Emery/Adams Nuptials Are Exchanged Friday, Aug. 16

Double-ring wedding vows were exchanged between Sheena Leigh Emery and Jason Wynn Adams Friday evening, August 16, 2002 in the Ceta Canyon Tabernacle.

Parents of the bride are Lee and Christie Emery of Sudan and the groom's parents are Jimmy and Marie Adams of Wheeler.

The bride wore a full-length satin gown overlaid with lace and pearl bead accents, featuring spaghetti straps with a sweetheart neckline. The full-length train was accented with a bow bustle. Her fingertip veil included pearls on the headpiece. "Something new was her wedding dress; something blue" was a diamond and sapphire bracelet. "Something old" was the wedding bands belonging to her maternal grandmother, Pittman, great-grandmother, Beason, and great-great grandmother, Williams, which were attached to her bouquet.

Her bridal bouquet was 24 long-stemmed red roses, highlighted with baby's breath, designed and assembled by the groom.

The stage was decorated and adorned with white urns filled with multi-colored flowers. Multi-colored bows and white lights were placed along the back stage. During the ceremony the couple stood under an arch covered with multi-colored flowers and sparkling white lights. Bubbles danced around their heads during the ceremony. Candles were placed in the windows along the back wall. The pews were decorated with white bows and multi-colored flowers.

Escorted by her father, Sheena presented her mother and new mother-in-law each with three long-stemmed roses.

The mini-bride, MaKenna Etie of Petersburg, cousin of the bride, wore a white gown identical to that of the bride and carried six long-stemmed red roses.

Maid of honor was Julie Gatewood of Sudan. Bridesmaids were Emily Sanderson of Lubbock, Missy Schultz of Sudan, Crystal Dow of Bella Vista, Ark., and Brooke Everts of Canyon. The young ladies wore two-piece organza gowns with long straight skirts, sleeveless tops and square necklines. The gowns were in rainbow colors of pink, yellow, purple, green and orange.

They each carried a long stemmed crystal vase, adorned with flowers and a candle, which was placed on the unity table.

Sharon Kindle, family friend from Maple, made all the cummerbunds, bow ties and girls dresses.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails and royal blue vest and bow tie. His boutonniere was a rose from the bride's bouquet. The groom carried a Bible that his mother carried at her wedding, his sister Stacy carried at her wedding and his sister Stephanie will carry at her wedding in October.

The mini-groom and ring-bearer, Mason Adams Mansoor, of Round Rock, TX, nephew of the groom, was dressed exactly like the groom with a royal blue cummerbund and bow tie.

Best man was Jimmy Adams of Wheeler, father of the groom and he wore a black tuxedo with pink cummerbund and bow tie. Groomsman were Jason Toomey of Ferris, Jimmy Hill of Wheeler, Shawn Dawes and Nathan Dawes, both of Canyon, and they wore black tuxedos with cummerbunds and bow ties of yellow, purple, green and orange.

Flower girls were Baylea Pittman of Anton, cousin of the bride, and Ashton Shultz of Sudan. They wore teal ankle-length princess style dresses overlaid with teal organza. Their braided hair was adorned with multi-colored floral crowns.

The mother of the bride wore a full-length royal blue gown with a beaded bodice. The father of the bride wore a black tuxedo with royal blue cummerbund and bow tie. The groom's mother, wore a two-piece pale yellow brocade, knee-length dress.

The bride entered the tabernacle to the melody of "Pachelbel's Canon in D". Joe Ky Shultz of Sudan gave the invocation and welcome. Eddy Mardis of Canyon, associate pastor at the Cowboy Church and the Arena of Life, delivered the pastoral charge. Bridesmaid, Missy Shultz, sang "But I Do Love You". The couple then exchanged personally written vows and lit the unity candle. After the exchange of rings, Missy Shultz sang a special song, written by the bride and herself titled "Power of Friendship".

Joe Ky Shultz delivered a special word of advice to the couple regarding love, like and friendship in marriage, after which soloist Tyler Beason of Mt Pleasant sang "I Do".

The groom then shared a special, personally written poem with his new bride. Eddy Mardis pronounced the couple husband and wife then delivered the benediction and the couple exited the tabernacle to the song "Over the Rainbow" by Faith Hill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was served in the tabernacle. The reception decor mirrored that of the ceremony. A large rainbow highlighted the area and the guest tables were decorated multi-colored tablecloths, flowers and candles.

The bride's cake was a four-tiered waterfall cake with red velvet, chocolate and white flavorings. It was white with violet accents and flowers atop each layer. The top layer featured a traditional bride and groom. Serving at the bride's table were Brittany Gore of Sudan and Meredith Scholer, cousin of the groom, of Amarillo.

The groom's chocolate cake was made to look like a tuxedo. Special words were shared at the reception by Stacy Mansoor, sister of the groom and Mike Acuna, cousin of the groom. Serving at the groom's table were Courtney Tye of Wayside and Mackenzie Scholer of Amarillo, cousins of the groom.

At the reception, Katy Acuna of McLean, cousin of the groom and Kylee Shultz of Sudan handed out bubbles. They wore multi-colored stripped dresses with matching purses.

Following their honeymoon trip to Cozumel, Mexico, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is currently attending Texas Tech University and the groom is a graduate of West Texas A&M University.

Sweetwater News

By Lois Flowers

Can't really say this is SW news since I'm in San Antonio, gradually becoming a Texan. I live at the Waterford—a home for retired folks. Joe Dales aren't far away. Tonys are coming from Florida to see us and her folks at Mangum.

I can watch the birds from the back door. Sometimes there's as many as 12 eating the crumbs.

October is here and it is 2002. Fifty years ago, none of us expected to see 2000 come around.

Ann and L. G. Reed call and keep me up on things back home. All seems to be doing ok.

October was a big month in my family. My parents and brother, Frank, all had birthdays on the 24th and mine was stuck back in March.

A Happy Autumn to all

Wheeler Church of Christ

I did not compile this list, but I find it to be an excellent one (it came from a church bulletin from Breckenridge). See how you rate as a servant of the Lord.

A Servant of the Lord is one who will put the Lord's business above any other business.

A Servant of the Lord is one who attends the services of the church on a regular basis.

A Servant of the Lord is one who is willing to be a good example for others to follow.

A Servant of the Lord is one who thinks more of attending Bible class than staying home to sleep or watch TV.

A Servant of the Lord is one who gives to the church according to what he makes rather than the amount he has left over.

A Servant of the Lord is one who helps rather than one who wants to help.

A Servant of the Lord is one who attends services because he loves to, not merely because it is his duty.

A Servant of the Lord is one who has a willing mind to do the Lord's work on a consistent basis.

A Servant of the Lord is one who can see his own faults and not just the faults of others.

A Servant of the Lord is one who is more concerned with the winning souls than with taking honors men may give.

So, after looking at this list, are you a Servant of the Lord? My prayer, and hopefully your prayer too, is that we will be Servants of the Lord. We don't always succeed, but we will keep on trying.

II Corinthians 4:17 and 18: For our eight affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

We have been having very chilly nights and early morning temperatures, but have been nice.

We got a little over four inches of rain here in Allison last week, which was very much appreciated. Now we can mow again.

Darrel and Johnnie Harrison came last Saturday morning. Darrel went and visited his mother, Pearl, a while, then went on to the farm over near Mobeetie. Johnnie fixed my hair for me, later in the afternoon we went through Wheeler on our way over to the corner to meet Darrel for them to go home. We picked up a few things at Thriftway and stopped at Mel's Diner for coffee and a goodie. Then went on, enjoyed the day with my daughter.

Last Wednesday Opal and Juanita Boydston's supper guest was Forrest Boydston. On Friday, Opal and Juanita were in Pampa doing some shopping. Saturday morning Opal, Juanita, Curtis and Forrest Boydston were in Wheeler for awhile. From there they went to Reydon to the City-Wide Garage Sales. They ate dinner at the Hill Top restaurant. From there they went to Elk City and did some shopping.

Peggy Chandler took Jennie Walker to Wheeler last Monday to see Dr. Mendiola.

George, went to a singing at Gageby last Sunday night.
Vance Boydston made another trip to Dallas last weekend to be with his wife, Caroline, at Baylor Specialty Hospital. He returned home Sunday night.

Pearl Harrison and Jimmy and Vivian Wallace attended the United Pentecostal General Conference at Phoenix, Ariz., the 25th through the 29th of September. They also visited Pearl's sister-in-law, Veta Faye, and her husband at Tempe, Ariz. On their way to Phoenix they spent the night at Gallup NM and also on their way back home they spent the night at the same place. They got back to Allison on Tuesday evening. Pearl went to Elk City Wednesday and spent the night also Thursday and Friday nights. Thursday she saw the eye doctor and he removed a cataract from her left eye. He had already removed one from her right eye some time ago. Walt and Teresa Hodges of Niconia Park, Okla., visited with Pearl at Jimmy and Vivian's home while she was in Elk City. Others visiting her there were some nieces.

The United Pentecostal Church had wonderful and spiritual message last Sunday morning with prayer and then Pastor McDaniels children and their families blessed us with some very beautiful music and singing and testimonies of the wonderful things God has done in their families. We all enjoyed very much. He has a family to be proud of. We also had some outside visitors come in. Then had a bountiful meal with a lot of good food in the fellowship hall and a lot of visiting. Pastor Mc's families live a good distance off so they made a quick trip here to bless us and for a short visit with their dad, Pastor McDaniels.

Rita Grayson and daughter, Debbie Jones, were in Amarillo last Saturday doing some shopping. Last Sunday night, Bryan Markham and son, Ky, visited with Rita awhile.

Connie Steffey returned last week from a short visit with her friend, Kathy, in Canon City, Colo. They had a great time shopping in Castle Rock and Colorado Springs. They also had a chance to visit Kathy's daughter, Marcia, who is expecting her first child in January. Baby shopping became part of the agenda that day.

Several from the United Pentecostal Church went to the General UPCI Conference at Phoenix, Ariz., on September 23, 2002. Pastor M. C. McDaniel, Curtis Boydston, Clifton and Louise Boydston, Hershel Sanford of Higgins, all went on the Senior Escapes Bus out of Oklahoma City. There were 57 people on it. They went by the Grand Canyon, north of Flagstaff, Ariz. Also saw the I-Max of the Canyon. Quite a sight to see. Had a "step on guide" to tell all about it.

On Sunday Mike and LaQuinta Hulse from Tuscon, Ariz., came to Phoenix and after the night service, they took Clifton and Louise home with them. They toured the Desert Museum and went up in the mountains and several other places. The cactus are awesome.

On Friday they left Tuscon and traveled to Los Lunas, N.M., then on to Allison on Saturday. Mike and LaQuinta are spending a couple of weeks with Clifton and Louise.

Ernie and Sue Martin came by on Sunday evening and spent a few hours after deer hunting the weekend in Oklahoma.

Take time to pray—It is the greatest power on earth.

THANK YOU

The family of Nellie Mae Lackey greatly appreciates all of the acts of kindness shown during this time of the loss of our mother and grandmother.

To all the community ladies and Xi Upsilon Eta sorority, thank you so very much for all the wonderful food and supplies that you brought to our home, through muddy roads. My family was amazed at your generosity.

Thank you so much to the ladies of the Eleventh Street Baptist church for the meal prior to the services and Doctor Joe Stafford for your part in the service. We appreciate you so much.

The floral arrangements and green plants that so many of you sent were simply beautiful. The phone calls, cards and the hugs received are helping us to get through this time.

Our appreciation goes to the Wheeler Care Center for taking care of Mother for the eleven years that she lived there. To the nurses and CNA's that went the extra mile to give special care, thank you.

Thanks to the grandsons for serving as pallbearers and the beautiful songs by the great-grandchildren. Words cannot express our gratitude to the Rev. Drew Travis, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Plainview. Your message was truly amazing. And last, we say Thank you to Randy Lackey for your beautiful piano selections. God has blessed you both with talents that are healing souls far and wide. Our Mother was surely smiling down from Heaven while she listened to the two of you.

May God bless all of you for your comfort during this time.

THE MISPLACED FARM WIFE

The first stirrings of spring always brought on the seed catalogs when I lived in Kelton. When I moved to an apartment in Angleton I could see no reason to change. My tomatoes had to be planted in flower pots but the Gulf Coast weather means that I could have two crops each year.

With some success with the tomatoes, the next spring I bought seed for bell peppers. As was my custom the seeds were planted in an empty egg carton. Then when the plants were strong enough, I took the plants to Friendswood to plant in my son's garden. All the way to Friendswood, I dreamed of ways to use those peppers.

The young pepper plants looked so good in the warm dark soil of my family's garden. Then my grandson decided to go fishing so needed to dig for bait—he was so embarrassed when he realized that he had dug up my plants. Although he is a student at A&M now, I still remind him now and then.

Nice to have Horace and Juanita Fillingim take Martha Meek and Willis and me to Mrs. Nellie Lackey's funeral at Shamrock Saturday. Really a celebration of her worthy life, raising a fine family with her husband, Jessie Lee Lackey. Teaching Sunday School at Twitty, Samnorwood, Shamrock, cooking, serving and helping others. Pallbearers were grandsons and grandson-in-laws: Dallas Fillingim, Ken Criswell, Steve Lackey, Pat Steffek, Jeff Lackey and David Lackey. Grandson Randy Lackey played the piano beautifully. Scott Porter led congregational songs. Grandson-in-law, Rev. Drew Travis, officiated. Mrs. Lackey would have been proud of the fine service. We can rejoice that God called her home to a fine new body and reunion of loved ones, but she will be missed.

We enjoyed eating supper at Maxeys after the funeral to celebrate Horace's 79th birthday. He got a free piece of pie because it was his birthday. Happy Birthday, Horace! God bless you and your family.

Sorry to hear that Junior Newman of Briscoe was ejected from the back seat of a car through the back windshield. The car rolled on a country road. Junior got some deep lacerations on one arm that required several stitches. We are thankful his injuries weren't worse. Caliche roads can sure be slippery when going fast. Pray for Junior.

David and Tammy Helton and Brittaney from Little Rock, Ark., came Friday to visit grandparents, Thomas Roy and Martha Helton and brother Matt Helton till Monday. David is in the Air Force in Arkansas. They also visited Evelyn Meek, who was their near neighbor, when they lived east of the cop. They also visited Coach Curtis Smith and saw the new gym at Briscoe.

Visiting Billie Stuckey and Lou Dean Douthit Monday was Zoey Kinnaman, 7 months, daughter of Corey and Audrey Kinnaman.

Ruth Irvine has had pneumonia, but is feeling some better and back to work at the boot camp Monday and Tuesday.

Ken and Kimberly McAdams and Grace Estelle and Evertt and Estelle McAdams were leaving for China October 7, for a few months. Remember them in your prayers. Ken and Kimberly will be teaching in Shaoguan University Foreign Language Department in Shaoguan, Guangdong, China. May God be with you. They love China and can live on a small amount over there.

Misty and Casey Gilmer and Abby from Elk City were weekend visitors to James and Marti Ogle. Dana Trimble also visited. She teaches in Bowie Middle School in Amarillo.

Marti Ogle, Misty Gilmer and Marti's mom, Lorene Carter, will be having a booth at Canadian Middle School during Canadian Fall Foliage Festival. Marti has been making TeePees to sell. They are of fabric and about 3 1/2 feet tall, all decorated up. Her grandkids love them. They can be easily taken apart and washed. Misty has been making stick horses to sell. Lorene has pot holders and kitchen towels to sell. TeePees are held together with PVC pipe. Marti is a very talented lady. Others, too.

Happy anniversary to H. B. and Katherine Krug, Ben Ed and LeAnn Hillhouse and Aaron and Arica Lancaster, Joe and Liz Austin and LeRoy and Rhonda Meriwether on Oct. 14.

Susie Umsted cooked supper for Fat and Wanda Childress Monday night and she and Billy and Brody went down and ate with them. Wanda keeps Brody some and Raydon Gonzales.

Nice to have Ed and Laurel Hershman join us for supper at Maxeys Thursday night. Nice to see Andy and Liz Shipp and Savannah there.

Nice to have granddaughter, Lindsey, join us for lunch Friday at Maxeys and a good visit. Also good to see David and Phyllis Hefley, Dean Tipps, Helen and Eddie George, Preston and Elsie Glazner there. Lindsey came up for her grandmother Lackey's funeral.

Good to have a visit Friday afternoon from Lee and Pat Murray from Pampa. They had been to Reydon to visit Lahoma Wheeler, a sister-in-law, and help with plumbing or whatever was needed and visit with her and help with lunch. Thanks for coming to see us. Lee grew up at Briscoe.

Always good to see Gina Mendiola at the post office or grocery store with a warm smile and hug. Thanks, Gina.

Wonderful rain Wednesday and Thursday. Some reported that their 6 inch rain gauges overflowed. Many had four inches or more. Some dirt roads were badly washed, nearly impassable. Danny only had a tenth or so at Elk City. We are thankful for the rain. Wheat fields are so pretty and green.

Nice to eat lunch at Cowboy Oasis and visit with Aaron and Claudetta Laverty and Caaron Neighbors Thursday. Always a good crowd and good food. Also there were Curt and Mindy Duncan, Earl and Carolyn Corse, Leonard and Bertha Hollis, Chuck and Louise Hogan, Riley Bradstreet, Joe Shelton, Jamey Walker and several others. Nice to have Floy Belle (Patterson) and Jim Lewis and Mary (Patterson) Caswell out to Sunday School and church at Wheeler Baptist Sunday. Come again! They now live at Elk City, but used to live at Wheeler and attend the Baptist church. They also attended the Memorial Service at Wheeler Methodist Sunday for T. J. Patterson, a cousin. They knew my uncle John and Aunt Minnie Cornelious, who lived near Sweetwater Creek many years ago.

Nice to visit with Danny and Lori Debose and Dallan and Christian at Maxeys Tuesday night. They were going to Open House at Kelton School, where Dallan is in the first grade and doing well. He also went to Pre-K and Kindergarten there.

Also at Maxeys was a nice older couple from Perryton, who wash windows in Wheeler, Shamrock and even Wellington sometimes. They use to do the Wheeler Dairy Queen before it closed.

I enjoy meeting new people. Meet so many fine people. Hope they don't mind my being nosy.

Correction: Agnes Adams was married to Walter Adams, now deceased, and is the aunt of Jimmy Adams.

So good to see Doodie Phillips from near Ft. Worth with friends. She still has that lovely smile. She visited Opal Hefley and others.

T. J. Patterson of Blackfoot, Idaho, died in May, 2002, but none of the Patterson relatives here were able to go to his funeral. So they had a memorial service for T. J. at the Methodist church in Wheeler Sunday at 1:30. Several family members came in Friday night for the occasion. He was a brother to Virgil Patterson, Vickey Nelson's dad. Some here were T. J.'s widow, Virginia (Watts) Patterson from Blackfoot, and her son, Roger Patterson from near Chicago and T. Chairman Daughtry referred everyone to the By-Laws of the Wheeler County LEPC and after review and discussion asked for a Motion to adopt the By-Laws as written in their final version. The Motion was made by Wanda Herd and seconded by Johnny Rhodes with the committee in agreement.

The committee viewed a very informative video outlining the purpose of the LEPC titled "Local Emergency Planning Committees—Guarding the Safety of Your Community".

After Chairman Daughtry reviewed the Wheeler County Basic Emergency Management Plan with the committee, Wheeler County Judge Jerry Hefley, City of Wheeler Mayor Wanda Herd, City of Shamrock Mayor Glen Switzer and City of Mobeetie Mayor Gordon Estes approved and signed the plan to be submitted to the State. The Ad-Hoc Annex Committees were assigned and material distributed.

Chairman Daughtry discussed the need for and the advantages and responsibilities of the following standing committees:

- Right-To-Know Committee
- Public Education & Information Committee
- Hazardous Material Facilities Liaison Committee
- Emergency Response & Resource Committee

Chairman Daughtry had assigned committee members to one of the standing committees and asked that if a member was assigned to a specific committee but had rather serve on another to notify Secretary Miles and she would make the change as requested.

After a short break, the standing committees met to elect their respective chairman and those are as follows:

- Right-To-Know Committee - Art Taylor, Chairman
- Public Education & Information Committee - David Rushing, Chairman

- Hazardous Material Facilities Liaison Committee - Larry Jones, Chairman
- Emergency Response & Resource Committee - Tim Adcock, Chairman

Chairman Daughtry asked the members and guests for suggestions on a date for the next meeting. It was decided by the committee to meet the first Monday in January of 2003 which will be January 6, 2003 and continue with the 7:00 p.m. format.

Everyone in attendance was given the State of Texas Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) Handbook "A Primer for Local Planning for Hazardous Materials" for use as an additional resource.

Rainfall Enhancement Program Concludes for Panhandle Counties

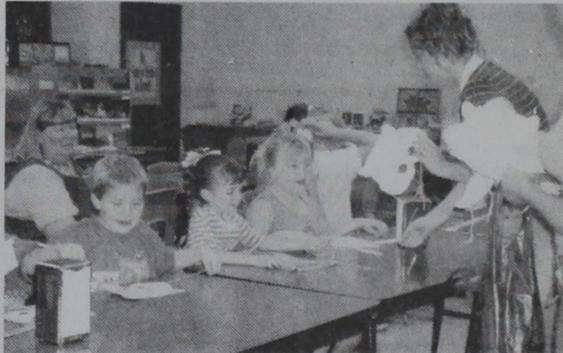

Panhandle Groundwater Conservation District concluded the 2002-Rainfall Enhancement Program for the counties served by the District, on September 30, as scheduled. Thirty-five missions were flown during the five-month program. The effectiveness of the District's enhancement program will be assessed by Dr. Arquimedes Ruiz, of Active Scientific Management and Dr. William Woodley, of Woodley Weather Consultants. Both consultants are under independent contracts with the Texas Department of Agriculture. The assessment will include both benefits and risks of the program and the results will be reported to the District's Board of Directors later this year.

When the assessment is completed, a series of public meetings will be held throughout the District, to report the results. There will be at least one public meeting per county. The time and place for these meetings will be published in the District's newsletter, on the District web site and in each county's local newspapers. These meetings will provide citizens of the District the opportunity to give input to the Board concerning the rainfall enhancement program. The counties in the Panhandle Groundwater Conservation District are Armstrong, Carson, Donley, Gray, Potter, Roberts, and Wheeler.

The Directors and staff encourage those interested in learning more about rainfall enhancement to attend one or more of these meetings.

HEALTH CLASS PRODUCTION: The 2002 Health Class at Allison presents "On the Trail of the Plaque Monsters" by Laura Lohberger. On Tuesday morning Coach Parker's health class performed a play for the elementary students. The skit was about dental health and caring for your teeth. It starred the characters: Dr. Rabbit, Plaque Monster, Dental Floss and other friends. The characters took a trip around the country, getting expert dental advice from the "Mount Brushmore". President, the Redwood Forrest Tree, and others. The elementary classes learned valuable lessons about brushing, flossing, and oral care. The kids also got free goodie bags, which included toothpaste, tooth brushes, pens, mirrors, and pencil sharpeners. The students all enjoyed the performance by the juniors and seniors and the health class had a fun time as well. Pictured are: Michael Bray and Matthew Kiker represent Mt. Rushmore (Brushmore) Bronwyn Dukes (friend), Chelsea Archer (Dr. Rabbit), Katie Donaldson (friend), Jennifer Helton (toothbrush), Laura Lohberger (toothpaste), Jimmy Lane (floss), J. W. Helton (narrator).

GOODIE BAGS: Allison kindergarten and second grade receive goodie bags from the high school health class.

We have a birthday girl this week. Phoebe Jackson, one of the 'other' grandchildren will be 5 today October 10. Happy Birthday, Phoebe!

We had a surprise over the weekend. We were told we had to come to OKC on Friday. We were told to be there at a certain time, so we could go eat. As we were waiting to be called, Cathi, Dorcie, 'Aunt' Burnie and 'Naomi' came walking up. This was Baba's birthday present.

Cathi, Dorcie and "Aunt" Burnie drove up from the Huntsville area. Naomi is a student at OU.

Ronal Wayne stopped by to say Happy Birthday to his mother, as did Ronal Jr.

Jennifer and 'neighbor' Linda were proud of their part in making the surprise a success.

When we returned home Sunday afternoon, we were told to be at the Cross residence at 6 for 'din-

Allison Students Attend Tri-State

By: Bronwyn Dukes,
FFA President

On September 19th, Michael Bray and I attended the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. We took our goats up there and learned how to show them. This was our first goat show and we were very pleased. We had two goats each and were in the same two classes. I placed 7th in the class that he placed 13th and then he placed 7th in the class that I placed 13th; coincidence, huh! We got home late that night and then left the next day after school to go back to the Fair for the steer show. Weigh-ins and classifications were on Friday and we showed on Saturday. I won my class with my shorthorn steer and placed 6th in my class with my black steer. Michael placed 5th with his black steer. It was a long week, but we had a blast showing and just chilling on the mid-way.
