MAN DIES: Patrick Steven Hill died Sunday morning in a house fire which destroyed the residence shared by Hill and J. C. Brooks. The 21-year-old 1972 graduate of Wheeler High School died of smoke inhalation and was found still in bed after the fire has been extinguished only a foot from a window.

J. C. Brooks, asleep in a second bedroom awoke shortly before 1:00 a.m. to find the house in flames. He barely managed to reach safety and was unable to re-enter the house and reach Hill. Brooks was treated at Parkview Hospital for shock.

The house was owned by Hyland Weaver and was located 1 mile southwest of Wheeler. The cause of the fire remains unknown. The Fire Department was called to the scene and fought the fire for three hours before the body could be removed. Flames re-kindled in the 2-bedroom stucco house two times after the initial blaze.

Hill was working as a roughneck and had been a resident of Wheeler since moving from Clarendon in 1971 with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill of 1102 W. Oklahoma.

Wheeler County voters will vote in the following precincts: Mobeetie No. 1 Lion's Hut, Wheeler No. 2 School Gym, Stanley No. 3 Commissioner Court Room, Allison No. 4 School, Heald No. 5 Basement Methodist Church, Lela No. 6 Schoolhouse, Twitty No. 7 Tindall Gin Office, Shamrock No. 8 West City Hall, Shamrock No. 9 (East) American Legion Building.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill of Wheeler; one brother, Ronnie of Wheeler; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Browning of Vega and Mrs. Vergie McKenzie of Denver.

HOME COMING FEATURE TO BE MUSTANG AND BRONCHO GAME

How predictions can change and go by the boards in a matter of weeks is now evident in the title chase in District 2-A and the team that has thrown all of the prognosticators for a loop will be the Wheeler Mustangs homecoming opponent this week.

Back in the late summer and early fall when all of the football forecasts were made, the Clarendon Bronchos were picked to finish no higher than third in the district and some had even predicted a lower finish for the Bronchos.

Facing a rebuilding year with a new coaching staff after heavy graduation losses that included all state back, Kenneth King, the Bronchos have turned the tables on all of the predictions and come into Nicholson Field Friday night undefeated and only a tie with Quanah to mar their record.

The Mustangs whipped the pre-season favorite Memphis Cyclones last week and barring a major upset will go into their season finale with co-leader Wellington with the district championship on the line.

With a 2-2 district record, the Wheeler Mustangs find themselves now in the roll of spoilers and nothing would suit them any better than to derail the Bronchos in what will be the final game, at least for a few years, between Wheeler and Clarendon.

The Mustangs should be in top shape for the Clarendon game as Don Brown has been given the green

MUSTANGS TAME TIGERS

The Wheeler Mustangs drove 63 yards following the second half kickoff for the touchdown that put them in the lead for the first time and then made it stand up for a 12-10 victory over the McLean Tigers last Friday night in McLean.

McLean led at halftime 10-6 and all of the points scored in the first two quarters were set up by fumbles. Wheeler lost the ball on their 23 and 35 to allow the Tigers to get their 10 points and the Tigers turned the ball over to the visiting Mustangs on the McLean 21 to set up the 17 yard touchdown pass from Bo Guthrie to Rob Willis.

The Mustangs lost the handle on the ball five times in the game and each time the Tigers recovered which helped to blunt the Mustangs offense.

After recovering a Terry Tidwell fumble on the Mustang 23 late in the first quarter, the Tigers needed only four plays to get to the end zone with Sammy Haynes going over from 9 yards out and with the kick good on the extra point try, the Tigers had a 7-0 lead at 2:36.

Jim Verden put the Tigers in a deep hole just before the first quarter ended with a 55 yard boot to the Tiger 19 and this punt led to the Wheeler touchdown a couple of possessions later as the Tigers had to kick and Wheeler took over on the McLean 36.

Staying on the ground, the Mustangs drove to the Tiger 17 with Dan Helton and David Massick doing the ball tating but with fourth and one from the 17, the Tigers dropped Guthrie for a three yard loss and took over on the 20.

The Tigers reprieve was short lived however as they lost the ball right back on a fumble at the 21 and the Mustangs weren't to be denied. Massick got a yard inside and Mike Izard tacked on 3 more on a sweep. Guthrie hit Willis with a quick pass and the Mustangs split end went into the end zone with his fifth TD pass reception of the year. Verden's kick was no good and the Mustangs trailed by 1 with 9:33 to play in the first half.

Time was running out in the half when McLean recovered another bobble by Tidwell on the Mustang 35. Marty Dumiven lost a couple and then passed for 27 yards to the Wheeler 11. A running play got 1 and the Mustangs drew a five yard fine to put the ball on the 4. With time nearly out, the Tigers chose to go for the three pointer

TEXAS TALK

By George Richardson

Interseeding is picking up steam around the country with greatest attention being paid to the wheat-soybean combination. Farmers have reported good results in a variety of experiments where soybean seed was planted in wheat crops to give the beans as much as 20 extra growing days. Early success of this interplanting system has been significant enough to encourage experiments with other crops such as heavier grains like corn or sorghum interseeded with small feed grains. Obviously the interseeding is most advantageous in areas with the most limited growing time. Another consideration receiving attention in non-irrigated areas is soil moisture utilization since interseeding may be a method of using early season moisture more effectively. No formal testing of the interplanting process was planned by the USDA early this fall, but observations indicated if interest continues some testing could begin next spring.

FHA Has Annual Family Night

The bi-centennial was the theme of the Annual Family Night observed by the Wheeler Chapter of Future Homemakers of America in early October. FHA members hosted the covered dish meal in honor of their parents and extended the invitation to include all family members. Lana Callahan, FHA President, welcomed the group and made introductions. Anne McIlhenny gave the devotional. "I Speak for Democracy" by Elizabeth Ellen Evans, was then read by Anne. The meal was served from tables covered with white and centered with arrangements carrying out the patriotic theme. Following the meal, recreation and entertainment was directed by FHA members. The Home-making I Class did a skit on picture painting. Appearing in this skit were: Tina Ford, Karen Helton, Holly Tennard, Kim Horton, Lynn Izard, Rhonda Jennings, Judy Moore, Terri Rarden, Kristie Rose, Brenda Wallace, Kym Watron, and Tommy Weaver as volunteer. The Homemaking II class directed an action drama involving audience participation. Narrator for the skit "An Indian Attack" was Carolyn Steen. Teresa Heley and Terri Collins lead the cowboys: Cathy Andes and Donna Lowry directed the Indians; Brenda Williams coached the women. Gwen Manning was in charge of the stage-coach. The Homemaking I Class presented a skit on relationships with others. This skit also involved audience participation. It was presented in the form of a trial with twelve jurors. Dr. LeBarbour, Mrs. Robertson and Denise Miller were "court appointed." Jenny Smith, assistant, Janice Albright, Carol Schaffer, and Ann Schaefer directed this activity. The Home and Family Living Class presented a skit on family communication. The parents were portrayed by Lana Callahan and Johnny Gilmer. The children were Brenda Jolly, Weatherly, Tommy and Elizabeth Grimes. Steve Earny appeared as the grandfather. Marilyn who interviewed the appeared as Barbara of the Today Show. The evening activities were closed with singing led by Cindy Blankets usually need a little "freshening up" after summer storage, and there are some general guides for laundering that will help.

Most blankets-wool, thermal, fiber blend, or electric are machine washable, but check the care label first to be sure.

Measure the blanket before washing so it can be stretched to original dimensions later.

Pretreat spots and stains with liquid detergent or a paste made of granulated detergent and water.

Fill washer with warm water and add detergent. Agitate briefly to dissolve detergent. Stop the machine.

Add blanket, distributing it loosely and evenly around agitator.

Let blanket soak for 10-15 minutes.

Start the machine and advance dial slowly to that blanket will not be agitated and wash water will drain out.

Spin for about 11 minutes.

Set dial for rinse cycle. Use a warm or cold rinse and allow washer to complete the rest of the cycle automatically. A fabric softener added to the final rinse will make the blanket fluffier and more static-free.

Drying blankets is also easy.

Set dryer at high setting. Tumble blanket about 10 minutes.

Check and remove from dryer while still damp to avoid shrinkage.

Stretch it to original dimensions and lay flat or over two parallel lines to finish drying.

For man-made fibers, use the permanent press cycle. These blankets can be dried completely but should be removed immediately from the dryer to prevent wrinkling.

For finishing-up touches, brush blankets gently to restore nap and press hinging with

TIGERS

The Tigers had a 10-6 lead. Massick returned the second half kickoff 15 yards to the Mustangs 37 and it took Wheeler 12 plays, all on the ground, to travel the 63 yards. The longest play in the drive was an 18 yard run by Massick from the Mustang 43 to the Tiger 39.

Following the wedge blocking of Massick and Tidwell, Helton punched into the end zone from the 1 at 7:18 and the Mustangs had the lead for the first time.

Neither the Mustangs or the Tigers could get much going the rest of the game although Wheeler was blunted by their old nemesis, the fumble, at the Tiger 33 late in the game after driving from their 23.

The Mustangs defense continually shut off the Tigers and had it not been for the Mustangs turnovers, the Tigers would have been hard pressed to put points on the board.

Coch Richard Gaines scouted the Bronchos in their win last week and reported that the Bronchos will be on of the quickest teams that the Mustangs will face. They have great pursuit on defense and execute real well on offense and have a small but speedy backfield led by quarterback Gary Jack.

"It will take a real effort to defeat Clarendon because they have the momentum going for them but our kids are ready to give this effort Friday night," Coach Jim Robinson said this week.

Prior to the kickoff of the Mustang - Broncho tilt, the homecoming queen will be crowned so it is urged that all fans get to Nicholson Field early for several weeks. She spent most of her time with her brothers and sisters at Crockett, Tex. She was at home on the week end and her Sunday dinner guests were her grandson, Stanley Baker and family, her daughter (Stanley's mother) Mona Guinn and a friend, Pauline White of White Deer and a daughter-in-law, Ed Earl Luttrell and her mother, Vivian Tabot of Elk City, Okla. They all attended the Ordination of Deacons at the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. The deacons ordained were Stanley Baker, Virgil Helton, Jim Helton, Ronnie Comer, Barry Altman and Larry Tracy.

at Alpine which is Lynda Hall Smith's Alma Mater.

Mary Finsterwald returned early in the week from a ten-day visit with her sisters at Wichita Falls and Sherman. Ten days is too long for Mary to be out of pocket. We miss her and she misses some of our activities.

It's nice to see Georgia Smith back at her place in the bank. She has been away on sick leave for a few weeks. We missed her.

I see by the Amarillo paper that Bruce Hubbard, who is a grandson of J. C. and Jewell Moore is taking an active part in the "Serving Artists" group in Amarillo. He was participating in a show last week. I'll tell you for sure, I say some of Bruce's watercolors about a year ago, and to me they were fantastic.

Colts Smash McLean Cubs 38-11

It didn't take the Wheeler Colts long to show their supremacy last Thursday night on Nicholson Field and the Cubs from McLean were the victims in the 38-16 Colt victory.

The wild offensive show put on by the Colts over the outmanned Cubs was capped by a mixture of Colt substitutes.

Holding a 30-16 lead with 1:28 to play in the game, the Colts made the scoreboard light up for the last time when Rich Brown pitched to Benny Baker on what appeared to be a sweep from the Cub 42. Baker then handed off to Kevin Andis who in turn gave the pigskin back to Brown and the only person Brown had to get around was one of the officials as he ran in the six pointer. Gary Horton punched the two point try and the Colts had their 38-16 win.

The Colts got their six touchdown parade started late in the first quarter on a quick six play drive that covered 82 yards. Jeff Christner turned the corner at his 44 and then turned it on and out in all the pursuit to the end zone with 3:08 left in the first quarter. The one phase of the Colts game that was on the weak side was their conversions after touchdowns as they made only one and this was after Brown's 42 yard run.

Benny Baker got the Colts next two touchdowns, one on a four yard plunge that gave the Colts a 12-0 halftime lead and the next on a 64 yard run two plays into the third quarter.

The Colts amassed 398 yards on the ground and picked up 14 first downs in their romp over the Cubs with Christner getting 167 yards to lead Colt rushers followed by Baker with 146 yards.

The Colts second TD covered 58 yards in eight plays to give the Colts their halftime margin that was greater than the score indicated.

After losing a yard at night end on the first play of the second half, Baker's number was dialed for a trip around the left side and there was no stopping of the speedy Colt as he dashed 64 yards to pick a dart.

Aided by two penalties against the Colts, the Cubs drove to the Wheeler 11 after the Colts third touchdown but Tommy Calverley put down the threat as he dumped the Cub ball carrier for a 9 yard loss on fourth down from the 11.

In less than a minute after stopping the Cubs the 11, the Colts had two more quick TD's and then turned the game over to the younger players.

Taking over on the Colt 20, two plays got of the 80 yards as Christner bolted the final 69 yards around the Colts right side. Baker got the drive underway with a 11 at left tackle.

Kicking off to the Colts the Colts recovered a fumble at the Cub 27 and again it was a two play drive. Baker broke at right guard and cutback to his left and was finally hauled in at the Cub 11 and that was a short try for Christner on first down.

Holding the 30-0 lead the Colts began to liberally substitute and the Colts were able to get a couple of touchdowns before Brown's run put the icing on the cake.

CRIME PREVENTION

The Wheeler County Department has launched a specific crime prevention effort aimed at protecting farms and ranches from burglary and theft. The emphasis is on reducing the burglary rate specifically through a marking program known as Operation Identification.

Traditionally crime prevention efforts have been concentrated in urban areas; however, the need for this law enforcement service became apparent, and the program has widened in scope to include more remote regions. The overall concept is to teach people in the community to take steps that eliminate the opportunity for crime.

The greatest contribution to the success of crime prevention efforts anywhere is public participation, and that is the primary area of appeal.

"We realized that we were overlooking an important problem," said Sheriff Bus Dorman. "Farms and ranches present a big burglary and theft risk because equipment is very valuable, and the criminal can move about easily with no one around for miles.

The crime rate in rural areas has risen along with the urban and suburban areas. Farming and ranching equipment is initially more expensive than small appliances found in most homes, so the loss amount per item average is higher in rural areas.

Because the amount of losses has been so great, it has created a demand for preventative measures and the involvement of the crime prevention unit.

"Not all items on a farm or ranch can be locked up. Tools, tractors, pumps, implements and riding gear need to be protected from thieves by a system of permanent identification -- sort of like branding cattle," said Dorman.

To implement Operation Identification, each individual is asked to mark possessions with his Texas driver's license number, always using the TX prefix. (example: TX 5311212) Then he is asked to display warning signs around the property saying that his valuables are protected by Operation Identification.

The driver's license numbers for all states are easily and quickly retrieved. Stolen items can then be readily identified and returned to the rightful owner.

As part of the farm and ranch Operation Identification program, electric and non-electric engravers as well as steel dies are used to make the permanent markings.

"We know that it takes time and trouble to mark everything you value--that includes household items as well as tools, machinery, riding gear and equipment. But we also know that Operation Identification works, because the opportunity for easy disposal of the stolen items is made a lot. And that's why the Wheeler County Sheriff's Department is willing to do all we can to help the people in our area working with the program. For further information, Operation Identification contact: Wheeler County Sheriff's Department at 825-3211.

Spelling Bee

Mrs. Leon Fillingim, Wheeler County Department of Education has been named to direct the activities for the 1976 Wheeler County Spelling Bee, to be held in conjunction with the 28th annual competition, co-sponsored by the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University.

April 24, 1976, will be the date for the regional eliminations in Amarillo and the location will be the Stephen F. Austin Junior High School.

There will be 46 counties represented.

The area assigned the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University covers 29 counties in the Texas Panhandle, 10 in Oklahoma, four in New Mexico and three in Kansas.

All students in the public and parochial schools are eligible to participate. Any student who will not have reached his (or her) 16th birthday or gone beyond the eighth grade at the end of the current school term, will be eligible to enter any school contest and participate in the county eliminations.

All details of the county's Bees will be available from the director.

The Scripps-Howard Newspapers, headquartered in New York City, are the National sponsors. Last year more than 7-1/2 million school children participated at local levels throughout the United States.

A unique opportunity is offered the elementary grade students to compete in the Amarillo Globe-News-WTSU event. Boys and girls in sixth and lower grades spell in the "Junior Division" and each county may send a champion in this category. The elementary county champion will not compete in the regional contest in April unless they should hold both titles in the respective county.

County directors have complete control over their contests and may conduct the spell-downs either verbally or orally. The Amarillo regional contest will be oral competition.

Most schools use the booklet prepared by the national sponsors, "Words of the Champions". The 1975 issue may be obtained by writing: Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, 209 L. Amarillo, Texas. The price of the book is 75 cents.

The champions from Wheeler County in 1975 were: Senior Division: Renee Henry; Junior Division: Ty Henderson. A student in the Wheeler Junior High School, from Wheeler, Texas.

An all-expense paid trip to national competition will be held in Washington, D.C. early in June, 1976, will be awarded the regional champion when he is named in April.

Gene Parker, director of placement at West Texas State University, is the coordinator. Spelling Bee Editor is Mrs. Jeanne Bartlett, Amarillo Globe-News.

Interested students, teachers and school officials may contact the Amarillo Globe-News for additional information.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

(S.J.R. NO. 11)

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present dedication of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976, except Article VIII, Section 2, Subsections (b) and (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1978, and Article VIII, Section 6, Subsection (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the GENERAL PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.
