Allison Man Victim of Hunting Accident

Accidental Discharge of Shotgun Takes Life of Restaurant Owner Tuesday

L. C. Butler, 29, Allison restaurant owner and sportsman, lost his life Tuesday afternoon from gunshot wounds received while taking a shotgun from the rear of a car two miles southwest of Allison.

Butler and two companions, John and Ray Maxwell, had been out hunting and were on their way home. Reaching a place that looked favorable for game, the trio stopped and got out of the car for a short circuit of nearby fields. While Butler was attempting to remove his weapon, a hammer pumpgun, from the rear compartment it caught on some object and the gun was discharged, the full load striking him in the right side of the chest.

Aid was quickly obtained by his companions, but shock and loss of blood brought death to the unfortunate man in about 30 minutes.

Butler came from Oklahoma some six years ago to Allison, where he had since operated a cafe and restaurant. He was well known and popular in that community, where he was rated as a devoted sportsman, particularly enjoying hunting. Deceased is survived by a wife and 8-year-old son, L. C. jr., his parents of Soper, Okla., two sisters, both living in this state, and a brother, Taft Butler of Hugo, Okla. The mother and brother came to accompany the body to Soper for burial.

The remains were taken Tuesday night to Carnes Funeral home in Shamrock, where services were held Wednesday morning, after which the cortage entrained for Soper, Okla., where interment was made.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hickerson and some members of the Dyson family of Mobeetie, relatives of Mrs. Butler, accompanied the remains.

TAX COLLECTOR TO MOBEETIE

John H. Templeton, Wheeler county tax collector, announces that he will be in Mobeetie on Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 22 and 23, to collect state and county taxes. Taxpayers of that community may see the collector on those dates and save time and inconvenience.

Make Changes at Court House

In order to provide more room for handling the combined work of tax assessor and collector, presided over by John H. Templeton, some alterations have been made at the court house this week. Templeton moved the assessor's department into the collector's quarters, formerly occupied by Mrs. M. L. Gunter and her staff, and which had long been overcrowded. Partitions between the room and the sheriff's office have been removed, affording ample space.

Sheriff Waters' office has been transferred to the former assessor's room, northwest corner of the second floor.

WORLEY SENDS TIMES AUTOGRAPHED PICTURE

The Times office is in receipt of a valued memento. It is a beautiful 7x9 autographed photo of Representative Eugene Worley and three other men in the antiquated flivver used by Worley during his campaign. A reproduction of the picture appeared in The Times some months ago. Above the group is the legend: "Five Good Democrats," which evidently includes Henry or Lizzie, whichever it is. In the corner is an inscription: "To Mr. Miller with personal regards and best wishes. Eugene Worley." Thank you, Representative Worley. The editor reciprocates the good wishes.

Auto License Not Due Until Feb. 1

"Many taxpayers are inquiring about their automobile license fees," Tax Assessor-Collector John H. Templeton said this week, "under the impression that the law is unchanged as regards their payment on or before Jan. 1, as has been the case for a number of years."

Templeton offered the following explanation: Under the provisions of a law passed during 1934 by the legislature, receipts may not be issued for automobile license fees until Feb. 1, and the plates delivered to the owner. The paying dates will be between Feb. 1 and midnight, April 1, it was pointed out at the collector's office. After April 1, penalty will be added.

However, it is unlawful to put on the 1935 plates until April 1 or thereafter. As stated above, plates may be procured any time after Feb. 1, but must not be used until after April 1.

Any purchaser of a car without license plates before April 1 is required by law to obtain 1934 plates for the remainder of the time up to the new date.

Unless another change is made by the legislature which is now in session, the fee this year will be unchanged from last year.

FARM LOAN ASSN. HELD ANNUAL MEET TUESDAY

Pass Resolution to Increase Capital Stock from $20,000 to $30,000

Stockholders of the Wheeler National Farm Loan association held their annual meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 8, in the office of the secretary-treasurer, Miss Agnes Reynolds, in this city.

The following directors were elected: J. W. Barr, Wheeler; W. G. Stiles, Wheeler; N. M. Tipps, Zybach; J. D. Steele, Allison; L. L. Collins, Mobeetie.

At a meeting of the directors immediately following the stockholders' meeting, J. W. Barr was elected president, and W. G. Stiles, vice president. A resolution was passed by the directors to increase the capital stock from $20,000 to $30,000. Miss Agnes Reynolds, incumbent, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the association.

Those attending the meeting were J. W. Barr, O. B. Miller, J. A. Callan, Luther Willis, P. L. Meadows, J. W. Anglin, S. P. McBee, Mrs. John Ficke, T. R. McPherson, B. R. Lane, W. G. Stiles, N. M. Tipps, J. D. Steele, Wm. N. Lohberger, W. C. Hanks, O. A. Krug, C. C. Ruff, J. H. Ruff and A. L. Tinney.

More Money Arrives For County Farmers

Checks Totaling $18,521 Received at County Agent's Office During Past Week

Wheeler county farmers received a total of $18,521 during the past week from different farm program payments. This reduces the amount still due the county to $71,190, according to records in the county agent's office.

The first of the amount was received with 61 checks in the second cotton rental payments, $3,184, and 61 parity checks amounting to $1,867.35, in Friday. The checks were not delivered to farmers until early this week, however.

A new shipment in Tuesday and delivered Wednesday, brought 115 parity checks, totaling $4,637.60.

Cattle checks amounting to $8,833 also have been received recently, going to 73 county farmers, and representing approximately one-third of the total amount to be received in payment for 2,000 head lately purchased in the county. Under the AAA, Wheeler county's total cattle sales will amount to $89,998. Another lot of cattle checks is expected soon.

Making Progress on Civic Park Project

Popular Subscription Provides Over $125 to Apply on Initial Cost of Tract

While the new city park, to be located in the north end of the Stanley grove, is assured as a civic enterprise, some details have been worked out during the past week. Among other things, a subscription paper was presented to the business and professional interests of the city to raise the balance of the necessary funds for first cost of the tract of land. Somewhat over $125 was subscribed. This sum, together with the amount provided by the municipality, will permit purchase of the site.

The city, alone, was not in position to bear the entire cost; therefore the subscription plan was resorted to with very satisfactory results.

With the working out of minor details in the near future, it is expected that preliminary steps toward improvement of the property will be started before long.

It is entirely possible, according to W. Veale, county administrator, to arrange for some relief work to be done on the future park. This, of course, would be desirable from some angles, such as getting improvements made and at the same time furnish work for unemployed.

Club Reporters Meet Saturday

A reporters conference will be held in Wheeler Saturday, Jan. 12, at 2:30 in the women's club room in the court house. C. G. Miller, editor of The Wheeler Times, and Albert Cooper, editor of the Shamrock Texan, with Miss Viola Jones, county home demonstration agent, will act as instructors in the school for all club reporters at that time.

Everyone is requested to bring paper and pencil.

"It is the duty of each and every club reporter from both 4-H and home demonstration clubs to attend this reporters school," states Miss Jones. "So make a special effort to be present. We want our publicity to be the best for 1935 that it has ever been," she concluded.

RUCKER ATTENDS STATE CONFERENCE

B. T. Rucker, new Wheeler county superintendent of schools, returned Wednesday evening from a conference of superintendents of the state, held at Austin, Jan. 7 and 8. State Superintendent L. A. Woods called the meeting to consider a number of important matters having to do with the school system. Addresses were made by various members of the state department of education on different phases of the work. The new equalization plan, which will replace the old state aid set-up, was discussed at some length.

Rucker made the trip with county superintendents W. B. Weathered, Gray county; Logan Cummins, Collingsworth, and C. W. Crosslin, Childress.

The Panhandle was well represented and members were complimented on the interest manifest by their traveling nearly 600 miles to attend the conference.

Popular Young City Couple Wed Monday

Miss Jannita Maloy Becomes Bride of T. S. Puckett at Erick, Okla.

Miss Jannita Maloy and Mr. T. S. Puckett motored to Erick, Okla., Monday evening, Jan. 7, where they were married by Rev. Daniel Stringer, pastor of the Baptist church at that place, who used the beautiful ring ceremony. The wedding occurred at the home of the groom's sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Brauchi. Mrs. Puckett is the young and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Maloy of Wheeler, where she attended both grade and high school, graduating with the class of 1932. In her junior year she was chosen the best all around girl and her picture appeared in the school annual. She has just completed a business course at Hills business university, Oklahoma City. The bride has a charming personality and is loved by all who know her.

Mr. Puckett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Puckett, sr., of Sayre, Okla., and brother of Roy Puckett of Wheeler, where he has made his home for the past five years. He attended grade and high school at Sayre, Okla. He was a member of the basketball and football teams and took a leading part in school activities. He completed a book-keeping course at the Wheeler high school in 1932. Since that time he has been employed as bookkeeper and clerk at Puckett's Cash store, where he will continue.

The happy couple will make their home on south Main street.

WHEELER W.T.S.T.C. STUDENTS WIN LETTERS IN FOOTBALL

Stina Cain and Clinton Meek, both of Wheeler, are to be lettered football men at the West Texas State Teachers college this year.

At a banquet Thursday night in honor of the West Texas State Teachers College Buffaloes of 1934, 16 players were designated by the coach, Al Baggett, as lettermen.

John Rankin of Miami, was chosen captain for the coming year and Cagle Teague of Childress, was selected as the most valuable man to the Buffaloes during the season.

BILL LEWIS SALE TUESDAY

Bill Lewis has bills out advertising his farm sale, which will be held next Tuesday, Jan. 15, at the Lewis farm, seven miles northwest of Wheeler. Lewis is offering a nice list of items himself, and it is possible others may put up some stuff that day. Leonard Green, Mobeetie, Wheeler county's popular auctioneer, will cry the sale.

BOYS TO AMARILLO FOR CCC WORK

COUNTY COURT SESSIONS VERY QUIET THIS WEEK

Convening Monday morning, at which time the docket was called, but little transpired in county court until Wednesday, which proved a rather busy day, with a jury trial on.

Late Wednesday court was adjourned until Tuesday of next week.

Weatherly to Represent Production Credit Assn.

Appointed Loan Application Writer for Canadian Valley Farm Loan Organization

C. R. Weatherly of Wheeler has been appointed application-writer for the Canadian Valley Production Credit association of Canadian and is ready to assist farmers and stockmen in preparing necessary papers to apply for loans for crop or livestock production purposes.

Weatherly has been authorized to write applications and to help farmers in closing their loans. Thus local farmers and stockmen are saved the necessity of making a trip to the headquarters office of the association to arrange for loans.

During the past year many farmers in this community and thousands of others in all parts of Texas have been provided with necessary money to finance crop and livestock production at an interest rate as low as five per cent. Those in this community who will be in need of additional working capital and wish to file applications for loans may get in touch with Weatherly, who can supply all needed information.

Production credit loans are made upon adequate security to responsible farmers who can furnish a definite plan for repayment. This form of credit has been worked out to meet the particular needs of farmers and stockmen and is an important part of the Farm Credit Administration's program of helping farmers to help themselves.

More Road Work Held In Abeyance

County Commissioner Jim Trout, from precinct 2, made a trip Wednesday to Amarillo, where he discussed with state road men the possibility of further improvements on highway 152, east of Wheeler. During a conference with W. J. Van-London, division engineer for Panhandle highways, it was learned that PWA funds for road improvement work are exhausted.

It is believed, however, that about Feb. 1, some definite developments in regard to the project will materialize. Trout is anxious to obtain some help on further grading and surfacing work, for another section of the road, if not the entire distance to the state line.

At this time it appears impossible to predict just what to expect.

DIAMOND TIRES AT MAC'S

Mac's Service station, operated by Ray McPherson, has been awarded dealership for Diamond Tires and Tubes. This is a new brand here, but one reported to have been found very satisfactory in other localities since 1894. Mac calls attention in an advertisement elsewhere in this paper, to some of the points of superiority to be found in Diamond tires.

Large Federal Sum Yet Due to County

More Than $89,000 of 1934 Crop Reduction Funds on Five Projects Unpaid

In addition to the heavy payments of government moneys on various crop reduction set-ups already received by Wheeler county for 1934, there yet remains a total of $89,711.57 due farmers and stockmen of the county. This is according to a tabulated summary made by County Agent Jake Tarter.

The balance remaining unpaid is listed under five headings. The several divisions, number of checks and amount of money is listed as follows:

Parity payments, 316 checks, $16,794.71.

Second rental payments, 125 checks, $6,251.36.

First rental payments, 1 check, $22.50.

Cattle payments, 236 checks, $28,823.00.

Hog-Corn payments, all second payments, including third payment, which will be made as soon as expenses are determined and deducted, $37,820.00.

Grand total, $89,711.57.

Tarter points out that there is nothing holding the checks back, except the necessary time required for issuing them in Washington. All adjustments have been made, he states, and the checks have all been cleared and they will be issued just as rapidly as they can be gotten out. He is unable to say when the checks will be received here, declaring that he "expects them most any day, but arrival will be governed by speed at government headquarters."

Three Jones Brothers Held In Parrish Death

Killing of Wheeler County Escapee Charged to Kinsmen of "Son" Jones

Sheriff Raymond Waters is in receipt of a Sulphur, Okla., newspaper bearing the date of Jan. 4, which features the following story:

"Three brothers—Haskell, Elmer and W. B. Jones—were bound over to district court without bond today, after they had been given preliminary hearing before County Judge Jesse H. Dunn on charges of murder, for the Christmas night killing of W. L. Parrish.

"Another of the Jones brothers, Buck Jones, was freed, the murder charge against him being dismissed on motion of Lynn W. Norman, county attorney, because of insufficient evidence.

"Nine witnesses were called by the state in the preliminary hearing to offer evidence on which the brothers were held for the killing of Parrish, escaped convict wanted by Oklahoma and Texas authorities to serve prison terms for felonies.

As was stated in the Dec. 27 issue of The Times, Parrish was killed at a filling station in Cedarvale, Okla., by unknown parties. Parrish and an unnamed companion stopped at the station late Christmas night and asked for help to bring in their stalled car.

While the station operator, Virgil Pendley, was dressing preparatory to going after the car, two shots were heard outside the station. Pendley went outside and found the dead body of Parrish. Pendley said he heard footsteps of someone who was fleeing from the scene, but the unknown companion had already escaped when the operator stepped out.

A deputy sheriff, who was among the first to arrive at the place of the murder, found the dead body of Parrish lying only a few feet from the building. A search of his clothing revealed a fully loaded revolver.

Further details of the story in the Sulphur paper indicate that Parrish and others had some intentions of robbing the Cedarvale station, but apparently their plans went awry, due to a quarrel or some misunderstanding, and were not executed.

ADAMS TRUCK LINE PUTS NEW TRUCK IN SERVICE

The Adams truck line, Wheeler owned transfer and trucking business, operating between this city and Amarillo, via Mobeetie, has added a new 1935 V-8 truck to its service this week. Walter Adams has recently taken over the management of the enterprise to relieve his father, W. W. Adams, who wants to be able to give his full attention and all necessary time to the duties of county commissioner in precinct 1, Wheeler county.

New Legislature Convened For Vital Session

Photographed above is the famous capitol building at Austin, second only to the National Capitol in size! Here the new Texas Legislature convenes early this month to face problems considered greater in variety and importance than ever before. Action is anticipated promptly to halt natural gas waste in the Panhandle. This wastage has grown so rapidly, that reports to the Railroad Commission reveal that each day it now equals the daily domestic and commercial gas consumption of the entire United States. Taxation, liquor laws, relief, oil control and other vital subjects demand early solution.

CONFIDENCE: MISSING ELEMENT

Twelve months ago the American people entered a New Year. They entered it with the profound hope that it would witness industrial recovery, that it would prove the success or failure of the governmental experiments that were inaugurated in 1932, that the great problems of unemployment, declining purchasing power, distressed agriculture, and uncertainty on the part of property-owners, investors and industrial leaders would be, to at least some extent, solved. They hoped the year might be the turning point of the long period of depression—that it would show where we were going.

The greatest experimental twelve months in the history of our nation has ended and another New Year looms. During the past year there has been progress in some directions—there has been retrogression in others. Some businesses have been stimulated, some have sunk deeper into lethargy. Whether there has been any increase in regular employment is questionable. During the current winter close to 21,000,000 are being sustained by organized public relief. Reports from fact-gathering organizations show that those industries which sell perishable goods to the consumer—shoes, packaged foods, clothing, fuel and so on—are doing better than at any time since depression. But the reports likewise show that our basic industries—those which employ the bulk of labor in normal times and represent the greatest amount of invested capital, such as steel, railroads, electric utilities—are either static or are sinking back toward the abysmal levels of 1932. In some instances, of which the electric utilities are a case in point, industries are doing a greater volume of business—but, due to higher taxes and legislated increases in operating costs, are earning less profit, which results in growing hardships on millions of investors who depend on earnings from savings for living expenses.

The most difficult aspect of the recovery problem is this: There can be no recovery without CONFIDENCE, and as yet uncertainty, not confidence, remains uppermost in the minds of millions. People who have money that would ordinarily be invested in industrial undertakings, who would create jobs, buy supplies, build homes and stores and factories and develop farms, are frankly afraid. They are afraid that their capital will be taxed out of existence, or regulated out of existence, or condemned by legislative fiat, or destroyed by governmental competition with industries in which they might place it.

This element of fear extends down from the largest industries and affects the whole industrial structure. The railroads and utilities, for example, face, on the one hand, the very definite problem of reduced business, rising taxes and diminishing earnings, while on the other hand they are threatened with the potentiality of government ownership. Under such conditions, who can be expected to invest money freely and without fear, to develop industries and bring back payrolls to normal levels?

companies and similar institutions is absolutely dependent upon the security of basic American industries, in which their depositors' and policyholders' money is invested. Anything which strikes at the welfare of basic industries strikes immediately at their welfare—and therefore at the welfare of every person who has a dollar in the bank or is the owner of an insurance policy.

To blame these conditions on a man, a party, or a group would be unjust. National distress naturally breeds experiment—the need for alleviation is so great that it seems as if anything were worth trying. But a great responsibility falls upon those given high public office in such times—namely the responsibility of protecting our constitutional rights and privileges. There can be no greater duty, and no more necessary public task. If mistakes are made, they will be forgiven—but they should be corrected, not continued.

There are signs that this is being done now—signs pointing to a rapprochement between political and industrial leaders. If these groups honestly seek to co-operate to iron out misunderstandings and differences, our nation will make real progress toward recovery—we will regain the priceless ingredient of good times, CONFIDENCE. Let it once be known that investments will be encouraged and protected by government, that the honest business has nothing to fear from political influences, that savings will be held inviolate by those trusted with the management of our national affairs, that private property rights will be held sacred, and the road to prosperity will stretch clearly ahead.

There should be no despair on the part of the people. Our land is still fertile. Our intellectual abilities have been increased by the ordeal of depression. Only that intangible element—CONFIDENCE, based on the knowledge that our constitutional ideals will be maintained, not destroyed—is needed now.

FOLKS HARD TO PLEASE

Some appear to think that running a newspaper is easy, but from experience we can say that it is no picnic, because readers are hard to please.

If we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don't they say we are too serious.

If we clip things from other papers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves.

If we don't we are stuck on our own stuff.

If we stick close to the job all day, we ought to be out hunting news.

If we get out and try to hustle, we ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate true genius; and if we print them the paper is filled with junk.

If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we are too critical.

If we don't we are asleep. Now, like as not, some guy will say we swiped this from some other newspaper.

And so we did.

HOW TO AVOID PRISON

Prisoners should have a pretty good idea how they might have avoided prison, so the questionnaire answered by 40 inmates of the Dallas county jail the other day should throw some dependable light on the subject.

Summed up, the rules for staying out of jail as given by the prisoners were:

1. Don't marry too young.
2. Don't stay out late at night.
3. Obey your parents.
4. Know the character of your associates.

There, you will agree, is a pretty sensible and safe pattern of conduct, sketched by a group of men who ought to know.

Evil companions probably lead more young men to prison than any other single factor. For that reason the prisoners' fourth rule is the most important. It might easily be combined with Nos. 2 and 3, since late hours and disobedience are the natural products of evil associations.

An interesting sidelight on the questionnaire is that 27 of the prisoners had gone through grade school and two were college graduates. The preponderance of the undereducated suggests the thought that poverty of economic strain plays a rather large part in the creation of criminals. There are educated criminals, to be sure, but most incorrigibles have somehow missed their schooling.—Clarendon News.

Our Exchanges

Items of interest culled from newspapers on The Times' exchange list.

A man over in Arkansas is suing his wife for divorce. He claims she "killed his boss." He had them hitched to the same plow and she did not keep up her end of the doubletrees.—Donley County Lead-doubletrees.—Donley County Leader.

The dust storms have started just as Uncle Sam confesses it will take 15 years to set out all the trees in the shelter-belt and 15 more years for them to grow. We have a hunch that it will require more shelter for the trees than the trees will give us from these 10,000-foot high trade winds. We call 'em trade winds because they take our fertile top soil over to Iowa and leave this reddish New Mexico dirt in exchange.—Twinkles in the Pampa Post.

Americans like to join things. Ample proof is furnished by the most recent idea that has caught the imagination of the country, the old-age pension movement. Old-Age Pension clubs by the literal thousands have been formed and are being formed all over the country. Some of them charge dues and everything. All of them insist upon the need for unified action to get the idea made into law. Two years ago it was Taxpayers' clubs. Two years hence it will be something else.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Shades of the past returned to Elk City early this week when citizens turned on faucets and watched a muddy colored fluid trickle slowly out. Quicksand in the old deep well in the southwest part of the city that was closed when the city reservoir south of the city was completed in 1925, brings back memories of an old standing joke. It was often said by traveling men that made this territory, that they carried whisk brooms with them so they could brush off after taking a bath. We are living again in 1925. But, we've got a bond election coming up for next Tuesday.—Elk City (Okla.) Journal.

Such reports from less fortunate towns should cause Wheeler folks to appreciate more the ample supply of fine water in this city.

CHANGES IN STUDENT BODY OF BRISCOE HIGH SCHOOL

We are sorry that so many of our students and classmates have withdrawn from school. Some have moved to other communities and will resume their school work there. Others have been influenced by cupid, who has visited our school. There are other students moving into this community, and we hope they will help cover the loss of those who have been compelled to withdraw. Those who have withdrawn are: Chester, Lester, Cecil, Sylvia and William Glenn, Johnnie Ray Overall, Roy Waters, Neva Mae McAdams, B. F. Crossland, Willene Douthit, Willie Hendrix, J. R. Hendrix, J. C. Hendrix, Alvin Steen, George Campbell and Tamsey V. Riley.

The students and faculty of Briscoe high school are wishing them happiness and success in their respective places.—S.B.C.

Athletics

The Briscoe high school basketball team entertained the Kelton high school team on the Briscoe court Friday afternoon and the home team were victorious in both games of the doubleheader.

In the girls' game, Georgia Cain of Briscoe and Pauline Worley were high point scorers for their respective teams. The dirt floor in our gym made it impossible to make the game as fast as common, but the game proved to be quite interesting in spite of this handicap. The final score was 14 to 10 in favor of Briscoe.

The boys' game was perhaps even more exciting than the girls' game since the score was close all the way with Kelton leading a good part of the time. In the closing seconds of the game Briscoe looped a long field goal that put them one point in the lead, and the game ended with Briscoe holding a 14 to 13 advantage. A very friendly and sportsmanlike attitude was exhibited by both teams, and we are looking forward to meeting the Kelton teams again later in the season.

On Saturday night both boys' and girls' teams journeyed to Shamrock, where they met defeat at the hands of the strong Shamrock teams. The core of the girls' game was 28 to 3, and the boys' game was 28 to 2.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Geraldine Vinson, sixth grader, has not checked out a single library book since school began.

Cliffertine Sivage, sixth grade honor roll student, has done more outside reading than any other "grader."

Clyde Wadsworth has read almost every work of fiction in the high school library, and he prefers the historical novels of Winston Churchill to all others.

Although there are too many years difference in the ages of Leonard Fulks and Mrs. Allen I. Smith to publish, they celebrate their birthdays on the same day—Jan. 7.

Dottie Bell Cowan, a junior, is the midget of her class in size, weighing only 90 pounds, but we always find her name on all honor rolls.

There are four Juanitas in the third period study hall—all fourth graders: Juanita Crabbe, Juanita Childress, Juanita McAdams and Juanita Sollock.

Many senior boys advocate allowing two years for each English course. We wonder why!

SURPRISE SHOWER FOR PAULINE EVANS-HEFLEY

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McNeill were hosts to a group of young people who showered Pauline Evans-Hefley on Friday night. Mrs. James Funston entertained the group by directing several lively games. Pauline and her husband, Clifford, were taken to the dining room where the dining table was laden with presents and the presents covered with a table cloth. When the cloth was removed Pauline was very much surprised to find dry goods and hardware instead of eatables.

Several more games were played, then refreshments of cake and hot cocoa were served. After each guest had wished Pauline and Clifford a long, happy married life, all returned to their homes.

NOTES AND WHAT-NOT

We are very proud of the new magazine binders that were brought to the library on Monday morning. The substantial manila paper of which these are made will greatly aid in keeping our current literature better preserved. Who likes to pick up a magazine with no cover? One searches for the name, the date, etc., and then fails to gain real enjoyment from the reading of an unsightly periodical.

A RACE FOR LIFE

During the latter part of the eighteenth century, the Indians were still hostile in Erath county. This was the home of all my mother's relatives; mother also lived there until 16 years ago when she and father moved to Wheeler county. Her great uncle, Mose Hurley, had many terrifying experiences, but one I remember distinctly hearing mother tell about was the time Uncle Mose and his wife, Pat, with their small nephew, Willie Edwards, had gone visiting and had started home.

There had been a large gathering at a neighbor's house; everyone for miles around had attended. Mose, Pat and Willie had started home on their large, swift race horses. The roads were merely hoof-beaten trails on the outskirts of the woods. The three riders had ridden about two miles, when suddenly they saw a tiny panting dog coming over a knoll; they knew this dog to belong to Indians. They turned their horses to run, but they scarcely had turned when the Indians spied them and were in hot pursuit.

The path that had been beaten went a mile south and a mile east, but instead of following the path, Mose and Pat headed their horses straight into the woods so the Indians could not find them so easily. Mose's horse got ahead of Pat's, so Pat and Willie were left the nearest to the Indians. There was a sudden winding in the trail on account of a huge log, but instead of following the path Pat's and Willie's horse leaped over the log; just as he did Pat screamed to Willie to hold on. This scream attracted the Indians, but they did not get so excited until Pat's bonnet blew off her head, and they saw all her long braided hair fall over her shoulders. Of course, they were after scalps, and the longer the hair the more highly they valued it. They gave their war-whoop and began to run faster, but their ponies were so much smaller than those of the whites they could not jump the log nor turn the bends so swiftly. Pat and Willie soon caught Mose and in a few minutes they were so far ahead of the Indians they lost sound of their whoops and were safely again at the house recently left.

As soon as the news was broken, all the men mounted horses, grabbed their reins, had their guns handed to them, and were off in pursuit of the Indians. All the small children and women stayed at the house that night waiting in terror for the men to return. This was not a new experience with them for there were many such times, but it made it no easier to undergo because they never knew whether it would be the enemy or their friends and loved ones who would win the battle. This particular time it was neither side because the white men chased the Indians all night but could not overtake them.

FARMER TALKS TO HIS SORRY MULE

(Editor's Note: The following story was submitted to The Times by W. G. Stiles, who lives on a ranch 11 miles east of Wheeler. The article was sent to Mr. Stiles by his brother, George Stiles of Rome, Georgia, who clipped it from a newspaper there).

A philosophical "conversation" between a farmer and his mule, is a clipping mailed to the editor of this column from a Floyd county rural friend, which is herewith reproduced:

"Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a plow," the clipping read.

"Said the man to the mule: 'Bill, you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man made in the image of God. Yet, here we work, hitched up together year in and year out. I often wonder if you work for me or if I work for you. Verily, I think it a partnership between a mule and a fool, surely I work as hard as you, if not harder. Plowing or cultivating we cover the same distance, but you do it on four legs and I on two. I, therefore, do twice as much work per leg as you do.'

"Soon, we'll be preparing for a corn crop. When the crop is harvested I give one-third to the landlord for being so kind as to let me use this small speck of God's universe. One-third goes to you and the balance is mine. You consume all of your portion with the exception of the cobs, while I divide mine among seven children, six hens, two ducks, and a banker. If we both need shoes, you get 'em, Bill, you are getting the best of me, and I ask you, is it fair for a mule, the son of a jackass, to swindle a man—the lord of creation—out of his substance?"

"Why, you only help to plow and cultivate the ground, and I alone must cut, shock and husk the corn, while you look over the pasture fence and hee-haw at me.

"All fall and most of the winter the whole family, from granny to the baby, picks cotton to help raise money to pay taxes and buy a new harness and pay the interest on the mortgage on you. And what do you care about the mortgage? Not a damn! You ornery cuss, I even have to do the worrying about the mortgage on your tough, ungrateful hide.

"About the only time I am your better, is on election day, for I can vote and you can't. And after election I realize that I was fully as great a jackass as your pape. Verily, I am prone to wonder if politics were made for men or jackasses, or to make jackasses of men.

"And that ain't all, Bill; when you're dead that's supposed to be the end of you. But me? The parson tells me that when I die, I gotta go to hell forever. That is, Bill, if I don't do just as he says. And most of what he says keeps me from getting any kick out of life.

"Tell me, Willyum considering these things, how can you keep a straight face and look so dumb and solemn?"

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shira were in Wheeler Saturday night shopping.

Ray McPherson and Elwood Shira made a business trip Saturday to Borger.

Mrs. Frank Mitcham of Shamrock, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. W. I. Joss.

Voice of the People

ANOTHER VIEW

The devil says things are in a terrible plight.

And I know that two wrongs never made anything right.

I started the two old parties

And I started the Ku Klux Klan,

So now I will start on the plowup plan.

And if it goes over, which I think it will,

I will put through congress the Backhead bill.

For the old farmer and his gray-headed wife

Has went hungry and naked all of their life.

And he is bound to be a miserable old soul,

And I am going to see that he gets Some kind of government control.

For I am going to Washington with my deceiving claws

And I will grab every man that helps make laws.

For I don't care for them that I rob, As long as I get the money and an honorable job.

And we will tax everything that comes out of the ground

And take the money and pass it around;

And if people will stay with me, and I believe they will,

We will pass the old-age pension and the soldier's bonus bill.

I aim to give people money and it has got to be spent;

I won't let them hoard it and it shan't be lent.

Then you will see that people quit crying.

For they will all have money and they will go to buying.

And all of the factories will put on double crews,

And make everything, even down to old shoes.

And I don't mean to stop one short hour

Until I dam up every creek that I think will make power.

And I will show you some of the prettiest sights

When I get all of the highways lit with electric lights.

For I aim to do everything that I can

To gain the friendship of every man;

For I have been trying ever since Mother Eve gave birth,

To set up some kind of a kingdom here on this earth.

And the darndest mess that ever was seen

Is when people all get cars and gasoline.

They will all get in their cars and hit the road

And leave the old taxpayer to carry the load.

And I will train a bunch of men to stick to me like wax—

That can figure the expenses and figure the tax.

And I will run this system as long as it pays.

And when it falls there will be lous days.

I will sit on the throne, for I give a durn;

For I will have the biggest the day that I burn.

Teachers Praise "Green Pastures"

Several of the faculty members saw the play "Green Pastures" in Amarillo last week end or in New York in the summer of 1931. Miss Winona Adams, who saw it in New York, states that the music and acting was the finest she has ever seen or heard. Mrs. G. O. McCrohan and Miss Bernie Addison, who also saw it in New York, say that the death of Moses was the most interesting scene to them. Miss Kathyne Bowers says that she enjoyed the building of the Ark the most of all.

Among the other people in Wheeler who went to see "Green Pastures" at Amarillo were Mrs. H. E. Nicholson, Mrs. Dink Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bowers. More than 3,000 people were present at the performance Saturday.

"Green Pastures" the road show of the century presented by an all-negro cast was in Amarillo, Jan. 5. It has been in New York and other large cities for the past five years.

Basketball Teams Will Enter Mobeetie Meet

Girls to Play Highpoint on Friday Afternoon—Boys Will Meet Lakeview Same Day

Both the boys and girls basketball teams will attend the annual basketball tournament to be held in Mobeetie, Jan. 11 and 12.

The boys and girls are working hard on new plays and signals and with the new plays and plenty of practice they hope to make a better showing than they have in the past, according to the coaches.

Drawing for time and opponents took place Monday at Mobeetie. The Wheeler girls will play Highpoint Friday at 3:00 o'clock. The boys first game will be at 4:00 o'clock on the same day with Lakeview.

«The Wampus Cat» (With Apologies to Odd)

The new year seemed to be ushered in with great hilarity. Bells rang, whistles blew and a new spirit seemed to prevail. It seems that everyone took up a phase of the city's entertainment . . . the gay night life. . . As one rambled around he was very likely to see almost anyone.

Thingamobobs: . . . Carlisle Robison and Herbert Whitener playing hide and seek with their cars Sunday night . . . Wayland Merriman, "'33 grad" not going to church but instead calling on a brunet from C. I. A. . . Our sports writer getting part of his story in the Amarillo Daily News—not bad, Robison. . . Most of the ex-students are taking up the hobby of studying . . . perhaps we should take a hint. . . The thoughts of spring must be too great for some people, because it put one certain boy to sleep in economics class Tuesday. . . If any one cares to visit English IV during the next week, I am quite sure he will see our future lawyers.

ANTI-CRIME DRIVE

There is one grave defect in the anti-crime drive being put on by the national government. The liquor traffic must be wiped out! Liquor is the cause of many of the crimes that are carried on every day in the United States. The government is making a tremendous drive against crime and yet, the main cause of all the crimes, beer, has been legalized by the government. How can crime be wiped out if nothing is done about this great mistake? Why not start an anti-beer drive if crime is to be done away with?—F.F.

New York City is having a hard time balancing its budget. Now it is going to extend its 2 per cent tax to meals, applicable at one dollar and up. That city has the usual experience with special taxes—they are added to succeed some other existing tax, but after the new tax is created, the old one stays on.—The Braymer Bee (Mo.).

A woman was hanged for murder in England a few weeks ago. We shrink as did thousands of the English, from the execution of a woman. But, after all, when a woman kills, her victim is quite as dead as he would have been had the murderer been a man. The law, in order to be just, has to be impersonal—and sexless.

HOME EC. II GIRLS MAKE VISIT TO CITY HOSPITAL

The Home Economics II class visited the City hospital last Thursday for the purpose of learning how to care for the sick.

The first thing they did was to observe how to make beds correctly. Mrs. Gordon Whitener, home economics instructor, showed the method of changing the sheets on the bed of a sick person and the care due the patient in changing position.

They learned the process of respiration, the taking of temperature and counting of pulse rates. They were also taught the best way to bathe the sick person.

Mrs. Whitener states that the use of the hospital was greatly en-

HOME EC. CLUB SENDS INVITATIONS FOR MEET

Invitations for the district Home Economics club meeting that is to be held in Wheeler, Jan. 26, were mailed to the various towns last Thursday.

These invitations were written by Ida Belle Davis, president, and Estelle Scott, secretary.

They were sent to the heads of the home economics departments of the following towns: Amarillo, Clarendon, Claude, Dodsonville, Estelline, Groom, Hedly, Lefors, McLean, Memphis, Shamrock, Wellington, Mobeetie and Kelton.

An invitation was also sent to Miss Sibyl Thomas Hallmark, head of the home economics department at Baylor university, Belton, Texas. Miss Hallmark is to be chief speaker at the banquet.

SAGE BLOOMS

AN OLDER SISTER

Some people say that an older sister is helpful in many respects, but I don't agree.

My sister is at the age where she is stubborn in many ways or maybe I ought to say in all ways. When it comes to working, she is tired. I often wonder what she gets tired of doing; she never does anything but sit around. When mother tells her to wash the dishes she says that it makes her hands rough. She never thinks about my hands getting rough because I have to wash them in her place.

She gets more clothes than I do. Then she gets angry if I even touch them. When I say anything about her getting all the clothes, mother will say that she is older than I am and that my time will come when I get as old as she is. She has been telling me that ever since I can remember, but it hasn't come yet and it won't until my sister leaves home.

She sits around and plays cards and when I want the table to study on I never get it. Mother always tells me to study somewhere else. Then there is where the racket starts, but I always get the bad end of it and get run into another room.

I tell you these older sisters are awful.

LILLA MAE CROFFORD,
 English II.

BRISCOE TOOTERS CARRY STORIES OF W. H. S. EXES

The Briscoe Tooters, high school paper, carried news of four former Wheeler high school students in last week's Wheeler Times. They were Pauline Evans, Charlie Austin, Earl Sivage and Dewey Vise.

Pauline Evans and Clifford Hefley of Briscoe, were married Dec. 29 in Wheeler. Pauline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Evans of Briscoe. She graduated from W. H. S. in 1932; then she moved to Briscoe, where she took a post-graduate course in 1934.

Charlie Austin, formerly of Briscoe, attended part of the term as a senior in 1934 at W. H. S. Charlie stopped school when she married. She now lives in the Corn Valley community.

Earl Sivage, another student from Briscoe, spent part of the 1933-1934 session in W. H. S. Earl may come to W. H. S. the last half of this term.

ENGLISH PUPILS MAKE VARIOUS EXCUSES AT CONFERENCE PERIODS

Many excuses are being submitted by the students when they go to the English teachers for their conference period on outside reading and poetry. Some of the excuses rendered are: "Susie Jones kept the book a month that I wanted to read;" "The study hall was just too noisy for me to learn poetry;" "I had to help my mother yesterday morning;" "May I wait until tomorrow afternoon to report?"; and "Surely, you won't deduct very much from my grade."

Of course the ones that have been so fortunate as to complete their work make so much noise that the rest of the poor students can not get up their work. Everyone of them have books checked out that the others want to read. My! My! This school is just awful.

Buy 14 Balls With Football Fund

The proceeds from football games this year have been spent for playground equipment. One football, three basketballs, nine playground balls and one volley ball have been purchased.

Since there is not enough money left to buy football sweaters, Coach Bob Clark is going to present a magic program sometime in the near future.

DOROTHY BURGESS, RUTH FAYE GARRISON ON STAFF

Because of the absence of Loula Clarke, exchange editor of the Corral, Dorothy Burgess was appointed to take her place. Ruth Faye Garrison was appointed literary editor.

Dorothy belongs to the Spanish and Home Economics clubs. She plays guard on the senior basketball team and was a member of the Pep Squad.

Ruth Faye is a member of the Home Economics and Spanish clubs and belongs to the Pep Squad.

That thar English IV class has been trying to debate for the last month. I swan. I dew believe I could beet them without half trying. The day I was in the classroom (they didn't know it). The four debaters took their places at the front of the room and dad-blame if they all didn't have the same side I'll eat this whole newspaper. Yes, sir, all four of them had eggzactly the same points (almost). It shore war funny to hear both sides argufing on the same side of the debate-able question.

It isn't the teacher's fault, it is plain to be seen, 'cause she shore does lecture to 'em. What gets me though, is the way the young rapscallions take it. You English IV'ers will have to ex-c-u-s (can't be spelt) my way of making fun atcha. Could be worsar.

GIRLS TO PARTICIPATE IN 4-H CLUB CONTEST

L'Ombre Brazil, a sixth grade student, has entered the 4-H club contest and will improve her bedroom. Her plans are to have washing conveniences installed in her room, to hang some pictures, to make a tufted bedspread and pillow, and various other things that will help her scoring. Her score is 502 and the highest score possible is 1,000.

Elsie Newkirk, a freshman, has entered the contest and will improve her pantry. It will be necessary for her to make shelves in the pantry, to have various kinds of fruits and vegetables on the shelves, and to label the jars. She plans to paper the pantry and to arrange the fruit attractively. The pantry has not been scored yet.

These are not the only girls who have entered this helpful contest, but they were the only ones the reporter interviewed.

SEEN IN THE STUDY HALL

Ida Belle and Florine studying on a debate. Perhaps the school will have some debaters at the "meet," after all.

Morene, Lorene and Martha Jane having a good time with Ford, Wilton and O'Neil, as usual!

Helen gazing out the window toward Galveston.

Weeks making eyes at the "new girl." She is pretty, isn't she?

Dorothy Burgess and Cecil talking about something. I imagine it is civics, but of course, one can never tell.

Travis quarreling with La Veau. He probably learned that in the English class because he competed in two debates in there.

Wallace and Orveta sitting together, but here comes a reporter so Wallace moves over near Irene.

Better watch out, students. Some reporter is looking at you.

CAUGHT in the LASSO'S NOOSE

No change in the conduct of the high school students has taken place so, after all, the New Year's resolutions weren't kept.

O, yes (but it wasn't a resolution) the schedule of the morning classes has been changed. The physical education period has been abolished because of cold weather. Funny thing, though, almost every day since the change was made has been as warm as spring.

Wilton and Ford are getting to be regular little Romeos.

Now that the mid-term terrors are over, wonder how every one feels?

The seniors ask this question, "Is the faculty going to 'act up' at play practice as much as we did?"

The girls want to know how many "new ones" are starting to school Monday. Monday starts the second semester, don't you know?

We want to know why Miss Addison

Club Notes

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County

That demonstrations do live and grow is shown by the fact that Mrs. Bonnie Dodson, wardrobe demonstrator for the Twitty 4-H club in 1932, says: "I have built three new closets and the third one is better than the first. The first one I moved away and left. When I started to move a second time I wanted to take my closet, as I had bought the material and built it myself, but because my landlady liked it so well she paid me for it and that enabled me to get material for the one I now have.

Mrs. Dodson continued: "I have learned that a place for everything and everything in its place must be observed if a home is well kept in two rooms."

In order to close the bedroom scoring as early as possible, the judges made a "pick-up" tour of the county Saturday and scored all rooms which were not scored on the first round, Dec. 5.

Some of the members undertook the demonstration after the first scoring, while some were not scored that time because they were out of the way to reach on that special tour.

Home demonstration women whose rooms were scored Saturday include: Mrs. W. R. Thornton, Lela; Mrs. Jewell Sheaffer, Twitty; Mrs. Mount Tipps, Briscoe, and Audrey Kiker, Allison.

4-H girl's bedrooms scored were: L'Ombre Brazil, Wheeler; Dorothy Wise, Allison; Nora Pearl Bentley, Magic City; Vesta Holland, Twitty, and Jimmie McCormack, Lela.

"Have plenty of sunshine and fresh air in your bedroom," said Miss Viola Jones, speaking to the Homecraft club in the club house at Briscoe, Jan. 1.

Continuing, Miss Jones suggested

all beds should be protected by a mattress cover and mattress pad. "Blessed be nothingness" quoted she from an extension service member in comparing the plainly furnished bedroom with that of the room full of promiscuous dust-catchers.

Much valuable information concerning the making and care of both plain and fancy bed clothes was given; after which refreshments of home made candy were served by Mrs. C. H. Candler. The club then adjourned to Mrs. Alvin Richerson's where Miss Jones gave a demonstration on correct bed making.

Those attending were Mesdames Perry Riley, Sam Standlee, Alvin Richerson, Louis Smith, John Zybach, Clarence Zybach, Bob Greenhouse, Maurice Graves, Weaver Barnett, Chas. Candler, Miss Viola Jones and Miss Edith Ashley.

Next meeting will be the third Tuesday in January. All members urged to attend. Visitors welcome.—Reporter.

Some of the new farm food supply demonstrators have already begun on their demonstrations.

Mrs. John McCarroll, farm food supply demonstrator for the Briscoe Home Demonstration club, has already canned 101 quarts of meat for her pantry. She has canned 33 quarts sausage, 1 pint brains, 2 quarts tongue, 3 quarts sweet bread, 11 quarts ribs, 13 quarts pork roast, 9 quarts tenderloin, 3 pints liver paste, 3 pints fried liver, 2 pints kidney, 8 quarts backbone, 8 quarts pickled pig's feet, 1 quart heart, 3 pints scrapple, 3 pints mincemeat and 9 quarts head cheese.

"Those who begin early on their demonstrations have a better chance of winning," stated Miss Viola Jones, County Home Demonstration Agent, "for they have a longer time to work on their project."

The Wheeler 4-H club met Monday, Dec. 31, at the office of our home demonstration agent, Miss Viola Jones. After repeating our motto, pledge and prayer we were given a demonstration on "How to make beds correctly," and after discussing some of our future plans, we adjourned to meet again the second Monday in January.

Those present were: Elsie Newkirk, L'Ombre Brazil, Jonnie Fay Templeton, Helen Flynt and Ruth Faust.—Reporter.

Mrs. Patsy Lamberth of Throckmorton, who had been in Wheeler and vicinity visiting her children for two weeks, died last Thursday night about 10 o'clock from an attack of heart disease which lasted only a short time. She was apparently in the best of health when stricken.

The Lamberth family moved to Wheeler about 20 years ago and had lived here most of the time since, until the death of the husband and father, G. A. Lamberth, on Jan. 4, 1933. He was pastor of the Church of Christ here for one year.

Patsy Melvina Lamberth was born April 25, 1880, in Bell county, Texas, and died Jan. 3, 1935, at the home of her son, G. A. Lamberth, jr., east of Wheeler, at the age of 54 years, eight months and nine days.

She is survived by 11 children: Mrs. Laura Smith, Dumas; George Thomas Lamberth, McLean; Mrs. Berniece Ramsey, Briscoe; Shultz Lamberth, Cross Plains; Larrimore Lamberth, Ballinger; Mrs. Ruby Mason, G. A. Lamberth, jr., and Herman Lamberth, Wheeler; Mrs. Thelma Hibbits, Miss Ethel Lamberth and Mrs. Vina Belle Hibbits, Throckmorton.

They all attended the funeral except Mrs. Thelma Hibbits. Two sisters, Mrs. Clyde Hefner and husband of Brownfield and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Travis and son, Bert of Ralls, attended the last rites.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Church of Christ by Rev. W. B. Andrews of McLean, assisted by Rev. H. V. Hendry, local pastor. Interment was made in the Wheeler cemetery under direction of the Wheeler Funeral Home.

WORLEY SENDS MESSAGE TO DISTRICT FRIENDS

The following communication, which is self-explanatory, is published at the request of Representative Eugene Worley:

There are a number of people in the 122nd legislative district who are desirous of attending the inaugural ball to be held in Austin, Texas, Jan. 15, 1935, in honor of Governor James V. Allred and Lieutenant Governor Walter F. Woodul. In view of the fact the invitation committee for this affair has placed restrictions upon the number of invitations issued and the supplies limited the possibility of mailing invitations to the people of the 122nd district is precluded.

Each representative is allowed ten invitations, plus several admittance cards. To those of you who are planning to attend this function, or who would like to attend, I should appreciate your advising me at your earliest possible convenience so that I may arrange for invitations. I assure you that I shall be glad to see that you are properly provided with invitations.

Communications may be addressed to me in care of the House of Representatives, Austin, Texas.

Announcing dealership for Diamond Tires

We are glad to announce to the motoring public of Wheeler county that Mac's Service Station has been appointed distributor for Diamond Tires and Tubes. This is a brand new line of merchandise for Wheeler and vicinity but one that has stood the test for many years. Come in and see this new line of tires—you can see their quality at a glance.

Important Protection Features—

ANTI-FRICTION CARCASS
Not a single cord in the entire carcass of the new Diamond Super Service Tire comes in contact with any other cord during the flexing, bending and twisting of the tire in service. The result, dangerous friction between the cords which usually cause blow-outs has been reduced to a minimum.

DUAL HEAT CURING PROCESS
Tire curing is one of the most important operations in tire manufacturing. Diamond's Dual-Heat Curing Process welds into one strong unit the plies, beads, flippers, chafing strips, breaker strips, tread and sidewalls. Every part of the tire is thoroughly vulcanized—no part is undercured—no part is overcured.

NEW DIAMOND SHOCK CUSHION
A new blow-out protection feature in the new Diamond Super Service Tire that consists of a tough layer of adhesive gum, a thin springy layer of specially compounded red cushion gum, two layers of weightless "shock distributing" cords. Cushions carcass from damaging road shocks—preserves positive union for the life of the tire of tread and carcass.

NEW DIAMOND FULL TRACTION TREAD
Broad flat tread—no uneven "traction knobs" that hit the road and pound or eventually break down the carcass. Thicker, tougher tread offers maximum protection to carcass and slow rate of wear. Flexible center rib design brings full width of wide tread in contact with road—providing longer, more even wear; provides greater protection against forward and side skidding.

DIAMOND TIRE WARRANTY

Come in today and read the Diamond Tire Certificate of Warranty and learn for yourself just how good the makers of Diamond Tires know them to be. Diamond Tires are warranted against many road hazards that will save you money.
