THE COUNTY SEAT NEWSPAPER

$32,000 Co. Lateral Road Fund Coming

Word Received Here Yesterday from Congressman Jones—Assures Works Relief

Cheerful news to Wheeler county road boosters, farmers who will use them and relief clients who may obtain work on the projects—not to mention local officials who have been trying hard to provide works relief programs to take care of clients—was received here yesterday in the following telegram from Congressman Jones:

Amarillo, Oct. 9, 1935. County Judge W. O. Puett or C. G. Miller, Wheeler Times, Wheeler, Texas:

Am just in receipt of word from Washington of president's approval for press release this afternoon WPA project, Wheeler county lateral roads, $32,000.00. Understand this project is to be placed on approved list from which state director will make selections. (Signed) MARVIN JONES.

Method of application of this nice sum of money, or just when work will start, is not known at this time. However, local men feel elated that the appropriation has been approved and believe that with the year approach of Nov. 1, by which time efforts are being made to discontinue direct relief in whole or in part, assures early action on works projects.

The above message does not indicate that any of this money will be used on other than lateral or feeder roads of the county. Its arrival will be most timely to use in improving school bus routes and possibly the new extension of rural route one out of Wheeler, mentioned elsewhere.

Hudson and daughter, Gertrude, and Mrs. Oden Hudson, all of Briscoe; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Helton of Allison, and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Worthington of Mobeetie.

County WPA Setup Has New Director

T. K. Brannon, Shamrock, to Supervise Works Projects Throughout Wheeler County

Appointment of T. K. Brannon of Shamrock as project manager for all WPA work in Wheeler county has been announced this week. Brannon had been district supervisor for the resettlement administration, with headquarters in Amarillo and Big Spring for some time. During a recent visit in Shamrock the county post was offered him and he promptly accepted.

Brannon states that two road projects in Wheeler county, one each in precincts 2 and 3, have been approved by the WPA and allotments made. Actual work on these projects will begin as soon as work orders are received, which is expected to be within a short time.

FATHER OF LOCAL FOLKS DIES TUESDAY, AMARILLO

Mrs. John Hood and T. J. Green, both of this city, attended funeral services Wednesday in Amarillo for their father, J. Nathan Green, who passed away the previous afternoon. Besides the Wheeler daughter and son, the widow, Mrs. Ida Mae Green, and three other sons survive. They are G. G. Green, Hearne; R. C. Green, Turkey, and Cecil N. Green, Amarillo.

THE WHEELER TIMES STANDS CORRECTED

That good friend and reader of The Wheeler Times, Jim Hathaway of Mobeetie, calls attention of the paper to a mistake unintentionally made last week in a news story concerning funds raised for premiums on first bales of 1935 cotton. The Times claimed that "Wheeler raised a larger sum than any town in the Panhandle, according to population." For once, at least, the statement was incorrect. Mobeetie this year subscribed $83.25 to Wheeler's $73.50. Mr. Hathaway's complete letter, giving donors names and amounts, will be found on another page of this paper.

The Times thanks Mr. Hathaway for his communication and is glad to make amends. The Times is neither too "big" nor too "little" to acknowledge an error when told of it and to publicly correct a statement that might reflect unfavorably or unfairly upon anyone.

Simply to keep the records straight, it might be added that Wheeler's subscriptions were all in cash, while it is reported that a portion of her sister city's were in services or merchandise.

VARIED WEATHER VISITS SECTION

Accompanied by thunder and lightning (more like April conditions than sedate autumn) scattered showers visited parts of Wheeler county Monday night. Then continuing the unsettled period, fairly heavy rains fell in many sections of the county Tuesday night. The Allison area, however, which has suffered most of the year from lack of rainfall, was again cheated.

A strip of country along the south side of the county, centering in the vicinity of Lela, suffered more than lack of moisture Tuesday night when destructive hail, with some rain, brought severe losses to several farmers.

Up to Monday, for a week or 10 days, delightful autumn weather prevailed. Some days were almost too warm for comfort. A norther forecast for this region last night and today, appears to have missed fire here, much to the gratification of those who have immature grain which they hope will fill out before frost.

WILKINSONS ATTEND RITES FOR FIRE VICTIM RELATIVE

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wilkinson of this city and her mother, Mrs. G. A. Walker of Briscoe, went Monday to Childress, where they attended the funeral Tuesday afternoon of the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Johnson.

The young lady died from burns received when her clothing ignited from an open fire after having done some cleaning with gasoline. She was a cousin of Mrs. Wilkinson.

The Wheeler party returned home late Tuesday afternoon.

MRS. CORA HALL HOSTESS TO LONDON BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Cora Hall was a charming hostess to the London Bridge club Thursday afternoon, Oct. 3, in her home.

Mrs. Glen Porter won high score and Mrs. J. I. Maloy won traveler's prize.

A dainty plate lunch was served to Mesdames A. B. Crump, T. M. Britt, Ed Watson, R. D. Holt, Nelson Porter, Buck Britt, Glen Porter, Roy Puckett, J. I. Maloy, T. S. Puckett, Jim Hyatt and Fred Farmer.

SNORING HONORS FOR WHEELER COUNTY MAN

From Tack's column in the Amarillo News is gleaned the following slightly delayed item concerning a Wheeler citizen sojourning at Brownfield:

"My snoring contest for the grand championship of the Southwest will be held right after the Tri-State fair has been rained out. And here is a letter from J. A. Crum, jr., entering the name of Ed Watson, who he says is the undisputed champion wood sawer of Wheeler county.

"Crum writes that Watson can be heard a block away and that he makes more different noises and can strike more different tunes and can do more blowing, puffing and snorting than a dozen average amateurs."

Thus the fame and name of Wheeler county continues to wax great; if not on one snore then another.

Men In Auto Crash to Face Grand Jury

Following an automobile collision on Highway 66, seven miles west of Shamrock, last Wednesday morning, three men who survived are held by county authorities to appear before the grand jury in the coming November term of district court.

Those arrested are Frank Moore and Lee Thompson, Pampa, and Rex Warren of Shamrock. The former pair are in the county jail here, while Warren is in a Shamrock hospital, suffering from a broken leg and other injuries. Warren is reported to have made bond while the others had not up to a late hour today.

It is said that two charges each have been placed against the trio: that of driving while intoxicated and murder. Bond on the drunken driving charge is fixed at $1,500 each, with an additional $2,500 on the murder charge.

It will be remembered that a Wheeler county young man and a woman from Pampa were killed in the collision, which occurred about 9 o'clock in the morning.

W. T. S. T. C. STUDENTS VISIT HERE; TEACHERS OUT OF TOWN

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore motored Friday afternoon to Canyon to get her daughter, Miss Helen, who is attending W. T. S. T. C. Miss Frances Clark accompanied Mrs. Gilmore and visited her parents, Prof. and Mrs. Wallace R. Clark, until Sunday night. Miss Bernice Addison went as far as Amarillo with Mrs. Gilmore and spent the week end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. O. M. Addison.

Misses Rubye Lee Williams and Barbara Miller, who are attending W. T. S. T. C., came home with Mrs. Gilmore and visited their parents until Sunday, when Prof. and Mrs. Gilmore took the three girls back to Canyon to resume their studies.

Miss Clark returned with them to Wheeler that night, while Miss Addison, who was suffering from a cold, remained with her parents for a day or so longer.

Cotton and Wheat Payments Total Almost $8,000—Checks at Agent's Office

Receipt of 303 checks, totaling $7,786.21, was announced by County Agent Jake Tarter, Wednesday morning of this week. The checks and money are divided between cotton and wheat in the following sums and classification:

Wheat—Last rentals for 1934: 57 checks calling for $2,217.85.

All producers entitled to a share in the money, in each instance, have been notified by the agent's office that their checks are in the office, ready for them.

A. F. & A. M. CERTIFICATE MEN MET SUNDAY IN SHAMROCK

The Wheeler County Certificate Men's club held its regular bi-monthly meeting in Shamrock last Sunday. The Masonic lodge of that city was host to visiting members from Wheeler and Mobeetie as well as local men. The esoteric work was rehearsed several times and at the noon hour the Shamrock members conducted their visitors to a cafe for luncheon, announcing the "sky was the limit."

Next session of the club will again be held in Shamrock on Nov. 24, at which time examinations for certificates will be held in conjunction with the meeting.

MOTORISTS MUST NOT PASS SCHOOL BUS WHEN STOPPED

Because of alleged violations of the law, Supt. J. L. Gilmore of the Wheeler schools, has requested The Times to again call attention of the motoring public to a new law governing traffic in its relation to school buses.

Regulations forbid autos, trucks and motorcycles passing a school bus when it is stopped upon any public road to discharge or take passengers. Operators of such vehicles are advised to wait until the bus is in motion, or to take extreme precaution if for any reason they must pass before it moves on.

Mrs. Matt Clay and family, who have been living in the H. E. Tolliver property on South Main street, moved the last of the week to the C. H. Clay house, first door west of C. J. Meek.

Conciliation Setup Offers Debt Relief

Local and District Committees to Handle Debt-Distressed Farmers' Problems

From the Resettlement administration divisional office, at Lubbock, comes an announcement that farm debt adjustment work has been reorganized and taken over by that administration, and greatly strengthened by recent legislation providing effective legal procedure to meet foreclosure on farms.

Distressed farm home owners of Wheeler county are advised that if in debt distress, a committee of three men, with whom they are personally acquainted, have been appointed by the governor to assist as arbitrators or conciliators.

The committee members are A. B. Crump, chairman; Dick Stanley and Walter Anglin, all of Wheeler. Their office will be with the rural county supervisor, A. Monroe, with headquarters at the county agent's office. Clayton Heare, Shamrock, is conciliation commissioner for this county.

The objective of the whole procedure is to stop wholesale foreclosure of farm homes and to help worthy debt-distressed farmers. Many hundreds of cases have been settled by the procuring of extension of time and composition agreements, and many worthy farmers now in need of this service do not know how to obtain it or do not know that such service is available.

The Resettlement administration has set up a divisional office in Lubbock, Texas, to which distressed farmers may appeal, if in doubt what to do and this divisional office is in charge of a regional F. D. A. specialist, who will maintain an advisory board to give information to both distressed-debtors and attorneys concerning what is commonly known as the Frazier-Lemke Act and the procedure in conciliation commissioner's courts.

Letters addressed to the Divisional Office, Lubbock, will have immediate attention and the case will be referred to the proper parties for settlement.

ELDERLY WHEELER WOMAN TAKES PLANE RIDE DURING VISIT TO SOUTH TEXAS

Mrs. B. J. Smith returned home Friday from South Texas, where she spent two months with her children and grandchildren.

Although Mrs. Smith is past 71 years, she enjoyed an airplane ride over Dallas with her son, W. R. Smith, who lives at Baytown, where he is superintendent of 13 schools in and near that place. She visited her daughters, Mrs. E. K. Waters and husband at Houston, and Mrs. W. E. Hanna and family at Nacogdoches, and visited her son, E. H. Smith and family at Kilgore.

From there she returned to Jones county and visited her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Jestes and family. Her daughter, Mrs. Claude Hiltbrunner of Shamrock, met her in Childress last Wednesday and they returned to the Hiltbrunner home, where Mrs. Smith remained until Friday.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS AT BRISCOE SCHOOL WEDNESDAY

John Peeples, superintendent, reports that physical examinations of students in the Briscoe school were conducted Wednesday of this week. Dr. Paul Zeigler, physician, and Dr. V. R. Jones, optometrist, both of Shamrock, made the tests.

Judge Helton, county superintendent of Hemphill county, and a number of parents and patrons of the school were present for the examinations.

ROGERS BOY BITTEN BY GROUND RATTLER

J. B. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, who live east of Wheeler, was bitten by a ground rattlesnake Wednesday afternoon. He was brought immediately to Wheeler, where anti-venom treatment was given. He was improving nicely today and apparently out of danger.

Good Calves Shown

Pete Morgan brought a pair of choice young calves to town Tuesday for the purpose of obtaining their correct weights.

One of them belonged to Morgan, who expects to show it against open competition at the Dallas Livestock show. The youngster, a steer, was calved May 2, and weighs 435 pounds. It is from the Morgan herd and is an exceptionally promising individual. Pete Morgan knows his calves, having been in 4-H club work, where he made outstanding records. Now since he has "grown up" he is looking for new worlds to conquer.

The other calf is the property of Leroy Lamb, 4-H club member, and is a calf club specimen showing fine possibilities as a future winner. The animal, calved March 28, weighs 520 pounds.

COTTON OIL MILL INTO PRODUCTION

Beginning Tuesday night of this week, the Wheeler Cotton Oil Mill, a home-owned Wheeler institution featuring whole pressed cotton seed cake and meal, opened production for the 1935-36 season. With its recently-added storage space for seed and finished goods, together with other improvements and promise for a fair cotton yield in this region, prospects appear bright for a successful run.

G. O. McCrohan, manager of the enterprise, declares that local demands are absorbing the cake and meal as fast as it can be made at present. Inquiries have already been received from considerable distances—as far as Kansas City—in regard to obtaining products of the mill. It is the intention of the management to fill nearby orders first. If a residue then remains more distant fields will be considered.

CROPS DISPLAY WINDOW ATTRACTS MUCH NOTICE

A display of farm crops—grains, vegetables and fruits—in the window at The Times office probably attracts as much attention as any showcase in town. Many people stop to look—some in surprise, some in wonder, and some almost in doubt that Wheeler county can and does produce such specimens.

Among the exhibits is an Arkansas Black apple, grown on the W. W. Underwood farm, 1 3/4 miles northwest of town. The fruit measures 13 1/2 inches around and weighs 18 ounces. Some local orchardists were almost inclined to cast aspersions upon Mrs. Underwood's statement concerning the variety (because of its light green color) until it was learned that the apple grew low on the tree and Mrs. Underwood protected it with paper sacks from possible raids by chickens. Since being exposed to the light, some color is appearing on the apple.

Gus Dowdy, living half a mile north of Wheeler, brought in Friday a cluster of six fine sweet potatoes, found in one hill.

J. C. Crofford, residing three miles northwest, brought to the office Saturday a sample of Bloody Butcher corn grown on his place. The ear measures 12 inches in length and contains 12 rows of kernels.

F. D. Ferguson, farming west of town, contributed some fine heads of red dwarf maize and a sample of white dwarf, bringing the grain in Saturday.

Today, Homer Jones, three miles northeast of town, sent in a "golly-whopper" yellow yam sweet potato. The tuber measures 19 inches in circumference and is globe shaped.

To add a little variety to the exhibit and afford a view of fruit alien to the plains country, Mrs. J. R. Cooper contributed a trio of green oranges, brought from Santa Ana, Calif., by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baird who came last week for a visit with Mrs. Baird's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooper.

Lee Guthrie left Wednesday for Oklahoma City to attend to some business. His brother, Lamar Guthrie of Tipton, Okla., joined him at Clinton, Okla.

Large Extension to Local Rural Route

Addition of 26 Miles, Serving 100 Families, Effective Nov. 1

—Boxes Necessary

Beginning Friday, Nov. 1, an addition of 26 miles to rural route No. 1 out of Wheeler will become effective. The extension will serve approximately 100 families living in an area west of the city. Dick Guynes, carrier on route one in its present form, will bring free mail delivery to a group of farm folk, some of whom live eight miles from the postoffice and who frequently do not now receive their mail oftener than once a week.

Heretofore the carrier has left Wheeler in a south and easterly direction, returning from the east and north. Under the new arrangement, he will travel north and east, reversing the course. On his return, and at a point one mile south of town, he will start on the extension, traveling a mile south, one west, one north, one west, one north, two west, one south, four west, two north, five east, two north, two east, three south and then a mile east into Wheeler. A few patrons on the new route are served now by Mobeetie star route, but will be transferred.

This is a service long sought by the local postoffice and one which Postmaster Chester Lewis is anxious to see in operation. In that connection, however, he mentions certain requirements concerning mail boxes which patrons must meet.

Regulations do not compel each family to have a box, declares the postmaster. A maximum of five families may receive mail in the same box, provided the head of each family signs an agreement to use a communal box. These agreements must be executed and boxes erected by Oct. 14. On that date Lewis will make an inspection trip over the route and report conditions to the postoffice department.

"It is imperative that the above requirements be complied with if the extension is to become effective," declares the postmaster. Co-operation of all prospective patrons is requested in order that the plan may be put into smooth working order without delay.

A side issue of the proposition is contained in a petition now before the department asking a special extension of the new route five miles south from its nearest point to Magic City for the purpose of picking up a locked pouch for Wheeler at the time a similar container is delivered from here.

This would provide direct mail dispatch between Magic City and Wheeler, greatly facilitating transmission of mail matter. Leaving here on his trip some time before noon, the carrier would reach Magic between 2 and 2:30 p. m. with mail from Wheeler. Taking up the pouch and completing his route, mail from that town would reach the local postoffice by mid-afternoon.

At present, all mail communication between the two towns is by way of Shamrock, requiring two days to reach its destination. It is believed that should this request be granted, much benefit and certainly greater convenience would result to both Wheeler and Magic City.

Taxpayers May Use Discount Payments

Plan Suggested to Effect Saving Should Pending Law Be Held Valid

Pending decision of the state supreme court on the validity of the new discount law, John Templeton, Wheeler county tax assessor-collector, has announced a plan whereby local taxpayers may take full advantage of the discounts in the event the law is upheld.

Taxpayers are advised to go to the collector's office and offer to pay their taxes on the discount basis. Templeton must refuse to accept the money but will make a notation of the person's name. In case the law is later held valid those property owners who tendered payment may take advantage of the discount by immediately paying Templeton the money less the discount. It is necessary that the money must be previously tendered in order to obtain the discount.

The discount is three per cent on taxes paid in October, two per cent if paid in November and one per cent if paid in December.

Coy Hix, who has been clerking at the Corner Grocery store, has accepted a job as truck driver for the Dilley bakery at Pampa. He started to work Monday.

HELP YOUR NEIGHBOR AND YOURSELF

Many people who are not actually in the retail business themselves think that it is of no concern to their own pocketbooks as to where they buy their merchandise. There was never a greater fallacy.

The man who goes to another town to spend his money is telling it goodbye. It takes a tremendous bargain to make up for what he loses in other ways, and a study of newspapers from this entire section show that the prices on the same quality merchandise are uniformly on the same level in the various towns.

The man who spends his money out of his home community impoverishes himself in that he helps to reduce the total wealth of his community, thereby increasing the tax burden that he must bear. He helps impoverish the schools which educate his children by helping destroy some of the resources from which the school derives its support. He penalizes himself by retarding the development of his own town while helping another town in which he has no direct interest.

This year, as never before in recent years, there is a profit to be made by trading at home. Stocks are full. The shelves are crowded, and the values are the greatest that have been offered in years. Help yourself by trading at home.

TRUCKSTER PEDDLERS

The custom of allowing trucksters to operate curbstone produce markets in Wheeler should be discontinued. These street corner merchants should be made to pay taxes for the support of our schools, county, state and city governments or get out. They come in with produce purchased from producers and wholesale truck dealers and open up their street corner stores, going into competition with the home town merchant who is here every day in the year, paying taxes, supporting the churches and schools and donating to every subscription list that is passed around.

What does the street corner truckster peddler give to this community? Nothing! He is here to get what he can and then move on to some other field. It is not fair to the local merchant to allow such competition.

It is all right for the local producer to be allowed to sell his farm, garden and orchard products on the streets; but for the others, we believe they should be compelled to pay liberal taxes, just like other business enterprises, or get out.

THE FOOD DOLLAR

It is encouraging news that the United States Department of Agriculture is beginning to concentrate on efforts to reduce the cost of distribution of food products. A great deal of effort has been spent, aimed at getting higher prices for the growers and producers of food, and too little attention has been given in the past to serious efforts to reduce the spread between what the producer gets and what the consumer pays.

A recent report in Washington indicates that farmers are now getting a higher proportion of the food dollar spent by the consumer than at any time in recent years. According to these federal statistics, in June, 1932, the farmer got only about 31 cents out of each dollar spent by the consumer for the ten basic food stuffs. In August, 1935, the farmer's share of the food dollar was 45 cents. The ten foods included in these computations are: Beef, pork, poultry, butter, peas, potatoes, flour, bread, eggs and milk. Retail prices of pork and eggs have gone up recently, but the prices of dairy products and potatoes have gone down.

Distribution costs have been steadily rising for nearly 20 years. In May, 1917, the processors, distributors and other handlers of food received only about one-third of each dollar spent by consumers, as against more than two-thirds in 1932. But since 1932 the tendency of distribution costs has been downward.

There seems to be some ground for hope that the cost of living to the buyers of foods may be reduced, without cutting down unduly the prices received by producers. This can only be accomplished by cutting distribution costs. The effort of the government toward that end is certainly highly commendable.

GRAFT AND GRIEF

While Texas appears headed inevitably toward the adoption of a sales tax to meet its heavily-increased tax load, reports from other states indicate the novelty of the sales tax has gone and in its place has come the graft and grief that are inevitable in the collection of the tax, administration of the law.

The sales tax plan is a pretty dream that turns into a nightmare, the reports have it. It will be easy to adopt, and mighty hard to be rid of.—Floyd County Hesperian.

WHO OWES YOU A LIVING?

Millions of people are being educated in our country today to believe that someone owes them a living. The laws of nature do not seem to recognize this doctrine. Just go out into primitive country and see who owes a living—you will soon find that your existence depends on your ingenuity and initiative.

Governments were organized to go nature one better and make it a little easier to live and to take care of the helpless whom nature would otherwise unceremoniously remove. But today millions of perfectly healthy, able-bodied people are being taught to loaf at the expense of others, instead of to rustle for themselves.

Such a system can endure only so long as there are stored-up savings to confiscate, then the inexorable laws of nature will prevail. An epidemic of pests completely devours a tree or a field of grain, and then the pests die. Nature does not owe them a living.

The same thing can happen to governments and to the human beings who make the governments—if they eat up their capital to maintain idleness, they will eventually find that nature refuses to hear their demands that "someone owes them a living."

This may not be a pleasant-sounding philosophy, but it is a fact which honey-coated, political cure-alls try to hide.—Clarendon News.

Wheat allotment checks totaling $137,613.20 are being distributed this week to Ochiltree county farmers, received Tuesday as a partial payment of the $475,600.00 due on 1934-35 contracts. The checks received are all on 1935 contracts, none of the 1934 checks being received although acceptance totaling $298,808.49 were received last week end. Drinking at football games is a thing of the past in Wellington, according to notices from the sheriff's office today, which said the campaign would also include fighting—and violation of either would result in arrest and the jail house for offenders. Specific action followed numerous protests that drinking and fighting were ruining the crowds at the game, and peace officers said that they were issuing the advance warning in an attempt to eliminate drinking and fighting without taking the extreme measure of arresting violators—arrest being the inevitable course.—Wellington Leader.

A bond election is to be called in the near future for the purpose of asking the patrons of the school to vote the 55 per cent of the amounts to be expended. "I am so proud of my ribbons, and I'll do better than that next year," said Wanda Creekmore of the Wheeler 4-H club, when she made a visit to the home agent's office to receive her three third place ribbons from the county fair.

She continued: "I'll begin on time for next year and work all the way through. I did not join the club until July this year, but I had planted tomatoes, cucumbers, cantaloupes and peas in my garden. I have canned 9 quarts cucumbers, 2 quarts peas, 4 quarts grapes, 2 quarts apple jelly, 1 1/2 quarts grape jelly, 1 pint grape jam, 1 quart peaches, 1 quart peas, and dried 4 pounds apples. The value is $5.28. For my fair exhibit I made a school dress, slip, apron, cup towel and hand towel."

4-H Club Notes

HALLOWE'EN POEMS

(Written by pupils in the third grade, Mountain View school)

On Hallowe'en night
The moon is bright
And the Witch's hat is black
She goes a sailing to the sky
And then comes sailing back!
—NADINE HENDERSON.

Look at the pumpkin yellow
Asmiling on the wall!
He's such a jolly fellow—
He smiles upon us all!
—BILL BAILEY.

Oh, Jack-o'-Lantern, looking at me!
Why do you blink your eyes?
Say ole fellow, wait and see.
You'll be made into pies!
—BILLIE LOU TRIMBLE.

On Hallowe'en night
The moon shines bright;
It shines on hooting owls
It shines on goblins, girls and boys
On a big, black cat that prowls.
—DOROTHY FAYE PUGH.

Go To It, Vicar

A kind-hearted English vicar one day observed an old woman laboriously pushing a perambulator up a steep hill. He volunteered his assistance, and when they reached the top of the hill said, in answer to her thanks:

"Oh, it's nothing at all. I'm delighted to do it. But as a little reward, may I kiss the baby?"
"Baby, Lor' bless you, sir," she returned, "it ain't no baby, it's the old man's beer."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wheeler County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Jane Warren by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Wheeler County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Wheeler, Texas, on the 2nd Monday in November A. D. 1935, the same being the 11th day of November A. D. 1935, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of October A. D. 1935, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2609, wherein W. D. Warren is Plaintiff, and Jane Warren is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

That plaintiff was married to defendant, then a single woman, by the name of Jane Easley, in Clovis, New Mexico, on the 8th day of May, A. D. 1934 and lived with her as man and wife until November 21, 1934. During such period defendant was guilty of excessive cruel treatment and outrages, consisting of cursing, fighting, and abusing plaintiff, spending most every night away from home and plaintiff and on such occasions coming home intoxicated, which cruel treatment is of such a nature as to render their further living together insupportable, a divorce and cost of suit being prayed for.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Wheeler, Texas, on this 10th day of October A. D. 1935.

Form Choral Clubs for Boys and Girls

Main Object of Organizations Is Enjoyment of Participants —Also Entertainment

"The main object of group singing is to give enjoyment to the students participating in it. However, the entertaining of other people and their appreciation of the choral groups' singing is important to the success of the choruses," states Miss Frances Clark, instructor of public school music.

Choral groups for girls and boys are being organized under the supervision of Miss Clark. The girls' chorus meets on Mondays and Thursdays at 8:30, while the boys meet Tuesdays and Fridays at the same hour.

The present enrollment of girls comprises:

Ruth Faye Garrison, Jackie St. Clair, Mary Etta Patterson, Cosette Crofford, Imogene Jamison, Helena Jones, Dorothy Lee Burke, Lilla Mae Crofford, Nerine Young, Ruth Barr, Lula Barr, Jonnie Faye Templeton, Orveta Puett, Bonnie Adams, Martha Jane Shipman, Martha Alice Wiley, Verna Greenhouse, Wilma Riley, Naomi Johnson, Viola Lamb, Eloise Smart, Ruth Coward, Ruth Foust, Rutha Mae Conner, Caroline McBee, Dorothy Tolliver, Laney Mae Tillman, Mildred Coward, Beatrice Miller and Elva Willard.

PUPILS OF MRS. E. W. CARTER GIVE RECITAL TUESDAY NIGHT

Tuesday night at the Baptist church Mrs. E. W. Carter gave a recital. Those taking part in the program were members of the P.-T. A. and school students.

There were three parts in the program. In part I Basil Brazil, Joy Marie Carter, Billy Cosper, W. E. Pennington and Lombre Brazil played the piano and Rev. Taft Holloway sang "Song of the Pines," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carter.

Oil copies were shown by Jack Murphy, Lula Barr, Arlie Ruth Waters and Lavelle Jaco in part II.

Delilah Montgomery, Ruth Barr, Mrs. Bill Perrin, Jack Guynes and Helen Flynt played the piano and Ruth and Lula Barr played a duet in part III.

SHAMROCK'S GETTYSBURG

Four downs and seven yards to go our football players brought forth on this field a new football, conceived in white paint and dedicated to the proposition that all players are created to make a touchdown.

Now we are engaged in a great game, testing whether this team, or any team so good and so full of pep, can long endure. We are gathered here on the field of the Shamrock-Wheeler struggle. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for the Irishmen who here died that Wheeler might win. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should show them this courtesy.

It is for us, the Mustangs, rather to be dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that of being conference winners; that from these dead Irishmen we take increased honor to that cause for which they gave their last breath; that we here highly resolve these dead did die in vain; that this school under Coach Clark shall hang up a new conference record; and that victory of the Mustangs, by the Mustangs, and for the Mustangs shall not vanish from Wheeler high school.

Public School Music Attracting Students

Meeting a long felt need, the new course in public school music is attracting a large percentage of the high school students this year. Miss Frances Alice Clark, the instructor, received her B. S. degree from W. T. S. T. C., Canyon, this past June. Miss Clark took four years of private piano lessons in college, and she also studied three months this summer in Los Angeles, Calif.

Of the 161 students studying music, 60 are high school students and 101 are enrolled in the grammar grades. They are being taught singing, rhythm, and note values in order to prepare them for sight singing.

At the end of the year Miss Clark expects the students to be able to sing intelligently and to know good music when they hear it. She plans to organize a Glee club for the boys and girls who are taking music.

"The value of music to the high school student is that they can get more pleasure out of their school life and give more people pleasure out of life by being able to play good music," she said.

Almost all of the students grasp the lessons easily, according to the instructor.

The pupils are required to keep notebooks and each has to make a report every Monday morning on a noted musician or some phase of music.

MUSTANGS BOAST MANY LETTERMEN

Among the 36 boys on the Mustang squad, Wheeler high can boast eight lettermen back from last year. These horses have played hard and faithfully and have won and held positions that it took real grit to keep.

Some of the boys are seniors and some are sophomores but all will be long remembered as the fighting Mustangs of 1934 and 1935.

One of the lettermen is Clifford Tillman, commonly known to all his friends as "Tillie." This is Tillie's last year of football at Wheeler high. He has made himself a reputation as star tackle. This is Tillman's third year playing football here. He weighs 175 pounds and is about six feet tall. He has filled the position of both tackle and end.

Another one of our lettermen is Ford Newkirk. Ford has lettered three years here at Wheeler high school. Newkirk has filled various positions on the team. He has played guard and is now successfully holding the tackle position. This is Newkirk's last year. He weighs 160 pounds.

O. D. Connor is one of the Mustang's star guards. Connor has seen service on the squad for two years. He has two more years of football yet. Connor weighs 179 pounds and is about five feet, eight inches tall.

Cecil Sherwood, right guard, is another wild horse that is playing his last year. Cecil will graduate this year. Wheeler high will be very lucky if they can get another guard to fill Sherwood's place next year as he has filled it last year and this.

This is Alton Week's second year playing football for the Mustangs. Alton is small but he makes up for it in speed and quickness. He weighs 145 pounds. He has two more years to play end for the Mustangs.

Curtis Weeks is an outstanding player for the Mustangs. He has filled the position of quarterback for two years. This is his last year. Weeks was captain of the Mustangs last year. He weighs about 150 pounds.

H. E. Young, a junior, was one of the outstanding backfield men. He is small but fast. He weighs 140 pounds.

Lowery Deering, captain of the Mustangs, is an outstanding player. He weighs 165 pounds. He is holding the position of center for the second consecutive year. Deering is playing his last year.

Freshman Class Elect Officers

The freshman class met Tuesday to organize and elect their officers for the coming year.

Hubert Sims was chosen president, Gerald Robison, vice president, and Earl Gilmore, secretary-treasurer. Miss Lois Kirby was elected sponsor.

Fire Hazard Study Might Be Valuable

Annual Prevention Week Now On Commemorating Chicago Blaze of 1871

The observation of fire prevention week, Oct. 6 to 12, should not mean an orgy of boring lectures, lengthy radio talks or tiring fire drills, but a study of the causes of the majority of fires might prove valuable.

Fire prevention week is observed because of the memorable Chicago fire Oct. 8, 1871, which destroyed almost all of the city. Beginning at a little before 9 o'clock on Sunday evening, Oct. 8, in a small barn on the west side, the fire spread over three sections of the city and was not extinguished until Monday night, Oct. 9, when a most welcome rain fell. About 2,024 acres of land was burned over and property damage estimated at $187,000,000.

Thousands of people are cremated each year due to someone's carelessness. Oily rags, faulty wiring, stray matches and rubbish are all dangerous fire hazards. Each student might set himself the task of seeing that all trash, especially of inflammable nature, around his home is destroyed. Inspection of house wiring by an electrician would lessen the likelihood of combustion on that score. A special container for matches would eliminate stray ones being found by mice.

Fire drills in the schools are for the protection of the individual pupil. Order in quitting a burning building is absolutely necessary if there is to be a chance for all of the students to get safely out.

If attention were given these few simple precautions the proportion of fires in the community would be lowered, insurance rates would be reduced and Wheeler would be a safer town to live in.

EQUIPMENT ARRIVES THURSDAY FOR HOME ECONOMICS COTTAGE

New equipment for the home economics cottage, which was purchased by the school board, arrived last Thursday. Twelve new Hoosier cabinets were bought for the cooking department. The lower parts of the cabinets are green while the upper parts are cream. Twelve new spice jar sets were received by the home economics girls. One set, which contains four small glass jars and two large ones, has been placed on each cabinet. There will be two girls working at each cabinet.

Six new sinks arrived about two weeks ago. When all the equipment has been installed two of the sinks will be placed in each row of cabinets.

RING INSIGNIA IS CHOSEN

A standard insignia has been selected as a form of unity for the rings of the next four graduating classes of Wheeler high school.

Formerly senior rings have had no distinctive feature, other than the name, associating them with Wheeler. The emblems on the rings of the various ex-seniors range from ship designs, black or gold predominating, class mottos worked out, or what have you.

The design for the new rings, which is in the form of a shield, will have the traditional lamp of knowledge as well as the head of a Mustang, which represents the sports of the school. A lone star and Wheeler H. S. in raised letters completes the motif.

Uniform ring emblems are used in larger schools. It is likely the idea will appeal strongly to the graduating classes that follow this year's freshmen and they will adopt the plan.

LEAVE HIM ALONE, GIRLS

It has become quite the fashion for the girls of Wheeler high school to "run after the boys" (if you will pardon the expression.) Until now it doesn't seem to have accomplished much. The only thing it has done is to make some of the boys a little nervous.

Coach Clark has expressed his wishes that the girls would "lay off" the football boys, at least. They find it hard to get to football practice on time because of the attentions showered upon them.

Seriously though, girls, there isn't any reason for all this foolishness. If a boy likes you he doesn't have to be reminded of it every few minutes. They don't really appreciate it like you would think they should, even if they do appear to be enjoying it. Those girls who practice this art (if it may be called such) are in danger of becoming conspicuous. Why not drop the whole thing before it becomes a habit that will be hard to dispose of.

Superintendents, Principals Meet

The superintendents and principals of Wheeler county met at the Lewis cafe last Thursday night to discuss plans for this year. The most important question for discussion was the Inter-scholastic League meet. Other meetings will be held to further their knowledge as to the meet. After the meeting was over refreshments were served.

HISTORY CLUB CONSTITUTION FRAMED AT FIRST MEETING

Robert Mayne and Miss Winona Adams have organized a History club for History II and III students. The meeting was held last Thursday night at 8 o'clock in Miss Winona Adams' room. The purpose of the meeting was to draw up the constitution and by-laws of the History club. Those attending the meeting were J. B. Reynolds, Lavell Jacob, Mazie Bean, Laney Mae Tillman, Dawn Weatherly and Jonnie Faye Templeton.

Mr. Mayne urges history students who have not yet joined the organization to be present at the next meeting.

Students Are Seated in Study Hall

Friday morning at 9 o'clock the juniors, sophomores and freshmen were seated alphabetically. The seniors were seated Thursday morning.

As last year, the seniors were allowed their choice of any row of seats in the study hall. They decided on the row of double seats at the right of the room and were also seated alphabetically. As there was not enough seniors to fill all the seats on that row, some of the other students were seated there. The students will be re-seated at mid-term.

A Sophomore's Plea

(Apologies to Joyce Kilmer)

I think that I shall never see,
 The day when I'll a senior be;
 A senior with his head held high
 Who jeers at "fishes" passing by;
 A senior proud and dignified,
 Who for his classes needs no guide;
 Upon whose countenance "sophies" gaze,
 And humbly adore his haughty ways.
 This plea I make: that I may see
 The day when I'll a senior be.

Today is the tomorrow you worried about yesterday—and all is well.

I humbly bid a-que,
 kind friends a-que.

NEWSPAPERS ARE LIKE WOMEN

Because they have form.
 Because they have a bold face type.
 Because they always have the last word.
 Because back numbers are not in demand.
 Because they have a great deal of influence.
 Because they are well worth looking over.
 Because you can't believe everything they say.
 Because they carry the news wherever they go.

CAMPAIGN FOR WHEELER TIMES SUBSCRIPTIONS HAS STARTED

Members of the journalism class have begun a campaign to increase the subscription list to The Wheeler Times. Each member of the class has been appointed as a committee of one to get more subscriptions.

C. G. Miller, editor of The Wheeler Times, has very kindly agreed to give the students one-third of the money taken in. The money that the class makes will be used to pay the dues of the organizations to which they belong. The journalism class are members of the Panhandle High School Press association and Texas High School Press association.

FROM OTHER BRANDING IRONS

The Perryton high school publication, El Sombero, says that—
 You can always tell a senior
 For he's so sedately gowned;
 You can always tell a junior
 By the way he jumps around.

You can always tell a freshman
 By his baby looks and such;
 You can always tell a sophomore—
 But you can't tell him much.
 The pep squad girls of Canyon high school have received their new purple uniforms. The sweaters are shirt-waist style and have a pocket bearing letters of C. H. S. in white, while the purple skirts are made perfectly plain with a pleat on each side. Mrs. Lee Foster, pep squad sponsor, was given a uniform by the pep squad girls like the girls' uniforms with the word sponsor on the sleeve of the sweater. The girls of the white pep squad received their suits a few days earlier.

The McLean Tigers completely smothered the Mobeetie Hornets in their first conference game of the season, and the score was 58-6. (Ahem! so did we—maybe not so much—but anyway we beat those Hornets, too.)

Pictures of the White Deer bands were taken Wednesday for the School Musician, a magazine that is subscribed to by almost all bands in the United States, states the Buck's Tale, of White Deer.

New equipment has been added to the Hereford high school; chairs for the laboratory, mops for the rooms and a new cushion for Mr. Hudson's (the principal's) office chair. Now if a new cushion appears in our principal's office we'll know he read the exchanges this week.

My, my, Lefors has a flooded football field—but wait—not with lights but with water. Of course this is to aid the growth of grass.

Fire drills take place at least twice every month in Clarendon high school and college. When the gong in the main hall is rung three times, it means that everyone in the building, including college students and teachers, are to leave the building quickly, but orderly. As soon as everyone is out of the building, the gong will be sounded twice as a signal to return to classes. Wonder what would happen to Wheeler students if the buildings should catch fire; we have no particular way of getting out?

The Miami Tom-Tom states that the high school Glee club was organized Tuesday. (I wish we had a Gleg club).

The Wampus Cat

(With Apologies to Odd)

The Spanish club initiation was a peck of fun. It seemed that a few of the supposedly dignified members of a year or two standing just had to jump rope to run down their excess energy. Several compliments were given the punch a la ginger ale concocted by some girls of the organization.

Now that the World Series baseball games have ended, an interesting luncheon program has ceased as well.

Permanent waves are running riot at school among the boys. Well, men, more curls to you. . . The location of the library is quite convenient for students having lots of reference work to do.

"Home on the Range," "Ole Faithful," and "Roll Along Covered Wagon," are among my favorite "local color" songs. . . Recent surveys show that over a million letters are mailed in the United States every hour.

One of the most terrible examples of reckless driving is a woman at work with a hammer and some nails.

The wristlets and pins being ordered by the junior class have an extremely attractive design.

It won't be long until the seniors and juniors flaunt their "joilry" around in the faces of the poor "Sophies" and "Fish." Wonder what they'll think up to combat it with, or will they, with a disdainful air and nonchalant swagger, continue the pursuit of their studies unconcerned.

Never put off till tomorrow what someone will do for you today.

The Dallas News has just celebrated its fiftieth birthday—will The Corral ever pass the half-century mark?

Believe it or not, Robert L. Ripley has joined the ether actors clan. Ed Wynn's manager wants $7,500 a broadcast for the comedian.

A new fad has started among the younger set of our fair city, that of running over to Elk City, Okla., for a Saturday night preview. First it was Shamrock and Canadian, then Pampa before very long. I predict it will be Amarillo next for an evening's entertainment and back at the crack of dawn. . . Oh, well, anything new for diversion.

CURLS CAUSE COMMOTION

Curls, curls—but mostly friz—'cause the boys are "taking-to" permanents. Can you beat it? Yes, there are several boys in our school who seem to like the girls' way of helping out nature. Quite often one will see a boy's finger nails painted a vivid red or perhaps his lips slightly crimson. Now this is no longer news, but when these fellows begin getting permanents—well, anyway, it made something more to write about. "Holy Mackerel"—what next?

SPARKS FROM THE CAMPFIRE

Caught in
The Lasso's Noose

My goodness! Have you seen Coach Bob Clark's desk in the office? You should take a peep at it. He must be trying to be the doctor for the school from the looks of the bottles of liniment and alcohol on his desk along with the supply of gauze, tape and cotton. Not only the football boys go there but almost all the grammar school and, believe it or not, some of the high school students go there with a small scratch. Come on, students, let's give him all our trade.

"Studying is only play,"
Teacher said the other day.
If they're going to talk that way,
Then I never want to play.

The Briscoe Broncos report that Georgia Cain gets a letter from Wheeler every week.

P.S.—It seems that Curtis Weeks accidentally pulled from a pocket a letter bearing a Briscoe postmark one day not long ago.

Wallace Pendleton ran around the other day with a hair net over his head. Do you suppose he is advertising the Perryman Beauty Shop, also?

Lavell has added a new word to her vocabulary; she can't forget the expression "matriculate." (She learned it in History club meeting Thursday night).

Well, maybe now the study hall will be quieter since those talkative junior girls have been separated.

Students who were eating lunch in the study hall Tuesday seemed to be keeping time to the music nicely. Joe Forrest was entertaining the group by playing his French harp.

Earl Gilmore (in a surprised tone): "Mother, I can taste the meat in my hamburger."

"A pretty official" instead of petty official and "royal powder" instead of royal power were some phrases found in the students test papers the other day.

Wonder why Miss Addison wrote a check for .03 instead of $3 to send to the Golden Boow instead of Golden Book.

I heard that Harry is getting to be a ladies man. The other day he wanted some of the boys to introduce him to the new blond haired girl.

There is a little girl who wants to change her name.
I wonder if for greater fame?
No, that can't be the blame,
Because his name is Lewis Cain.

I ask you:
Is Wheeler high to blame
If they have a teacher by the name
(The good-looking) Mr. Mayne?

Farrell seemed to be very popular Thursday night—At any rate he escorted four young ladies home after the Spanish club meeting.

Punch is certainly good if it has a bottle or two of ginger ale in it. The Spanish club members think so after sampling a mug or two of the drinks at initiation last week.

Mrs. Gilmore says that when J. B. Reynolds does some manual labor that she will have Mr. Gilmore to turn out school so that the Spanish I class may watch him.

LAND HO!

443 years ago Saturday a small group of bearded Spaniards leaped out of the Santa Maria on the shores of what is now known as San Salvador.

Although they sailed for weeks and weeks and did not see land, Columbus never became discouraged. Finally after two months passed, signs of land began to appear.

One morning the sunlight revealed a beautiful island. Beyond its white sandy beach Columbus saw grass and tall palm trees surrounding a sparkling lake. Strange red-skinned people with their bodies painted in bright colors came crowding to the shores, jabbering excitedly to each other.

Of course Columbus was dressed in his finest clothes, and as he stepped out on shore he knelt and returned thanks to God. He then raised the flag of Spain and claimed the country for King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella.

Columbus sailed in three vessels but one was wrecked on the journey homeward. It took Columbus seven months and 12 days to make this fearful voyage.

Sims Sees Circus

"Gee! I surely would like to be in a circus.

"I bet they would let you water the elephants if you wanted to and feed the lions and you could watch the little monkeys play all the time.

"You would have to be very, very careful though and not let the lions, or tigers or bears get you—or even papa.

"I wonder how it would really feel to be in a great big circus?"

For further information see John Sims. He tried it once.

SAGE BLOOMS

"Hi, there, Willie. I have the funniest thing to tell you.

"Yesterday my brother, Henry, came home from college; and he met a girl on the train he says he's in love with. Ha! ha! He talks like a grown person; says he want to marry her. You know he thinks he's pretty important because he is a sophomore in college. But that girl; he says she is a peach. She came into the dining car while Henry was there and sat at the same table with him. You know, I bet he felt like he was pretty good looking because she chose to sit at the same table with him.

"He says they talked about everything except marriage, but he could not get up courage enough to ask her about that. And she did the funniest thing! When she gave Henry her address, (he begged her for it) she didn't even put the street number of the town she lived in. She just wrote: Mary Smith, Chicago, on the card.

"When we met Henry at the train he was the worst looking thing you ever saw! He was kind of pale looking, and he was saying over and over to himself, 'I've lost her! I've lost her!'"

BITS OF EARLY-DAY HISTORY ABOUT TEXAS

(This is one of a series of articles taken from the Bexar archives at the University of Texas. This collection, considered the greatest single historical treasure on the North American continent, has been catalogued and is now being translated by the university and supplied to the press for publication).

SERIES I, NO. 39

Approval of the general public was not unanimously given to the action of the United States in signing a treaty with Spain on Feb. 22, 1819, which set the boundary between the United States and the Spanish province of Texas at the Sabine River. Although the treaty was ratified by both nations, many Americans were dissatisfied with it because they felt the United States should not have given up whatever right she had to Texas.

Soon after the treaty was ratified, American dissatisfaction was voiced in the form of a mass meeting held in Natchez. A company of volunteers was raised for the invasion of Texas, and the command of it was given to Dr. James Long, formerly of Maury county, Tenn. On June 17, Dr. Long set out with about 75 men. He captured Nacogdoches without opposition and swelled his troops to 300 men.

The ever watchful eye of the Spanish consul at New Orleans took note of these preparations, and sent a report to the viceroy. An original copy of the report, dated July 16, 1819, is found in the Archives of the University of Texas. Translation of parts of this report reads as follows:

"Most Excellent Sir:

"Your Excellency will see by the enclosed reports that an expedition of large proportion is being planned to invade the province of Texas and the rest of that kingdom. The first wave of this movement, composed of over three hundred men, has already crossed the Sabine, and it is growing daily by the addition of recruits from these states. To these must be added a group of dissatisfied Spaniards under the command of the rebel Bernardo Gutierrez, who is at present near Nacogdoches. The expedition is to be commanded by an American named Jayme Lond (James Long), formerly a surgeon, later an officer in the United States army, and now with the self-conferred title of general. He has given up a large estate near Natchez. Many people from this country are favoring this undertaking.

"I have reason to believe that the expedition will not only be supported by the government, but it will also receive supplies from the United States. This government has always supported this rebellious scum in spite of law and in violation of the principles of good faith whenever it has suited its egotism and plans. It is also probable that Lallemand, the French general, along with his followers, may join them. By the latter part of this year they expect to have on the banks of the Rio Grande a body of not less than 3,000 men.

"The newspapers of this city—copies of which I am enclosing—shamelessly write of this scandalous expedition, which has been planned and organized within the jurisdiction of the United States. Such is the shamelessness with which the whole matter is being conducted that one is led to believe that the negligence of the United States troops stationed in Natchitoches is due to express orders issued by their cabinet, which is fearful of the ratification of the Treaty of Feb. 22, 1819, which defines the boundaries.

"We have positive information to the effect that the number of adventurers is constantly growing in Galveston and on the Trinity River. Those on the Trinity may be considered the vanguard of the expedition which has crossed the Sabine. As long as they have communication with the pirates in Galveston, they will be able to obtain the necessary food, supplies, and ammunition, transporting them to the most convenient points for the progress of the expedition. I am firmly convinced that this expedition is the most serious that has ever threatened this kingdom. This movement is headed by men of means who are much better equipped and have greater executive ability than those leading previous invasions. Therefore, I have deemed it my duty to report this matter to Your Excellency.

"May God guard Your Excellency many years."

The fears of the consul were partly realized. Dr. Long established his headquarters in Nacogdoches. There he organized a republican form of government, and proclaimed Texas a free and independent republic. He secured aid in men and supplies through Galveston. His attempt to get the aid of Lafitte and his pirates, however, resulted in failure.

While Long was conferring with Lafitte in Galveston, the Spanish troops attacked his outposts, defeating all of them. Long collected the remnants of his troops and transported them down the Gulf coast to La Bahia del Espiritu Santo. The expedition marched upon La Bahia and took it without any trouble.

SPORT SLANTS
By a Mustang

-:- SPORTS -:-

The Mustangs sure did look good last Friday night when they trimmed the Mobeetie Hornets to the tune of 12-0. The Hornets didn't know what to do when Big Ford and Big Weeks started hitting their line, not to say anything about that hard hitting, crooning halfback, Jack Tate. Some combination, eh?

The Mustangs have won three games out of four this season and are looking forward to winning the Shamrock game which will be played on the Wheeler gridiron Oct. 18.

The Memphis Cyclones were given a decision over the Lefors Pirates by the penetrations. The score was 12 to 12. The Mustangs were defeated by the Cyclones 12 to 6, Sept. 27. They play Lefors Nov. 15 on the Lefors field.

The Kelton football boys defeated the Pampa Gorillas 19 to 0 on the Harvester field last Friday. Kelton is not in the conference this year but they have a splendid team.

Football is the main topic of our discussion now but it won't be long until the new gym will be finished and basketball practice will begin. Miss Adams will soon have her speedball team organized and going full force. This new sport that Miss Adams has introduced has caused much interest and many comments. Everyone is very anxious to see the girls in action.

The Mustangs will not play Friday but will train, since several of the main players are injured. Coach Bob Clark says that the boys have improved wonderfully since last year and are in very good condition.

The Wheeler Colts (young Mustangs) will meet the Magic City Eagles here Friday afternoon. This game has caused much interest since the second string of wild Horses has not been seen in action yet this year.

Miss Bernie Addison III
Due to throat trouble, Miss Bernie Addison was absent from school the first of this week. She is at the home of her parents in Amarillo and may be able to resume her teaching by Friday. Robert Mayne, history instructor, met with the journalism class Tuesday, but the English students have not had their classes.

MUSTANGS ROUT

Wheeler Players Prove Stronger of Evenly Matched Teams in Grid Battle

Boasting both a powerful offense and defense, the Wheeler Mustangs defeated the Mobeetie Hornets 12-0, Friday night in the local stadium. The teams were very evenly matched, each averaging about 160 pounds per man. This was the third conference game for both the Mustangs and Hornets. Both teams were clicking and fought hard to the finish. The Mustangs penetrated the Hornets' 20-yard line four times while Mobeetie was never able to penetrate Wheeler's 20-yard line. The Mustangs made eight first downs to the Hornets four first downs.

After a series of hard line smashes, the Mustangs placed the ball on the Hornets' 20-yard line. Big Ford smashed the line for a gain of eight yards. Quarterback Weeks pulled a spinning play which fooled the Hornets and gave the ball to the left end, Whitener, who carried the ball up to the 10-yard line. A hard right end smash, with Weeks carrying the mail, put the pigskin over for the first counter. This was in the first quarter.

Neither team could score during the second quarter.

At the half, Mobeetie received. Big Ford kicked the ball over their goal line. The Hornets brought the ball back to the Mustangs' 40. The Mustangs got the ball and ran it down to the 20. Big Ford hid out for a long pass from Weeks. He completed the pass for a touchdown. Try for extra point, with Ford kicking the ball, failed. The rest of the game was one packed full of thrills and action; both teams doing their best. Neither team could score.

Outstanding players for the Mustangs were Big Ford, Tillman, Big Tillman, Newkirk, Connor and Whitener.

A crowd of about 300 saw the game. It was the Mustangs' second victory on the new field, having lost one game to the Memphis Cyclones.

Uncle Ted Looks
'Em Over

Well, I reckon that English teacher may have been sick like she says she was but some of them thar football boys seen her in Amarillo Saturday night and they say that she was whooping 'em up. Maybe she got sick Sunday tho. I ain't saying.

This paper ain't goin' to be so good this time 'cause the journalism teacher (she's the English teacher, too) ain't here. So folks you will have to excuse the mistakes they make. Maybe they'll learn.

I gotta admit that them Mustangs played a good game last Friday night. I shore do hope we beat the Irishmen good an' proper. Them Ponies have had it in for Shamrock ever since they beat them last year so I imagine it will be a perty hard fight.

Juniors Order Class Jewelry

The majority of class members have ordered pins and wristlets in either silver or gold. The cost of the gold pins are $3.80 while the bracelets are $3.50. Some of the boys chose watch chains or silver belt buckles.

Physical education for the girls was divided into three groups, the tumbling club, folk dancing and outdoor exercises.

Bob Clark presented a program of "Magic Illusion Escapes" Friday night at the high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. This program was sponsored by the Home Economics club, which received 20 per cent of the proceeds.

Magic City Eagles
Meet Colts Friday

The Colts will meet the Magic City Eagles on the home field tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. This will be the Colts' first game.

The Eagles' coach, Gordon Phillips, has been putting his men through stiff workouts this week getting ready for the Wheeler game.

This game has aroused much interest in the districts around Wheeler and Magic City, since Mack Shirley, star end for the Mustangs last year, came from Magic and "Dippy" Norman, halfback for the Mustangs this year is also from Magic City. Everybody is wondering if the Eagles can stop the fleeting little halfback. Norman is fast and shifty and sure is hard to stop.

Magic is looking forward to winning the Wheeler game and are putting forth every effort to win it. They want to win the Wheeler game worse than any other game they play. To win this game they will have to stop Norman first.

The probable starting line-up sport fans will see will be:

Page, le; Bob Tillman, lt; Passons, lg; Tucker, c; Simms, rg; Maxwell, rt; Red, re; Pace, qb; Norman, hb; Pendleton, hb; Young, fb.

This game is to see how strong the Mustangs' reserves are. A large crowd is expected to be present.

SPANISH CLUB HAS FIRST MEETING AND INITIATION

The first meeting of the Spanish club was held last Thursday night in the music room for the purpose of initiating the Spanish I students.

B. Reynolds, Everette Cole, Waylon Pollard, Luther Lee Owen, Troy Lee Carver, Jack Tate, Ford Newkirk, Farrell Wallace, Mrs. McCrohan and Mrs. J. L. Gilmore, sponsor.

Pep Squad Present
Fake Football Game

The stunt presented by the Pep Squad Friday night at the football game consisted of an imitation football game.

The girls were divided into two groups, representing two teams. Both went into a huddle, and one yelled for Wheeler and one for Mobeetie. The Mobeetie side kicked off and Wheeler received. A general scuffle ensued, from which the Wheeler ball carrier escaped and ran for a touchdown.

All but a few of the girls took part in the stunt.

CHAPEL PROGRAM CALLED

A chapel program was called Monday in honor of the football boys. They were promised this assembly if they would win the game Friday evening between the schoolboys and the outsiders. The football players were introduced by the captain, each with his position. The captain also gave his opinion of the game to be played Friday of this week with Wheeler. Coach Phillips gave an interesting talk and assembly was dismissed.

Faculty Entertained

The faculty was entertained Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations and in the delightful three-course dinner. Games of bridge and 41 formed the entertainment. Cut prizes were awarded to Mr. Wharton and Miss Friday.

Those present were A. S. Wharton, G. T. Phillips, Loyd Twilla, Naomi King, Annis Friday, Marie Mason, Mrs. Ruth Caldwell, Raymond Smith, Marion Smith, and the host and hostess.

SPORTS

The Eagles were victors on the gridiron Friday when they overcame the spirited Magic City outlaws. The boys were out for blood because of a defeat by the outsiders 2-0 on a previous encounter. The team seemed to gain at will, an improvement over their previous games.

The score was 13-0 with Bobby Groves scoring from the 1-yard line each time and Harold Harmon, fullback, plunging through for extra point.

Herbert Green and Troy Derryberry, fleet-footed wingbacks, were the most consistent ground gainers of the day. When Herbert Green ran 41 yards broken field, he brought the crowd to its feet cheering themselves hoarse and thinking maybe we have got a football team.

The starting lineup was: Ivan Burns, e; Jesse Cocks, t; Leonard Beach, g; Calvin Harmon, c; Roger O'Gorman, q; James Williams, t; Obe Stephens, e; Harold Harmon, qb; Bobby Groves, qb; Herbert Green, hb; Troy Derryberry, hb.

The team meets the Wheeler Colts at Wheeler, Friday at 3:00 o'clock. The boys are out to win and if humanly possible, will. The backfield is being whipped into shape and are promising to hit that line and cross that coveted white stripe time and time again.

Grades Report

In the first grade there are 33 enrolled and on Monday, all were present.

The first grade is decorating for Halloween and practicing on their program. They have started practicing on their rhythm band.

The first five grades meet on Wednesday from 3:30 to 4:00 o'clock for singing practice for the Centennial.

Doris Swearer returned to school after two weeks of illness.

Faye Webb is out of school on account of sickness.

Movie Chatter

By a Rogue

Cowboy Millionaire

The many followers of George O'Brien have a treat in store for Friday and Saturday when this popular star comes to the Rogue in his latest picture, "Cowboy Millionaire." It is needless to mention the many Zane Grey pictures in which George has appeared, because he is always a popular western star. It is also needless to recapitulate the numerous monstrosities which are provoked by this scion of the elite when he encounters the sclerotic illumination from the gentlemen whose vast domain has never been visualized by the former. Well—that is all right, because we do not know what it means either. Neither does George, but he is willing to learn. And in doing so he will give you one swell evening's entertainment. Then, too, Charlie Chase will be there in a good two-reel comedy. So, if you like good westerns, just be on hand Friday and Saturday at the Rogue.

The Irish In Us

One, two, three. What? Stars. All in one picture. Who? James (Devil Dog) Cagney, and Pat (Here Comes the Navy) O'Brien, and Margaret Lindsay who is always with the two Irish boys. Oh! the picture? "The Irish In Us," and what a picture! It will be at the Rogue, Monday and Tuesday and is "guaranteed to please all comers, or your money back," states Manager Lee Guthrie. If you have ever seen this famous trio you will not be hard to persuade to leave the old worries at home and come out and enjoy an outstanding picture. And for a comedy, there will be, "Holland in Tulip Time," which is made in the new process technicolor, and which is recognized as one of the most beautiful pictures ever filmed. So adios. We will be seeing you "Where Irish Eyes are Smiling" next Monday and Tuesday.

"Always Something New"

Ex-Wheeler Editor to Shamrock Place

Percy Bones, Former Publisher of News-Review Here, Accepts Job on Texan

Percy W. Bones, who with his brother, Ted, formerly owned the Shamrock Texan, will return to the newspaper in the capacity of news editor next week. He will assume his duties Monday.

Percy and Ted published the Texan for several years, taking it over when it was a run-down weekly and making of it one of the strongest papers in the Panhandle. They sold the Texan to its present owners in September, 1929, purchasing the Wheeler News-Review which they operated about three years.

Recently Percy has been employed on the Amarillo Globe-News, going there from Gainesville where he was employed several months. Ted will continue working on the Amarillo paper.

Percy will be a valuable addition to the Texan staff. He will have charge of the news desk work for which he is particularly qualified because of his long residence here and his wide acquaintance. He will devote part of his time in the mechanical department. — Shamrock Texan, Friday, Oct. 4.

Many friends and acquaintances in this county will be glad to hear of Bones' return.

FUNERAL RITES CONDUCTED FOR BILL FINCH THURSDAY

Bill Finch, 40, farmer living in the Lone Mound community, southwest of Wheeler, was accidentally killed Wednesday of last week when the gun he was carrying was discharged as he climbed over a fence.

W. H. Finch was born Feb. 14, 1895 at Leander, Texas, and died Oct. 2, 1935, near Shamrock, Texas, at the age of 40 years, seven months and 17 days. He joined the Church of Christ at Spurr early in life.

He was married to Miss Maudie Mae Guynes at Wheeler, Feb. 6, 1917. To them were born seven children, six sons and one daughter: W. H., jr., Cullen, Billie Freddie, Parker, Guynes and Sallie Jo. Besides his devoted wife and children, he is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. W. R. Plenty of Man-Power to Handle WPA Setup

State Administrator Says Workers Available—Expects Full Value for Expenditures

Reiterating that a dollar's value must be received for every dollar spent by Works Progress administration in Texas, Administrator H. P. Drought has instructed engineering officials to plan greatest possible efficiency in the works division.

"We have no fear of running out of man-power on these projects," Drought explained. "When Texas' list of employables has been exhausted, our job will have been completed."

"Federal authorities have attempted to secure final approval of approximately twice as many projects as can be financed out of available funds," Drought declared. "This has been deliberately done to afford a maximum of latitude in operating the program by insuring instantly approved projects of every character. It is obvious, therefore, that we cannot prosecute every project. We are expected to utilize these projects to meet the need for employment that exists in each locality, choosing from among the approved projects those which require the number and particular classes of workers that are available from the relief rolls."

Drought asserted that fairness to the sponsors who, in many instances, are contributing materially toward the completion of projects demands that work be done thoroughly and conscientiously.

"We must never lose sight of the fact that our major purpose is the rehabilitation of human beings," Drought declared. "It is only through demanding an honest day's work for a day's pay that we can remove the specter of the dole from the lives of persons who are subsisting on WPA wages."

By seeking approval of more projects than necessary to absorb all employables from Texas relief rolls as of May, 1935, state WPA officials hope to be able to choose only work of permanent worthwhile nature in the program which has already taken several thousand persons off the dole.

Phillips Features New Type Gasoline

A new type of gasoline, made possible by the new refining process, polymerization, has been put on the market, it was announced recently by Frank Phillips, president of the Phillips Petroleum company.

"Taming the rich, highly-explosive gases which formerly were wasted has long been a dream of petroleum chemists," Phillips said. "For years we have experimented with a process for this—polymerization; joining together instead of breaking down. Now polymerized gasoline is available to the public."

A characteristic of the new gasoline is said to be that it contains more energy units per gallon than any motor fuel of similar specifications heretofore made. Furthermore, say scientists, perfection of the process makes possible commercial production of higher-octane gasolines such as the 100-octane fuels which have shown twenty-five per cent power increases in recent army tests and which shot Howard Hughes' "mystery ship" over a measured mile recently at 352 miles per hour for a new world's land-plane speed record. Only a year ago such fuels cost $18 per gallon.

Mysterious Words on a slip of paper

Often the first step toward getting well is the prescription your doctor writes for you—mysterious words, useless to you until the pharmacist translates them into medicine.

But sickness consults neither the calendar nor the clock before it strikes. It is likely to come late at night, or in the hours of early morning—and your doctor, called in the emergency, might order a much-needed medicine compounded immediately.

Your pharmacist stands ready. He keeps his lights burning after other stores have darkened theirs—and even after he has gone to bed, following a long and hard day, a phone call brings him promptly to his prescription counter. Sundays, holidays, into the night—at all times and at any time, he is ready to fill, with microscopic accuracy, a prescription on which a human life may depend.

In case of illness, place full dependence in your physician—you will profit in health and money. Our Prescription Service aids both you and your physician.

CAUTION—Buy your drug needs from a PHARMACY. Don't buy cheap substitutes and off-brands, as their potency is not up to standard.
