An interview with Jake Tarter, county agent, reveals about 1,500 acres planted to Ajax in Wheeler county. This is the first year for extensive planting of the grain here. It was first introduced three years ago.

"Ajax," declared Tarter, "is a ombination of kafir, feterita and hegira. It is somewhat softer than kafir and has a feed value one-half of one per cent higher."

The grain is said to withstand severe drouth conditions with less loss than other similar crops.

Planning Board in Session Friday Makes New Alignment WPA Projects in County Meeting in a called session at the court house here Friday, the county planning board in whose hands rests the duty of indicating priority preference for WPA projects within Wheeler county, made a new alignment from the schedule approved on the previous Tuesday. After discussing the matter at some length, it was deemed advisable to rescind Tuesday's action.

Conferring with the county commissioner's who were present at the meeting, members of the board pointed out special advantages to the greatest number of people by giving certain projects priority over the precinct-wide jobs placed first in the former meeting. Realizing the logic in these arguments, and with a desire to work in complete harmony autumn weather, almost unseason- for the best interests of the county as a whole, the commissioners gracecompanied by drizzling showers visit- fully yielded without contention for their respective precinct improvements.

> Grade and drainage structures on Highway 152 from the end of the was proposed as No. 1. Upon repremember of the board, T. M. Britt, that only a small sum of money employing a few men for a brief period, would enable the Kelton school to qualify for certain state affiliation, that job was given first place. After this came Highway 152 as major project No. 2. Approximately $55,-

000 is involved in this job. Next to receive approval was the Magic City-Kellerville road, which starts at a point on Highway 66 a short distance west of Lela and goes through Magic City to Kellerville. Cost of improvements are estimated at $37,805. The last project approved was a stretch of road in Precinct 1, W. W. Adams, commissioner. Contemplated improvements would eliminate extra school bus mileage now traveled. An expenditure of about $9,360 will be required on this project.

It was the recorded decision of a majority of the planning board that practically all available relief workers be concentrated on Highway 152 when it is finally approved and work starts. The question of transportation of labor from other parts of the county revealed that provision is made in the cost estimates for such transportation. The objection that allowance for getting men to and from the project might prove inadequate was promptly met by Jim Trout, commissioner in Precinct 2, traversed by 152, with a pledge to meet the deficiency with precinct funds. Every member of the board deserves commendation for the earnest effort put forth to discharge as expeditiously as possible the duties put before that body. They have labored conscientiously to place in proper sequence what, in their opinion, are the most deserving projects embracing the maximum benefits to the county as a whole. The degree of harmony and unity of action prevailing in the planning board's deliberations stands as a testimonial to the business sagacity and good judgment of its members. The board consists of W. O. Puett, county judge, chairman; A. B. H. Rathjen and Miss Thelma Ford, Crump, Wheeler; J. B. Clark, Sham-Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. D. G. rock: Oliver Elliott, Mobeetie, and T. M. In Old Santa Fe

It has been some time since that old favorite, Ken Maynard, has made his appearance in Wheeler. This time he comes in one of the best westerns of the whole year, "In Old Santa Fe." He is ably assisted in the picture by his wonder horse, Tarzan, and also by that singing cowboy of radio fame, Gene Autrey. Gene sings a number of your favorite cowboy songs and strums his guitar. Tarzan is as good as usual, while Ken does one of the most outstanding western characters of his long and successful career.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS PROGRESS AS SCHEDULED

Work on the various school building projects is progressing according to the schedules arranged.

During the latter part of last week the exterior of the Home Ec. cottage was painted a light cream color and the gas connections were made Saturday. The window screens have been painted black. Installation of the equipment, expected any day, will complete the building.

Interview Reveals Benefits of Corral

An interview with Principal C. B. Witt reveals that editing the Corral benefits students and residents of Wheeler and surrounding territory in many ways.

In the first place, he said, the school paper is like football, for it is something in which everyone is interested. It brings the activities of the school before the public. The pupils who take journalism have an opportunity to write news stories as well as learn to read daily papers. An affiliated credit is also given in this subject.

In concluding the interview Principal Witt also stated that publication of The Corral furnishes advertisement for the town of Wheeler.

A campaign is now being conducted by the journalism class to secure new and renewal subscriptions for The Wheeler Times, in which The Corral is published each week. The 33 and one-third per cent of proceeds obtained is to be used to pay membership fees to the Texas High School Press association and the Panhandle Press association.

Officers are Chosen for Home Ec. Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Gordon Whitener the home economics girls met last Thursday at 12 o'clock in the Home Economics cottage to organize a club.

Mable Sherwood was elected president; Adell Hampton, secretarytreasurer; Nerine Young, song leader, and Evelyn Balch, reporter.

The officers have held various offices during high school life. Mable and Evelyn tied for third place in a dress contest last year. Adell is a member of the Science club. Nerine won first in a dress contest and received a trip to Corpus Christi. She was secretary-treasurer in both her sophomore and junior years. Evelyn was president of the Spanish club last year. Mable, Adell, Nerine and Evelyn are members of the Spanish and Home Economics clubs. J. W. Barr, Mrs. W. O. Puett, Mrs. is also a member of the Home Ec.

MOTHERS OF HOME EC. GIRLS MEET AT COTTAGE

A meeting was held in the Home Economics cottage last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the mothers of the home economics girls. The home economics teacher, Mrs. Gordon Whitener, took the guests through the cottage and explained the elements of home economics so they would have a better understanding as to what their daughters intend to do.

"Home Economics is not only to instruct girls how to cook and sew," Mrs. Whitener said. "It is to teach such things as improving one's personality, how to entertain, interior decorations and child care."

Those present were: Mrs. Jim Durham, Mrs. S. D. Conwell, Mrs.

DATE BOYCOTT PROPOSED

A nearby school has solved the problem of dissension in its Pep Squad by imposing a date boycott on all eligible girls who do not join the organization. Wheeler high might profit by just such a step, although its trouble lies not in joining but in the disagreement that arises among its members.

The uniforms of the school formerly mentioned were paid for by the citizens of their town, thus eliminating arguments over cloth, style, etc. The town seems to endorse the boycott and the coach does so emphat ically.

Perhaps it would be a bit stiff to ounish the girls who stated their opinions and opposed the plans of the leaders by having no dates; but there is always the hope that it might confine the Pep Squad girls to yelling instead of useless squabbling .- B. M. M.

THE COMMUNITY'S VOICE

The journalism class is trying to sell subscriptions for The Wheeler Times. If you are not a subscriber you should become one at once. Many people fail to see the value of a community newspaper.

A community newspaper is one of the indispensible assets to any county. The country people subscribe for it along with those who live in town, thus going far to destroy the barriers that exist between the two.

The paper affords a method of advertising without which the merchants would lose much of their tomers know what he has without ful women in the crowd. Not conhis advertising is very "old-fashioned." That is probably true to a advertis in th the trade.

The community paper, even though it is a weekly, contains things of interest not published in other papers and magazines. Why? Because they are probably of no interest whatever to the people of other communities.

If the community can get along without a paper then there are other things that can be eliminated, too, The parents are educated and can teach the children at home, so why have schools? Those parents who are religious are able to train their children along that line and the church is no longer needed. The citizens can lend their money to one be able to get far or be very successful without a voice. ' The same is true of a community, it must have means of expressing itself. For these reasons everyone should subscribe for the newspaper of his community .--- M. A. W.

DAME FASHION BANS FLAMING FINGER-TIPS

Last fall Dame Fashion declared a ban on red fingernails, but still they continue in ever increasing numbers. It seems that the one sensible thing that the old girl said the women paid no attention to).

But alas! there seems to be no way of convincing my sister, who is inclined toward flaming red fingernails, that a more conservative shade of rose appeals to us men folks. On second thought perhaps some men do like them. I say frankly I have no use for "the ultra-sophisticates" who probably sip tea with the greatest of ease and read silly sentimental poems.

BUS TRIP TO GAME PACKED FULL OF FUN

Did you ever hear such a noise in your life? My goodness it sounds worse than a group of monkeys turned loose together and chattering as loud as possible.

No, don't get me wrong, it was just the Pep Squad girls and some of the teachers going to Wellington to the football game last Thursday night in the school bus.

The girls shouted so much and sang so many popular songs that they were almost too hoarse to yell when they arrived at the game.

"My goodness! I wish we could yell when we go through Shamrock." "Sh! We must be quiet-that's orders."

"Well, I'd like to let Shamrock know we are here, anyway, but I'll hush." These were some of the remarks made by the girls when passing through Shamrock.

They even had a beauty contest during the trip. Yes, sir! You just can't imagine who was unanimously elected the most popular sheik, either. Well, I'll just tell you to get you out of suspense. Mr. Gilmore, our superintendent, was-and it didn't even affect his heart! No. siree! Mrs. Meek and Mrs. Morgan trade. He who argues that the cus- elected themselves the most beauticeited, either!

It seems that some of them raised a howl to go to the carnival, but with no success.

Some of the girls almost had a fight about so much fresh air in the bus. One or two wanted the windows down so they lent their coats in order to have fresh air and plenty of it.

If you really want to enjoy your self though, just go along with the another and there will be no use for Pep Squad some time and see for banks. The weekly newspaper is the com- might get elected to sompin'.

CAUGHT IN THE LASSO'S NOOSE

Mazie must enjoy keeping the library because she stays in it two periods. Oh-o-o-o! I see some of check out some books. Maybe that is the reason.

Mrs. Gilmore says she was so anxious to get married that she got to the church 10 minutes early.

Imogene was looking at two magazines from India. After nearly finishing, she asked, "Is India in Germany?"

Aline, as usual, was tardy at the Spanish II class Friday afternoon. When a student inquired about her, Mrs. Gilmore calmly replied, "Oh, she'll be here when class is nearly over. She'll probably be dragging in just as Saint Peter is closing the pearly gates."

Seems as if Estelle was craving air Thursday night coming home on the bus from the football game. She wanted all the windows down. Was she stubborn or was she really warm?

Guy (on the bus going to the football game): "Is that the hill where we killed Billy the Kid?" Albert: "No, it was over here on this hill where we had saddle leather soup for supper." Did you folks know that Aline could throw almost as straight as Dizzy Dean? That is, she showed her ability for throwing when she hit a Wellington boy, who was poking fun at the Wheeler Pep Squad, in the eye with a lemon.

"Oh-o-o-o, sand in my eyes." "Just ruined my new dress." "Sand all in my hair.'

These were some of the remarks made at the game last Thursday night when a Pep Squad girl couldn't stand Wellington's fun making any more. She politely picked up a handful of sand and threw it at them.

Wallace received a great deal of sympathy from the girls Friday after getting his eve injured Thursday night in the football game.

Have you ever seen the picture of the old man on a tin Model smoking tobacco? He has a long moustach certain extent, and you will notice people in the back of the bus laugh- that twirls upward at the ends and are chemistry and general science ing continually with his jokes. The Home Ec. girls seem to be getting practice for a cross country race. No, we don't mean a real workout. We mean hiking from the high school building across the campus to the Home Ec. cottage.

Recipe for cleaning desks: Put wet sand on the written parts, scrub very, very hard and rinse thorough-ly. At least the varnish will vanish.

The Wampus Cat (With Apologies to Odd)

Thoughts while rambling: I wonder how long the Mustangs will be able to say that they have never been defeated on their home field. The most popular songs this week: What's the Reason?" and "I'll Never Say Never Again, Again." Look alikes: a henpecked husband Puett. Question: Why are red-haired girls so popular? Definition of a worm: a caterpiller gone nudist. The reason some people make better the good looking boys coming to grades than others is that they start studying when the teacher looks at them instead of trying to stare him or her down.

> Troy Holley wants to know whether g-u-e-s-s spells goose or geese. How many people know the meaning of anthropophagite? Aline Buchanan's hair surely is pretty this year. Imagine an R-dropping Southerner trying to say, "Railroad crossing, look out for the cars." It surely is hard to decide to get up in the morning.

All women haters don't hate all women. Part of them just hate some women.

Personal nomination for the most swaggery walk: Ray Holley.

Thingumabobs: The Pep Squad, after much squabbling, finally consented to wear Indian-head slacks. Balzac, a French novelist, used to have his servant chain him to his chair and not unlock his shackles till he had written a certain number of pages.

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore says she has the cutest little dog. He's so small he has to walk past the same place twice to make a shadow. He has a healthy constitution, too, he can eat Mrs. Gilmore's cooking and survive.

O my! O my! My teeth! Aren't false teeth a nuisance? Supt. Gilmore thinks so, especially when they almost fall out when he is making announcements to the students. The Wheeler Mustangs this time last year had lost two games. This year it is different. Wheeler has won two games and is meeting the Memphis Cyclones undefeated. Memphis was invited to join Class A this year but the school board thought Two Undefeated Teams Will Clash it over and they stayed in Class B. so Wheeler plays them Friday. Whip 'um, Mustangs!

The little Colts sure are looking grand these days. Some day they will be carrying on in the place of the old horses. Theodore Cooper, promising young Colt, was knocked out the other day while playing football. You will be able to see the Colts any day at noon on the Mustang gridiron imitating the older horses.

Briscoe, our neighbor north of us, has started working out for basketball. They expect a good team this year, since they have plenty of promising material.

The football boys experienced something new Thursday evening when they rode to Wellington in one of the new busses. All agreed that the bus was more comfortable than for it in speed. the bed of an open truck or being crowded up in some individual's car.

Miss Adams is organizing a speed ball club in high school. Speed ball is a new sport here. Miss Adams feels assured that all the girls will like the sport. The game is a cross between basketball and soccer, with 11 players on each team. Equipment for the sport has not arrived yet.

Miss Adams, basketball coach for the girls, will start organizing her club as soon as the new equipment arrives. With all the last year players back, plenty of material, and a new gym to play in, she is expecting a winning team this year.

New Sports Equipment Is Purchased

Five new black and gold jerseys have been purchased for the Mustangs, making a total of 23 new jerseys. Two white footballs for night playing, a speed ball, and volley ball for the girls have been bought. These articles will be paid for from the athletic fund.

MUSTANGS MEET CYCLONES FRIDAY

On Home Gridiron In Conference Game

The Wheeler Mustangs will meet the Memphis Cyclones on the home gridiron tomorrow night (Friday) at 8 o'clock. This will be the Cyclones first and Wheeler's second conference game. Both teams have been undefeated.

Sports writers class the Cyclones as one of the best teams in Class B conference this year. Memphis has most of its lettermen back from last year. The Cyclones players average about 160 pounds per man. Their passing attack and running attack are both good. That these huskies are very hard to stop was proved when they beat Paducah, 7-0.

The Mustangs, who are in prime condition and are ready for the battle, average about 155 pounds per men. They are small but make up

Since Coach Clark has put the boys through a week's stiff workout. sport fans will probably see the regular line-up plus Bob Tillman, Shipman and Passons in the line, with Cain and Norman in the backfield.

The probable starting line-up will be: rg, Connor, 37; lg, Sherwood, 35; rt, C. Tillman, 33; lt, Newkirk, 28; re, Whitener, 34; le, Little Weeks, 25; c, Deering, 24; hb, Norman, 31; hb, Cain, 30; fb, Ford, 23; qb, Big Weeks, 36.

CORRAL ASKED TO EXCHANGE

The journalism class received a card this week from the exchange editor of the Hi-Times at Dalhart, Texas, requesting an exchange of papers. "We have enjoyed reading your paper in past years and would like to receive it during the forthcoming year," states the exchange editor.

The Dalhart high and Wheeler high school journalism classes both hold membership in the Panhandle High School Press association.

DR. NICHOLSON PAYS FOR PEP SQUAD BUS FARE

Cheers and exclamations of delight were heard early Thursday morning from the Pep Squad girls as it became known that they would not have to pay to go on the bus to Wellington.

Dr. H. E. Nicholson personally paid the expense of transportation for the 36 Pep Squad girls to the football game at Wellington Thursday night.

"We certainly appreciate what Dr. Nicholson has done for us, as many of the girls could not have gone otherwise," states Miss Frances Alice Clark, sponsor.

Dr. Nicholson also paid for the material and the labor to build the bleachers on the new football field.

W. H. S. Now Owns 28 Caps, Gowns After renting the caps and gowns for the last six years from the Intercollegiate Press company, the Wheeler high school now owns 28 caps and gowns. This year 29 seniors are enrolled. This means that only one cap and gown and white collars for all the girls will have to be rented this year.

MUSTANGS IN WIN OVER SKYROCKETS

Powerful Defensive Line Defeats Wellington 12 to 6 In First Conference Game

Boasting a powerful defensive line, the Mustangs in their first conference game of the season, defeated the Wellington Skyrockets 12-6 last Thursday night at Wellington.

Holding the Skyrockets until the last, the Mustangs overwhelmed their opponents with their running attack. Taking the ball the first quarter, the Mustangs depended on their charging attack and put the pigskin over for the first counter with Cain carrying the ball.

They scored again on the fighting Skyrockets in the last quarter after hard blocking by Newkirk, Connor and Big Ford. Weeks carried the ball over for the second counter. Try for extra point failed each time.

After completing several passes, the Skyrockets placed the ball on the Mustang's 10-yard line. Wheeler was penalized 25 yards, resulting in a touchdown for Wellington. Try for extra point failed.

The Skyrockets penetrated the Mustang's 20-yard line and after a hard struggle put the ball in scoring position on Wheeler's 5-yard line, having four downs in which to make a touchdown. The gallant Mustangs held the Skyrockets for four downs and kept them from scoring.

A crowd of about 500 people, including approximately 150 Wheeler fans, saw the game.

BASKETBALL GIRLS PLAN TO PLAY SPEED BALL

In order to get the high school girls in shape for basketball season, Miss Winona Adams called a meeting at 3:15 o'clock last Friday afternoon for those girls interested in playing speed ball.

The leaders were not elected because only a few girls were present, but the team will be organized soon.

Those present were Mazie Bean, Mary Genthe, Julie Lou Tinney, Wilma Tinney, Gladys Warren, Pauline Schaub, Norma Lou Maxwell, Alvern Hampton, Eugenia Mae Durham, Grace Hicks, Livy Mae Thompson and Laney Mae Tillman.

Speed ball consists of 11 players on each side, a strong ball, and a field similar to a football gridiron. The ball is kicked while on the ground but if it is kicked into the air, it is caught and thrown until one side makes a goal or until it hits the ground again. In counting scores, if the ball is kicked between the goal posts 't counts 3 points and if it is carried over by a girl it counts 2 points. There are four 10-minute guarters with two minutes between each and 10 minutes rest at half. One may call time out three times. The fouls and rules are similar to those of basketball.

Oct. 6 will be senior night and the subject of the sermon will be "The Kickoff." "The Two-Yard Line" will be the subject Oct. 13, and that will be junior night. Sophomore night will be Oct. 20 and Rev. Kirby will preach on "Dirty Players." The last sermon will be on "Team Work." Oct. 27, which will be freshman night.

In addition to the sermon each Sunday night there will be a fiveminute talk by one of the husiness men of Wheeler on "Life and Clean foorts." The speakers will be: Oct. 6, C. G. Miller; Oct. 13, Dr. H. E. Nicholson; Oct. 26, H. M. Wiley, and Oct. 27, T. M. Britt. Sports."

Whole Pressed Cottonseed Cake and Meal

the economical method of feeding cotton products

An Exchange Account

THOSE who did not open an exchange account of seed for meal and cake here last year during our first season, are invited to come in and learn how convenient it is to put seed on deposit, drawing the manufactured products against this account just as they are needed. It's handy, convenient and affords a real service.

CONVENIENT, ECONOMICAL

Farmers of Wheeler county will find at this mill a ready market for their cotton seed and a supply of whole pressed cotton seed cake or meal at all times. The advantages of a convenient home market for raw material and finished products are too numerous to list here. But this company is glad to be in position to serve its patrons in the county and nearby territory. Then, too, those who do not have cottonseed to sell may buy cake and meal here at fair prices always in line with the market.
