

President Urges Neutrality Legislation This Session

Full Approval Is Given Hull Statement

FD Thinks Law Would Aid Cause Of Peace And Security

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP) — President Roosevelt told congress today neutrality legislation should be enacted this session "for the cause of peace and in the interest of American neutrality and security."

Backs Hull
In a 100-word special message, Mr. Roosevelt forwarded a statement by Secretary Hull entitled "peace and neutrality" in which the state department head referred to "the present situation of danger."

"It has been abundantly clear to me for some time for the cause of peace and in the interest of American neutrality and security, it is highly advisable that the congress at this session should take certain such needed action."

"In the light of present world conditions I see no reason to change that opinion."

The document then continued with Hull's statement:

"In the present situation of danger, a peaceful nation like ours cannot complacently close its eyes and ears in formulating a peace and neutrality policy, as though abnormal and critical conditions did not exist."

"The entire question of peace and neutrality at this serious juncture in its possible effects upon the safety and the interest of the United States during coming months is of the utmost importance."

"The Hull statement again took the position that the arms embargo provision of the present neutrality law should be abolished, although the house recently refused to repeal it."

Hull repeated the six-point neutrality program previously recommended.

Prohibiting American ships from entering combat areas.

Restricting travel by American citizens in combat zones.

Requiring transfer of title to foreign purchasers for goods exported from this country to belligerent nations.

Continuing the existing legislation for bidding loans and credits to warring nations.

Regulating solicitation of funds for belligerents in the United States.

Continuing the national munitions control board and the system of licensing trade in arms and munitions.

RUTHERFORD HOME IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Fire seriously damaged a room and portion of the roof in the Frank Rutherford home at 704 Bell street Thursday evening. Cause of the blaze was not immediately ascertained.

Earlier in the day, firemen had answered a call to the Stone Motor Co. at the corner of E. 3rd and Nolan streets. A car blaze there was brought under control by employees.

No Detours On Route Of Corrigan As He Prepares For Wedding

SAN ANTONIO, July 14 (AP)—Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan made no detours today when he headed for the courthouse to get his license to wed Miss Elizabeth Maurin of San Antonio.

While Corrigan got the paper his bride-elect was having the last fittings made to her gown for the wedding Monday afternoon.

Corrigan's best man will be his brother, Harry Corrigan of Baltimore, who is expected here Monday morning.

The bride and groom will take an aerial honeymoon in Doug's plane, but their itinerary has not been revealed.

Picket Line Broken As Work Resumed

MINNEAPOLIS, July 14 (AP)—Police with riot guns forced a lane through a picket line of 500 persons today to enable 150 women to return to their jobs on a WPA sewing project closed after a skirmish Monday.

CONVICT HUNTED

Jack Russell (above), convict who escaped from the McAlester, Okla., state prison, was hunted in several states after he released a man he kidnaped when he fled. E. E. Brown, McAlester photographer, told Joplin, Mo., police of being forced to take a 24-hour ride with the fugitive before being released near Pittsburgh, Kan.

Cotton Export Plan Advanced

Subsidy Favored Despite Opposition Of Textile Units

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP)—Federal farm officials went ahead today with plans to subsidize exports of cotton despite an almost unanimous opposition of cotton trade and textile organizations.

Representatives of the cotton industry told officials yesterday they were opposed to the plan, designed to help the United States regain lost foreign markets. They offered, however, to cooperate to make it "as effective as possible."

Officials said W. L. Clayton of Houston, Tex., large cotton shipper, predicted the subsidy plan would not restore this country to its "proper share" of world markets during the coming season because other countries would underbid American prices.

He conceded, however, that if this country subsidized exports long enough, some competing countries might be forced to reduce their acreage.

Under the plan being considered by agriculture department officials, the government would pay a bounty of between $6.25 and $10 a bale on cotton shipped abroad. This would enable exporters to pay the higher domestic price and sell cotton abroad at lower prices than at present.

Secretary Wallace explained the government's policy of making loans to growers on cotton had impounded more than 11,600,000 bales of cotton in warehouses and restricted "the free flow of cotton into export."

Officials indicated the subsidy plan would be announced next week when cotton from the 1939 crop starts moving in some volume from southern Texas.

AUTO SALES UP

AUSTIN, July 14 (AP)—Automobile sales in Texas are up. The University of Texas bureau of business research reported today passenger car registrations the first six months of the year were up 35 per cent and commercial car registrations gained more than 20 per cent over the January-June period last year.

McREYNOLDS CLAIMED THREE TEXANS AS BEST FRIENDS

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP)—Going to the senate ten years ago, John L. McReynolds, federal judge, always claimed three of the state's best friends as his closest friends—all Texans.

The last word uttered by McReynolds according to a nurse who attended him, was the given name of one of that trio—Luther Johnson of Corsicana.

Advancing to ranking majority member of the house foreign affairs committee by his friend's death—second now to new Committee Chairman Bloom (D-NY)—Johnson had been intimate with the Tennessee since 1925 when they visited the Philippine Islands together.

Their views on international relations always coincided, Johnson said. Possibly McReynolds had some legislative problem in his mind, when about 3 a. m. Tuesday only an hour before his death, he said:

"We can take it Ike. Can't we Luther?"

The committee clerk is Ike Barnes.

The other Texans in the delegation accompanying the body to Chattanooga for burial were Senator Connally and Representative Thomson of El Paso.

Long Welcomes Investigation

Federal Men Plan Inquiry Into Oil Unit Of State

BATON ROUGE, La., July 14 (AP)—Governor Earl K. Long said today he welcomed a federal investigation of Louisiana's oil industry.

Attorney General Frank Murphy announced at Washington federal investigators would be sent here to probe oil activities, in addition to the U. S. investigations regarding possible mail frauds, income tax evasions and federal-financed works project diversions.

Today, Secretary Ickes at Washington said the interior department was establishing an investigative office at New Orleans to check Louisiana oil shipments with the purpose of determining whether the Connolly "hot oil" law has been violated.

Governor Long recently launched a private investigation of the state conservation department. He revealed this subsequently to his discharge of Dr. J. A. Shaw, head of the department's minerals division whose duties included issuing drilling permits and fixing monthly production allowances for the state's multi-million dollar oil and gas industry.

State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell, a candidate for governor, has called upon Governor Long to demand the resignation of Conservation Commissioner William G. Rankin.

Texas Rivers Rise After Heavy Rain

By The Associated Press

Heavy rains in the hill country of West Texas sent head waters rushing down most streams, but little damage or inconvenience was reported today as skies cleared.

Ranges universally were benefited over a wide area.

The highway between Junction and Rock Springs was closed. Other crossings on some streams were blocked by high water, which was expected to diminish. Five and a half inches of rain was general over Kerr county, most of it soaking into the ground. The Guadalupe river was up four feet.

Sonora reported all highways open today after rains ranging from two to five inches in that area. Some crossings were temporarily closed.

Rains west of Llano brought a 15-foot rise on the Llano river. Traffic across the Highway 29 bridge at Castell was halted, but all other roads were open. The rain had halted today, and the rise was not regarded as a flood.

General rains averaging an inch fell in the Lamesa area.

Squaws Caim Woman Dragged To Death

TUSCON, Ariz., July 14 (AP)—Department of justice agents investigated today the story of Papago squaws that an unmarried expectant mother had been dragged to death behind the automobile of a relative.

K. Berry Peterson, assistant U. S. district attorney, who reported the tale of primitive Papago justice, said Indian agency police at Sells had asked the Department of Justice to aid in the investigation.

The girl's death first was reported as due to a stomach ailment. But neighboring squaws told a different story, which the police said they had been unable to verify or disprove.

Anglo-French Armed Might Is Displayed

Britain Gears War Machine, French "Clean House"

PARIS, July 14 (AP)—Premier Daladier declared tonight in a nationwide Bastille Day broadcast that the French army was invincible against any attack.

Defend Liberties
The premier and national defense minister, who earlier in the day watched 30,000 of France's finest troops parade on the Champs Elysees with British guardsmen in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the French revolution, said:

"Any menace, any effort at domination will find us resolved to defend French liberties and to join our efforts with those of all peoples determined to safeguard their liberties."

Meanwhile Britain geared her war machine at top speed to ward off another autumn crisis, hoping mid-September instead would see international tension eased.

As the government disclosed details of a vast August-September mobilization plan the highly authoritative London Times called attention to the "state of maximum preparedness for defense during that period of the year which is commonly regarded as peculiarly liable to international tension."

Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons yesterday 12,000 reservists and 57 reserve ships were being called up for duty July 31 "in order to obtain the fullest possible advantage from combined fleet and air exercises in August and September."

In Paris Premier Daladier's counter-espionage drive, which already has led to arrest of two employees of two of the most conservative and important newspapers of Paris, appeared to be aimed at a complete clean-up of prominent pro-nazis in the capital.

Although the war ministry remained silent, almost every Paris newspaper carried the names of boys Aubrey, chief news editor of the Conservative Le Temps, and J. Poirier, an employee of the advertising department of the equally conservative morning newspaper Le Figaro, as the two under arrest. They were held on secret indictments issued under new decrees laws covering espionage.

RODEN THUMPS JUNIOR YATES

Top heavy favorites fell in first round play of the West Texas Junior golf tournament at the Muni course this morning as two Big Spring boys survived their first tests.

Bill Roden, Glen Rose, opened his campaign for the title by outgolfing Junior Yates, Abilene, 3 and 2. Yates had gained medalist honors Thursday with a sparkling 76.

The two local hopes were Dale Young, who thumped Gene Lacy, Sweetwater, one up on the 21st hole, and Troy White, who scored over John Moore, Texon, one up on the 18th green.

Most startling reversal was that suffered by Billy Martin, Lubbock favorite who fell before the sharp shooting H. L. Green, Midland, by a 2 and 1 count. Jack Vaughn, long hitting Lamesa ace, succumbed before the attack of Carly Bowman, Sweetwater, one up on the 19 holes.

Other matches saw Josh Billings, Sweetwater, out George Tipton, Lubbock, 4 and 3; J. L. Hall, San Angelo, maneuver around Clifton Babb, Abilene, one up 19 holes, and Jack Johnson, defending champion from San Angelo, trimmed Harry Sindorf, Midland, 3 and 2.

In the afternoon matches Roden was to face Young, Billings was to meet White, Green was slated to tangle with Bowman while Hall was to meet Johnson.

START LIFTING SQUALUS FROM OCEAN BED

Air bubbles (right) burst to the surface as the salvage ship, Falcon, pumps air into the sunken submarine, Squalus, down off Portsmouth, N. H. This was the beginning of the attempt to lift the submarine off the bottom and tow it—still under water—into shallower water. In the background is a submarine aiding in sending down compressed air.

Heavy Seas Prevent Divers From Starting New Efforts To Raise Sunken Squalus

First Attempt Fails As Ship Near Surface

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 14 (AP)—The ill luck which has dogged the submarine Squalus continued today as heavy seas prevented navy divers from determining how much damage had resulted from the wild surge that first shot the craft above the surface and then thumped it back upon the ocean floor.

Rear Admiral C. W. Cole messaged the Portsmouth navy yard from the salvage ship Falcon that a heavy ground swell and a falling barometer would delay diving indefinitely.

"Until men can be sent down no one can know for sure whether the dry forward compartments have been flooded, whether the three big pontoons still attached to the Squalus have been broken or how badly the ship is tangled in the broken net of lifting gear from which it broke late yesterday."

Until these points have been settled the salvage experts can only guess as to when another lifting effort can be made.

Navy officers have said perhaps next week or maybe not until September, or even later.

In one swift minute yesterday a surge of buoyance made the Squalus like a live thing, throwing its bow clear of the water in an explosive smother of foam and broken pontoons before it sank again, nullifying seven weeks of salvage effort just at the moment of success.

High naval officials and technical experts conferred through.

W. LEE'S APPROPRIATIONS VETO A POLITICAL BOOST

AUSTIN, July 14 (AP)—You can bet your bottom dollar on this: Governor W. Lee O'Daniel helped himself politically when he vetoed $5,000,000 from appropriations to operate the state government in the biennium beginning Sept. 1.

So runs the thread of comment among members of the legislature government officials and experienced observers.

Although it is becoming plainer that the so-called "axing" of the money bills will not be as devastating as thought, nevertheless, say the commentators, the folks back home think the governor has "done himself proud."

In a check about the capitol, not a negative reply was given when the question was raised whether O'Daniel's political fortunes had been furthered.

Of course, he has not caused some government employees to love him any more. But these, perhaps were not hurting with excess of love for him before he went to work on the bills.

"The people will approve," said Rep. Augustine Celaya of Brownsville. Other legislators voiced similar opinions.

A veteran observer suggested, however, O'Daniel could have obtained the same effect without such extensive reductions of what still appear to be extensive. Use of special funds and other financial resources is expected to alleviate to some degree, the pain of the veto.

The foreign office spokesman reiterated that the displays were spontaneous and that the police would not prevent them so long as the participants broke no law.

The demonstration began at Hilda Park where 100,000 persons heard orators demand that Britain quit helping Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and "withdraw from the Far East."

A mighty column formed and marched, singing, through the main business district, past the imperial palace to the embassy. The police before the embassy locked arms and barred entrance to the embassy grounds. Some sticks and stones were hurled but no windows were broken.

Some demonstrators near the gates tossed banners over the walls. These bore such slogans as "bomb Britain, enemy of justice and humanity" and "no compromise in the Tokyo parley," the latter referring to forthcoming talks to settle the British-Japanese dispute at Nientan.

Today's manifestations coincided with an invitation from Foreign Minister Hiroko Arima to the British ambassador, Sir Robert Leslie Craigie, to discuss the order of business for an impending conference to settle the Sino-Japanese controversy.

Says There Can Be No Strikes Against Govt.

President Backs Up Statement By Atty. Gen. Murphy

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today there could be no strikes against the government and a WPA strike was such action.

He made the statement at his press conference in response to a question whether he agreed with Attorney General Murphy there could not be strikes against the government.

A reporter wanted to know whether a strike of Tennessee Valley Authority employes, for example, would be against the government and Mr. Roosevelt replied at first in the affirmative but indicated he had misunderstood the question and added later that he did not know.

WPA workers have been striking because of a provision in the present relief law which scrapped the prevailing wage basis of payment and required 150 hours of work a month.

In backing up Murphy's strike statement, the president said first there could not be strikes against the government. He was asked then whether a WPA strike was a strike against the government and replied it was.

A questioner inquired whether he could discuss the difficulties of the prevailing wage as compared to the 150-hour requirement, but the president replied it would take too long, as it was a matter for an hour's discussion.

It would be hard, the chief executive continued, to talk intelligently about any one angle of the prevailing wage as opposed to the 150 hours of work per month without giving it undue emphasis.

The press, he declared, might be considered an example and he asked whether, if those in the conference room had to go on relief, the basis for their pay should be the average earnings of every one present.

Then there is a question of how much a clergyman, for instance, should get, he added, and of how

FARMERS GET 1939 MARKETING QUOTA

The annual "reaction" was set in Friday as cotton producers over Howard county received their marketing quotas and acreage allotment figures for 1939.

Some, kept out of fields by Thursday's rains, came in to check on their figures. Others were satisfied. Only a comparatively few called at the county AAA office, however.

The marketing quotas for this year are based on the adjusted yield per acre times the acreage allotment. Any producer who stays within his acreage allotment, however, may market all he produces tax free even though it exceeds the marketing quota.

Junior Yates, Abilene Lad, Gains Junior Medal Laurels

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

The first rush of votes in the poll for a southern team for the WT-NM league's all-star clash in Lubbock July 25 brands Jodie Marek, pitcher, Billy Capps, infielder, and Pat Stasey, outfielder, as certain choices for team berths.

Marek and Stasey have gained the unanimous vote of local fans thus far while Capps has "rated" on all but one ballot cast.

Bobby Decker, the Big Spring keystone, has gathered in all but two of the forwarded votes.

Since Marek has beaten Lubbock on three different occasions and Capps and Stasey have both played major roles in the Barons' early season routs of the Hubbers there is no reason to believe but that that trio will poll more votes in the city of the champions than they will here in that the more ballots will be cast here.

Decker, of course, appears to have a cinch on a starting berth for he is just as popular in every other league city as here.

Through Thursday evening no less than 39 players had received votes locally.

Marek, Lamesa's Lefty Lucas, Lee Harris of Lubbock and Joe Piet, Midland, were the leading pitchers, Jimmy Kerr, Midland, and Big Spring's Al Berndt, were setting the pace among the catchers with Bob Wooten, Midland first sacker, Decker, Salty Parker, Lubbock short stop, and Capps as the leading infielders and Emmett Fullenwider, Lamesa, Boyd Watkins, Lubbock, and Stasey going to the front among the outfielders.

Maybe you've heard this before but we hadn't. Tex Walton made a very good story of it. He relates of a very good hitter in a certain mid-western league whose good and bad points were being discussed by a manager and a pitcher who was going to be employed against the babbino's team one day. The park where the two teams were to play was hardly a park in that it had no fences, its outfield after certain distances rows of cornstalks.

The skipper was wasting few words in singing the hitter's praises to the ambitious twirler. "Can he hit a No. 2 of the inside?" the slabman asked.

"I've seen him klay that one about ten corn rows that way," the pilot said, pointing into left field.

"Then how does he look on a high hard one on the outside?" The manager waved his hand in the direction of right field.

"That's one you don't want to give him. He'll knock that pitch at least 15 rows."

Still refusing to resign, the slinger countered again. "Then can he use one right through the 'rut'?"

"For gosh sake," the leader said, "keep them out of there. That's where his power is."

Which reminds us of the remedy Hack Miller proposed in stopping the onslaught of Billy Capps when the Baron third sacker was hitting everything in sight earlier in the season.

"Throw it behind him," Miller said, "throw it behind him."

Earl Cartwright, one of the league's ball-and-strike men, is a college graduate, having attained his degree after work at Southern Oklahoma Teachers and Minnesota university where he took an extended course in physical education.

Earl, who played with Monahan when the league was in its first season or operation, was an all-around athlete while in school, played professional basketball for Olsen's Terrible Swedes for five years after gaining his diploma.

Red Roden Is First Round Opponent

Only Two Local Boys, Dale Young and Troy White, in Title Flight

By HANK HART
Piecing together a neat 35 with a shaky 41, Junior Yates, an unknown from Abilene, captured medalist honors in the second annual West Texas Junior golf tournament which got underway Thursday at the Munny course.

Operating under conditions that unraveled the games of many of the other 52 entries, Yates surprisingly grounded out a figure that bettered by one stroke Harry Sindorf's 1938 low scoring figure.

Soggy from early morning rains the course proved a test for all the youngsters. Only with deliberate shooting that found him to best advantage on the greens was Yates able to attain his respected figure, a mark five strokes off the standard score.

His score:
Yates out 445 452 434-35
Par out 444 453 444-36
Yates in 345 344 605-41-76
Par in 344 343 444-35-71

Into Heavy Weather
The slight Abilene youth ran smack into trouble this morning, however. His first round opponent was to be Bill "Red" Roden, an established bogie man in many a West Texas senior meeting this year.

The crosst pot, who balls from Glen Rose, posted a first round 81 but ruled as slight favorite to throttle Yates as the pair squared off this morning.

One of the major disappointments was Big Spring's Jimmy Brigham, a hard hitting youth who failed by one stroke to make the title flight. Jim went around in 84.

Only two local youths rated a chance at the title and neither was given much chance to go far. One was Dale Young, whose 78 sent him against Glen Lacy of Sweetwater, the other Troy White who this morning was to test Texon's Jack Moore in a first round duel.

The defending champion, Jack Johnson of San Angelo, negotiated the distance in 80 in bidding for medalist laurels. His game was to be given a severe test by Sindorf who returned with an 83.

Nine cities were represented in first round championship play. Sweetwater boasted the most delegates with Josh Billings, Glen Lacy and Curly Bowman to be figured with Angelo, Abilene, Lubbock and Midland had two representatives each with Glen Rose, Texon and Lamesa gaining single shares.

Lubbock's Billy Martin, who came rolling home with an easy 78, looked plenty tough as did J. L. Hall, 16-year-old San Angelo. The college still soggy this morning despite the fact that no rain fell during the night, should have been far easier on the boys by noon if the sun was able to go to work.

First round pairings (with scores):
Championship Bracket
Yates (76) vs. Roden (81).
Dale Young, Big Spring (78) vs. Glen Lacy, Sweetwater (83).
George Tipton, Lubbock (78) vs. Josh Billings, Sweetwater (81).

Bill Martin, Lubbock (78) vs. H. L. Green, Midland (81).
Jack Vaughn, Lamesa (79) vs. Curly Bowman, Sweetwater (83).
Clifton Babb, Abilene (78) vs. J. L. Hall, San Angelo (83).
Jack Johnson, San Angelo (80) vs. Harry Sindorf, Midland (83).

Collapsing Yankees Lose Again But Cincy Keeps Up Fight In National

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

A week or two ago it would have been almost too fantastic to believe, but today the National League leader has a bigger margin than the first place team in the American League.

The Cincinnati Reds, opening their asteru assault with a 7-0 shutout of the second place New York Giants yesterday, expanded their lead to 8 1/2 games while the collapsing New York Yankees saw their margin to 5 1/2 over Boston in the American League.

There was a time late in June when the world champions had a margin of more games between them and second place than they had lost.

They fell apart at Detroit yesterday for their sixth straight trimming, 10-6.

The Boston Red Sox took advantage of this opportunity by downing the Cleveland Indians, 6-3 in 10 innings.

The whole program in the American League yesterday presented some of the sloppiest baseball of the season.

There were 18 bases on balls and 21 hits in the Yankees' melee. Boston belted Bobby Feller out of the box with a five-run flurry in the fourth inning of their night game, then gave all five runs back to the Indians in the ninth. The Indians refused to accept the proposition, however, and in the tenth Mel Harder walked three men, then gave a single to Lou Finney.

A's Storm In
The game at Cleveland drew 35,000 and the one at Detroit 25,000. The Chicago White Sox ripped out an eight-run lead in the first three innings against the Philadelphia Athletics, then lost 12-10 to a belated 22-hit bombardment by the A's.

Similarly the Washington Senators took a three-run lift on the St. Louis Browns in the second inning, then were nosed out 4-3 as Vernon Kennedy settled down to an eight-hit pitching performance.

There were no such monkey chases in the staid senior circuit. Cincinnati's important victory was achieved on the five-hit pitching of Bucky Walters.

It was the 14th victory of the season for Walters, against six defeats.

The Phillies made it plain to Gabby Hartnett and his Chicago Cubs they didn't like the slight he gave Morrie Aronovich in the all-star game, when the National League's leading hitter was not used. Every time Hartnett moved out of the dugout last night at Philadelphia 16,000 fans hooted and early in the game Claude Passeau and Hugh Mulcahy got into a fight which caused their banishment.

With Billy Herman hitting a homer and triple, however, the Cubs finally forged from behind to win 7-5.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Bees divided a doubleheader, the Redbirds snatching the first, 5-3, and the Bees bagging the second, 3-1, on the six-hit pitching of Danny MacFadden.

Brooklyn and Pittsburgh were idle.

Padres Regain Leadership In Texas Chase

By The Associated Press
The San Antonio Missions are leading the Texas league again by the scant margin of one percentage point.

Last night they defeated Tulsa's Oilers, 5 to 4, while Dallas was taking down the leading Houston Buffs, 7 to 6.

Shreveport's Sports blasted the Fort Worth Cats, 15 to 2, to carry their tie with Dallas from fourth to third place and push the Cats from third to fifth.

The Oklahoma City at Beaumont game was postponed because of wet grounds.

STANDINGS .. Kingsley And Schumacher Western Foes

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 14 (AP)—The Western amateur golf tournament moved into its third round today with at least a half-dozen players wishing the officials had not mailed those special invitations to a trio of college teams.

The invitations were sent because few college players belong to clubs in the Western Golf association and they would not have been eligible otherwise. Duke, Stanford and Oklahoma accepted.

The 16 survivors included the No. 1 man of each college. Strawn by the wayside were six veterans vanquished by the youngsters.

The collegiate sharpshooters are Don Kennedy of Stanford, Skip Alexander of Duke and Marvin Mesch of Oklahoma.

Alexander created most havoc by eliminating David "Spec" Goldman of Dallas, one of the pre-tournament favorites, although it took him four extra holes. In the morning he ousted John Homstrom of Rockford, Ill., 3 and 2.

Munger Ousted
Besche, Oklahoma collegiate champion, surprised the gallery by dropping Jack Munger, another Dallas veteran, 2 and 1, and stayed in with a similar victory over Otis Duncan of Oklahoma City.

Kennedy, playing the kind of golf which carried Stanford to the national team title, ousted Grover Austin of Oklahoma City, 4 and 2, then bumped George Victor of Chicago, conqueror of former champion Chick Evans, 2 and 1.

A fourth collegian, Defending Champion Bob Babish of Detroit, defeated E. J. Rogers of Oklahoma City, 3 and 2, in the second round and continued his title defense against Billy Coffey of Fort Worth, Tex., who tripped one of Alexander's teammates, Robert Brownell of Washington, D. C.

Kennedy and Mesch were thrown together by the luck of the draw in the third round. Alexander went against Art Doering of Chicago, who defeated another Duke player, Henry Russell of Coral Gables, Fla., 5 and 4.

Moreland Figures
Gus Moreland of Peoria, Ill., who eliminated Bob Conliff, Oklahoma City, 3 and 2, in the second round, drew another Illinois player, Larry Moller of Quincy for his third match. Moller advanced with a 3 and 2 victory over Billy Simpson, 2 and 1.

ROUTINE MATCH
LONG BEACH, Calif., July 14 (AP)—Australia renewed its drive for 1939 Davis cup glory today, and seemed certain of hurdling a galant but weak barrier from the Philippines Islands.

Carrying the hopes of the Aussies were its stars of international tennis, Adrian Quiet and lanky John Bromwich, while the Philippines offered two diminutive, youthful players, Amando Sanchez and Felcislmo Ampom.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BHIETZ
NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—Bucky Walters was telling 'em up at the Polo Grounds yesterday he'll take No. 13 for his any day. . . . On the day he won his 13th game for the Reds, his mates made 18 tallies and 13 assists. . . . If Chuck Finley who turns out those star basketball teams out at Hobbs, N. M., bobs up on the state university coaching staff one of these days don't say we didn't tell you.

Help, help!
If you know of anything of interest in your community, write us about it.

Lou Little, Columbia coach, is back on an aspirin diet, but it's neuritis, not tackles this time. . . . Republicans and democrats are working together like brothers to get Maj. Bob Neyland of Tennessee on the western all-star coaching staff this year.

Golf is the name.
Glen Crisman of Selma, Ala., is the only golfer to win the southern amateur three times. . . . Brother Oley has walked off with almost every invitation meet down that way. . . . Lewie the freshman of the family, is the present Alabama state champ and Sister Frances can handle the clubs, too. . . . Take the first letter of each given name and you get a great big G-O-L-F.

Today's guest star:
Dick Freeman, Houston Chronicle: "Promoter Hugh Benbow had a streak of 133 consecutive weekly fight shows without a miss and was heading for his 134th. . . . Then one of his main events wired he was unfortunately detained in Waurika, Okla., on a bigamy charge and would be unable to be present."

Oklahoma open champ.
Ed Kingsley, Salt Lake City, faced Don Schumacher of Dallas. Kingsley defeated Labron Harrison of Oklahoma City, 2 up, and Schumacher beat his fellow townsman, Bill Skeeters, 1 up.

Vernie "Spec" Stewart of Albuquerque, N. M., tournament medalist and 1 up victor over Francis Fleming of Oklahoma City, collided with Harry Todd of Dallas, conqueror of T. A. Wood of Oklahoma City 3 and 2.

Chick Harbert, Battle Creek Mich., advanced by eliminating J. C. Hamilton, Oklahoma City, 3 and 1, and drew Reynolds Smith of Dallas, who scored a 2 and 1 victory over John Barnum, Edinburg, Tex.

Walter Emery of Tulsa, Okla., Oklahoma amateur champion who had to go two extra holes to nose Iverson Martin of Fort Worth, Tex., was up against Frank Steidle of Hot Springs, Ark. Steidle defeated Doris Day, Oklahoma City, 2 and 1.

AMARILLO, July 14—A 16-hit assault off Dick Conover featured by the fence busting of Bill Garbe and Stanley Bolton, who had three blows each, paid off in runs for the Amarillo Gold Sox here Thursday evening as they routed the Big Spring Barons, 15-2, in the only WT-NM league game played.

Conover went the route for the Barons although he never had a chance. He gave up three runs in the initial round and the Sox scored in every inning thereafter but the second and fifth.

The Barons could never get started with the offerings of Bud "Lefty" Dorman who gave up but five hits. Two of the blows came from the bat of Conover, both doubles.

The Big Spring southpaw proved exceptionally wild, giving nine free passes and committing five erratic pitches that got completely away from Tony Rego, Barons catcher.

Every man in the Amarillo lineup took part in the Gold Sox willow parade with blows by Bolton, Garbe, Joe Saparito and Dorman going for extra bases.

The Barons were due to rebound with either Clarence Trantham or Art Gill tonight. They hit the homeward trail Saturday, going to Big Spring for a three game series with the Sox. The Clovis Pioneers will follow the Sox into Big Spring for a trio of games.

WIDE BRIMMED SPORT HATS ARE POPULAR

Virginia Bruce likes wide-brimmed sports hats. She wears one of sunban beige felt banded in brown ribbon and trimmed with a blue feather tuft. Her brown and white novelty checked brock is accented with two breast pockets cut on the bias and fastened with brown hummock buttons.

SHIRLEY, TOO, 'GETS HER MAN'

Little Shirley Temple, who has had adventures all the way from Broadway to the Swiss Alps and India and back, goes into the great Northwest in her newest picture, "Susannah Of The Mounties," which plays Friday and Saturday at the Ritz. Here she helps the Mounted Police get their man, straightens out a love affair and generally proves to be the helping hand. Randolph Scott and Margaret Lockwood have prominent parts in the cast.

Tex Ritter Starred In Western Film Billed At Queen

Another of the western thrillers promising action, song and romance is "Down The Wyoming Trail," which plays Friday and Saturday at the Queen theatre with Tex Ritter in the starring role.

Filmed in mid-winter against an awe-inspiring background of the Wyoming Rockies, the film offers Tex plenty of opportunity to prove his worth and he comes through in grand style.

Tex, a wandering cowboy, after saving young Candy Parker from a stampede of fear-crazed wild elk, is given a job as foreman on her ranch. The discharged foreman, eager for revenge, shoots a Parker ranch hand, throwing the blame on Tex.

A lynch mob forms, and Tex makes a spectacular escape in the nick of time. Posing as a bad man, he joins a band of outlaws.

When the ruffian chief decides to take over the Parker ranch, Tex and his pal, Missouri, step in and shoot it out with the killers in one of the most thrilling fights ever screened.

Tex shoots and vocalizes in his usual excellent form, singing six numbers. He is aided by the Northwesters, famed musical group of the airways.

Horace Murphy is seen once again as the good natured, loquacious Missouri and pretty Mary Brodell is in the role of Candy Parker.

GEORGE O'BRIEN STARS IN OFFERING AT LYRIC The Lyric theatre's Friday-Saturday contribution to western melodrama has for its star the popular he-man, George O'Brien, who rides, shoots, fights in heroic manner in "Racketeers Of The Range." In the cast with him are Marjorie Reynolds and Chill Wells. The story is of modern-day cattle rustling, with O'Brien showing how a daring, forthright cowhand can do to put an end to all the thievery.

Shirley Has Adventure In Northwest

"Susannah Of The Mounties" Headlines Ritz Program

Redmen sweeping down on the Mounties' lonely outpost... A gallant garrison fights against overwhelming odds... A lone woman finds love on a primitive frontier.

Makings of a super thriller? Yes, but believe it or not, all this action is over and above the contributions of the star in "Susannah Of The Mounties," who happens to be none other than Shirley Temple.

"Susannah," her latest picture, is at the Ritz Friday and Saturday.

The familiar story of the old Northwest is considered a novel feature for the Number One star and it was selected by Production Chief Darryl F. Zanuck as a counterpoint to the fantasy of her last hit, "The Little Princess."

Garbed in calico and buckskin, Shirley Temple's is a real dramatic role different from anything she has done previously on the screen.

Randolph Scott and Margaret Lockwood, the lovely star of "The Lady Vanishes," are featured in the romantic leads, while others in the large cast are Martin Good Rider, 13-year-old Blackfeet discovery who makes his debut in the film, J. Farrell MacDonald, Maurice Moscovitch, Moroni Olsen, Victor Jory and Lester Matthews.

Shirley, the sole survivor of an Indian massacre, is adopted by Randolph Scott of the Mounties. The famous police are trying to protect the construction of the great new railway from interference by the Indians.

Scott teaches the child a wonderful lesson in courage which bears her bravely through days of terrible danger.

Kenneth Macgowan served as associate producer for the screen play written by Robert Ellis and Helen Logan, from the story by Fidel La Barba and Walter Ferris, based on the book by Muriel Denison.

The linotype typesetting machine was developed in 1866.

MISS 'LANEOUS NOTES' By Mary Whaley

By MARY WHALEY A quarter of a dozen. That's all there are. Take that number and distribute it over a population of 16,000 people and it looks like there won't be enough to go around.

That at least is the score at present on the number of umbrellas to be found in department stores in Big Spring today. A canvass of local stores revealed that number is ALL. And while it will probably be denied, there is reason to doubt if the salesgirls could locate them in a hurry.

After the rain yesterday the thought occurred to investigate the situation. Suppose a newcomer to town arrived during the rain and decided to buy an umbrella? He would have a pretty tough time!

Chamberlain may have started the umbrella fad in England but so far the urge hasn't reached this town. There may be some of them in town but they must have been imported from some place "furrin'."

However the umbrella is not the only local wall flower as rain coats have suffered approximately the same fate. Some store owners admitted that they had a few in stock but the majority of them merely snorted at the idea.

As for galoshes, those ingenious devices developed to make the human race resemble a colony of club-footed people, it didn't even seem logical to mention them.

It may be a bit hard to suggest it but even if Big Spring should turn into a spot of continued moisture, there is reason to doubt if anyone but the younger generation could be taught the "hang" of working an umbrella.

By way of explanation, it should be said that the department of agriculture in 1930 established such a laboratory in Mississippi, and this institution has done valuable work in the improvement of cotton fiber and ginning methods in areas characterized by damp atmospheric conditions.

No new legislation would be necessary, Mahon has explained, since the act creating the Mississippi laboratory authorized establishment of branches when the need was evident.

A great benefit from experimentation under such a project could be expected from the improvement of cotton fiber, thus enabling the individual farmer to gain directly from the higher price value of better staples.

Improvement to the quality, and therefore price, of cotton also would accrue from better ginning methods, and ginners themselves are entitled to the results of scientific experimentation in order to establish better and less hazardous ginning plants, and to turn out cleaner, better baled cotton.

If this section is to continue to depend upon cotton for a major share of its farm income, and there appears the likelihood that it will, sound economy demands that the product be improved until it can compete with that grown by other sections and by other nations.

Since the government has started work in that field with its Mississippi laboratory, it seems logical that similar service could be instituted in another, and different-type region of the cotton belt.

George Tucker Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—Here's a quick tintype of that new temple dedicated in Chinatown the other day: History—it used to be known as Callahan's saloon, a rendezvous for criminals of the worst type during the 'Nineties and after the turn of the century.

Confucius—Several weeks ago many large packages were lifted from the hold of a ship in East river. Five men spent three weeks unpacking these cases and fitting more than a thousand odd pieces together.

Into what had been Nigger Nate's happy hunting ground this altar was moved. Around it were teakwood panels, on which were carved, by hand, various episodes from the life of Confucius.

The dedication proper took place at midnight and was officiated over by L. K. Ong, a Chinese priest from Canton. Mr. Ong said he had worked on a horseshoe for weeks before the proper hour for the dedication had been revealed to him.

Not a result—a glittering Temple dedicated to Mercy where previously mercy was never shown!

FOUR BLIND DATES

By Edwin Rutt

Chapter 34 I LOVE YOU TRULY At about the time that the Chiesler's pants lay in drydock, the party in the dining-room began to break up. Not that the revels were ended by any means.

"Where are we going?" she inquired calmly. "No place in particular," Tacks said. "I just thought you might care to look over the grounds."

"No," said Tacks, making a colossal attempt to summon decision. "No, I can't do it." But it was obvious, even to Miss North, that something had happened to Miss North. Her words did not carry the ring of conviction.

"I love you," Tacks said. "I love you," she said. "I love you," he said. "I love you," she said. "I love you," he said.

"I love you," he said. "I love you," she said. "I love you," he said. "I love you," she said.

Walter Lippmann A View Of Europe

Walter Lippmann, who returned yesterday from a trip to Great Britain and France, has written the following special article on the European situation.

No prediction about Europe is possible at this time because no one knows which coalition is the stronger, because every one realizes that neither side has anything like a decisive superiority.

The coalition against him is now too strong to be intimidated. It is not yet strong enough to be invincible. Consequently, the issue of peace and war hangs upon the complex speculation and intuition of one man.

This is a mad world. But there is some method in the madness, and it may be said, I think, that if there is a general war in Europe in the near future, it will be the result of a misunderstanding, a miscalculation, or a calculated act of desperation.

This is not the position today. It is certain, I think, that the British and French look upon Poland, not as a small nation to which they owe a moral obligation, but as an indispensable ally in the protection of their own position in Europe and in the world.

War might come also as a result of any one of several miscalculations. Hitler might think that he can crush Poland in a lightning war, say in six weeks, and that he can then negotiate a peace before the democracies could make effective the blockade or consummate the offensive through Italy against the German flank.

Nothing is better calculated to arouse the beast in man than a laugh with an undercurrent of derision in it. Mr. Adams suddenly lost interest in the trousers. He flung them from him angrily.

It is necessary also to take into account the possibility of a war launched as an act of desperation. There is no doubt, I think, that the Anglo-French coalition is becoming progressively stronger than the axis.

Nothing, in short, is clear, and it would be very misleading to report that there is anything now in sight except tension and crisis for the weeks, for the months, that lie ahead.

Little Difficulty Reported Here On Jobless Insurance Claims

AUSTIN, July 14—In spite of several "blind spots," Howard county workers are generally well-informed on unemployment compensation, Orville S. Carpenter, Texas director of the jobless benefits program, said today.

Employment service interviewers report that individuals do not confuse jobless benefits with relief. There is no connection, Carpenter affirmed. These Howard county workers thoroughly understand that jobless benefits are the right of the eligible unemployed.

Another phase of the program is not understood by Howard county workers. The tax for jobless benefits is paid solely by employers; workers pay no part of it.

Nell Beats Out Capps In Race For First Half WT-NM Batting Title

TEX WALTON LEADS IN TRIPLES; PAT STASEY'S AVERAGE UP

Big Gordon Nell of Pampa provided most of the slugging show during the first half of the West Texas-New Mexico League schedule, ending July 1.

Nell beat Billy Capps, Big Spring third baseman, to the batting lead by twelve points, creating for himself a mark of 406. Hack Harrison, Clovis, was third at 388. The Pampa pounder also led in doubles, home runs and runs batted in.

The double mark was 33, only 11 shy of the league record set in 1938 by Dick Miller of Lubbock. Nell's 24 fourbaggers are seven under the record held jointly by Mal Stevens of Lubbock and Jake Suttar, last year with Midland. Sam Malvica, bespectacled Lamesa shortstop had 28 doubles, one more than Grover Seitz, Nell's boss. Emmett Fullenwider, Lamesa, is second in homers with 21.

Tex Walton, fine defensive gardener of the Big Spring Barons, salvaged one hit mark, collecting nine triples. Several players were tied for second place with seven.

Seitz topped Boyd Watkins of Lubbock out in the stolen base chase. The Oiler pilot pilfered 28 sacks, two more than Watkins.

Nelson Looms As Golfer To Beat In PGA

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—The much-maligned putter becomes professional golfer's magic wand today as four of America's super-golfers meet in semi-finals of the P. G. A. tournament.

On the stubby, par-pummelled Pomonok club course that put a terrific premium on second shots and putting, Byron Nelson, national open champion, meets E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Oak Park, Ill., while in the other bracket curly-haired Dick Metz of Lake Forest, Ill., has a date with Henry Picard, gum Hershey, Pa., pro.

The "guy who can put it is the guy who can win," is the word of no less an authority than Nelson, who put together one of the most magnificent rounds in P. G. A. history to dump Emerick Kocis by 10 and 9 yesterday.

"You can always say that the best man with a putter will win a golf tournament," Nelson said, "but it's especially true on this course."

That brings up the question, who is the hottest of the quartet that has gone through 14 holes of golf in its fiercest competitive pace?

Dutch Tough, Too

On the basis of the play so far, Skinny Dutch actually looks like the man to beat. He has drummed out a steady tattoo of sensational putts, anywhere from tricky two-footers to breath-taking 25 footers.

But Nelson, who had not a single bogey in 27 holes against Kocis, is not exactly a poor putter.

Metz had to dip his putter in the water bucket Wednesday to keep it from melting, it was so hot. But it was an uncertain club in beating Paul Runyan, the 1938 winner, 2 and 1 yesterday. Picard, the silent one, lets his putter speak for him and it talks eloquently enough for both.

Yesterday's results, in addition to Nelson's amazing display, caused lifted eyebrows when Harrison, by a 4 and 3 margin, ousted Horton Smith, who has yet to win a major tourney after 12 years of trying.

Metz, in shading Runyan, did a workmanlike job, and Picard's "up from under" triumph against Rod Monday, 2 and 1, showed how hard the Hershey pro is to beat when the chips are down.

Retirement News

The Junior Boy's Recreation Summer Softball League completed its regular schedule of play Wednesday afternoon. The A.B.C. boys were crowned champions.

Despite the annual rain which falls during each West Texas Junior golf tournament, a large number of entries qualified in the rain Thursday. Close matches and low scores are due to be registered in competition today and Saturday because of the high class of players competing.

The music instruction programs conducted each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in the Municipal auditorium have proved to be very popular. More than forty registered Wednesday.

Twenty-six boys and girls dressed in their shabbiest manner took part in the Tacky Party at A.B.C. park Wednesday. A large number of spectators also enjoyed the party.

There is to be a doll show at the city park this afternoon. All little girls are invited to bring their dolls and enter. The event will be conducted near the wading pool about 5 p. m.

A children's party will be given at the South Side park this evening at 7 p. m. Social group games and special music will feature the entertainment. The public is invited.

much fun with anyone else."

All at once, miraculously, Mr. Adams found himself striding in triumph through the heavens. A star got in his way and he kicked it in the pants. For pure joy he chinned himself a couple of times on the rings of Saturn. Then he took a long, running slide along the Milky Way and came down to earth again.

"You—you actually mean it?" he said breathlessly.

Packy's eyes came up to his. There was no mistaking the light in them.

"Well," she said, in a strange, little voice, "what do you think?"

Mr. Adams put his long right arm about her waist.

"Come," he said masterfully. "Where?" Packy wanted to know. But she came.

"Within," said Tacks grandly. "Listen: Do you think I'm going to let that little mutt, Cutler, be the only one to announce his engagement tonight?"

Packy hung back.

"Oh, no, Tacks," she said. "Not in front of all those people."

"In front of the whole cock-eyed world, if necessary," cried Tacks. "I'm feeling high. I want to go things, and see people and do things."

She smiled up at him. Her eyes were like black stars.

"All right, dear," she said. "If you want to."

They alighted around the side of the house, arm in arm, with the intention of entering by the door that faced Long Island Sound. It was as well, perhaps, that they chose that route or else they might have met a kind of cigar-smoking Apollyon straddling over the way. For even as they quitted the lawn a yellow taxi was racing through the parkland of Saltair Acres.

"Sure this is the right house, gunner?" inquired the taxi-driver. The Assyrian in back bit clean through his cigar.

"Right house?" he barked. "Of course, it is, you fool. Don't you think I know my own house when I see it?"

TITLE CHANGES HANDS

Billy Conn Rallies To Outpoint Melio Bettina In L'heavy Bout

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—There was neither joy nor band music in Beacon, N. Y., today, for Melio Bettina blew his light-heavyweight title to Bill Conn of Pittsburgh last night in Madison Square Garden.

The Becontines, who hadn't boasted a champion since George Washington was in their midst during the revolution, came down in a special train with two bands to support their squad, dark idol—but the judges voted unanimously for Conn at the close of a hard 15 rounds.

The Pittsburgher, scoring his fourth decision in as many starts in New York, whittled his way to victory with a left jab after taking a sound beating for the first five rounds. That is, he did in the opinion of three judges.

The Associated Press scored the thing dead even—seven rounds for each fighter and one round even. By that tabulation, Melio would have retained the crown he and fellow Becontines have treasured since the New York state athletic commission bestowed it upon him six months ago.

Melio, who had been madly under-rated, came out of the scrap crying bitterly. His manager, Jimmy Grippo, was saying about having been denied "impartial off-

ALIEN EMPLOYEES BEING DROPPED BY PLANE FACTORIES

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP)—To safeguard secrets of new war plans designed for the expanding army and navy air forces, aircraft manufacturers are quietly weeding out aliens from their employes.

At the direction of the war and navy departments, several score foreign technicians have been discharged recently or transferred to other than military work.

Officials made the disclosure today, without divulging the number of persons affected, following an announcement by a Hartford, Conn., firearms plant that all aliens working in its machine gun division would be let out immediately.

The action is one of several new measures to keep from foreign agents information which might damage the national defense.

A 1926 law forbids employment of aliens on military contracts without express official permission. Until last year, permits were issued perfunctorily at the request of manufacturers, but now they are good for only three or six months. G-men of the federal bureau of investigation check on the aliens.

Movies' History Is Traced In New March Of Time

By Felix R. McKnight

DALLAS, July 14 (AP)—WEE Dave O'Brien, the all-American boy, still holds his iron man honors . . . Intimates say his automobile overturned recently and the little man received nothing worse than jangled nerves and scattered bruises after several roll-overs.

Coals for the night vs. day baseball argument: Texas league records, compiled since start of night baseball, show pitching is more effective under the lights . . . However, combs, daytime hurlers hold the edge in shutouts this season, ringing up 28 homerless games to 15 for the after dinner pitchers . . . eight of the 41 shutouts have been 1-0 affairs.

Few amateurs hit more tremendous tee shots than J. T. Hammett, the St. Mary's university star out of Rising Star . . . Three times in the recent West Texas tourney he pounded his tee shot on a par four hole green . . . Manager Zach Taylor of the San Antonio Missions, one of the old-time big league catching stars, says unequivocally that Bob Cerv, high school catcher, "has the best throwing arm in baseball—and I mean the majors, too."

Bad break for basketball fans when coaches said "no" on the convex backboard idea . . . The curved backboard would permit more rings from the corners . . . After all, basketball, from a spectator's standpoint, is not a defensive game . . . why not more 76 to 74 games? That's what the fans go for—not stalling, low score games . . . The big thrill comes from seeing the net waffle.

Only Jack Brillheart, the dummy veteran Oklahoma City pitcher, has succeeded in beating one club over: time he faced them . . . He has dropped Shreveport four successive times . . . Now his six-man softball, being tried at Wichita Falls . . . All you need is a pitcher, catcher, first base, second base and two outfielders . . . It would take two outfielders with the wind of Glenn Cunningham to backstop a seeping infield.

Brother Harold V. Ratliff of the A.P.'s schoolboy sports dept. reminds that the high school coaches' association is ready for the largest coaching school in the world down Houston way next month . . . Coaches Bo McMillan of Indiana and Raymond (Dear) Wolf of North Carolina will do the tutoring.

Coches Pat Derald of Vernon high lays claim to the "most operated on" football team in Texas . . . Nine members of his squad have been under the knife recently . . . Six tonsilectomies and three appendectomies . . . Another of the boys out his hand on a broken bottle on the practice field and had the member stitched up.

Doyle Hines, Mexia golfer, killed a long jackrabbit with his tee shot, blasted out on the green and took two putts for an uneventful par five recently . . . Scouts are running over each other at Crockett, where a young fellow named Chilli English has just struck out 145 batters in nine games—some 16 per game.

KBST NOTES

Junior League Will Present Radio Plays

Studio A at the Texas State Network has been the scene of strange activities for the last month. Three times a week a roomful of Junior Leagueurs have assembled and spent an hour learning to talk like a bottle, squeak like a fieldmouse, cry like a Cheshire cat and speak like a frog footman.

The meaning of this baffling activity? Rehearsals for a series of four plays, based on "Alice in Wonderland" and "Alice Through the Looking Glass," which the League will launch on the air Saturday.

The plays will be heard from 9 to 9:30 a. m. and will be broadcast locally over Station KBST. The first two presentations will be based on the "Alice in Wonderland" story.

All scripts are being written by League members and all of the air characterizations and sound effects are being handled by members also.

Hull—then a member of congress was chosen to fill the vacancy created by Connally's departure to the other capital wing.

Johnson believes strongly the administration's views on removing the arms embargo should be accepted by congress.

Once an advocate of the arms embargo, he feels now that conditions have changed and two reasons stand out for its repeal:

1. Action after a war had broken out would place this country in the position of taking sides with one combatant against the other.
2. Germany and Italy would be far less inclined to start actual warfare or precipitate a conflict if they knew in advance her opponents were in a position to get supplies from the United States.

The most seriously damaged of the four huge pontoons from which the Squalus tore loose before settling back in the ocean was towed to the navy yard by the tug Towmore. One of its three compartments was demolished, another was splintered. Its air hoses were broken and a parted cable dragged at its end. A crew of workers today attacked the job of repairing the cylindrical lid.

MARKETS Wall Street

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—Further cashing of profits in today's stock market served mainly to slow dealings and failed to disrupt prices to any great extent.

The proceedings got off to a listless start and the pace inclined to drag during the rest of the day.

While minor losses were plentiful at the close, there was a fair-sized assortment of modest advances. A few special favorites even managed to creep into new high ground for the year.

Wall Street was not at all depressed by the shifting trend winds. Analysts pointed out that, after four consecutive climbing seasons, it was but natural the market should take a breathing spell.

EMPHASIZES THE IMPORTANCE OF FREE CITY

MUNICH, July 14 (AP)—Danzig's importance to Adolf Hitler was emphasized today when it became known the fueshrer had kept Albert Forster, Danzig nazidistrict leader, overnight at Berghof, his Obersalzberg home, near Berchtesgaden.

Forster arrived at Berghof yesterday and immediately went into conference with Hitler. Since then they have had plenty of opportunity to discuss when and how the free city is to return to Germany—as nazis say it will.

Observers quickly recalled that Konrad Henlein, then leader of Czechoslovakia's Sudeten Germans who was agitating for union with Germany, visited Berghof last Sept. 1 and that soon thereafter the intensive nazidrive against Czechoslovakia got under way.

1,500 BATTLE FOREST FIRES

PORTLAND, Ore., July 14 (AP)—Devastating forest fires, at least one of them believed of incendiary origin, and others started by lightning, crackled through green northwest timber today while nearly 1,500 fire fighters battled to control them.

Five thousand acres of timber on the Calimus Butte of the Klamath Indian reservation in southern Oregon were ablaze and out of control. Reservation officials said the fire was set and that they had arrested one man.

Harry White, assistant in the U. S. forest service's fire control department, said several fires were set Thursday morning by lightning in Enocualmine, Mount Baker, Chelan and Wenatchee national forests in Washington. Most of them had been controlled but C. J. Conover, assistant forest supervisor, said at Seattle two fires in the Snoqualmine forest were threatening.

Halliburton Sails After Settlement With Agents

GALVESTON, July 14 (AP)—Eric P. Halliburton is headed for Honduras today aboard his palatial yacht Vida with eleven guests and two Brahma bulls.

The wealthy Oklahoma oil and mining man sailed last night after collector of customs Fred C. Pabst said "a small penalty" had settled navigation law charges which had detained the party since Sunday.

Pabst said the fine was nothing comparable to the $13,000 penalty rumored in some quarters, but did not disclose the exact amount.

The customs official asserted the amount of the penalty was decided in Washington and Halliburton "cooperated at all times in settling the case amicably."

The bulls were being taken by Halliburton to officials of Honduras, the country under whose flag the Vida sails and where he has mining interests.
