A Letter

Dear Citizens of Wheeler County: How wonderful it is to know an overwhelming number of people in Wheeler and its surrounding communities appreciate and respect all that Harry Wofford stood for. I could use an unending number of complimentary phrases and never be able to justly describe my uncle's gracious character. Indeed he was a "gentleman" who loved people and never refused to lend a helping hand to friend or foe. I can only pity anyone who attempted to mar his integrity because of petty jealousy. Yes, a "Pillar" is definitely leaning in your community's foundation and a bough on the Wofford Family Tree because of Harry Wofford's death. Thank you for recognizing the many good things he did throughout his lifetime. Sincerely, Martha Wofford McFerron

Here & There

By Laura Guthrie For several reasons people are moving from place to place at a brisk pace. The Methodist Church has exchanged pastors. To our regret the Marvin Roarks have moved to Dimmitt. The Rev. Ernest McLaughy will be replacing him. I am sure he will be well received. Mrs. McLaughy will take Mrs. Roark's place with the second grade in our school.

Another couple, the Bob Roarks, of Roark's Grocery are making ready to move to a newly acquired home at 1010 Main. (The old Nicholson house.) I understand that Bob's parents are coming to Wheeler and will live where the Roarks now reside.

A chain reaction was set up when the Bynum Smiths moved into their home on S. Main. The Charles Hix will move into the house vacated by the Smiths (1002 Main) and Dicky and Carletta Burton will move where the Hix lived at 506 Osage. The Don Kings have moved into their new home at 601 Cheyenne. The new home of Tom and Ruth Edwards must be about finished. Not sure that they have made the shift. The Dwayne Bakers who operate the Parts Store on Texas Street have found a house in the country and are living there.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blevins who have lived in Wheeler seven years have moved to Lone Oak, Texas.

Larry and Mildred Tracy and children crowded in a week or ten days of vacation before starting another year of training for the Wheeler Mustang Band. They divided their time with the parents of each, at Ponca City and Sharon, Oklahoma. They spent a week end at the State Park at Bartlesville.

Sallie Harris has just returned from a two week stay with her son, Mr. and Mrs. James Horton and son Brock, at Wingate, New Mexico. Her sister, Nellie, Horton spent the time in Albuquerque with a niece. A nephew, Chris Hopkins, who has spent the summer here, returned home to enter college and Nellie accompanied him. Both Sallie and Nellie returned by bus.

Donis Schroeder returned home to El Paso last Saturday. She brought her mother, Mrs. Lela Wilson, here after she had spent some time in El Paso and Almodoro. Mrs. Wilson remained at home.

Donis Burkes Findley and small child dropped into the office for a short visit the other day. She lives in Hosston, La., and she and her husband, Harold, and family were here visiting her dad, Raymond Burkes, and other relatives. They will go from here to Ulyses, Kansas where they will visit Harold's parents.

Harold and Pat Hardcastle of Vernon were here last Wednesday to look in on his dad who is in the Parkview Hospital. They also visited pat's sister, Mary Wofford and other relatives.

Wheeler Accepted For Flood Insur.

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development announced today that effective August 4, 1975, City of Wheeler, has been accepted into the National Flood Insurance Program.

This means, said Acting Federal Insurance Administrator, J. Robert Hunter, that individual property owners here are now eligible to buy flood insurance protection at affordable federally-subsidized rates, offering more extensive coverage under the expanded program authorized by the 1973 Flood Disaster Protection Act. "We think the new, expanded National Flood Insurance Program offers the best way of protecting property owners from the ravages of floods, while easing the burden on the general public," he said. "Since flood insurance is now available," he added, "the law requires that it must be purchased by owners of property in areas identified as flood-prone by HUD, in order to be eligible for virtually all forms of Federal or federally-related financial assistance for building purposes in those areas.

"This would include FHA or VA mortgages, loans from the Small Business Administration, or loans from any federally-regulated or supervised banks and savings and loan institutions. While flood insurance is available to all residents of the community, Mr. Hunter emphasized that the Federal economic sanctions against building assistance will not apply to property outside the danger zones.

Under the expanded program, broader coverage can be obtained for all buildings and their contents. The limit of insurance for single-family homes is now $35,000, and $100,000 for other residential and non-residential buildings, at the subsidized rate of 25 cents per $100 of coverage. The rate goes to 40 cents per $100 for nonresidential buildings.

The contents of all residential buildings can be insured up to $10,000 per unit at 35 cents per $100 of coverage, and the rate goes to 75 cents per $100 for the contents of all nonresidential structures up to a maximum of $100,000 in coverage per unit.

Policies are effective immediately during the first 30 days the insurance becomes available. After the first 30 days, there is a 15-day waiting period. The policies can be purchased from any local property insurance agent or broker. The Home Insurance Co., 2100 Travis St., Houston, Texas 77002, has been designated as the flood insurance servicing company for this area. Agents and brokers may obtain policy forms, rates, flood insurance manuals, and any other necessary

Dear Editor,

The Wheeler Times always brings memories of my school days—1918 was my graduation class—many years have passed—and many miles separate me and the friends and neighbors of those years. But memories spans time and distance—and memories of school days, teachers, classmates and exciting activities are recalled each week as I read the Times. Yours truly, Ruby Carver Brazil.

Boys Ranch Rodeo To Start Aug. 31

It will soon be rodeo time at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch where 370 boys have been getting ready for the nationally-known contest between pint-size cowboys and bucking stock.

It is a Labor Day Celebration and approximately 10,000 people are expected to drive to the ranch over the two-day period, August 31 and September 1. More than 150 boys will be riding the calves, steers, Brahm bulls and broncs in the Boys Ranch Rodeo Arena, competing for trophies and belt buckles. Even the 3 to 6 year olds will be awarded prizes for riding their stick horses around barrels. Older boys will be riding professional rodeo stock under R. C. A. rules.

The rodeo is also a homecoming for the approximately 3,000 boys who have lived at the Ranch since it was started by Cal Farley in 1939. They are members of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association and travel long distances to watch a kind of rodeo in which they, too, were once contestants.

An added attraction will be Texas-size bar-be-cue beef plates that will be prepared and sold by the boys for only $1.50. Reserve box seat tickets are $2.50 and on sale at the Boys Ranch Office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo. General admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for children. Performances are scheduled for 2:30 each afternoon. Proceeds are used for the operation and expansion of the Ranch.

Flood Insurance

information from this company.

The FIA, Mr. Hunter explained, is in the process of publishing maps showing the special flood hazard areas in approximately 20,000 communities across the country. He congratulated the local governing body here for taking action before the July 1, 1975 deadline imposed under the Act for enrolling in the program.

The program is designed to stimulate individual participation in it as protection against natural disasters, and to help promote sound flood plain management on the part of the local government authorities.

In becoming eligible under the program, a community must submit an application in which it certifies that it has adopted certain minimum flood plain management measures for the flood-prone areas of that community which conform with Federal requirements. These measures vary according to the characteristics of the community and the nature of specific flood threats. But they are generally designed to regulate minimum elevation and construction standards for floors and foundations of any new construction in these areas.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH from
HYLAND WEAVER

What is a simple and effective way to cool off on hot days? Just immerse your hands and wrists in cold water. Part of the effect may be psychological — part may be due to cooling of blood passing through the wrists and hands — but it works! Naturally a cool shower or a swim will be more effective, but lacking this, cool water on hands and wrists will bring welcome relief.

HOT NEW ITEM

Though many Americans are aware of the vital need for home fire protection, few have done anything about it.

The figures are chilling. Last year alone, fire injured 300,000, killed 12,000 and caused $2 billion worth of property damage...but only 8 per cent of U.S. homes have fire extinguishers.

Whenever there's a fire, people are concerned—yet many don't do anything about protecting themselves should a fire suddenly break out in "their" home. Everyone always thinks: "It can't happen to me."

Many fire extinguishers are bulky, unattractive and confusing to use—some reasons why people don't buy them. So Norelco decided to introduce a fire extinguisher that's not only easy to handle and operate, but one that also looks good in any room of the house.

It's called the Flame Fighter and it's soft, antique white, slim and compact. It comes with a convenient wall mount. This timely safety addition to the home is designed to be used on grease, electrical, gasoline, oil and paint fires and on all other B and C type fires.

This is a hot item for the homeowner and a necessary one.

and a 95 percent survival rate in the Permian Basin and a 32 percent survival rate in the Panhandle should put the northwest antelope herds back on the road to recovery in 1975.

"Adult antelopes showed a ten percent increase on 331 sections in the northern part of the Permian Basin and the Panhandle survey showed a 37 percent increase from 1974 to 1975," said Jack Parsons, P&W regional wildlife director.

These good reports from the field and continuing excellent range conditions should prompt the P & W department to issue the normal number of permits to the landowners for the Permian Basin antelope season Oct. 4-12 and the Panhandle antelope season Oct. 4-7, 1975.

Hunter success since 1960 has been high with 91 percent of the antelope hunters bagging their animal. The wide open country that the antelope inhabit make it easier for the hunter to see and bag his buck.

"Most of the antelope herds consisted of six or seven does and a buck in the Panhandle region survey," David Dvorak, project wildlife biologist at Canyon said. "However, we spotted one large herd of 23 animals on one ranch."

Antelope permits are normally issued to the landowners the latter part of August. Sportsmen are reminded to contact the prospective landowner and arrange the antelope hunt while the permits are being issued.

The antelope season in Texas has become very popular and the permits go fast. This is also a good time to get your rifle in shape for the hunt with a few hours on the target range developing that long antelope load.

TEXAS TALK

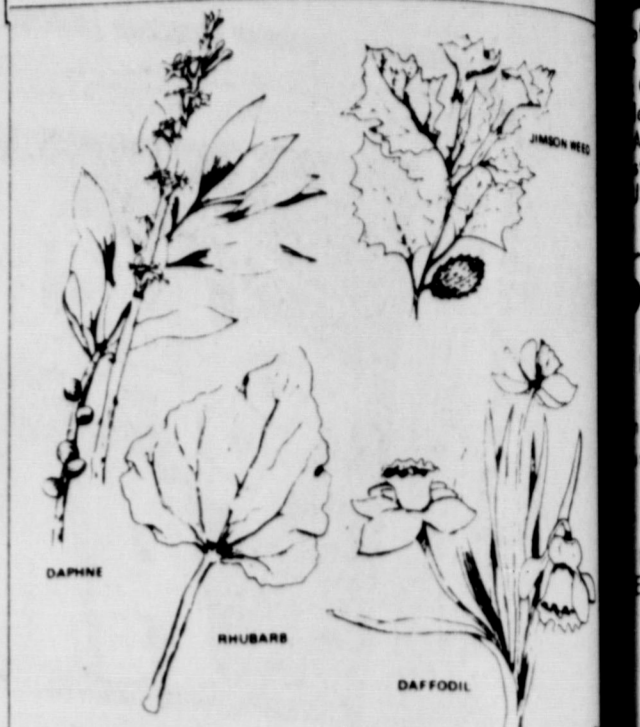

By George Richardson

Protein potency is one of the terms being used to describe the positive aspects of beef promoters arguments supporting the favorable factors of beef protein versus plant protein. The beef backer with one of the most impressive data accumulations to support the meat producers position is Dr. Bruce Taylor, an animal nutritionist at Arizona University. Dr. Taylor says one of the most important aspects of judging protein is an evaluation of the amount of protein actually utilized by the body compared to the amount of intake. Using a scale with egg protein rated at 100, Dr. Taylor says beef would rate at 80 and corn and milo at 50. Citing statistics based on feeding out a 650 pound steer with a ton of grain. Dr. Taylor says the human body would actually utilize exactly the same weight of protein whether consuming the 160 pounds of protein in the feed or the 112 pounds in the finished steer. His final conclusion . . . a choice between corn and milo or beef.

Safety Sense

PRETTY POISON

It may be hard to believe, but there are many plants that grow in a peaceful meadow, along a quiet river, or in your own backyard that can be labeled as poison just as one labels a bottle of ammonia or a container of furniture polish.

Included in the more than 700 species of plants in the United States and Canada that are known to cause death or illness are some of nature's most delicate creations the oleander bush, the lily of the valley, and the rhododendron.

Each year an estimated 12,000 children ingest these plants and others like them. A Seattle study revealed that 10 percent of 100 child poisoning cases observed were of youngsters who had eaten toxic plants, and that in six of these cases, the children's parents had no idea the plants were dangerous.

As a public service, CIBA-GEIGY Corporation has published a booklet entitled, Plants That Poison, which lists plants dangerous to ingest. A leading U.S. chemical company, CIBA-GEIGY creates and manufactures a wide variety of products that make life healthier and more pleasant, including pharmaceuticals, agricultural products, dyes, plastics, and consumer products.

In your garden for example, even the foliage of potatoes and tomatoes contain alkaloid poisons. If eaten, when swallowed, can cause stomach upset. Most dangerous of all plants in the vegetable garden is rhubarb, stalk, commonly used in baking and cooking is toxic, but the leaf blades containing oxalic acid which crystallizes in the kidneys causes severe damage. It is essential that children and adults understand the dangers involved in ingesting plants which are not cultivated specifically for eating or only one part of which are safe to eat.

If you would like to obtain the booklet Plants That Poison, write to CIBA-GEIGY Corporation, Corporate Relations Dept., Ardsley, N.Y. 10502.

Citation By Publication
The State of Texas vs: W. D. Shedden, defendant, GREETING:
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Wheeler County, Texas, at the courthouse thereof, in Wheeler, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of 42 days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 15th day of September, 1975, at Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court on the 1st day of August, 1975, in this cause, numbered 7082 on the docket of said court and styled Getty Oil Company, plaintiff, v. W. D. Shedden, defendant. The plaintiff in said suit is Getty Oil Company and the defendant is W. D. Shedden, and is the person to whom this citation is directed.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:
Plaintiff seeks the appointment of a receiver to make an oil, gas, and mineral lease covering an undivided one-half (1/2) interest tract in the Northwest one-quarter (E/2 NW/4 SE/4) of Section Two (2), Certificate No. 1/21R, J. Poitevent Survey, Wheeler County, Texas, alleging that W. D. Shedden owns unleased minerals totalling 1/2 the mineral interest in part of said property.

Plaintiff seeks the appointment of a receiver to make an oil, gas and mineral lease covering the said property as it is to the best interests of all parties to the suit that said land be leased by a receiver for oil, gas and other minerals and more particularly that unless said receiver is appointed, plaintiff will suffer substantial damage or injury.

Further, plaintiff has made a diligent but unsuccessful effort to locate the defendant. The nature of the suit is more fully shown by plaintiff's petition which is on file.

If this citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, shall be returned unexecuted. The officer executing this writ shall properly serve the same according to the requirements of law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Wheeler, Wheeler County, Texas, this 1st day of August, 1975.

(Signed) Paul Topper, Clerk, District Court of Wheeler County, Texas.

NEWS OF Travel

EXOTIC CITIES OF SOVIET CENTRAL ASIA

For those adventuresome travelers who would like to escape from the present for a time, and luxuriate in the mystery and enchantment of a place with a magical past—yet do it all in modern comfort—there is a vacation spot made to order.

It's the Central Asia Republics of the U.S.S.R. and the very names of its cities—Tashkent, Samarkand, Bukhara, Alma-Ata, Ashkhabad, Frunze and Dushanbe—hold a strange fascination for the romantics of the world.

Yet this exciting region, sharing borders with Iran, Afghanistan and China, and reaching from the Caspian Sea to the Sinkiang Province of China, is surprisingly easy to reach by air.

For friendliness and luxurious living, it's a marvelous land. The peoples of Central Asia are renowned for their hospitality. Visitors stay in comfortable hotels and dine in cafes and restaurants that offer a variety of Oriental, Russian and European foods and superb wines made of local grapes.

But it's the cities—those fantastic cities that time can't forget—that you must experience.

Tashkent, the capital of the Uzbek Soviet Socialist Republic, was founded more than 20 centuries ago. In ancient days it was a crossroads for trade routes to China, India and the East, and its atmosphere is spiced with the exotic flavor of the Orient. Among its many attractions are a tour of the Old Quarter, the Central Asian State University near tree-lined Revolutionary Square and the Museum of the History of the Peoples of Uzbekistan. You can even see a railway operated entirely by children in Komсомol Park. It is a lovely, garden city with modern buildings that contrast with magnificent ancient buildings and monuments of its historic past. Then, there is Samarkand, a city of enchantment under an incredible blue sky. It is 2,500 years old, the second largest city in the Uzbek Socialist Republic, and one of the most ancient cities in the world. It has been called "the gem of the world," "the shining point of the globe." "The city of famous shadows". It was the capital city of the 14th century Mongol despot, Tamerlane, who piled in pyramids the skulls of the people he conquered. Yet he had a sentimental side; he built the largest mosque in the Islamic world—Bibi-Khanym—in honor of his favorite wife, and today its majestic ruins rise over the city like yellow rocks.

Alexander the Great is reputed to have said: "Everything I have heard about the beauty of Samarkand is true, except that it is more beautiful than I could have imagined." Today it is a modern city boasting theaters, institutes and schools, many factories and plants; green parks and gardens.

An Uzbek city that long challenged the beauty and grandeur of Samarkand is Bukhara. Today it is a museum city, where beautiful, daring architectural monuments created in the course of a thousand years blend in a harmonious whole.

To the west is the Turkmenian Soviet Socialist Republic, whose capital, Ashkhabad, means "City of Love." It's a city of open hearts and Oriental hospitality, rebuilt after a terrible earthquake in 1948. Its buildings are decorated with ceramic and mosaic work reproducing the patterns of the magnificent Turkmenian carpets. The art of carpet making is the Turkmen national pride, and it's a rare traveler who can get one to take home.

Eastward lies Tajikistan. Its capital, Dushanbe, ringed on three sides by mountains, which create a refreshingly moderate climate. The city has beautiful parks and architecture, which although modern, is Oriental in style.

In the Kirghiz Republic farther east, is the capital city of Frunze in the hills of the Kirghiz mountains. Frunze is one of the most lushly green cities in the world. In fact, every year a quarter of a million new trees are planted in the city, which make it seem like a giant botanical garden.

You can end up your tour of Russia's Central Asia Republics with a visit to Kazakhstan and its capital, Alma-Ata, considered one of the most beautiful cities in the Soviet Union. This is a major educational, scientific and cultural center, with sports stadiums, galleries, fine new buildings and modern buildings—every lining the streets.

Full information about travel to these exotic cities can be obtained at Travel Bureaus acting as agents, Intourist or by writing Intourist Travel Information Office, 45 East 19th Street, New York, N.Y. 10011.
