CWE CHAT WITH EDITOR

By Louis C. Stas

The time for the Old Mobeetie Blue Grass Festival is drawing near; it is scheduled for July 26-27-28.

Two locals, Marvin and Darren Grimes will be riding in the 'Wild West 150'.

Congratulations, Heath Mitchell! Heath was named the 1991 All-Around Cowboy of the Motley County Rodeo at Roaring Springs this past weekend.

Congratulations, Lori Morrison and Stephanie Dollar! These young ladies attended a band camp for drum majors and were recognized for their accomplishments. A picture and additional information are supposed to be forth coming.

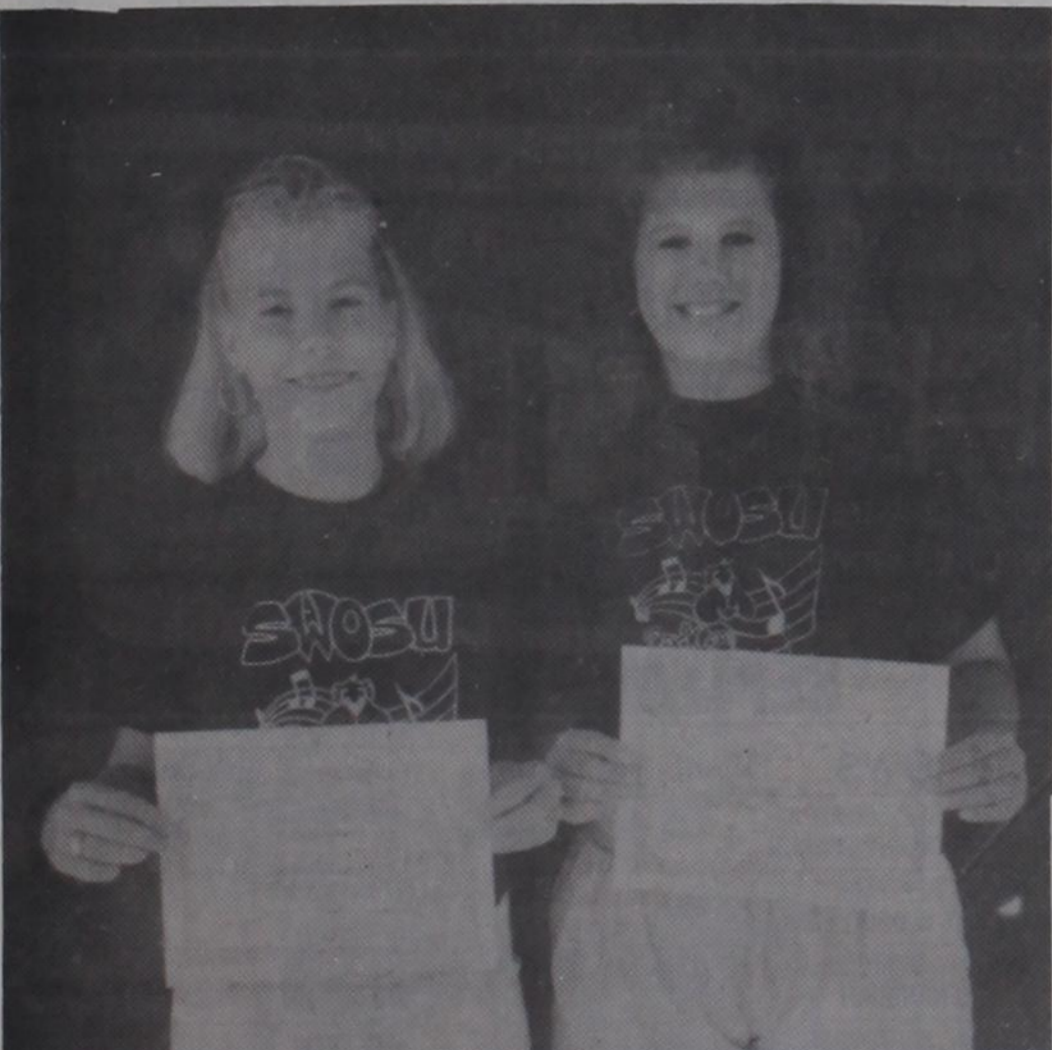

Warning: No more Mr. Nice Guy; tickets are being given by the Co. Sheriff's Department to speeders and those failing to stop at stop signs. In a test on main street, taken recently, it was not the teenagers caught speeding. One adult was observed speeding three times on the same day; she lives on main street.

Speed bumps were discussed for Mobeetie Street at the last city council meeting, as a means of slowing down speeders on Mobeetie Street. Now, if 'you all' hate those things like I do, you will slow down.

The 'freight wagon' went to Sherman early Friday morning and came back Friday evening loaded with miscellaneous items for storage and 4 youngsters. Jennifer and Liz returned home after spending the first part of the week in Sherman, and the grandkids, Ronal Jr. and Jessica, are here to spend a few weeks. Barbara, Mother Stas and I had a few days of quiet.

Wheeler City Council

Speeding, Stop Signs, Teen Center Are Topics

July 15, 1991

The regular meeting of the City Council of Wheeler, Texas was called to order by Mayor Wanda Herd.

Barbra Koelzer made motion, seconded by Bob McCain, to approve the minutes as written. The Motion carried.

Walter Simmons made motion, seconded by Mark Frankenbery, to pay bills as presented. Motion carried.

Frank Clymer reported on the activities of the City employees.

Charles Kuntz presented receipts and disbursements and discussed same.

Chris Osborne met with the Council to discuss the speeding on Mobeetie Street, and the problem of drivers failing to stop at the stop signs on 10th and Mobeetie. It was decided that citations would be given to any driver caught speeding or failing to stop at stop signs in the City. Sheriff Adams stated that it was not necessarily the teenagers not abiding by the law, it is the adults as well. If the citations do not stop the problem, then the city will place speed barriers at various locations on Mobeetie Street. (There are approximately twenty children living in this area.)

Danny Flanagan met with the Council to discuss a teen center. After a lengthy discussion, it was decided that it was an excellent idea, but the City could not afford to build or purchase a teen center. The Council stated they would support one anyway possible if someone wanted to open a teen center personally.

Bob McCain made motion, seconded by Mark Frankenbery, to keep the Swimming Pool open from 4:00 to 6:00 during the week and on the weekend at regular hours during the week of August 19-25. If there is enough swimmers the first week, then the pool will remain open through the Labor Day weekend. The motion carried.

Bob McCain made motion, seconded by Barbra Koelzer to allow Bob and Sue Stiles to connect to the City sewer at their own expense. The motion carried.

Walter Simmons made motion, seconded by Mark Frankenbery, the meeting adjourn.

Those present: Mayor Wanda Herd. Councilmembers: Walter Simmons, Mark Frankenbery, Barbra Koelzer, and Bob McCain. Sheriff Jimmy Adams, Charles, Kuntz, Chris Osborne, Danny, Kim, and Katie Flanagan, Danny Wolf, Louis Stas, Maria Gospar, Wanda Francis, Bill and Nancy Morrison, Frank Clymer and Claudine Finsterwald.

From The Minister's Desk:

On July 29th, 1969, Neil Armstrong became the first man to walk on the surface of the moon. As millions of people watched this historic event on television, a television commentator excitedly proclaimed: "This is the greatest thing that has happened in the history of the world!" While this statement is understandable, it is not correct. The "greatest thing that has happened in the history of the world—" is not the ascent of man to the moon, but it is the descent of deity to the earth. This is a visited planet! It is a planet that has been visited by God in the person of Jesus Christ. But what was the purpose of this visit? There are at least three words that can explain the purpose of this visit. These three words are:

Revelation

When Jesus came to this earth, He was the manifestation of God in the flesh. Jesus perfectly and completely revealed God to man. The Apostle Paul emphatically affirmed that in Jesus "—all the fullness of Deity—" existed "—in bodily form—" (Colossians 2:9)

The Apostle John recorded a great truth when he wrote: "—God is love—" (1 John 5:8) But this great truth would be a simple abstraction if Jesus had not become flesh and lived among men. (John 1:4) His fleshly life, which is recorded in the New Testament, provides a full and precise portrait of God and His love for man.

This planet has been visited by the Son of God. And this visit was a revelation of God and His nature. Reconciliation When Jesus came to this world, God and man were estranged by sin, needing reconciliation. And

Isn't It The Truth

By Ab Gunter

When I wuz a youngun growing up my Mother and Grandmother made sure I had manners, as they called it. I guess it meant everything fum washing behind my ears to washin my body to a gillion other things. Yes, mam, No Mam, Yes Sir and No Sir were some of the most used manner requirements and you wuz to say Good Morning and Good Evening to everyone you met. My grandfather was a stickler on manners and he always greeted everyone and expected a return from them. One morning in the early 1900's he was walking down the street and two young ladies were approaching and grandad said Good Morning Young Ladies and apparently they were preoccupied and never answered. He let out a Cherokee yell that scared the daylight out of these girls. He again said Good Morning to them and in return they said Good Morning Mr. Gunter. Over 50 years later these same two ladies said they remembered the occasion and remembered to greet everyone after that. I wish that was still a custom but when you go in a store anymore maybe the clerks will sort of grunt or maybe they won't. Many of these folks will make you feel that you are bothering them or they are too busy talking to one of the other employees. Now mind you not all the clerks are that way. Many of them are very courteous and friendly but too darn many of them aren't. Not long ago Mama and I went into a store to get something and the four folks that worked there wuz busy entertaining each other probaly with local gossip. I wonder if they realize if it wasn't for Birds like me and you they might be in the unemployment line instead of in the store. I've heard of companies spending gillions of bucks trying to improve their sales and will go to no end to decorate their windows and so forth, but one of the best ways is to have sales persons that will ask May I help you or just Good Morning er what ever.

Sometimes bein mannerly will sort of get you in trouble if you over do it. I member many years ago I enlisted in the Army and when I got to the base that was to be my home for some months I greeted everyone and smiled and none of the soldiers would even give me the time of day. I kept up my Good Mornings and all that and still no response. The corporals would get you out in front of the barracks and scare the livin' daylight out of you. Make you run, jump, twist and make you march till you felt the day would never end and then have no tellin how many other chores fore you got to hit the sack. I found after many weeks that the soldiers were friendly enough. They weren't to speak to us recruits nor have anything to do with us. Seems like it wuz the way to make a man out uv a kid.

One morning the First Soldier asked me some questions and I said I don't know that sir. He looked at me and said Gunter you only say Yes Sir to the officers, Do you understand?? I looked at him and said, Yessir I do. He and all the other older soldiers finally figured out that my Mothers manners stuck with this country boy and after many years in service I still used my manners with no regard to race, color, creed or rank.

By the way, I had me a birthday not long ago and as yet I can't feel any drastic changes, Mama still has to keep an eye on me er I will look at the party girls walkin down the street an if Mama isn't around I will maybe wink er whistle (my false teeth sort of hamper the whistlin but I try). One day I overheard Mama talkin to one of her lady friends and the lady said Berita, how do you put with that horney ole toot. Mama laughed and said Young lady, Ab is but as horny as our decaffeinated Tom Cat, most of his oneness is just in his head.

See you next week.

A Gift For My Daughter

By Phyllis Callan Kinnard

Dearest Tonya, Guess I could say, "I love you", In a hundred million ways That tender heart, and sweet concern The way you "coin a phrase"

Yesterday, I gave you birth Today you're going to wed My one and only "baby girl" Where have the years all fled?

My only girl and "first born child" I couldn't trust my eyes! Tiny fingers! Tiny toes! The bluest of blue eyes.

I laughed and held you close to me A package wrapped with love I thanked the Lord for sending me This treasure from above

If I could find the words to say What's in all the books, in all the world 'Twould only be a start

You're the sunshine and the flowers That touch a mother's soul The "apple of your daddy's eye" You're silver and you're gold

You're the stars up in God's heaven The feeling we call joy You're all we ever dreamed of To your brothers, "a sweet toy"

You dad and brothers spoiled you Guess I was guilty too, You were such a sweet delight It wasn't hard to do

A family circle, "group of five", We turned to God in prayer If one was sad, then all was sad And let the world "beware"

A new frontier you face now With Jesus' blessing too, The first step is your vows Dear The rest is up to you

God made for man a woman To be there at his side To cherish and support him To "always" be his bride

Let the Bible be your guide To build your household strong Just listen to your heart then And you will not go wrong

So as you wed my darlin' Remember how it's been Our love to you and to your groom, Just keep that love within

For better or for worse In sickness and in health Your vows are everlasting In poverty or wealth

Your dad and I adore you We welcome this new "son" We know that he's quite special Cause your sweet love he's won!

Love,
Mama

Care Center Comments
By Lois

Isn't the rain wonderful! It's unusual to receive such a nice cool drink in the middle of July.

Our current events group has gotten bigger. We enjoy the discussion so much. Everyone puts in their 2 cents worth. We would like to get more participants.

Georgia Holland and her mother 98 year old Dora McGuffin spent Monday afternoon making rag rugs. Georgia Sews the strips together and Dora braids them together. It's amazing to watch the two of them work. They both do a super job and have such a good time while they work.

We enjoyed a wonderful surprise Monday afternoon. Several of the Allison United Methodist Women came for a visit and treated us to several songs in the lobby. Thank you to Ariel Lohberger, Dorenda Begert, Suzanne Lohberger, Avis Parker, Emma Rogers and Edith Donaldson. You are always welcome at the Care Center. We always enjoy the piano and singing.

Icyl Littrell asked me to mention what a nice deed was shown to her around her birthday. Virginia and Clark Reagan brought her a cake with the year she was born on it, and some of the best sliced peaches she ever tasted, she said. This meant so much to her. Thank you Clark and Virginia!

Tuesday afternoon two of the adult classes from the First Baptist church hosted our July Birthday party. Those helping out were Cathy Montgomery, Sindy Chapman, Mary Andis and Beverly Smith. Stacey Miller and Whitney Simmons (the singing cousins) were our entertainment. Robert Helsley, Randy Rives and several of the Baptist kids also came to help out. We enjoyed the singing, cake and punch.

Those having a July Birthday are! Jane Knoll, 3, 1905; Vena Hopkins, 4, 1902; Marie Wood, 4, 1909; Evelyn Young 12, 1921; Lorena Adams, 25, 1918; Margaret Goodwin, 31, 1921. Pictures were taken and balloons were presented to all celebrities. Happy Birthday. Thank you to all who gave us such a wonderful afternoon.

Wednesday morning we enjoyed Janice Sparlin and her Baptist Bible Study. She always makes it so informative. We are lucky to have her come each week along with the help of Peggy Hunt, (who had to work this week.) Thank you both.

We had a blast at Wednesday afternoon bingo. Our volunteers were Racael Montgomery, Benny Sword, Stephanie Lee, Katie Flanagan, Misty Jones and Danny Flanagan. There were 19 players this week. We had three big winners. Willie Anderson, Thelma Green and Jane Knoll.

Erica Puryear was so kind to take care of serving juice to everyone during the afternoon. Thank you!

Ila Collins, Fern Young and Rozena Zybach came as usual to spend time with us on Thursday morning. We always enjoy their music, singing and Bible study so much. We look forward to their visits. Thanks ladies.

Bea Smotherman and Mary Ann Maxwell were here Thursday afternoon to mend our rips and sew the elastic back in place along with the 100 other tasks. They are worth a million. Thank you both so much for coming.

Lajune Alexander came to handle the poppin of the corn. With the help of Cathy Montgomery they made it seem simple. We appreciate it ladies.

I would like to say a special "Thank You" to Cathy Montgomery who seems to always be available when I need someone to lend a hand. She fills in quite often and I appreciate her very much.

We were visited by the cutest bunch on Thursday night. The "Clowns of Joy" from Pampa came to do their show for us. We all had a wonderful time and a good laugh. We hope they come again in the near future. Thanks for the good time, chuckles.

A big thank you to Tanya Gonzales for the large donation of finger nail polish given to the residents. Our ladies will enjoy it alot.

Bill Atherton made a motion which was seconded by Boyd Hiltbrunner to accept the Justice of Peace reports for the month of June and for the following amounts: Doyle Ramsey—$377.50 and Herbert Stacy—$13,367.00. Motion carried unanimously.

APPROVAL OF BILLS FOR PAYMENT:

Bill Atherton made a motion which was seconded by Bryan Close to pay the bills as approved and found listed in Volume 10 page 98 of the Minutes of Accounts Allowed. Motion carried unanimously.

BID ACCEPTED FOR DIESEL FUEL:

Bids were received from: Tindal Wholesale-Shamrock, Texas-62.80c per gallon with a delivery point at Shamrock and Taylor Petroleum, Wheeler, Texas-66 1/2c per gallon with a delivery point at Wheeler.

Boyd Hiltbrunner made a motion which was seconded by Bryan Close to accept both bids as presented, effective July 15, 1991 and running through October 15, 1991. Motion carried unanimously.

BUDGET WORKSHOP DAYS:

Jim and Melba Montgomery were here on Sunday morning. They are so kind to come out each Sunday to teach Sunday school. We appreciate them so much.

Rev. Robert Helsley and members of the First Baptist church were here on Sunday afternoon for worship service. Just look at what our whole week would have been like without the First Baptist church. Our volunteers are everything to the Care Center. Thank you all so much. We would be lost without our community churches, they do so much.

Thank you to Bonnie Davidson for the Donation of cucumbers and onions to the Care Center. They love 'em.

See ya next week
Lois
P.S. We are expecting our new administrator this week.

THANK YOU

Thank you for the few people, who came out and presented their views on the Teen Center project. The City Council did not turn the project down, but was stated that the city couldn't help finance the project because the city does not have the funds at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas L. Manning of Edmond, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Kinnard, Sr. of Wheeler, Texas are happy to announce the marriage of their children, Desiree Lynn Manning of Edmond to Mr. Henry W. (Jay) Kinnard, Jr. of Miami, Okla. The couple were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, May 4, 1991 at the Waterlou Road Baptist Church of Edmond.

Desiree is the maternal granddaughter of Mrs. Marie Sessions and the paternal granddaughter of Mrs. Mildred Manning, both of Ringling, Okla.

Jay is the maternal grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Callan of Wheeler and the paternal grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Kinnard of Rush Springs, Oklahoma.

The couple are fall graduates of Southwestern Oklahoma State University of Weatherford, Okla. where Desiree earned a Bachelor of Arts in Education degree and Jay earned a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy degree.

The double ring, candlelight ceremony began at two o'clock in the afternoon. Officiating was the Rev. Tim Richardson, pastor.

Vocal music for the occasion was provided by Doug and Barb Ogan of Edmond and Kristen Towers, also of Edmond. To recorded accompaniment, the Ogans sang "The Parent's Prayer". Doug Ogan sang a solo "Forever Is As Far As I Will Go". Kristen sang "Bonded Together". Barb and Kristen wore white Japhet Orchid corsages and Doug wore a boutonniere of fresh cut white Freesia.

Piano music was provided by Marilyn Johnson of Edmond, who played the traditional "Bridal Chorus" and "Wedding March", and presented a touching twenty-minute prelude of some of the couple's favorite songs. She wore a white Japhet Orchid corsage.

The altar was graced by a "white latticed" garden prayer bench, with a white arched fifteen branched candelabra providing the central background. Embracing the altar to either side and back were a pair of "seven branched candelabrum".

Accenting the candelabrum and prayer bench were large turquoise bows and a draping of "white tulle" fashioned by the bride and her mother. Completing the altar setting was the "Unity Candelabra" trimmed in like fashion.

The handcrafted "Unity Candle" of a white frosty icicle effect, was adorned by tiny white doves of wax, framing a laminated and embedded "oval shaped" copy of the couple's wedding invitation.

Large turquoise and silver bows adorned reserved pews along the bridal path.

Escorted by her father, to the playing of the "Bridal Chorus", the bride presented to her mother and to the groom's mother, long stemmed white roses. She was given in marriage by her father, with the words, "Her mother and I present our daughter with our love and blessing." Mr. Manning wore a light gray tuxedo trimmed with silver satin and a boutonniere of "fresh cut" white Freesia.

The bride was attired in a formal length dropped waist gown of white bridal satin and lace applique. The bodice featured hand sewn seed pearls and beads. "Sheer illusion" covered the neckline, topped off with a "boat collar", bonded with hanging pearls.

The long sleeves of "sheer illusion" and "lace applique" were fitted to below the wrist in a "V" and puffed at the shoulders.

Four strands of pearls draped across the "V" shaped upper back of the gown, giving way to a dropped waist with an "Angel Bow" of white bridal satin and "lace applique". Attached by the "angel bow" to the full skirted gown was a semi-cathedral length train of "gleaming white" bridal satin, featuring six sheer "windows" of delicate white lace "cut outs".

The elaborately gathered "veil of illusion" framed a semi-circle "pouf" of satin trimmed ringlets, framing the sides and back of the brides head and falling to just above the waist in length. The braided white satin and pearl headpiece formed a lowered "V" to the center of the forehead. Adorning the headpiece to the brides left was a single satin rose, from which extended delicately "pearled" strands of "Lily of the Valley". The bridal veil and headpiece were fashioned by the bride and her mother.

The bride chose petite drop earrings of rhinestone and simulated pearl, and carried a "hand bouquet" of fresh cut white Freesia, tied with a silver ribboned bow.

She completed the tradition with "something old" her great grandmother's wedding ring (worn on the index finger of her right hand) "something new", her wedding gown, "something borrowed", her bridal petticoat, and something blue, her turquoise "blue" garter fashioned by her mother.

Her "below shoulder" length hair was styled in loose flowing curls. Serving the bride as maid-of-honor, was Tonya Kinnard of Amarillo, Texas, sister of the groom. Bridesmaids were Holly Dougherty of Edmond, friend of the bride and groom, and Monica Maes of Joplin, Missouri, also a friend of the bride and groom.

The bridal attendants were attired in identical, street length, two piece turquoise suits of shimmering "moire faille" with self fabric buttons. The suits were trimmed across the shoulders and to the "caps" of the upper sleeve arms with re-embroidered alencon lace, and they carried miniature versions of the "bridal bouquet". Their suits were hand sewn and measured in length to an "exact" seventeen inches from the floor in the white heels they wore.

Candlelighters were Dionna and Nikki Folsom of Ringling, cousins of the bride. They wore wrist corsages of ribboned turquoise and "fresh cut" white Freesia and were attired in two piece suits, identical to the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride was attired in a "street length" peach colored dress of sheer voile over satin, with satin gathered waist. Accenting the dress was a satin bow to the side and just below the waist. She wore a corsage of ribboned turquoise and "fresh cut" white Freesia.

The mother of the groom was attired in a two piece street length silk dress of pale seafoam green and "knife pleated" skirting with bodice of peach and pale seafoam green floral pattern. The dress was topped by a double breasted blazer of the same floral design and color. She wore a wrist corsage of "fresh cut" white Freesia.

The groom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails and trimmed in white satin. He wore a boutonniere of "fresh cut" white Freesia. Serving the groom as best man was his father, Henry W. Kinnard, Sr. of Wheeler. Groomsman and ushers were Monty Kinnard of Amarillo, brother of the groom, Heath Crosby of Joplin, Missouri, friend of the bride and groom, Brent Callan of Hinton, OK., cousin of the groom and Darrell Manning of Edmond, brother of the bride.

The best man and groomsman and ushers were attired in light gray tuxedos with silver trim. They wore boutonnières of "fresh cut" white Freesia.

The grandmothers of the bride and the grandmother of the groom, were presented with turquoise ribboned corsages of "fresh cut" white Freesia, upon arrival. The groom's grandfather was presented with a boutonniere of "fresh cut" white Freesia.

Highlights of the ceremony were; the lighting of a pair of tapered white candles to either side of the "unity candle" by the parents of the bride and groom, the lighting of the 39 white tapered candles of the candelabrum, entrance of the bride and her father to the playing of the "Bridal Chorus", the giving of the bride by her father, the singing of "The Parents Prayer", (as the mother's were escorted to their seats by their husbands), the deeply touching instructions and comments of the officiant to the couple, concerning the responsibilities, beauty and sanctity of "Holy Matrimony" followed by the singing of "Forever Is As Far As I Will Go", repeating of the vows by the couple, (while facing each other) the exchange of rings, the kneeling of the couple at the prayer bench for prayer, the lighting by the couple of the "Unity Candle" from the same flames alighted by their parents, followed by the couple facing each other, while Kristen Towers sang "Bonded Together", the words from the officiant of "I now pronounce you husband and wife, the kiss, and the recessional to the playing of "The Wedding March."

Registering the guests at the circle shaped table of turquoise cloth was Cindy Grinstead of Umatilla, Florida (cousin of the bride). She wore a turquoise ribboned corsage of "fresh cut" white Freesia. The table featured a white leather, guest book and white plumed feather pen. To the head of the book stood an 8x10 inch photo frame displaying a turquoise background, silver scripted with the words from the couple's invitation, "I have the one whom my soul loves" Song of Solomon 3:4. Around the edge of the table and evenly distributed, were four silver ribboned bows. Attached from one bow to the other in a continuous scalloped circle, were small silver ball streamers, featuring tiny one inch silver bells.

The wedding cake was served with a pearl handled serving set borrowed from Holly Dougherty, one of the bridesmaids and friend of the couple. The ladies wore white japhet orchid corsages.

The groom's cake was cut and served with an identical pearl handled knife and cake server, a gift from the groom's mother.

Out of town guests aside from the attendants, parents and grandparents were: Wheeler, Texas: Sharla Weaver and Lauren, Jerry and Sharon Horton, Kyle Sword, Barbara and Louis Stas and Jennifer, Liz Lovell, Ringling, OK.: Phil McBain, B.P. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall, hosted by the parents of the bride.

The bride and groom combination "curved table" was of white linen with gathered white linen skirting. The top gathered edge of the skirting was fashioned with turquoise ribbon and featured a pair of turquoise ribboned bows to either corner before giving way to the angled ends.

Centrally placed was a three tiered white wedding cake on a traditional base surrounded by leather leaf and baby's breath. The cake featured a sea shell edging in "bridal white". Supporting the second and third tiers were white Grecian pillars, accented with "roses of white icing" atop the first and second tiers.

Silk ribbons of turquoise encircled each tier with tiny silk bows adorning the front of each tier.

Topping the cake were the traditional "bride and groom", adorned with Lily of the Valley. The cake was embraced to either side by a pair of silver candlestick holders with lighted white tapered candles.

To the left of the wedding cake, was a triple layered "red velvet" groom's cake dressed in white icing and edged in "bridal white" seashell design. The name "Kinnard" in cursive turquoise script was featured across the surface of the cake.

To the right of the wedding cake was a tall silver punch bowl, filled with freshly mixed lemonade, with lemon slices adorning the surface. Added to the lemonade shortly before serving was finely crushed ice. Around the punch bowl were gleaming crystal cups.

The table was further enhanced by dishes of nuts and mints and neatly placed stainless flatware. An added touch were stacks of lovely turquoise beverage napkins bearing a silver colored engraving, Jay and Desiree, May 4, 1991.

The reception table was set before a white latticed background, which was draped with sheer white tulle and large turquoise bows.

Serving the table were Mrs. Jean McBain of Ringling, aunt of the bride, Sandy McBain of Norman, Oklahoma, cousin of the bride, Cheryl Lovejoy of Weatherford, friend of the bride and groom and Sherel Whited, also friend of the bride and groom, of Portales, New Mexico.

Their hosts at the camp were Glen and Maurine Lane. (Glenn is the brother of the late Bob Lane of your city, Maurine is a cousin of Elva Wood). Anyway the weather was nice and the "Sams" had a wonderful time.

Carlene Brittan of Groom spent 4 days with her grandmother Elva Wood. She returned home on Tuesday.

On Monday evening Elva and Carlene drove to Lefors and had supper with Elizabeth and Lanny Atchley.

Mrs. Nellie Luttrell and Mona Guinn were so pleased to have children and grandchildren with them on the weekend. Mona's son David and wife Debbie, Lisa and Jacob came from Austin.

Brent Lee of Amarillo visited Sunday with his parents Sylvia Lee Shuler and Leo, and his brother Mike and family, and his sister Lucretia Davis and family.

I'm so glad we have the ACTS (Ch 13) broadcasting on our TV System. As some of you know I am at home most of the time. I especially miss going to church. But on Sunday I worship with Amarillo First Baptist, First Baptist of Dallas, Frazier Methodist and others. The choirs are wonderful. But I'd miss it all to go to my own church in Wheeler. All week ACTS has a variety of programs, but I don't do a lot of TV'ing.

Here and There

By Laura Guthrie

I noticed in the Amarillo Globe News last Sunday that Mr. Mike Haynes had put tags on some of the Golden Spread towns. And he asked,

"What do people think when they hear the name of your town? Now I think Mr. Haynes did a pretty good job. For example he tagged Wheeler with: cowboys and horse trailers, the Rives twins. Bobby Vanpool's terrific play in football and other football plays. It all seemed quite familiar to me. He (Mr. Haynes) did well on his other tags also.

Patricia and Ed Forrester have done it again. That is they have had another

My Encounter With A "Lion" And My Son, Joey

By Rosalie Keelin

For several years now, I've been planning to try and write an "Ab Gunter" type story (er'sompin' similar) about my encounter with a mountain lion, on the Gageby Creek. Well, nobody can write stories (true or false) like Ab, so I'll just have to write it in my own language.

For years I had heard these lion stories in Mr. Mason's little grocery store, here in Briscoe, from guys like Roy Waters, Charlie Strawbridge and Bulldog Walker. I would listen to some of it, and I'd think, "they probably can't think of nothing else to tell" — Something happened that made me realize these guys were really telling the truth.

Late, one Sun. afternoon, in Aug. of 1966 Travis, my husband, wanted me to take him over to get his baler, at the Jim Selby place. I took along a gal. ice cream bucket and told him, on the way back I was going to pick me a bucket of plums on the Gageby Creek and make some jelly. Travis told me to watch for snakes because in the month of Aug. snakes go blind and will strike at any sound they hear.

I had grown up on a farm in the Kelton Community and my Daddy had dug us a spring fed lake to swim and fish in. I was not afraid of snakes, but I was kinda scared of the neighbors mean bulls when we walked through the pasture, on our way to school, but back to my story, I never did mind Travis too well, but I thought "for one time in my life maybe I'd better take his advise" and watch for snakes.

The fence I had to get over, to the plum patch, was grown up in weeds and was very difficult to get across it, but I finally did and was walking along, sorta watching for the snakes. It was a good ways to where I was going to pick the plums. Soon I thought "I should be about there", so I looked up and much to my surprise, about 6 ft. ahead of me, in a cow trail, was a huge lion, just slowly walking along, swinging his tail. I stopped in my tracks! I thought "I'm not really seeing a lion, he has no mane, it must be heat." About that time, the lion must have sensed my presence and he turned his head around opened his mouth wide, looked at me and I thought "He is a lion and his mouth is big enough to swallow me whole." I suddenly turned and ran faster than I ever ran in my life, and I didn't once, look back to see if he was chasing me. I had no problem getting over the fence, into my car. My heart was really pounding, at that time.

To end this lion story, now I drove home and our youngest son Joey, who was about 17 yrs. of age, was laying in the living room floor watching T.V.

He said "Mama have you done got your plums"? I was real excited, my heart was still pounding very hard. I said "No Joey, I didn't get no plums, a great big lion was right there in front of me" Joey just kept watching T.V. He started laughing and said "Mama, as soon as I watch the rest of my story, I'll take my B.B. gun and go down there and shoot him for you." That's when I started crying. I had all I could take for one day! I've learned from this encounter with a lion, that Roy, Charlie and Bulldog was probably telling the truth, but I really doubt they ever saw a mountain lion that was as big as the one, I saw! End of story.

Save Your Skin And Your Life

Incidence of malignant melanoma, a serious form of skin cancer, is increasing faster than any other form of cancer. This means one out of every seven people will be affected by melanoma.

"Malignant melanoma is an epidemic in the U.S.," said William M. Ramsdell, M.D., an American Cancer Society volunteer spokesperson. "Individuals can easily decrease their risk of ever developing skin cancer by using sunscreen and avoiding over exposure to the sun."

According to the American Cancer Society, the increasing incidence of cancer can be altered if individuals follow a few simple guidelines for reducing their risk of skin cancer.

*Use a sunscreen with a Sun Protection Factor (SPF) of a least 15 during all outdoor activities, and avoid sunburn altogether.

*Avoid direct exposure to the sun between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. If you must go outdoors, wear a hat and protective clothing.

*Avoid tanning salons—they expose your skin to harmful ultraviolet rays.

"We hope that by increasing public awareness about skin cancer prevention and motivating individuals to change their behaviors, we can prevent these needless deaths," said Ramsdell.
