BAPTIST GUEST Merchants Sponsor Big Saturday Event

Bicycle Races and Other Features to Afford Entertainment and Lots of Fun

Indications are bright for a big day of fun and entertainment in Wheeler on Saturday of this week, Jan. 19. A number of Wheeler merchants are co-operating with the Rogue theatre in sponsoring a series of bicycle races for the amusement and entertainment of shoppers and visitors to the city.

Ten races are listed on the schedule. Each race is sponsored by some Wheeler business house, who offers a free prize to the winner of that particular event.

Every person who enters one of the various races will receive, in addition to the possibility of winning the sponsor's prize, a free pass to the Rogue theatre to see Joe E. Brown in "6 Day Bike Rider." It is necessary only to enter and finish the race to receive the pass to the show. This is the reward for enter-

There will be races for anyone who wishes to participate, including fat man's race, slim man's race boys' fancy riding, girls' fancy riding, etc. All 10 races, together with their merchant sponsor and prize, are listed in a quarter page advertisement elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

All contestants are requested to meet at the Rogue theatre Saturday PS. afternoon promptly at 1:30 o'clock and arrange for their places. Winners will be given orders for the various prizes and they may call at the place of business backing that 18, race and get the prize.

City Taxpayers Must Pay Tax Obligations

Such Is Opinion Rendered by State Highway Legal Department In Answer to Query

Because the Wheeler city council passed a resolution, some years ago wherein the city agreed to refrain from regulation of traffic over a state highway passing through the city, certain taxpayers have contended that the city charter was thereby nullified and the city rendered incapable of collecting taxes. So persistent had the rumors become, combined with emphatic statements by certain parties on the wrote the state highway department asking for an opinion.

His letter, dated Jan. 1, this year, and the highway department's legal advisor's reply, dated Jan. 10, are given herewith in full. These are self-explanatory and appear to ters:

BABY BEEF SHOW IN FEBRUARY

Held' separately last year, but planned as a combination exhibit this year, a baby beef and meat show for this county will be held at Shamrock during the week ending Feb. 23.

In order to have the show far enough ahead of the annual Amarillo fat stock show, county dates have been made earlier than last year. Entries in both classes are made principally by members of county clubs. County Agent Jake Tarter and Miss Viola Jones, home demonstration agent, co-operate and help supervise the entries.

Financial Statement

Itemized Listing Shows Disposition of All Tax Moneys Received by Municipality

Publication of a complete and detailed statement of city finances for Wheeler would appear to be somewhat in the nature of an innovation, judging by the period of time covered in the statement occupying a page of The Times this week.

The statement shows receipts and disbursements from Aug. 1, 1932. to Dec. 1, 1934.

While the receipts are not itemized in detail as are the disbursements, it is believed that people are not so much interested in where the money comes from as in "where it Hall, assistants. Superintendents of all goes to." However, the city clerk, C. R. Weatherly has a complete record of receipts, shown separately by deposit slips. These may e inspected by interested parties. In a statement appearing with the figures, Weatherly says: "The foregoing statements have

Advance Payment by Cotton Pool Coming

Will Distribute 2c per Pound to All Producers Pending the Closing of Sales

H. M. Breedlove, cotton reduction program supervisor for Wheeler county, advises that plans have been completed for advance payment, at an early date, by the national certificate pool of 2c per pound or $10 per bale on all cotton pledged in the national pool.

This action is taken, according to eports, because sales of certificates continues in some sections and the administrators cannot close the ooks until all sales have been completed.

A desire to aid producers who have pledged certificates prompted the advance payment. Ample sales have been made to cover the 2c per pound payment. It is difficult to say at this time, states Breedlove, just what per cent of the certificates will eventually be sold. However, from present indications, it looks like a high percentage will be disposed of.

Receipt in Wheeler of the adance payment is expected in the very near future. Producers receipts for certificates placed in the pool are being majled to the producers as of City Published rapidly as they reach the local of-

INTERESTING FIGURES

The following figures, supplied by the agent's office, will no doubt prove interesting to readers of The Times.

This advance of 2c per pound on pooled certificates will bring to Wheeler county approximately $129,407.42.

When and if all Wheeler county ertificates are sold through the pool, it will bring in the handsome total of $258,814.84.

By dividing the above sum by 4c, the amount expected under the sales plan, it will be found that producers of this county pooled certificates representing 6,470,371 pounds of cotton.

To date there has been received in Washington, $12,164,683.71 from the sale of certificates.

Sale of certificates is expected to continue for a reasonable length of time yet, or while the demand for them continues. Final closing of the books probably will not occur before late February or early March.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 10, 1935.

City Secretary.

It is our opinion that the ordinance or resolution adopted by your board of aldermen does not and could not affect the right and power of the city to collect taxes due it by its citizens.

The state thought the resolution adopted to be legal, or it would not have been requested. If for any reason, the courts should declare it invalid, it could not affect the obligation of the citizens to pay their taxes. If it is valid, then their obligation is the same as it has always been to contribute their just and fair part, by way of taxation, toward the support of their municipal government.

We fail to see how the passage of this resolution could in any way afpay current or delinquent taxes, and it would not render your char-

Mobeetie Tournament Proved Best One Yet

Huge Crowd Witnessed Cage Tilts in Annual Invitation Meet Friday and Saturday

Measuring fully up to previous expectations, if not exceeding rather optimistic predictions, Mobeetie's annual two-day invitation basketball tournament came to a close Saturday night. The meet this year is reported as the best one yet. It was a complete success throughout, attracting a list of 26 boys' and girls' teams from over the Panhandle.

Saturday night's attendance, estimated at approximately 1.000 people, is said to be a record-breaker for this region.

Pampa boys and Mobeetie girls won first places. Allison boys and High Point girls won second places. Mobeetie boys and Allison girls won third places.

A feature of the closing night was a beautiful ceremony, including the crowning of Miss Zelma Elliott as queen of the tournament. The queen, with her attendants, made the trophy awards to winners in the several events in a simple yet impressive manner.

Much credit for the success of Mobeetie's tournament should be given Carl Chaudoin, wide-awake superintendent of the schools, and his corps of teachers, as well as the business people of that town who enthusiastically support community affairs of this sort. Mobeetie merchants contributed generously to a fund to provide beautiful and elaborate trophies.

SELF-RELIANCE FOR DOLLARS

The illusion that the government has an "inexhaustible pocketbook." coupled with the natural hesitancy on the part of even the most honest relief workers to imperil their jobs by reducing relief rolls, has conspired to set in motion this insidi ous tendency toward undermining the American character of its traditional best qualities. The danger in the relief problem which is becoming more obvious to the people generally is simply that billions of dollars are being added to the national debt without any real assurance that the New Deal as a whole can operate with sufficient success to absorb the unemployed promptly enough to obviate the necessity of continued relief expenditures. But while this is the most obvious danger, the circumstances that the public is being taught to believe that the government should support the people, rather than the people the government, is becoming more serious as time goes on .- Dale Miller in Texas Weekly.

The foregoing statements have been prepared for the benefit of those who pay city taxes. It is only fair that those who pay city taxes should know something about the affairs of the city, and I have prepared the above statements from the city records for your information. It will be noticed that I have shown the taxes collected as a total, lack of space making it impossible to show in detail each and every collection, and in this connection I wish to state that each and every collection is shown on the deposit tickets separately.

The above statements are, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.

The Corral Wears "New Dress" Now

Did you recognize The Corral in its new dress last week? Since a few of the students were seen turning The Times upside down and all around trying to find "head and tails" of the school notes, it might be wise to give instructions for preparing to read this section of the local paper. First tear out the sheet which has all school notes on it; then it will fold itself into a neat four page paper, half the size of a full sheet of The Times.

To Editor C. G. Miller is due thanks and praise for making possible the improved appearance of The Corral. Without cost or obligation on the part of the staff, Mr. Miller volunteered to print the school news in this way.

This method means more work, more time, and more money spent by Mr. Miller and his helpers. He states that he is glad, however, to make this sacrifice in order to better serve the needs and interests of his readers and of The Corral staff. Mr. Miller suggested that students might bind these folders of The Corral and make an attractive annual of school events for the year.

JAUNITA MALOY, W. H. S. GRADUATE IS MARRIED

Another Wheeler graduate, Miss Jaunita Maloy, and T. S. Puckett, jr., were united in marriage Monday evening, Jan. 7, in Erick, Okla., at the home of the groom's sister. Mrs. Puckett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Maloy of this city, was graduated from Wheeler high school in 1932. When a junior, she was chosen as best all around girl and her picture appeared in the school annual. She has recently completed a business course at Hills Business university, Oklahoma City.

T. S. Puckett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Puckett, sr., of Sayre, Okla. He attended both grade and high school in Sayre. He was a member of the basketball and football teams and took a leading part in school activities. He completed a bookkeeping course at the Wheeler high school in 1932. Since that time he has been employed as bookkeeper and clerk at Puckett's Cash store.

STUDENTS ARE ADDED TO FOUR HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

New students have been added to girls is all four high school classes during beetie. second semester enrollment.

Before mid-term Fay Ficke did not have sufficient credits to be classified as a senior. Since she now has as many as twelve units she is a senior.

Several new students have enrolled since mid-term. Myrl Parker of Twitty, is the only freshman. He is a brother to Cecil Parker who attended school here last year. Myrl Jeter and Alfred Murphy are the new sophomores. W. J. Ford enrolled in the junior class. There are two new seniors, Earl Sivage and A. B. Turner. Students who have re-enrolled are: Kermit Tanner, J. D. Herd, Ray Mason and Eugene Smith.

Clark Issues Equipment To Gridsters of 1935

W. J. Ford In Charge of Football Scrimmage During Basketball Season

All boys planning to play football next year were issued equipment Tuesday at 3:15 by Coach Bob Clark. The boys will start scrimmage in about two weeks.

W. J. Ford, junior, will be in charge of football boys during the basketball season, since Mr. Clark has to coach basketball every afternoon.

Coach says that there are prospects for a good team next year if the boys will "come on and hustle." He adds that the work is going to be tough from the first until the last.

Those who were issued equipment last Tuesday were: Guy Robison, Everett Cole, Wallace Pendleton, J. N. Tucker, James Passons, W. J. Ford, Bill Noah, Herbert Whitener. J. R. Burke, Raymond Badley, Alton Weeks, Ford Newkirk, Lowery Deering, Troy Shipman and Bob Tillman.

Several other boys will come out for football after basketball season is over. Three of those who have sta, ed practice were on the first string last season. They are Newkirk, Deering and Weeks.

Football practice will last until the third week in March, according to Coach Clark and track practice will begin the second week in February.

It looks as if Wheeler can't win a basketball game. I don't know why unless we just can't play in a gymnasium. If we had a gym to work out in it would be different, but when we practice on a dirt court and then play on a walled-in hardwood floor, well, that is another story. If you do not believe me, try it some time. Another cause of the boys' defeat at Mobeetie was that they were afraid. Afraid of those big old boys who were their opponents.

Football practice began Tuesday afternoon. There were several boys who wanted to start training, so Monday Coach Clark announced that he would issue the suits Tuesday. This is the best way to build up a winning team. It takes plenty of practice and by starting early they can get it.

I think that nearly all of the boys who played enough to letter, passed. That is, this last semester. There are two or three who do not do very much and did not pass. I don't think anyone just outright flunked. This means that most of those that lettered will receive their sweaters.

The rumors of building a gymnasium are getting a little stronger. There are several people in Wheeler who are doing all they can to build one. The school board is working hard trying to put this over. You people who are doing your best to help us, we surely do thank you for what you have done.

LIBRARY SPIRIT

In Wheeler high school there is a library to which every student has access. It is run for the benefit of the student body and nothing else. Is it appreciated? Apparently not, for many of the books are returned damaged and with pages marred.

It is true that a fee is charged, but this small amount is nothing compared to the price that would have to be paid for books if every student had to buy books and magazines to be read.

The proper spirit that should prevail about a library book is to consider it as personal property and take care of it. Slowly, but surely, more books will be accumulated if all books are returned in good order. By following this policy, there will in two or three years be a fine library of which all will be proud .-T. C.

STAFF TO PRESENT PLAY

"Who's Crazy Now?" a one act comedy, will be presented by the Corral staff in the high school auditorium sometime soon. There will be six very entertaining characters in the play who will furnish laughter from beginning to finish. The try-outs will be held this week.

The money received from the play will pay the entrance fee to the Texas High School Press association and the Panhandle Press association. A small admission price will be charged.

Wheeler to Attend Kelton Tourney

On Feb. 7. 8 and 9, Kelton will hold an invitation basketball tournament in their new gymnasium. It is the first to be held in that town.

SAGE BLOOMS

How Our School Paper Is Prepared and Printed

In editing our school newspaper it is necessary to have a staff. This staff includes the various departments necessary in gathering the news for the paper. The news stories are written first and then typed on the typewriter. The typed copy is then sent to the newspaper office to be used in the school paper.

In the newspaper office the copy is set up on the Linotype machine. The machine sets the reading material in lines the width of a column. When a galley has been set up (this is the equivalent of a column) a galley proof is taken. The galley proof is compared with the original copy and corrections are made on the galley proof sheet. These corrected proofs are sent back to the Linotype machine to be corrected. It is necessary when correcting errors in Linotype matter to reset the whole line in which the error occurs.

After the galleys have been corrected the next thing is to make up a page in a chase. A chase is the form in which a newspaper page is made up. When the Linotype matter and type in the chase has been filled out with slugs and spaces the proof of the entire form is taken. If any mistakes appear on the proof they are corrected.

Two pages are printed on the press at the same time. When these pages have been corrected they are transferred to a platform on the cylinder press where they remain throughout the run.

The press first has to have a supply of ink put in the ink box. The press rollers run over one roller that is stationary over the box and supplies the other rollers with ink. The rollers then run over the page form. There is a cylinder on the press large enough to hold a page of blank newsprint. After the rollers have gone over the page form, the cylinder carries the blank paper over the form and prints two pages. When the newspaper has been printed on both sides it is ready to be folded. The papers are folded and then run through the mailer one at a time. After the papers have been addressed they are tied in bundles and taken to the post fice and sent to the subscribers. BEATRICE MILLER. English II.

TEACHERS FIND QUEER EXPRESSIONS IN PAPERS

Many queer expressions were found by the teachers when they were grading the mid-term examination papers. Some of the students misspelled words; others used words incorrectly. Some of these peculiar answers were:

I read temporarily all of the book. Did you see any foat (folk) dancing. (What do you suppose this person thought a "foat" looked like?)

She used self-judgment. I guest you were as near him as anyone.

I disliked his style because he kept you thinking.

Respectively yours, Hugh.

I road in a car. Mother had lied down. She is planning a minue. Bring the food out in chorses.

Miss Sullivan taught Helen the sowns of words.

She had doe on her fingers.

We are fine except colds.

He will kneed a bone. It is a horrow storie.

I had a knise time.

She said hor poutry. This will make a nice bird houce.

The Chamber of Commerce elects he President of Germany. I bought a ciedar chest.

And believe it or not-all of these sentences were taken from work done by high school students!

Twenty broom sticks and 31 boys and girls with the assistance of Coach Bob Clark presented a wand pryamid building program Monday morning.

The girls gave the first part on the program. Geraldine Lewis and Jackie St. Clair led the girls around on the stage and formed a cross and the eastern star. They did several other things with broom sticks.

The boys took charge of the last part of the program. They used the broom sticks and performed athletic tricks. Coach Clark said, "I wonder what the boys and girls could do if they had a gymnasium to practice in?'

Every one in the seventh grade participated in the program.

The parents that attended the program presented by Coach Clark were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, Mrs. Charles R. Flynt, Mrs. Levi Reid, Mrs. Tom Montgomery, Mrs. G. B. Cole, Mrs. C. C. Robison and Mrs. O. T. Nations.

MCMURRY STUDENTS WRITE TO SANTA CLAUS

Although it is rather late for Santa Claus letters. The Corral readers might be interested in reading the two following excerpts from the Dec. 15 McMurry War Whoop, received on exchange by the journalism class:

Dear Santa: I have been a good girl this year and about the only thing I want is a tall, dark and handsome boy so that when all these flaming beauties in McM start talking about their dates they can't beat me.

> Wordlessly yours, HELEN GREEN. * *

Dear Santa Claus: Of course you know I'm a good little boy and I wouldn't think of asking you for a beautiful girl like everyone else is -all I would like is a credit in college algebra. (By the way, Santa, make her a curly-headed blonde, please.)

> Creditfully yours, JOE MEEK.

There was another letter from a former Wheeler graduate, but it was decided not to publish it. Now aren't you curious?

Thoughts while strolling: favorite hangout of many of the boys, the Royal drug and the Rogue theatre. The latest Wheeler ex-students to set their ship a-sail on the seas of matrimony . . . T. S. Must listen to the "Little .Theatre off Times Square" with June Meredith and Don Ameche as stars . . . an interesting program consisting altogether of three-act plays.

My favorite color . . . blue. The only flaming "red-headed" girl in high school . . . Irene Hunt, a freshman. Many red-haired boys. One of the dignified girls in school . . Nerene Young. Among one of the best looking brunettes . . . Clarice Robertson. I saw Dawn Weatherly wearing a very "swanky" gray suit the other day. It included a vest and a very "manish" coat . . . quite charming. A few of our most prominent romeos . . . Wallace Pendleton, the freshmen's delight. Curtis Weeks and Carlisle Robinson . . the sophomores big "dream". I wish I could make money appear like Mr. Clark can; if I could I wouldn't write this column. After reading this probably some of you will teach me how. Two rather regular spectators of the boys' athletic activities . . . Earl Wofford and Temple Hooker. Charles Red is very fond of the young ladies. Why do people cook carrots . . . I'll take mine raw.

Had to stand on my head to read the "Corral" this week. It was certainly a clever idea whose ever it was. Makes it look like a regular big-town daily with the exception of the size. But one good thing is that it isn't the size that counts. Personally I think the person who writes the Sports Slants should have his name attached to it. . . . It is an exceptional column. I heard he was especially interested in newspapers. I don't know what phase. Probably that accounts for his writing ability.

I wish we would not hear so much about "roses" and "stars"; if they keep on we shall no doubt "pass" further out than they. A joke that I doubt originated with Adam is this: A good way to tell the horsepower of a car is to raise the hood and count the "plugs" . . . Adam probably tested the horses car-power by his "knee-action."

Coach Bob Clark called a meeting of all the boys in high school who were interested in any form of athletics Tuesday during the noon hour.

This meeting included both junior and senior boys. The coach requested them to report for practice every day. He said that they must not miss any practices if they had a winning team. About thirty-five were present for the meeting.

Tartar on Teeth

Tartar to teeth is what the lime formation is to the teakettle. The formation in a teakettle comes from the refuse of the water. The formation on teeth comes from the refuse of the saliva and the bloodstream.

The tartar which forms above the gum margin comes from the saliva and that beneath the gum margin comes from the blood. In one sense of the word these deposits could be called the residue from the saliva and the blood. It is indeed hard and is hard to dissolve. Most anything which is strong enough to dissolve it is harmful to the gums. Hence the only sensible way to keep it from forming or to remove it after it forms is to brush the teeth regularly and have it removed if and when it forms. That beneath the gums cannot be brushed off.

Irritation is the chief harm done by tartar. That beneath the gum irritates and if not removed finally destroys the tissue which supports the teeth. That above the gum also irritates and if not removed will push the gum downward and creates a wonderful field for germs to take hold.

This form of irritation is one of the direct causes of pyorrhea. Why? Because it forms, or grows, on the teeth and in doing so destroys the gum tissue through its constant irritating pressure. As it does this the beautiful field for infection is created. The pyorrhea germs (chiefly streptocci and staphylocci) begin their activity when the irritation begins. (Most any infection or disease takes hold when resistance fails.)

If tartar is removed once or twice each year and the teeth brushed regularly thereafter the gums are less likely to be destroyed by pyorrhea or any other disease. But, if tartar is allowed to form on the teeth and remain it is certain that inflammation will be the result and finally loose teeth and then their removal.

All mouths are not subject to tartar formation. This is due to the systematic condition and the content of the blood and saliva. (Some tartar comes from the remaining food particles on the teeth, but very little.) However, this food accumulation creates a happy medium through which decay does its dirty work. While there are some who do not have tartar formation, a large per cent of the people have it. either under the gum or outside.

The only way to be sure of escaping the unpleasant, and often destructive, works of tartar is to brush the teeth regularly and have them cleaned by your dentist once or twice each year. I say regularly because when one skips a day or two it gets a hold on the teeth and is almost impossible to brush away.

While tartar seldom causes decay of the tooth structure, it certainly does not help to avoid it. Just as certain as it forms on teeth and is not removed, just so certain it is that destruction of the gum tissue will follow.

METHODIST CHURCH

J. EDMUND KIRBY, Pastor "All good and evil, whether of the body or in human nature, originates in the soul. And, therefore, if the head and body are to be well, you must begin by curing the soul."-Plato.

The church is the hospital for the soul. It is for the soul what the hospital is for the body. The physician is the preacher. The cure is Jesus Christ.

It is necessary for the soul, if it is to stay well, to keep regularly in touch with the cure. The church realizing this need conducts, twice on Sunday and once during the week, clinics for the soul. You are robbing your soul and its rights' to health by staying away from these services. Give your soul a chance to be clean and well as God intended that it should.

Progress in 1935

The New Year finds the situation the nation in a position that hould be of interest to every thinking person. Due, perhaps, to the rather unusual condition of the ation as a whole as well as to forign policy, the administration at Washington is confronted by several problems the solution of which ents the present year will largely etermine.

First, perhaps, is the matter of e constitution. Has the nation eached the place where to adhere, iterally, to that document would use conditions to be brought about which would retard recovery and ause actual harm to result. The cold clause case now pending is a typical example of that situation. Then two, the matter of relief for he needy must be handled to the est interests of all, and in addition o these problems a host of others ust be considered and dealt with. Considering the above situation as whole an objective is obvious, the idministration aims at social and conomic progress. On the other hand, if all should tot go well with the party in powr, a faint groan might be heard in he G. O. P. camp. The elephant aight in all probability gain enough trength to wiggle his tail and then f conditions continue to favor his covery he is very likely to present strong front in the 1936 elections, used upon a strong conservative rogram and the established tradiions of the Republican party.

But progress need not be confined o the political world. Communities, adividuals and schools may have mple opportunity to pioneer in ew developments, thus making imrovement general. At this-the eginning of a new year-efforts oward greater achievement in 1935 hould have the approval of all.

Are You Doing Your Part?

Have you been assigned somehing time after time and have ailed to bring it up? If you have, ou have not done your part. Is here someone having to do more han his or her part because you niled to co-operate?

Every time someone fails to do is share, it doubles the work for omeone else to do. Remember a lacker is never appreciated. One hing well done is worth three hings half done. If you "lag" long in your school work, you will orm a habit of it. Then when you et on your own "hook" your busi-
