Synanon Visits In The Southwest

Six representatives from Synanon, the highly successful re-education center for drug addicts and alocholics, will be in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico during the month of January.

What they are selling is not a tangible hard good or even a direct service, but a solution to one of the most dreaded social problems in our country today drug addiction.

The cost of the solution comes in many forms. One is the donation of beef on the hoof to feed the approximately 1,600 men, women and children now living in Synanon.

Last year local cattlemen donated 175 head of beef to help Synanon in fighting drug abuse and addiction. This year Synanon members will again be contacting cattle feeders, hoping to produce part of their yearly seed of 500 head Synchon is a non-profit, Tax-exempt organization, founded in 1958. It is now nationally recognized for its work in rehabilitating drug addicts, alcoholics, and people with similar character disorders.

Headquartered in California, Synanon offers help to people from all over the country. Some 16,000 men and women have come to ranon, and many are now leading responsible, productive lives. Matt Rand is 24. He was born in San Francisco, and started traveling as a young teenager. By the time he was 14, in Dallas, he began to use heroin. After his second felony conviction, Matt came to Synanon as an alternative to a three year term in prison. Matt has been with Synanon for five years now, and is dedicating himself to helping other young people who, like him, need help. Matt is married now, and he and his wife and 18 month old son live at the Synanon Ranch in Northern California.

C. Mason ("D.D.") Harvey, 52, is an ordained Presbyterian minister, former Junior Chamber of Commerce Young Man of the Year, excollege professor, and P.T. boat commander in World War II, who moved into Synanon with his family because he was convinced that an answer had been found to the problem of drug addiction.

While in the Southwest, Synanon representatives will be contacting judges, probation officers, police officials and others to make known Synanon's availability to as many people as possible.

Anyone can enter Synanon free of charge as long as they have a sincere desire to work hard and help themselves. Those who are interested in participating in Synanon's program should contact Synanon Foundation, Inc., 1215 Clay Street, Oakland, California 94612. Telephone: (415)

WARE-BARR NUPTIAL VOWS ARE EXCHANGE IN AN EVENING CEREMONY DECEMBER 29

Miss Janice Lynn Ware became the bride of Steven Hugh Barr at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, December 29 in the First United Methodist Church of Wheeler.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Ware, Jr. of Wheeler. The grooms parents are Mrs. W. N. Scruggs of Dallas and Lee Barr of Dallas.

The Rev. Ross Dunn officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Two tour tiered candelabra entwined with holly and Christmas pine and red velvet bows were on either side of the alter. Red poinsettas were placed on each side of the large open Bible. Red botice cup candles were surrounded by holly and Christmas pine and were used throughout the church. The stained glass window ledas each held a ruby red flicker candle surrounded by holly and tied with a red velvet bow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal gown of white silk organza. The lace covered bodice fea tured a scooped neckline and long full sleeves of chantilly lace which ended in a wide cuff which was secured by tiny organza covered buttons. The A-line skirt fell from an empire bodice. The hemline was lavishly trimmed with lace and the floor length skirt swept to back fullness and cascaded into a full chapel train Her long cathedral veil which was appliqued with lace featured a finger tip lace trimmed blusher. Her bouguet was of baby breath and stephanotis blossoms and was centered by a large white orchid which was raised by her grandfather, Dr. Robt. H. Akin of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Lyndon Simms, organist, played traditional wedding music. Miss Ashley Sigmier of Arlington played contemporary selections on the piano which included "My Love", "Morning Has Broken," "Love Theme from Lady Sings the Blues," "Gonna Make It With You," and "Summer of '42." Miss Caroline Bell of Lubbock was the soloist. She accompanied herself on the guitar as she sang "Let it Be Me" and "The Wedding Song," She was accompained on the organ as she sang "The Lords Prayer." The traditional "Wedding March" was played as the bride and her attendants entired.

THERE IS NO FERTILIZER SHORTAGE!

While the principal business of our feedlot is the production of beef for a hungry world, there are certain byproducts of our operations which are available to help in the operations of other segments of agriculture. One such product is nutrient-rich manure, offering unique fertilization potential. Through tests conducted at the U.S.D.A. Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland, Texas, we have learned specific facts relating to the use of our solid wastes as fertilizer. For example, application of only ten tons of solid waste material to an acre of moderately irrigated crop lands has been sufficient to obtain maximum yields. There is a residual effect available through manure fertilization: the process of decomposition continues to provide nutrients, at a reduced level, through the second and even third years after application! There are definite economic advantages to the crop producer using the manure fertilization system. Initial cost, of course, and also the economies of the methods of application. No special equipment is required: the material is deep plowed into the field and application can be made at the time of working fields prior to planting (the farther in advance of planting the better). Thus, fertilization occurs as a course of normal operation, with standard plowing equipment, resulting in fewer man hours required and, particularly important in light of the energy crisis, less fuel consumption

The table below lists the nutrient content of manure sampled from 23 feedlots on the Texas High Plains, giving the range, average percentages and average pounds of nutrients present in ten tons:

RANGE AVERAGE AMT. IN 10 TONS % Nitrogen 1.16 - 1.96268 Phosphorus (P205) .73 - 1.951.21 243 Potassium (K<sub>2</sub>0) .90 - 2.83362 Sodium .29 - 1.43148 Calcium .81 - 1.751.30 260 Magnesium .32 - .66.50 100 Iron .09 - .55 .21 42 Zinc .005 - .012.009 20.9 - 54.534.5 6,900

CHATS WITH GLORIA

With all the shortages and crisis upon us, many people plan to preserve more food at home this next year. Here's a little lady who planned ahead last summer and has plenty to carry her family through the hard win-She canned: 11 quarts and 41 pints of apple butter, 14 quarts and 30 pints of pear preserves, 23 pints of jelly, 6 quarts of apples, 33 quarts of pears, 9 quarts of peaches, 9 pints of cherries, 59 quarts of green beans, quarts of new potatoes 20 quarts of peas, 32 quarts of dill pickles, 24 quarts of bread & butter pickles, 2 quarts of tomatoes, 10 quarts kraut, and froze: 15 pints of squash, 20 pints of okra, 15 pints of corn.

The approximate value of this food is $232.10. This Wheeler County resident said she had done more, but couldn't remember other smaller quantities she had preserved at home.

I have had several women ask for a demonstration on shade making, Friday, Jan-uary 18, 1974 at 2:00 p.m. I will make and display sev eral shades in my office on the second floor of Wheeler County Courthouse. Anyone

Mrs. J. C. Moore Is Club Hostess

The Wheeler Garden Club met December 13 for the Christmas meeting in the home of Mrs. J. C. Moore, Jr.

The President, Mrs. Farmer Hefley, called the meeting to order. Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt, Secretary and Treasurer called the roll. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given.

Mrs. Van Zandt read a beautiful Christmas Story, which portrayed the true Christmas spirit.

Following the program the members enjoyed a gift exchange and gifts for the Shamrock Nursing Home w we collected.

The table was beautiful with Christmas goodies. The following guests and members were served: Mrs. Jess Mo-Mes. Roy Bailey, Tom Dearen, Cecil Denson, H. C. Fields, W. A. Finsterwald, Glen George, Sally Harris, C. F. Hefley, Farmer Hefley, Lee Kiker, C. J. Meek, C. J. Van Zandt, H. M. Wiley, George Weems, and the hostess, Mrs. J. C. Moore.

AUSTIN, Tex. - Legislative leaders expressed optimism for success of the state Constitution Convention which opened at noon Tuesday (Jan.

Planning committees have worked out a fast-paced 81day schedule which may, or may not, hold up.

Optimists see at least a 50-50-chance of success, noting that of 12 constitutions offered voters in other states during the last 12 years, half were rejected, frequently on a single issue.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr., projected presiding officer of the historic convention. the first since 1875, hopes to have committee hearings started by January 16.

Preliminary briefings by corresponding committees of the 37-member Constitutional Revision Commission will pre cede the committee hearings.

Daniel claims the convention, composed of 181 legislators, will be successful because delegates have a downto-business attitude and are the best prepared group (thanks to work of the Revision Commission) ever to undertake such a task.

Such controversial issues as right-to-work inclusion in the constitution, legislative pay raises and appointive appellate judges, under Daniel's plan, would be submitted to voters as separate issues. That procedure, the speaker maintains, would prevent jeopardizing a largely-non-controversial document because of a handful of hot potatoes.

Eight substantive committees and five procedural committees are proposed to handle the initial hearings and study starting next week.

POLITICAL SEASON ON -Major candidates are getting in place for the 1974 primary races.

Attorney General John Hill announced for a second term. Agriculture Commissioner John White announced for a 13th.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe revealed his plans (back in late October) to seek a second term.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby will be doing the same. Others already on the starting blocks include Railroad Commissioners Jim Langdon and Mack Wallace, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and Treasurer Jesse James (although some haven't announced formally).

Comptroller Robert Calvert remains a question mark. Whether or not he retires, former Secretary of State Bob Bullock is running for his office, and State Sen. Jim Wallace of Houston is a probable. Republicans have fielded in the governor's race Henry Grover, Jim Cranberry, State Rep. Ray Hutchison and Odell factual determination in each

· In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

· A law requiring financial statements by public officials is constitutional, and district judges are covered.

· A county commissioners court may transfer surplus road and bridge funds into the general fund.

· A member of the Parks and Wildlife Commission is entitled to reimbursement for expenses for meetings which are not regularly scheduled.

· A person who spends in excess of $200 per calendar quarter by paying another to communicate directly with a legislator would not have to register under the new lobby

· Texas Rehabilitation Commission can act on behalf of the state in entering an agreement with the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare to carry out provisions of the Social Security Act. The commissioner of TRC is the proper official to execute the agreeAPPOINTMENTS - Gov. Briscoe appointed Ralph Durden of Corpus Christi to the Texas A&I University board of directors, succeeding William H. Atkinson of Kenedy. Briscoe picked Edwardo Marquez of El Paso to be65th district judge, replacing the late Judge Jack Fant.

Blake Allen of Corsicana was named by Briscoe to the Trinity River Authority.

Joe Sage of San Antonio was appointed chairman of a new permanent House subcommittee on military and veterans affairs.
