

More Cotton Aid Demand Made

Farm Program In Jeopardy, Says S. C. Senator

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Senator Smith (D-SC) an intended victim of President Roosevelt's farm program would be "seriously jeopardized" unless the government met demands for more cotton aid.

Speaking for half-a-dozen senators and others who attended a conference at the capitol, he wrote Wallace after lesser agriculture department officials had refused the group's demands.

During the conference he stormed at Harry Brown, assistant secretary of agriculture, and Jesse W. Tapp, Agriculture Adjustment administrator.

"We aren't going to solve this by standing around and raising our eyebrows," Smith said. "We are going to get the government to do it."

"I hope you don't think the department of agriculture is against the farmer," Brown interjected. "I sometimes do," the senator shot back.

He demanded in his letter to Wallace that the present government loan on the 1938 cotton crop be increased from 8.3 cents a pound to more than 11 cents a pound. He also offered an additional government subsidy payment of three cents a pound.

Brown, representing Wallace, who was out of the city, told the conference the cotton loan rate had been fixed at 8.3 cents "because in the long run the department of agriculture felt that would be better for the farmer themselves as well as the government."

He said the government already held 7,000,000 bales of cotton under loan and a high loan rate would cause more cotton to be diverted from trade channels into government holdings.

Smith, chairman of the senate agriculture committee, announced he would call his committee together in December to work out "a real farm program" for presentation to the new congress in January.

Graft Probe Pushed Of NM Relief Unit

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 1 (AP)—The federal grand jury probing reported graft, payroll padding and political activity in the New Mexico Works Progress Administration today completed its investigation of an unbroken procession of witnesses filed into the jury room.

Although cloaked in secrecy, the investigation gave rise to sensational speculation.

Reconvening this week after a two-week recess to obtain additional information, the 24-man grand jury heard Gov. Clyde Tingler, former state WPA Administrator Lea Rowland, zone supervisor E. A. Rose, and Fred Healy, ousted summarily as administrator just a week ago by Harry Hopkins for "local political interference."

U. S. District Attorney Everett Grantham indicated the inquiry was by no means complete.

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK

BY JOE PICKLE

The Sales Crusade fittingly closed today with a concerted move to get everyone to go to church. This is the one thing everyone can and should do to cooperate in the campaign and to give churches the support they so richly deserve. It might have been argued during the crusade that you did not need this or that item; but surely none of us without remorse, that he does not need the church and the spiritual uplift emanating from it. So to church today.

Speaking of the crusade, the manufacturers of Big Spring pulled a neat stunt Friday and Saturday by paying off a portion of the semi-monthly payroll in silver dollars. When they turned 6,000 of these loose at one time, the business men got an idea of the importance of the industrial payroll. Too, credit goes to the manufacturers for a nice exhibit of wares.

That 4-1 margin voters gave the water bond issue here Tuesday was really remarkable. It was a grand margin for any bond issue, and especially so for a $75,000 block. Even more remarkable is the fact that a week before, when the Concho issue was pending, the bonds were deemed to sharp defeat. They couldn't possibly have won several days earlier.

As it is now, the city has a $225,000 gift from PWA to go with its $275,000 to apply on the program of water development that appears most reasonable and of greatest value. You may rest assured that commissioners will try plenty of investigating before they turn loose any of that money.

We are talking about things you would be interested in.

Senators Urge FD To Convoke Peace Parley

President Viewed As Logical One To Call Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Two democratic senators—Burke of Nebraska and Lewis of Illinois—proposed simultaneously tonight that President Roosevelt summon international conferences to effect a lasting European peace.

Burke, a critic of some administration measures, just returned from a European tour, said the president was the logical man to call a badly needed world economic conference.

Lewis, an administration supporter, declared the time had come when Mr. Roosevelt should summon all parties to the treaty of Versailles to meet in this country and survey what that treaty had produced "in discontent, revolt and war."

"Then," added Lewis in a formal statement to the press, "a just disposition of the colonies can be made in a calm atmosphere in the United States, under one direction—as we do not look for resentments and seek no rewards. We only seek a world peace."

In an interview, Senator Burke said he thought the time was ripe for an economic readjustment which would remove trade barriers and, with them, many of the causes of war.

"I think Europe's troubles are basically economic," he said. "The president is the logical one to take the leadership in calling an economic conference. The president is in the ideal position to take the lead because he can do it without involving us in Europe's squabbles."

Praising the reciprocal trade treaties fostered by Secretary of State Hull, Burke said some such treaties might well be the basis of agreements among all the larger nations of the world.

COURT OPENS TERM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The supreme court will begin its 1938 term Monday, presided over by approximately 400 cases, including a challenge of the Tennessee Valley Authority act and several disputes involving interpretation of the national labor relations act.

City Begins Fall Trade With Gains

Building Permits, Postal Receipts, In Increase

Big Spring business poised itself Saturday for the autumnal trade upswing with substantial gains already registered on two of three commercial barometers.

However, the one barometer which often reflects heavier buying tendency—new passenger car sales—was off sharply. Building permits brightened the picture with a remarkable gain and postal receipts showed a substantial increase.

September building, including $29,450 for 10 new residential structures, amounted to $41,847 for bringing the year to date to $378,796. This was $239,251 above the total for the same period a year ago. Nor was the permit total far from the building activity affecting Big Spring. The $817,000 mill project sent the construction total in and outside the city limits past the two million dollar mark for the first time in the year.

The $5,643.85 postal receipts for September, continuing the unbroken record of gains for the year, made the three-quarters total $53,484.42, a gain of $6,311.70 for the period over last year.

New car sales dropped again during September as new models were in the process of completion at factories. The 52 registrations for the month June 500 for the nine months period and left the country with a 320 deficit for the first three-quarters of the year.

Two things which offered encouragement for a marked change in the general business condition here was the receipt of $15,000 in federal farm subsidy checks and the starting of movement of the cotton crops to the market.

Saturday the traffic in downtown Big Spring thickened perceptibly and there was a decided increase in the number of Mexican cotton pickers on the streets.

Rose Festival Is Staged At Tyler

TYLER, Oct. 1 (AP)—A long and glittering floral parade, functions for three visiting governors and one governor-designate and the Texas A. and M. Tulsa football game highlighted the annual Rose Festival program here today.

Sharing applause with Frances Connelly, Festival queen, in the colorful parade was Princess Mabel O'Daniel of Fort Worth, prettiest daughter of Governor-Nominate W. Lee O'Daniel, seated on a pink and white float she was guarded by Captains Foster Wise of Dallas and Francis Fatts of Waco, members of the Rose volunteers of Texas A. and M.

The parade contained 27 rose-covered floats, 25 bands and two drum bands, 1000 marchers. The high-stepping band, dressed in gold braids and plumed uniforms, came from rich rural high schools in the East Texas oil field area as well as from A. and M. and Tulsa universities.

Nazi Troops March Into Czechoslovakia; Europe Still Ponders Peace Problems

Poland Prepares To Take Its Slice, British Cabinet Member Resigns In 'Distrust' Of English Policy

By The Associated Press

Cray-clad German legions began a bloodless conquest of Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland yesterday (Saturday)—Poland made ready to take over her slice of the dwindling republic—

In Washington two democratic senators proposed that President Roosevelt call an international peace conference—

And a troubled Europe, calculating the enormous cost of its latest war scare, wondered what the future held.

Out of the upheaval of the past few weeks, Germany, who came through with most of her demands met, foresees an eventual understanding with France, the return of colonies, fulfillment of her long-cherished dream of economic penetration of the Balkans.

Britain, despite the double-barrelled fruits of the Munich conference—partition of Czechoslovakia and the Hitler-Chamberlain declaration for peace—figures she will have to pay dearly for lasting peace.

It already has cost her a cabinet resignation—Alfred Duff Cooper, first lord of the admiralty, quit yesterday in "distrust" of Prime Minister Chamberlain's new foreign policy.

Poland Next? France sees Soviet Russia on the outside looking in on Europe's councils and the possibility she herself might be dominated by Britain in a future four power rule—by Britain, France, Italy and Germany.

Soviet Russia sees the will of the masses trodden and Poland the "next victim" of partition.

To fascist Italy, the continent's next problem child is Spain and her war upon which hangs the question of making operative the Anglo-Italian "East" accord and resumption of friendly relations with France.

These glimpses into the future, however, were overshadowed for the moment by the actual accomplishments of the Munich four-power accord and Czechoslovakia's capitulation to Poland.

While his troops launched the progressive occupation of Sudetenland provided in the Munich agreement Adolf Hitler returned to a conqueror's welcome in Berlin.

One third of the first zone of Sudeten areas ceded to Germany by Czechoslovakia last night had been brought within the widening frontiers of Greater Germany. Three zones were left for occupation by German troops before October 8.

Further areas are to be occupied by Germany by Oct. 10, their boundaries to be fixed by the five-power international commission supervising the cession.

Czechs Yield Czechoslovak troops, meanwhile, began evacuating Teschen after the government reached a "painful" decision to yield to Poland's ultimatum for cession of that boundary zone populated by most of Czechoslovakia's 100,000 Polish minority.

Popular demonstrations broke loose in Warsaw when the government announced Czechoslovakia's action.

Most European governments faced the "morning after" fact that the crisis had cost millions of dollars. Placing millions of men under arms and other defensive measures had put a severe strain.

TRUCKER IS BEATEN AND ROBBED OF $45

J. C. Beaver, Gorman trucker, was slugged and robbed near here Friday night when he was forced from the road seven miles west and overpowered by five men.

According to Beaver, well known in West Texas trucking circles, the men attacked him and took $45 in cash, his watch and a knife. They apparently left him for dead, he said, since one of the men told a companion to "hit him again; he's still alive."

Officers were investigating the affair.

RIO GRANDE RISES AT BROWNSVILLE

BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 1 (AP)—Murky water, boiling through a 200-foot break in a river levee, broke west of Brownsville covered the military highway 100 feet from city limits tonight.

At least 200 WPA workers were thrown into the battle against the raging Rio Grande and all traffic on that particular highway was stopped. State highway No. 4 to Harlingen was open, however.

The break occurred west of the city's pumping plant this morning. A 200-foot sandbag levee on which county employees had been working since Wednesday went out.

WAR SCARE OVER, NATIONS FIND MOBILIZATION COST MILLIONS

PARIS, Oct. 1 (AP)—Coming out of their war scare, European nations are suddenly confronted by the realization that it has cost them many millions of dollars.

The question beginning to bob up now is, "who is going to foot the bill?"

The unique proposal has been advanced in France that foreign residents and businesses be subjected to a special tax over a period of years to meet the expense of mobilization.

The proposal has been put forward by a group in the chamber of deputies. At all events, the government is understood to be drawing up a special financial bill to cope with the situation.

Board Of Control To Inspect State Hospital Here Monday

Officials To Be Honored With Buffet Supper

The Big Spring state hospital, a new $817,000 institution, will receive its first official inspection Monday when the state board of control and its staff come here for that purpose.

Board members, headed by Clyde D. Teeg, chairman, will be accompanied by architects and engineers, and possibly several members of the state legislature will be on hand to participate in the inspection.

Henry Meyer and Tom Deberry, who with Teeg comprise the board, will be getting their first look at the hospital. Meyer and Teeg were members of the board when it designated Big Spring as the site. Deberry has since replaced John Wallace as third member of the board.

Dr. Charles W. Castener, chief of the eleemosynary division of the board, will be in the group of state officials.

After an informal reception Monday afternoon, the board, its staff, visiting legislators and West Texas county judges will be taken to the hospital north of town where Dr. George T. McMahan, superintendent, will conduct the tour through the buildings.

At 8 p. m. in the Settles ballroom there will be a buffet supper honoring the board. Doyle Settle, Lubbock representative who pushed the house bill for the hospital through, will be principal speaker. Penrose Metcalfe, San Angelo, will speak if he is able to attend. There will be other impromptu addresses.

Entertainment for the occasion will be furnished by the Drifters, local radio string band.

While many state senators and representatives, and state legislators-elect are expected to accept invitations to take part in the inspection, the attendance from the ranks of West Texas county judges may be small for judges are going to New Braunfels for the state judges and commissioners association. Local attendance is confined to members of the chamber of commerce board of directors and the eleemosynary committee.

Invalid Woman Dies Of Fumes Given By Husband

HEWLETT, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—In mumbled phrases, Harry Johnson, 65, a retired oyster dealer, tonight told Nassau county authorities the story of a "mercy death" that ended the suffering of his cancer-afflicted wife.

As District Attorney Edward Neary moved to bring first degree murder charges against him, the husband poured out details of the soul-trying ordeal.

"Getting rapidly worse—unbearable agony for weeks and months—she begged me to do it... begged me over and over again... she knew what I was doing... her eyes were happy at the last, and she smiled..."

So Detective Inspector Harold King quoted Johnson as saying after his voluntary surrender to police.

The victim, Mrs. Jennie A. Johnson, 67, was found dead in a blanketed bedroom on the second floor of their 3-story brick home. A 150-foot length garden hose attached to a gas main in the cellar had carried lethal fumes to the improvised death chamber.

O'DANIEL TO ADDRESS OIL MEN'S MEETING

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Acceptance by Governor-Nominate W. Lee O'Daniel of an invitation to address the annual meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association here Oct. 27-28 was announced today.

The convention arrangements committee immediately launched plans for a reception to honor the next governor of the nation's largest oil-producing state. O'Daniel will speak at the afternoon session Oct. 27 and the reception will be held shortly afterward.

OKLAHOMA AND TEXAS—Fair, continued warm Sunday and Monday, gentle to moderate mostly southerly winds on Texas coast.

Churches Urge Large Attendance Today

This is the day!

You've been putting off this business of going to church from Sunday to Sunday. You've been wracking your brain for one excuse after another. You've been telling yourself that you needed rest, that you had business to attend to, that you had to make a certain trip, or that you had something else to do.

All this time that still-small voice within you had been telling you that the church was where you belonged on Sunday, that all these other things really didn't matter.

Today is the day when you ought to listen to that voice. Today is the day when everyone in Big Spring is being urged to find his or her way into the church of his choice.

Today is Go To Church Day in Big Spring. All churches are urged to welcome capacity crowds as their contribution to the successful three weeks Sales Crusade which ends today with this fitting gesture.

Ministers, with more to "sell" than all others, have prepared heart stirring messages out of the Book. Choir directors have planned special music as well as the old hymns mother used to sing.

Yes, this is the day when, if you do as you ought, you also can say: "I was glad when they said, let us go unto the House of the Lord."

Active Court Session Ends

Rugged Fisher Life Of Alaskan Coast Is Background For Action Drama At The Ritz

Raft, Lamour, Fonda In 'Spawn Of The North'

"Spawn of the North," dealing with colorful and dramatic adventures of those who lived life in the raw in Alaska, and regarded as one of the outstanding contributions of the season to that list of action films, provides the top entertainment at the Ritz theatre today and Monday.

"Spawn of the North" is one of the eligible films in the $250,000 Movie Quiz contest.

The picture is an adaptation of the famous novel by the same name by Barrett Willoughby, regarded as one of the ace writers of Alaskan tales, and the cast features George Raft, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour and John Barrymore. Other players are Alvin Tamuroff, Lynne Overman, and a new star "discovery," Louise Platt.

Directed under the direction of Henry Hathaway, the man who made "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," "I Met My Love Again" and "Souls at Sea," "Spawn of the North" tells the story of two fishing comrades, played by Raft and Fonda, who become enemies when a war for the control of the "meadows of the sea" breaks out. The North's time-honored code of loyalty brings them back together again, when one of them saves the other from disaster through making a great sacrifice.

Sea raiding off the Alaskan coast, with fishermen pitted in a desperate struggle against salmon pirates, forms the background of the drama.

Although piracy has been rooted out of nearly every other portion of the globe during the last hundred years, it still flourishes in Alaska, a land still in its pioneer stage of development, where the law only holds in so far as there is a man armed and strong enough to enforce it.

Since fishing ranks as the most important single business of the entire Territory, it is natural that the fight for control of the best waters assumes the bitterest possible proportions.

No effort was spared by Paramount to make this film one of the most important productions of the season.

ALASKA THEIR BATTLEGROUND

The colorful Alaskan coast forms the somewhat forbidding background for a new film version of the famed adventure story, "Spawn of the North," which plays today and Monday at the Ritz, and in which George Raft, Dorothy Lamour and Henry Fonda are starred. The action picture, one of the Movie Quiz contest films, deals the life-and-death struggle between fishermen and salmon pirates.

Not only did a film crew spend six months in Alaska, filming background scenes, but a complete Alaskan fishing village, authentic down to the last detail, was constructed on the California coast for other sequences of the picture.

The Alaskan atmosphere is all-pervading in "Spawn of the North." Some of the famous sights of the territory which are now brought to the screen include the ancient Indian rite of the invocation of the "Fog Woman," filmed on Metakata Island, the annual salmon run, one of nature's most fascinating phenomena, the Northern Lights and the world-famous Takul Ice Cap, scene of the climax of the picture.

Laurel-Hardy Work Up Some New Antics

Comic Team At The Lyric Theatre In 'Block-Heads'

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy again leave behind them a trail of hilarious disaster. In "Block-Heads," their new Hal Roach-M-G-M comedy, playing at the Lyric Sunday and Monday, the two funsters persevere in their well-meaning way, but fortunately for a world that likes to laugh, the obstacles are almost insurmountable. "Block-Heads" is one of the $250,000 Movie Quiz contest films.

Far from exhausting their bag of tricks, the ample pockets of Stan and Oliver bulge with a supply of new ones. Among the fifteen or more new gags destined to be topics of conversation and subjects of imitation for days to come is the key gag. This one will appeal to anyone who has battled at his front door with a suddenly belligerent lock. Then there is the animated chair, a living room decoration that every well-ordered home should be without.

There's no need to purchase an electric cigarette lighter if you have a well-trained thumb like the Laurel demonstrates in one of the scenes. An indestructible punch bowl comes in handy when there are nervous guests to be quizzed after the kitchen has been blown to bits and there's nothing in the house to eat.

A portable glass of water sounds like a welcome innovation, but it has its disadvantages. A wireless telephone and disappearing window shades are other household appliances that carry with them a hint of liability.

In the way of locomotion, Stan leads the way to short cuts in the deft but disastrous way he can handle bicyclic chairs, automobiles or twenty-four-ton trucks.

In their uproarious antics in "Block-Heads" the comedians have the assistance of Patricia Ellis, Minna Gombell, Billy Gilbert and James Finlayson. The comedy was directed by John G. Blystone.

Jews Will Observe Yom Kipper Here On Wednesday

Big Spring Jews, along with those over the world, will observe the Day of Atonement Wednesday.

The most sacred and important holy day in the Jewish calendar, the day is known as Yom Kippur and is observed as a day of fasting and prayer from sundown Oct. 4 to sundown Oct. 5.

Yom Kippur is the Jew with a sense of his obligations to meet and his responsibilities as a Jew. Prayers and meditations fill him with a spirit of repentance and resolution to turn from misdeeds and resolve to achieve nobler conduct. The day is a culmination of the 10-day penitential period which began with Rosh Hashonah, the Jewish new year.

It will be observed locally by services in Temple Israel at the "lettes" hotel. Business concerns of orthodox Jews will be closed Wednesday.

CAN'T DIRECT RADIO WAVES, SCIENTISTS' TESTS SHOW

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 1 (UP)—Two California Institute of Technology physicists here have exploded a radio communications theory that may affect future wars.

Some users of extremely short radio waves have operated upon a theory that they could be sent up at an angle so they would strike the so-called "rayside layer" and be deflected back to earth at a similar angle, thus insuring comparative secrecy between two stations, Dr. G. W. Potapenko said today.

"But experiments of Dr. Paul Epstein and myself on the ocean prove that ultra short radio waves will bend, much as the longer ones used in commercial broadcasting," he continued.

"Ultra short waves, unlike the long ones, propagate in a straight line, as the flight of a projectile does. Therefore, they should not propagate below the horizon."

To Be Broadcast Over KBST Today

The signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776 will be presented in dramatized form in the "Famous Homes of Famous Americans" to be heard from 12:15 to 12:30 today over KBST.

The program, built around Independence Hall in Philadelphia as one of the birthplaces of American liberty, reviews in dramatic detail the authorization to Thomas Jefferson by the Continental Congress to draft the declaration. It also presents the discussion of Jefferson's draft of the declaration by the congress.

"Famous Homes of Famous Americans" made its debut on KBST last Sunday and will be heard each Sunday at 12:15.

Prepared under the supervision of the Federal Housing Administration, "Famous Homes of Famous Americans" carries the listener on a dramatized journey to a famous American home in each program. Benjamin Franklin's home was the subject of last Sunday's dramatization.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Abraham Rodriguez was in the hospital for treatment of a broken jaw, and has been dismissed.

John, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cramer of Chisholm, was admitted to the hospital Friday for treatment.

NEW LAUREL-HARDY OPUS HERE

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy are back with us again for more comic entertainment, the two holding forth in a new farce number called "Block-Heads," at the Lyric Sunday and Monday. Patricia Ellis and Minna Gombell are the ladies involved in the goings-on. The picture is one in the Movie Quiz contest list.

Vincent Lopez Band Is Featured In 'Show Of The Week'; Nurses And Guardsmen Compete In Radio Quiz

After Richard Himber's orchestra, with Fred Waring conducting, got the Mutual network's coast-to-coast "The Show of the Week" series off to a fast start last Sunday, Vincent Lopez takes up the musical burden on the broadcast of today. George Olsen's "Music of Tomorrow" was originally scheduled for this great spot.

Vincent Lopez is pinning one of the best known conductors ever heard on the kilocycles. Veteran listeners can remember hearing the tinkling Lopez piano on fidgety crystal sets. There was no saving in those dear dead days. But the black-haired conductor has kept pace with the times and his new array of musicians are equally at home in moderate or dizzy-paced tempos.

A highlight of today's broadcast will come when Lopez introduces Luddy Duchin, possessor of "The Magic Fingers of Radio." Duchin's band will give "The Show of the Week" on Sunday, Oct. 9.

Leadership Course Given To Scouters

Produced by Len Finger, program director for KAT, and KATZ, the series has proved one of the most unusual audience-participating features ever broadcast from Fort Worth.

The session was first of a series of training courses to be offered in the district. The one at Stanton was primarily for leaders of rural areas.

Not Shick, in charge of leadership training in the district, said that similar meetings would be held here in the near future.

SPORTS EVENTS

Having concluded its first week of visiting college and university campuses over Texas, the "All-Century Football Round-Up" plunges over the line into its second week with stops scheduled at North Texas State Teachers college, Denton; Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene; Texas Tech, Lubbock; and Abilene Christian college and McMurry college, Abilene.

Scheduled Monday through Thursday from 7:45 to 8 p. m., the series is presided over by central Zack Hurt, sports supervisor of the Texas State Network, has gained great favor among Southwestern football fans. Prominent football coaches, campus leaders, and pep-fests are featured from each university.

On Friday night, Oct. 7, the usual 7 to 8 p. m. round-robin pep-fest will be held in Abilene, with bands and pep rallies from Hardin-Simmons, Abilene Christian college and McMurry college holding the spotlight.

DELAY MONOPOLY HEARINGS UNTIL AFTER ELECTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (UP)—Some members of the government monopoly investigating committee said today that an informal agreement had been reached to delay open hearings until after the November general election.

The hearings originally were scheduled to start next month. One member, who asked that his name not be used, said the delay could be considered as an additional assurance to business that the investigators did not intend to make political capital of their findings.

Marijuana's Evils Told In Picture

Roadshow Attraction, 'Assassin Of Youth' At The C

Dealing with a subject which is becoming increasingly a matter of major concern for law enforcement officers, anti-crime agencies, school officials and parents' organizations and all social workers, a road show attraction is on the Queen theatre's program for today and Monday under the title, "Assassin of Youth."

The subject is marijuana—or marihuana—the narcotic-like weed which indistinctly makes addicts and crazed animal-like beings out of its users. The weed is regarded as all the more menacing to society because of its reported spread among youth.

"Assassin of Youth" purports to be a frank film document preaching a moral against the use of marijuana and similar "dope"—as well as against any excessive practices and habits making for the destruction of the moral fibre of young people. The picture tells a story of the consequences and the penalties to be paid by young folk whose desire for thrills and excitement overcomes judgment.

The use of marijuana in recent years has become a social and crime problem even in Texas, where the weed is available easily from Mexico. Officers' associations and parent-school organizations have declared open war on traffic in the poison.

RETAIL TRADE IN MOST CITIES GAINS

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (UP)—Retail sales turned upward at most leading centers of distribution this week as shoppers made purchases deferred during last week's stormy weather, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

The buying rebound lifted retail volume for the country as a whole with a 2 to 12 per cent of totals or the 1937 week.

YOAKUM, WINK AREAS EXTENDED

Production Gain Is Shown In Drilling Reports

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 1.—Completion of Magnolia No. 1 Lynn, northwest outcrop to the Denver pool and northeast of the Walker area in southwestern Yoakum county, for a flow of 312 barrels of oil in 24 hours, and extending of the Keystone pool in Winkler county northward by J. R. Sharp No. 1 Sharp-Crum, estimated good for 75 barrels daily, were among West Texas developments this week.

Final reports showed an increase over the preceding week but first reports declined. Forty-five oil producers and one failure were completed in 10 counties compared with 35 oil wells and three failures in 11 counties the week before. Locations were staked for 37 field tests and three wildcats in 10 counties, eight fields less but one wildcat more than the number listed in 13 counties during the preceding week.

Completion of Magnolia No. 1 Lynn in Yoakum county for 312 barrels followed treatment with 9,000 gallons of acid in two stages and shooting with 110 quarts of nitroglycerine with the total depth 5,165 feet. The well is in the northeast quarter of section 770-D-John H. Gibson.

Sam Yingling No. 1 Nettie Barrie, 9.12 miles northeast of the Bennett field in southeastern Yoakum county and in the southeast quarter of section 6-D-John H. Gibson, recovered lime bleeding oil but showing no porosity in coring to 5,351 feet. The bottom of the last core indicated water. Shell staked a location for No. 1 Rutz one mile

Failure Fixes West Limit Of Lockhart Pool

Powell Test On Guitar Land Has Light Shows

Encountering sulphur water at 3,020-22 feet, the wildcat Ajax-Anderson & Pritchard No. 1 Scott in Southeastern Howard county was preparing to plug Friday.

Abandonment of the test defined the western limits of the Lockhart pool. It was located a mile and a half southwest of production in that area, being staked 330 feet from the east and 2310 feet from the north lines of section 85-29-W&NW.

Across the county, the W. B. Powell No. 1 Guitar estate test in section 17-A-B & C, had slight shows, but insufficient to create excitement. The shows were logged at 3,185-90 and there were no more as the test drilled ahead just short of the 3,400 foot mark.

Snyder Area Completions

In the active Snyder area, there were two completions for a total of 957 barrels. Heaviest was the Moore Bros. No. 4-A O'Daniel, 2,310 feet from the south and west lines of section 34-30-1s, T&P, for 847 barrels daily on a 24-hour flowing test. It was shot with 600 quarts from 2,640-2,794 feet and was cleaned out a few feet off bottom. The showing was one of the strongest in that portion of the field. Other completion was the Sun Oil Co. 5 Snyder, 2,310 feet from the south and east lines of section 28-30-1s, T&P, for 110 barrels intermittent 24-hour flowing. The well was shot with 560 quarts from top of pay at 2,620 to bottom of the hole at 2,844 feet. Oil men agreed that the well was probably much stronger than the test indicated since it is in the midst of some of the heaviest producers in the pool.

Extension Test.

An extension test, Parton and Strickland No. 1 O'Daniel, three-quarters of a mile southeast of production, drilled to 355 feet in redbeds. It is located 330 feet out of the northeast corner of section 33-30-1s, T&P. Half a mile north, Magnolia No. 4 M. H. O'Daniel, 2,310 feet from the south and east lines of section 34-30-1s, T&P, at 2,500 feet; Shell No. 3 TXL, in the south half of the northeast quarter of section 33, cementing five inch casing at 2,490 feet after drilling to 2,830 feet; Eastland No. 3 TXL, a quarter of a mile to the southeast, drilling at 2,160 feet; Moore Bros. No. 7-A Snyder, section 28-30-1s, T&P, below 2,090 feet; and Moore Bros. No. 5-A O'Daniel, section 34, rigging up.

Northeast of the pool, the Groene Production Co. No. 1 Snyder, in the center of the northeast quarter of section 27-30-1s, T&P, was apparently unsuccessful in an attempt to shut out water with 100 sacks of cement at 1,870 feet. It was planned to resort to fillings. The well is a rehabilitation test.

Only well drilling in the Lockhart territory was the Lockhart Petroleum Corp. No. 3 Heusinger, section 67-29, W&NW, which reported light shows as it drilled into the pay horizon at 2,700 feet.

Pure Oil No. 17-A Chalk, section 125-29, W&NW, kept its previous potential figure of 517 barrels although it was shot with an additional 250 quarts from 2,824-3,125 feet and filled to within 100 feet of the top of the hole.

Texas Highway Fatalities Drop

Outpost Test Has Shows From The Swastika Zone

AUSTIN, Oct. 1 (AP).—Vehicular travel in Texas increased 281,000, 000 miles the first eight months of the year but highway and street fatalities were 224 fewer than in the same period last year, state police said today.

They reported 1,021 fatalities this year represented a drop of 17 per cent. Vehicular travel through August was more than 9,000,000,000 miles.

Heavy Flow

During the week Humble No. 1 L. L. Huddleston reported a gauged flow of 504 barrels of oil in 17 hours and 20 minutes from the Swastika sand, officially completing the second oiler from the 2,900-foot pay horizon. It is in section 49-15-T&P survey.

In the meantime, Sinclair-Prairie No. 1 Williams, between the Texas company lease in the field and the Humble extensions, had reported six slight showings of oil in drilling past 2,765 feet and was expected to reach the Swastika zone by the first of the week. It is in section 40-15-T&P survey.

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1 W. L. Chittenden estate, second producer and south extension for the western Jones county Swastika pool opened eight miles west of Anson, cored 12 feet of oil saturated sand from 3,010 feet and cemented casing before completing.

The test was slightly higher than the discovery well, Montour and Mack Hays No. 1 Chittenden, which had pay at a top of 3,016 feet.

Earlier in the week, it had passed up a showing of oil cored in sand from 2,785 feet. It is 660 feet south of the pool opener and is 330 feet from the north and east lines of

Deep Sand Pay May Spread In Jones Area

ABILENE, Oct. 1

Possibility that the deep paying Swastika sand area opened in the Noodle Creek pool of southwestern Jones county may spread over a large territory was seen this weekend after the Texas company No. 6 Laura Carter drilled eight feet of oil saturated sand topped at 3,132 feet.

No. 6 Laura Carter is located in the main part of the 12-year-old Noodle Creek field and is two miles west of the extension area where Humble has recently completed two wells from the deeper Swastika horizon.

Early in the week it cemented six-inch casing at 3,128 feet after taking two feet of the sand under a hole full of water. Plugs were drilled out and an additional six feet taken. Cleaning out opera-

Austin Panthers Smash Big Spring Longhorns 20 To 6

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

Noticeably shy on all-district men in years past, Big Spring's Bovines have three candidates for the mythical squad, including a holdover from last year's squad, which is about all local fans can look forward to unless the crew does an about face and really begins to play football. . . . The holdover is Ross Callahan, star guard of a year ago who is no doubt handicapped by the switch to half-back this fall. . . . Callie is left as good as he ever was, even with that bad paw, but he's "green" to his position and probably will be overlooked in the voting. . . . The others are Lefty Bethell, junior fullback and just about the best broken field runner in the loop, and Alton Bostick, quarter, who is a natural but who might show to better advantage if he were relieved of signal calling duties. . . . Just look at the top flight Texas high school teams that hit the dust this weekend. . . . Amarillo was nosed out by Classen (Oklahoma City), 7-6; Lubbock was trimmed by Capitol Hill (Oklahoma City), 14-13; Fort Arthur and Longview, top teams in the state last fall, fought to a 15-13 deadlock; Plainview dropped a 7-6 decision to Hollis, Okla.; Corpus Christi, ranked by some as the best team in the state, was tied by Temple, 0-0; and Lamesa fought Tampa on even terms for four quarters in a game in which no score resulted. . . . Probably the year's outstanding Class B grid battle of this sector takes place in Midland Oct. 21 when Wink's Wildcats and Midland's Bulldogs meet at Lackey field. . . . Wink won regional honors last fall, defeating Roscoe by one point in the finals. . . . Coach Lacey Turner has returned with another outstanding aggregation but Mentor Taylor at Midland has what he believes an eleven capable of turning aside the cats. . . . His best bet is Jay Francis, a triple threat back who has not been stopped this fall. . . . The game is expected to pack Lackey field. . . .

Obie Bristow, the big oil and insurance man, should be heading Chicago way any day now. . . . J. Gordon intends to take in the World Series in Wrigley Field (he's confident that the Bruins are already in as champions), should witness plenty of football before returning. . . . Over the weekend he and Bill Tate went to Wichita Falls to watch Taylor defeat Oklahoma A. & M. Friday night, slipped over to Fort Worth to look on as Arkansas and TCU had it out, then hoped to return to Abilene in time to catch the Centenary-Hardin-Simmons game, scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. . . . Jackson Craig, Brady Nix's first string center at Forsan, attended Big Spring high school last year but did not play football. . . . Hollis Parker, Nix's fullback, is probably this county's outstanding all-around athlete. . . . This is his first year of football but he can shake those dogs. . . . He really comes onto his own as a basketball player, can play softball, baseball, tennis and do anything in track or field events as well. . . . Incidentally, Nix has most of his 1937 basketball crew returning to camp this fall. . . .

Weavers Stars In Buc Rout

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1 (AP)—In a game as whacky and delirious as the flag race itself, the Cincinnati Reds crushed Pittsburgh's flag hopes today by swamping five pitchers with a 17-hit attack and a wild 9 to 6 victory.

The Pirates played and fought like a sandlot team. After overcoming a four-run deficit with a five-run rally in the fourth inning, the defense pitched collapsed and the loose swinging Reds, led by big Ernie Lombardi and Billy Myers, turned the game into a rout. Big Jim Weaver, who rescued Bucky Walters in the noisy Pirate fourth, was the hero of the wild battle. He stopped the Bucs with two hits, one a homer by Johnny Rizzo, in the fifth and then he turned back the enemy without a man reaching first for the remaining four innings. It was a sweet revenge for big Jim, whom the Pirates traded "down river" last winter.

GIANTS TRAMPLE BEES NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Giants clouted three pitchers for 15 hits, including home runs by Mel Ott, Johnny McCarthy, Alex Kampouris and Harry Danning, to trample the Boston Bees 13 to 5 today.

Locals Tally On Pass In 4th Period

Bovines' Running Game Overshadowed By Miller Men

EL PASO, Oct. 1—Stopped cold for three quarters by a lighter Austin High school team, the Big Spring Steers tonight broke loose in the fourth quarter for a lone touchdown to compensate in some measure for the 20 to 6 licking they received from the Panthers of El Paso.

With Austin leading 13 to 0 in the final quarter, after the Steers had been kicked pretty well all over the field, Big Spring unleashed its only sustained drive of the game to march 75 yards for its counter. Martin passed to Charlie Smith from his 25 to pick up 21 yards and two dashes around end by Bethell took the ball to the Panther 38. Martin passed to Savage on the 30 and Bethell tore around left end for a first down on the 20. Two passes, Martin to Charlie Smith and Martin to Savage, pushed the ball over the line. Charlie Smith failed to convert. Austin tallied another touchdown as the quarter waned to produce the final result. It was just too much smooth running power for the Steers from the oil country. Big Spring flashed occasionally in its aerial game but could not match the hard driving Panthers on the ground.

Hollis Parker Scores Five Touchdowns

FORSAN, Oct. 1—Stalled for a moment by an aroused Courtney line, Forsan's mighty Buffs finally began to click and steam-rolled their way to a 35-0 victory over Nolan Robnett's Wolves in a PSAA league six-man football game here Friday afternoon.

It was the second victory of the season for the Buffs. Previously they had triumphed over Garden City, 44-0.

The Friday battle left no doubt as to their superiority. The Courtney backs could make no headway in the drive toward the Forsan goal, even when Coach Brady Nix sent in his reserves.

Hollis Parker counted five of the Buffs' touchdowns while J. Sterling scored the other on a pass. Hart and Jones were outstanding for the Courtney six while Luncford stood out for Forsan along with Perker.

The Buffs were playing without the services of Ray McKinnon, Jackson Craig and Benny Asbury.

Play Of Wings Overshadows Aerial Show

Lain, Cordill Stopped; Boudreau's Extra Point Try Good

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT HOUSTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Quiet Raphael Boudreau, an amazing gentleman who has never missed a try-for-point in three years of college play, delivered the goods again today and Oklahoma's Sooners upset vaunted Rice Institute, 7-6, while 18,000 stunned, perspiring fans gaped.

One of those bench heroes who earns his glory with only a few seconds play each Saturday afternoon, Boudreau trotted out just before half-time and slammed across the winning point after substitute Howard McCarty had spun across from the 18-yard line for the touchdown.

Boudreau supplied the clincher but two great ends, Capt. Roland Young and John Stark, supplied the antidote for Rice's heralded two-man riot of Ernie Lain and Ollie Cordill with a smashing game that smothered their aerial antics.

Reserves Have Day Second stringers had a great day. Ois Rogers, reserve back, injecting life into the offensive in a late second period drive that wiped out Rice's six-point lead and furnished one of the day's big upsets. Never considered a passer, Rogers qualified today with heaves to Jennings and McCarty that carried Oklahoma from the Rice 43 to the one-foot line.

There Rogers fumbled a bad pass from center but recovered on the 10. His fourth down pass was intercepted on the one-foot line and Rice kicked out to their 33. A 15-yard holding penalty showed Oklahoma along, and then McCarty clasped a lateral from reserve back Favors and wigged 18 yards for the touchdown.

Wassy, 150-pound Doug (Seat) Sullivan, the 226-pound Lain's understudy, was the spark behind Rice's second period score. On the first play after replacing hurt worn Lain, Sullivan wound up and delivered a 16-yard aerial to substitute halfback Hugo Stevens. Sullivan, catapulting into the big Sooner line, moved on down to Oklahoma's 15-yard line and on five successive blasts off the tackles finally went over for the score.

Fullback Jake Schuehle was wide on his conversion attempt.

Billies Triumph Over Kats, 27-7

Garden City In Good Showing, Brown Stars

GARDNER, Oct. 1—Gardner's Hill Billies chalked up their second PSAA conference six-man football victory at the expense of the Garden City Bearkats here Friday afternoon winning 27-7.

The Bearkats looked better than at any time this season but Coach Floyd Burnett's outfit capitalized on several breaks and combined a few tricks with speed to win.

Marlin Brown tallied twice for the Billies and accounted for three extra points while John Bailey intercepted a pass and loped 60 yards for a third marker. Johnny Smith wrapped his fingers around a pass to score the final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The Bearkats scored in the third quarter.

Six-Man Game Set Oct. 13

Gardner And Forsan To Play At Stadium Under Lights

A rearrangement in the Hill Billies will send the Gardner Buffaloes in a PSAA six-man grid game in Steer stadium Thursday night, October 13.

Couch Floyd Burnett said that in bringing Big Spring its first six-man game fans would be given an opportunity to witness two undefeated teams in action. Gardner has defeated Courtney and Garden City thus far this season while Forsan has turned in impressive wins over the same two teams.

Admission prices of 15 cents, 25 cents and 35 cents will be charged, it has been announced.

The Aggies pushed deep into Tulsa territory time and again in the fourth quarter, finally scoring on Price's pass over the goal line to end Bruno Schroeder. Price's touchdown heave was for 25 yards and Schroeder took the throw between two Tulsa players vainly attempting to bat it down. Rogers missed the extra point.

Heineman Stars As Mines Win

EL PASO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Displaying a crushing offense, College of Mines' Muckers trampled New Mexico Military Institute under the sod of Kidd Field today, 26 to 0.

A barrage of bullet-like, flat passes by Ken Heineman, quarterback star of the Muckers, and his running backs, teamed with Backs Buddy Black and Gilberto Salcido, proved too much for the Broncos.

The first touchdown of the game was tallied just six plays after the opening kickoff. The Muckers nearly repeated the feat in the third quarter when, getting the ball on their own 20-yard line, they pushed the ball over the goal in eight straight plays.

Bearden to Patterson to Mallouf was the combination, with Mallouf, ace passer, easing over in the far corner around left end. Sprague kicked point.

Mallouf Slips Thru Within a few minutes, Mallouf's aerials and Bearden and Jackson's line ranning pushed the ball to the enemy 16 yard line. Mallouf faked a pass, lit out for a coffin corner, and barely made it safely.

SMU Sophs Rally Late To Smash Arizonans, 29 To 7

Smilanich In 62-Yard Tally Scamper

By WILLIAM T. RIVES DALLAS, Oct. 1 (AP)—Southern Methodist University calmly inspected the Arizona defense today for one period, allowing a touchdown in the process, and then ran over the enemy in startlingly simple fashion to win 29-7.

The Mustangs started slowly and Arizona shoved them around. In the second period, however, Southern Methodist mobilized its offense, scoring a touchdown and a field goal, and in the final period the Methodists picked up points much as they pleased.

Arizona showed up well in spots with its huge linemen and three hard-driving backs, Nielson, Smilanich and Randall, but lack of consistency was costly.

Visitors Score First Arizona drew first blood late in the opening period. After a weak Mustang kick, Arizona took possession on its 30. Smilanich twisted through the entire opposing team for a touchdown on a brilliant 62-yard scamper. He crossed the line standing up. Svob converted.

Bob Bellville, Methodist back, quickly put his mates back in the running in the first five minutes of the next quarter with a field goal.

Clemens' pass to Dewell just before the half ended gave the Mustangs their first touchdown. From his own 45, Clement spotted Dewell sneaking down the side line, hit him with the aerial, and Dewell was off for a 30-yard touchdown run. George Sanders failed to convert.

One of SMU's lanky laterals started the fourth period deluge.

Tickets for the Lions-Kiwanis donkey baseball game at Barton park at 8 p. m. Tuesday were going like the proverbial hot cakes. Virgil Smith, in charge of sales, said Saturday.

Ready to repeat a 1-0 victory earned over the Kiwanians a year ago, the Lions had a line-up ready for the affair. Cliff Wiley, in charge of the Lions team, announced some of the best riders in the club had been selected as possible starters.

These were his "first stringers": C. L. Rowe, Cliff Wiley, Virgil Smith, Dr. J. E. Hogan, Joe Pond, L. I. Stewart, Carroll Jones, Dr. P. W. Malone, Tommy Neal, Lawrence Robinson, Boyd McDaniel, Glenn Golden, Ludwig Grau and Glenn Mancil.

The Kiwanian team was a matter of speculation. One Lion offered to put $5 in his club's blind and if L. A. Eubanks, a star of last year's fracas, participated, and another $5 if the credit bureau cowboy rode his mount.

Faust's Office Game officials, feeling that a religious atmosphere would be needed as a result of the halting and juddering of the donkeys, named the ministers of the two clubs as umpires. They are Rev. Will C. . . .

Moore, Brown Cagers Tie

MOORE, Oct. 1—Moore's Lobos and the Brown Bombers battled to a 12-all deadlock in the Martin county team's first basketball game of the season here Friday night.

The game was called at the end of the fourth quarter, coaches of both teams deciding not to play an extra period.

The Lobos were playing their second game of the season, having defeated Lomax a week ago.

PURPLE DEFEATS ARKANSAS 21-14, FOR FIRST LEAGUE WIN

Hogs Garner Scores On Reserves

Clark Takes Pass To Break Deadlock In First Quarter

FORT WORTH, Oct. 1 (AP) — Superb passing and superior line play gave Texas Christian University Horned Frogs a 21 to 14 edge over the University of Arkansas in the Southwest Conference's opening game of the season here today.

The Christians were not as closely pressed as the score would indicate and totaled 15 first downs to Arkansas' four. TCU lost no time running up a two touchdown lead in the first period, featuring Davey O'Brien's passes, and led again in the third. Arkansas scored first in the third period, and again in the final against the Horned Frog second team.

Passes accounted for both Arkansas' tallies and for two by TCU. The lanky lads from the Ozarks showed their inexperience and only performed brilliantly in spots. The bulky Texas forward wall outplayed the bigger Arkansas line.

Start Early
The game was only a few minutes old when the Horned Frogs started a touchdown drive in mid-field alternating substantial running gains with passes. The first pass-off was a 13-yard toss from O'Brien to Clark, and O'Brien neatly added the extra point from placement.

O'Brien took advantage of Kline's interception of a pass on the Arkansas 20, and threw one straight at Clark on a fast run, who was downed on the Arkansas 2. Sparks punched through center for the score, and O'Brien made good the point.

Arkansas' first score came soon after the opening of the second half. Kay Eakin, who did most of Arkansas' passing, threw a 30-yard pass to Humberg, who then la-crawled to Humberg, for a net gain of 48 yards. Eakin passed to Britt over the goal line for the score and Sington place kicked the point.

Back Into Action
The Texas Christian offense went back into action. O'Brien bounded through the Arkansas defense for 31 yards, then lateraled to Sparks who dashed over the goal line, and O'Brien place kicked the point.

The Frogs second team went back in the game in the third, and Odle dropped the ball but recovered, and kicked out from deep in his own territory to the Arkansas 48. Then Eakin drove a beautiful pass down the field to Freiburger, a gangling end, for a touchdown and Miller added the point.

Tigers Stomp Texas Herd, 20 To 0

Baton Rouge Runs Rampant Last Half; Bussey Is Star

By RAY NEUMAN
AUSTIN, Oct. 1 (AP)—A University of Texas eleven which amazed 17,000 fans by roundly outplaying Louisiana State in the first half collapsed thereafter while the powerful Tigers rampaged to a 20-victory here today.

Deceptive ground play and aerial wizardry baffled the Texans in the final half, the power-packed Louisiana club scoring twice in the third and adding another in the fourth. Louisiana scored first in the opening minutes of the third after Fullback Wallace Lawson of Texas fumbled and gave the Tigers the ball on their own 38. Halfback Young Bussey tossed a hard one to big Kenneth Kavanaugh, Louisiana end, who shook off a couple of tackles and raced 48 yards for the counter. The gain totaled 63 yards. Barrett Booth placekicked extra point.

Crabtree Goes Over
The Tigers tallied again when Halfback Robert Fife ripped off 43 yards on two well-executed off-tackle slices, placing the ball on Texas' 3-yard line. Sophomore John Crabtree, 200-pound back, plowed over right tackle, but Booth's placekick failed.

The third L.S.U. score came the hard way. A 49-yard drive came to a grinding halt on the Texas 34 and Ashford Simes punted out of bounds on the Longhorn 6. Lawson's boot went wide, going out on the Steers' 13.

Jake Staples, Louisiana's potent line-crasher, smashed his way to the Longhorn 7 on two tries after which Fife overheaded to Kavanaugh behind the line. Miller passed to Kavanaugh for extra point.

Threatened Mildly
Texas threatened in the second after Bussey fumbled while trying to punt and Mike Sweeney nailed him on the Tiger 39. Aerials, Bryan to Sweeney and Lawson to Peterson, carried the ball to the L.S.U. 12. It was Crabtree who intercepted another pass on his own 4 and the Tigers punted to safety.

The Longhorns staged another rally a few moments later after holding the Tigers to short gains and taking the ball on their own 35. Sophomore Gilly Davis ripped off several gains but Bruce Hendrick of the Tigers snagged a pass on the Louisiana 3-yard stripe to halt what proved to be Texas' last drive.

Cubs Clinch NL Pennant By Splitting With Cards

Pirates Beaten By Cincinnati Reds, 9 - 6

SPORTSMANS PARK, ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1 (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, crippled but courageous, sewed up their third National league pennant in seven years by plastering the St. Louis Cards, 10 to 3, in the second game of a wild-eyed double header here today while their last rivals, the Pittsburgh Pirates, were bowing in Cincinnati.

The victory, scored in a 17-hit attack on four St. Louis pitchers, placed Gabby Hartnett's scrapers two full games ahead of the Pirates and placed tomorrow's concluding game in the light of an exhibition. It climaxed a pennant surge which saw the Cubs, standing fourth only two months ago, win 21 of their last 25 games.

When Charlie Root, 39-year-old veteran campaigner with the Cubs, forced Lynn Myer of the Cards to pop up for the final out in the ninth inning, his teammates rushed to the mound and hoisted him upon their shoulders and carried him in triumph to the clubhouse. Root hurled masterful ball, allowing only two scratch hits in the last six innings after he had got off to a shaky start.

Hartnett Idle
The victory was won with Manager Gabby Hartnett, the champion's slugging catcher, moping in the dugout, nursing a pair of fingers damaged by foul tips.

It was doubtful Hartnett would be ready to play in the opening game against the New York Yankees at Wrigley field in Chicago.

The Cubs were mournful for a time today, after Johnny Mize poled a homer in the eighth inning of the first game to beat them, 4-3. That left them desperate for a victory, as the score of the Pirates' game in Cincinnati had not yet been posted.

But when the final Pittsburgh score was posted on the board, the Cubs really began to fight.

PLANS COMPLETE

H. F. Malone, recreation director of Big Spring, and his staff of assistants will endeavor to bring a complete play program for the city's playgrounds, comparing favorably with that introduced last fall.

Football is being played on each of the supervised playgrounds this fall and Malone indicated that soccer ball, softball, volleyball, croquet, roque, table tennis, boxing and basketball would be a part of the program. A series of boxing shows is being planned. Basketball will not be introduced until later in the year.

A number of social events has been lined up according to the director, including a boys' week program, Halloween parties, Armistice Day celebration, Thanksgiving observance, Christmas celebration, Valentine parties and safety and fire prevention parties.

Smiler, an aged native in Australia, was sentenced to two years' banishment from his tribe for killing a fellow tribesman.

Coahoma Wins Second Start

Bulldogs, With Dunn And Echols, Cop From Klondike

KLONDIKE, Oct. 1—Flashing a return to their last year's form, Coahoma's Bulldogs turned back the threat of the Klondike Ore Diggers here Friday afternoon, winning, 26-0.

Lloyd Devan's team, sporting two sterling backs in S. P. Echols and Clyde Ellis Dunn, neither of whom played in the opener against Dunn last week, pushed their way to two touchdowns in the second quarter, returned in the fourth to pile up two more.

Echols went over for the first six points on a four yard plunge after Dunn had contributed a good run from midfield. His plunge for extra point was stopped but Dunn went over on an off tackle play a few minutes later to add to the Bulldogs' advantage. An attempted plunge by Jack Graham for extra point was stopped.

The Ore Diggers fought the Coahomans' on even terms throughout the third quarter but Echols went over for a score on a five yard plunge after a pass from Dunn to Arthur had placed the ball in scoring position. Graham's plunge for the extra point was successful and Coahoma led, 19-0.

A bare minute before the final whistle sounded Graham took the ball on a false buck and raced 30 yards for the fourth touchdown. Wayne Mulroney, 105-pound half-back, went through the line for the 25th point.

The Coahomans will probably play Herleigh in Coahoma next Friday.

Dealers of the Dallas region heard encouraging reports on business and believed appearance of new models would stimulate sales among Dodge owners.

Huskers Lose To Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 1 (AP)—A powerhouse Minnesota outfit thundered over Nebraska's Cornhuskers today, winning 16 to 7 through a blasting first half drive that netted two touchdowns.

The Cornhuskers battled desperately but managed to score only through a spectacular play that saw Halfback Jack Dodd grab a third quarter Minnesota fumble and race 91 yards for a touchdown.

Minnesota produced too much smashing power right at the start. In seven plays Coach Bernie Bierman's Big Ten champions ripped through for the first score, with Wilbur Moore slashing the final nine yards around end.

Going into the second period with a 7 to 0 lead, Minnesota through a pass interception started from Nebraska's 47.

It finally was first down on the Nebraska nine and in two quick thrusts Halfback George Franck shot over for the second score.

Early in the fourth, Nebraska stopped a Minnesota drive on its 16 and took the ball. Porter tried to shovel pass to Dodd who fumbled the ball. It was downed back of the goal for a safety, making the score 16 to 7.

Soph Leads Irish To 52-0 Victory

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 1 (AP)—Notre Dame's 51st football team, sparked by a classy sophomore and powered by almost a score of hard running ball carriers, rolled over Kansas 52 to 0 today.

The Irish scored in every period to rout the Jayhawks and give promise of producing one of the strongest running games in recent Notre Dame gridiron history.

Something of a rarity in the Irish system, a first year star, played a brilliant role in the triumph. Bob Saggi, six-foot sophomore, broke away for the longest touchdown run of the afternoon, 51 yards and otherwise gave a brilliant account of himself.

Bruins 27-3 Winners Over Washington St.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 1 (AP)—California's powerful Golden Bears rolled over Washington State 27-3 today, with brilliant Vic Botari easily star performer.

The Bear halfback was responsible for three touchdowns in the first half, and after that the second and third strings struggled out from the Bears bench to finish the game.

FROM FRANCE, 50,000 STEEL HELMETS were ordered for the Mexican army which tried out new military headgear during independence day parade at Mexico City.

Rice And Harvard Are Major Upset Victims

By HERBERT W. BARKER
NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—Minnesota's Gophers and the Pitt Panthers put on another smashing football show today as Fritz Crisler's regime at Michigan got away to a brilliant start.

Back in Big Ten territory after successful duty at Princeton, Crisler uncovered a sound, well-coached Michigan array which whipped Michigan State for the first time in five years, 14-0, as a monster crowd of 82,500 looked on.

Meanwhile, Minnesota, which had stressed speed and alertness in winning from Washington last week, poured on sheer power against Nebraska and romped to a 16-7 decision.

Pitt, impressive in its opener against West Virginia, outclassed Temple, 28-6, as Dick Cassiano ran to two touchdowns.

As a matter of cold fact, not for years has play followed form so closely as today. The only real surprises were sprung by Tom Stidham's Oklahoma Sooners, who stopped highly touted Rice, 7-6 and McLaughry's long-suffering Bears, who shocked Harvard, 20-13.

OUTPLAYED BUT WIN
In the Middle West, Ohio State, outplayed most of the way, scored a single touchdown in the final quarter on a pass from Jim Sexton to Don Scott, and nipped Indiana's powerful Hoosiers, 6-0.

Other Big Ten schools, save only for Chicago, chalked up non-conference victories. Northwestern tripped Kansas State, 21-0; Wisconsin buried Marquette, 44-7; Purdue trounced DePaul, 44-7. Chicago played a scoreless tie with Bradley Tech.

Notre Dame, with a flock of fast backs in operation, ran up a 52-0 count on Kansas.

The eastern program was marked by a spectacular triumph as Columbia, sparked as expected by Sid Luckman, scored over

The Week

Interested to know that Jo-Jo, the fire department mascot, is still kingfish of the department's menagerie. When one of the two baby bobcats staked near Jo-Jo tried to sneak away with his meal, the mascot suddenly stopped feigning slumber, pounced on the bobcat and snapped its neck with one left blow. His prestige established, Jo-Jo is docile again.

Never before in the history of the world have people been so closely informed as to developments in an international crisis as they were during the past week. Right here in Big Spring people virtually had a ring side seat to negotiations between powers over the Czechoslovak situation. Press and radio made it possible for them to hear history in the making. Perhaps it is not far-fetched to say that this very moment which played a part in the settlement of difficulties.

The local schools lost a very capable and efficient man when Thomas E. Pierce, director of elementary education, resigned his post to accept a position with Texas State Women's college (CIA). However, the system is due credit for having such a quality faculty that colleges draft on it for instructors.

Hold Tuesday night open for lots of laughs. Go to the donkey baseball game between the Kiwanis and Lions club, and enjoy yourself while lending your support to benevolent causes. It will be two good leads with one stone.

At least two important road matters are to be settled in neighboring counties during October. On October 10 Reagan county commissioners may come to a decision as to whether to obtain right-of-way on a road to Garden City or to put the matter up to a county wide vote. Martin county, on October 15, will vote on a $50,000 road bond issue for a state road from Stanton to Lenora to Andrews county line. Naturally, Big Spring waits and watches with interest.

If any one man is to be singled out and given credit for putting over the idea of a cotton pickers terminal in Big Spring, that man is S. G. Merritt, director of the Texas State Employment Service. Merritt promoted the idea when it looked as if it would perish for lack of support. He enlisted aid from Martin county, from Howard county, the city and local merchants. As a result, farmers from over a large area will come here for pickers, and in the meantime pickers will be spending some of their money here.

By next Saturday the fall business upswing ought to be plainly felt. The cotton harvest will be moving toward full gear, and the receipt of more than $150,000 in subsidy payments will undoubtedly be felt. Reason that the checks have not made more difference to date is that a liberal portion has been going to pay off loans. When cotton moves, perhaps the farmer will get to spend a little of that.

STATE READY TO TRY OIL OUSTER SUITS
AUSTIN, Oct. 1 (AP)—The state announced ready today for trial, scheduled Monday, of its $17,000,000 ouster suit against 15 major oil companies and two associations charged with conspiracy illegally to restrain trade.

The suit, filed in 1931, once ran the gamut of Texas courts, the supreme court finally ordering it tried on its merits in district court here after upholding validity of anti-trust provisions of Texas' civil statutes.

The state seeks $17,000,000 in penalties and forfeiture of charters to do business in Texas.

GARZA BANS LIQUOR
POST, Oct. 1 (AP)—In the first Garza county liquor election in approximately 28 years, voters announced disapproval of sale of all kinds of alcoholic drinks by a count of more than two to one today.

Returns from nine of the 10 voting boxes showed 614 for prohibition to 279 against. Only Justiceburg, with a voting capacity of about 50 ballots, had not reported.

Autumn Heat Wave Sets New Record
By the Associated Press
The mercury set-ged an aerial attack on Texas Saturday, soaring above the 100-mark to set new records for October.

No relief was in prospect for Sunday.
Wichita Falls, in West Texas, and Texarkana, on the northeastern boundary, were among the hottest spots. Wichita Falls reported a climb from 62, Friday night's minimum, to 102 Saturday afternoon. At Texarkana the temperature reached a maximum of 104 after a minimum of 61. U. S. weather observer, H. S. Brasher, said the high temperature was unprecedented in October weather annals there.

Tyler, in the midst of their annual Rose Festival, saw newly-plucked blossoms wilt under 100-degree temperatures—the hottest October 1 since the weather bureau office started there five years ago.

Conservative Duff Cooper's resignation sounded a discordant note in Britain's jubilation over settlement of the war crisis. It was expected to give the lead to a growing number of rebellious government supporters who share his "distrust."

Moscow accepted calmly Czechoslovakia's capitulation to Poland's territorial demands. Authoritative quarters expressed belief the action did not involve the Russian-Czechoslovak mutual assistance pact since it involved no "unprovoked aggression."

At Hendaye, France, Spanish government spokesmen reported that evacuation of foreign fighters from the government army would begin next week with the arrival of a league of nations supervisory committee.

Only intermittent air raids were reported from the fronts in Spain's civil war.

Local Expert Back With Fall Forecast For Autumn Beauty

Smart faces this fall will wear orchid-tinted cosmetics to dramatize the strong violet influence in the new Parisian fall colors, and give complexions that delicate, lovely "orchid look" that's demanded by the revival of romantic, feminine "mauve decade" fashions. Ear tips will be rouged to set off the new upwarp coiffures. Lips will be dressed up in a deep, rich red orchid lipstick to make them as glowing and vibrant as the deep, warm heart of an orchid. And skins will be porcelain fair as a doll's under all-revealing, diminutive doll hats.

These are some of Helena Rubinstein's rules for autumn beauty, brought back by Eva Risk of Collins Bros. Drugs, who has just returned from the Helena Rubinstein Beauty school in Dallas, attended by selected salesgirls from leading department stores in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, and Missouri. At the beauty school they were put through a week's intensive training to study the latest scientific methods of skin care and the art of make-up as expounded by the world famous beauty authority, Helena Rubinstein.

Mrs. Mala Rubinstein, niece of Helena Rubinstein, and directress of the Helena Rubinstein Salon in

New York City, lectured at the school and supervised the demonstrations and practice sessions. Among the subjects covered, Mrs. Risk said today, were the most recent developments in youthifying face treatments; special treatments for eyes, throat, hands and contour; makeup for the fall colors and fashions; and corrective treatments for the oily or blemished skin, for the dry skin with lines, for relaxed contours, freckles, wrinkles, double chins, enlarged pores, blackheads and other complexion flaws.

Following her attendance at the Helena Rubinstein school, Mrs. Risk will be available for individual consultation with women of Big Spring on their beauty problems. She will be stationed in the toll-free department of Collins Bros. where she may be called upon for advice on skin care and reconditioning, as well as suggestions on make-up for the new fall colors and clothes.

THE SALES CRUSADE: SUCCESS OR FLOP?

Opinions may—and probably do—differ as to the effectiveness of the Sales Crusade which has occupied Big Spring merchants and businessmen for the past three or four months. A project of the Chamber of Commerce and participated in by most of the business institutions of the city, it was part of a national movement designed to increase employment—and therefore purchasing power—by stimulating sales. More directly, it had for its aim the building up of sales effort and interest, and the coordinating of sales activities in the community.

Some Big Spring folk will say it was a success; others will call it a flop.

Which was it?

From individual reports which The Herald gathers, it is apparent that the question cannot be answered with offhand praise or criticism.

The Crusade has been a success for those who took advantage of the opportunity to sell more merchandise; it was a flop for those who didn't do anything about it.

Flashes were the name of this campaign. Not a "Buy Now" drive; not a "Buy at Home" appeal. The word "buy" and the word "buyer" were left largely out of the picture. And not by mistake either.

For this campaign was a campaign of selling; an effort to develop more selling crusades in all over America proved its effectiveness.

Big Spring businesses that got the right angle, and started selling are calling the campaign a success. Other businesses that simply opened the doors and waited for buyers to drift in are calling it a flop.

It boils down to the same residue that any other campaign will boil to: Participants got benefit from it exactly in proportion to the effort and enthusiasm they put into it.

Participating businesses divided themselves into several groups for the purpose of special promotion days. In each group there were instances of signal sales successes. In each group there were some whose score stood at exactly zero.

Inasmuch as the crusade was a sales crusade and not a buying campaign, the blame or praise for success or failure belongs squarely to the sellers and non-sellers. It can't be shifted, because the complainant who may say "the public didn't buy from me" has but to look at a successful competitor's record to find where SALES were made.

The three weeks of promotional "days" are over, but to those businesses which made a success out of the drive, the Sales Crusade is just beginning. They will keep up the pace they have set, and their cash registers will continue to ring.

To those businesses which received no benefits from the campaign, the Crusade is not over, either. From them it never started. Some were positive that it wouldn't work before it was even explained to them. They were right — for them. Others were not positive either way because they didn't understand the idea behind the crusade. It never got started for them either.

To those who got out and showed that they had something on the ball when their selling is done, we say, with Roger Babson: "It sure looks like a good fall ahead. And a good Winter, too."

Because they have demonstrated that business is there if you go after and don't wait for it to come into your place, and knock you down and stomp you.

THE NOVOTNY KIDNAPING CASE

It is now 17 days since little Jan Novotny, his tutor, and bodyguard have been penned up by the Butch gang. Such information as has been smugled out indicates that the child's spirit and that of his protectors remain unbroken.

In spite of the fact that his rich relatives are making a great deal of money out of the kidnaping, and that his protectors remain unbroken. In the first ransom note the Butch gang threatened that unless the wall be immediately given up, they would kill the child. A note smuggled out by the bodyguard of little Jan, to his guardians said, "I don't want to be killed, but are you quite sure they won't kill me anyway? We've got a few guns inside this wall. Listen, godparents, you don't know Butch, but he was around in our neighborhood last week and snatched an old kid, and what he did was something fierce."

The kid's guardian studied the ransom note a long time and decided to contact the gang's boss in a mountain hideout.

The boss said, "What's this kid to you anyhow? He is a bit, and is being teased some of our friends. 'You just give us the wall and a good slice of his property—or else.' Uncle John and Auntie Marianne had never met anybody like Butch in their lives, although they had read about him in the newspapers. They argued with Butch. They said, 'Listen, sir, it's against the law.' Butch, making an ominous bulge in one pocket, emitted the genial laugh which has made him popular in the underworld. 'Dja wanna shoot it out?' he said, and rattled ten thousand airplanes, the sound of which was practically drowned out by the rattle of the medals on his underduster.

The guardians passed the word on to the kid's tutor.

"Pay the ransom," they said, "but in that wretched fellow does anything more to you, you can count on your old guardians."

The kid and his tutor talked together and said, "It doesn't seem a very smart thing to do, but probably the old folks know better."

So they decided to give Butch the ransom, although both Jan and his tutor, and his bodyguards, didn't believe for a minute that that was all. The kid and his tutor, and his bodyguard, had had boasted all around the underworld that he was going to take over the whole place and bury Jan in the cellar.

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

THE STAMP COLLECTOR STRIKES PAY DIRT IN AN OLD TRUNK

And now, Jan's godparents were very, very angry. But they didn't show it much, because they are civilized. And they didn't want to shoot it out, because they didn't have any disagreement with the people they'd have to shoot, only with Butch's gang, who had rounded them all up.

Also a line had been dropped to them that there was considerable trouble inside Butch's ranks, and a lot of his followers were slipping along the word that the head was no bargain anyhow.

So they kept calling up more cops. As is the custom in kidnaping cases, appeals to Butch's better nature were sent out on the cable wires and over the radio from all the parts of the world, begging him to have a heart and spare the child.

Butch had set a deadline: Let us in on Jan and the property on or before October 1st, or get ready to shoot it out.

Nobody's paying much attention to little Jan, but he, and his tutor, and the bodyguards, want on acting with lots of spunk. "Just tell those bullies, that if they're going to kill me, I'm going to die on my feet," he said.

"And I've still got a gun," Butch howled with rage. "You see," he said, "that just shows how dangerous that brat is." Nobody, however, saw.

It was decided to contact Butch again. Somebody thought of Lucky Spitalo who lately had been practically out of the papers, even the tabloids only giving him a line now and then.

Man About Manhattan

by GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—That was a startling bulletin in the newspapers the other day—the one telling that 'Thomas Wolfe was dead. The doctors said that this young novelist died of "acute cerebral infection" but to any one who has read "The Story of a Novel" the impression remains that Thomas Wolfe was a dead young man, so tired that he could not hope ever to become fully rested again.

He wrote this "explanation" after "Of Time and the River" had become such a tremendous hit, and for ever an illud was set down this was it. While writing this novel Wolfe became so exhausted that he could neither eat nor sleep. To read of his struggles is literally to share them.

"I wrote at times," he said, "with nothing in me but black despair, and yet I wrote and wrote and could not give up writing. And it seemed that despair was the very god that urged me on, that made me write even when I had no belief that I would ever finish."

"It seemed to me that my life in Brooklyn (New York) lived there a while and it was there that 'Of Time and the River' was written) although I had been there only two and a half years, went back through ocean depths of black and bottomless experience which no ordinary scale of hours would ever measure. At the end of a savage day of labor my mind was still blazing with its effort, could by no opiate of reading, poetry, music, alcohol, or any pleasure, be put to rest. I was unable to sleep, unable to subdue the tumult of these creative energies, and as a result of this condition, for three years I prowled the streets, explored the swarming web of the million-cotted city and came to know it as I had never done before. It was a black time in the history of the nation, I suppose, it is but natural that my own memory of it now should be a pretty grim and painful one.

"Everywhere around me, during those years, I saw the evidence of an incalculable ruin and suffering. My own people, the members of my own family, had been ruined, had lost all material wealth and the accumulation of a lifetime in what was called the 'depression'."

"The early winter of 1933 arrived and with it, it seemed to me, the final doom of an abysmal failure. I still wrote and wrote, but blindly, hopelessly, like an old horse who trots around in the unending circle of a treadmill and knows no other end nor purpose for his life, when this I slept at night, it was as if I slept an unending nightmare of blazing visions that swept across my fevered and unresting mind. And when I woke, it was to wake exhausted, not knowing anything but work, lashing myself on into a hopeless labor, and so furious at it through the day; and when night again, a frenzied growl of a thousand streets, and so on to bed and sleepless sleep again, to nightmare pagentry to which my consciousness lay chained a spectator."

"There are 98 pages in this record of physical and mental anguish, and it seems to me that no man could experience such travail without sustaining lasting hurt. No doubt "acute cerebral infection" was the direct cause of Thomas Wolfe's death, but it goes deeper than that. I think he was just awfully, awfully tired.

Mrs. L. G. Talley and daughter, Myrna Jean, returned Friday from an extended visit to Toledo, Ohio, where they were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Talley's parents, and Mrs. G. M. Shaffer of El Centro, Calif., to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Roy Dotson. Miss Grimes has been here with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Hair, since June.

Jan Taylor and Bob Beliveau of Seattle, Wash., are expected to arrive Sunday for a visit with Taylor's sister, Mrs. George Wilke.

DON'T MARRY THE MAN

Chapter Five
I HATE THAT MAN
 By Jeanne Bowman

The road from Gallup, New Mexico, ran due north for ninety-nine miles, then following the line of least resistance, wound around the base of Colorado's San Juan range.

Kathleen was confident the first ninety miles were the longest. They'd headed into touring country dark, tossed on impossible beds, and wheeled out before day light.

As the impertinent nose of their secondhand car turned across the tracks and headed on the last lap of their journey, she yawned. "This will be the first sunrise I've seen from this end of the day," she confided.

Bridget looked at the gray, treeless hills which merged with a cloudy gray sky. "If any," she reported.

The miles spun under the wheels, the gray sky lowered and the hours ticked off, but not a sign of civilization broke the monotonous afternoon. They reached the mountains, turned off the main highway to a dirt road which offered a short cut to Neutrality, and followed it until they found a spot where dusty cottonwood trees waved hoefully over the dry bed of a stream.

Here, Bridget having prepared breakfast, Kathleen spread the luncheon she had prepared. "You're improving," Bridget assured her after the first bite. "Improving!" mocked Kathleen. "Look at me, a scar for every day I've been on the road. Is there anything in Celia Ray's remedy for the darling of the Gregory clan? Did you ever before see a Gregory with a black eye?"

Bridget laughed happily. "It's only a pale green today," she reassured.

"There was nothing but the color of her hair to remind Bridget of Kathleen Gregory. The unexpected coiffure which the newspapers had lauded as the first on the continent, had been sacrificed. Now the hair curled about her head in tight ringlets.

A few freckles had popped forth on the aristocratic Gregory nose, but it was the shiner Kathleen achieved by meeting a cabin door halfway, that gave her the slightly ribald look; the shiner and the outfit.

She couldn't see much of the face, excepting that there were dark brows and a small dark moustache. The campaign hat covered his hair and shaded his eyes; the reflected lights gave him a saturnine appearance.

"Oh, you do," she retorted. "I suppose you're Mister Neutrality, in person. No wonder the road is narrow and crooked. I'll bet you own the sole garage and spend the Jack hours sprinkling tanks."

"This is not the road to Neutrality."

The man's voice was even but it sounded as though it was holding back a wrath that threatened to break through and shame the coming storm.

"A hen for goodness sake," breathed Bridget, who had approached, "what road is this?"

"A private back road to the MacDonald mine. I am Donald MacDonald."

Sheer Cussedness
 Kathleen Gregory backed away from Donald MacDonald. She set heels squarely, clasped her hands tightly behind her and drew a long breath.

Bridget looked at her. "Cleo," she gazed, "the blood pressure." Kathleen relaxed. She didn't know how much she had looked like her father, nor how Bridget could have sensed what was coming, she only knew that all of the generous remarks she had ready must be recalled.

Bridget was explaining their presentment to MacDonald. Kathleen felt she could not stand hearing her companion use such dulcet tones. Savagely she snatched the flashlight from her and returned to her search.

Sights And Sounds
 by ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—There's another one of those fellows in town. You can spot them every time—and just by watching the feminine contingent of the studios they work in. You can follow dreamy-eyed stenogs and mooning secretaries and designing starlets as they converge, under various pretexts, upon one sound stage. You can follow the ladies' eyes in the studio restaurant, when the fellow walks in. And you know that the ladies are struck. It follows, in usually inevitable sequence, that millions of other ladies will be struck.

Carl, a tall husky blond gent who looks like Bob Montgomery, full face, and has Franchot Tone profile, has just a bit in "Dawn Patrol." He's the captured German felon who drinks and banters with Errol Flynn, David Niven and the others in a long key sequence. Already he's been tested for the lead opposite Bette Davis in "Dark Victory" and for the role of Maximilian with Davis and Muri in "The Phantom Crown."

He speaks English well enough when he has memorized his lines, acceptably even when he's just talking. He came to Hollywood because Louis B. Mayer, who saw him as Prince Albert in the London pro-

The Old World rushes along from crisis to crisis. Diplomats hasten from one conference to another. Munition plants hum at top speed and armies grow greater.

What is happening now? What will happen next?

On every news front in uneasy Europe, American-trained correspondents are alert every minute around the clock to report the swift march of events for this newspaper with vivid accuracy and speed. They are the staff reporters for The Associated Press and they have been in the midst of international trouble many times before.

DeWitt Mackenzie, who only recently covered the historic conference between Prime Minister Chamberlain and Chancellor Hitler on the momentous Czechoslovakian situation, was with The Allies in the World War.

Louis P. Lochner, constantly at Hitler's side to obtain minute-by-minute developments in Berlin, is the reporter who scored the great beat on the Nazi "blood purge" of 1934. He has covered German affairs for the past 14 years.

John Lloyd, with the French ministers to report the Paris angle of the Sudeten controversy, helped to cover the Spanish war.

Richard Massock, at Mussolini's side to cover Italian developments, was stationed in Russia.

Melvin K. Whiteleather, at Eger to report on Czechoslovakian mobilization, saw many years of service with the League of Nations at Geneva.

Alvin J. Steinkopf, who directed the activities of a corps of AP reporters at Prague, covered Hitler when the Chancellor marched into Vienna to annex Austria.

These are but a few of the dozens of Associated Press correspondents who are stationed abroad to report the nervous course of European history. Like all Associated Press reporters, they were there yesterday, they are there today, and they will be there tomorrow.

Chattergrams

By Jeanne Suits

The Sudetenland was offered by France and England to Germany as a "peace meal" and Hitler finally consented to take a "rain Czech" on the next course at the four-week conference in Munich this week and everybody is happy but Russia and Czechoslovakia. Everybody suspects though that after the agreed territory is occupied Hitler will expect to claim his dessert which of course is none other than the remainder of Czechoslovakia.

So, for the moment war talk has ceased but for how long only the dictators know. Will the peace preservers allow him to cash in on his "rain Czech" or will they finally decide his tantrums have gone far enough and proceed to give him a "kickin'" like your mother used to when you kicked and cried over a wish denied? That is a question only the news commentators would ever attempt to answer.

It seems the world never realized the unifying force of the radio until the war crisis and since that time columns have been written on the subject.

Until now, it appears that no one realized the value of a tool they've had in their hands for years. The public may have been a little slow in catching on but F.D.R. and his New Dealers have been capitalizing on the idea for the past four or five years and, furthermore, instigated loans in the form of rural electrification so that every river negro cabin and hilltop home in the country could be provided with one of their electric mouthpieces.

Nominated as the silliest song with the snappiest swing—"A Tisket, A Tasket."

Heard around the banquet table: A little boy who had never heard of triplets told his mother that their neighbor had twins and one more.
