Little Sue Swearengin was ad-nitted to the hospital in Shamrock last week with pneumonia in one lung. She made a rapid recovery and was able to return home Saturday morning. Bea and I kept the five month old daughter, little Connie, for two nights while the mother was with Sue at Shamrock. Her sweet little smiles captured us completely, and we sure did miss her when they took her home.

They came right on into this district to tell you how to vote in a local election. The m way of telling these lobbyists to stay out of all is to vote for Lester A. Jones on May 5.

The present representative of this district credit for our road system. Let's look at the con road system as late as January 3, 1962. The dressed a joint session of the House and Senated and his address is entered in the official House few of the remarks contained in this address a farm-to-market road question, I vetoed the sens son-Briscoe program in the sum of $15 million be was no provision made by statute for maintenant to-market roads." . . . . Unfortunately, cortisone in the large doses Jamee required for relief sometimes has its drawbacks. Side effects in her case included a "moon face" appearance.

Specialists at the March of Dimes-supported clinic treated Jamee with intensive physical and hydrotherapy (exercise baths in swirling water), and arefully regulated her diet. Gradually the little girl's cruel pains decreased, permitting a reduction in the cortisone dosage. The swollen "moon face," Jamee's hospitalization ended.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Register-ing the guests was Miss Mary McKeever, Plainview.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and attractively centered with the bride's bouquet placed before an arrangement of a white driftwood tree from which hung white net bags, accented with white bows and miniature blue birds. A miniature bride and groom under two white wedding bells completed the arangement which set on a blue base and was surrounded by more of the tiny rice bags.

Napkins imprinted in gold with "Beth and Charles - April 20, 1962", a three tiered wedding cake and appointments of crystal and silver completed the setting. Presiding at the serving table were Miss Jane Aylesworth, Mrs. Curtis Shultz and Mrs. Kenneth

Following the reception the cou-ple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with matching accessories and a carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Kelton High School and is completing her sophomore year at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. The groom is a graduate of Union High school and will receive his degree from Wayland Baptist College in

After the groom's graduation the couple will reside in Brownfield where the groom will be engaged in farming.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To Times Editor:

While we are wishing it were possible to find an oasis and so tude in the midst of this great desert of noise and turmoil can be cheerd some with another thought. There can be, and is, way to provide a remedy for thi condition of tension and war fear

It seems late, but not too late A number of groups of people from aat Wes all walks of life, armed with the Canyon. Old Faith, minus any attitude of defeatism should be able to visit those parts of the world where live our antipodes, and vise versa. Krushchev and the bolshoi ballet are not sufficient, neither are the summit meetings which aren't held in a proper friendy spirit, more visits should be exchanged between those who stand to lose the most problems of the other people. This would bring a much needed understanding, a very good detterent for war, therefore good will and friendliness, to replace doubt and mistrust of one for the other.

There would be money involved, but to whom ever would sponsor and undrwrite the project, would be at only a fraction of the cost of any sort of war, and so much more pleasant. In the meantime, if and when terestrial creatures take off on a journey to the moon, Venus, Mars or any of the celestial bodies, regardless of the final outcome. all I know as a land lover is, They will be "away out yonder", some-
