COTTON REFERENDUM DETAILS, PLAINED BY COUNTY AGENT

Charles Jackson, Wheeler County cotton agent, will vote on the referendum December 12 at the same time as the marketing quota referendum. Vote will be by mail ballots.

County Agricultural Agent Charles Jackson said the referendum will be held at the same time as the marketing quota referendum.

Dr. James Kirby, Extension marketing and policy economist at A&M, told the group about $70 million was spent last year for promotion of man-made fibers. That compares to $4 million spent to promote cotton, he said.

Kirby said research expenditures by the man-made fiber industry last year were $135 million compared with total cotton research funds of just over $26 million.

Kirby gave favoring and opposing points of view on the referendum. He said those who oppose the Research and Promotion Act say legislation which forces cotton handlers to deduct the one dollar per bale is a potential dangerous policy and encroaches on the farmer's freedom of choice.

He said those who support the act point out the farmer can get a full refund of the dollar per bale if he does not want to support the program. Supporters say this provides the farmer with a choice.

Kirby said those who oppose the Act contend it gives too much authority to the Secretary of Agriculture. He said those who support it say the Secretary's authority is much less than under 30 other marketing programs presently involved in research and promotion.

Kirby explained that since 1960 a research and promotion campaign has been carried on by the National Cotton Council. It has been financed by a one dollar a bale voluntary contribution by growers. Contributions last year amounted to $2.5 million. If all growers had contributed one dollar a bale, the total would have been about $15 million for Upland cotton, he said.

The Cotton Council says the voluntary program has not worked well mainly because of problems of collecting funds and irregular income and disproportionate contributions.

Kirby summed up, "The decision you make in the referendum has two basic parts: First, do you think research and promotion aimed at increasing the sale of your cotton is the proper method to use to get a greater share of the fiber market? Second, if you believe increased emphasis on research and promotion will benefit cotton sales, then is the organization of cotton producers as proposed in the Cotton Research and Promotion Act acceptable to you as a way to raise the money?"

accounts for only 54.5 percent of mill consumption. Manmade fibers have gained most of the differences, he said.

When cotton was really "King" the U.S. produced more cotton than all foreign countries combined. But not so today. Now, foreign countries produce more than twice as much cotton as we do, said Jenkins.

Kirby said purpose of the Extension meetings is educational—not to say whether the proposed check-off is good or bad, but to present the facts and let growers decide for themselves.

*Denotes Conference Games

Basketball season has arrived and the Wheeler high school teams played their first game Tuesday evening with Briscoe. The score was not available due to the completion of the Times on Tuesday evening.

Coach Leldon Harrison has completed the girls team and still had one position open on the boys team Tuesday morning. Out of the 24 girls trying for a place on the team the following names were released: Forwards: Sue Ann Richerson, Sibyl Richerson, Connie Richardson, Linda Blevins, Nancy Moore, Nancy Watts. Playing Guard position are: Dixie DeArment, Sidney Ann Kenady Sarah Walker, Linda Moore Rhonda Stevens and Sue Wood.

Of the 24 boys practicing basketball this year eight have received suits. Taking their place on the squad are Villard Hunter, Fred Goad, Johnny Hutchison, Johnny Chapman, Donald Rives, Rickey DeArment, Allen Lamb, Bobby Ware and Frankie Rogers.

The game with Briscoe was originally scheduled to be played at the Wheeler gym, but was played at Briscoe due to the remodeling underway at the Wheeler gym. The completion of the remodeling is being held up by the lack of material—windows and hardware for the doors, but Harrison hopes the gym will be ready for use by the next home game which will be with Miami, Dec. 6.

The girls started practicing last week and the boys have gotten in only four days practice. However, Coach Harrison is optimistic and feels Wheeler fans are in for a winning season.

With the arrival of materials, the gym could be completed in a week. The windows in the gym will be replaced by aluminum windows with shaded glass on both sides. These windows are on order, but have not arrived. The side door to the gym will be replaced with steel doors with the hardware for these doors still on order. Workmen have been assured the material is in shipment. The bleachers are in and can be put in as soon as the windows are in place. When this remodeling is completed Wheeler citizens will certainly be able to take pride in their gymnasium.

Report On Farm Bureau Convent'n

The 33rd Annual Texas Farm Bureau convention met on November 13-16 at the Driscoll Hotel in Corpus Christi. Registration began at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon. University of Corpus Christi Choral group opened the evening session in the grand ballroom of the Driscoll Hotel followed by a Vesper service led by Rev. Delton E. Fischer of Meadow, Texas "Texas Rural Minister of the Year." C.H. Devaney gave the annual message Monday morning and asked the housewives to join the farmer in an assault on inflation. He stated the best hedge the American housewife can have against inflationary food prices and a guaranteed abundance of a reasonable cost is to have less government in agriculture. A Howard County farm girl, Mary Frances Newton, 19, won the state talent find contest with her "Fiano Comedy Skit." A musical combo from Perryton was runner-up. Members included D.C. & Leona Barlow, Rick Hutson and Bob Humphries. James A. Scarborough won the discussion meet with a talk on "What is the future in agriculture for a Young Person." Governor John Connally addressed the group on Tuesday morning. He stated that farmers are going broke by being independent. He operates a farm near Floresville. He offered suggestions to the farmers and ranchers to farm marketing organizations and band together in integrated operations. He challenged the states largest farm organization to intensify efforts to make agriculture better understood by the general public. He said there persists in minds of many the mistaken impressions that the farmer is to blame for higher food costs. Connally said the economy plus outlook for need of food, favor agriculture production. However production must be at a profit if farmers and ranchers continue to produce it. On Tuesday evening, an impressive recognition pageant "Frontiers of the Future" was given, tracing the history of Texas from the beginning up to now, with many wonderful sound effects. Business session were held each day. Dee Coleman from Collingsworth County was elected director of District one. C.H. Devaney was re-elected president. The Texas Farm Bureau convention delegates voted 5-1 Wednesday against compulsory assessment of a $1 per bale on cotton farmers to be voted on Dec. 5-9. Eight hundred voting delegates from 205 counties took part in balloting on resolutions. More than 2,000 attended the convention. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Burrell were voting delegates from Wheeler.

25 MAILING DAYS REMAINING

Postmaster Virgil Jamison reminded the Wheeler area residents today that there are only 25 more mailing days before Christmas.

"While this may sound like a long time to most people, it is frighteningly short to those of us in the Postal Service," he said. "Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has predicted that well over eight billion pieces of mail must be delivered between now and Christmas Eve, a new record."

"We are asking everyone to start thinking about their Christmas shopping and mailing now. If all the holiday mail were to hit the postal system at one time, it is obvious that we'd have difficulty delivering every piece on time."

The Wheeler Post Office expects to handle 100,000 pieces of mail during the holiday rush, the Postmaster said.

Diane Dodd was on Cotton John's TV program Saturday. Delegates from three states were there who will attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago next week. Each one was interviewed by Cotton John in a get-acquainted program.

Stitch and Chatter to Meet
