I've never enjoyed a present more. It's comfortable, inexpensive—and best of all, it's quick. It has cut the time I used to spend on my hair in half, and besides, just drying my hair with it I use it to condition my scalp. I rub oil into my hair and scalp, put on a shower cap and steam in the oils by letting the hot air from the dryer blow on it."

"It's one grooming aid I'd hate to be without," Angela concluded.

Ackerly Juniors Entertain Seniors

ACKERLY—Using a theme of "Over the Rainbow" the junior class of the Ackerly High School entertained members of the senior class with a banquet at the Settles Hotel Saturday night.

Special music given by junior class members followed the theme as did decorations on the tables. "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" was sung by Patricia Iden, Dawn Springfield, Jeanine Haynes, Margaret Smith, Alvin Cates and Warren Moore. "Ebb Tide" was played by violinist Margaret Smith accompanied at the piano by Miss Iden.

Fifty young people, their sponsors and special guests attended the affair.

"Junior Miss Technique." In addition to a full section on care of the hair, you'll also get information on skin, make-up, grooming, grace and posture. Ideal information for both the Jr. Miss and the Sr. Mrs. Get your copy by sending only 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, care of the Big Spring Herald. 'Moment Of Truth'

Patricia McCormick climaxed a perfect afternoon with this sword thrust Sunday at Ciudad Acuna. The bull fell immediately after the thrust. Pat was awarded both ears and the tail of the La Playa ranch bull, the symbol of a good fight.

Pat Gets Standing Ovation At Acuna

By GLENN COOTES
CIUDAD ACUNA, Mex. — Patricia McCormick, popular Big Spring bullfighter, received a standing ovation from more than 2,800 spectators Sunday afternoon after winning both ears and the tail of her first bull.

The second bull Pat fought was much the better bull and she worked very close to the horns. Mid-way through the fight, she had the bull in such perfect control that she was able to drop to her knees, her back to the bull, less than three feet from his horns. However, she had difficulty killing it and had to make two thrusts with her sword. This probably kept her from winning the accolades again.

Each killed one bull Sunday afternoon on the same bill with Pat and each of them was awarded one ear. But it was left to the Big Spring girl to show the visitors an exciting bullfight.

U. S. Supplies Huge Fleet To World Friends

WASHINGTON — The United States has supplied enough ships to make a huge fleet to friendly nations, some of them former enemies.

With delivery next month of two more ships to Japan, the number of Navy vessels loaned or otherwise provided for big and little countries in both hemispheres the last six years will total at least 870, a check of Defense Department records indicated today.

Italy, an Axis power in World War II, is getting help from her former opponent, including the loan of an American submarine.

A Touchy Situation
What a marvelous idea! What a brainy solution to the dating problem! At least that's what the brain who thought it up, believed. However it was, disgusted with waiting for the telephone to ring, made an amendment to the dating code which provided for an "open season on boys" at certain times and under certain conditions.

Williams Has Coolers, Parts And Accessories

W. C. Williams, owner and manager of the Williams Sheet Metal Works, reminds Big Springers that his firm has a complete stock of air conditioning equipment of all sizes and types, as well as a full line of parts and accessories. His establishment also is staffed and equipped to perform every type of air conditioning installation or to service any make or model equipment.

Many residents already are getting their cooling equipment in shape for the summer season which is just getting under way, Williams reported today. But he expects a greater demand for service a little later on, and suggests that homeowners and businessmen take steps now to get equipment serviced in order to avoid the rush which is bound to come.

The demand already this spring has indicated that many Big Springers and other residents of this area are seriously considering the installation of the compact and efficient US Alroco refrigerative-type air conditioners which Williams distributes in this area.

Some also are planning to install the US Alroco combination heating which Williams promises will solve both their heating and cooling problems for years. By making the combination installation now, the homeowner will enjoy all the benefits of the refrigerative-type cooler this summer and will only have to switch from the air conditioner to the furnace next fall for around-the-clock weather comfort.

The combination units, of course, utilize common duct systems, which Williams' shop is prepared to manufacture and install. Such systems put the air—either cooled or heated—into every section of a home, eliminating "chilly corners" in the winter time and "hot spots" in the summer.

The combination heating-cooling equipment is available in sizes ranging from two to five tons on the air conditioning size and up to 15,000 BTUs from the furnace. Cooling units alone are offered in sizes up to 15 tons, the larger ones being designed for large stores or other commercial buildings. The two-ton units are ideal for the small cottage, while the five-ton coolers will adequately cool much larger homes.

The refrigerative coolers also may be installed in connection with existing heating plants, taking advantage of ductwork which is already in place, Williams pointed out. This affords a considerable savings.

Any of the equipment at Williams Sheet Metal Works, including a large supply of evaporative type coolers, is available on the FHA home improvement loans. These loans have a low interest rate. No down payments are required and borrowers have up to 36 months to pay.

Williams can provide additional information on the loans and will make a free estimate of the cost of any type of installation.

Williams Sheet Metal Works is located at 201 Benton, and the telephone number is 4-6791.

BALDWIN DEALER

Best In Pianos Found At Adair's

The best in pianos are right handy to people in the Big Spring area—as handy as a telephone or visit to the Adair Music Company at 1708 Gregg.

Over a period of years, there are perhaps more than 1,000 Baldwins, and the Baldwin-made Hamiltons, which were put in the hands of satisfied customers here by Adair Music.

Adair has a new plan now to help friends who are not certain about whether they are ready to buy a piano. Understandably, when a child begins to take music, the parent cannot always be sure how events will turn out.

In such instances, Adair has a rental plan whereby pianos—new ones—may be rented for three months. The initial charge is $25 (which includes a $10 delivery fee) and the next two months are $15 each. If, at the end of the three months, the customer would like to purchase the piano, the $55 paid in rentals may be credited to the purchase price.

There is a reason why so many people prefer Baldwin, Mrs. Opal Adair points out. In the first place the price range certainly is commensurate with quality and in many instances very close to that for instruments with inferior materials and workmanship. There are numerous acroses here which have gone years without being inspected annually.

"Of course we urge a tuning and inspection annually," Mrs. Adair said. "It stands to reason that the piano will give better service longer. But it is a tribute to the skill of the Baldwin craftsmen and to their policy of using only the best in materials that a piano would remain mechanically sound even though not checked for years."

The vast majority of churches in Big Spring have Baldwins. Howard County Junior College added five not long ago, and the Big Spring schools have many Baldwins throughout the system.

"People in the Big Spring area can get the best deal in pianos right here," said Mrs. Adair. "We have tried to build our business up on integrity and the quality of the products we sell. We maintain a stock of instruments so buyers can see and hear for themselves."

"If there is another model desired—or any instrument or product which we might not happen to have in stock—we can get it promptly. We know our continuation in business depends upon satisfied customers—and when folks get a Baldwin, the favorite of a majority of concert artists including the famous Liberace—they almost automatically become satisfied customers."

Building Transformed

This modern, trim building, once an old stucco structure, is an example of the type of work performed by Contractor Charles Campbell who specializes in making old buildings look like new. That was accomplished on the structure above by the installation of brick facing stone. Campbell also installs mural stone for those who prefer stone to brick exteriors.

Gregg Cleaners Can Put Summer Clothing In Shape

In the wake of all the recent sand storms, the sensible way to treat clothing you intend to wear this summer is to have it dry cleaned.

Using a clothes brush won't begin to rid the garments of all the foreign matter they have picked up. And, though you may improve their looks by using the family iron on them, that is no way to add to the service expected of them.

A concern which specializes in dry cleaning and pressing is the Gregg Street Cleaners, located at 1700 Gregg Street in Big Spring. Gregg Street Cleaners is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutherford, long-time Big Spring residents. Rutherford himself has spent most of his adult life in that particular type of business.

A good indication of the type of work an establishment does is reflected in the amount of business it does. The Gregg Street Cleaners recently doubled its building space and added to its personnel to keep pace with customer demands.

The recognized best equipment, which gives maximum service without damaging garments, has been installed and is in use at the Gregg Street Cleaners.

Plenty of parking space can be found around the concern, for customers who want to bring their clothing to the concern.

Rutherford's place of business maintains a pick-up and delivery service for those who cannot call at the shop with their orders. Business telephone number of the concern is 4-8412.

Gilliland Gives Complete Sewing Machine Service

Old sewing machines can be made to look and function like new at Gilliland Sewing Machine Exchange, 136 E. 2nd.

All work done at the exchange is personally guaranteed by owner A. F. Gilliland, who asserts he has the best sewing machine repair shop in the city.

"Our shop is as well equipped for repairing sewing machines as any in town," Gilliland said. "We certainly carry more parts than any other shop, and we know how to use those parts."

Though Gilliland Sewing Machine Exchange is the local agency for the nationally famous Necchi and Elma sewing machines, any make or model machine can be repaired in the shop.

Equipment is stocked for all machine types, Gilliland pointed out, and substitute parts are available in quantity.

Gilliland's employees are skilled craftsmen of considerable experience, and they are always ready to check over a customer's machine.

Cleaning and "motorizing" old machines are specialties of the house. Facilities are available for having the old models repainted or restenciled too.

"Ordinarily we can offer a day's service on repair of practically any machine," Gilliland stated. "A customer who brings one for repair today can expect to pick it up tomorrow."

The firm offers free delivery and pick-up service. All the customer has to do is call 4-5011.

Portable models can be converted to cabinet models with ease, Gilliland explained, and new or used cabinets are available in a number of designs.

West Texas Sand, Gravel Makes Walk, Curb Repairs

The West Texas Sand and Gravel Company is ready to supply you with your construction needs for spring clean up.

Do you have a sidewalk that you have been intending to repair? Or maybe a new curbing for your driveway? Then call West Texas Sand and Gravel Company at 4-5331 and get an estimate of how much it will cost. You'll find their rates economical and fair.

Otis Grafas Sr. and Jr. are both available at all times to help you with your construction needs. No job is too large or too small for them. They can handle any job from the curbing around a flower bed to the giant runways for an airfield.

In fact, they supplied much of the material for the Army Air Field, now Webb AFB, when it was built in the early 1940's. And the new Fourth Street construction used a large percentage of its materials from West Texas Sand and Gravel Company.

Quality extends to construction materials the same as for other things. A poor grade of concrete or sand can be very expensive if it must be replaced in a few years after being laid.

Be safe and sure when you have this type of work done. Use the West Texas Sand and Gravel Company's facilities, which is home owned by father and son.
Planning a new home? You wouldn't think of planning without considering a good solid and firm foundation. Next comes the question of the materials that form the foundation. Are they good quality? Don't guess at such an important question. Remove all doubt by insisting on West Texas Sand and Gravel Company as your supplier. Have your contractor call them for his supplies. This way you are sure of the best materials that money can buy.

Also, if you are interested in a lot in a beautiful section of Big Spring, drive out to the new Monticello Addition. A product of the Grafas team, here is a section of town that invites your presence. Talk with the Grafas about owning a home here. Remember, the number is 4-5331.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

I look for Ted Kluszewski to break Babe Ruth's home run record this year.

For the first six months of the current school term, Big Spring has an average membership of 274 in its first four grades.

Requirement for admission to Class AAAA in football is 1,100 and the minimum will jump to 1,200 next year.

The registration by classes in the local high school shows an interesting trend.

Average membership in the senior class is only 195 but it gets bigger in the lower grades.

There are 206 in the junior class, 271 sophomores and 302 in the ninth grade.

Texas Interscholastic League rules state that a school having from 750 to 1,099 students in the top four grades can ask to join a AAAA district but Big Spring isn't about to depart AAA.

It doesn't have the facilities for that classification. Friends of the school can only hope that it does have by the time it is forced to move up.

Billy Weidner, the veteran grappler who has made several appearances at the local wrestling barn as both a referee and a gladiator in recent weeks, says he can do 1,000 push-ups in an hour.

Bill Russell, the great All-American basketball player for San Francisco University, was born in Monroe, La., on Feb. 12, 1934.

The smallest crowd ever to see a World Series baseball game showed up for the Oct. 14, 1908, engagement between the Chicago Cubs and Detroit in Detroit. The paid turnout was 6,210.

Armstrong of the Sooner State League has a young first sacker in the St. Louis Cardinals are keeping an eye on him. His name is Lewis Boyer.

If that doesn't ring a bell, it should. His two older brothers, Cloyd and Ken, have both been up with the Red Birds.

There are also two younger boys at home and both play baseball.

Armstrong also has a citizen named Waco Turner, whom the pro golfers, no doubt, have heard of. (He's the fellow who gives away cash for birdies and eagles in his own tournament.)

Waco's love for athletics carry over into baseball and his bank account is unpolished enough to see that baseball in Armstrong endures.

He's purchased a tract of land near Ardmore and plans to build a big, new park there before the 1956 season.

Pat Stacey, the Hobbs baseball foreman, is lamenting the loss of Vito Marchese, who played second for the Sports in their recent appearance here.

Vito, who attended the University of Houston, says he doesn't care for the weather out here. Scribe Ted Williams of Midland adds he was probably dying of loneliness, too, on a practically all-Cuban ball club.

Hobbs lost another player, too, after one or two exhibition games. He was Howard Malone, a first sacker, who said he found it too nerve-racking to face all kinds of hurling.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads the league with a .360 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

A single by Jimmy Fierro and Acrt's two-base hit highlighted the frame.

Between them, the Fierros fanned 12 batters and never allowed more than one hit an inning.

The Tigers got only four hits. One of those was a triple by Gus Fierro.

The game was close until the eighth, when the Bengals put the decision on lee with a three-run outburst.

Guerra Kayoes Cops As San Angelo Wins

SAN ANGELO, (SC) — San Angelo flattened Big Spring, 10-2, in a baseball exhibition here Sunday afternoon. The paid turnout was 480.

The same two teams clash here tonight in the final exhibition bout for both teams. The Cops host Odessa and San Angelo clashes with Midland in opening Longhorn League games Wednesday night.

GU Guerra, a former Big Spring hurler, hurled the Colts to victory, their first in three games with Big Spring. In eight innings, he gave up but four hits and kept them well scattered.

San Angelo put the game on ice in the first two innings when it scored eight of its runs.

The Colts started off with a five-run first and added three more in the second.

John Teletnik took most of the punishment as the Big Spring hurler. Aga Baca hurled the last four innings and did relatively well.

Big Spring scored in the second when Tom Costello tripled and came home on Tony Martinez's in-field out.

The Cops' other run was unearned.

Snead Still The Master In Greensboro Tourney

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Sam Snead, an infrequent tournament player in view of his approaching 43rd birthday, is still the old master as far as the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament is concerned.

The slugging man from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who won the inaugural tournament here in 1938, came through with a last-hole birdie Sunday to take his fifth Greensboro tournament.

Sam needed a lucky bounce to the fringe of the green after apparently missing his second shot, but he got it and chipped up to about 18 inches for the birdie four he needed to edge Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., and Julius Boros, of Southern Pines, N. C., by one stroke with a 273 total.

Wall, leader through each of the first three rounds, just missed his birdie try from five feet and had to settle for $1,333 in his second place deadlock with Boros. Snead earned $2,500 in the $12,500 event.

Each of the three had scored a 69 in the first of Sunday's two rounds, leaving Wall still one shot ahead of Boros and Snead starting the afternoon round with most of the gallery of about 10,000 following the Wall-Snead-Ted Kroll threesome.

In the afternoon Snead was off and running with a 33 against Wall's 35 and 37 for the third round, but Boros found new life to come back in 33 and force the leaders to go for the birdie on the last hole to win.

Sharing fourth place at 37 were Bob Rosburg, San Francisco; Ted Kroll, Bethesda, Md., and Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex. Each won $833.33.

Longhorns Oppose Angelo Tuesday

A marriage of circumstances could produce a four-way deadlock for first place in District 3-AA baseball standings Tuesday evening and the Big Spring High School Steers will try to see that it takes place.

Now boasting a 1-2 win-loss record, following their upset win over Odessa last Saturday, the Steers will try to cut one of the leaders.

San Angelo, down to size in a 4 p.m. battle at Steer Park.

San Angelo has beaten Midland and Big Spring while losing to Odessa.

Midland and Odessa tangle in the day's other game and Odessa needs the win to make the four-way tie possible.

San Angelo downed Big Spring last time, 10-1, but Coach Roy Baird reasoned at the time the Bobcats aren't that much better than the Steers.

Indications are either T. L. Kennedy or Thomas Lynn will go to the mound against the Colts. San Angelo will probably retaliate with Ed Tusha.

That means Frosty Robinson, who pitched the Steers to the win over Odessa, will return to the outfield.

The remainder of Big Spring's game will be at home. The Steers meet Midland here Saturday and Odessa a week from tomorrow.

Trabert Decisions Seixas At Dallas

HOUSTON (AP) — Tony Trabert, looking more each day like the heir apparent to Vic Seixas' national tennis championship, says he won't turn pro at least before the next Davis Cup challenge round.

Trabert was top-seeded for the 21st annual River Oaks Country Club tournament which started today. He won his fifth straight tournament over Seixas at Dallas yesterday.

The husky young star from Cincinnati with the slashing game took out the nationally ranked No. 1 man from invitational tournament.

He said he hasn't yet received any "concrete offers," indicating he may choose to stay in the amateur ranks unless an offer is highly attractive.

Boston Youngsters Talk Of Circuit

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 5-2.

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-5 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winning 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Roy Slevers hammered homers against Eddie Lopat.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads the league with a .360 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

Tigers Defeat Midland, 5-1

MIDLAND, (SC) — The Big Spring Tigers used three-hit hurling by Gus and Charley Fierro to defeat the Midland Lone Stars in a baseball exhibition here Sunday afternoon, 5-1.

The game was close until the eighth, when the Bengals put the decision on lee with a three-run outburst.

A single by Jimmy Fierro and Acrt's two-base hit highlighted the frame.

Between them, the Fierros fanned 12 batters and never allowed more than one hit an inning.

The Tigers got only four hits. One of those was a triple by Gus Fierro.

The game was close until the eighth, when the Bengals put the decision on lee with a three-run outburst.

Ponies Face Rugged Foe, Baylor, At Waco Tuesday

By The Associated Press
Southern Methodist, leading the Southwest Conference baseball race with an unbeaten record, can knock off a strong challenger Tuesday when it plays Baylor at Waco.

Baylor is in a virtual tie with Texas A&M for second place, each having lost only one game. Victory by Baylor would throw the race into a 3-way deadlock for the top.

SMU took over the undisputed leadership last week by strapping Rice twice, 8-0 and 5-1, behind the fine pitching of Tommy Bowers and Ernie Proud.

A&M lost its first game. The Aggies whipped Texas 15-1 in the opener of a series but were upset in the second, 7-5. It was Texas' second conference victory of the season. The Longhorns have lost five games and can be considered out of the running.

Baylor eased along last week by trimming Texas 5-2 and Texas Christian 10-3. The Bears could be troublesome indeed for high-riding SMU and a pitching duel between Bowers and Fred Gottlieb of the Bears should be something to see.

Rice whipped TCU 5-4 — the Christians' fifth conference defeat in five tries.

Texas and TCU play at Austin Tuesday. The weekend will show four conference games. A&M and Baylor meet at Waco Friday and Saturday while TCU and Rice bat

Jack Williams Is Lamesa Champion

LAMESA, (SC) — Jack Williams, veteran Plainview campaigner, won the Lamesa Invitational Golf championship for the second straight year here Sunday when he beat Ben Alexander, Lamesa youth, in the finale, 3 and 2.

Williams marched into the finals by defeating Raymond Marshall of Lubbock in his morning round by the same score.

Alexander shaded Bobby Adair of Brownfield in the other semifinal match, 1 up.

In championship consolation finals, John Farquhar of Amarillo outlasted W. J. Milner, Abilene, 1 up 23 holes.

Williams was five up on the youthful Alexander through nine but the 15-year-old staged a strong comeback on the second nine.

An all-Big Spring final occurred in the second flight, where Bobby Blum turned back Randal Carpenter, 2 and 1.

In second flight consolations, Charles Bailey of Big Spring lost to Con Whyan of Chicago, 1 up.

Bill Dyer, former Big Spring resident in Lamesa, lost to sixth flight, 1 up.

Richard Pachall, Big Spring, trounced Bob Tuttle, Lamesa, in the finals of the seventh flight, 2 and 1.

Napoleon Doesn't Work Here

We are pleased to report that there is no "insanity" at McEwen Motor Co. No one here is going "hog wild", nor are we having any emergency 24 hour sales. We are not "on fire" and we don't have 100 cars that "must go" TODAY.

Frankly, we don't believe that this sort of carrying-on is necessary to sell cars. And the facts bear us out. Our business has been good, and we want to have it continue that way. If you want a good used car from a reputable dealer come see us as soon as possible.

Dunn Farmer's Rites Tuesday

Funeral for Freeman Gaines Drake, 62-year-old Dunn farmer, will be held in the First Methodist Church at 3 p.m. Tuesday. Mr. Drake died in a hospital here Saturday night after he took a sudden turn for the worse and was rushed to a hospital. He had been brought here several weeks ago for hospitalization.

A native of Paris where he was born Feb. 8, 1893, he came to West Texas 12 years ago and settled at Dunn.

Rites will be in charge of the Rev. A. B. Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist Church at Clyde, and of T. H. Tarbet, minister of the Fourth and Benton Church of Christ in Big Spring.

Burial will be in the Dunn Cemetery under direction of Valley Funeral Home. Pallbearers will be from Dunn and include Martin Murphy, H. F. Billingsley, Orville Townsend, Whit Farmer, D. D. Smith, Ollie Reynolds, George Bauers, Jack Bird.

Mr. Drake leaves his wife, Mrs. Allie Lee Drake; a daughter, Mrs. Gary A. Tate, Big Spring; a son, Mr. William Thomas Drake, U. S. Army, Panama Canal Zone; two grandchildren; one half brother, Walter Tucker, Cuthand, Texas.

4,000 Expected At Baptist Meet

MIDLAND — West Texas Baptists will be hosts to an estimated 4,000 Sunday School workers from throughout the state during the annual Texas Baptist Sunday School Convention April 25-27 in Midland.

The meeting will be the first of its kind to be held in Midland. General sessions will be conducted in the First Baptist Church with some of the sectional meetings to be held at the First Methodist Church.

Also for the first time, Texas Baptists will be celebrating the attainment of a million enrollment figure in their Sunday Schools. The record enrollment was reached at the close of the Southern Baptist Convention-wide "Million More in '54" campaign. Texas Baptist Sunday Schools reported a net gain during the year of 85,184, bringing their enrollment total to 1,015,083.

Theme for the convention is from the Scripture, "There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." Andrew Q. Allen, Sunday School secretary for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Dallas, explained, "Although 1954 was a record year for Texas Baptist Sunday School growth, in 1955 we have turned the idea of pressing on to even greater achievements."

During the three-day convention there will be three general meetings; three sectional meetings for elementary workers, for youth and adults; and for periods of meetings by the different departments of the Sunday School.

Airman Reports Being Beaten

An airman who caught a ride from town to Webb Air Force Base during pre-dawn hours Sunday reported that the occupants of the vehicle beat him with a rubber hose.

Arthur W. Jones, the airman, said he was picked up about 2 a.m. Sunday by two men in a pickup. After beating him, they kicked him out of the vehicle, he said.

Police have been searching for the two men, but have so far been unsuccessful. The two were reportedly in a 1952 or 1953 green Ford pickup.

Whisky Taken In Burglary Of Cafe

Six quarts of whisky were taken last night in a burglary at Shaw's Place, restaurant in Northwest Big Spring, police said. Entry to the building was made through the top.

Earl L. Bergeron, 1107 W. 3rd, told police that someone took a suit, some shirts, and other clothing from his house.

Buster Vinson, 310 W. 2nd, told police today that two hub caps were taken from his 1953 Oldsmobile while the vehicle was parked at church Sunday.

25 New Condemnation Suits On File For Freeway Rights

County commissioners this morning were assessing progress on right-of-way work, in preparation for an all-out effort to complete the U. S. 80 freeway across the eastern half of Howard County.

Twenty-five additional condemnation suits were filed during the weekend and commissioners said they have secured signatures on all but a few controlled access agreements. They reported that three or four additional contacts will be made this week. If trades aren't negotiated as a result of these, condemnation proceedings will be ordered.

The State Highway Department already is preparing condemnation papers for about a dozen tracts of land which the county has been unable to purchase. These also will be filed in the next few days.

The 25 new suits filed, in addition to seven filed last week, were against land whose owners commissioners have been unable to locate. In some instances, the last known owners are deceased and commissioners do not have the identity of heirs.

All of the unknowns must be cited by publication for at least 42 days before judgments can be entered in the condemnation suits, Judge R. H. Weaver said. Hearings on these have been scheduled for May 30. The judge said publication of the citations will be started in the next day or two.

In the cases of persons commissioners have been able to contact but with whom trades have not been negotiated, condemnation proceedings require a shorter period. Officials this morning appeared confident that all of the right-of-way can be secured prior to June 1, the date the highway department expects to complete freeway planning for the county. If the right-of-way is assembled and plans are complete, the State Highway Commission probably will advertise for construction bids in July.

The last-known owners of property described in the 25 condemnation suits were Mrs. Mary Moore, T. S. Gannaway, W. F. Young, O. J. Copeland, O. H. Willoughby, Z. G. Fogerson, B. Clark, Maude, Ethel Mitchell, J. S. Pruitt, J. A. Stewart, H. C. Anderson, B. T. Preslar, W. F. Young, Annis Richardson, J. E. Mitchell, Mrs. Virginia Maud Williams, J. T. Johnson, T. S. Gannaway, J. Frank Atkinson, W. B. Hood, Ben Allen, Rueben M. Glaze, W. A. E. Rutledge, W. R. Tomlinson and J. A. Tillman. T. S. Gannaway is named in two of the suits. All of the proceedings involve lots or portions of lots in Coahoma.

Appointed as special commissioners in the suits were Jack Cook, George O'Brien, Avery Falkner.

County Asks Bids On Buildings Sale

The county started advertising today for the sale of buildings on the former property of Kildee Horton in San Springs.

Commissioners purchased the property from Horton as part of the U. S. 80 freeway right-of-way. Judge R. H. Weaver said all of the buildings will be sold. Bids will be opened May 2.

Receives Head Injury

Thomas Edward Martin was treated at Cowper Hospital Sunday afternoon for a head injury suffered in the county jail. Sheriff's deputies said he struck his head against shower fixtures. He was dismissed from the hospital after first aid treatment.

Fence Damaged

Police said a car struck the fence at the United States Experiment Farm on Northwest 12th about 10 p.m. Saturday. The fence was damaged considerably, but the vehicle did not stop, officers said.
