Washington Senators Flying High; Mackmen Hit Hard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Johnson's flashy Washington Senators pushed the subdued Philadelphia Athletics further downward Thursday with a 10-4 victory hammered out over one of Connie Mack's ace, Rube Walberg.

Fifteen hits, including a homer into deep center field by Heinie Manush, rattled from the Washington bats. The big, left-handed Walberg gave up eleven of them before he was pulled in the seventh inning in favor of Deshong, a rookie. Showing no favorites, the Senators rapped Deshong for four more bingles.

Carl Fischer, youthful fire-ball southpaw, got credit for downing the Athletics but Fred Marberry was sent to his assistance in the seventh. After Heving, Simmons and Fox had started a menacing rally, Marberry went in to retire the side and pitch the rest of the game without giving up a hit.

led the crashing Washington offense, with three hits apiece. Myer, Spencer and Judge contributed two hits each.

Despite his defeat, Connie Mack had some solace in the attack of his murderers' row. Heving, Simmons and Fox batted hard and often, but in the pinches the base hits were not forthcoming.

It was the Senators' third victory over the Athletics against two defeats, placing them abreast of the Yankees in destruction of the champions' dominance.

NEW YORK (AP)—Vernon Gomez, the Yankees' Spanish southpaw, pitched a brilliant game Thursday to defeat the Boston Red Sox 5-1 for his third consecutive victory.

Gomez set the Sox down with three hits, struck out six and tossed out five more at first. He also drove in the final New York run with a double. Lou Gehrig drove home the first two Yankee tallies with a triple and single off Danny MacFayden.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Knocking Pat Caraway out of the box in the fourth inning and continuing their assault on McKain and Gregory, the Cleveland Indians Thursday trounced the Chicago White Sox 11-2 and ran their winning streak to five straight.

With Earl Averill hitting a home run, his fourth of the season, and a single for 500 average, the Cleveland batting order gave ample evidence of coming out of its hitting slump. Jimmy Hodapp, traded this week by Cleveland to the Sox, made two of Chicago's three errors.

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

Wednesday afternoon has been set as the date for the inter-class football game. The proceeds, it must be understood, are to go into a fund to be used to purchase letter sweaters for eight youths who were successful in winning the District 8 basketball title for the second consecutive year, and whose efforts during the mid-season were rewarded with no less than eighteen trophies in invitational basketball tournaments. Among the champions who were the champions of the district, although you probably know them from memory, were the titles in Colorado and Lubbock, and the consolation round in Odessa. While we're thinking about the Steers were not beaten at the latter place. A squad of second-stringers under the direction of D. H. "Tiny" Reid and J. Gordon "Oble" Bristow dropped a first round match to Eagle Cove, and the varsity arrived later to sweep the consolation round like Grant took Richmond.

It will be a game worth anyone's ten and twenty cents, if we remember the pieces correctly. The Fresh-Senior squad are confident of winning and on paper stack up very strong. To begin with the Fresh-Seniors have Dennis. We will not go into a complete recitation of his merits, as we have been informed more than once that no one person could really be as good as the writer has declared in the past that Mr. Dennis is, but we will go so far as to say that the Soph-Juniors ought to be allowed to use fifteen or sixteen men. To end up with they have David Hopper and Bill Flowers. Between the "be gin" and the "to end" there is Fred Martin and the backfield trio, Schwarzenbach, Helblson, and Coburn. Sometimes we wonder if Martin shouldn't have been an all-district guard last year, but they won't go into either.

We have been accused of misquoting Mr. Blondy Cross. We are guilty, we confess, of quoting him, but then it is excusable because we could think of nothing else to write about at the time. Mr. Cross alleges that he did not say that the Sand Belt net champions could not offer any competition to speak of to the San Angelo racqueters. He accuses us of slander and man;

In reply we wish to quote one or two sentences from one of Mr. Cross' column of the past week. "There is to our left a sort of extemporaneous challenge from one of the Sand Belt tennis champions, who also writes sports for the Big Spring Daily Herald. There are no young men living in Big Spring capable of playing a racquet with dexterity equal to that of various of the San Angelo court warriors. But the deft has been flaunted. Youth may not be served, but as a rule it will try anything once. We would say off hand, if not in an offhand way, that veterans of the net like W. B. Clinton and J. J. Pettus of this city would encounter little inconvenience taking more than the measure of the Sand Belt champions, sprightly young fellows who are good in their class but their class is not so good. We would suggest—"The rest is more unimportant even than this.

Now the question is this. Blondy Cross says that we said he said something that he didn't say at all. Perhaps he forgot about this paragraph. Or perhaps he remembered a previous invasion of the San Angelo courts by a quartet of local netters, who returned home with five trophies between them.

In Clarksville, West Virginia the owners of the baseball entry in the Middle Atlantic League cut a hole 6 1-2 inches by 10 in the park fence and all boys who can squeeze through are permitted to see the game free. Others must pay. We'll bet the others don't.

It seems to be a hard summer for champions in baseball. Philadelphia was swamped by Washington 10-4 in the American League yesterday to give Connie Mack's warriors the magnificent percentage of .553, while the St. Louis Cardinals' 12 to 7 loss to the Chicago Cubs showed them on the cellar of the National League with a mark of .357. Chicago and New York, both classified pennant threats by the various experts, are on top in the National and American League respectively.

First Medal For Mail Pilots Goes To Mal Freeburg

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first air mail pilot's medal for heroism will go to Mal B. Freeburg, who flies between Chicago and St. Paul. The presentation will be by President Hoover.

On last April 12, shortly after leaving Minneapolis, a motor of Freeburg's trimotored plane shook loose and tangled with the landing gear.

Freeburg kept the plane aloft with the two remaining motors, flew to the Mississippi river and by maneuvering shook the third motor into the river and then landed with eight passengers and mail.

The previous summer, while flying the night mail between Minneapolis and Chicago, Freeburg discovered a railroad bridge on fire and having passed a fast passenger train only a few miles back turned his plane and went back.

How to Make "One Dish Meal" Well-Balanced and Nourishing

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

Casseroles or top-stove dishes combining meat and vegetables of the main course, produce nourishing, well-balanced meals with little effort in preparation and service. If the one-meal dish is baked, plan to serve a baked dessert such as custard, custard pie, cottage pudding or baked apples, for the same fuel will cook both foods. As Spring house work arrives we welcome suggestions that make easier the preparation of meals. These flavorful, delicious, and substantial dishes will help you to serve interesting meals with an expenditure of less time and energy.

Pork Chops En Casserole: In a buttered baking dish place alternate layers of thinly sliced potatoes, using 2 to 3 cups, and 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, sprinkling each layer lightly with salt and pepper. Over potatoes and onions place 6 pork chops sprinkled with salt and browned in a skillet. Over all pour 1 small can or about 1 cup of Cream of Tomato Soup. Bake in a hot oven (400 to 450 degrees F.) for about 45 minutes or until potatoes are tender and flavored richly with the pork and tomato.

Chop Suey: Cut 1 1/2 to 2 pounds lean pork shoulder, 2 large onions, 2 cups mushrooms, and 1 stalk celery in small pieces. Chop onions if preferred. Saute meat in 1/4 cup Olive Oil (or fat from 3 slices of bacon which has been cut fine and fried) until well browned, then add vegetables, also salt and pepper. Last add 1 cup water blended with 4 tablespoons sugar and 2 tablespoons cornstarch. Cook 1-2 hour, stirring briskly, then add 1 tablespoon Worcestershire Sauce. Serve with steamed rice.

Baked Hash Casserole: Mix 3 cups cooked meat (chopped veal, pork, or combination of meats) 2 cups fresh bread crumbs, 1 cup Cream of Pea Soup and a dash of pepper. Put in a buttered casserole, cover with buttered crumbs and bake for 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.). Serves 5.

Beef Stuffed With Spaghetti: Trim 1 large slice round steak, cut very thin, and rub flour well into both sides. Spread 1 medium can Cooked Spaghetti over one-half of steak, and sprinkle with 1 minced green pepper; fold other half of meat over and sew edges together or fasten together with toothpicks. Brown meat in hot fat in skillet. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and pour 1 cup hot water in skillet. Cover and bake in moderate oven or cook on top of stove, basting occasionally, until tender. Serves 5 or 6.

RESEARCH REVEALS ALL-BRAN RICH IN HEALTH-ELEMENTS

Helps Correct Constipation
with "Bulk" and Vitamin B;
Also Has Iron

Recent scientific research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation. It has "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

These two important food-elements promote regular habits, and help do away with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy, so often the result of constipation.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild in action—much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using pills and drugs—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's daily—enough for most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Besides, ALL-BRAN brings your body twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Equally tasty as a cereal with milk or cream, or used in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Entertain With Party

The Homemakers of the First Baptist Church held their monthly social Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Faye W. Harding southwest of town.

The rooms were made lovely with a profusion of roses and snapdragons.

The program was opened with a prayer by Mrs. K. S. Beckett and a devotional read by Mrs. H. P. Woods followed by a prayer by Mrs. C. W. Lee. Little Miss Ruth Corneillon in a dainty frock and matching hat, sang a solo.

Mrs. Clarence Miller was in charge of the games and conducted some interesting Bible contests.

Refreshments of homemade ice cream topped with crushed strawberries and angelfood iced in pink and white were served to the guests. Those present were: Meses. R. Richardson, George Oldham, L. T. Stewart, K. S. Beckett, J. C. Loper, J. S. King, Bob Skeen, W. D. Corneillon, H. Millon, Roy Green, H. Reagan, H. P. Wood, J. C. Smith, B. C. Cooper, Elia Crawford, W. Y. Crawford, Roy Pearce.

BOX SUPPER TONIGHT

The women of the First Christian church will give a very entertaining box supper tonight in the basement of the church. It will be a decidedly old fashioned affair with much fun and merriment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wasson are in Dallas visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. S. Barnett. They expect to be gone for several weeks, because Mr. Wasson plans to go to New Braunfels for treatment before they return.

Long Run Effects Of Crude Oil And Refined Products Advances Problematical Say Researchers

AUSTIN.—"It remains to be seen what long run effects the recent rise in the price levels of crude and refined products will have upon the oil industry as a whole," it was stated in the monthly petroleum report of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. "The problem is by no means as simple as it appears on paper; it is not only a problem connected with the conservation of oil reserves in the main oil-producing states but is also closely related to refining processes and to the quality and efficiency of the finished products of crude oil. "Moreover, the whole oil industry is closely tied with the factors that have to do with the current economic situation not only of this country but also of the commercial world. For instance, the imports of crude oil and oil products into Great Britain in 1931 were considerably lower than they were in 1930; however, the imports into Great Britain in 1931 from the Dutch West Indies, from Rumania and Rumania were considerably larger than in 1930.

"From the standpoint of production, curtailment features have kept the average daily production of oil at about the same level as for the corresponding period of 1931; however, a year ago production figures were increasing rapidly to the high average they maintained throughout May, June, July and August of the first half of August. At the present time there is much less uneasiness among the people of the oil industry as to the possibilities that crude production will run wild for any period of time. For the week ending April 18, East Texas field stood out as the leading producing district in the United States; for that week East Texas' daily average production was 34,414 barrels; the total of Oklahoma's daily average production for the same week was 294,985 barrels; the total for Texas was 866,115 barrels and for California, 518,000 barrels.

"Daily crude oil runs to stills at refineries for the United States during 1932 have been somewhat below those for the corresponding period of 1931; however, since the close of the first week in March there occurred a rather important rise in the daily crude runs to stills. The quantities of gasoline stock at refineries in the United States for 1932 have very closely paralleled those for the corresponding period of 1931; in both cases there occurred a steady rise throughout January, February and March. In 1931 there occurred during the middle of April a turn downward in the quantities of gasoline stocks at refineries. A trend which continued until the middle of October when stocks began to increase.

"In all fields operations a number of new things are occurring. Wildcatting activities are increasing in Louisiana and Arkansas; new territory is being opened in Oklahoma and in Kansas. Considerable new drilling is occurring in southern Texas and in the Gulf Coast country. East Texas shows a large increase in new locations and this district possesses 5,000 completions.

"In California the state department of natural resources has begun a suit against the operators of the Dominguez Field to prohibit further waste of natural gas in that field; this intervention has been undertaken through the California gas conservation law. In 1931 Texas produced one fourth of the total of natural gas consumed in the United States; in addition to this amount, it has been stated from a reliable source that Texas wasted, by allowing it to flow into the air, more gas than the state produced."

For Senate

JAMES H. GOODMAN

The fifth man to authorize through the Herald his announcement as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the state senate for the 30th district, which includes Howard and 23 other counties, is James H. Goodman, widely known attorney of Lubbock.

Mr. Goodman, 42 years of age, was born in Bastrop county, the son of a veteran of the Confederacy. He was educated in the public schools of Austin and in the University of Texas. He taught school six years in Galveston high and in Trinity university at Waco, where he was also director of athletics and coach. He has had considerable experience as a member of staffs of legislative and departmental branches of the state government in the capitol at Austin. Mr. Goodman served in the world war. He practiced law in Austin and Fort Worth before moving to Lubbock nine years ago. There he served as city judge three years. As a Democrat he has been active in local, state and national organizations. For the past eight years he has served as director of athletics and amusements at the South Plains fair. He is a mason, a member of the Christian church, the American Legion, the Kiwanis club.

Mr. Goodman favors elimination of unnecessary functions and consolidation of others to lessen cost of government, revision of the tax system so as to transfer most of the burden from real property to large estates, incomes and luxury. He urges exemption of small homesteads from state ad valorem tax. Another matter in which he is greatly interested is revision of the educational system so maintenance of the public schools would be by the state.

"I believe many readjustments should be made in transportation costs in which West Texas is disadvantaged."

criminated against, said Mr. Goodman. I also believe truck and bus lines should be regulated for better protection of the public interests," he added. As to highways Mr. Goodman declared for use of gasoline tax receipts to pay local highway bond issues, complete unpaved gaps and for maintenance of the highways. In law enforcement he believes special attention should be given juvenile delinquency. "I believe farmers and stockmen should be reimbursed for damage resulting from governmental regulation by the state," he declared while here Thursday. "I believe the interests of the state and the man should be put above interests of the dollar and the dividend."

Well At Luling Flowing Heavily

LULING (UP)—Estimates of 5,000 barrels a day made a month ago when the well blew in unexpectedly, were considered justified Tuesday when the Bob Rose et al, No. 1-Pierce was completed under control and flowed 226 barrels of oil between 7 and 8 o'clock. Flow was increasing steadily. The well is 2 miles west of here midway between the Salt Flats field and the Luling field.

The plug was drilled Monday after pipe lines from the Rose Refinery two miles away were completed and the crew spent practically all night in an effort to prevent the well from running wild. It was mudded off twice Monday afternoon and it was late in the night before balling started. At 3 o'clock this morning the well began flowing into tanks.

Practically all major companies had scouts on the ground. Observers today believed the Pierce is on the west side of an Edwards lime field, and consider it a crevice well in the Austin chalk.

Two wells of M. O. Rayer on the Dunlap tract which have been flowing several months, were put on the pump Monday and they were reported pumping 150 barrels daily.
