United States And Great Britain Serve Notice Sino-Japanese Fighting Must Stop

Two Charged With Hi-Jacking

It is quite encouraging to learn of the financial condition of our city government. We dare say there is no city or county in the state in better condition at this time than Big Spring and Howard county.

Our city manager, who revised the year's budget when he took his post here—cutting approximately $25,000 from operating expenses without laying off any full-time employees—did not make the mistake that officials in many other cities have made this year.

Instead of recommending to the city commission a budget based on the collection of 90 or even 75 per cent of city taxes he based the budget on collection of 60 per cent. Sixty-six per cent was collected by the end of January and the city has given until March 15 to pay current taxes without penalty.

In conversation with the city commissioners and city manager, as well as by occasional visits to commission meetings, we have learned that the chief goal they have set up for this year is a change in the water rate to afford more water at the minimum rate of $2.

The proportion of taxes paid will have a direct effect upon the possibility of lowering water costs. The city's bonded indebtedness, while not nearly as high as that of many cities, is so arranged that 1932 is the 'peak' year for payment of interest as well as principal. That is to say the city must pay more on bonded debt this year than he has in any past year and will not be required to pay as much in any future year as he will in 1932. The high point will have been passed at the end of 1932.

Approximately two-thirds of the taxes levied for this year will be needed to handle bonded indebtedness. It so happens that two-thirds of the proportion of taxes paid this far.

This, therefore, leaves the city to operate on revenue from the water department provided no additional taxes should be paid. But, the more taxes paid this month and during the first half of March 13, the more certain will be a reduction in the cost of water service to domestic consumers.

That the water problem is the most important the community faces is very obvious. This is so both from the standpoint of rates and supply. Our supply thus far is adequate. The nature of the system, in which all water must be pumped from wells and into the city reservoirs of necessity raises the cost of operation above the cost of operating a gravity flow system, in which water is pumped on the surface. It is a lot safer, however, to know exactly how much supply you have than to be unable to compute the amount available. You just naturally can't do that when the water is underground.

The lower the rate and the greater the supply of water for any town, especially those in West Texas, are matters of prime importance. Show us the town out here with the lowest water rate and the greatest supply and we'll show you one that has achieved the greatest asset toward future growth and stability.

It is, therefore, commendable to our city officials that they are doing everything possible to lower our water costs.

Robbery Of Luther Man Cleared Up

Sheriff's Search Ends With Arrests At Camp Here

Charges of assault with firearms and robbery were filed here this afternoon by Sheriff Jess Slaughter against Frank Bowman and H. D. Hughes in connection with a holdup at the store of Z. F. Lawrence at Luther, Howard county, Sunday evening.

The men were arrested at a tourist camp on West Third street late Monday evening by Sheriff Slaughter, Deputy Bob Wolf and M. C. Darnell, T&P special officer.

Sheriff Slaughter had continued an energetic search for the robbers for 24 hours beginning when Charles Lawrence, son of the holdup victim, reported the crime to him. Hughes was being held in jail at Midland. He made a voluntary statement to Sheriff Slaughter and other officers Tuesday morning. Bowman was being held here. In his statement Hughes said his wife sat in the car in front of the store during the holdup but did not participate in it. No charges had been filed against her.

The two men had been identified positively by Mr. Lawrence, said the sheriff. Tuesday morning, one of whom saw them when they overtook their car two miles west of the store while fleeing from the holdup scene, also identified them. The car they drove to and from the Luther store was also taken. It was blood-stained and had a new windshield and door. The men were reported to have been out by glass in the accident.

Mr. Lawrence was bound and gagged by the two men who robbed him of $6 in cash. His cries for help attracted children of a family camped nearby. They called Mrs. Lawrence from her home across the road and she freed him.

Sheriff Slaughter was enroute today to Lamesa to gather additional evidence. Hughes' statement said they went to that town during Sunday afternoon.

Falls County Oil Pool In Prospect

WACO, (UP)—A new oil field in the cotton fields of Central Texas appeared a distinct possibility today. Large crowds over the week-end visited the farm of J. Lee Davis, 14 miles south of here and just across the Falls county line, where oil has been struck. The well was drilled by C. C. Curtis, Marlin who encountered oil at a depth of 1,001 feet in a Georgetown lime formation. Since its completion Saturday night, the well has flowed steadily, production at times attaining a rate of 2,000 barrels daily. The oil, which tested about 35 gravity, was flowing into temporary earthen reservoirs. It was Curtis' second test, the first being a dry hole. He has 4,000 acres of the Davis farm under lease.

Rail Engineers To Be Paid On Monthly Basis

Delaware and Hudson President Announced Agreement

NEW YORK—Lenor F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad, announced Monday afternoon it has reached an agreement with its locomotive engineers whereby they will be placed on a monthly wage basis, in contrast with the hourly and mileage basis in effect heretofore.

The announcement said the agreement, which brings about a revision of wages, has nothing to do with the 10 per cent wage cut agreed upon at the Chicago wage conference. Delaware and Hudson, along with Bangor and Aroostook and Western Maryland, has its own private agreements with employees and was not represented at the Chicago wage gathering.

"The Delaware and Hudson management," read the statement, "charged with responsibility, will have more intimate control of transportation details. The agreement between the Delaware and Hudson Railroad and the Brotherhood of Railway Engineers means that more than 400 drivers will go on a monthly wage basis. The new arrangement will mean more money for 75 per cent of the employees will be retained. In addition, the road will guarantee to the so-called 'standby force' a minimum of $200 a month regardless of whether they work one day or 20. However, if they work more than 160 hours they are then entitled to pay at the rate of $1.25 an hour.

"The principal result of the agreement guarantees steady employment to all of the 400 Delaware and Hudson engineers. While the new agreement affects only the engineers, negotiations now are under way to effect an identical agreement with the conductors and perhaps it will be extended to other employees.

The new arrangement is in line with a policy that the Delaware and Hudson Railroad has employed in dealing with its shop employees and which has permitted the railroad to keep all of its shops open throughout the present period of economic distress and thereby avoiding the discharge of a single employee.

CONDITIONS ANNOUNCED TO LEAGUE

France and Italy Indicate They Will Join Other Two Powers

GENEVA (AP)—America and England announced in brisk military style at the extraordinary session of the league of nations council that Sino-Japanese fighting must stop and that they are ready to take immediate steps to stop it.

French and Italian delegates announced their government approve the other two great powers' course.

American delegates to the disarmament conference sat nearby as J. H. Thomas, member of the British cabinet, read the statement.

The first session of the disarmament conference was postponed an hour as the league met.

Thomas said that the United States and Great Britain would appreciate cooperation of other nations but would act independently if such cooperation were not received.

The two nations are determined to effect a settlement under terms of the Kellogg pact.

It was announced the proposals read by Thomas had been sent to both Nanking and Tokyo.

The conditions are that, first, all hostilities and preparations therefor must cease, second, that both sides at Shanghai move their troops away from the international settlement and arrange a neutral zone, and third, that they begin immediate negotiations to settle the dispute.

Spectators gasped, and tittered, as Naotake Sato, Japanese league delegate, replied to the statement. He suavely thanked the powers and said that their proposed action was exactly what Japan had been seeking.

The council convoked the British suggestion after the bombardment of Nanking.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Anglo-American peace proposal was announced here officially shortly after it was announced in Geneva. It already had been tendered China and Japan. France and Italy are expected to concur shortly. It was not announced how the United States and Great Britain would act if the proposals are refused.

An semblance of a treaty was announced here.

Steer Cagers To Colorado
Pre-Tournament Schedule To Be Closed This Week

With their second consecutive undefeated practice season just around the corner the Big Spring High Steers departed for Colorado this afternoon to embark upon a two-game road series that will round out their 1931-32 schedule. Friday evening the Bovines play the Sweetwater Mustangs in the Sweetwater gym and will return here to spend a last few days of practice before defending their championship laurels in the district cage tournament to be held here Feb. 12 and 13.

With twenty consecutive victories under their belt the Steers were favored to take the Wolves handily this evening and to come through with little more difficulty over the Mustangs Friday evening. Earlier season scores give the locals a 31 to 12 advantage over the Colorado club and two games with the Mustangs have netted the Big Spring cagers victories by respective scores of 32 to 24 and 40 to 24.

The same quintet that has borne the brunt of the play throughout the season, Morgan and Hopper at forwards, Captain Reid at center, and Flowers and Forrester at guards, were to start against Hardy Pierce's quintet tonight, but with the glaring weakness that has been apparent all season, lack of capable reserve string, still staring George Brown in the face as the champion, this team needs such players as "Tack" Dennis, Fred Martin, Elmer Dyer, Bill Stamphley, and J. W. Forrester will probably be given ample opportunity to display any improvement that might have taken place in their court performances since the last game. Particularly is Brown in need of a forward who can step into either Hopper's or Morgan's shoes. At the first of the season Dennis promised to fill the place nicely, but his last appearances have been disappointing. Dyer is a capable replacement for either of the guards and Hopper and L. Forrester can both shift to center without loss of strength.

Eight clubs are eligible for play in the sectional tournament, but Feb. 12 and 13, Sweetwater and Big Spring entering as independent school districts and the county champions of Scurry, Nolan, Fisher, Mitchell, Howard and Kent counties. Four of the quintets highly favored to come through are Roby, Loraine, Dunn and Lomax.

For Congress Personally Speaking

Mrs. George Melear, who recently underwent an operation at Big Spring Hospital, has been removed to her home. She is doing nicely.

A. C. Williamson, scout executive of Sweetwater, passed through Big Spring this morning, en route to Pecos, where he is going on scout business.

N. H. (Dinty) Moore, Southwestern Bell Telephone official, with headquarters in Fort Worth, was in Big Spring today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas will attend the annual banquet of the Lamesa Luncheon club this evening.

Mrs. Olive Wertzberger and her son, Melvin Spratley, are leaving for a brief business trip in Dallas and Mineral Wells.

Mrs. Mollie McCormick, Mrs. N. C. Vest and Mrs. Paul Rountree of Midland were here Saturday.

Handwriting Expert Joins Herald Staff
Readers Offered Services Of Noted Chicago Graphologist

Today The Herald has good news for its readers! This newspaper has the pleasure of announcing that it has arranged to make available to its readers the services of Lorne A. Milne, nationally known graphologist.

Mr. Milne has been favorably known in the larger cities of the country for quite a long time, and heretofore it has been impossible to secure his services outside these large metropolitan centers. But now, through the enterprise of The Herald, the citizens of Big Spring may avail themselves of the opportunity of consulting this famous handwriting analyst.

You will find in this issue of The Herald a coupon that entitles you to a 500-word analysis of your handwriting by Mr. Milne. All you have to do is fill in the coupon and mail it, as directed, together with 10 cents in coin to cover the cost of handling, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for his reply. Your analysis will come to you in an attractive booklet and it will be something you will want to keep, something to show your friends.

And now let's see what this business of handwriting analysis really is... what is graphology?

First of all, it is a recognized science. Webster's dictionary says, "graphology is the science of estimating character or of determining personality by studying handwriting."

Mr. Milne will take the sample of handwriting you send in and analyze it carefully. In his reply he will reveal your outstanding traits of character and personality. What your handwriting is... you are! Rich man, poor man, lawyer, chief—future success or ultimate failure—your handwriting gives you away like no other expression of character can. And what's more, it gives your friends, your business associates, your lover, your friend or enemy away, too!

In these times of the split and encouragement found in those around you will be a big help in restoring self-confidence to all who receive them. Outstanding traits and abilities are revealed by handwriting, and, when these are called to one's attention, they are certain to bring the feeling that after all things are not so bad.

Learn about yourself and others by taking advantage of The Herald's wonderful offer!

Send in your coupon today! Avail yourself of this unusual opportunity while the offer is open. Secure a 500-word analysis of your handwriting for only the cost of handling, 10 cents, an analysis that would ordinarily cost you at least $5! Be one of the first in Big Spring to secure an analysis.

Clip and mail the coupon you'll find on page 6 in this issue.

SPORTS ON PARADE
By CURTIS BISHOP

Two more contests, one each with the Sweetwater Mustangs and the Colorado Wolves, the latter game to be played tonight in Colorado gym, stand between the Steers and their second consecutive undefeated practice season. Last year the Bovines romped to twenty-two consecutive wins before losing to Yancy in the state cage classic. This year they threaten to go the record several better this season as the statistics show twenty wins all ready on the credit side and none in the red.

Forty-two victories and one defeat in the last two seasons! Which is lots of basketball games won and mighty few lost.

The edition of the Bovines this year is a stronger one than that which lost out in the first round in Austin last winter. Sounds like boasting, Mr. Greig over at Abilene and Bobby Campbell back at Breckenridge way, but it's true. They've got something this year that no other Big Spring basketball team ever had, the ability to play their best when the going is the hardest. Obie Bristow's football team had that magic element, but looking back over the athletic squads of the last five or six years we opine that until 1931 it has always been missing.

On paper Bristow and Brown have compiled noteworthy records in their "freshman" year as coaches. In reality they have done more than their win and loss status shows. If there is such a thing as morale and experts say there is, then the Big Spring team ever had it until this year. For example the Big Spring-Brownwood football game of 1930.

You fans who have been missing the basketball games this year have missed something that hasn't been seen on a Big Spring court in many a day. You don't know what it is to see the home town lads come back in a fighting fury after trailing for three quarters. You saw the football games it is true, but then the Steers were generally so far ahead that the game was hardly of interest after the first few minutes of play. The football team, we must say, didn't play the strongest clubs in West Texas night after night. They didn't sear rally after rally to win game after game.

For the last two weeks we've lived in dread of the night when the Bovines were going to forget to put on the last quarter spurt and when they would topple from their pedestal as one of the very, very few undefeated high school teams in the state. As yet they haven't slipped down a rung of the ladder. They've beaten San Angelo no less than four times on account of rallies. And David Hopper, whom we nominate here and now for as deputy a player in the pinches as we know of, has led all four scoring bursts.

Here's one to think about, motorcycle polo. Every afternoon, it seems, quite a few aviators, riders, horsemen, cyclists, or whatever is the correct term for a motorcycle rider, gather out at the East Third ward and enjoy a version of polo. They have a field 300 by 200 feet rigged up or laid out, (again we refer ourselves to a grammatician or whatever it is that is supposed to be an authority upon the correctness of various terms) and stage some lively contests. If plans introduced at the American Legion meeting Monday night materialize as expected there will be a benefit contest staged here sometime in the near future with a visiting team. The players kick the ball with the foot, somewhat like soccer.

How anybody can ride a motorcycle and still have enough legs and arms to handle a bouncing ball we will not explain. We remember the first and last time we ever sat astride one. There was a man back of the Home Bakery that rented one out to anybody that wanted it. He never stated that one we rode again. In fact he never found it all. And he hasn't found us as yet.

There was a clay bank up where Bunnell street sits, you know the school campus, and we remember it very well. The writer went and collected about the accident however. We were out "picking" for about twenty minutes and it took half-a-day to collect the pieces.

been published in a Swatow paper. The affair was reported to theraig department today by American Consul Green at Swatow.

Last Saturday the Japanese consul at Swatow demanded that the mayor close the offending newspaper and apologize. Green reported if this were not done, the Japanese consul said, Japan would "take such steps as it considered expedient."

Chinese were given until last night to comply.

The dispatch from Green was dated at noon yesterday.

As a result of this situation, more than 5,000 Chinese troops moved in to Swatow yesterday and took up positions northeast of the city. Green said. Troops are commanded by General Chang.

Swatow is about 700 miles south of Shanghai on the coast. It is opposite the island of Formosa (Taiwan) which Japan owns and is about 200 miles from Canton.

Legion

Spring News and a pioneer resident of Big Spring, was voted into the Legion as an honorary member in token of the local post's appreciation of the assistance he has given them in the past decade. Mr. Hayden is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

The Sick and Relief committee, composed of Frank Jones, G. C. Dunham, and Bill Welch, reported upon two cases which had been brought to their attention during the past week. Jones told of a veteran who had contracted tuberculosis as a result of a shrapnel wound and who was in dire need of assistance from the local post. The man's history reveals that he has been in three different hospitals since the war, and steps have been taken by Commander Whaley to secure hospitalization for him again. In the meantime the post is furnishing him with milk, bread, and fruits.

Girl Suffers

Dunham described the plight of a 16-year old girl, whose father was out of work, and who is suffering from Bright's disease. The committee was instructed by Whaley to use its own judgment in securing medical assistance for her. Mr. Dunham related that he had advised the parent to apply for a job at the city auditorium being built here.

It was brought up during the meeting that a petition circulated over the state by "Pay-the-Bonus" club was not a movement recognized or sponsored by any of the three recognized representatives of army veterans in Washington, and that $1 charged for signing the petition marked it as the scheme of some unscrupulous party or parties.

Whaley pointed out that the Legion headquarters in Washington were making every effort to push relief administration through, and that no charge was being made members for this work.

Thirty new members have been signed by the five girls competing in the Legion membership contest, raising the total to 155. More lists are available for any girls wishing to enter the contest.

It was voted to have a statement of the balance and a list of all expenditures presented each month.

Motor Polo

A benefit motor polo contest between a group of Big Spring riders led by Mr. Thixton, a member of the post, and some out of town club was discussed and a committee of C. L. Bryant, Jack Ellis, Jess Slaughter, L. A. Croft, and Bart Wilkinson was appointed to investigate the possibilities of the game. Thixton welcomed spectators to their practice contests at the East Third park, guaranteeing plenty of excitement for the spectators.

Following the presentation of five new members and their announcement of the divisions with which they served during the war the meeting was adjourned.

Many Attending Singing School

Fifty-four were present Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for the first session of the singing school now in progress at the Church of Christ, Fourteenth and Main. The classes are being taught by Thomas S. Cobb, widely known instructor of song books, and music readers. The afternoon class is being conducted primarily for those who have never attended a singing school and also for the school children. Young and old who wish to start at the beginning are especially urged not to miss another afternoon session. Well over a hundred is expected this afternoon.

One hundred were present last evening for the first night session, and were well pleased with the lesson. Mr. Cobb states that those who attend and take an active interest in each lesson, will at the close of the school, (lasting two weeks) be able to read music, and sing any song.

There are no tuition charges. Although the class was secured by the Church of Christ, anyone in Big Spring is extended a cordial invitation to attend. The afternoon session begins promptly at 4:30 to last thirty minutes. The evening session begins promptly at 7:30 for an hour's class.

British Sends Troops From Hong Kong

LONDON (UP)—An infantry battalion and an artillery battalion of British troops were rushed to Shanghai aboard a warship from Hong Kong, to join the three battalions already at Shanghai and the five warships ordered there Saturday.

While reinforcements were en route to Shanghai for forces defending the International settlement there, the government had asked the United States to cooperate in establishing and patrolling a neutral zone between Japanese and Chinese troops.

General Fleming, commander of British troops at Shanghai and British military officer at the settlement, had asked for the reinforcements.

The foreign office announced that creation of a neutral zone was proposed at a meeting of British and United States Consuls-General at Shanghai with the Japanese and Chinese commanders. The government approved the proposal, instructed Consul-General John F. Freeman to cooperate in the creation of the zone, and requested Washington to take similar action.

Announcement of the government's decision was made after lengthy conferences at No. 10 Downing street between Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and members of his cabinet. MacDonald returned to London hurriedly from Scotland, where he had been on a brief holiday.

Standard Oil Pays Dividend

NEW YORK.—The Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey Monday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents and the usual extra of 25 cents, both payable March 15 to stock of record February 15.

The declaration of the usual extra dividend on Standard of New Jersey was regarded as one of the important favorable developments of the day in Wall street.

There had been some rumors that the directors might decide to omit the extra in view of the unfavorable trend of corporation earnings, to which it is assumed this big company has been no exception. In well-informed quarters, however, the regular extra had been expected.

Directors of Secony-Vacuum Corp., formed last summer by merger of Standard Oil of New Jersey and Vacuum oil companies, declared a dividend of 25 cents payable March 15 to stock of record February 19.

CHICAGO — Directors of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana voted Monday a dividend of 25 cents a share payable on March 15 to stockholders of record February 15, 1932.

This is the same dividend rate as the third and fourth quarters of 1931.

At Anderson, S. C., the La France Manufacturing company added 100 men to its tapestry department.

The Eagle Poultry Farm at Salisbury has orders booked for the next six weeks that will insure almost capacity business, J. C. Eagle said.

Operations scheduled to be resumed today at the Pisgah Cotton Mills at Brevard will furnish work to 125 men.

CONOCO Gasoline
Keeps Your Gasoline Tax High!

Your state could well afford to reduce its tax on gasoline if it could stop evasion of the gasoline tax law. To put it another way, your state could build many more miles of good roads each year if it were not for bootleg gasoline.

What is bootleg gasoline? It is gasoline on which the seller pays your state no tax. But the racketeer collects all or a part of the tax from you—and puts it in his own pocket. The racketeer robs not only your state but you! This theft of tax money means less money for state road funds and keeps your gasoline tax high.

Will you help stamp out this new racketeer? You may be buying bootleg gasoline and not know it! There's one way to be sure your tax money is going to your state and coming back to you in the form of good roads. That way is to buy nothing but reliable gasoline, sold under a familiar, respected brand name, backed by a dependable company who complies with the law.

CONOCO Gasoline is a branded gasoline you can buy with safety at the sign of the CONOCO Red Triangle.
