When the fish population in a pond becomes unbalanced with small stunted fish or rough undesirable fish, it is best to remove all fish and start over with balanced stock.

If the pond contains adult fish, pond owners should not stock the pond with fingerlings obtained from state or federal hatcheries. Certain fish are cannibals as well as predators and a few adult fish can eliminate every fingerling in a short

The use of rotenone is recommended as an easy and practical way to remove most kinds of fish from private ponds. However, even if used as recommended, rotenone seldom gives a 100 percent kill of bullhead catfish. Other materials are available that will give a complete kill of bullheads.

Fish killed with rotenone are edible. Rotenone is not a poison in the true sense of the word sinse it kills fish by suffocation. People, cows, horses, sheep, pigs, chickesn, cats, dogs, snakes, frogs and other vertebrate animals are not affected when they swim in or drink water treated with rotenone.

It is unlawful to use rotenone in any public body of water. It is to be used of fallout shelters into new in private bodies of water for management purposes. Stock Your Pond with Whatever Kind of Fish You Like to Catch.
