THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

Certificate Owners Urged to Act Quick

Nov. 10 Is Tentative Closing Date for Cotton Exemption Certificate Pool

Nov. 10 set as the tentative date for the government surplus cotton exemption certificates, local county authorities are urging producers to get their certificates in before that date in order to avoid the last minute rush. There is a crowd too large for handling on the last day," said Breedlove Thursday, "some are disappointed because we can't take care of them. The pool will be closed regardless of the waiting. Therefore, it is advisable to get in the surplus as quickly as possible."

After receiving this week at the agent's office from Parker district agent, stated that the tentative closing date is on Oct. 22. The condition also declared that Nov. 10 is the tentative closing date and settlement will be made immediately after closing. Pool expenses estimated at approximately $1 per bale, and possibly a little less. It is believed that producers will receive about $19 per bale, after expenses of handling are deducted.

According to Breedlove, to the date two and a half million certificates of cotton represented by certificates have been surrendered to the pool in Wheeler county. It is expected a possible million and half more will be turned in.

Producers are urged to make an estimate of their crop needs and of their surplus certificates as soon as possible. It is wise for the producer to hold ample certificates to meet his own needs; yet make his estimates as closely as is practical.

At the present time, it is reported that to determine with any degree of accuracy the amount or percentage of certificates which will be out of the pool, due to the fact that it is not known how many producers will participate. There is a possibility of a great over-production in the eastern portion of the cotton belt. From the western section most certificates are expected to be turned in.

In conclusion, the agent warns all producers to act as quickly as possible, bringing their certificates to the county agent's office in time to get them in.

Dedicate Magic School Monday

Supt. A. S. Whorton of the Magic School, announces that dedication exercises for the new brick school building will be held on Monday night, Oct. 29.

The structure was just completed this week. An elaborate program, to begin about 7 o'clock, is in process of formation. Among the speakers expected for the occasion are O. B. Miller, county superintendent, Judge Clark of Shamrock, and others. E. J. Smith will represent the school board and W. E. Bentley will give a brief history of the school.

After the program, a social hour will be enjoyed.

HOLT & KITE, WEATHER FORECASTING COMBINE

There's a brand new partnership in Wheeler. Two well-known citizens have combined their forces on long-range weather forecasting—at least temporarily. D. E. Holt solemnly averred, Saturday, with the full advice and consent of the senior partner, J. B. Kite, that killing frost should not be expected in this region before Nov. 15.

Neither man disclosed the source of their information nor the peculiar "sign" or token by which said conclusion was reached. The prediction—if it proves correct—will be welcomed by owners of growing feed crops.

Club Council Makes Plans for Next Year

Bedroom Contest Will Be New Demonstration—Canning School Here Friday, Nov. 2

A canning school, to be taught by Mrs. C. Hensarling, representative of the Kerr Glass company, beginning at 2:00 p. m., Friday, Nov. 2, in the clubroom was arranged by the home demonstration council during its regular monthly meeting Saturday, Oct. 20. Each club is invited to send delegates.

O. B. Miller, county superintendent, discussed the proposed amendments to the constitution to be voted on during the coming election.

The meat show for next March and the next year's fair list was discussed. It was voted to have a bedroom contest for the new demonstration next year. Other plans for next year's work were discussed, and the council representative will bring the desired information from their respective clubs to the next council meeting on the third Saturday in November. The council voted to meet at 2:00 p. m., while the days are so short.

Mrs. Glen King, from the Twitty Home Demonstration club, gave a demonstration on rose propagation. The council adjourned at 4:05.

Those present were: Mrs. Paul Macina, Pagan; Mrs. Perry Riley, Mrs. B. F. Crossland and Mrs. Clarence Zybach, Briscoe; Mrs. Jim Risner and Mrs. C. B. Reynolds and Granny Pike, China Flat; Mrs. Paul Ladd and Mrs. Nida Green, Heald; Mrs. Hester Dodson and Mrs. Glen King, Twitty; Mrs. J. B. Crowder, Busy Bee; Mrs. F. T. Garrett and Mrs. Bumpers, Shamrock, and Mrs. H. T. Williams, China Flat.

Cotton Oil Mill Now In Operation

The new Wheeler cotton seed oil mill presents a scene of bustling activity both day and night. Since its tune-up run the latter part of last week, necessary adjustments have been made and the plant is now operating smoothly, with double crews.

This week a new nine-ton press is being installed. This additional equipment brings the mill's capacity up to 15 tons per day.

WHEELER SERVICE STATION RAIDED BY SNEAK THIEVES

The Wheeler Service station, operated by Norwood McPherson, has been burglarized twice in the past few days. On Saturday night a quantity of gas was taken and on Monday night a battery, three gallons of Prestone and several quarts of oil were obtained.

The items were taken by way of a window, which the thieves apparently broke. Loss and damage is estimated at about $30.

STILL BIGGER AND BETTER SWEET POTATO BROUGHT IN

When W. H. Williams, a truck gardener near Wheeler, brought to this office two weeks ago a 5 1/4 pound sweet potato, it looked like the limit in size for sweet potatoes. But last week, while harvesting his crop, found a still larger tuber. The latest find weighed exactly seven pounds and measured 25 inches around. Several people mistook the potato for a young pumpkin, because of its extraordinary size and shape similar to a pumpkin.

County Assessor's Report Gets Official OK

Comptroller Approves Tax Roll—Not An Error Found in Listing

County Assessor John H. Templeton got a load off his mind this week with the completion of the county tax roll and its acceptance by state authorities. According to a wire received Monday from the state comptroller of public accounts at Austin, the report was fully approved and Mr. Templeton informed that not an error appeared in the listing.

Preparing the roll entails a huge amount of work, involving a mass of figures and details. Mr. Templeton and his assistant, Miss Berga Goad, are to be complimented upon their letter-perfect accomplishment.

During the two years Mr. Templeton has been in the assessor's office, he has added 933 taxpayers to the county rolls. During the past year, 183 new poll and ad valorem taxpayers have been listed.

WHEELER MEN ATTEND AREA SCOUT MEETING AT PAMPA

Father of Wheeler Man Dies Tuesday at Canyon

J. T. Wiley, sr., Former Resident of County, Victim of Heart Disease

Late Tuesday evening, H. M. Wiley of Wheeler, left for Canyon in response to a message that his father, J. T. Wiley, sr., had passed away quite suddenly from heart disease at his home in that city. Although the deceased had not been in the best of health for some time, his sudden death was a severe shock to friends and relatives.

Mr. Wiley was well known throughout Wheeler county, having lived here a number of years. He located first at Mobeetie, where he taught school for a time. Later he served as county surveyor, holding that position for several terms. He and his family resided on the Wiley farm, northwest of Wheeler, until 1913, when they moved to Canyon, where they have since made their home.

Mr. Wiley is survived by his wife; two sons, H. M. Wiley, Wheeler, and John T. Wiley, jr., Berger; three daughters, Mrs. G. W. Walters, Houston; Mrs. K. A. Kato, Hale Center, and Miss Almada Wiley, Berger.

Funeral services were held from the family home in Canyon this (Thursday) morning. Interment was made in the Plainview cemetery this afternoon.

Church of Christ Evangelist Here

Conforming to the announcement appearing in The Times last week, Evangelist O. E. Phillips of Abilene arrived today and will direct the first meeting tonight in a prophetic Bible conference series at the Church of Christ.

The evangelist, as well as the church, extends an invitation to the public to attend the series of discussions, at which scriptural subjects will be studied in a prayerful and conscientious manner to learn the eternal truths.

The conference will cover a period of 10 days, concluding on Sunday, Nov. 4.

ROYAL DRUG INSTALLS WATER HEATING SYSTEM

Installation of a water heating system in connection with the fountain has been made at the Royal Drug store this week. Manager Melvin Howe declared Wednesday "that the new improvement will permit the serving of every drink in scalded, polished, germ-free glasses." With the approach of winter, the hot water facilities will prove very convenient around the fountain.

Wood Accepts Bethel Pastorate

Rev. A. C. Wood, Baptist pastor living in Wheeler, has accepted a call from the Bethel congregation to the pastorate of that body. Rev. Wood will preach at Bethel on the first and third Sundays of each month. He preaches to the Corn Valley congregation on the second Sunday each month. He succeeds Rev. Blair of Texola, at the Bethel appointment. This office is preparing an article to be published next week, outlining Rev. Wood's ministerial service.

COOPER-BAIRD

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooper announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Madge Cooper, to Mr. Herbert Y. Baird, jr., of Seattle, Wash. The vows were read at high noon Monday, Oct. 1, at the Broadway Baptist church in Seattle.

Mrs. Baird needs no introduction, as she is well known in Wheeler county, where she has spent most of her life. She has been employed as a trained nurse for a number of years. For the past two years she has been in the beauty parlor business and has made a host of friends.

Mr. Baird is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Y. Baird, sr., of Seattle. He graduated from the University of Washington in 1929. He also attended the military institute at Boston, Mass. He is now employed as state representative for Burroughs adding machines in Washington.

The newly-weds left immediately following the ceremony for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, Calif. They will make their home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hale and children spent the week end in Esteline.

SCHOOL PAGE A FEATURE OF THE WHEELER TIMES

Of course practically everyone reads The Corral, a page of Wheeler school news appearing each week in this paper. However, special attention is called to this feature of The Times. Perusal of the school page will reveal a large amount of worthwhile news. The copy, all prepared by the Journalism class of the Wheeler high school, is well written—considerably above the average—and reflects much credit upon Miss Bernie Addison, journalism teacher, as well as Fay Ficke, editor-in-chief, and Theodore Conner, assistant editor, and their corps of assistants.

Dr. Reynolds Mentioned to Succeed Clint Small

Wheeler Man Named as Prospective Candidate for Senatorial Position

In the Amarillo News-Globe of Oct. 14, it was noted that Senator Clint Small may possibly resign and move to Austin. Several prominent men were mentioned as prospective candidates for his senatorial seat. In "Tack's" column of Oct. 19, the following appeared: "If Clint Small resigns from the Texas senate, the many friends of Dr. F. N. Reynolds who lives down at Wheeler, insist they intend to induce him to make the race. Dr. Reynolds has quite a political following already."

In view of the fact that Dr. Reynolds has lived in this district 20 years and has an extensive acquaintance throughout the region; that he has made a special study of political and economic questions and is well versed in the problems of this district, being active, well-met and at home on the political stump, no reason is seen why he should not be qualified to give someone a hot race.

WEDDINGS

JENKINS-THOMPSON

A wedding of much interest to Wheeler and vicinity took place Saturday morning, Oct. 20, when Miss Leta Mae Jenkins and Mr. Cecil Thompson were quietly united in marriage. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride, with Rev. G. W. Simmons officiating.

Those present were the bride's father, Hugh Jenkins, Misses Earlene, Margie and Dean Jenkins, and Addie Lou Jones.

Mrs. Thompson is the daughter of Hugh Jenkins of near Kelton. Her family moved from Chillicothe to the Porter Flat community 13 years ago. Since then she has lived at Kelton and Pleasant Hill and has attended school at Wheeler. She is an amiable young lady and is well known and popular in each community where she has lived.

Mr. Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson of Wellington. He is a young business man at Hedley. He made his home in Wheeler for a few months in 1932 and has many acquaintances here.

Their friends join in wishing them a successful and happy married life. They will make their home at Hedley.

WHEELER'S TRADE AREA

Completion, last week, of the highway improvement job east from Wheeler can and should mean something to Wheeler merchants and business houses. Even though it is only slightly over five miles in length, it is a starter toward opening up a fine trade area extending well beyond the county line. Further improvement is practically assured.

This newly-surfaced road makes coming to Wheeler easier for every family living contiguous to the highway. Coming to Wheeler means an opportunity to sell merchandise—necessities, and even luxuries.

People living even reasonably convenient to the improved road will come to Wheeler in preference to longer drives to other towns. But definite assurance is needed to show these folks that Wheeler wants them—that the welcome sign is on the doorstep. That merchandise is available here, and at prices in fair comparison with other towns.

The day of the "take it or leave it" merchant has passed. The merchant of today who would succeed must assume the aggressive spirit of an insurance agent. He must be "on his toes," so to speak, contemplating the wishes of his trade before the break.

There was a day when purchases were made because of personal friendship. That spirit does not enter into the scheme today. Buyers go where they can get the best bargains based on quality at a reasonable price. A reasonable price means a competitive price in the judgment of the buyer.

Prospective customers buy where they have been invited. They no longer feel under any obligations to tolerate an independent air in this or any other town. At the same time, the customer feels that he or she is entitled to not only know what the merchant has to offer, but the price they are expected to pay.

While it is true that recent purchases have been made in other towns when the same goods could have been purchased here for less money, the prospective customer is not altogether at fault when the home merchant did not take advantage of an opportunity to let the public know what he had to offer.

On the other hand, the buyer should not forget the fact that the home merchant assumes a personal responsibility of satisfying a neighbor as to both quality and price when the purchase is made of the home merchant.

As a matter of fact, it is possible that a lot of us have been sleeping on our rights, both merchant and customer, and have let 1934 merchandising methods creep by us almost unobserved. At any rate it is high time to begin to do something about it.

Better highways may be made to lead into Wheeler as well as away from it. It is clearly up to the merchants of Wheeler to say which it shall be. The merchants are giving their answer through courteous service, well-chosen stocks at attractive prices and a real desire to merit patronage.

The Times pledges its closest cooperation in bringing together the merchant and customer, believing it will prove to their mutual advantage.

Summed up, it looks to this writer like an exceptionally good opportunity for Wheeler to reach out and obtain that which rightfully belongs to it in a fuller measure than ever before.

THE TRAGIC TAX

We all kick over the taxes saddled on us by politicians—but how many protest about taxes we impose upon ourselves? There are any number of these, and, one of the heaviest is due to the economic cost of the nation's automobile accidents. It is the Tragic Tax.

Investigators say that at least 95 per cent of motor accidents are avoidable. They cannot be blamed on the automobile, but on the driver. They are due to some failure, some sin of omission or commission on the part of the man or woman behind the wheel. In spite of intensive work by the authorities and safety associations, we go on just the same, smashing and crashing, killing and maiming, flaunting the laws and regulations.

And we are paying plenty for it. According to estimates compiled by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, 35,000 or more persons will be killed this year, and more than a million injured. Statisticians estimate the total economic cost of all this to be between one and a half billion and two and a half billion dollars when all the items are added. Assuming that two billion dollars approaches the correct figure, it means a cost of about $16.66 for everyone of the 120,000,000 persons in the United States. That is indeed a tragic tax to pay for our own recklessness.

MENACE TO SOCIAL ORDER

Chronic unemployment as a social menace is no new idea to readers of these columns. It goes without saying that we agree heartily with President Roosevelt when he says: "Demoralization caused by vast unemployment is our greatest extravagance. Morally, it is the greatest menace to our social order." And we are glad to have the president declare that "we must make it a national principle that we will not tolerate a large army of unemployed and that we will arrange our national economy to end our present unemployment as soon as we can and then to take wise measures against its return."

We suspect that among the "some people" who have tried to tell the president that we must make up our minds that for the future we shall have millions of unemployed permanently there are members of his own official family. For some of his administrative lieutenants have been trying to tell that to the American people. However, we sincerely hope that this declaration of the president's is more than a mere expression of purpose, for something more than that is needed.

And the first thing that is needed is get rid, once and for all, of the nonsense about removing the menace of unemployment by creating an aristocracy of labor, working only thirty hours a week at high wages, and then "protecting" it against "foreign competition" with high tariff walls, embargoes, and other trade barriers.

That is the surest plan we know to perpetuate "vast unemployment" and to make it chronic. It is the surest way we know also to foster discontent and promote extreme radicalism—to convert the army of unemployed into a very active menace to our social order. The counsels of Secretary Hull should have more and more weight and those of Miss Perkins less and less.

Also it might help to fish the Democratic platform out of the waste-basket.—The Texas Weekly.

YOUR DOLLAR'S WORTH

Take a dollar out of your pocket, it's yours—you can do anything you like with it. But you can't buy a dollar's worth of commodities or services.

The reason for that is that about 25 per cent of your dollar has to go to government. If you use it to buy theatre tickets, gasoline, cigarettes, electricity, clothing or anything else, 25 per cent of the cost, on the average, will represent taxes.

The main reason we have allowed the tax problem to grow so grave in this country is that millions of people haven't realized that such a problem exists! These are the people who pay no taxes directly. Their incomes are below the level touched by the income tax. They rent homes. They do not own business, but work for someone else. And the result is a belief that those who own businesses, have larger incomes, and possess property pay all the taxes.

There aren't enough large-income people in the country to make a dent in meeting the cost of government. The great bulk of taxes are taken from the ordinary person—and they are taken indirectly. Instead of writing the tax-collector a check, most of our citizens pay their taxes unknowingly during the course of daily living. Rent is higher than it would be, because the landlord must pay taxes. Salaries are smaller, because the employer is heavily taxed. Food is more costly because the farmer, the processor, the transporter and the final seller are all taxed. So it goes, through everything we need and use.

Don't be fooled. Everyone pays taxes—everyone is in danger of being forced to pay more. A reduction in taxation through less tax spending is essential.

A Beckham county, Okla., newspaper is credited with the following: "Herb Hoover made monkeys out of us all; now FDR wants to plant trees for us to climb."

The correct spelling of a word often makes a vast difference in the meaning of a sentence. Recently in the Groom News, Max Wade misspelled a word in a write-up of a prominent funeral held in that town. This is how the sentence read: "The body lay in state at the family home here today, while hundreds of friends and admirers passed the beer."—Miami Chief.

Two large rattlesnake rattles were brought to The Record office Saturday. One was from a snake killed by Bert Porter, eight miles north of the city. There were twelve rattles on it. Tom Riley brought in one with eight rattles on it which he killed at his ranch. Tom says he has killed eight rattlesnakes in the yard of his ranch home this summer.—Canadian Record.

The tax rolls have been completed by County Tax Assessor T. B. Harris, and, notwithstanding the court allowed a 25 per cent reduction in real estate and city property values, shows an increase from $14,105,000.00 last year to $14,780,000.00 valuation for this year. The increase is attributed to oil and gas values and a nice pick up on intangible oil pipe lines. The tax rate for the year has been set at 66c, an increase from 45c the past year.—White Deer Review.

NEW RELIEF PROVISIONS MUST BE OBSERVED

State Relief Director Adam R. Johnson has cautioned county administrators to observe that portion of the relief law recently enacted providing for a minimum expenditure of relief funds on work relief projects. The letter follows:

"The new state relief law, as adopted by the fourth called session of the Forty-third legislature, provides at least 35 per cent of the state funds allocated to any county shall be expended on the construction, repair or maintenance of lateral roads or other work projects. Each county administrator is hereby advised that it is his duty and responsibility to see that this provision of the law is fulfilled at all times. There is no discretion left to you or to the state administration. The law is clear in its statement, and it must be observed.

"The determination of the amount of funds spent in any given county for work relief will be one of the functions of the auditing department, and county audit reports will be checked closely to see that the above provision of the law is adhered to. Attention is called to the fact that 35 per cent is set as a minimum. It is not the desire of the State Board of Control nor of the state administrative office that work relief expenditures shall be restricted to the 35 per cent minimum. On the other hand, it very definitely is the desire of the Board of Control and of this office that every employable person receiving relief shall be employed on an approved work project to the full extent of his monthly budget."

R. E. Brazil returned Saturday from Mineral Wells and Dallas, where he attended to business.

Keeping the Record Straight

The opponents of prohibition clamored for repeal through the eighteenth amendment. They put on a great propaganda declaring again and again that enforcement was a heavy majority of the voters were in favor of repeal. They planks into the party platforms, promising the same come back, and dry territory would be protected by Government. They stampeded Congress into submitting a punt amendment to state conventions for ratification by the

Do you know that there are qualified voters in the United States and that only voted for repeal, and that out of the remaining qualified voters, there were only voters who did not go to the polls.

Only 15 out of 73 persons said, WE WANT REPEAL. 58 out of 73 were willing to carry on the prohibition existing conditions. The other 53,000,000 said by their generation who do not really know the evils of both child dreads the fire; perhaps we had better let them then it will be easier to talk to them.

DO YOU KNOW: that arrests for drunken driving increased 27 per cent in New York state since repeal? Philadelphia 300 per cent; in the state of Rhode Island in the state of Pennsylvania 77 per cent; in New Jersey in the City of Cincinnati 386 per cent; in the state of North Carolina 26 per cent; in New Hampshire in New Orleans 122 per cent and in the angelic City of the staggering total of 479 per cent.

DO YOU KNOW: That the brewers and distillers advertising, have bought off our news papers and magazines an extent that they dare not tell the truth about the situation, and this drunken driving?

DO YOU KNOW: That 90 per cent of the prohibition repeal was carried free by the newspapers in anticipation of advertising, and they are scared to death they are going to tell the truth?

DO YOU KNOW: That those nice saloonkeepers and government put in business, are buying two-thirds of their wretched bootleggers whom our nice newspapers are great before repeal, and beating the government with a great big tax we were going to pay all our debts with?

DO YOU KNOW: That our administration is authorizing the sale of whiskey in those dry states where to protect, and our newspapers won't tell us about it?

DO YOU KNOW: That over half the beer sold in the try is 6 per cent, instead of the 3.2 promised us by Congress that the town of Wheeler is one of the few towns in the cent beer is not sold.

DO YOU KNOW: That the 53,000,000 voters who voted from the polls and let the 15,000,000 abolish prohibition to rub their eyes and ask whether or not they did the right thing? 53 and 5, equals 58: Much bigger than 15, isn't it? It's like a case of the tail wagging the dog, does it not?

CUT THIS OUT AND PUT IT IN YOUR SCRAPER for worth studying. When you stand by the open grave of a man killed by a drunken driver, ask yourself what part you are playing about this condition.

COME TO THE CARNIVAL

Why not make this Hallowe'en carnival a huge success? You will enjoy every minute you spend at the carnival next Wednesday night, because the Parent-Teachers association has been planning for about two months in order that the people who come will have a good time. There will be fun and entertainment for all—young and old, big and little. Besides all the booths and funny sideshows for which you can spend your money and have a good laugh, and the candy, popcorn, and all the novelties a person can buy. There is to be given in the high school auditorium a well planned program for which no admission charge will be made. Free witches' brew will be served at the door.

The Parent-Teachers association is sponsoring the carnival and the money made will be spent for school equipment.

Cancel all other plans you might have made for Wednesday night and give preference to this entertainment. Mask and come to the carnival for a good time. The doors will be opened at about seven-fifteen so that the fun may begin early.—L.F.F.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN STRAIGHT A CARDS

Showing an increase in the number of all A's and a decrease in the F's over the same period of time last year, the high school honor roll contains 26 names for the first six weeks' work.

Those making all A's in the senior class are Helen Gilmore and Theodore Conner, with Ida Bell Davis, Florine Guynes, Travis Jones and La Veau Cole on the A and B list.

Estelle Scott was the only junior making all A's. Dorothy Burgess, Fay Ficke and Marvin Montgomery made A's and B's for that grade.

Three girls, Parilee Clay, Beatrice Miller and Martha Alice Wiley had straight A cards in the sophomore class. Bonnie Adams and Bob Tillman had A's and B's for their first six weeks' grade.

Irene Hunt and Margie Bowers made all A's for the freshman group, with the following on the A and B honor roll; Lois Ficke, Ruth Faust, Lavell Jaco, Mildred Plattor, Geraldine Sparkman, Louise Veale, Amos Page and Waylon Pollard. Nell McPherson made a record with all B's.

PLAY BOOKS ARE ORDERED

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore has ordered a play, "Fuller's Folly," which will be given by the senior class. Another play, "Heads on a String," is to be presented by the faculty.

The dates and casts for these plays have not been decided. Mrs. Gilmore also ordered a book for the purpose of securing material for chapel programs.

WHEELER P-T. A. PLANS HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL

On Hallowe'en night there will be a carnival given at the school building sponsored by the Parent-Teachers association. There will be entertainment for large, small, old and young.

There is to be a free program given by the faculty. After this there will be many different booths open. Much entertainment can be found in the wax figures. Then there is to be a beauty parlor for those who wish to improve their looks. For fishermen there is to be a fishing pond. If one gets hungry, a grocery store will be right in the school building. Then there are the novelty booth. The prize fights, the scales, the freaks, the magician, and the fortune teller, the bingo and penny booths and the house of horrors. "Everyone is urged to come," states Mrs. D. A. Hunt, president of the P-T. A.

The Parent Teachers association is making an effort to establish social circles over town in order to encourage more people to attend and be a member of the Parent-Teachers association. "We think these circles will do much good," states Mrs. H. M. Wiley.

Ex-Students Win Canyon Observes Silver Anniversary

That Wheeler ex-students are making places for themselves in college this year is indicated by reports received here from various institutions.

J. C. Turner won a four year scholarship to San Diego State Teachers college, San Diego, Calif., because of his high achievements in the field of football.

Wayland Merriman was mentioned as being on the honor roll of the School of Engineering at Texas Tech, Lubbock.

Ruth Dill made the highest grade in her education class at Canyon. Bessie Beene, also a student at W. T. S. T. C., is a reporter on the Prairie staff.

Joe Meek is making the freshman football team at McMurry college, Abilene.

Tom Wood has joined the band at John Tarleton.

Four other Wheeler graduates are on the first string of their college football teams: Wendell Meek, McMurry; Stina Cain and Clinton Meek, Canyon, and Walter Adams, Amarillo Junior college.

Last year Wheeler students also won distinction in various schools and colleges of Texas. Max Wiley represented Canyon in intercollegiate tennis matches. Harold Nicholson and his colleague composed the freshman debate team at A. & M. Wendell, Stina, and Clinton played on the first string of their respective football teams; and Grainger McIlhenny was on the honor roll each week at John Tarleton.

Students and friends "back home" always watch with pride any notable achievement of Wheeler graduates. The Corral staff wishes to ask parents and acquaintances of college students to send in information regarding these boys and girls that would be of interest to the public. Practically all the reporters know about these ex-students is what they "read in the papers."

Little Mustangs

Dr. H. E. Nicholson gave a brief talk warning the grammar grade boys and girls about smoking and drinking at the chapel program Monday.

"Improvements have been made in class work the past week because the students have been taking their books home and studying," states Principal Bob Clark.

Mrs. G. O. McCrohan played the piano while Miss Ruth Ewing led Battle Hymn of the Republic, Beautiful Texas, Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground and Home on the Range.

"I am proud of my sixth grade honor roll comparing it with the other classes," states Miss Ewing.

"Mrs. Hoyt Allen, who lives in Pampa, visited the fifth grade Monday morning. Her daughter, Evnarie, is attending school here. She complimented our room very highly on our discipline, and said that our fifth graders were the best behaved and best mannered group of students she had seen anywhere. We are always glad to have any of the parents visit us," says Mrs. McCrohan.

The captain of the fourth grade health squad for this week is Lorene Craig. Guards are Billie Wiley, Jim Johnson, Wilma Derryberry, Dorothy Grace Bland, Francis Trantham and Emily Lou Ahler.

"The third grade pupils are writing original stories and poems about Hallowe'en," said Mrs. Lloyd Davidson.

Mrs. C. C. Crowder and the second grade girls and boys are spending all their spare time preparing for a Hallowe'en program they are to present October 30, in the high school auditorium. All mothers are invited.

JUNIORS, SENIORS PLAN PARTY FOR HALLOWE'EN

"The juniors and seniors are to give Hallowe'en parties Friday night," states Miss Bernie Addison, junior sponsor, and Miss Winona Adams, senior sponsor.

The juniors are to give their party at Mazie Bean's home and the seniors selected the American Legion hall for their party headquarters.

The two places will be decorated in Hallowe'en colors.

The senior class met Monday to plan the party they are to give. They decided that each member of the class will bring twenty-five cents to help pay for refreshments, decoration and rent for the building. Mazie will give the junior party at her own expense.

Canyon Observes Silver Anniversary

Last Friday and Saturday was Home Coming at Canyon in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of W. T. S. T. C. The event attracted the attention of Wheeler because of the lecture of Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen and the football game between Canyon and McMurry. Mrs. Owen spoke to an audience of 5,000.

Mrs. Owen, who is ambassador to Denmark, described Denmark and Greenland, from which she recently returned. Her lecture also was on newspapers and motion pictures in our country. At the stadium this distinguished lady wore a black satin dress matched with a tri-cornered hat. Her speech was commented on favorably by those who heard it. She spoke for an hour.

Wheeler was particularly interested in the football game because three players were graduates of Wheeler high school. Wendell Meek played on the McMurry squad and Clinton Meek and Stina Cain on the Canyon team. Clinton plays a tackle position, with the other two boys as ends. During the third quarter C. Meek and Cain made exceptionally good tackles. Wendell, because of an injured hand, did not carry the ball, but made some very good tackles.

The score was 17 to 7 in favor of McMurry. This came as a surprise to everyone, since McMurry had eight injured players on the bench.

Among those attending were Coach Bob Clark, Miss Bernie Addison, Mrs. C. J. Meek, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilmore and family, Mrs. Gordon Whitener and Parilee Clay.

RAMBLINGS ON THE RANGE

Ruth Faye Garrison has been absent from school this week because of illness.

SAGE BLOOMS

Editor's note: From time to time exceptional English papers will be printed in the Corral under the above headline. This is the first one to appear this year.

A Texas Blizzard

In the early days this section of the country had severe snow storms and blizzards. They were called, "Blue Blizzards." One could get up in the morning and see them coming. It took them from 12 to 24 hours to come up. One could always count on their getting here.

Generally a high cold wind struck and in a short time froze people, cattle, horses, rabbits and prairie chickens; in fact everything would freeze if it did not have good protection. These severe storms never lasted over three or four days at a time. Cattle on ranges would all go north as far as they could before the blizzard they would turn and travel south as far as Wichita Falls, Texas. Many of them would stop in the breaks until the storm was over. When the rivers and creeks were frozen over it would stop them. They would get out on the ice or between the channels of the streams. If they were not run off, they froze to death.

There was a fence about one-hundred miles long, where Briscoe now stands, called the "drift fence." On the 5th of January, 1885, a blizzard struck, probably the worst that was ever remembered in Texas. Soon after it had spent its force, along the "drift fence" there were counted 12,500 cattle frozen to death. What few cattle there were left had their horns and feet frozen off. That's what is called a "real Texas blizzard."—MARGIE BOWERS, English I.

THIRTY-ONE STUDENTS ENROLLED AS JUNIORS

With 31 students enrolled, the juniors plan to make theirs an outstanding class. Miss Bernie Addison is sponsor, Charlie Hix, president; Junior Jamison, vice president; Cecil Sherwood, secretary-treasurer, and Estelle Scott, sergeant-at-arms. Lilacs were chosen for the class flower and orchid and white as class colors.

The juniors have had two class meetings this year, one to choose the sponsor, elect officers, class flower and colors, and the other to plan a party that was given at the American Legion hall, Oct. 12. At this meeting Mrs. H. E. Young was elected class mother.

Mazie Bean is giving the class Hallowe'en party at her home Friday night.

The juniors are planning a play, which is to be given some time near Christmas.

Those enrolled as juniors are: Evelyn Balch, Dorothy Burgess, Rutha Mae Conner, Cordie Lee Farris, Fay Ficke, Ruth Faye Garrison, Adell Hampton, Helen Sanders, Estelle Scott, Mable Sherwood, Willie Mae Warren, Mazie Bean, Capitola Wilson, Nerine Young, Laney Mae Tillman, Florine Wright, Zinna Mae Holley, J. Hallowe'en costumes and masks will be worn.

Students Meet for Chapel Period

Wednesday morning the high school met in the auditorium for general assembly. The songs "Santa Lucia," "Loch Lomond," "Wearing of the Green," and "The Spanish Cavalier" were sung. Supt. J. L. Gilmore then made a short talk urging everyone to attend the carnival to be given next Wednesday night at the school building.

First Grade To Receive 12 Chairs

Twelve kindergarten chairs have been ordered from the Southwest School Supplies company for the first grade room. H. E. Cole built a long table that will be placed in the room and used as a desk. The chairs will serve as seats for the 12 smallest students in the class.

COURAGE (Editorial)

To have courage one must be able to encounter danger and difficulties with firmness and without fear. A pure courageous person is seldom found. One may be brave, or one may be daring, but that does not make one a pure courageous person: If one is not this type of person, he must go to work and become courageous. One must not wait for big things to come along. He must seek them! Strive for them! Do not seek position by influence and "pull." Work for it! This world into which you are entering may seem to be a big fake, but it is a wise old world after all. The men and women it wants for its service, and the ones it will crown with its awards, are those who are courageous.—I. M. R.

The P.-T. A. Meeting

On Thursday night of last week the second meeting of the P.-T. A. was held. Mrs. Charles Chandler presided over the assembly, as Mr. Vise was unable to attend. Mrs. Chandler discussed co-operation as an asset to any school. The association decided to affiliate with the state and national organizations. A short program was presented by school children.

The parents of the community are urged to attend these meetings in order that they may become more correctly informed about school problems. "Your child is your most valuable holding; so why not investigate that institution which has so much to do with his character, with the development of his mind, with the development of his entire being?"

Education Week

Mrs. Smith is also sponsoring a play entitled "Auntie Up" to be presented Nov. 16.

Come! Enjoy the entertainment with us.

Come on Marines

Come on, Marines, is a fast moving type of picture featuring Richard Arlen and the little bundle of nerves, Ida Lupino. If you like the gobs, here they are. There is plenty of fun and nonsense. There is plenty of sailors, girls, ships and more sailors. It is a story built around Uncle Sam's fighting Marines. It will be at the Rogue Friday-Saturday, Oct. 26-27. In connection with this feature there will be a fine two reel subject titled "A Century of Progress." This alone will be worth the price of admission since it is actually taken from scenes and exhibits now on display at the world's fair at Chicago. All the principal things of interest of the fair will be shown, and you are saving transportation and hotel charges and seeing the fair right at home.

ORAL HEALTH

Wisdom Teeth

Wisdom teeth are the most abused ones in the mouth. Especially is this true in thought and conversation. If wisdom teeth have no value, why were they included in our formation? In contradiction to the general belief, they have an important duty. It is very true that many people are annoyed in "cutting" them, but on the other hand many people never know when they arrive.

Those which come through the bony process and take their rightful places are valuable. If you have yours, try to chew without them. On them and the adjoining molars is where you have your grinding power. Your jaw-teeth are the ones which decompose your heavy foods, and the further back you chew the more leverage you have.

Many people have trouble with wisdom teeth as they come through the gum tissue which covers them. This percent is small, however, compared to the number in use. Those which come through and take their proper place are useful. Those which come through slowly are the ones which give trouble more often.

It is very common for these to have gum-flaps resting on the top, at the back. This condition is more common with lowers than it is with uppers. The lower jaw takes a considerable slant upwards at or close behind this tooth. Therefore, the gum at the back is the last to give way and settle down. This condition is the cause of so many irritated gums while "cutting" wisdom teeth.

This irritated or infected gum is generally caused by food particles getting under it, by the prick of a tooth-brush, or some similar accident. In this event the affected part should be irrigated with an antiseptic solution or treated by your dentist. These cases appear to be simple but often increase in their annoyance until it is difficult to relieve them. Their location being so close to the throat and the conjunction of the two jaws, swelling many times locks the jaws or makes it difficult to render proper treatment. Those who have gum-flaps resting on their lower wisdom teeth, should keep them well cleaned and have them treated early in case of irritation.

The wrong impression about wisdom teeth has been established in the minds of the people on account of the severe cases getting so much publicity. It should be remembered that while there are some cases which give serious trouble either in their eruption or their removal, there is a large number which never give trouble. The misleading impression about wisdom teeth as a whole is a burden to those who have theirs and are using them. The talk about the bad cases creates in the minds of the people a dislike for wisdom teeth. This impression is erroneous and unfounded.

Just because one person has a serious malady is no sign that everyone will die with the same disease. Next—Prevention.
