The purpose of the program is to increase student attendance, improve overall academic performance, create a positive school environment, encourage excellence and provide rewards for ex-

The goals of the program is 50% of 7-12 grade students meet criteria for program, to drastically reduce absences, improve TAKS scores and to promote Wheeler I.S.D.

At the end of each six weeks, students will be recognized for 90 and above average, no more than 1 unexcused absence per six weeks; 80 and above average with no unexcused absences per six weeks or perfect attendance.

Each student qualifying will be honored at an assembly at the end of each six weeks. Each will receive a special award. This will range from T-shirts, car decals, hats, and other special awards promoting Wheeler ISD.

Students with a 90 or above average with no more than 2 absences, no ISS and no more than 1 tardy will be exempt from taking final exams. Students with an 80 or above average, no more than 1 absence, no ISS and is not tardy will also be exempt from taking final exams.

At the end of each six week period, a major award will be given. Each student will receive one chance for perfect attendance for each six weeks. They will also receive a chance if they are not tardy or have no office referrals occur during that six-week period. This includes tardiness and dress code violations. Each teacher will also be allowed to award a chance from time to time during the class setting. All of the chances will be compiled and used to draw for a major award at the assembly.

PRIDE stands for Performance, Recognition, Innovation, Determination and Excellence.

Butter Braid Orders Are Being Taken

The Butter Braids of assorted breads are delivered frozen, ready to take out of the freezer, let rise and bake. These are quite an easy treat any time of the year, but are especially nice for the holiday season. They also make nice moderately priced gifts.

The braids are to be paid for when ordered with delivery set for the week of November 14. On the date of delivery, the braids may be picked up at the Chamber of Commerce office at 505 S. Alan L. Bean Blvd.

If you are not contacted and wish to place an order, feel free to contact a Chamber of Commerce member to place your order. The chamber number is 826-3408.

Thought Glenn would get the what the guarters were for and he chicken pen finished, but then there was the Flea Market in Elk City on Friday and on Saturday there was the Allison School reunion. I must admit that it was the best reunion ever. There was a huge crowd, wonderful catered food and those that put it together, Louise Coulter, Clydene Hall and Suzanne Lohberger, did a magnificent job! Too bad it will be another five years before the next one. I really enjoyed it and the wonderful people. And a big thank you to the many lovely people who told me how much they enjoyed this article that I write each week. Vivian Wallace wanted me to send it to the Elk City newspaper so they could enjoy it there as she did not always get a copy of it. You are so nice Vivian.

Gloria Tindol, LVN, is the new supervisor at Parkview Assisted Living. A pleasant lady. Odra Christopher, Opal Hefley, Iona May, Verne Lohberger and Vea Fillingim are all in their 90's, but perky people. Alvern Hutchison and C. B. Brotherton are the "kids" of the Thomas Roy Helton had a flare up with very high blood sugar and had to spend a few days in Parkview Hospital. He is looking good and ready to get back to swathing and baling hay. Doctor thought he should wait a while. Also visiting him Thursday were Chad and Kellie Helton and Chase and Donald Finsterwald. Tooter got out of the hospital Sat., Oct. 1.

Irene Keys is still at Lubbock in he hospital, but glad to hear she is ome better after her wreck. Keep praying for Irene and her family. She hopes to be coming back to Wheeler soon.

Nice to see Reta Grayson and her sister, Armenda Jones, at Wheeler Care Center to visit anher sister, Lavois (Moose) Anderon on Saturday. They had been to Allison to the Allison School Reunion. Many were missing.

Nice to visit with Iona May. Georgia Tipps and Jennifer Maddox came and got lona to go with them to get her hair fixed Friday and they ate lunch at Maxeys. Iona is in Assisted Lving at the hospital. She is cutting out pieces to make a kings-sized quilt for Georgia. She is looking for a small sewing machine to bring to her room. If she can't find one, she will have her big sewing machine brought from her house. She quilts by hand with a hoop after she gets it pieced. lona sure enjoys having something to
