Pampa was quest speaker for the Chamber of Commerce meeting held Tuesday evening. The Chamber honored the staff members of Parkview Hospital, Board members and Dr. Paul Stewart and Dr. Larry Barbour.

Recognized in connection with Parkview hospital and Wheeler Medical Clinic were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Snelgrooes Mrs. Jim Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Whitener, Mrs. Opal Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Puryear, Herbert Finsterwald Clyde Dukes and Dr. Paul Stewart.

Other guests recognized were Miss Sherry Burrell and Miss Jackie Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Burrell and Mr.

After recognizing the guests, Mr. Jim Wright, president, introduced the guest speaker. Dr. Overton, Chief of Staff at Highland General Hospital in Pampa.

Dr. Overton stated it was indeed an honor to be asked to come as a guest speaker to this community. He recalled his first visit to Wheeler ried about the shortage of docwas in 1932 to help with the tors. delivery of twins. At that time Wheeler had two fine doctors, Dr. H.E. Nicholson, Sr. and Dr. Glen R. Walker who had just opened the new

Wheeler hospital. Dr. Overton stated Wheeler had reason to be proud of its hospital. He had nothing but praise for the fine job the board of directors did in selecting an architect and stated that the design of the hospital was one of finest in the area.

The speaker praised Mrs. Snelgrooes. He stated we wen indeed lucky to have the combination administrator nurse and scrubwoman which is found in Mrs. Snelgrooes. To Dr. Overton's knowledge, Parkview is being operated cheaper per bed than any other hospital in Texas.

One of the comments in praising our young doctors was his statement to the fact that they liked to practice medicine.

The biggest problem facing us now will be keeping our doctors. Medicare according to the speaker will be one of the mains causes for shortages of doctors. At the present time Pampa has only one doctor under 40 years of age. He further stated that his classmates are dropping out of General Practice or dropping out of medicine entirely.

The main point stressed in keeping our doctors is not to make prisoners of them. They need vacations. Don't bawl them out when the come

CLUB HAS FINAL MEETING

The Wednesday Study Club held its final meeting of the season in the Fellowship hall of the Methodist Church on May 28. The occasion was an Installation luncheon. The tables were resplendant in trailing ivy, red roses and white iris. A small red rose corsage was a favor for each guest. After the invocation by Mrs. Lee Guthrie the guests served themselves at a bountiful table of meat and salads.

After lunch the outgoing president, Mrs. C.J. VanZand conducted a short business session during which a resolution on Safety, drawn up by an appointed committee headed by Esther Sorenson was read and rarified by the Club members. The paper will be sent to our State Representative. The President the reviewed our achievements for the year which included two State Federation Awards - on programs on Friendship and Family Living. She then went into the Installation of Officers for the coming two year period. Using a Rose Ceremony, each officer was presented with a beautiful red rose as she was instructed in her duties. Each was presented with a copy of instructions for making "Rose Potpourri, and the incoming president, Mrs. Frank Walker was presented with a Jardiniere filled with rose petals. Others installed were: Vice-presiding Sec., Mrs. Barney Burgess; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Harry Wofford; Parliamentarian, Mrs. M. McIlhany; Reporter, Mrs. Lee Guthrie; Historian, Mrs. Shelby Porter; Pianist, Mrs. Madge Porter and song leader, Mrs. R.H. Forres ter.

The newly installed president accepted her responsibility graciously and appointed standing committees for the coming year. She presented the outgoing president with a lovely decorators rose sen
