K. CLUB SPONSORS JIM COLE FOR EXCHANGE

Club is sponsoring Jim Cole as an exchange student in the International Christian standing. Youth Exchange Program.

The total cost of the project is approximately $2,000. Since Jim has proven himself to be a responsible citizen and youth leader in Wheeler, we feel that he will be a very appropriate candidate for Wheeler to send abroad as a representative of our community

It's time to brighten up the back yard for those evening sit-outs. We got ours underway last week. First we scrounged around in the garage to find some paint for the lawn chairs. Came up with a very exotic scheme. One chair is Regal blue, one Surf Green and yet another is Dove gray. Now that is a bit drab! The housing on the air conditioner must be brighter. (it is large enough to house a small car) So we procede to the lumberyard, Amona the array of paint was a line being discontinued. (Now to save some money! Discontinue means discount!) So we chose Spanish Coral. Just the thing! The backyard is getting more colorful day

Thanks, Mrs. Ray Miller of Pampa, for your kind words. We will try to keep the news coming.

Bessie Robertson says that her children "put one over on her" last weekend. Her son Bill and wife Bill that's right) came down for lunch Sat. But surprise! They brought the lunch. Reba Wofford had as a guest Sat. and Sun. Mildred Watts from Amarillo. Sunday afternoon Reba, Inez Kennedy and Bob Sti les took Mildred Home.

The choir at the Baptist church looked very elegant Sunday morning: New choir robes, rich ivory with red collars. We are sure the ones that are serving so faithfully will sometime wear the crown also.

Hazel Parks had a lovely surprise last week when her late husband's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Floyd of Los Angeles, Calif. came by for a short visit. They stayed for a lunch "out" and then left for Albuquerque to surprise Garland Parks, whom they had not seen for twenty years.

"Families should get together oftener" opined Hazel Parks last week. So she sets things in motion, puts out the big pots and goes to the telephone. So at suppertime the relatives showed up: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Roper, Mrs. Lela Wilson, Lorene and Brenda Errington.

A picnic just happened last week. On the Holiday Eve Grace Porter and Reba Wofford said "Why don't we have a picnic?" They called a few friends, checked on the park - which was too wet, gathered up edibles and landed in Mary Finsterwald's back yard. Vida and Billie V. Brown and Inez Kennedy joined them in a great time. (Sorry, we had already promised to make ice cream for the grandkids.)

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Starkey, Brett and Jill of Brownwood, Texas, spent Sat. and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Minnie Starkey. Carroll and Vondell Killingsworth, Harold's sister and family, of Canyon joined them on Sun.

The Chamber is constantly working toward the improvement of the community and the attracting of industry. Not only are the hospital facilities a credit to the community, but it was pointed out that annual salaries at Parkview Hospital exceed $143.256.00.
