THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

Oil Test Prospects Good Near Wheeler

Block of Acreage Assembled Three Miles North of Town Will Be Drilled

From reliable sources it became known today that a block of approximately 5,000 acres of land, beginning at a point some three miles north of town, has been leased for the purpose of putting down a deep test for oil and gas. It is reported that a contract will probably be made for a 1,000-foot hole, if needed. Arrangements are being made to complete a drilling contract with Texas and Oklahoma parties. Present plans point to a start of actual drilling within 60 days. Titles yet remain to be cleared up and fully approved. Practically all of this block is now under lease contract. The tract includes land belonging to S. T. Morgan, Josiah Smith, Ed Watson, Henry Bailey, Holt & Crump, Luther Elliot and others in that area. No definite location has been announced for the test, but it is believed that a spot not far from Sweetwater creek, north of Wheeler, will be chosen.

According to residents who have lived here several years, a test in the vicinity of the new block was made some 10 or 12 years ago. That prospective well was located on the P. J. Orensen land, and reached only a depth of 2,118 feet when financial difficulties caused abandonment of the project. No definite results of findings were made public.

Local parties express confidence in the venture and predict that an oil field will be developed in that territory.

County Club Women Attend Press Meeting

Local Club Reporter Gives Vivid Account of Conference Held in Pampa

(By MRS. C. B. WITT)

"Accuracy and simplicity are the earmarks of a good reporter," says Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, extension editor of Texas A. & M. college, who held a press conference in Pampa, Feb. 13 and 14 for the benefit of home demonstration agents and delegates from Collingsworth, Wheeler, Hemphill and Gray counties. Mrs. Cunningham was assisted by Miss Ruby Mashburn, home demonstration agent of District 1, also from A. & M. college, College Station.

The first and most important habits to be established in the development of a reporter are those of being accurate in the collection of facts and simple and punctual in the rendition of those exact facts.

Mrs. Cunningham has her instruments with which she covers good reporters. The "baby walker" and "measuring rod" are used. The "baby walker" is as follows: In a report the first paragraph should contain:

(a) A lead which will be the first sentence in the paragraph. This sentence should carry a piece of information worth giving to the public. (b) The full name and title of the person giving the information. (c) The name of the organization receiving the information. (d) The place of the meeting, including the town. (e) The date of the meeting.

The second paragraph should carry the lead of the story out in greater detail, giving the public something worthwhile.

Paragraph three should be made up of the club news such as the business of the meeting.

The last paragraph should consist of the names of those attending the meeting; regular members, new members and guests.

The "measuring rod" is a literary instrument of Mrs. Cunningham's own making. After a story has been completed it should be read aloud and measured as follows:

Does this report carry a piece of information given at the meeting that will be helpful to another who was not at the meeting?

Enthusiastic co-operation was manifested by both J. B. Miller, editor of the Pampa Press and Olin E. Hinkle, editor of Pampa Daily News, who attended a few sessions and gave words of advice and encouragement to all reporters.

Each one present wrote a report of a bedroom demonstration given by Miss Annie Mae Donaghey, home agent of Collingsworth county. These reports were read aloud and constructive criticism was offered by Mrs. Cunningham.

"All work and no play" is certainly not the code of Miss Ruby M. Adams, home agent of Gray county. With the assistance of her county, city and local talent, Miss Adams presented to all delegates and home agents a program of entertainment which included a George Washington luncheon and program, Wednesday, Feb. 13, given by the Civic Culture club of Pampa, a free pass to the LaNora theatre and a Valentine luncheon and program Thursday, Feb. 14, given by the Child Study club of Pampa.

Those attending from Wheeler county were: Viola Jones, demonstration agent, Wheeler; Mesdames Zura Bullock, Davis; Jim Risner and C. Bryan Witt, Wheeler; C. H. Candler, Briscoe, and N. J. Tyson, Mobeetie.

Calf Club and Cured Meat Show at Shamrock Saturday

Saturday is the date for the baby beef and cured meat show which is to be held in Shamrock. A large list of entries is reported in various classes. A feature of the event will be judging by boys teams of the county and nearby territory.

A complete schedule of awards on exhibits and judging was published in The Times two weeks ago. The list includes a silver cup by the Wheeler Cotton Oil Co., Inc.

BAPTISTS POSTPONE ELECTION OF PASTOR

Due to withdrawal of one of the prospective applicants, selection of a pastor by the Baptist church at last Sunday's conference for that purpose was postponed until a later date. According to a member of the pulpit committee, it is possible that additional candidates for the place will have a chance to be heard before a decision is made.

Preaching services will be held at the church, both morning and evening next Sunday, with Rev. A. C. Wood occupying the pulpit.

Briscoe Club Studies Fruit Tree Grafting

Miss Tamsey Riley, a Club Member Tells How to Have Low Cost Orchard

(By MRS. C. H. CANDLER)

"There is really no excuse for not having a home orchard, the expense is so small and the work so fascinating," said Miss Tamsey Riley, home demonstration club member, while giving a demonstration on the grafting of Fruit Trees before the Briscoe Home Demonstration club at Briscoe, Feb. 19.

Miss Riley continued: "Prune in December and bury the cuttings on the north side of a building where it is cool and moist and the buds will have no chance to swell. Just as the sap begins to rise the grafting should be done. Cut the small seedling tree straight across a few inches below the top of the ground and split in the middle. Cut the scion three or four inches long and trim to a wedge shape at one end. Place this end in the split of the seedling and seal with grafting wax. This wax is made of beeswax, rosin, and lard or tallow. Some varieties for grafting interchangeably are peaches, plums, and apricots; apples, pears and quince. Cherries do better grafted to a cherry."

Mrs. C. H. Candler was elected club reporter, with Mrs. Merle Hunter assistant. One new member, Mrs. T. A. Treadwell, was added to the club roll. Mrs. Viola Mathews and Mrs. Annie Sivage were welcome guests.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bob Greenhouse and Mrs. J. L. Smith. Others present were Mesdames J. S. Standlee, Jack Vise, John Zybach, M. W. Graves, Clarence Zybach, Perry Riley, Cliff Sivage, Adrian Rea, Weaver Barnett, C. H. Candler, and Misses Anna Crossland and Tamsey Riley.

A demonstration, Arrangement of Bedroom Accessories, will be discussed at the next meeting of the club, March 5.

Teachers Will Meet in Wheeler Saturday

County-Wide Event to Start at 1 P. M.—Trustees to Meet in Forenoon

Notices addressed to rural school principals and teachers of Wheeler county have been mailed out by Superintendent B. T. Rucker this week, calling a meeting here Saturday afternoon for the discussion of subjects of interest. His letter states that "this is the second and last county-wide meeting of the teachers of Wheeler county, as the law provides and requires."

The session will begin promptly at 1 p. m. and will probably be concluded around 3 o'clock, states Rucker.

"It is very essential that teachers attend this meeting," declares the notices.

The superintendent also calls attention to a trustees meeting, which will be held Saturday forenoon, beginning at 10:45, and is anxious that all trustees make a special effort to attend.

Some prominent educators will be present to speak at both gatherings. They include Harris M. Cook, dean of men, W. T. S. T. C., Canyon, who will discuss revision of the Texas curriculum before the teachers and may address the trustees gathering.

Frank Phillips, head of the department of agriculture, Canyon, is another guest speaker expected for the afternoon meeting. His subject has not been announced.

Several local men will also appear on the programs. R. E. Brazil is scheduled to offer a welcome address to the trustees, and T. M. Britt will talk on promoting education.

Rucker stresses the fact that patrons of the schools, superintendents, principals and teachers of independent school districts, as well as the general public, are cordially invited to attend both meetings.

Realizing the stringent state of finances for school work, Rucker recently addressed an inquiry to the state offices concerning aid. He is in receipt of a letter from the state supervisor of the adult education program which states that the governor has requested a grant from Washington to extend school terms in Texas.

Continuing, the letter says the request was made on Jan. 22 and definite information is expected soon. Assurance of assistance is given, if such is at all possible.

WHEELER DEMONSTRATION CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

Which course are we going to choose, "Nationalism, Internationalism or the Middle Course"? This was the question presented in a program given by Mesdames J. M. Porter, W. I. Joss, F. D. Ferguson, Jim Trout and C. Bryan Witt to the Wheeler Home Demonstration club Feb. 20.

Nationalism is the program of America living sufficient unto itself. Internationalism follows the practice of opening wide the markets and lowering tariff to give foreign countries access to all industries. The middle course is a medium which will require much sober and impersonal thinking on the part of every voting citizen in the United States.

Committees appointed at the meeting were: Mesdames Jim Trout, W. I. Joss and F. D. Ferguson, song books, and Mesdames W. O. Puett, Marl Jaco and Lula Mae Farley, finance.

Present at the meeting were regular members, Mesdames Minnie Farmer, F. D. Ferguson, W. I. Joss, Marl Jaco, Chas. R. Flynt, O. O. Sandifer, A. L. Bean, J. H. Watts, J. M. Porter, Jim Trout, Jim Risner and C. Bryan Witt. New members were Mesdames J. F. Witt, Lula Mae Farley and W. W. Jenkins. Mrs. H. V. Hendry was a guest at the meeting.

MORE FARM SALES OCCUR NEXT WEEK

Underwood expects to move to Wheeler soon and take a position as assistant tax assessor-collector in J. H. Templeton's office.

R. D. Futch, six miles northwest of New Mobeetie, is billing a sale for Thursday, Feb. 28. He is offering a large list of livestock and farm implements, since he intends to quit farming.

Leonard Green, Mobeetie auctioneer, will swing the gavel at each of the above sales.

Bits of Early-Day History About Texas

(Note: This is one of a series of historical articles taken from the Bexar Archives at the University of Texas.)

Series I, No. 4

Two pairs of silk stockings were among the possessions given to each of the sixteen women who took their courage, indeed their very lives, in their hands and sailed with their fathers and husbands from the Canary Islands in 1730 to become the first officially recognized colonists in a new land, Texas.

This fact is revealed for the first time with the translation of certain official documents in the Bexar Archives in the University of Texas Library. These archives comprised the official Spanish and Mexican governmental records at San Antonio de Bexar, for more than a century the seat of Spanish government of the Texas.

It was a hardy little band of pioneers who left their pleasant surroundings, their friends, the established businesses in the Canary Islands, a Spanish possession, to accept the promises of the Spanish government of a new home in the wilds of Texas. To realize that they must settle in a wilderness haunted constantly by threats of Indian outrages, and that at San Antonio de Bexar they would be as near to the enemy French in Louisiana as to Mexico City, the seat of Spanish civilization in Mexico, must have held errors for them.

Yet they came. From the very outset, they were faced with all the problems that greet humanity everywhere—life, death, love, happiness, pain. Only ten families set out to begin with. Only ten men, with their wives, their sons and their daughters, under the leadership of the so-called "first" man, the eldest, Juan Leal Goras. Within a month the number of families was increased to fifteen. Vincente Alvarez Travieso, Francisco de Arocha, Antonio Rodriguez, Joseph Leal, and Juan Delgado having married island girls before sailing. Death had come to Juan Labrador, and later to two women, his widow, Maria Rodriguez, and his wife of the "first" man, Juan Leal Goras. A son had been born en route to one of the families.

In an official document signed before Francisco Manuel de Cobarrurias, notary public, in Quantitan, November 9, 1730, a list of personal effects and of tools given to each family is noted, and the head of each family was required to sign the document in acceptance of its terms, either in script or by mark. It is this document that has just been translated by University translators.

The following list of articles for personal use was given to Juan Leal Goras, recognized as the leader of the party. Similar possessions were given by the Spanish government to each other man in the band: "Two shirts, two pairs of white rousers, two white jackets with sleeves, two cravats, a cape, a riding suit, a pair of trousers, two pairs of woolen socks, two pairs of shoes, a hat, a mattress and two sheets, a pillow with its case covering, a quilt, two horses, a saddle with stirrups and cushions, a bridle with lead-stall and reins, a hackamore, with its halter, two sheep skins, a pair of spurs, a pair of boots, some spur straps, a wide cavalry sword with its belt, a knife, a gun with its sheath, a girdle with its powder flask, balls and flints, a pack saddle and a copper kettle with its top for cooking and which serves as a frying pan."

To each woman an unusual combination of "finery" and practical necessities were given, it is evidenced by the list of things given to Maria Curbelo, wife of the "second" man:

"Two shirts, two pairs of white petticoats, two jackets with sleeves, two handkerchiefs, two pairs of silk stockings, two pairs of understockings, two pairs of shoes, a serge petticoat, a white baige cloak, a plain shawl, an upper petticoat, two horses, a saddle without stirrups and cushions, a bit with head stall and reins, a hackamore with its halter, two sheep skins, a mattress, two sheets, a quilt, a pillow with its case and case covering, and a pack saddle."

That Juan Leal Goras, sometimes called Juan Leal, was recognized by the Spanish authorities as spokesman for the colonists is evidenced by the portion of the document which outlines the tools and implements which each settler was to receive. Cognizance is also taken of the fact that some of the Islanders were unable to write. After listing the personal belongings to be given to each individual, the order continues:

"This delivery having been made as stated, with the intervention of Francisco Duval and Juan Leal, head of the first family, they will deliver them with all care and equity as follows:

"Two axes, two ploughs, two machetes, two crowbars, ten saws, ten adzes, ten chisels, twenty plough-shares, strengthened with steel, two paddles, ten comales (pottery vessel used for cooking tortillas) and ten tents with all their framework.

"In this manner delivery was made to each one of the fifty-six persons who make up the families mentioned, and each one of them what was thus his share, received all that was coming to him as expressed in detail for each. They received this in person and before Don Francisco Domingo de Laba, alcalde mayor of this jurisdiction, and with the help of the present royal notary public of this town. I certify that this was executed in this manner. I also attest that it was done with the intervention of Francisco Duval and Juan Leal, who were witnesses of the fact that delivery was made to the entire satisfaction of the families in question, as well as of the said Francisco Duval, Juan Leal, Don Thomas de Zubiria, Don Joseph Carrillo, and Don Juan Manuel Ximenez. All the persons of the said families who knew how to write signed this, and for those who did not know the witnesses signed."

ALLISON HAS TROPHY RECORD

WINS 21 AWARDS IN THREE YEARS OF BASKETBALL

Unique is the record made by Coach John Peeples and his Allison quintet and sextet. These intrepid players have won 21 trophies since December, 1931, slightly more than three years. The trophy case in the main hall of the school building is filled with beautiful trophies which are worthy representations of this school's athletic achievement.

The collection was started with a small trophy won at the Shamrock tournament in December, 1931. This trophy has since been stolen, but an exact replica has been ordered and will soon take its place in the case. The Allison teams have also won a first and a consolation during this season.

In 1932 both Allison teams captured first places at the Allison tournament. In the next year four additional trophies were awarded the Allison teams. Two first places were chalked up at the Allison tournament and two seconds at the Mobeetie tournament.

The year 1934 was the biggest for the Allison teams. They started the year off right by taking two first places at the Mobeetie meet the second week in the new year. A few weeks later a first and a second place at the Canadian tournament added two of the most beautiful trophies of the lot. The two teams had the distinct honor of winning two first place conference trophies in February. At the beginning of the basketball season in December, 1934, two first places were awarded the Allison teams at the Miami tournament. A little later two additional first places were won at the Allison tournament, making a total of nine first places, and one second place for 1934.

At the recent Mobeetie tournament the boys won second place and the girls third, bringing the total up to 21 trophies in a little more than three years.

Peeples coaches both teams. Allison has less than 50 students in high school, giving him a very small number of students to select from.

CONSERVING THE SALMON SUPPLY

CONSERVATION has become an all-important word in government activities. Until recent years, however, it was a word seldom used in our vast new country. When our forefathers first came to America they settled in a land filled with beautiful forests and many rivers. The forests were bountifully stocked with birds and game of all kinds, and the streams afforded an abundance of fish. For many years it seemed that the small population could never use up this wealth of natural resources.

Today, however, forest conservation has become one of the major national interests. Every State has not only its forest commissions which cooperate with similar bureaus of the Federal Government, but its fish and game commissions as well.

People realized that the great herds of buffalo that once roamed the plains are gone, the flocks of wild turkey have dwindled to a sparse few, that trees would be at a premium for future generations—and hence this new significance of conservation.

High Food Value at Low Cost
The conservation of salmon has been of particular interest because of the high food value of this delicious fish which is so well adapted to canning that it has become one of the important low-priced food commodities.

Atlantic salmon have gradually disappeared from the rivers of the East until very few are caught except by sportsmen. With the increase of cities, towns and industries along the West coast there was a very real possibility that the Pacific salmon also would disappear. Beside the untold loss this would have meant to the food world, it would have meant ruin also to the salmon packers who engage thousands of men to work in this great industry. However, the states of California, Oregon and Washington have now made laws which give them authority to regulate the salmon catch within their boundaries.

Alaskan Wealth

When Alaska was purchased from Russia there was much criticism of the wisdom of such a step. This Russian "ice-box," as the critics termed Alaska, proved however to have been an untold bargain to the United States, bought at the price of about two cents an acre. For not only has it afforded wealth in furs and minerals, but its waters have given us more than $24,000,000 in sea foods. Salmon is her most valuable fish industry.

Conservation of Alaskan salmon was made necessary by 1924, when over-fishing had resulted in a serious decline in salmon in certain districts. The Alaska Fisheries Act was passed giving the Federal Government complete control of when, where and how salmon is to be caught. The authority is exercised by the Secretary of Commerce through the Bureau of Fisheries. If it happens, for some reason, that the salmon run in a particular stream is very limited, then fishing is immediately limited or discontinued there until the fish have again multiplied.

The Bureau of Fisheries maintains fish hatcheries in California, Oregon, Washington and Alaska where, in addition to other kinds of native fish, hundreds of thousands of Pacific salmon are hatched, and later released into the streams where they are needed.

Canned salmon contains an excellent quality of protein for body-building, a high percentage of fat which can be counted upon to produce energy, significant quantities of calcium and phosphorus indispensable for bone and teeth building, and also that much desired substance—iodine which prevents goiter.*

P. T. A. Holds Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Briscoe Parent-Teachers association was held Thursday night, Feb. 14, with a large number of parents and the entire faculty present. Jack Vise, president of the association, called the meeting to order and the group sang as the opening song, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie". This was followed by a prayer by O. C. Evans and reading of the minutes of last meeting. Business relative to the purchase of a new piano for the school was discussed, and it was voted that all money not needed for the purchase of classroom pictures be given to the piano committee to apply on a new instrument. As has been the custom at previous meetings, those present voted on some elementary grade room to receive a noteworthy picture. Mr. Dodd's room received the greatest number of votes.

Following the business session a Valentine program was presented by the pupils of Miss Riley and Miss Carmack. The program was as follows: Reading, Mary Ruth Evans; Valentine song, Miss Riley's pupils; patriotic reading, Ewing Barnett and other boys of Miss Riley's room; reading, Betty Ruth Dickinson; Valentine play, Miss Carmack's pupils; song, "Johnnie Had a Valentine", Miss Carmack's pupils.

Following the above program, very interesting talks on 'The Relationship of the Teacher and the School' were made by M. W. Graves, Mrs. Chas. Candler and Weaver Barnett. Such topics as curriculum revision, the need of the parent to know the teacher, and co-operation were brought out.

Next regular meeting of the association will be in March, at which time we hope to have an even larger representation of patrons, as we feel that these meetings are beneficial to the children of the community as well as to those adults who have the opportunity of exchanging ideas.

4-H CLUB MEETING

The 4-H club met Monday, Feb. 18. The motto, pledge and prayer were repeated, and the business discussed. The girls are working on a centennial stunt for council. Miss Jones gave a demonstration on cook aprons. Meeting adjourned at 12:00 o'clock.

DEBATE ELIMINATIONS HELD

On Monday night an elimination debate was held in the high school auditorium. Bernard Wilson and Gene Evans were selected as the two best speakers by the judge, Will Crow, county attorney of Hemphill county. Subject for debate was, resolved: That the government should own and operate all electric light and power utilities.

Clyde Wadsworth and Gene Evans took the negative side, while Wiley McCray and Bernard Wilson opposed them on the affirmative side.

We wish to thank Mr. Crow very sincerely for his kindness and helpfulness in judging the contest.

4-H Club Program To Be Given

The 4-H club girls are going to sponsor a program on Friday night, March 1. The program is composed of a negro minstrel, a one-act play, and several snappy entertainments. Characters in the one-act play, "Not a Man in the House", are as follows: Mrs. Maria Bings, a widow with experience, Valoise Evans; Miss Lucy Rider, whose sympathies are with the young, Joy Bill Riley; Kate, the servant girl, Mary Margaret McCarrill; and Jessie Ray. Mrs. Bing's pretty young niece, Dorothy Lohberger. A 4-H club quilt and a box of candy will be featured. Admission is ten cents for both young and old.

It doesn't seem that very many of the high school students have a talent for spelling because there are only four entering that contest. They are: Lois Aderholt, Geraldine Wadsworth, Daphne Young and Mardell Tipps. Maybe every one else was scared when these four entered and

CLUB NOTES

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County.

"My daughter wanted some new shades to brighten her bedroom, but I could not afford to get them," said Mrs. Bob Greehouse, co-operator for the Briscoe Home Craft club, "so I just painted the old ones that are in her room and she thinks they are new ones."

Mrs. Greehouse continued, "I went to no extra expense. I put the rollers on the end that had been used so the good end would show and used some paint that I had on hand and painted one side white and the other side green."

In answer to the February roll call which was "My Best Job as a Furniture Clinic," Mrs. J. G. Erwin, co-operator in the Briscoe Home Craft club, gave the following report: "I have repainted my breakfast suite, two beds, made one gaily colored sewing box and two door stops."

Before repainting both the beds and breakfast suite Mrs. Erwin first removed all old paint with strong lye water, then she sandpapered the chairs and table and painted them light green. She painted the bedsteads blue.

To make a sewing box, Mrs. Erwin took a 25-pound fruit box, nailed two boards two by one-fourth inches together and made legs 18 inches long. She covered the outside of the box with plaster made of paste and newspapers, let this dry and then painted it light blue. She also covered two bricks this way and uses them for door stops.

At a total expense of $2.70, Mrs. Haskel Smith, co-operator in the Heald Home Demonstration club, with the help of her sister, Fritz Parker, mader her living room suite out of a leather divan and an old worn out rocker she had.

To begin the chair, they first cut off the rockers and repaired the sides. They took the springs out of an old car seat, padded and covered those and made a cushion. The back and arms were then padded with cotton and the entire chair covered with jaspé. The divan was padded all over with cotton then covered with burlap and a cover of jaspé was fitted to the chair and tacked on smoothly for the outside finish. The cotton and burlap used in covering the furniture was some that they had on hand. $2.60 was spent for jaspé and 10¢ for tacks which covered the entire expense of refinishing the furniture.

Mrs. Smith invited the club to meet with her for their furniture clinic demonstration and she told the club she felt very proud of her suite.

Out of a small dusty room, used largely for junk, Josie Lee Lane, bedroom demonstrator for the Heald 4-H club, with the help of her family, is making a light, dust proof closet large enough to accomodate the family of seven.

The room is 9 by 5 feet built around a staircase and though it was used as a closet as well as a place to store old shoes and things not in use, there were no shelves on which to put folded garments or no extension rod for hanging clothes. Since Josie Lee began the renovating she has tacked paste board boxes over the unfinished walls, added a 5 foot extension rod and 14 feet of shelving. She states, however, that she plans to add more shelves, another extension rod and cover the sides and ceiling with heavy building paper.

Allison Club Meets

Mrs. Carl Levitt and Mrs. W. T. Newsome were hostesses to the Home Makers club Tuesday, Feb. 12. After the business meeting, roll call was answered by "My Most Successful Job as Furniture Clinic". Miss Jones gave a demonstration on reseating chairs.

Those present were Mesdames: Keiper, Lee Kiker, Carl Levitt, Johnson, Lloyd Jones, W. S. McCoy, Newsome, Reed, W. B. Wileman, Lee George, Simpson, Martin, Hickerson, W. E. George, Lester, Parks, Hamilton, Fred Begert, Frank Begert, Glass, Richardson, Stephens, Copeland, Warren, Cecil McCoy, Alvin Forrest, McMillin, Lee, F. D. Smith and Ruth Trout.

Mrs. W. P. Varnell of the Three Leaf Home Demonstration club at Shamrock has shown her ability of "Doing what you can with what you have to do with", by making a magazine stand out of an apple box.

It is a small structure, about two feet high and 18 inches wide. There are two partitions in it and a handle by which to carry it. Mrs. Varnell's husband sawed the rack the shape they wanted it and then she tacked it together with small finishing nails. It has been sandpapered and varnished both on the outside and inside.

Mrs. Varnell also states that they plan to repair a chair for their living room by either fixing one of the rockers or sawing both them off and making a straight chair of it.

The Kelton Home Demonstration club met Friday, Feb. 8, with Mrs. Worley, president, in charge. Miss Viola Jones gave a demonstration on reseating old chairs, which proved interesting. Those present were Mesdames Worley, Bradstreet, Oglesby, Smith, Rathjen, Patterson, Blocker, Pope, Powell, Scott, Caskey; Misses Edith Ashley and Viola Jones and the hostess, Mrs. Walser. —Club Reporter.

The Busy Bee Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Roy Esslinger Thursday afternoon, Feb. 7, with an interesting program on Furniture clinic. Members responded to roll call with My Most Successful Job as Furniture Clinic. Miss Viola Jones gave an interesting demonstration on reseating chairs.

Members present were Mesdames C. M. Hampton, C. C. Robison, J. E. Willard, R. D. Underwood, Cliff Bradstreet, J. H. Richards, Cleo Gaines, H. H. Herd, J. B. Crowder and E. H. Herd. Guests were Mrs. Ernest Dyer, Miss Viola Jones, and Miss Edith Ashley.

The club will meet with Mrs. Cleo Gaines Feb. 21.

The Wheeler Home Demonstration club met Wednesday, Feb. 6, in the club room. During a brief business session, the chairman appointed Mrs. O. O. Sandifer first year wardrobe demonstrator; Mrs. C. B. Witt, second year wardrobe demonstrator; Mrs. F. D. Ferguson, pantry demonstrator, and Mrs. A. F. Bean, bedroom demonstrator. Following the business meeting, Miss Viola Jones gave a demonstration on reseating old chairs and upholstering old furniture.

During the afternoon games were played under direction of Mrs. M. C. Jaco and Mrs. C. B. Witt. Refreshments were then served by Mrs. Jim Trout and Mrs. Jim Risner.

Old members present were Mesdames Jim Risner, C. R. Flynt, Jim Trout, A. F. Bean, Jim Porter, Minnie Farmer, O. O. Sandifer, M. C. Jaco, J. H. Watts and C. B. Witt; new members were Mesdames W. I. Joss and F. D. Ferguson. Guests were Mrs. W. O. Puett and Mrs. Lester Red, and Miss Gertrude Haskett of Childress.

Mrs. J. E. Willard, bedroom demonstrator for the Busy Bee Home Demonstration club, not only is renovating her bedroom but is remodeling her entire home.

A work room, kitchen and breakfast nook have been built onto the house besides the finishing touches that Mrs. Willard has added herself. A bedroom has been made out of the old kitchen, and the stairs that lead to the basement made an undesirable corner in the bedroom so Mrs. Willard had them enclosed in bannisters, wide enough for a flower box, and enameled it cream color. The interior has been covered with light paper to make even the north rooms seem sunny. Painting and varnishing is also playing an important part in the remodeling.

Besides the floors and woodwork in three rooms, the piano, dining table and six chairs have been re-varnished. All the woodwork and the three floors were sandpapered before being varnished. Along with the enameling of the new cabinet and pantry Mrs. Willard painted the four chairs and breakfast table. Four new linoleums have been added to the home and they plan to clear varnish both old and new ones. In connection with the bed room work Mrs. Willard states that she plans to refinish two rocking chairs, varnish a magazine stand, renovate shades, and add new curtains.

Dr. Nicholson Promises Squad Lighted Gridiron

Supt. J. L. Gilmore is Toastmaster for Football Banquet; Coach Clark Gives Review of Season

Dr. H. E. Nicholson, chief speaker at the annual football banquet held Monday night, thrilled his hearers with the announcement that plans are being made for Wheeler to have not only a gymnasium but also a lighted football field next year. The business men of Wheeler are organizing an athletic association to finance the football field by selling shares to the members.

Supt. J. L. Gilmore acted as toastmaster. Coach Bob Clark gave comments on the past football season. He stated that he started the season with new and strange material and that all his plans had to be changed a number of times before the first game. He was in low spirits after the first three games were lost. Hope was restored when the rest of the games, except one, were won. Clark stated that the most spectacular game of all was the one at Canadian.

Among the business and professional people present were H. E. Young, sr., Mrs. Lula Mae Farley, R. D. Holt and R. E. Brazil. All gave short talks.

After the introductions the pep squad led the group in singing the school song. Jack Tate, Junior Jamison and Amos Page, accompanied by O. D. Connor and his guitar, sang When The Cactus Is In Bloom. Afterward they led the group in Beautiful Texas.

The hall of the schoolhouse, where the banquet was held, was decorated in the school colors, black and gold. Red balloons were used as place cards.

The first course of the menu was an orange cocktail. The second consisted of beef roast, gravy, candied sweet potatoes, green beans, macaroni and tomatoes, carrot salad, hot rolls and butter. The third was Del Monte peaches with chocolate cookies and coffee.

Lowery Deering, playing center on the team, was elected captain by the 20 players present.

The home economics girls, who served the banquet, were dressed in white dresses and gold crepe paper aprons trimmed in black.

DISTRICT HOME EC. MEET WILL BE HERE MARCH 9

Again invitations to the district home economics meeting, that is to be held in Wheeler on March 9, have been mailed.

The cards were written by Mrs. Gordon Whitener, home economics instructor, Ida Belle Davis and Estelle Scott.

They were sent to the heads of the home economics departments in the following towns: Amarillo, Clarendon, Claude, Dodsonville, Estelline, Groom, Hedley, Lefors, McLean, Memphis, Shamrock, Wellington, Mobeetie and Kelton. One was also sent to Miss Sibyl Thomas Hallmark, head of the home economics department at Baylor university, Belton, Texas. Miss Hallmark is to be the chief speaker at the banquet.

CHILDREN ASK JANITOR MANY FOOLISH QUESTIONS

"Mr. Cole, have you seen anything of a green fountain pen? Well, if you do it's mine." This is only one of the janitor's many duties, to find lost articles. Plenty of them. He has to clean up after about 500 school children and he says it is some job, even if two boys help.

"Five hundred kids can litter up a building pretty bad in one day," he said. "A man has to run to keep the two buildings together."

Teachers, he states, are just as bad as the children, as they are always wanting things changed around. Their desks have to be kept in tip-top shape too. Some of his other jobs are thawing out pipes, keeping pets and strays out of the house, replacing broken window panes, sweeping 16 rooms, two halls, a study hall and an auditorium, closing and opening the building and cleaning up after a banquet or play. The worst and hardest job is getting out of bed at 3 a. m. into zero weather to light fires.

Both Junior Teams To Enter Tourney

Nineteen teams, including the Wheeler boys' and girls' juniors have entered the tournament to be held in Shamrock Friday and Saturday of this week.

At a meeting held in the school building Monday night, representatives of these various schools drew for places in the games Friday. The schools who were not able to send representatives sent a letter to Principal C. B. Witt, county director of athletics, stating that they wished to draw for places.

The entering teams were divided into two groups—the rural group and the group from the schools that have five or more teachers. The schedule for Friday was planned, and it was decided that the teams winning Friday would draw for places in the preliminaries to be held on Saturday.

The games begin at 1:00 o'clock with the rural boys and girls playing the first four games. The Wheeler boys will play the Mobeetie boys at 7:45 and the girls will play the Kelton girls at 9:15 that night.

Girls who had pictures made are: Geraldine Lewis, Lois Ficke, Lilla Mae Crofford, Lavell Jaco, Margie Bowers, Dorothy Tolliver (captain), Bonnie Adams, Ferrol Ficke and Mary Bell Johnston.

DEBATE MATERIAL ARRIVES

Material for the Interscholastic League debate has arrived. "Those who have come out for debate are really beginning to work," state Miss Ruth Ewing.

Miss Ewing plans to have the preliminaries in two or three weeks to decide who shall represent Wheeler in the Interscholastic League meet.

Deering Is Chosen Football Captain

Lowery Deering was chosen captain for 1935 at the annual football banquet held at the high school on Monday night. The squad of 1934 elected him.

He is a junior in school this term. Although Lowery has been out for football only one season, he played more than any other boy on the team this year. He played every part of every game except about 15 seconds of the last one. His position on the field is center.

Deering is very capable of making a good captain, according to Coach Bob Clark and the boys. The coach also believes that he is the best player in school.

The captain-elect has spent all of his high school career in Wheeler high school.

GILMORE TO SERVE ON NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Supt. J. L. Gilmore has been appointed as a member of the nominating committee of the Panhandle Conference for Education to be held in Canyon March 22 and 23.

Dr. H. A. Scott of Rice will be one of the chief speakers at the meeting. He has a B. S., an M. A. and a Ph. D. degree from Columbia university. He was at the head of the Physical Education department of the University of Oregon for eight years but has been at Rice since 1929. Dr. Scott is an outstanding authority on physical education in the United States.

There will be several other well known speakers at the conference. The discussion will center around planning a curriculum.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS NOT TO HEAR GENE HOWE

Feeling that it would be unfair to the business men, farmers, and 4-H club members to have side attractions, Albert Cooper, editor of the Shamrock Texan, advised Miss Bernie Addison that arrangements could not be made for the journalism class to hear Gene Howe. This was suggested by Miss Addison in order that Mr. Howe could give the Wheeler and Shamrock news writing classes some pointers on how to publish their papers.

Cooper stated, however, that he would do his best to arrange for Howe to come down at a later date and give a talk to the classes. He proposed that instead of this the classes might go to Amarillo in the spring to visit the printing office of the Amarillo Daily News and hear Howe at that time.

"EAGLE SCREAMS" ASKS FOR "CORRAL" EXCHANGE

Fay Ficke, editor of The Corral, received a letter from the Eldorado high school asking to be put on the Corral exchange list.

The exchange editors of the Eagle Screams said they wished to improve their paper and thought the Corral might be of help in doing so. They also stated that one reason for asking for an exchange was because the Corral had received mention in The Interscholastic Leaguer, published by the University of Texas.

Senior Boys Go to Semi-Finals In County Meet

Senior Girls Lose to Liberty by Score of 24 to 26; Mustangs Win Over Briscoe, Lose to Shamrock

The Wheeler high school senior boys went into the semi-finals of the Wheeler County Interscholastic League basketball tournament at Mobeetie last Friday and Saturday.

Shamrock started the scoring early in the first period with a free pitch. The next instant the Mustangs came through with a field goal to take the lead and hold it throughout the first half. In the last fifteen seconds of play, with the score tied 18 to 18, the Irishmen made a field goal and won the game 20 to 18.

In their first game of the tournament the boys defeated the strong Briscoe senior boys in a thrilling game by the close score of 20 to 18.

The senior girls were defeated 24 to 26 in their first game, by the Liberty girls.

Both Mobeetie senior teams won the tournament. The boys already have the championship of the county but the girls have to play a three-game series with Allison to determine the champions. The reason for this is that the girls basketball does not come under the regulation of the Interscholastic League. The Mobeetie Hornets will represent this county in the district tournament to be held in Pampa on Feb. 22 and 23.

The Shamrock Irishmen went into the finals with the Hornets, who won by the close margin of 13 to 11.

The Kelton senior girls played in the finals with the Mobeetie girls, with Mobeetie winning 20 to 17.

Wheeler boys and Liberty girls won third.

EXTRA!

We bet no other team in the country can do this:

The coach and the boys work out for football four days each week and play basketball on week-ends. The queer part about it is that the team has won third place at two tournaments and tied for third in the county. They would have won first but were not "on" when they played. They should have a good football team next year too. The reason for saying this is that they started workouts about the first of the year.

FOOTBALL BOYS CLEAR $10.31 ON DOMINO PARTY

In order to raise money to help defray expenses of Lowery Deering's illness, the football boys gave a domino party at the American Legion hall Tuesday night.

Each football boy was given four tickets and was held responsible for a card table, chairs and dominoes for his table.

Minimum cost of each ticket was 25 cents, although several people donated more than this sum.

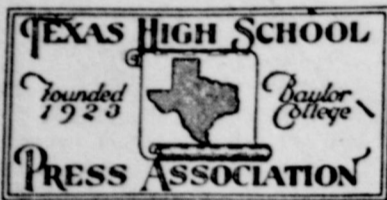

Seven football boys and twenty-eight business men and women were present. Proceeds amounted to $10.31.

Why Washington Seldom Smiled

The story about George Washington and the cherry tree might not be true but it shows the honesty, truthfulness and sincerity of a great man. When a person is called "the father of his country" he must possess some good qualities. Washington had them.

At a time when his country most needed him he came willingly to serve her. He, with a small and poorly equipped army, defeated the best and largest army on the face of the earth. After the war he called the American statesmen to his home to make agreements on a boundary dispute. This meeting led to the constitutional convention. When the constitution was ratified by all states he was chosen to be the first president.

All pictures of George Washington portray an austere man. The apparent gravity of his manner was due to faulty teeth. While president he had his teeth pulled and a plate made by a silversmith. It fitted so imperfectly that he could hardly close his mouth and when he laughed the plate fell out. In his youth an easy repose rested on his lips indicating a love of mirth and gaiety. Today is his birthday. If he were alive today he would look upon this world at the age of 203 years.—T. C.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN

Strange that some people scoff at death, thinking that no accidents could happen to them; they always can, though. The National Safety Council made a record of the accidents occurring in the United States and found several that were very queer.

A baby carriage in New Jersey was hit by an automobile. Philip Roman, a three-months-old baby and a few pillows "flew through the air with the greatest of ease", the infant landing on the pillows with no one harmed. William McFadden, Chicago, started up an iron stairs, a step broke and he was hanged, his head catching in the superstructure. John Bisesky sat on his front porch. A passing car flipped a stone against his head, killing him.

A trapeze performer, Florine Lavelle, fell downstairs and was fatally injured. A dog fell from a ten story building, landed on Albert Barrett, and fractured his skull. Mrs. Janet Ward's auto shot over a 178 when she stepped on a cake of soap, plunged through a window, and dropped three floors to a sand pile. She suffered some embarrassment.

English, a pilot, was killed by an automobile. A Dayton, Ohio, woman, blinded by smoke from her cook-stove, ran into the street and was killed by a car. Joseph Pittis, New Philadelphia, Ohio, extricated himself from what was left of his car. Then the undamaged radio blared: "I'll be glad when you're dead, you rascal, you."

Many times people are killed when they least expect it. While accidents that just couldn't occur kill some people, miracles save others.—F. F.

Well Furnished Room

The room that I entered was furnished in excellent taste. It was a large living-room with a white brick fireplace near the door with a tapestry above the mantle. On the floor which was hardwood, there were two cherry colored plain rugs with a darker border. The living room furniture was brown mohair and the curtains were green velour. At one end of the room in front of two large windows was a lounge. At one end of the lounge between it and the wall was a small round table of mahogany wood. There were French doors in the wall opposite the fireplace that opened in the dining room. On one side of these doors were book shelves which were built in the wall. Near the shelves was a large club chair of green material with a reading lamp on one side of it in contrasting shade. In front of the fireplace was a large chair and at the end of the fireplace there was a cabinet radio of mahogany wood.

BOB CLARK TO PRESENT MAGIC PROGRAM, FEB. 28

Coach Bob Clark will present a magic program of one hour and a half Thursday, Feb. 28, in the high school auditorium. An admission charge of 10 and 20 cents will be made. All the proceeds of this entertainment will be used for the football sweaters.

The entertainment consists of tricks which have been worked in 43 states of the union.

Cards, silks, ropes, eggs, dice, milk, rice and thimbles will be used in the tricks by Coach Clark. He will present a chalk talk, also.

During the show Clark will ask several boys and girls in the audience to assist him on the stage.

The feature magic trick will be with the dice and rope, and the feature chalk talk will be sketching presidents whose names are drawn from a box.

LONGFELLOW DISCUSSED BY ENGLISH CLUB PUPILS

At the regular meeting of the English I club last Friday morning in room 3, the life and works of Longfellow were studied and discussed. Each student answered roll call with a quotation from the poet.

Louis Havenhill gave a short sketch on Longfellow's life. Mansell Womack read his "Endymion".

Imogene Jamison and Charles Red, representing the affirmative, and Fern George and Aubrey Warren, representing the negative, debated on the question: Resolved: That grammar is more essential than literature. The negative won the debate.

CAUGHT in the LASSO'S NOOSE

Did Carlisle catch a good looking girl from Kelton while at Mobeetie? Parilee caught afire while yelling for Wheeler Saturday. Looks bad.

Little McIntyre of Shamrock and Cunningham of McLean were both heard talking about Wheeler's great football team next year.

Have you noticed Theodore's hair changing colors every week?

The English IV students compared their papers and found that the teacher was trying to pull a fast one.

If appearances aren't deceiving, Marvin now has the "jitters." Be careful, old guy; girl's are great deceivers, so I've heard.

That pretty Robertson girl gets more popular each day—four boys crowded near her just now!

Good thing that Briscoe boy doesn't have a car—he would spend too much time "minchering" about —might even go to Shamrock once in awhile.

Theodore is still studying Spanish and advanced arithmetic. Gosh, but he certainly wants those grades!

Doesn't Mrs. Whitener look pretty in that blue and gray skirt?

Boys, be careful when you are near some of those freshmen girls—they know how to tell one "to stay put."

Tate could not make up his mind whether he would have a partner for the banquet.

Why did Earl's brother make him stay at home Friday night, Saturday and Saturday night?

Ask Guy to show you the valentine he received from Kelton.

LEAVES FROM A FISH'S DIARY

THURSDAY

Got up with the sun this morning to begin taking daily exercises, and went to sleep in English class. Went to a Valentine party tonight without an invitation but when I got there I found that the party was at another house, so I went home.

FRIDAY

I think that some of those ex-seniors should be given medals, because they discovered a pocketbook fire at the tournament and it was not long before it was extinguished by the owner. Those Briscoe girls are rather good-looking but most of them wore ribbons in their games—looked just like little sissies. I probably wouldn't enter this if they hadn't all yelled for the Liberty girls when our senior girls played the Liberty team.

SATURDAY

In reading one of McIntyre's books today, I found that he is somewhere in his fifties, that his column is read by more than 20,000,000 people, that his fan mail averages more than 3,000 letters a week, and that his salary is $2,000 a week. That's interesting.

SUNDAY

At church this morning one of the members in my class said that she had a good time last night but I couldn't find out just what all she did. Another of the girls got stood up last night or, at least she thought that she was, but her boy friend showed up at 9.

MONDAY

Today was "blue Monday", sure enough! I didn't get my English and had to stay in after school. Then I threw a paper wad at a man and got called down before all the study hall. I'll be glad when I get to be a senior! One of the senior boys threw a paper wad, hit a teacher and she smiled at him! Maybe the two teachers have different tempers, I don't know.

TUESDAY

Good-bye to "terrible Tuesday", I wanted to see the "Circus Clown" but had a flat on the car and didn't have the energy to help fix it. Dad fixed it and he and mother went and I stayed at home to study. I know that this is more important, but the teacher doesn't think so.

WEDNESDAY

I got in a fuss with one of the other fish today. Someone asked me what I was doing and I said that I was arguing with a fool. Then he said the other fish had been doing the same thing and was I angry! I better not see him again for a long time. Well, I did my good turn today, anyway. I told some of those tight-wads that the faculty play would be a dollar's worth of fun for just 15 cents and they all said that they would go. Oh, oh, tomorrow we have six-weeks tests and I haven't studied much. Good-night, diary—"for all we know we may never meet again".

SNICKERS

LaVeau said that his outline for English IV must have been perpendicular instead of parallel—at least he didn't make a good grade.

Mr. Miller: Don't stand on the porch so long next time. Come on in. Beatrice: Why, dad, I only stayed...

Sport Slants

By a Mustang

Well, as far as I know the basketball season of 1934 and 1935 is over. The county tournament at Mobeetie Friday and Saturday finished it. It was for the senior boys and girls. The junior boys and girls have a game or two to be played yet. They are entering the county junior tournament, which is to be held in Shamrock this Friday and Saturday.

The basketball record for this year was not one to brag about but it is one which we will always remember.

Friday at Mobeetie I found out that it does not take a gymnasium to make a good basketball team. Liberty has no gym and not many girls in school but they have a good team. The girls that play on the team are all small but the way they pass the ball is a sight to see. They are little in stature but they make that up in fight.

Nevertheless I still know that Wheeler needs a gymnasium. And another thing, I believe that we are going to get one, too. I know a whole lot about his gym business that I am not going to tell. I will say one thing though. Now don't tell anyone for it is a secret. It looks right now as if we will get a gym and a lighted football field, too. Now wouldn't that be something?

Track is next in order of events. It won't be long till I can give you my view of Wheeler's chances in the county meet. I will try to give you a little more dope on this subject next week.

Wheeler came very close to getting a little revenge Saturday afternoon. In their game with the Irishmen from Shamrock the Mustangs lost by only two points. The score was tied until the last 15 seconds of the game and then the Irish got lucky and made a goal.

Wheeler got some real revenge when they defeated Briscoe. The game was a good one and plenty fast. Three extra minutes had to be played because the score was tied 18 to 18 when the game was over. At the end of the extra period the score stood 20 to 18 in the Mustang's favor.

TENNIS CLUB BOYS PUT COURT IN PLAYING SHAPE

The boys coming out for tennis are leveling the tennis court and repairing it with new tape.

Those coming out for tennis are: Martha Alice Wiley, Beatrice Miller, Helen Gilmore, Rutha Mae Conner, Parilee Clay, Dorothy Tolliver, Bonnie Adams, Curtis Weeks, Theodore Conner, Earl Sivage and H. E. Young.

Regular practice will begin as soon as the court is in shape.

MISS KATHRYNE BOWERS GIVES VALENTINE PARTY

Miss Kathryne Bowers entertained some of her friends with a Valentine party in her home last Thursday evening. The Valentine motif was carried out throughout the party.

Hearts was the diversion of the evening. Miss Bernie Addison won high score and Marcell Farmer, low.

After the games, salmon salad, sandwiches, punch, chocolate cake, mints and gum-drops were served to the following: Miss Ruth Ewing, Miss Wanda Taylor, Miss Isola Joe Perryman, Miss Bernie Addison, Miss Winona Adams, Marcell Farmer, Coach Bob Clark, Bill Hugg, Steve Stephans, Mrs. Fred Farmer, Mrs. Bob Bowers, and the hostess, Miss Bowers.

Uncle Ted Looks 'Em Over

Well, folks, prepare for the worst. I just heard a rumor that Wheeler is going to have a shore 'nuff good football squad next year. When this happens the whole school will natch'erly float away (with big-headedness) 'cause it's been a long time since the Mustangs wuz state champions.

You (one and all) might think I am a bit goofy, but let a graduate of '98 tell you something. (This is for the town and all surrounding territory). If the Mustangs are backed and supported as a team should be they will be state champions (I shorely do believe hit). These are not idle words. Ask the "hosses". They talk. Here's for a quick get-away. Adios.

The sophomore class was entertained at the home of Ferrol Ficke last Wednesday night with a valentine party. Games were played in the house and on the lawn.

Delicious refreshments of toasted cream sandwiches, cake, lemonade and all day suckers were served.

Those present were: Bonnie Adams, Lilla Mae Crawford, Verna Greenhouse, Aline Buchanan, Ella Pearl Starkey, Sylvia Louise Ficke, Martha Alice Wiley, Dorothy Tolliver, Parilee Clay, Marguerite Ficke, Myrl Jeter, Orveta Puett, Raymond Badley, Bob Tillman, Grady Havenhill, Guy Robison, J. D. Badley, J. N. Tucker, Everett Cole, Luther Lee Owen, Dudley Callan, Virgil Greenhouse, T. J. Clay, Ferrol Ficke and Mrs. Ficke.

LIBRARY OFFERS WIDE VARIETY OF MATERIAL

(By Fay Ficke)

Are any of the other libraries in Wheeler county any better equipped than the one in Wheeler high school, including all the reference books, history source books, encyclopedias, anthologies, biographies, classics, novels, magazines and newspapers?

There are five encyclopedias—Nelson's, Britannica, Americana, Times and Everybody's. These are used in almost all the classes when the students need to obtain reference material on one of their subjects. There are 20 anthologies—or books of poetry that are used a great deal in reading and memory work.

The library contains 50 or more biographies and more than 150 history source books. Besides the Harvard classics there are approximately 15 other sets of classics—enough in each set to furnish a medium-size English class.

On the magazine rack can be seen current copies of Harper's Magazine, the Golden Book, Asia, Review of Reviews, The News Week and back issues of several other good literary magazines. Besides eight exchanges which the journalism class receives from other schools and colleges, the newspaper list contains the Dallas News, and the United States News.

There are more novels than anything else. On the senior shelf are 83 novels; the junior class has 67, freshmen, 57. These include stories of travel, adventure, explorations, romance, sea-tales, lives of great men, nature, animals, and many other topics of interest and help to the high school students and others that read the books in the library.

The librarians and several of the high school students were asked what book they thought was the most popular in the library, taking the number of times that book is checked in and out. The Poor Little Rich Girl, White Fang, and When Patty Went to College seemed to be the most popular, while several of the librarians said that The Light That Failed, White Mice, Daddy Longlegs, Helen's Babies, Kazan, Penrod, Satin as Lightning and Colossus were among the well-read books in the library.

The librarians are students who are taking four subjects and making at least a B average in each of them. One of our teachers is in the library each period that it is open, to supervise the work and the studying carried on there.

The Wampus Cat

(With Apologies to Odd)

Up early rambling around to see if I could find anything interesting to do. One of the best banquets I ever attended was the football banquet last Monday night. Reminded one of a Thanksgiving masquerade; every one likes to attend one of those, because of the orange balloons and black and gold "hat" favors.

In a round about way I heard that a certain girl's name, and by the way she is attending our own high school, but to get down to facts—her middle name is Dawn . . . Several romances that most people thought were on the rocks or "laid on the shelf" started anew at the football banquet . . . Florine Guynes undoubtedly is going for red in a big way, or perhaps I should say she is going for it 100 per cent . . . When one sees A. B. Turner and R. J. Puckett pass, he thinks and generally says "there goes the long and short of it" . . . Fay Ficke said she could die listening to Rudy Vallee . . . His wife, no doubt, could too.

COLTS

Mrs. G. O. McCrohan, with the assistance of Rev. J. Edmund Kirby and O. D. Connor, presented an interesting program for the grammar grade assembly Monday morning.

Rev. Kirby spoke on Keep All Promises. He illustrated by using the story of the Piper and the Rats. "Promises are made to be kept no matter how much it may affect your plans if once a promise is made keep it," said Rev. Kirby.

Accompanied by Mrs. McCrohan at the piano, O. D. Connor played several songs on his guitar, and the group sang Home On The Range.

Six songs were sung. They were America, Beautiful Texas, Home On The Range, Springtime In The Rockies, Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet, and Old Spinning Wheel.

of the Rogue theatre Friday and Saturday, is said to be the most pretentious production in which the star has appeared for many years.

The picture, which deals with the American Indian of today and his conflict with modern civilization, combines picturesque and colorful spectacles with dynamic drama and a unique romance.

Ann Dvorak and Claire Dodd, the former in the role of an Indian maid, and the latter as the white society girl, are the rivals for the love of the young chief, the three forming one of the strangest triangles on record.

"Havana Widows"

Six stellar comedians appear in the cast of the First National picture, "Havana Widows," which comes to the Rogue theatre on Monday and Tuesday. They are said to give the picture such an unusual comedy twist as to make it one of the most hilarious funmakers the screen has seen in many a day.

Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell two of the most sophisticated wisecrackers of the screen, as the two Broadway chorus girls on a quest for millionaires in Havana whom they plan to shake down, head the cast.

The other four scintillating comedians include Guy Kibbee, Allen Jenkins, Frank McHugh and Ruth Donnelly. With Lyle Talbot playing a straight role as the hero of the piece, and making a perfect foil for the broad comedy roles, the cast is an unusually excellent combination.

"The Red Rider"

The many followers of that famous Cowboy actor, Buck Jones, will be delighted to know that Buck is coming to the Rogue theatre in a continued piece, "The Red Rider", beginning Friday and Saturday, March 1 and 2, and continuing for 15 consecutive weeks. This story will be one of great interest, replete with plenty of Western thrills and spills, and is sure to create a large following with Jones fans. This will be shown as an added attraction to the Rogue's regular weekly programs.

Artificial Teeth—When?

When the natural teeth have been loosened by diseased gums to where the majority of them are past redemption, artificial teeth should replace them. When gums have passed the stage of recovery by treatment, artificial teeth should be obtained.

It is wise to retain the natural teeth as long as possible if one has sufficient number to properly masticate the food, and the gums are not causing poison to enter the bloodstream. It is far better to be completely toothless, speaking from a health standpoint, than it is to have a few which are badly decayed or which are a nuisance on account of diseased gums.

Too many people hang on to a few old "pets", which as the old lady said, "I have two and thank God they hit", and destroy the foundation for serviceable artificial teeth. Too many people allow their gums and the boney tissue around the teeth to be completely destroyed before they consider replacement of their natural teeth with artificial ones. Too many expect, after this has happened, to derive the same service from their new teeth as the one who has applied judgment at the proper time.

The day of miracles is a thing of the past as far as you and I are concerned. It is unreasonable to believe that everyone has the same kind of mouth. It is just as unreasonable to believe that everyone can derive the same benefit from the use of artificial teeth as it is to believe that everyone is exactly the same, physically.

The point is this. Every person who has lost the majority of their teeth and cannot have them replaced by other artificial means, who has gums diseased beyond reasonable redemption and who has found by reason that they cannot properly masticate their food, should by all means have artificial teeth.

When should these be made? This question is one answered differently by different authority. However, there are a few things arising after extractions which, if weighed by common sense, convince the majority of us that it is unwise to wait too long. Too long is several months. Those who wait several months may have a firmer foundation on which to build but they also have developed disadvantages which the one does not have who acts quickly. Time misplaces the position of the jaws where they "hinge" together. Time misplaces the facial muscles to where it is more difficult to accustom one's self to new teeth. Time brings about uneasiness and loss of the art of chewing.

The majority of men who are wide awake in dentistry will advise the securing of artificial teeth soon after complete extractions. Then after the boney process and the gums have taken permanent position, new dentures can be made from the ones in use. This practice is of no advantage to anyone except the patient. It is a practice to allow the patient to retain their facial expression, to keep their jaws in proper position, to avoid discomfort caused by the jaws having no rest and to give the patient an opportunity to chew his food. The latter privilege is one which every person should have since nature cannot function without some assistance.
