> "It has come to our attention that quite a few persons on our relief rolls have been offered employment at the prevailing wage scale and some have refused to work. In the future, we earnestly request all persons who have offered employment to anyone on relief rolls who is physically able to work (and who refuses to do so), to please report to us the name, address, employment available and wages offered. This information to be supplied in writing."

Then, as a second phase of its acivity, the relief office tenders the following assistance to those who are in need of workmen. The paragraph, also authorized for publication by Veale, reads:

"We wish to call the attention of anyone in need of help of any kind that you will please apply at the office of the Wheeler county relief board, either in Wheeler or Shamrock, since the public seems to have the idea that persons on relief will not work for prevailing wages.

"We have quite a few people on our rolls who are willing to take jobs whereby they can provide food for their families, and if the public will co-operate with us, we feel sure that we can materially aid the relief situation in Wheeler county."

Old Settlers Picnic Asks Co-operation a Complete Success

Two-Day Event Sponsored by Legion Attracted Huge Crowd-Fine Program

That Wheeler's two-day Old Settlers Picnic and Reunion, held here Thursday and Friday of last week, was a complete success is stating a fact modestly. From every angle, with the possible exception of financial returns, the picnic came fully up to expectations.

Although Thursday's attendance was comparatively light, Friday tallied the largest crowd seen in Wheeler for many a day. Conservative estimates place the number assembled in and near Stanley's Grove during the fireworks display and for some time afterwards, at better than 5,000.

The sponsors are so well pleased with the outcome of the venture that plans are being discussed to make it an annual affair. It will very likely be given a later dating another year in order to miss the extremely busy season encountered this time.

The parade of floats Friday morning drew a good crowd. An exceptionally attractive showing was made by the various entries. A feature attraction of the parade was an old fashioned ox team and outfit, driven by C. F. Melton, who lives in the Mobeetie community. Mr. Shira, a mechanic with quarters at Mack's service station, entered an improvised buggy-mobile which drew attention.

A committee of judges composed of Dr. G. H. Stagner, Leo Rosson and Felix Parrish, Legionnaires from Erick, Okla., made the following awards on the floats:

First-B. & P. W. club, $50.00. Second-Girl Scouts, $25.00. Third-Wheeler County Relief Office, $15.00.

Fourth-M. E. Church, $10.00. The city schools' float, a float advertising Palo Duro Park and a group of local cowboys and race horses completed the parade.

That afternoon, the donkey ball game, played by two colored teams from Shamrock, was one of the highlights, both in point of interest and attendance. At intervals during the game, "Tinhorn Hank" and company, a rodeo clown troup playing only the better class of rodeos, furnished a pleasing diversion with new and up-to-date offerings.

Following the ball game, an interesting series of saddle race events were presented. Races were also run Thursday afternoon.

At the picnic grounds during the day, local and district candidates, together with representatives of state candidates, presented their pleas for votes and met the citizenship.

Dr. F. N. Reynolds, Wheeler, was master of ceremonies at the political meeting, with Judge R. H. Forrester, also of this city, delivering the welcome address in his own inimical and pleasing manner. Speakers for state candidates included: Governor-Curtis Douglas, Panhandle, for Witt; John Lee Smith, Throckmorton, for Hunter; McNeil, Amarillo, for Allred; Henry Holmes, jr., Shamrock, for Small; and Dr. F. N. Reynolds, Wheeler, for Small.

Attorney General-Emmett Scott, Amarillo, for Walter Woodward. U. S. Senator-Judge Lackey, Stinnett, for Jos. W. Bailey, jr. Judge W. R. Ewing and wife and Philip Wolfe were meeting the voters. All county candidates, as well as district aspirants, looked after their respective interests.

Lack of competition in the hogcalling contest left Mrs. J. Walter Anglin the only entry. She was prevailed upon to demonstrate her ability in that line and received an award for her efforts.

The old fiddlers contest, staged early in the evening, brought a dozen entries, including some real artists. First place was awarded to Shorty Loter, Wheeler, with a prize of $15.00; Shorty Franklin, Shamrock, took second place and $7.50, while G. L. Deweese, of China Flat placed third and received $2.50.

Beginning at 9 o'clock Friday evening, the picnic assemblage was treated to one of the best and most elaborate display of fireworks seen in this county for years. The exhibition presented a good variety and was sufficient duration to meet with whole-hearted approval. All who came especially for the fireworks were in no wise disappointed.

Platform dances were held in the grove on both nights.

The Shamrock band gave a short oncert during the afternoon. C. L. Austin of Wheeler, received the $100.00 award.

Many visitors from nearby towns, including Canadian, Shamrock, Amarillo, Pampa, and Erick Okla., were mingling with the huge crowd. Mason King of the Amarillo News Globe was an interested spectator. Clyde Matherly, part owner of the Erick, (Okla.), Democrat, was busy advertising that town's Fourth of July celebration.

Thus the 1934 Old Settlers Picnic at Wheeler passes into history, leaving a delightful remembrance to the many people who attended. To the committee in charge of the affair, especially Dr. H. E. Nicholson and Jim Risner, goes a large measure of credit for its success.

Extend Contest Closing Date

Closing date of the letter writing contest on the subject of "Honesty," sponsored by this newspaper in cooperation with the Churches of Wheeler advertising schedule, has been extended until August 1. This action has been taken in order to allow time for more entries to be made.

One change, which it is believed will encourage timid writers, has been made. No letter will be printed without express permission from the writer. However, the author's name must be on each letter submitted, but it will be left off should the letter be published in the paper, if the writer Remember, August 1 is the dead-

Dollar Day Event Dates are Changed

Will Occur on Second Saturday in Each Month, Instead of Wednesday

After a thorough canvass of the situation, which included the business interests of Wheeler and the shopping public of this region, directors of the Wheeler Board of City Development, the group sponsoring a Dollar Day or trades day in Wheeler, decided to change the dates from the second Wednesday in each month to the second Saturday.

Therefore Dollar Day, scheduled for next week will occur Saturday, July 14. At that time all representations and inducements mentioned heretofore in connection with Wednesday, the 11th, will be performed.

Advertising for the affair will appear in next week's issue of The Times. Suffice it to say that Wheeler merchants are now planning many special bargains for the occasion and t will be a worth-while Dollar Day. Full information concerning registration in the feature event of the day will be cheerfully supplied by any Wheeler business man.

The decision to change from Wednesday to Saturday was in response to the wishes of the various groups most concerned. It may be said in passing, that the BCD had no intention of fixing an arbitrary day for he affair. But of necessity, some day had to be selected and it happened to be Wednesday. And a few people still feel that day would prove atisfactory.

the majority-which hould always rule-deems Saturday preferable. Farmers are busy with their work. To break away in the middle of the week created a hardship on them. Yet to take advantage of the bargains, one has to be in town on bargain day.

Since this is essentially a "Saturlay region," that is, through custom, nabit and convenience, Saturday has been used for years as the day on which to "go to town," local merchants are not only willing but glad o accommodate their patrons and friends by selecting a day that best suits the customer's convenience.

Consequently, Wheeler's Dolla Day, when many special bargains in many different lines will be available, has been set for Saturday, July 14, and hereafter will fall on the second Saturday in each month.

Expansion Sale; People's Store

In preparation for occupancy of the new 25x40 foot addition, which is being erected at the rear of the building, the People's store is launching this week an 8-day expansion sale covering the entire stock. Through this means, Don Fisher, manager of the store, hopes to reduce the goods on hand to a marked degree and the prices quoted in a double-page spread in this issue of The Times would indicate action along the line desired.

Principal object of the sale is to dispose of as much of the merchandise as possible, thereby obviating its removal and re-arrangement in the enarged quarters.

Work on the addition was started Monday moning, when a small warecoom was shifted off the location and foundation work run.

NEW CLERK AT ROYAL DRUG

SPECIAL MASONIC MEETING

According to H. J. Garrison, Maser, a special communication of Wheeler Lodge No. 1099, A. F. & A. M., will occur on Monday evening, July 9, at the hall. Work in the E. A. degree is scheduled.

TRAVEL AND LEARNING

The vacation season is here, and many thousands of persons will visit various interesting places for the first time, some in our own country and others abroad. While recreation will be the principal aim of many, a majority will expect to learn something of permanent value during their travels.

In order that one may derive the most benefit from his travel experiences, it would be well to find out as much as possible about the places to be visited ahead of time. Then when he actually sees the places and objects of which he has studied, he will get a more lasting impression of their significance.

Information gained from guides and handbooks during one's travels is valuable, of course, but it is generally superficial, and lacking in the historical background which is necessary for a full understanding, and appreciation of the famous places where history has been made.

The educational value of travel de pends largely upon knowing beforehand what one wants to see, and why.

DROUTH CUTS BUSINESS

Most important factor in the general business situation at present is the drouth. Thousands of farmers who would normally offer a sizeable market for clothes, farm implements, automobiles and similar manufactured products, are wondering how they are going to live through a barren yearand they are naturally keeping a tight hold on what money they have. The automobile industry is being hit unusually hard-in recent months the agricultural states have provided the largest market for new cars.

Aside from that, recent figures show small, but encouraging, upturns in business activity. Commodity prices recently touched a new high.

It is an interesting fact that a number of business writers, including the editor of the "Annalist," are afraid that the prospect of increased expenditures for relief by the federal government is a threat to continued business improvement. opinion that governmental retrench ment, so far as spending is concerned would tend to encourage capital, lead to industrial expansion.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED

Study of the statistics reveals that a majority of the 756,500 automobile accidents in the United States in 1933 occurred on straight, dry roads in clear weather, and involved cars in good condition driven by persons with a year or more of experience. Over 75 per cent of these drivers were persons of mature age-from 25 to 64. The majority of the 30,000 deaths and 850,000 injuries must be attributed to blunders.

A recent analysis by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters shows what the blunders were. There are eight in all.

1. Drove too fast for conditionsthis accounted for approximately three-fourths of the mishaps in 1933 assigned to driving blunders.

PRICE-FIXING GOES

The recent decision of the presient to abandon price-fixing feaures f some major industrial codes is of xceptional importance.

It stems from the growing belief hat price-fixing is inimical to the onsumer and the small business man. The Darrow report, which was tremendously publicized, concentrated attention on that.

There may be much to be said for rice-fixing, used as a weapon to liminate destructive and wasteful competition. But there is grave loubt if the American people could ver he brought to stand for it. Free competition, with each unit within an industry striving to give better service at a more reasonable price, is part of the American business tradition. When the president started the attempt to fix prices, he intimated that it was purely experimental-he s to be congratulated on making a hange when he saw that it would not work as hoped.

A poll made by "Fortune" among executives of our principal industries, produces the fact that 85 per cent of them believe that the main beneficial results of the NRA codes lie in their wage and working provisions-that creat gains in this direction have been made, and that they should not be ost. That is certainly a progressive attitude, and now that price-fixing is to be ended, the labor features are again pre-eminent. The American people, as always, want labor to be amply paid and protected-but they lo not want revolutionary changes made in our time-honored governmental or industrial scheme of things.

STRIKE PROBLEM A MENACE

It is impossible to enter into a disussion of business conditions these lays without bringing in the ominous word "strike." The labor problem uppermost in the mind of every executive-even though his business has not been directly affected, threats of a general strike keep him awake nights.

It is an interesting fact that we of strikes now than at a ime since the great post-war walkouts-yet the number of men involved in strikes, and the total of working hours lost, are about the same as in the past five or six years, In other words, so far as the statistics show, the strike problem is no more severe now than it was last year or the year before, or in booming

However, the statistics don't tell ill. In the past, strikes have occurred because of disagreement over wages and hours. Present strikes are very different-the strikers, as a natter of form, make demands for shorter hours and higher pay, but those matters are the least of it. The real reason behind the strikes is the drive for closed shop, industry—the unions are out to make American business 100 per cent closed shop and they mean business. It is both amusing and important that in at least one ease employers finally agreed to meet the wage and hour demands of striking workmen-and were turned own, because they wouldn't consent o the closed shop plan.

As for industrial production, there little to report. There have been ome slight advances and some slight recessions, and they about balance each other. There may be a downward swing soon, due to summer seasonal influences. Government spending still confuses the picture, inasmuch as it is impossible to tell how much of recovery is due to more normal times, and how much to abnormal stimulation from distribution of public money from Washington.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Many people think it funny that farmers and county agents work for bigger yields per acre or per animal at the very time that the government seeks to remove surpluses through reduction programs. Yet this is very logical, because big yields usually go hand in hand with efficient farming and profits. Low production per acre or per animal is unprofitable at all price levels except abnormally high ones. Acreage reduction is the cheapest way to reduce production. Poor farming is the most expensive method. Drouth is the most cruel method.

Passed and approved by the city council this 28th day of June, 1934. R. D. HOLT, Mayor, ATTEST: C. R. WEATHERLY, City

Washington, and a general dissent seems to have been expressed. Every county was entitled to have more acreage, more lint per acre and more total bales than it was alloted.

Floyd county, with only ten thouand and some odd bales, is distressingly low in the scale. Last year the production was 34,000 bales or better. In some counties the lid has blown off and delegations are bearing down on Washington from scores of points in widely separated states. Perhaps the figures are too low in Floyd county. Certainly they are much lower than we want them if we are to have ten-cent cotton or better. On the other hand, too high if the price should go down to five cents.-Floyd County Hesperian.

Detail problems in the establishment of a County Canning plant here were brought to a close this week when M. P. Watkins gave a five years lease on his building, located one door south of the telephone exchange. Watkins' generous donation closes three weeks of active work on the part of the Kiwanis club to raise money and secure a location for the cannery. The county has also appropriated $150 to be used for installing ables, sinks and other equipment. The county has also agreed to furnish fuel and lights for the plant, while the city of Wellington will donate water for the cannery .- Wellington Leader.

Valoise Evans' Wardrobe Story

"This year I was chosen for one f the wardrobe demonstrators for our club. The closet that I used for storage space was in such a mess that I kept putting off the "evil day" when I must start the renovation. One morning early when I was in a good humor the job was started. The clothes, junk and dirt was all carried out and then it was time to start papering. This was my first papering job and, well, you know how comical a person can be with a long strip of wet paper and undecided where to put it. After several efforts the walls were finished, but what about the ceiling.

"When the paper was all right I was sadly surprised to find that the glue was most all in my hair. What is a little thing like that when you have your closet all nicely papered and ready for the shelves. These were almost as serious a proposition as the Battle of Waterloo, because the lumber was just old scraps and had to be sawed and I'm not a very competant carpenter. After about an hour and a half the five foot boards were sawed and ready for the paper which was just some scraps left from papering the living rooms.

"Imagine my dismay when I found that I had used the wrong measurements and they were all too long to fit. I couldn't ask for help but by dark it was all finished and now I have space for all my clothes and don't have so much trouble finding them. The improvements only cost me the time and 15 cents for cretonne to make the bags for the hose and underwear."

"Before building a wordrobe for myself, my clothes hung in the family wardrobe and many of them had to be stuck in a dresser drawer and were not suitable to be worn until they had been pressed again," says Allene Tindall, the Twitty 4-H club wardrobe demonstrator, Allene made her wardrobe from scrap lumber found about the place and papered it with scraps of wall paper. Her closet is 55 inches long and 22 inches wide. At each end there is a rod to hang clothes on, and above the rods there are shelves on which to keep folded articles. On the door is a large laundry bag and other cotton fabric) depending on pockets to put gloves, hose and handkerchiefs in. There is a storage shelf for hat racks. In the bottom tion, Everybody making gloves will of the closet is a shoe rack.

The total cost of this closet was bout $1.75. This includes wall thread, lead pencil and note book paper, paste, door hinges, locks and shoe racks.

"Even if a closet is just a nook, it needs to be convenient and attractive, because one ugly corner spoils a beautiful room," Floy Fay Wilson, first place winner in the 4-H wardin her story. She continued, "Moth- use. er helped me put in part of the shelves and I did the rest myself."

Floy Fay remodeled her closet completely, adding a shoe rack, three extra shelves, different rods for hanging, pockets for the door, paper for walls, paint for shelves, hoop for belts, and hoop for beads. This made her closet convenient for her and a sister. They made her mother and ticket. other sister a wardrobe. All changes in this closet were made with materials on hand and 25 cents spent for paint.

She has made four school dresses, two nice dresses, three cook aprons, three undergarments, six infants garments, four sheets, six pairs pillow cases, one pair pajamas, two garments renovated, and 14 mended, and helped one non-club member make a hat and shoe rack. By keeping clothments, $8.75 for dresses, $2.49 for cents for accessories and cosmetics, making a total of $19.36.

Floy Fay finishes her story, "All of this was a two days task besides lots of planning, but after I got through with it, it was so pretty and useful that I felt repaid for the number of times I mashed my hands with story of the struggle of beast, bird the hammer and run the machine needle in my finger."

BAPTIST PICNIC DATED AT SHAMROCK FRIDAY EVENING

Rev. Alamo Stakey, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, announces a Baptist Sunday school and B. T. S. association picnic, to be held at Shamrock, Friday evening of this week. Everyone is invited to come with well-filled lunch baskets

4-H MEMBERS SHOULD GET READY FOR SHORT COURSE

The Wheeler county home demonstration office, headed by Viola Jones, has issued the following advice and information to 4-H club members concerning the approaching short course:

"Boys and girls, be getting yourselves ready for the Farmers Short Course at A. and M. college July 30 to August 3. You will need to look your best. You will want to have your best stories ready to tell the friends you make; how our county looks and how our club members do things. You will need to have open eyes and open ears, a sharp pencil and a big note book ready to get the most information possible to bring back to club members at home who were not privileged to attend."

Short course for 4-H members will be different. The girls will be in groups of 30 to 50 under a paid group leader, with college training. The boys will be grouped likewise with their group leaders. Besides the separate meetings with features both educational and recreational there will be the inspirational and pep meeting from 8:30 to 9:00 each morning; a campus tour one evening; the horse show another; a sing-song and stunt night; a real live party in the mess hall for club boys and girls and their group leaders only. All Gold Star girls will be asked to talk. Please have your records and notes ready for your speech. The committee promises to provide a week crammed full of work, of play, of occasional rest, and fine association with each other.

In addition to the short course program of demonstrations and lectures. laboratory sections each afternoon are being arranged and a collection of exhibits will be open all the time in the basement of the agricultural engineering building. So that really efficient work may be done at these laboratory sections, tickets will be issued to the district agents and they will give them to their counties. The woman receiving a ticket is privieged and is directly responsible for bringing information concerning that laboratory meeting back to the home demonstration club members of the county when they return.

The following laboratory periods and the materials needed have already been outlined for women:

1. For fabric glove making the woman will need to bring from % to 11/4 yards of material (pique, gingham, crash, linen, organdy or any the style of gloves they wish to make. For leather glove making, all materspace for quilts and blankets and a jal can be purchased at college staneed to bring a pair of good sharp scissors, tape measure, needles, pins,

2. For the laboratory work in rose propagation, each woman should bring a sharp budding knife or pocket knife.

3. For making rugs and mats, the women will need to bring a design stamped on a foundation that is fastened to a form, a book, and marobe contest in Wheeler county, said terial dyed the color she wishes to

4. For the work on making cheese and killing poultry, the woman will need a good heavy apron and old

Miss Adams' Trip

(Bessie Mae Ficke)

Miss Winona Adams, who is widely known in Wheeler, went to Shamrock Saturday where she met one of the Omnibus College busses enroute for a tour of the western states.

In 1931 Miss Adams went with the Omnibus College group which toured the Eastern States. During This trip she roomed with the same girl she will room with this summer. The trip will last two months, they will return home about August 26. The purpose of this trip is for education, culture, recreation and health.

The following is a brief sketch of the trip: Saturday night she was supposed to camp near Carlsbad Cavern and go through it the next day. She says that even though she has been through the cavern twice before, the last time being last summer when she went with the Wheeler seniors, she is sure she will find it just as interesting as ever. From Carlsbad they will go to Santa Fe, N. Mex. They will then travel on to Taos, Pueblo, and Albuquerque. Next they will enjoy seeing the Petrified Forest near Holbrook, Ariz. From there they will journey to Grand Canyon, Ariz., and then on to Phoenix.

Fom July 12-15 they will be in San Diego, Calif. During this time they will be entertained with a good plunge in the Pacific Ocean, Balboa Exposition Park, Romona's marriage place, military academy, Lindbergh Flying Field, Coronado, Hollywood star resort, Tia Juana-Horse racing, speed boating, Mexican dinners, Mexican music, and many other interesting things.

The group will continue their journey to Los Angeles. Some of the many interesting things they will see there are flying fish, glass bottom boats, home of, Wm.
