The Brown's Sunday dinner guest

This Monday morning in Allison, it's cloudy, windy and cold. The weather can change so quick sometime. Sunday was a beautiful sunny, warm day with hardly any wind.

This week's happenings:

My son, Jerry Gilmer of Amarillo came Sunday afternoon, April 29th.

We attended the U.P. Church Sunday night. He visited with me until Wednesday morning. He left a few minutes after seven on his way home. Enjoyed having him, we got in a lot of visiting but he also got in a lot of work around the place while here.

I appreciate so very much, it was outside jobs. The wind blew so very hard both on that Monday and Tuesday and Jerry was doing some painting on the eves of the house, which made it pretty difficult, but he was trying to redeem the time, while he was here.

Then on Wednesday was a nice calm day, but he had to go home that morning.

We don't control the weather, that's for sure.

Cathy was in Albuquerque, N.M. on business and was to get back to Amarillo airport that evening at seven fifteen, between my son-in-law, Darrel, grandson, Mark, and Jerry, they have the outside work that I can't do pretty well caught up.

Darrel and Johnnie Harrison of Amarillo visited me on Saturday afternoon. Always enjoy having any and all of them when ever they can come.

Vance Boydston was in Oklahoma City over the weekend to be with Caroline. He got home Sunday night and said she was some improved.

A few of the U.P. Church ladies went to Wheeler last Tuesday morning to the Care Center and entertained the residents with Gospel singing and music.

Hiram and Darenda Begert were in Shreveport, La., last week for business reasons.

Roma and Billy Brown were in Amarillo last Monday for Billy to see the doctor. Sunday the Brown's dinner guest was Thursia Poindexter from Cheyenne.

Recently Opal, Juanita and Curtis Boydston attended a birthday celebration for Opal's brother, Warren Brown's 80th birthday at Amarillo.

On Wednesday, April 25th, Opal attended a secret grandmother and granddaughter tea party at the school cafeteria to reveal their secret granddaughter.

Peggy Chandler's recent house guest for a week were Melvin and Betty Sue Stinnett from Buena Vista, Colo. Saturday dinner guests were Melvin and Betty Sue, Brad and Sue Chandler and their little granddaughter, Audra Weatherly, of Wheeler. Brad and Sue have a little grandson, born May 5, to Shea and Bridget Weatherly, he has a big sister, twoyear-old, Audra, all of Wheeler. The new baby's name is Hagen Shea Weatherly. He weighed 8 lbs., 4 ozs.

Ruby Craig and Wilma Gilmer were in Wheeler last Saturday, going to garage sales. Rhonda McWhorter

Friends of Willa Fillngim will be glad to know that the coon that bit her was not rabid. Yea!

While in Amarillo Friday Vea and Willa visited their sister, Faye Sell, at "The Bee Hive," a convalescent place. Fae can't walk but has her sewing machine there. She stays very busy piecing quilts and other craft. Pray for Faye. She did get to go to her home near Perryton, when they worked cattle one weekend. Friday night, nice group at XYZ and included Marion Grimes, who gave the devotional. Doyle and Bulah Grimes, Doris Finsterwald, Brother Marjorye Savage Heeney grew up in Hammon, Oklahoma, Roger Mills County. She graduated from Hammon High School in 1944. She now lives in Topeka, Kansas.

Bob Meller, J. P. and Martha Meek, Nadine Lane, Leonard and Bertha Hollis and Willis and Verna Fillingim. 2 tables of 42 and one of Spinner. Delicious food. Sorry several regulars were unable to be there. Congratulations to John and Laura Lea Walser on the birth of their new baby girl, Gwendolyn Brooke, born April 23, at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. She weighed 7 lbs. 14 ozs. and was 20 inches long. She was welcomed by big sister, Brittany, 2; and proud grandparents, Jerel and Diane Norris and Melvin and Donna Walser, all of Canadian. Also greatgrandmother, Agnes Adams and Gracie Pearl Norris of Canadian.

"Do not doubt God's tender mercy, Trust His word and seek his way; You will find His grace sufficient For the burdens of today.

-from Daily Bread Willa and Vea Fillingim were invited to come to Amarillo Friday to speak about animals and show pictures to Andrea Dobbs' 4th and 5th grade classes, but couldn't take any live animals. They took pictures of animals and talked some about life in the "Olden days". Ruth Irvine took them to Amarillo and also took grandson, Zachary Tipps, to the doctor for a checkup. The foot he broke on the ski trip has healed, but some problems from the sprain. He has a brace to wear. Pray for Zach.

Willa took chickens and kittens and a cat to the laundry in Wheeler for a petting zoo. She forgot the rabbits. Think she gave them all away Saturday.

Kaleb and Marti Meek visited Evelyn Meek awhile Sunday afternoon. Kaleb graduates from Bethaney Nazarene University on May 12. They will be leaving soon afterward to move to Florida to build houses. Congratulations, Kaleb.

Kaleb and Marti Meek and helpers did a great job reshingling Gageby church last weekend and did it quickly. Looks so nice. Several helped with their meals.

Troy and Betsy Herrel were out to Gageby church Wednesday night. They had wintered at Donna, Texas. Getting hot down there. They were spending several days with Aaron and Claudetta Laverty and planned to go to Panfork Senior Day before heading back to their home near Denver. But not too anxious to brave the rain and snow there. Good to see them again. Troy was married to Aaron's sister before she died. He has known Betsy and her husband, now deceased, for several years.

Going to Foss Lake for a weekend "catch and release" tournament were Jimmy Nelson, who won first in total weight, Danny Nelson and Jimmy Maddox and several from Wheeler.

We got some wonderful rain Thursday night and Friday. Most got 1 1/2" to 2 inches. Enough to make our roads muddy. Willis started to turn around once, and got badly stuck. Had to walk close to a mile to get home. Many thanks to David and Rita Pearson for pulling the car out and bringing it home. Yea! We went with J. P. and Martha Meek to XYZ.

Glenda Hudson and grandson Patrick Hudson have been staying at Briscoe this week. Sonya had to have some surgery at Amarillo and then stayed with friends to recuperate. Glenda took Patrick to Wheeler to school each day. Friday she was going to pick him up at 3:30 at Wheeler and they would go on to El Reno for the weekend with Papa Ray. There were exciting activities at El Reno, including a huge 750 lb. hamburger. Amy and Danielle Nelson from Miami were weekend visitors to Larry and Vickey Nelson at Briscoe.

Many friends and relatives gathered at Country Chapel Saturday night for the beautiful wedding uniting Joannie Hibler an Doug Adams. Best wishes to all.

Sincere sympathy to family and friends of Glenn D. Hodges in his death Saturday night at his home. He was a sweet guy. We will miss him. Funeral was Tuesday at Mobeetie Baptist Church.

Billy Stuckey and Lou Dean Douthit visited Debbie and Bob Kinnaman Saturday afternoon. The girls fixed each other's hair. Bob cooked hamburgers for the group.

Visiting Edna May Thursday night for a friendly foursome were Dou Dean, Irene Keys and Virginia Puryear for pot luck supper and fun games of 42 and chatting.

Verneal Prater got home from Pampa Hospital Sunday. Dr. David Hampton removed two or three small bones from his back bone that were pressing on nerves. He can walk much better now and feels he had a great doctor. He said pray for him.

Gageby Singing

We had a great singing at Gageby Church Sunday night with several from Mobeetie, Allison and Briscoe. Some singing were Winnie Gilmer, Brittainy Laverty, Marion Grimes, Judi Cornell, Doris Finsterwald with Marion, Lois Meadows with Evelyn and Martha Meek, Bill Stiles with Guitar, Bro. Bob Meller with Nadine Lane, Johnny Crawford. Also singing were Mobeetie Good News Club: Brandon Finsterwald, Tisha McLaughlin, Andi Martinez, Jayton Childress and Brittainy Laverty. Sounding really good was the Mobeetie Baptist Choir: Dale and Melba Corcoran, Don and Willene Burke, Jerrie Martinez, Sallie Adcock, Doris Finsterwald, Bob Meller, Nadine Lane, Tisha McLaughlin and Marion Grimes with Gaye Hale playing the piano. Some giving good readings were Willa Fillingim, Helen Crawford, Kay Stiles, Winnie Gilmer.

Testimony from Judi Cornell, harmonica hymn by Willis and update on the planned area crusade with Rick Gage by Bob Meller. (It will be September at Wheeler Football field). There was a beautiful feast after the singing. Next time singing will be at Mobeetie, June 3.

We like Jane Bright's

Hot Chicken Salad 2 cups cut up chicken or turkey 2 cups thinly sliced celery 1/2 cup chopped almonds (or slivered)

- 1/2 tsp. salt 2 tsp. grated onion
- 1/2 to 3/4 cup mayonaise
- 2 Tablespoons lemon juice.

1/2 cup grated cheese (cheddar or velveeta)

1 cup crushed potatoe chips. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix all ingredients except cheese and potato chips and put in 9x13 casserole dish or pan. Sprinkle cheese and chips on top. Bake 15-30 minutes. May double for a crowd and bake on cookie sheet. Spray or lightly grease pan. Thanks, Jane.

Sympathy to family and friends of Jane (Puryear) Carter, 80, in her death Monday at Amarillo. Jane grew up here near where Charles and Lajo Crownover live. She graduated in our Briscoe Class of 1938. She was a beautiful lady and a good friend. Grandson, Shane Davis, also attended Briscoe School some.

Nice to have our son, Danny and Preston and Elsie Glazner join us for supper at Wheeler Dairy Queen Tuesday night and a good visit. Danny and Chris are at Elk City at their home there between pipeline jobs. He had a lot of tree trimming and branches to clean up and burn. Also at Wheeler Dairy Queen were John Clyde and Albert Helton.

Correction: Lou Ella Saunders Hall did not attend Dixon School. Lou Dean went to school at Pampa with her. So she went to her funeral. Maybe her husband went to Dixon.

The Senior Citizens of Wheeler met May 7 at the center for good food and fellowship. There was no May birthdays so we all ate the delicious angel food cake baked by Joyce Perkins. The center was a bloom with red roses and so pretty done by Jo Redding and Joyce Perkins.

Those playing games and visiting were new member Hannah Fae Chapman, Laverna and Willis Fillingim, Helen Sabbe, Iona May, Joyce Perkins, Martha Meek, Elsie Hughes, Elva Wood, Jo Redding, Lou Dean Douthit and Mary Margaret Dodd. "God be with you till we meet again."

My sister, Lorena Males, Cheyenne, Oklahoma gave me a copy of The Golden Book of Favorite Songs. I remember it well. There must have been at least 30 copies in every schoolhouse in Roger Mills County. From that book, we learned "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," and "America, the Beautiful." During vocal music lessons, our teachers taught us flag etiquette-the correct positon of the flag on the stage, its position in relationship to other flags, and what to do with a flag when it is frayed and no longer presentable.

One night, Cousin Mary Nell, Sister Iris, and I were sleeping three deep in a toasty warm bed. From a nearby room, I heard the national anthem being played on the radio. Earlier that day, I had learned that we should stand when our national anthem is played, so I jumped to my feet from the middle of the bed to prove that I was patriotic. In the process, I dislodged my bedmates from the warmth of their spots, and they lost no time in giving me a physical lesson about the proper time to follow that rule.

Our historic proximity to the Civil War was evidenced by our frequent rendition of such songs as "Dixie," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "John Brown's Body," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," and "Just Before the Battle, Mother." During World War II, we revived a couple of World War I songs for programs and at sing-alongs-"When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and "Keep the Home Fires Burning.

Stephen C. Foster's music was a staple because we all knew the lyrics. His songs were melodious with their tender stories of the slaves and their masters.

Robert Burns' beautiful "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "Auld Lang Syne," and "Comin' Thro' the Rye" represented the sentimentality of this poetic Scotsman.

Our Irish population was represented by Thomas Moore, who wrote tender lyrics such as "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "The Last Rose of Summer."

A HANDKERCHIEF FOR MY TEARS

By: Lorena g. Males Mothers' Day approaches and we all think of our mothers. I miss Mama in so many ways but most of all I miss The Handkercheif.

Mama and I were partners in everything I ever did in the entertainment world. She taught me piano lessons when I was six. She encouraged me from her wheel chair just before she died. She was in her nineties. She was never failing.

Mama always went with me to do a program. Just before we'd leave home to go she'd hand me The Handkerchief and say, "you might need it, and, besides a pretty handkerchief makes you look good on stage. A klenex won't do."

No second class handerchief was that. By Mama's standards it must be as lovely as she could find for The Handerchief had many important roles to play.

Within The Handerchief there was encouragement to do my best, to dry my tears, to appreciate my opportunities.

Thank you, Mama, for leaving a part of yourself, tied up in The Handercheif.

Your unselfish ways-you always wanted to be a speaker and a career girl-instead you pushed all eight of your children and poured yourself into their lives. Your devotion was a part of each child's life. Each one has his own handkerchief.

Yes, I miss Mama. Sometimes when the telephone rings I just know its she: (for a moment) I miss her smile, her good fried chicken, her lively arguments.

She tied up The Handkerchief before she went away. She left me a little courage, a little determination and a handkerchief full of love. * * * *

Dear Mom,

Thank you for my old baby doll. I like it. Every day I think about it. I wish it was not so old so I could play with it. It is cute and I love her blue eyes. I like to move her up and down. I wish I had another one just like that. I don't care what color it is. I don't care if the doll is tall or short.
