MUSTANGS HEAD SOUTH TO BATTLE SHAMROCK IRISH FRIDAY NIGHT

The Wheeler Mustangs will make the short trip to Shamrock Friday night intent on spoiling the Irish homecoming and bringing their record back to the .500 mark.

at the hands of front running Wellington but this will not deter the effort put forth by both teams.

speed in the backfield. James Kingston and Steven Stokes are two backs the Irish use that the Mustangs must not let have too much daylight and Wheeler will probably have to face another top runner in the person of Jackie Thompson, 150 lb. fullback, who didn't play last week against Memphis.

and 5 man defensive front but like to use the 6 more and run variations off of this basic set. Plagued by nagging illness, the Mustangs hope to have everyone in pretty good shape for the Shamrock game that is strictly an elimination battle for the black and gold.

against Wellington but some breakdowns hurt us in the fourth quarter", Coach Robinson told the weekly Quarterback Club meeting. The Mustangs head coach went on to say, "Our workouts have been real good and our kids are ready to get with Shamrock this week."

ROCKETS BLAST MUSTANGS 29-6

The Wheeler Mustangs scored first and were behind by only a point going into the final quarter against the No. 2 rated team in the state in Class A, but the Wellington Skyrockets finally showed their class and won going away last Friday night 29-6.

The only real offensive spark the Mustangs showed in the game resulted in their only touchdown.

After a scoreless first period, the Mustangs got the pigskin at the Wheeler 28 following a punt and on the first play, Don Brown located Willis behind the Wellington secondary at the Skyrocket 42 and lofted the ball to the speeding split end who then proceeded to win the foot race to the end zone and the Mustangs had a surprising 6-0 lead after Jim Verden's extra point kick sailed wide to the left.

Game Statistics:	Wheeler	Wellington
First Downs	10	29
Net Yards Rushing	61	354
Net Yards Passing	72	87

Good defensive teams have been able to stymie the Mustangs attack so far this year and the coaching staff will be working hard to correct this prior to the Irish contest as Shamrock has proven tough on defense against the likes of Childress, Memphis, and Clarendon.

By David Britt
The Wheeler Mustangs scored first and were behind by only a point going into the final quarter against the No. 2 rated team in the state in Class A, but the Wellington Skyrockets finally showed their class and won going away last Friday night 29-6.

A breakdown defensively in the final minute of the first half by Wheeler enabled the Skyrockets to score and go ahead 7-6 with 52 seconds remaining on the clock.

The Mustangs had Wellington on the Skyrockets 18 with 1:18 to play in the second quarter and were nursing a six point margin when the Skyrockets ran a triple reverse for the second time in the game and this was the time that all of the Mustangs were fooled.

Shane Tarver was finally forced out of bounds at the Wheeler 25 by Rob Willis and the Rockets scored two plays later.

Remember only 1 day left to get ready to BEAT SHAMROCK. Last Friday the Wheeler Mustangs lost to Wellington by a score of 29-6. There were a few bright spots, but overall the Mustangs did not play well. We were in the ball game until the fourth quarter, only trailing by a single point 7-6. In the fourth quarter the Skyrockets scored 22 points while the Mustangs failed to score.

Here & There

Ms. Laura Guthrie small certainly was a crusher for a while this last week. Not only was our team defeated, but some local people traveled to Lubbock Tech game had to be pangs of frustration. A big representative of our town went to Lubbock. I wouldn't try to blame, but I do that the First Nat-Bank turned out on a Saturday. A band also had there by chartered. An sure there will report of that elsewhere in this paper. Mrs. Wofford had a happy birthday. Her husband, Bill and Marie Jett and Roy Bradstreet and wife Nell accompanied them that far. But became ill there and was taken to the hospital at Pampa. Mrs. Fouts mother, Marvin Bradstreet son from Pampa and DelLeon Friday returned Saturday. Report is that, after acquiring a blood transfusion, of very rare blood, Bill is resting, but still critical.

EARLY MORNING FIRE: Wheeler volunteer firemen were called to 700 Grove Street in Wheeler to extinguish a house fire at that location. The fire at the Stepp residence reported to the City Police about 12:30. The fire started in the bathroom of the house possibly in the nest of a pack rat. The bathroom and a portion of the room received heavy damage from the blaze with the remainder of the house receiving heavy smoke damage. The Wheeler Fire Department was called to investigate a possible fire at Loyd's Ben Franklin on Aug 30, a false alarm, the last fire was a car in July.

The Percy Farmers are also at Lake Proctor. An sure the Taylors are glad to have friends around. However Mrs. Bradstreet reports that "people are wonderful."

Paul and Cordie Shumate have returned from a visit to Youngstown, Ohio to visit their daughter, Lavem McGurk and husband Tommy. Also they visited a grandson, Mike Wilson in Dayton. As I have said before, I won't waste much time talking about last week's football game except to say that I'm sorry we didn't win. Mustangs, nobody said that victory would come easy! You will never have anything given to you! You are only as good a team as you want to be, and as long as there is one second left on the clock you have that one second to use to your advantage. Mustangs, you should consider yourself very lucky to have such loyal fans. The support from the townspeople was tremendous last Friday night, everyone was involved in the game. I will have to say also that I was never so proud of our pep club, their spirit was high at the start and remained that way until the game was over. I would also like to thank all the people who came to our Chile supper Friday night. Remember fans, we need your support again this week when we travel to Shamrock to beat the Irish! WHS Pep Club Elizabeth Grimes, Pres.

LINES FROM LINDA

Linda Horton - Asst. CEA

Spice is the variety of life—in today's world of food, but in days gone by they served a more basic purpose.

Briefly tracing the history of spices can help us understand their use today. Spices have been used for centuries to extend man's food reserve. In 1495, Vasco de Gama sailed two ships 24,000 miles in a round trip from Portugal to India and brought back spices and other products worth 60 times the cost of the voyage.

Spices are valuable because they help stretch inadequate food supplies. For that reason, during the Middle Ages a pound of ginger was worth a sheep, and a pound of mace, three sheep or half a cow.

Pepper, most valuable as a preservative, was counted out in individual peppercorns—a sack of pepper was said to be worth a man's life.

Some spices disguised the flavor of spoiled food, but others were preservatives that helped keep meat for a year or more without refrigeration.

Cloves, for example, contain the chemical eugenol that inhibits the growth of bacteria. In fact, this is still used to preserve Virginia ham.

When they had no spices, people often went hungry because they couldn't store enough food to carry them through the winter.

Today's homemakers use vinegar as well as preservatives—particularly useful in making jellied products.

Adding spices to some foods is necessary because otherwise they can host spoilage organisms or undergo chemical changes before being eaten.

As well as purchasing herbs at the market, herbs can be dried at home.

Homemakers can obtain the finest herb flavor by drying herb leaves rapidly in a well ventilated, dry, dark room, with stems tied in bundles.

Rapid drying away from light is especially important for the tender-leaf herbs—basil, tarragon, mint and parsley. This helps hold their color and flavor and prevents molding.

Less succulent leaf herbs such as sage, rosemary, thyme and summer savory contain less moisture and can be partially dried in the sun without affecting their flavor.

To prepare for drying, cut stems two or three inches from tip. If leaves are gritty or dusty, wash in cold water and drain thoroughly. Tie the twigs in bunches and hang to dry—or spread them thinly over a screen in a dark airy place.

As soon as the leaves are thoroughly dry, separate them from the stems and pack in tight containers away from air. This prevents loss of the essential oils that give flavor and fragrance.

Tight tin cans, sealed waxed cardboard containers or glass jars may be used. But glass jars should be painted black, wrapped in dark paper or stored in a dark place to keep the herbs from losing color.

For drying small quantities of parsley, celery tops and mint, dip the stem and leaves quickly into boiling salted water, shake them dry and spread on racks in a cool oven. When thoroughly dried, they may be powdered and stored in covered glass jars.

Two final thoughts for best results in herb drying: Young leaves at the tip of stems have more flavor than larger, older leaves.

The ideal time for gathering is when the plant begins to flower.

TEXAS TALK
By George Richardson

Some of the facts were found. During the upward grain sale to Russia the farmer came off as the guy. To keep things in perspective let's look at that were hard to find headlines. It takes one bushel of wheat to make seven loaves of ordinary bread. Give or take depending on wheat and milling methods. If prices increased one dollar per bushel, then it takes a degree in calculation to figure out the increase is more than one and a half cents a loaf. The news media hang up on bread being a dollar a loaf. If bread is going to be a dollar a loaf and if that increase were caused by farm prices, wheat would have to go FORTY DOLLARS A BUSHEL. If it happens have less to read since efforts used producing column will be diverted plowing up the back yard the front yard . . . the neighbor's yard . . .

Allison News

By Mrs. Bob Cornell
The news this week is a mixture of last weeks news and the past week. Sorry for being late with it but that seems to be a recurring habit of mine.

The Clifton Boydston had as their guests for a few days Shirley and son Chris Chadwick of Davidson, Okla.
The early part of the week of the 2th found several families from the community journeying to Ft. Worth for the United Pentecostal General Conference. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Harrison accompanied by their daughter, Vivan and Janet Wallace of Raton, N.M. The Wallaces came Tuesday and spent the night and left early Wednesday for the conference.

Other attending were Juanita Boydston, Margaret Boydston, and the Clifton Boydston family accompanied by Mike Hulce of Dumas. Every one returned on Wednesday except Rev. Cornell who remained an extra day for further meetings.

Clifton and Louise stopped by on their way back from Ft. Worth at Davidson for a visit with Shirley and Chris before they left for Heidelberg, Germany to join Steve. They were to leave Lawton, Okla. this past Thursday, the 9th. This makes the second tour of duty for the Steve Chadwicks. They were over there earlier in their Army career. This time will be a little tougher on the parents of Steve and Shirley since they will welcome their second child while overseas. Good luck to all. Patience grandparents.

Last Sunday Evelyn, Darla, Paul and Daniel Elliott of Wheeler also Frankie and Junior stopped for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank George. Mr. George was to report to the doctor in Cheyene this Monday.

Mrs. Elizz Lane is a patient in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. She is the mother of Leon Lane.

The past couple of weeks have found several of our community, Gary, Linda, Kevin and Kim Hall have journeyed to Dallas to visit Six Flags and other sights.

This week finds Rex and Virginia Miller, George and Avis Parker, Red and Evelyn Dukes of Allison, Dub and Bessie Crenshaw of Shamrock have gone to Lake Falcon for a short vacation and a lot of fishing. They were to meet some other friends for a real fine get-together.

Bill Miller and Ruby Robinson have gone on a visiting trip which will take them to Midland, Texas, Portales and Carlsbad. In Carlsbad they plan on visiting Bill's sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertha Ong.

This past Tuesday was Archie Dillon's 87th birthday. Altho' late we all wish him Happy Birthday and many, many more. They had for their dinner guests on Sunday their grandson, Jim Miller.

Rev. Vern West filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church this past Sunday. Brother West is a missionary in Kenya, Africa. His mother from Cheyene accompanied him.

Weekend before last Zeland and Charlene Rainey traveled to Madowe, Okla. to visit Lester Hall. Clydene and children had gone down earlier in the weekend and a fine time was had by all.

Basketball season is gradually creeping upon us. The first game for Junior High will be October 23 with Mobeetie. High School has their first game Nov. 6 with Sweetwater, Okla. Let's support both of our sets of kids. They play hard and we should support them just as firmly.

The Jr. and Sr. Class sponsored their second trap shoot this season. Again they had a successful and good turnout. They wish to thank all the sponsors and participators. There will be other activities and we will try to get them into the column soon enough for every body to have a chance for participation.

The United Methodist Women are again sponsoring their Harvest Dinner. It will be on Saturday, Nov. 1 from 6 to 9 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from any U.M.W. member. Be sure and support this affair for the ladies can really present a good meal and never mind the calories. All you have to do is pay the small charge and bring a big healthy appetizer.

yards shy of the first down at the Colt 15 after a pickup of five on a pass.

On the lone Colt treat, Jeff Christian had an 18 yard run which was the Colts biggest gainer of the game.

In contrast to the Colt-Firecracker game, the Mustangs JV and Skyrocket JV game saw 52 points light up the scoreboard with the Mustangs coming out by a wide 40-12 margin.

Although beaten by 28 points, the Mustangs JV gave a good account of themselves and were in the ball game until a fumbled pitch gave Wellington the ball at the Wheeler 37 and the Rockets quickly capitalized on the break and scored their third touchdown to put the game out of reach of the outmanned Mustang JV.

The Mustangs blew an early opportunity to score when Myron Jolly fumbled at the Wellington 2 and the Skyrockets showed their superiority by driving 98 yards to paydirt.

Marvin Grimes, who played one of his best games, broke through on a quick opener the second play after Wellington had taken the lead and showed some real speed as he dashed 68 yards to knot the game at six all.

Trailing 21-6, the Mustangs thwarted a bid by Wellington to stretch their lead just at halftime when Jolly intercepted a Skyrocket aerial at the Mustang 1 and ran it back to the 20.

Wellington had put all 40 of their points on the scoreboard when the Mustangs tallied their second six pointer.

Curtis Ryan returned a Rocket punt 35 yards to the Wellington 46 and Jolly capped an eight play drive as he sneaked over from the 1.

A 7 yard pass play from Jolly to Chad Conwell on third down set the stage for Jolly's touchdown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bass of Cheyene, Okla. visited with Lorene Errington on Sun.

by Wills stopped a Skyrocket threat at the Wheeler 10 after the visitors had taken the second half kickoff and had just run right at the Mustangs and had moved from the Wellington 20 to the Wheeler 35.

The Skyrockets had driven on the ground to the 35 and George Brewer chose to go to the air and Wills picked the pass off at the 10 and returned 11 to the 21.

So effective was the Skyrocket defense in the last half, the Mustangs could make only five first downs and three of them came on penalties.

Wellington started their second TD march late in the third period after a 54 yard boot by Verden to the Wellington 12. This time the Rockets stayed on the ground for the entire 88 yards and Davis capped the 12 play drive with a 2 yard slant at left tackle. Davis ran the two points in to up Wellington's margin to 15-6 with 9:41 remaining in the game.

Wheeler managed to get out to their 9 after the Wellington touchdown but were forced to kick and the Skyrockets came roaring back downfield for another touchdown.

Brewer passed to Edward Thomas for 14 yards to get the drive underway from the Wellington 30. Three running plays picked up 23 yards to put the ball at the Wheeler 33. A 24 yard sweep around the Mustangs right side by Tarver put the ball on the 9 and Brewer got it all on first down as he skirted the Mustangs left side this time and went over at the flag.

Faking a kick, Brewer ran for the two points and Wellington had a 23-6 lead with 3:32 to play.

Richard Sims intercepted a pass by Danny Melton on the Wellington 37 with just 1:41 remaining to set up the final Skyrocket touchdown. A big pass interference fine of 25 yards against Wheeler put the ball on the Mustang 9 and after a half the distance penalty added five more to the four, Brewer jogged off left tackle to score standing up for the final Rocket TD with 48 seconds to play.

Time ran out on the Skyrockets at the Wheeler 1 after Cliff Pennon had recovered a Del Ford fumble at the Wheeler 14 and the final tally remained at 29-6.

LEE-DAVIS VOWS ARE EXCHANGED

Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Lee.

Mrs. Jane Smith, pianist, set the mood for the reception with lonely background music. For the reception in Fellowship Hall of the church, the table was covered with a white satin, floor-length cloth with blue and white bows at each corner.

An arrangement of blue carnations, daisies, baby's breath, and white candles served as the centerpiece. The three-tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom stood on columns over a blue fountain surrounded by four heart shaped cakes.

Mrs. Cecil Pierce and Mrs. Marsha Coates of the bride, served the cake while Misses Kim Dutton and Teresa Laman served punch from the silver punch bowl. Kristi Pierce and Jennie Smith, cousins of the bride, handed out the rice bags. Others helped with the reception were Mrs. Delores Simmons and Mrs. Cathy Dunn.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a winter blue pant suit with black accessories.

The groom is a 1973 graduate of Pampa High School and is employed Prime Feeders, Inc. The couple plan to move their home in Wheeler.
