Wheeler I.S.D. Packets Available To Pre-Register

Registration packets for children who will be attending Wheeler ISD Kindergarten during the 1995/1996 school year are available and may be picked up in the hall outside the superintendent's office on business day.

The required forms included in the packets are: 1. Registration form; 2. Student health information (two page questionnaire); 3. Home language survey. The parent/guardian must provide all the requested information, including full legal names and the child's social security number, as well as, copies of the child's official birth certificate (state copy - not hospital copy) and immunization records (authorized by doctor or official clinic) before his/her child can be enrolled in school.

The estimated length of time needed to finish these documents is from 15 to 30 minutes; some of the information required (for example, the date of the last dental exam or the phone number of your preferred hospital) is generally kept with other personal records at home or may even require a call to your family doctor.

Because of these factors, coupled with the usual, unavoidable registration "Traffic Jam" of waiting in line to complete the enrollment process, school personnel believed some parents might prefer the option of completing these documents in the quiet and privacy of their own homes. Parents who prefer to wait until registration day are welcome to do so.

MURDERER OF ERIC SNOWDEN SENTENCED TO LIFE IN PRISON

A DeKalb jury Wednesday convicted a Stone Mountain man of murdering a Texas teenager as the victim talked to his fiancée on a pay telephone at a Lithonia convenience store. Edgarado Kennebrew, 20, was sentenced to life in prison for the Dec. 15 murder of Eric Snowden, 19, who was slain in the parking lot of the Circle K Station on North Stone Mountain Road at 1:30 a.m. Snowden, who was working on a construction project in DeKalb, had complained a short time earlier to two young women, asking them to move their noisy car. The women then went to Kennebrew's hotel room and told him a white man had threatened them with a gun, according to testimony. Kennebrew returned to the store, where he found Snowden still talking on the phone. Kennebrew pretended to make a phone call and without speaking pumped five shots into Snowden, according to witnesses. The other four people involved will be sentenced Aug. 10, 1995.

What month is this?
-cwe-
Such a change in temperatures. From 108 plus for the high Friday to 64 for the high Tuesday. Don't get your hopes up, summer is not over yet; they tell me.

-cwe-
The rain reports for Sunday night and Monday morning certainly vary, even just within the boundaries of Wheeler. The official measure was 2.19 inches. As much as a 1.6" was reported in town.

-cwe-
For the surrounding area as little as 0.2 was reported in the Gageby area and 4.0" in the Kellon area.

-cwe-
Whatever the amount, the weeds, beans, tomatoes, peppers and cucumbers should certainly thrive. I might as well include the weeds; I can't keep them out.

-cwe-
An addition 0.7 inches of rain was measured Wednesday morning with sprinkles still falling.

-cwe-
Weather permitting, it will be rodeo time this weekend as the Wheeler County 4-H'ers show their skills in the arena.

-cwe-
The youth in the area had better be enjoying the summer; there is not much of it left. That old school bell is going to be ringing very soon.

-cwe-
It was a rather calm weekend. We made our trip to Oklahoma and nothing unusual happened.

-cwe-
Didn't set up the croquet, but did manage to work in a few games of cards.

-cwe-
Weather permitting, we intend to load up the Silhouette with people and stuff and head for Sherman. Our destination is to be Six Flags for our annual fling.

Bronson Taylor

Bronson Taylor Receives 2-Yr. Football Scholarship

Parker High football standout Bronson Taylor recently earned a full two year scholarship to play football at Mesa Community College beginning in the fall of 1995.

Bronson sent a highlight film to Mesa football coach David Rice, and after the two met, Bronson was granted the scholarship. The ambitious PHS senior hopes Mesa will be a step toward playing for a bigger school.

"Hopefully, Arizona State," Bronson said.

Coach Rice wasted no time getting ready to play junior college ball, putting him on a training program to add some weight and build muscle.

Bronson is interested in majoring in physical therapy or possibly sports medicine. His parents are Connie Taylor of Parker and Billy Taylor of Phoenix. Bronson is the grandson of Mr. & Mrs. George Richardson.

Jodie Crownover Named Top Second Yr. Student

Jodie Crownover was recognized as the top second year student at the Texas Pre-Freshman Engineering Program closing ceremonies. Miss Crownover received a calculator for that achievement and was the first runner-up up for the $1,000 Pantex scholarship. The closing ceremony was Friday, July 28 in Amarillo.

Ninety-six middle school and high school students from the area participated in the summer program. The program, conducted on 27 college campuses in 14 Texas cities identifies high-achieving students with the potential to become scientists or engineers. The students attend eight weeks of classes that develop abstract reasoning skills and problem-solving skills, and inform them of career opportunities in math and science.

The TexPREP program has been recognized by the Texas State Board as acceptable for 1/2 to 1 credit of local credit in engineering.

Jodie is a Senior at Ft. Elliott High School and is the daughter of Charles and LaJo Crownover.

CARE CENTER COMMENTS

I am so sorry that I haven't had an article in the paper in a while. Its been really busy here at Wheeler Care Center.

We have had many new admissions to Wheeler Care Center. They are Tommy Roy, Virginia Jolly, Virginia Frye and Cecil and Vera Blevins. That brought our total up to 84 residents, so it has really been busy for everyone out here.

Our sympathy goes to the Cecil Blevins family. Cecil passed away and we will miss him alot. He was always singing and smiling when you visited with him.

We have been making back to school crafts to put up around the lobby and the dining room. As we've been making pencils, rulers apples, buses the residents have been talking about their school days. We've been doing alot of room visits and 10n1 activities with everyone.

Bingo has been going strong as always. This is one activity that we have a big attendance at. We have had several blackout winners. Thanks to Lynna and Cinda for coming out and helping us in Bingo. And also Thank You to Tom Helton and Shorty Crawford.

We celebrated our July birthdays with the First Baptist Church. We had angel food cake and home made cookies, punch was also served. Punch was donated by Louise Hogan.

The host and hostess were Bob and Evangelin Wills, Delores Simmons, LaJune Alexander, and Maurita Brotherton. Jerry Davis and Sylvia Schuler provided the entertainment. Our birthday residents were Vena Hopkins, Marie Wood, Mary VanZandt, Evelyn Young, Milan Mertil, Eloise Kenady, Lorena Adams, Ona Black and Virginia Frye.

On Tuesday morning we have been serving donuts to the residents. We have been frying canned biscuits to make the donuts. The residents have really been enjoying them. One day we got real industries and made home-made donuts. We had several residents helping us. A big thank you to May Bell as she served the donuts for us.

We had a picnic down at the Wheeler Park, 34 residents came to the park and we cooked out hamburgers and had watermelon for desert. A big thank you to the nurses aides that helped us to get them to the park and helping to take care of them at the park. Also thank you to the office staff for staying and helping. Kerry Moore and Bud Williams cooked the hamburgers. Also thank you to Mary Andis for helping us out.

We are looking forward to our volunteers coming back and helping us. We really miss them alot.

The residents really enjoy the church services that we have each week.

Thank you to all the churches who come out each week to minister to the residents.

Last Wednesday night Barbara and I took Zinnie Bailey, Margaret Heide, Evelyn Garrison, and Ruth Hoggard to the Country Chapel to see some young men from Pennsicola, FL., sing. We really had a good time.

We are planning a family night on August 11, at 7 p.m. The Mason Jars will be singing for us and we will also enjoy homemade ice cream and deserts. So if you get a chance come out and enjoy the fun with us.

Il Chronicles-7-14 and 15

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place.

"I LOVE AMERICA"

I love America because of its people! Many say that it is the Constitution and the Bill of Rights that form the foundation of America, but I say it is the people that form its conscience. This conscience allows Protestants and Catholics to live in quiet harmony, Jews and Arabs to walk our streets with little fear of each other, and other American's opportunity, not always equal, but always there for the taking! America, not only a large continent between two oceans but a proud warm feeling in our hearts! Americans, as distinctive as the colors of the rainbow and as dependable as one's mother. This is why I love America!

In June of 1995, KLBJ radio station in Austin, Texas named the winner of a writing contest they were holding. One had to explain in 76 words or less why they love America. Frank Rogers' paper was chosen from over 200 entries as the winner. The paper had to be 76 words or less to be considered. Frank and his wife, Kathy, won a trip to New York City, which includes airfare, hotel, and spending money. In addition the radio station will provide tickets to the Rush Limbaugh show. Frank is certainly looking forward to the show but Kathy is waiting to pass judgment! Frank is the son of Lewis and Irene Rogers and a graduate of Wheeler High School in 1968!

To Whom It May Concern:
Over the Fourth of July weekend (and past months) the Wheeler Cemetery has been vandalized. Many of the wreaths that were placed on the graves of loved ones have been taken, grave markers have been broken and damage done to grave sites.
It is a disgrace that anyone would do such a thing. The wreaths and little remembrances placed on the graves are symbols of love...the only way of showing that we remember and have not forgotten the ones that have passed away.
Over the Fourth of July weekend my grandfather's grave was "raided" and caused great heartache to our family. It's hard to lose someone you dearly love.
Please remember that the cemetery is not a place to play, but a very sacred place where many dearly loved people have been laid to rest.
A Concerned (and ashamed)
Citizen of Wheeler

It was a beautiful wedding. May God bless and guide you two.

Weekend visitors to Lois Meadows were Lola Meek Cyphers and daughter Paulette Perkins and Dana and Casey from Odessa. Also visiting were Joe Woodward from Denver, Colorado, J.P. and Martha Meek and Cindy Hartsfield and Glory and Hayden, Evelyn Meek.

Alesha Moffett and John went to Amarillo Saturday and attended the 94th birthday celebration for Alesha's grandmother, Bessie Davis and visited Jamey and Diane Brice. John stayed for a longer visit. Alesha is working at the hospital in Wheeler some in the kitchen.

Jane Ann (Zybach) Hall and Lucy Barnett have been best friends since grade school days. Lucy and husband Joe Kent from Sudan spent Friday night with Jane Ann and Curtis Hall and attended the Briscoe Reunion. Some others from their class of 1953 at Briscoe were Cleavene (Johnson) and R.L. Elliott, from Spearman, LeRoy and Laverne Hudson from Arlington, Maurita (Horn) and Dave Crosslin from Clarendon and Bob Helton from Odessa.

Josh and April Purcell had their wisdom teeth cut out. Josh did ok, but it made April real sick and got dehydrated. She spent a few days in Parkview Hospital, but got out Sunday.

Rosalie Keelin and Ruth Taylor went to Pampa Tuesday to visit Floy and Don Larkin who recently moved from Amarillo. Diane Larkin was also there, and they shopped some at Walmart. Don is a retired Baptist preacher and fills in as interim pastor or musician when needed in towns around.

Good to see Tim and Lisa Bennett and Jimmy and Patrick from Gainesville at the Briscoe Reunion. A quick trip. So many didn't get to visit with as many as much as I would have liked. The Bennetts are really happy with Lisa's work as a lawyer and Tim's as a science teacher.

Tonya Finsterwald has been hired to teach English at Fort Elliott this fall. Good luck!

Canadian School Reunion is planned for this Saturday Aug. 5. Registration starts at 9:00 a.m., with visiting till 10:30 when there will be a General Assembly. Had a call from son Danny Fillingim. He is working on a pipeline near Springfield, Missouri for a while.

Nice to talk to Glenn and Aletha Field in Loveland, Colorado. They recently returned from a 5 week tour in their R.V. up to Alaska. Once it was ferried 800 miles. They weren't going to be able to come to the Briscoe Ex-Student Reunion.

Sincere sympathy to family and friends of Bruce Harrison, 81, in his death. A fine Christian Man.

Thelma Hefley Evans called about the Briscoe School Reunion to darville and Sammie. She had surgery on an arm and couldn't drive and was disappointed to not get to come.

Sammie and Darville Atherton had 38 at their house Friday night from Briscoe School classes 43 to 45.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO: Cecil and Jane Meadows, Joe and Dana Muller, Robert and Sue Mayfield on Aug. 3. Gene and Rhonda Ferguson, Lyndon and Novelene Loyd on Aug. 6. Bill and Carla Howard on Aug. 8.

This news missed last weeks publication. Visiting with Pauline Hooker July 19, were: Leslie Harrison of Elk City, Ok., Cindy Gorley, Bill, Mary and Gary of Quanah, Bill and Mearlene Scott, Lauren Scott, Cody Brinkley, Brenda, Brandy, Misty, and Casey Long all of Amarillo, Mac and Peggy Shelton of Perryton, Willetta Kimbrough and Tina Alders of Willis, TX., Hugh and Mae Bailey, Inez Moore, Wanda Hefley and Tamara, Gene and Sue Harrison all of Mobeetie. The get-together was to visit with Willetta, who was here from near Houston. There was also a birthday cake for Bill Gorley, to help him celebrate his 8th birthday.

We welcome our newest citizen to Mobeetie. Houston Daniel Barr, born July 28th to Randy and Dee Barr. He weighed in at 9 lbs. and 1 oz. Sister Randy Lynn is pretty proud of her little brother.

We extend to Carrie Harris our deepest sympathy. Her brother Ike Richardson passed away in Oklahoma this past week.

THE MT. VIEW QUILTING CLUB met at the Totty shop Thurs. July 27 for their regular quilting day. We finished Melba's quilt and put one in for Martha Meek. Members present were: Melba Corcoran, Estelle Hodges, Edith Cross, Orville Greenhouse, Bulah Grimes, Willene Burke and Martha Meek. One guest Tamara Hartline was present.

Kelley and I went to Amarillo last Tues. for a little shopping and for a Dr. appt. We ran into Norman Dysart in Walmart and had a nice visit with him. Think Vercie was in the store but we never did see her. Kelley had an appt. to get another shot in his back. He will go back in three weeks for another shot. The shots do help to ease the pain.

Melba Corcoran went to Amarillo last Tues. to have a test done at St. Anthony Hospital. She and Dale went on Friday for Dale's Dr. appt. at the V.A. Hospital. They received the good news that Dale's cholesterol count is down.

THE FIRST BAPTIST Sunday Eve. services were held at the Old Mobeetie Jail Museum Park. We had a good crowd for food, fellowship, singing and OLD MOBEETIE ASSOCIATION will meet Thursday, Aug. 3rd at 7:00 p.m. at the First State Bank Hospitality room.

Kelley and I invited Dale and Melba Corcoran to eat with us at Furr's Cafeteria in Pampa last Sat. night (July 29). The occasion was to celebrate our 17th wedding anniversary and Dale's 53rd birthday. While in Furr's we saw the Randy Barr Family. Dee and Houston had been dismissed from the hospital and they stopped to eat before coming home. We played a few games of Chicken Foot after we got home. I really planned to win that last game, but let Dale win, because it was his birthday.

Ain't It The Truth
By Ab Gunter

A few days ago I noticed a new thing on TV. There is a station here in town that you can call into and get this story, news and many more things instantly over your own TV. I suppose that is the new fiber optic doings that has come out. Many years ago I worked as a PR person for the horse track at Ruidoso and I would travel from here to there and from there to here all week long hand in out passes and literature for the track that operated on the weekends there in the cool mountains. As most know there in the West towns aren't as close or handy nor have the freeways from town to town. I would go to some town in Texas and then to another which was many miles distant and then late in the day I would try and find a restin place which may be hard to find back then. I have driven maybe 50 miles to find a motel or hotel had closed or was full and no place to eat or sleep. Many times I have visited with friends whom I had known for years and maybe get a late snack, but I tried to not impose and often went hungry, which I hate to do. Credit card, shore I had a couple of them but back then many places only took the green stuff and nothin more.

Speakin of the new channel stuff, back then I always wished I could press a button on the TV and get news since I hadn't had time to get a paper or hear what was happenin and always wondered why someone wouldn't come up with this idea and now it has happened. This computerized way of living in our world is fine but a bird like me that can hardly play a radio has quite a time tryin to figer out how to turn on one of them new TVs or tape player. My little fat wife has to handle all that kind of mecanism nowadays. I have trouble with this durn typewriter an take all the short cuts possible to bypass the electronics, sometimes I can't.

I have sort of pen pan in Inglesfield, In. that mentioned that he and one of the Shrine group didn't get to be in the Memorial Day parade this year for some reason. The parade in downtown Indy is really sumthin and every year the Shrine has had their different groups in the parades and I've always enjoyed them very much, but somehow this year the group that the pen pal is in didn't get to be in the doins, wonder why, the Shriners don't seem to know. I don't belong to the Shrine, my Dad did, but I do know that the Shrine sponsors do many wonderful things like the Burn Hospitals for Children, the Eye Hospitals and all the camps for under privileged children and many many more such projects. You would believe any town would welcome all of these groups available to be in their festivities, wouldn't you?
By the way I am well into the Dickens Works book on David Copperfield. I am at page 298 and figured I would soon be through with this 100 year old book, but I notice I still have 568 pages to go. Gadfrey I don't know if I can hold out. I am a sort of Louie LaMour and Elmer Kelton sort of a reader and the only horses in this book are carriage horses and draw horses. No wonder them Englishmen drink tea so often. Now coffee I enjoy but ain't got used to this tea bit yet. Mama makes sun tea in the back yard, which we enjoy, but I ain't a hot tea feller myself. A few years ago I tied into an ancient Greek history and made up my mind I would read it through. Now them folks fought each other and when they run out of each other they expanded to the continent and found some other each others, sort of like them Bosnians are doin right now. Looks like the peace keepers are in for it, each side plans on usin them for the fodder.

See you next week. Ab and Mama

Had a rather exciting weekend. Stormed all Saturday night with no great damage. Finally measured 1.3 inch of much needed rain. The poor Northfork boys worked all night getting the power back. It was off four hours. Had to hunt up the kerosene lamp. Always knew to stay off the telephone during storms but heard a new one. Don't wash dishes or use water during a storm. Seems the electricity could come in on a water pipe.

Guess Oklahoma City thinks they are getting hit extra hard with such storms so soon after the bombing. Worst thing is they say calamities come in threes. We hope not.

Jerry, Lisa, and Joel Alexander, Todd Burch, Doug and Gaye Fowler, and children, Stan, Cindy, and Cassie Perry spent last week at Red River.

Judy Tipton and her sister Carol Billingsly, Miami, TX attended the Stutzman reunion in Carthage, MO. Their aunt Betty Scraggs was celebrating her 90th birthday.

Guy and Pauline Waldrop, Minco, spent Friday night with H.E. and Helen Smith, and attended a reunion at the Holiday Inn. It is wonderful to hear of all these family get togethers. Too many reunions are held at funerals.

Judy Tipton sent Gerald over with some squash. She said she read in the Reader's Digest that lots of folks locked their cars when they parked in town for fear some would fill them with squash. Sure was good.

Iva Thompson, Ollie Anderson, and Norma Zellmer went to Amarillo where Norma saw her doctor. They visited Ruth Pyle.

Anna Laura Wells is a patient at Elk. Laura Jean is with her. Olan Wilhelm is another patient. Our niece Jean Foster called as she went thru Erick on the way to be with her uncle Paul. His wife Rosa died this afternoon.

Esther Dickey went to the Dickey reunion at Amarillo. Some of the folks came by to see her and they had supper at the Cowboy. Mary Dickey and Shirley Samms of Myrtle Point, Ore. visited with her several days.

Matha Speake, Margaret Hiller, and Dick West visited Lloyd Addis in St. Anthonys Hospital OKC.

Brenda and Jeffrey Smulcer have had a busy summer. Even got to Six Flags. Visited William and Ladonna Dodd and little Elizabeth at OKC. and Elaine and family at Woodward. Went to Arkansas for six weeks where they visited her seven brothers and sisters.

Latricia and Michael Shirley of Choctaw have a fine baby boy named Aaron Lane. He is welcomed by a sister. Grandmother is Bonnie Anderson of Sayre.

Went down to town Saturday. Guess the United was expecting us. There was a girl to open the door and they already had the chair out for Joe. Visited with Charlotte Tignor, A.B. Witt, Laverne Tucker, and Mr. Garrett, Norma Tipton's dad.

I thought I would take advantage of buying groceries on the credit card for a month. Not only did I feel guilty, I found those 5 or 6 gallons of $47 milk seem much more expensive when you have to pay for all of them in a fell swoop.

Shannon Anderson, Kristina Henson, Perisha Hill, Dusty Davis, and Sam Patterson attended the Baptist Camp at Falls Creek last week, going with the Cheyenne group.

Betty Sites and grandson Cade have been to Bonham to visit Jerry and Radonna Christopher in their new home.

I see that five miles of SH 6 just east of the 152 junction is slated for a half million dollar renovation. Supposed to take about 45 days.

Funeral services for Buddy Snider were Tuesday at the Sayre Baptist Church with burial in the Sayre Doxey Cemetery. We met Buddy and his wife in the Emergency Room when David took ill.

Graveside services were Sunday for Noah Geyer at the Mulberry Cemetery. Noah was raised in this community. He served in the Army and Air Corps during World War II.

Had quite a few birthdays this week, Earl Reed, Vera Nation, Katrina Cox, Lois Bryan, Wilma Fowler, Doris Smith, Dovie Wilson who will be 96, Arnold Rice, and Juanita Coffey. Lisa and Jerry Alexander, Wilbur and Theresa Nabors have Anniversaries. Best wishes to all of them.

School starts the 10th. Seems like after Labor Day would be soon enough. In fact, that is the law in some states. We had to go in the summertime when I was little, so we would be free to pick cotton during the "Cotton picking Vacation!" all fall.

Keith Miller, Weatherford, was out to visit his mama Iona Miller. Another guest was a nephew, Ronald Ford of McKinney, TX. Iona had not seen him in 22 years.

Leann and Lana Keathley, Mandy Hagerman, Katrina Cox, and Heather Anderson attended the Frontier Basketball Camp at Red Rock. James LeGrand will be their coach. He is a grandson of Bessie LeGrand. Frank and Alice's boy.

I have been enjoying the NBC programs about Lost Civilizations. They told about the Maya and how they were able to foresee comets, solar and lunar eclipses, exactly on the dot. Their last forecast was the end would be Dec. 23, 2012.

Extension Update
By Joan Gray, CEA-HE

The best remedy for beating the heat is to know the signs of illness that it causes and how to prevent them.

Hot weather is no stranger to Texans, but many are still vulnerable to heat-related injuries. Knowing more about these conditions can help prevent the most dangerous one—heat stroke—from occurring.

First, a person may experience heat cramps. Symptoms include painful cramping and spasm of legs, arms, and sometimes abdominal muscles.

To treat it, find a cool place. If there is no vomiting, the fluid should be replaced in the body by drinking one teaspoon of salt in an 8-ounce glass of water. This should be followed by one glass of water ever 15 minutes for an hour.

When people get heat exhaustion they feel tired, weak and dizzy. They may complain of headaches, nausea and possibly vomit. Also, there is heavy perspiration and the skin is moist.

Heat exhaustion victims should find a cool place to lie down with their feet raised eight to 12 inches. Loosen all clothing and follow the same procedure as with heat cramps by drinking water first with salt to replace fluid. Then, place cool wet clothes on that person's forehead and body.

If nothing is done to subside these conditions, heat stroke may occur.

Most people know from recent news reports of more than 700 heat stroke deaths across the United States that this is a life threatening situation. A person with heat stroke complains of tiredness, weakness and dizziness. Also, the skin feels hot and dry.

The body temperature can actually exceed 104 degrees Fahrenheit and that a person may die.

When heat stroke occurs, the best thing to do is to run or pour cool water over that person, then call an ambulance to get the victim to the nearest emergency room as soon as possible.

Older people are more at risk for heat injuries because their bodies have a decreased ability to adjust to temperature extremes. The body's ability to respond to different conditions and illnesses decreases with the increase of age.

Also, any one with diabetes, heart disease, arteriosclerosis, high blood pressure and Parkinson's Disease is more susceptible to heat injuries.

However, heat stroke can happen to anyone—even a healthy 25 year old man.

To avoid illness from heat it is recommended to take these precautions:

* Drink lots of cool water when the weather is hot and humid. Water is best; fruit and vegetable juices also are good. Drink at least a gallon of liquid (preferably water) when outside temperature is above 90. Overweight people need to drink even more water. Do not drink beer or other alcoholic beverages, coffee, tea or other drinks containing caffeine, which increase fluid loss.

* Maintain normal salt intake in your diet. Do not take salt tablets. Salt tablets should only be taken if a doctor recommends them.

* Wear light-colored clothes that are loosely woven and absorbent. Cotton is best because it absorbs 40 percent of its weight in moisture. Most synthetic materials trap body heat and are not absorbent. Also, wear a hat to shade your head.

* Avoid outside activities during hot days. If you have to work outside, take frequent rest breaks and drink cool liquids often. Do not run or do other types of strenuous exercise. Getting wet without drying off gives your body cooling a boost.

* Use a fan if you do not have an air conditioner. Open the windows to create as much cross ventilation as possible. If your home is shaded from the sun at certain times of the day, the windows should be open on that side and drapes and shades down on the sunny side. Avoid cooking. Take frequent cold baths or showers. Go to cool places if possible such as senior centers, the library or the mall to avoid heat of the day.

News, Virginia and her son and wife and boys from California at Walmart. They met at Ed's to visit and all came to the reunion.

Nice to see Cecil and Evelyn Reynolds from Amarillo at Walmart. They looked so healthy and happy. They had been visiting Cecil's boys and families and her children had spent a month in Branson, Missouri area. They were expecting Lisa and Kerry Hickman and boyfriend to visit them and come to the Briscoe School Reunion. Good to see Lisa and Kerry and Kerry's baby and Lisa's boyfriend at the Briscoe Reunion.

Sierra Atherton is visiting her mom Angela at Lawton, Oklahoma. Pray for Sierra, who has been making her home with grandparents, Darville and Sammie for several years.

We enjoyed the singing and fun from the college boys at Country Chapel Tuesday night. They were from Pensacola Christian College in Florida. Got to visit with Preston and Elsie Glazner at Thriftway. Barbara Williams had four sweet ladies from the Wheeler Care Center out to the singing and were Zinnia Bailey, Ruth Hoggard, Evelyn Garrison and Margaret Heide. Nice thing to do, Barbara.

"The diamond can not be polished without friction, nor the Christian perfected without trials."

Laurel and Ed Hershman and Troy from Kirklia, Indiana came Thursday to visit E.G. and Willa Fillingim and other relatives and attend the Briscoe School Reunion. They also did some work at their place in Wheeler. Other visitors at E.G.'s for visiting and school reunion included Gayle and Helen Singleton, Sarita Hershman and Brad Dawson and Dallas all from Amarillo. Sarita and Brad are engaged to be married. Nice to have Sarita, Brad and Dallas eat lunch Sunday at Wheeler Dairy Queen with us.

"Anger is an acid that does more harm to the vessel in which it is stored than to do anything on which it is poured."

The Briscoe Ex-Student Reunion was a big success with many from many places including Oregon, California, South Carolina, New Mexico, Oklahoma and many places in Texas. Also Colorado Bouquets to all who worked so hard on preparing for it, registering, decorating, etc. Tonya Finsterwald and Lou Dean Douthit worked hard on the newspaper with clippings from many past years. Good job. Delicious meal catered by Steve and Joyce Walker with help to serve from Harold and Katherine Jones and Paul Hathaway. New president for the next reunion in 2000 is Tonya Finsterwald; vice president is Tammy Maddox and Secretary treasurer is Brenda Hefley. Too bad we were having a heat wave.

Truman and Rebecca Price brought Mama Grace Irvine back after a visit with them at Lubbock.

Stephanie Brock and Bryant, Timothy and Joshua from Joshua are spending this week with Dick and Ruth Irvine.

We enjoyed having a nice group of Briscoe Ex-Students and family and friends over to Briscoe Friday night for lots of good food and visiting, picture looking, etc. Some there were Patsy Ann Temple Smith and sister Jeannette Misquite, Texas, Lena Mae (Glenn) and Matt Nix, Doc Wilhelm, Wilma Bible, Georgia (Cain) Wilkerson and Lewis Cain from California, Ellie Wilkerson from Clarendon, Bulldog and Dorothy Walker, Red and Margie (Vaughn) Meadows, Oden and Lois (Vaughn) Meadows, Patsy Waters, Railsback, Nellie Bea Candler from Fort Sumner, New Mexico, Ray and Pat Hudson from Perryton, Warren and Laura Clepper from Piedmont, South Carolina, Armand Clepper from Pharr, Texas, Ed Clepper from Houston, Texas, Evelyn Meek, Venson and Fay Smith, Lou Dean Douthit, Billie Stuckey from Boerne, Texas, Lois Meek Meadows, Olaf Siviage, Mary Margaret McCarrall Dodd and Willis and Verna Fillingim. Thanks to all who came, brought food or helped or helped in any way. So good to see everyone. Lots of pictures taken.

"God be with you till we meet again."

From the Minister's Desk:
The Sunday, July 30th, issue of the Amarillo Globe News contained an editorial that was written by Michel Halbouty, the president of an independent oil and gas company in Houston. This excellent editorial was entitled, "Moral Decay, The Cancer That Eats at Our Culture," and it said:
"The demoralization of America has become unrelenting, and the passiveness of the people toward this cancer eating away at our culture is beyond comprehension. Demoralization is a decisive step toward decadence and we are fast approaching a point of no return."
"In a recent article, William J. Bennett and C. Delores Tucker stressed the diabolic effect of lewd music on our society. But music is not our only problem. Other basic values are being diminished, de-emphasized, or utterly ignored."
"The free enterprise system is a system based on the principles of free choice and of mutual decisions and honorable arrangements; a system based on mutual trade for mutual good with respect for the rights of all traders; system that operated on the belief that moral, social, and ethical doctrines must be adhered to and respected. During the 1980's, that system was challenged, fractured, abused, and disregarded."
"The decade of 1980's is now considered as one of ultimate greed, where there was no sense of conscience in those who sought immediate profit regardless of the outcome to others or the nation. The term "instant gratification" became a by-phrase of the media to describe the ruthless greed that existed."
"Such greed and avarice were particularly evident in the hostile raids on business establishments, aimed to destroy rather than to build. These attacks covered the spectrum of American business from giant companies to insignificant ones. The mentality of those who participated in these activities seemed to have been "buy it, break it up, lay off as many workers as necessary to make more money and do not worry about the consequences."
"The disregard for the relevancy of morals and ethics bordered on the obscene. The attack on the oil industry was harsh and led to the industry's diminishment. The general public witnessed these attacks in silence. But those who were laid off because of these hostile and breakups of companies suffered untold hardships."
"Selfishness, me-ism, and predatory self-interest, the usual characteristics of a cultural breakdown, clearly describes what ails us. The fact that Americans seek instant gratification regardless of its direct consequences to others and the nation, is a strong indication that they no longer believe in the future."

"This ethical and moral breakdown sowed the seeds of lower esteem for many personal values and respect—for example, the national reversal in dress codes. Where once acceptable apparel was worn by both men and women, we have seen the emergence of motley and mongrel dress which is revolting and reprehensible. It appears that the more outrageous and disgusting the apparel, the more acceptable."

"There is a generation that has lost pride in appearance and in doing so has unwittingly lost self-respect by going to public places in disreputable clothes. Informal and casual attire does not mean a sloppy, bagged or slovenly appearance. Highly respected restaurants that once adhered to a strict dress code have permitted the worst to be accepted. Unfortunately, as long as business permit such dress, it will continue."
"Disregard for respect and courtesy commences at an early age. It is obvious that parents, as a whole, are not teaching their children the meaning of personal respect and dignity, courtesy and respect toward others. When was the last time you heard a child respond with a "yes sir", "no sir", "please", "thank you"? And adults also are reluctant to express gratitude and appreciation to each other."
"Today's popular culture focuses on violent lewd movies, music with explicit lewd lyrics, blatant sex and obscene language on TV and in movies, and public depravity—all of which further demoralize our culture and are rapidly taking total decadence. This popular culture is contrary to the basic values of Americans and is having a horrendous impact on our children that may be irreversible."
"All these social ills are multiplying quickly and at tremendous cost. Acceptance by the public of these ills without objection is compromising our morals even further. We must again become a nation of values—morals, ethics, doing what is right because it is proper and the correct thing to do."

"We have always lived and thrived on those good values of decency, honesty, integrity, and fair play. They were the ultimate principles embodied in our Declaration of Independence, our Constitution and in our behavior as a people. It was those values and principles that made our country the greatest in the world and it can only survive by maintaining them."

Local Vol. Firemen Attend Fire School

Taken from The Battalion:
Written by: Amy Collier

Thousands of firefighters are facing towering infernos of fire, explosions and disasters this week during the annual Municipal Firemen's Training School at Brayton Firemen's Training Field.

The school, sponsored by the Texas Engineering Extension Service, has 27 different courses—from water pump maintenance to rescue simulation—that are taught at Brayton Firemen's Training Field.

Jim Arnold, class of '66 and coordinator of the school, said firefighters come to A&M from all over the world to improve their firefighting and rescue skills during an intense five days of instruction.

"The bottom line is that students come here to better themselves to help their communities," Arnold said. "The main purpose of the fire service is to save lives and property and to help fellow man."

The fire school was established by the Texas Legislature in 1931. In addition to municipal fire training, the school conducts a week-long school for Spanish-speaking students, which hosted 600 students from 16 different countries earlier this month.

The schools teach more than 4,000 students, making the program the largest in the world.

"People come here because the program is established and has been in its 65 years of existence," Arnold said. "It's almost a tradition. The quality is number one."

The classes are taught by 1,100 guest instructors, who have to apply to volunteer their knowledge and time.

"We're very fortunate to have people's dedication to the program," Arnold said. "That dedication and support is by and large why we have such a successful program. It makes me very proud of the program and the instructors."

Instructors spend hours teaching students hands-on training in the 120-acre field.

Students fight fires on a derailed passenger train, a mobile home, wrecked cars and even a wrecked airplane.

Arnold said firefighters face such situations in their everyday responsibilities.

"The philosophy of the division is to initiate as much hands-on type training into our program as we possible can," he said.

Charles Alford, a former A&M student and volunteer at the Rockdale Volunteer Fire Department, is attending the fire school for his fourth time to take a rescue procedures class.

A majority of Alford's time in the class is spent rappelling off high-rise buildings, he said.

"It's lots of fun," Alford said. "It's not nearly as hot as the firefighting classes." Alford said he has enjoyed the fire school so much in the past, he took time off of his regular job to come back this year.

"I do this for the fun of it," he said. "I like learning new skills and practices that I can take back to the department. It's probably the best place to come and get actual firefighting experience in a controlled environment."

Glynn said the A&M fire school tries to be one of the best in the world.

"Just like everything else at A&M, we strive to be the very best," Glynn said. "People recognize that. The best fire fighters want to come here."

Firemen attending school this year were Robert Ford, Firefighting 4; Dell Ford, Firefighting 4; Dean Hathaway, Firefighting 1; Walter Simmons, Instructor.

Highway Patrol Warns To Watch for Youngsters

We've all heard the saying, "Kids do the darnedest things!" Well kids do the darnedest things, especially around school zones. With school starting up again, there's sure to be trouble afoot. Now is the time for drivers to start thinking about the dangers this presents.

Whether you drive in school zones once a year or work there every day, you can never forget certain lessons. One is that you have to use better judgement than the 7-year olds who surround you, according to Trooper L. B. Snider, Public Information Officer for the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"It's important to remember that kids aren't small adults, and they don't think like adults. They lack experience with traffic, and they don't always act logically. When you sound your horn, for instance, a child may think its okay to cross the street in front of your vehicle," Snider added.

Children also have limited perceptual skills. Sometimes they can't even tell if your vehicle is in motion or stopped. They can't accurately judge the speed and distance of vehicles or detect safe gaps in traffic.

"Elementary school aged children often aren't tall enough to be seen on the other side of a parked car, or as they move between vehicles to cross the street when they're being picked up. School zones are not the time to light a cigarette or call the office on your car phone," Snider says.

The key is to see children in time to avoid a collision. Search from curb to curb for kids who could enter your path. Everyone who enters the roadway is vulnerable to injury, but children on foot are even more at risk.

Many times the kids probably have their minds on school or friends, not on the vehicles moving around them. That means it's your job to be even more aware of what's going on around you. Since it's hard to predict kids actions near schools, try to avoid these areas. Reroute your trip, if possible, to avoid peak drop-off and pick-up times and getting stuck behind a school bus.

However, if you can't avoid a drive through a school zone, the best strategy is to just slow down and stay alert. It's up to us to take precautionary steps to keep kids alive and safe.

New Lone Star Card Replaces Food Stamps

State Comptroller John Sharp today activated the Lone Star card in the Wheeler area, announcing that the new electronic benefits delivery system will abolish paper food stamp coupons—and much of the fraud associated with them—in Wheeler County and 89 other counties beginning Tuesday, August 1.

"This security card is going to virtually take public benefits off the black market, saving taxpayers millions of dollars and returning the food stamp program to its original intent—feeding hungry families," Sharp said, as he officially brought the innovative new system on-line.

"For the past week, the electronic system has been undergoing final testing. Since July 24, emergency food stamp clients have received Lone Star cards instead of the old paper food stamp coupons," Sharp said.

USDA: Americans ate fewer vegetables last year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans ate more potatoes, sweet corn, bell peppers, onions and watermelon last year than in the previous year, but they consumed less lettuce, cauliflower and carrots.

Overall, U.S. per capita use of 56 vegetables and melon categories tracked by the Agriculture Department slipped by 1 percent in 1994, to 425 pounds, as measured on a farm-weight basis.

Per capita use of potatoes — the largest U.S. vegetable crop — rose nearly 3 percent in 1994 to 141 pounds, according to figures released this week by USDA's Economic Research Service.

That was the sixth yearly increase in a row, and the largest per capita use of potatoes since 1935. Most of the gain came in potatoes used for freezing, particularly french fries.

"Overall potato use is forecast to stabilize in 1995 as production is expected to fall slightly. With slightly smaller production, french fry use is expected to peak and fresh use could decline," the agency said.

Use of vegetables for processing declined 3 percent last year to 127 pounds per person, while per capita use of vegetables for freezing dropped 5 percent to 22 pounds.

Along with potatoes, use of sweet potatoes increased, rebounding from a low in 1993 to 4.6 pounds per person last year.

Also, use of garlic has surged, which the USDA agency attributed to months of fiscal 1995, bulk commodity exports rose 31 percent from a year earlier to $17.1 billion; intermediate product exports were up 22 percent to $7.8 billion; and consumer food exports were up 16 percent to $12.2 billion.

The Pacific Rim accounted for the largest increase in U.S. exports in May, up 33 percent. But exports to Mexico fell 25 percent from year-ago levels, largely because of the peso devaluation. Exports to Mexico for the October-May period were off 5 percent.

U.S. exports of intermediate products were up 8 percent in May over year-earlier sales to $826 million, with hides, skins and animal fats recording the largest gains.

In the consumer-oriented category, shipments of red meat helped boost U.S. exports by 12 percent to $1.6 billion. Increases also were seen in dairy products, processed fruit and vegetables, poultry meat, fresh vegetables, wine and beer and pet foods.

countries as well as the European Union.

For the first five months of this year, exports of whole cattle hides reached $505 million, up 25 percent from the same 1994 months, the Agriculture Department said.

Exports for the entire year are forecast at $1.2 billion, up $150 million, or 14 percent, from 1994. That would be the highest level since 1990.

The Agriculture Department attributes the surge to higher foreign demand as well as the lower-valued U.S. dollar in Asia.

Exports to China in the first five months of this year were up 52 percent from a year earlier, as well as up 44

CROP REPORT

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Jon Zeitler, meteorologist at the National Weather Service Agricultural Service Center in College Station, said producers can expect more hot and dry weather to continue across Texas the rest of this week and through the middle of next week.

"The only relief will be some widely scattered showers and thunderstorms in Southeast Texas Wednesday through Saturday," he said.

Zeitler said high temperatures will range from the lower 90s along the Gulf Coast to 105 and 110 at locations west of Interstate 35.

The following specific livestock, crop and weather conditions were reported by district extension directors:

PANHANDLE: Soil moisture adequate. Pastures, ranges improving; good forage. Corn in good condition; tasselling. Cotton crop progressing well, but late. Harvesting po-percent to Taiwan, 39 percent to Japan and 21 percent to South Korea.

USDA attributed strong demand for Italian and Spanish leather garments and stagnant European hide production for a 26 percent increase in U.S. hide exports to Italy and a 249 percent surge in exports to Spain during January-May.

This growth comes at a good time for U.S. producers, said August Schumacher, administrator of USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service.

"Domestic cattle prices today are being pressured by large U.S. meat supplies, and the increasing sales abroad help support prices and producer incomes," he said.

Salena's Death Opens Eyes to Broad Market of Hispanics

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — No one will ever know whether Selena would have fulfilled her dream of becoming a pop music superstar.

But the tejano singer's death has proved one thing: Her mostly Hispanic fans are a huge market in themselves.

"Selena's death has opened up an awareness of a lot of people to this market of Hispanics that's been neglected for so many years," said Abraham Quintanilla Jr., Selena's father and manager.

"Now they are beginning to find out that the buying power of this market is so huge that it's mind-boggling. When Selena was put on the cover of People magazine, it sold out like that," Quintanilla said.

In fact, almost anything with Selena's picture on it sold out in the weeks after the Grammy-winning star was gunned down in March. The long lines of fans to buy her new "Dreaming of You" release last week was yet another demonstration that her selling power is still running strong.

Many Hispanic leaders say the advertising, news media and entertainment industries should take note of the growing Hispanic market, which now makes up 9.5 percent of the population. Although Selena's core support came from Mexican-Americans, especially in Texas and California, she drew fans from other Hispanic groups across the country. Her fame was growing rapidly throughout Mexico, the Caribbean and Central America as she prepared to record in English in an effort to conquer the U.S. pop charts.

But even as Selena was drawing big concert crowds and selling more than 600,000 copies of her 1994 "Amor Prohibido" compact disk, she received relatively little publicity outside of Spanish media.

All that changed when she died. Huge numbers of Hispanics, especially Mexican-Americans, reacted in an emotional outpouring reminiscent of Elvis Presley's death. But most Anglo and black Americans looked on in wonder, never having heard of Tejano music or its 23-year-old queen.

Some Hispanic leaders say the different reactions are the product of a segregated media: a mainstream for English speakers and a side current for Spanish speakers.

State University. "We do read, we pick up magazines and we do buy, but somehow we are not being treated like customers."

Marinez criticized People magazine's placement of Selena on its April 17 cover only for Texas and Southwest distribution. In the magazine's first "split-cover" issue, the cast of the TV sitcom "Friends" appeared on editions distributed to the rest of the country that week.

Marinez believes the split cover slighted Hispanics in the Midwest and other regions. His institute recently released a study showing that the Hispanic population has grown faster than other ethnic groups in every Midwestern state during the past decade.

"Most of the feedback that we've gotten from the Latino community has been very positive and heartwarming," said Susan Ollinick, People's director of public affairs.

She said People editors were quick to recognize the impact of Selena's death. "We did more on this story than any of the other weekly publications," she said.

The 450,000-copy Selena cover was a virtual sellout. The magazine then printed 600,000 copies of a commemorative issue entirely devoted to Selena, and it sold out so fast that People had to print an extra 357,000 copies.

There were no second printings for similar People tributes to Audrey Hepburn and Jackie Onassis.

"We are quite proud of what we did and think it's a step in the right direction," Ollinick said. "We certainly learned a lot from it about the Hispanic community."

Picante sauce hits store shelves in 'New York City?'
 SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Pace Foods has started selling its picante sauce in New York City, the place that helped make the salsa famous in Texas.

New Yorkers got their first taste last week of the Pace Picante Sauce television ads featuring cowboys boasting that Pace is made in San Antonio, "where people know what salsa should taste like."

The ads poke fun at another salsa made in New York City.

"New York City?" sneer the cowboys in the 30-second spot.

Pace decided to stick with the ad campaign because it tested well in the New York market, said Rod Sands, president of San Antonio-based Pace.

"When we tested the ads, New Yorkers responded in a positive way, obviously appreciating the tongue-in-cheek nature of the ads and realizing that we're poking fun at ourselves and Texas stereotypes as much as anything," he said.

The ads also will air in New Jersey.

Pace and Campbell Soup Co., which bought Pace in February, hope to cash in on the Northeast on the fast-growing Mexican-style sauce market, with its projected sales of $1.3 billion for 1995.

Pace Foods created its picante sauce in 1947.

Born in a converted railroad boxcar in 1937, Merle Haggard began to run wild after the death of his father in 1946. He eventually ran afoul of the law and was serving time in San Quentin when Johnny Cash played a concert at the prison. It intensified Haggard's interest in music and helped inspire his subsequent career following his release in 1960. Haggard received a full and unconditional pardon from California Governor Ronald Reagan in 1972.
