County-Wide Poultry Meet In Wheeler Next Saturday

Program Dealing With Every Phase of Poultry Raising Starts
at 10 In Morning

Designated as county poultry day, next Saturday, Oct. 21, promises to be an interesting occasion in Wheeler for poultry growers from all over Wheeler county and nearby areas. This is according to Jake Tarter, county agent, who has announced the event, which will start at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with a session in the district court room.

Every man and woman in this territory is invited to attend the meeting, states Tarter. All feed men are also invited.

Comprehensive discussions on every phase of poultry growing will be heard. These are expected to prove interesting and instructive. Besides the discussions, a question box will be conducted. In this portion of the program, poultry growers may present their particular problems and hear opinions and solutions by those who have encountered the same or similar situations.

In addition to the local speakers named and other informal talks, an experienced poultry authority from Dallas will be present to offer his counsel and guidance. As will be seen in the program below, vital phases of poultry care, health, production and feeding will be considered.

Morning Program

10 a. m.—Housing: arrangement, ventilation and sanitation—J. M. Lawrence, Wheeler poultry fancier. Worms In Poultry: prevention, symptoms, treatment—P. A. Clepper, county poultry breeder and hatchery operator.

Poultry Diseases: causes, prevention, treatment—Jake Tarter, county agent.

Culling: for breeding, for egg production—J. A. Bryant, county poultryman and farmer.

Feeding: for development, for production—E. Goule, assistant county agent.

Following the noon hour recess and starting at 1 p. m., a brief tour will be made to nearby poultry farms, to study housing facilities and general conditions.

This meeting will be open to the general public and everyone interested is invited. Those engaged in poultry raising on a large or small scale are urged to attend the gathering, since special efforts are being made to bring reliable and worthwhile information on an industry which has proven a valuable adjunct to present-day diversified farming and as a primary pursuit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davidson and her mother, Mrs. J. E. Cox, Mrs. T. M. Bradstreet and granddaughter, Shirley Levett, and Mrs. Pat Beene and daughter, Patricia Ann, motored Sunday to Allison and visited Mrs. Bradstreet's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Levett, and children.

Holt's Stolen Car Found In Kentucky

Sheriff Waters Left Monday to Bring Back Missing Auto
—Recover Others

Stolen from his residence garage here on Wednesday night, Nov. 4, a Chevrolet coupe belonging to D. E. Holt was reported found in Paducah, Ky., last Friday. Recovery of the car was partly by chance, according to reports. When officers sought its occupant on some minor law violation, his actions aroused suspicion regarding the car.

Taking identification numbers found on the machine, the Kentucky officers wired Chevrolet headquarters for this area at Kansas City. They in turn wired a Colorado dealer from whom Holt had purchased the car and he communicated with the Wheeler man. Satisfied that it was the missing Chevrolet, Sheriff Raymond Waters, accompanied by Sheriff Dick Moore of Childress left Monday for Paducah to identify and bring back the machine.

It is said that Bob McCollum is being held at a point in Tennessee, charged with theft of the Holt car. It is thought he, also, will be brought back by the Texas officers.

Through prompt and energetic efforts, the local sheriff's office has been successful recently in recovering two other stolen vehicles. One was a car belonging to Chester Tindall of this county, stolen Sept. 27, a. found at Chandler, Okla. The other, a pickup belonging to Guy Hill of Shamrock, disappeared Monday night and was found 10 miles east of Shamrock Tuesday afternoon.

Gratitude

Each new Thanksgiving finds us sitting down trying to add our blessings. If we were permitted to glance at the lists we would find no two alike. Doubtless, some would have at the head of the list money and the things it can buy, others would have greatness, power, the achievement of fame and success; still others would have food, shelter.

Each has something to be thankful for, and each has his or her individual way of showing gratitude.

There must be a sense of gratitude for what one has, no matter how little or how much, or else one deserves no more. Thanksgiving is a heritage of all peoples.

I thank Thee, Lord, for beauty
In every living thing;
For all the simple tasks in life;
For pleasures that they bring.

I thank Thee, Lord, for harvests
Good,
For golden, ripened grain;
For song of bird and shade of tree—
The sunshine and the rain.

I thank Thee for the shadows that
Dim the sun awhile;
For every pain there is a laugh—
For every cloud a smile!

I thank Thee, Lord, for things as these:
Good food, a bed, a book—
For misty morns, and purpled hills,
For meadow and for brook!

I thank Thee for the future,
For days that are to be;
For leaders brave, a peaceful land—
Our nation—keep it free!

I thank Thee, Lord, for love incarnate
In honest loving hearts;
For every friendly service done—
For love that God imparts!

District Court Has Rather Quiet Week

Opening its first jury week, Monday, with civil actions docketed, district court had a rather quiet week, completing its labors Thursday forenoon, when recess was taken until next Monday. Because several cases were compromised or settled out of court, little jury service was required. Six matters were disposed of, only two requiring juries.

Resuming its labors, Monday also, the grand jury returned three indictments and recessed Tuesday until later in the term.

Next Monday marks the first criminal week, with jury, of the current term. Continuing its practice of republishing the petit jury list a week ahead, the following panel is given:

FOURTH WEEK—Bill Perrin, H. Briley, C. C. Gaines, Edison Sorensen, Glen Williams, Oren Horn, O. I. Johnson, J. Z. Baird, S. E. Powell, E. R. Jones, Curtis Pond, Wheeler; Lyndon Sims, Pierce Walker, G. W. Seitz, W. D. Myers, Rufus Tyson, Albert Scribner, R. H. Crump, Ed Johnston, J. Wade Duncan, Mobeetie; B. F. Risner, V. F. Chance, B. L. Thornberry, W. E. Tarbet, Grady Burcham, J. A. Moore, Claude Tarbet, Aubrey Greenhouse, J. E. Steen, Briscoe; G. Hoffman, John Purcell, Lela; Tom Pepper, T. J. Clay, C. B. McAllister, R. C. Reeves, J. R. Hefley, Bill Nelson, E. L. Henry, Twitty; Kid McCoy, McLean.

COUNTY CERTIFICATE MEN MEET AT MOBEETIE, SUNDAY

A meeting of the Wheeler County Certificate Men's association of the Masonic order is dated for Sunday, Nov. 22, at Mobeetie. So states Harry Garrison, secretary of the local Blue Lodge. Certificate examinations will be conducted during the session.

Mrs. N. M. Hunt of Mobeetie was in Wheeler Wednesday visiting her mother, Mrs. I. B. Lee, and family.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

Rural correspondents, school groups, other newsgatherers and advertisers in The Wheeler Times:

Since next Thursday, regular publication day, is also Thanksgiving Day, it is planned to print the paper somewhat earlier than usual, if possible. Therefore, your earnest co-operation is requested in getting copy to this office early. Your fine assistance in the past has been greatly appreciated and it is being counted on again. Please don't fail.

Red Cross Campaign Nears 50% of Quota

Membership Solicitors Actively Working to Complete
Drive Quickly

"Just tell anyone who can or will assist with a subscription in the annual Red Cross roll call campaign now in progress not to feel slighted if a solicitor fails to find him, but to hunt up a committee worker and subscribe," stated Dr. H. E. Nicholson, roll call chairman of the Wheeler chapter, today.

It was learned that approximately 50 per cent of the $125 quota for this chapter, which covers that portion of Wheeler county north of the river, had been obtained.

It is the desire of Chairman Nicholson to complete the full amount at the earliest possible moment—at least before next Thursday, the closing date.

Recreational Group Not Afraid of Jinx

Association Formed Friday, March
13, Met Friday, Nov. 13—
Now 8 Months Old

"There is no 'boogy boo' about Friday, the 13th, for the Wheeler County Recreational association," declares Mrs. C. Bryan Witt in reporting the most recent meeting of the organization which was held last Friday night, Nov. 13, in the American Legion hall, Wheeler.

Recounting its career, Mrs. Witt says the association was organized eight months ago, on Friday, March 13, for the enjoyment of adult members of county Home Demonstration clubs, delegates and representatives of farmers organizations. Not one meeting of the 13 held was unsuccessful, despite weather, football or other competition.

Home Demonstration clubs of the county take turns acting as hosts to the association, and "eats" always seem to be in order during the frolics of the evening. Members who attend these gatherings eagerly anticipate the next meeting.

Average attendance is about 45. The China Flat club was host to 34 guests at the last meeting, the night the Mustangs beat the Lefors Tigers.

District 2B Football Game, Pampa, Saturday

Panhandle-Perryton Contest Will Decide Mustangs Opponent
In Bi-district Fry

PAMPA, Nov. 19.—The Panhandle-Perryton football game which will decide the championship of District 2B, will be played at Harvester park in Pampa, starting at 2:30 p. m. next Saturday, Nov. 21. This contest will also determine the Wheeler Mustangs' opponent for bi-district honors should the Mustangs surmount other hurdles that may intervene.

There will be plenty of good seats at 50 cents each, and all Panhandle fans are urged to attend. Sport writers believe this will be one of the closest matched games that will be witnessed in the Panhandle this year.

Both teams are large. Both teams have heavy linemen and fast versatile backs.

For the Panhandle Panthers, C. Sparks and N. Sparks in the backfield will be watched. The Perryton Rangers, with Jones and McWilliams as ball carriers, have as much to boast of in a yard-making machine.

About 50 Pampa business men serving on various committees are making plans to give all visitors a genuine welcome.

PROGRAM ON HOWELLS' WORK BY WEDNESDAY STUDY CLUB

Wednesday Study club members met at the club room Nov. 11, with Mrs. Jim Trout as leader of a program on William Dean Howells' "Silas Lapham."

Twelve members responded to roll call with a parable from the Bible.

Why is the Rise of Silas Lapham a classic, and the Love Story of Irene and Penelope were both given by Mrs. Melvin Howe; the Plain Common-sense and Folk-Wisdom of Silas Lapham was related by Mrs. J. W. Barr; Mrs. George Porter rendered a musical number, "Twelfth Street Rag;" the Family Life of the Laphams was outlined by Mrs. Floyd Pennington.

Those present were Mesdames D. O. Beene, Robt. Bowers, E. W. Carter, M. L. Gunter, Cora Hall, Melvin Howe, Floyd Pennington, George Porter, John Templeton, Jim Trout, H. M. Wiley, Glen Porter and Miss Madge Chambers of Atlanta, Ga., coach and director of the Blue Bonnet play given by the Study club, Nov. 18.

Vital Educational Meeting Here Dec. 7

Important Questions Concerning
County Schools Welfare
to Be Considered

That all interested persons of the county may be given timely notice, County Superintendent B. T. Rucker has requested The Times to announce that a meeting of vital importance to school boards, bus drivers, and rural and independent school trustee association members and patrons of the entire county will be held in Wheeler on Monday, Dec. 7, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

During a session of the Wheeler County School board, on Nov. 16, a decision was reached to call this county-wide meeting for the purpose of discussing a number of questions concerning the welfare and development of schools throughout the county.

Among the subjects for discussion will be transportation, rural aid and other urgent problems. Indications now are that a committee will be appointed to assist in drafting a new rural aid bill which will come before the 45th legislature in its January session.

Besides a number of local speakers, including Supt. Rucker, H. M. Wiley, Dr. H. E. Nicholson and others, some visiting speakers are expected. Invitations will be sent State Senator Clint Small and Representative Eugene Worley to be present and join in the deliberations. Hon. John W. Gunstream, deputy state superintendent of instruction, has signified his intention of attending this meeting.

"This is expected to be the largest school meeting ever held in Wheeler county," declared Rucker today. "We urge all school people and anyone interested to make arrangements to attend," he concluded.

Beloved County Lady Passes Away Sunday

Following an illness of several months duration, Mrs. W. L. Teakell, 59, resident of the Center community, this county, passed away last Sunday at Mineral Wells, where she had gone two weeks before in hopes of improved health. Funeral services were conducted from the Twitty Church of Christ Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Shelby Sanders, pastor, and S. A. Ribble conducting the rites.

Surviving relatives include the husband and five children, Ernest Teakell, Albuquerque, N. Mex.; Ruby Rives, Alta Lee Merrick and Mrs. Bert Betenbaugh, all of Center, and Mrs. Dona Henderson, Shamrock; a number of grandchildren, and one brother, Jim Rice, of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tarter of Wheeler attended the funeral. Ernest Teakell is a brother-in-law of Tarter.

ROOM MOTHERS ORGANIZATION ELECTS OFFICERS WEDNESDAY

Mothers of pupils in Mrs. John M. Ficke's first grade room met Wednesday afternoon in the school room to organize a Mothers' club.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Jack Badley, president; Mrs. J. H. (Bill) Lowrie, vice president; Mrs. Ficke, treasurer; Mrs. R. F. Watts, secretary and Mrs. A. D. May, reporter.

During the business meeting the ladies voted to donate a Christmas tree for the Christmas program.

Those present were Mesdames Clyde Newsom, Denver May, Reuben May, Jack Badley, Andrew Goad, O. O. Sandifer, R. F. Watts, J. H. Lowrie, Edd Jones, Ethel Ahler, J. B. Oglesby, Mrs. A. D. May and Mrs. John M. Ficke.

All the mothers are urged to attend the next meeting on Dec. 9.

J. B. Kite, who recently came home from Oklahoma where he was visiting relatives, is improving slowly from the severe illness of a year ago. It looked natural to see him up town Monday, even if he was in a car.

FARLEY COMPLIMENTS COUNTY CHAIRMAN AND ORGANIZATION MEMBERS

Democratic County Chairman A. B. Crump is in receipt of a telegram from James A. Farley, President Roosevelt's campaign manager in the recent national election, in which Farley expresses his deep appreciation of the faithful service rendered by the county chairman and his assistants.

Personal thanks are tendered every man and woman who helped so faithfully to uphold the traditions of a great Democratic state and county.

Crump, in his characteristically generous manner, wants to share publicly with his able assistants the fine compliments extended by a leader who achieved so notable a success in political history of the nation.

DRILLING AT OIL TEST

At a reported depth of 6,440 feet, today, drilling in the Porter No. 1 oil test well continues in granite wash formation. The 7-inch casing was set week before last at 6,146. Since drilling out the plug early last week, rapid progress, depth considered, has been made. The water was successfully shut out, it is said.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S CIRCLE HOLD MEETINGS ON MONDAY

Circle No. 1 of the W. M. S. of the Baptist church met with Mrs. C. N. Wofford Monday afternoon. Mrs. Chas. R. Flynt was leader of an interesting lesson taken from the book "God's Plan."

Those present were Mesdames Lee Guthrie, Chas. R. Flynt, W. H. Williams, George Porter, Minnie Farmer, M. L. Gunter and Mrs. Wofford.

Circle No. 2 met at the Baptist church the same afternoon with seven members present. Mrs. Bob Rodgers led a Bible study taken from the third and fourth chapters of Mark.

During the business meeting plans were made to send Thanksgiving baskets to some underprivileged families of the community.

Next Monday there will be a joint meeting of the circles in the church, at which time a box of cookies and a box of linen will be packed as gifts to Buckner Orphan's home at Dallas for Thanksgiving.

IT'S REALLY COMICAL

Ired by a gentle little jibe at his superb egotism, the great strong man who writes JAUB (just another useless blurb) in last Saturday's Shamrock Texan evidently forgot the courtesies of the craft and blurted out a decidedly childish mess at the Times editor. In his delightfully naive way JAUB (see above) revealed an astonishing lack of knowledge concerning journalistic practices.

The Times editor isn't interested in how—or if—the esteemed Texan is conducted, but he does know that nothing appears in The Wheeler Times without his permission—in the Corral or elsewhere. Therefore, if the Corral staff wanted to reproduce the article which appeared so nice and sweet, on the surface, no objection was made; hence The Times accepts a proper share of thanks for its publication.

The Times editor is not unmindful of the value to this publication of such a splendid feature section as the Corral; nor does he believe the faculty, the students and people of the community are wholly ignorant of the extra labor and expense cheerfully and willingly incurred to provide the Wheeler schools with a vehicle of expression—generally acknowledged as one of the best school publications in the entire Panhandle—and proven as such by its winnings of trophies and honors over similar papers in towns several times the size of Wheeler.

It is the Corral (through The Times) which carries the everyday load of news, comment and encouragement of, on and for the various school activities. When the tide runs against the football squad or any other phase of work, the Corral remains faithful to its trust, bravely carrying on; gently reproving at times, but always comforting and encouraging to higher achievements. Likewise, when victory rewards earnest efforts, the Corral rejoices—and The Times basks in the reflected glory—sufficient compensation to the editor for extra labor.

Of course it's a temptation, when success crowns some Wheeler activity, for the "big manly brother" to the south to seek the limelight and—jestingly though it may be—impose upon the credulity of local people by claiming apparently supernatural powers in publicizing the victorious Mustangs by "shooting the works to the big state papers."

Our friend (if he is willing) JAUB cannot put anything in any "big state papers" that our own Lula Mae Farley cannot put in—unless JAUB pays space rates for its insertion. JAUB or members of his staff have Associated Press, or other similar connections, and so does Lula Mae Farley.

The Times isn't a bit selfish and if it's any consolation for JAUB to brush aside his own brilliant Irishmen in favor of their late conquerors and by fatuous flattery try to kid someone—including himself—why, fine and dandy.

But we do insist on keeping the records straight. That's all.

Successful 4-H Club Boys to Chicago Soon

State Champs to Leave Tuesday for Trip to Windy City
—Funds Raised

Wheeler county's victorious 4-H club livestock judging team, composed of James Passons, Wheeler; W. C. Burrell, Kelton, and J. C. and L. E. Erskine of Lela, accompanied by their coach, E. Goule, assistant county agent, plan to leave next Tuesday for Chicago to enter the national judging contest. Date of that event is announced as Nov. 27.

Only the four boys and Goule will represent club activities from Wheeler county at the Chicago meet. As a matter of fact, Goule stated yesterday, only three of the boys will be used on the national contest team, whereas four are used in county and state events. The fourth boy is going as an alternate. It was not announced which of the quartet is so designated. Clifford Austin started the season as a member of the team, but because of a trip and brief stay in California dropped out.

To send a group of boys and their sponsor to Chicago costs money—more money than their parents could or should be expected to provide. Because of this and the wonderful publicity brought to Wheeler county by their achievement in winning first place in the state, the question of financing belongs largely to the entire county. Such being the case, various communities have vied with each other in raising their quota of expense money. Approximately $200 will be required.

Wheeler and vicinity has raised the sum of $63.75. Donors of amounts ranging from $1 to $10 are as follows: Britt Ranch, Puckett's, Rogue Theatre, A. B. Crump, Ernest Lee Hardware, Glen Porter, Wheeler Cotton Oil Mill, First National Bank, J. P. Green, City Drug Store, Panhandle P. & L. Co., Harry Wofford, D. E. Holt, People's Store, Lewis Garage and Royal Drug Store.

Other communities of the county subscribing to the funds are Shamrock, Lela, Pekan, Twitty, Kelton, Allison, Briscoe and Mobeetie.

Wheeler Churches In Sunday School Drive

Methodist, Baptist, Church of Christ
Launch Community-Wide Attendance Move

Three Wheeler churches, the Methodist, Baptist and Church of Christ, are co-operating in a community-wide drive to increase the scope and effectiveness of their Sunday schools. Efforts will be made to stimulate interest and attendance at Sunday school.

A committee of the several congregations sponsoring the movement has issued the following statement:

"Now, you Wheelers, hear this. That moment the youth of our land becomes so engrossed in other things that it is drawn away from active work in the Sunday school, freedom and liberty to worship God according to the dictates of one's own conscience is endangered. And when that liberty is gone, peace, freedom and social security is also gone.

"We call upon every citizen to respond to this noble effort and help rebuild confidence, faith, love and satisfaction in the hearts of our people. It will help us to be proud of our homes; proud of our neighbors; proud of our happiness, and will go a long way toward healing the wounds that now beset society on every hand.

"The Sunday school is essentially American in spirit and as institution fostering better Americanism, is entitled to the support of all true Americans."

FORMER METHODIST PASTOR THANKS WHEELER FRIENDS

In a letter dated Nov. 16, addressed to The Times, Rev. J. Edmund Kirby, former pastor of the Wheeler Methodist church, states that he has taken up his new duties as pastor of the Ralls, Texas, church, but has not had time to form an opinion of the town and surroundings as yet.

Rev. Kirby requests this paper to convey his deep appreciation to the membership of the Methodist church here, as well as the people of the community generally, and to extend his thanks for the many kindnesses shown him, Mrs. Kirby and little Jamie.

The Times is glad to comply with Rev. Kirby's request. The letter also contained a personal message of commendation to The Times family which will long be cherished in memory of a splendid group of friends, the Kirbys.

HOW IT HAPPENED

"The Roosevelt victory is of such mammoth proportions as to leave no room for his opponents to be bitter or his critics to cavil. It is so overwhelming that alibis, analyses and explanation seem foolish. The only thing to do is cheerfully accept the result, with wonder that it was possible to be so blind before the election to the irresistible nature of the combination of sentiment and forces behind him."

So wrote Frank Kent, one of the most forthright of Roosevelt critics. This view is generally held by the professional publicists who supported Landon. Those who supported the president say with justice that they anticipated the result, that it was inevitable—though most of them were surprised by the extent of the victory.

For the sake of the record, here is how the great battle of 1936 came out: The President carried 46 states, for a total of 523 electoral votes. Governor Landon carried 2 states, with 8 electoral votes. The popular vote gave the president a majority of about 10 million—26,000,000 to 16,000,000 for his opponent. It was the most decisive electoral college victory since the two-party system became well established.

So far so good. But when it comes to guessing why Roosevelt achieved the unprecedented, there is considerable difference of opinion, especially in the Republican camp. Thus, Walter Lippman, who supported Roosevelt in 1932 but turned to Landon in the last campaign, has written that the campaign was more or less normal—that it simply proved the truth of the old adage that an incumbent is unbeatable in a period of industrial improvement. Lippman also says that if the "Solid South"—which no Republican can hope to carry under any circumstance—is eliminated from consideration, such Republican candidates as Harding, Coolidge and Hoover won just as handsly.

On the other hand, famed William Allen White, one of Landon's closest advisors, sees the election very differently. He believes that "it was not just an election which the country has just undergone, but a political Johnstown flood. The dam gave way which has been slowly filling for 40 years, fed by the waters of Bryanism, of Theodore Roosevelt's progressivism, of La Follette's Wisconsin insurgency, of Wilsonian liberalism, of the progressive bloc in the senate under the administrations of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover. The waters of the New Deal cover the earth. Republicans did not heed the warnings..."

Generally speaking, this view is widely held. In addition, practically all commentators agree that the Republican campaign was inept and badly handled, that the party organization was about as bad as it could be, and that Landon and his advisors failed to make the best of the situation. By contrast, the Democratic machine under Jim Farley was a marvel of efficiency and effectiveness. There was no waste motion—everything worked with the precision of a series of relay switches.

Furthermore, it is difficult to exaggerate the political importance of the president's personality. A natural born speaker, he has the rare faculty of establishing a personal relationship between himself and the voters. As many point out, no one in the political history of the last century has had so great a grip on the emotions of millions of American citizens.

The important question to be answered now is, What direction will future Roosevelt policies take? And here again there is a wide difference of opinion, even in the president's own camp. Supported as he is by amazingly varied groups, no one but the chief executive himself can answer that question. Thus, one New Deal group is of the opinion that the president is likely to take a conservative course, now that business has recovered much of the ground lost during depression, and will refrain from new experiments. This is a small group.

Another group feels that the president will swing sharply to the left, and go whole hog along the path of a socialist or collectivist or fascist program. This too is small.

The largest group, and the one which seems best informed and closest to the white house, feels that the second Roosevelt administration will follow a middle-of-the-road course—that the president will attempt the difficult job of holding the balance between radicalism on the one hand and reaction on the other. In other words, they feel that he will try to maintain a government-regulated capitalism—and at the same time keep the left-wingers as contented as possible.

At this writing, the president himself has given but one indication of future policy, that was his statement that the budget will soon be balanced—a step which, if achieved, will naturally be regarded as conservative, and will be lauded by industry. He seems to feel that better conditions make it possible to reduce government relief spending by a considerable amount. This saving, plus the increase in tax income that results from improved industrial earnings and higher taxes, may do away with federal deficits.

FOOTBALL AND DRINKING

Football fanatics might pause long enough to read the warning recently uttered by President Dodds, of Princeton university who pointed out that "indulgence in alcoholic beverages at football games has assumed proportions which seriously menace the future of the sport as an intercollegiate or even high school activity." The educator is quite correct in saying that such drinking is an offense to the vast majority of spectators. Few people get any pleasure out of the antics of half-drunk half-wits for the simple reason that no one knows how far the fool will go in his misbehavior. If the noisome spectacle of a drink-sick wretch in the stands adds to the gayety of a gridiron spectacle we have never been able to catch the joy of the occasion.

It would seem that smart football leaders and writers on sports would have sense enough to realize the danger that undoubtedly exists. Instead we read, in one large city daily, that "drinking at football games is an American institution, like corn on the cob."

Drinking liquor may be the private affair of an individual so long as he imbibes privately and behaves himself in public but when drunks interfere with the rights of other people to enjoy a game that they have paid money to see the question is bigger than a "matter of human rights."

No man, drunk or sober, has a right to be a nuisance to the public around him and if a drunken fool is not a nuisance among spectators, most of whom are sober, we would hate to see a nuisance on exhibition.

COTTON CROP PRICES

Government guesses as to the size of a cotton crop sometimes help the farmer by raising the price. Again, as is the case at present, the price is sent downward when Federal crop reporters add nearly 800,000 bales to the season's production. A crop of 12,400,000 bales of American cotton, however, in comparison with the prewar average of 14,667,000 bales, would not have proved burdensome except for the huge increase in foreign cotton production during the last three years.

That is the unfortunate part of the government's program to aid the American farmer. It was accepted as a challenge to increase acreage in India, Egypt, Russia, China, Brazil and a dozen lesser countries. The upshot is a grand total production of 17,500,000 bales of foreign cotton coming into competition with our own crop.

Looked at in another way foreign cotton production exceeds that of the United States by about 50 per cent. During the prewar years, however, the South's cotton crop annually exceeded that of the rest of the world by more than 3,000,000 bales. Foreigners are now very definitely in the cotton producing business and from all accounts they intend to remain in it. Brazil's current crop of nearly 2,000,000 bales is nearly four times the pre-war average of that country. Russia, with 2,500,000 bales, shows 70 per cent increase above the prewar peak. Even ancient China, with 3,600,000 bales, can boast of an increase of 70 per cent above the 10-year average. And so it goes.

America has lost its place in world cotton production as is evidenced in a foreign increase of 80 per cent above the period 1923-1933. Large foreign crops henceforth will set the price of all cotton, though previously the price was established by the size of America's crop.

Our Exchanges

Marvin Jones says that Roosevelt will proceed cautiously in his second term. It is also the opinion of the congressman that government expenses should be cut since business is on a definite up swing. However, he hopes that the farm and soil rebuilding program will be made permanent or at least continue so long as the tariff system prevails.—Wellington Leader.

Most service clubs and similar organizations have in their objects the discussion of all matters, "partisan politics and sectarian religion excepted." It is strange that we can differ upon all other questions and discuss them in perfect amity, but touch on one of the things that are perhaps nearest to all of us, and we cannot keep sweet. What a commentary upon perverse human nature!—McLean News.

Gary F. Orr, stock farmer and resident of Panhandle and Carsor county for the past 30 years, died last Saturday morning at 3 o'clock after an illness of less than a week. Death was caused by pneumonia. Orr, who came to Panhandle from Columbus

Junction, Ia., is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada Orr; one daughter, Miss Louise Orr, both of Panhandle; one son, Richard Orr, of Pampa; one brother, Ira Orr, a step-mother, Mrs. H. E. Another Miami marriage that was recently announced was that of Elzey Morgan, son of Mrs. T. J. Morgan, to Miss Hazel McDonald of Lefors, which took place Oct. 31 at Pampa with Justice of the Peace James J. Todd officiating. The groom has resided in Miami for a number of years and is a highly respected citizen. He is at present employed by the Panhandle Power & Light company. The young couple will make their home in Miami.—Miami Chief.

R. E. L. (Bob) Lewis of Memphis believes that he has had a small share in securing the landslide vote to return President Roosevelt and Vice President Garner to the head executive offices of the nation. Lewis and four sons all voted the Democratic ticket at the election last week. Lewis believes that he is one of the few—if not the only—man in Hall county who had four sons voting with the "Solid South."—Memphis Democrat.

"Fly-by-night" business is common in West Texas this time of the year, and Muleshoe and every other progressive town may begin to look for such to alight within their corporate limits. They will remain to cut prices and reduce legitimate profits and get out just in time to keep from having to pay taxes. They are a decided nuisance in more ways than one.—Muleshoe Journal.

Funeral services for J. W. "Uncle Johnnie" Martin, who died from a heart attack at his home here in Clarendon about 8:15 Tuesday evening, will be held here on Friday at 10 a. m. A short service will be held at the family home, with a Masonic funeral at the Claude cemetery. Martin, known as "Uncle Johnnie" to hundreds of friends in the Panhandle, was born in San Antonio in 1867. He came to the JA ranch in 1887 working there until Goodnight and Adair dissolved partnership.—Donley County Leader.

Announcement has been made of the sale of the controlling interest in the Dalhart Texan by Gene Howe and the Wilbur C. Hawk estate to John McCarty and Ed Bishop. Albert Law, editor of the Texan, has purchased the interests of T. E. Johnson. John McCarty, former editor of the Texan and now editor of the Amarillo News, was already a heavy stockholder in the Texan. The new owners are now McCarty, Bishop and Law.—Ochiltree County Herald.

Carson county wheat growers were made happy this week when it was announced that $238,000.00 was at County Agent Leaming's office in the court house for distribution. All but about 12 per cent of the growers received checks in this conservation program. The balance are to receive checks soon.—White Deer Review.

WE'VE LAUNCHED BIG SAFETY DRIVE

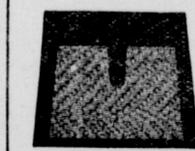

● Figures don't lie. Every year thousands of dollars are spent for damages—thousands of motorists are killed or injured when blow-outs throw cars out of control. To trust to luck when it comes to tires is to invite a serious, costly accident—sooner or later.

The way to be sure that you and your family are getting real blow-out protection is to let us equip your car with Goodrich Silvertown Tires. Because Silvertowns are built with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords, scientifically treated to resist the blowout-causing heat generated inside the tire at today's high speeds. By resisting this heat the Golden Ply keeps rubber and fabric from separating—keeps heat blisters from forming. And when you prevent the blister you prevent the high-speed blow-out.

Isn't it better to be safe than sorry? Switch to Goodrich Golden Ply Silvertowns. They cost no more than other standard tires. Come in today.

SPECIAL SALE ON CAR FLOOR MATS

● Spruce up the interior of your car with high quality, good-looking floor mats. Each mat has a rich, glossy, enduring finish for fine appearance and long wear. Put a new floor mat in your car now.

Girls' Basketball

The senior girls now have an hour from 10:30 to 11:30 every day in the gym. The girls are showing renewed interest because of the better workout period. Workout started Wednesday with the presentation of plays for the forwards. Georgia Cain, Vera McNeill, Ruth Morris and Vada Vaughn are showing up as good forwards.

Both the boys' and the girls' teams will play at Kelton Friday night. Mr. Coney is working with the boys from 3 to 4 in the afternoon.

Briscoe School Reopens

After a five weeks' vacation for cotton picking, Briscoe school has opened again. A number of improvements on the campus and buildings were made during vacation.

The floors in the home economics building have been varnished and bulletin boards put up in the high school class rooms. A new fence has been constructed on the north and west sides of the campus. Plans are being finished for some side walks. The primary teachers have some new filing cabinets. Work is now in full swing in an improved building.

Library

The library has been cleaned up and the books placed in sections. With a marker above each section it is now easy to find a book. The library is in fair shape with references and reading material for each course offered in high school. Magazines are available in the library. The magazines come monthly through the school. Gladys Spruell, Iona Bruton and Mabel Barnes are the librarians. These girls check books out and keep a list of overdue books on the bulletin board.

Aged Briscoe Lady Dies

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church last Friday for Mrs. Julia Martindale, 82 years old, who passed away on the previous Wednesday. Mrs. Martindale had lived with her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Witt, residing east of Briscoe. Revs. Fox and Fields conducted the last rites. The remains were laid to rest in the Wheeler cemetery.

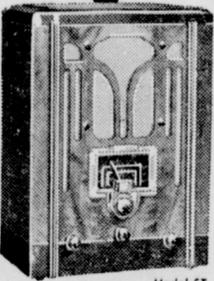

4-H Club Elects

At a meeting of the Briscoe 4-H club on Monday, Nov. 16, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Clifferene Sivage, vice president, La Juana Treadwell; reporter, Joy Bill Riley; assistant reporter, Syble Cook; chorister, Georgia Cain. The county demonstrator attended the meeting.

EXAMINATIONS

This week is examination week, and it should not be dreaded. It should be looked forward to as a day of learning and knowing. The questions may seem hard, but if you try, you will answer them. If they are studied, there should be no trouble in answering them. These words have been quoted many times: "I dread examination week." Think it over and see if you do.

First Grade

The first grade is very much pleased today, for Miss Legg has a new supply of gold stars to give the best readers. It looks as if Wylie and Leon Harris, Betty Kinard, Betty Lou Jones, Nadine Jones, J. B. Smith, Marjorie West, Barbara Marshall, David Muldrew, Wayne Smith, Helen Cox and Wanda Barfield will get a gold star every day, but everyone is going to try to see how many they can get before Christmas, and then the one that receives the most stars will get a prize.

The weaving looms for weaving rugs for the doll house have also arrived this week. Miss Legg and Mrs. R. L. Carter and children spent Sunday with Wheeler Carter and mother of Pampa.

Fourth Grade

We are very happy to have the Ware children back in school; also, Maudie Belle Jones and Mildred Marshall.

The fourth grade has organized its own language club with the following students holding the respective offices: Zeld Marie West, president; Ina Lee Bidwell, vice president; Ruby Cummings, secretary; Estel Skipwith, chairman Safety First committee; Russell Blackerby, chairman Good Manners committee; Emma Lee Muldrew, chairman Character Study committee, and Etta Sue Berkley, chairman Thrift committee.

Misses Emma Lee and Velma Muldrew visited friends and relatives in Oklahoma this week end.

Ernest West was complimented with a birthday party given Saturday morning from 9 to 10 o'clock by his mother, Mrs. E. C. West.

Misses Ina Lee Bidwell and Peggy Ruth Mashburn visited and shopped in Shamrock over the week end.

Miss Doris Cecil visited in Lefors Saturday and Sunday.

The fourth grade had three charming visitors last Monday morning: Misses Roberta Sargent, Ina Lois Ware and Anna Lois Cummings. We hope they'll come again soon.

Fifth Grade

John Carter visited in Pampa Sunday.

Ernest West had a birthday party Saturday, Nov. 14. Many games were played, the leading one being shinny. Ernest received several nice gifts, and everyone reported a good time.

Frank Kendall visited in Shamrock Sunday.

The fifth grade is very happy to have Dale and Marion Ware back in school.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade class had a program in chapel Monday on Columbus. The characters were: King Ferdinand, R. L. Gilmore; Queen Isabella, Virginia Blackerby; Columbus, Robert Batson; the Monk, Charles Carter; the Moor, Vergal Ray Smith; First Soldier, Sherman Shoop; Second Soldier, Clayton Mullins; a Page, R. W. Osborn. The play came from the sixth grade English book. Miss Robinson is the English teacher.

Maxine White visited in Oklahoma Sunday.

Mildred Durrett visited in Tucumcari, N. Mex., over the week end.

Flint Berlin visited in Shamrock Sunday.

The sixth grade arithmetic class had a contest Friday evening and Maxine White proved to be the best mathematician.

Seventh Grade

Clifford and Kenneth Young moved away Saturday.

The seventh grade took an examination in history and civics Friday.

Harley Cumbie has been working for several days. He is now in school.

Seventh grade citizenship club elected safety first officers Friday. T. J. Saye was elected.

Sports

Rev. Loyd, pastor of the Baptist church, has been coaching football. Much interest is being shown.

Mr. Brister and all interested in basketball have been playing after school. Both boys and girls are doing nice work.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cullins returned Sunday evening from a business trip to Odessa, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Durrett went to Tucumcari, N. Mex., Saturday on business.

Movie Chatter

Rhythm on the Range
 Listen, everybody; it makes no difference whether you like one kind of picture or another kind. Here is the general idea we are leading up to. Come out and see Rhythm on the Range and then if you do not agree with us that it is one more grand picture we will take down our sign and admit that we do not know anything about the merits of a good show. Bing Crosby claims it is his best picture, and Bob Burns says his bazooka is at its best. Lee Guthrie says it will be at the Rogue Friday and Saturday and that he personally guarantees it to please everyone, or else. He further states that Rhythm on the Range comes nearer to being like Montana Moon than any picture since that time. It is not just another western because it is being shown on Friday and Saturday. It is a special with all the adjectives you can think of to describe it. Bring the whole family.

The Princess Comes Across

Eugene Worley Main Speaker at Banquet

A banquet was given to the superintendents and principals of the surrounding schools here last Thursday night. The affair was held in the home economics cottage with Eugene Worley, state representative, as the main speaker.

There were about 20 people present.

Worley was a guest of W. C. Perkins, superintendent of Shamrock high school.

Worley made a very interesting talk on "Teachers Retirement Fund."

A discussion was brought up as to whether composite teams should play junior basketball. It was decided that they should not play.

The Wheeler girls quartet, Lula Barr, Marthalys Wiley, Dawn Weatherly and Orveta Puett, sang two selected songs. The songs were "Lassie o' Mine," and "Rockin' in de Wind."

STUDENTS OF TYPING PUZZLED AT WRITERS

"What is the matter with this typewriter?" "Mine won't write." "This sure is getting me down," were some of the expressions of the typing class. One day last week, Miss Ewing fixed all of the typewriters so that before they could be used they would have to be looked over.

Each person had to scrutinize his machine closely before he detected what caused its failure to write. This was to teach them to be able to know what to do when anything is wrong with the mechanism.

Future Home Makers to Give Play

Mrs. Gordon Whitener announced that the Future Homemakers and the Future Farmers of America are going to present a play in two or three weeks.

The play books have arrived. The characters have been selected and practice started.

MUSICAL PROGRAM IS GIVEN IN GYM. NOV. 18

A musical program entitled "Miss Blue Bonnet" was given at the auditorium gymnasium, Wednesday night.

Madge Chambers of Georgia was director. The program was sponsored by the Wednesday Study club, with local people taking part.

The money received from this program will be used for Christmas cheer.

Costumes and scenery imported from Georgia gave the performance a professional touch. The attendance was satisfactory, according to those in charge.

Publicity Received by Superintendent

In the Nov. 10 edition of the Amarillo News, Supt. J. L. Gilmore was introduced in the column, "Meet Your Neighbor." His picture and a short sketch of his achievements appeared.

Among other things, the article stated that "J. L. Gilmore, superintendent of Wheeler schools, is widely known in the schools of the Plains."

F. F. A. Pupils Judge Dairy Cows at Miami

Vocational agriculture teacher W. C. Zirkle and Troy Shipman, Joe Forrest, R. P. Farris and Ray Holly attended a poultry and dairy judging contest held in Miami Saturday, Nov. 14. These boys judged dairy cows. As yet, they do not know how they came out because they left before results were announced. While the judging contest was in progress the district vocational agriculture teachers held a meeting.

Last week the agriculture class went to the Willard farm and judged dairy cows. The teams made good scores on their placings although they were a little low on giving reasons, because of lack of practice.

Zirkle announced there will be other judging teams started. These will attend 10 or 12 contests to be held during the year.

BOY SCOUT PATROLS ARE CHOSEN FOR '37

The Boy Scouts met last Monday night in the gymnasium and the boys were divided into four patrols. Harrison Hall, H. E. Young, Raymond Badley and R. J. Puckett were chosen as patrol leaders. The four patrols played each other in a basketball game Tuesday evening. The boys are planning on a game with the Scouts of Mobeetie and Shamrock, soon.

Coaches Bob Clark and Stina Cain are meeting with the boys.

TYPING CLASS VISITS COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

The typing classes visited the county clerk's office Thursday morning. They were shown various records and an explanation of their use was given the classes. How records are kept, how mistakes are corrected and how they were placed on file were some of the explanations received.

Victory Over Lefors Pirates Give Mustangs District Title

Whew! Did You Know We Go 900 Miles Per Year on Our Busses

Did you know? That if one rides a bus five miles to school every day in a school term, 180 days, by the time school is out he will have ridden 900 miles. If the student has to walk one-half mile to the bus stop, by the end of school he will have walked 90 miles to catch the bus.

If each day he has to wait five minutes on the bus, by the end of school he will have waited for 15 hours, just to get to ride the bus. If each day a bus has to wait two minutes on 50 students, it would wait one hour and 40 minutes in one day; by the close of school it would have waited patiently 300 hours on the students.

If a bus route is 14 miles, it would travel 28 miles in one day, 180 days would make 5,040 miles besides the other trips that it makes.

If it takes five gallons of gasoline a day to feed the bus, by the time school is out it would have used 900 gallons of gasoline. If the gasoline costs 16 cents a gallon, by the close of school the one bus would have used $144 worth of gasoline.

PARTY PLANNED FOR HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Saturday night, Nov. 21, the faculty is sponsoring an all high school party in the gymnasium. Mrs. J. L. Gilmore and Mrs. Gordon Whitener will have charge of the entertainment.

The teachers wish to invite all students to be at the gymnasium Saturday night at 7:30 ready for an enjoyable evening.

Treasure Car Burns Near Shamrock

The "Treasure Car" that was to have been at school last Thursday, was burned completely to the ground. It was burned in the Roadside park near Shamrock, Wednesday night. This car belonged to a missionary from the South Sea Islands and contained many valuable relics and souvenirs from that region.

Championship First In School's History

Winners In Nine Contests; Mustangs Win Final Conference Game

Climaxing one of the most hectic football seasons ever played in the Panhandle, the Wheeler Mustangs swept to the top of the ladder in the District 3B race, by winning a clean-cut victory over the Lefors Pirates, 14-0, last Friday night.

With a possible tie in the conference chase looming in front of the Wheeler players, they played one of their best games to date. Although the Lefors team was determined to knock the league leaders from their perch, the Mustangs settled down to business and showed that their playing was not a flash in the pan.

By virtue of Wellington's win over the Fighting Irish of Shamrock on last Armistice Day, the Skyrockets captured second money in the flag race. With eight games played, they dropped their one and only to the Mustangs in their conference-opener on Sept. 18.

The Wheelerites knocked over seven of their opponents by decisive scores. However, their win over Clarendon was counted by virtue of obtaining the most first downs, as there were no touchdowns made by either team.

This is a first time for the Mustangs to annex a title. Class B football, as played under Interscholastic League rules, is a recent innovation and this is the first cup taken by a Wheeler team since playing under such regulations.

The Lefors-Wheeler game was the deciding contest of the season as to where the title was to stay for this year. A defeat of the Wheeler lads would have meant a tie with Wellington and a play-off for the conference championship.

With such a possibility staring them in the face, Coach Bob Clark's Wheeler Mustangs edged past the Lefors Pirates on the Wheeler gridiron last Friday night, 14-0.

Carruth led the Pirates and Ford was again the sparkplug of the Wheeler attack. Groves and Norman carried the ball more in this game

THANKS!

When our forefathers ordained the first Thanksgiving day, they did more than just set aside a day for thanks. They gave us a day that is looked forward to by millions.

This day is one where everyone feels most the influence of the Pilgrim Fathers. On that bleak November morning when the few persons met to express heart-felt thanks for their lives and health, not even the wildest imaginings could have shown what it was to mean to those of later years.

To us who are fortunate enough to be able to celebrate in a full fashion this day, it would not mean so much, perhaps, if we had to endure the things they did. But none could have been more appreciative. Each one has to feel in a measure the gratitude due their ancestors.

When the schools of the nation turn out for two or three days, they have a part in keeping this great day. It is not only a time to go to see grandmother, and to have turkey (even if that happens to be on the menu) and cranberries, but it is a moment for silent meditation.

Let this Thanksgiving be one of the best it has ever been yours to enjoy.

"LET GEORGE DO IT"

I wonder how many of the teachers had noticed that every once in a while several papers come in exactly like "George's?"

Oh, "George," nobody in particular, he or she may be George anybody. If you wonder why some of the students don't ever have to study it is because "George" gets their lessons for them.

"George" is the one who always reads the whole book. "George" is the one who writes all those themes. In short, "George" is the originality man for practically the whole school.

There's a "George" in every class. Isn't it convenient to have someone like that to do your homework?

YOUR SUPPORT NEEDED

The Red Cross organization is one of the best in the United States.

Self Rating Test

Adaptability

1. Do you refrain from grumbling about things which you cannot change?
2. Do you feel at ease with people, as: (1) At parties, (2) In the classroom, (3) In church, (4) At picnics, (5) Talking to superiors?
3. Are you able to keep from feeling superior to most of your associates?
4. Are you unhappy when your friends have better things than yours?

Dependability

1. Do you keep your promises?
2. Do you perform your house-keeping duties without being reminded?
3. Do you play and visit when you should be attending to duties?
4. Do you put things back in their proper places when you use them?
5. Do you keep your school work up to date?
6. Do you return borrowed articles?

COLTS

Mrs. John Ficke's room, 1B, enrolled a new student Monday morning. His name is Wayne Bates. Lillian Potts, who has been absent two weeks due to illness, is back in school. The Red Birds are getting a book. This will be the first book of the year for this class. The Robins are reading and studying their second book of the year. The Giant Killers are reading in their fourth book. The 1B class will give a midget show at the next faculty meeting.

Mrs. Gordon Phillips' class, 1A has a new student enrolled, Melba Waldo. They have started studying the Indian Book. The room mothers met Tuesday.

Mrs. Hood's third grade has started the study of Thanksgiving. Joan Hilgess and Charles Latham were absent Monday, due to illness.

Mrs. Lloyd Davidson's third grade has begun the study of a circus book, called Our Circus Friends. Robert Mitchell enrolled in the third grade, Monday morning.

The fourth grade, taught by Mrs. C. J. Meek, has three pupils back in school who have been absent for several weeks. They are Connie Pierce, Carl Pierce and Richard Montgomery.

Girls Practice Basketball at Phy. Ed.

Intramurals have quieted down, but during activity period the boys and girls are working out for basketball. This practice will enable the teams to get in shape quicker for the coming season.

Every person that possibly can, should join this organization because it has relieved the suffering of many people.

Small children that are not fortunate enough to be brought up in a home where they will be properly clothed and fed, are cared for by the Red Cross. They are given proper food and clothed warmly. Many children could not even go to school if it were not for the Red Cross giving them proper clothes.

In time of war, the Red Cross has more than proven its worth. In the last war, many men would have died if the Red Cross had not taken care of them.

Everyone should be interested in the Red Cross work and help it out as much as possible by joining it.

THREE NEW STUDENTS ENTER WHEELER HIGH

Three new students have started to school at Wheeler.

Ethel Claire Raney is a freshman from the Happy high school. She played basketball and was a member of the Home Economics club and the band. She will be a member of the Home Economics club here. She is also trying out for basketball.

Calvin Johnston is a freshman from Tullia school.

Genese Latham is a senior from Lefors. She was a member of the 4-H and Home Economics clubs. She plans to play volleyball this year.

WHAT IF?

Mildred was a plate instead of a Platter?

Amos was a whole book instead just a Page?

W. J. was a Lincoln instead of a Ford?

Olen was "Folgers" instead of Maxwell?

Herbert was gold instead of Green?

Harrison was a room instead of a Hall?

Stina was maze instead of Cain?

Alvis was sad instead of Jolley?

Troy was a boatman instead of a Shipman?

R. J. was a bucket instead of a Puckett?

Troy was a strawberry instead of a Derryberry?

H. E. was old instead of Young?

Everette was hot instead of Cole?

Bob was a milkman instead of a Tillman?

Louise was pork instead of Veale?

J. B. was blackeye instead of Crowder?

Marcille was a rancher instead of a Farmer?

Orveta was a duet instead of a Puett?

Julia Lou was a penny instead of a Tinney?

Viola was a sheep instead of a Lamb?

Parilee was sand instead of Clay?

W. C. was a circle instead of a Zirkle?

Beatrice was a tiller instead of a Miller?

Mal was snow instead of Wynn?

Bobbie Rue was a duck instead of a Swan?

Inez was a fisher instead of a Hunter?

Burgess Announced Queen of Football

Virginia Burgess, freshman, was crowned football queen last Friday night between halves of the Wheeler-Lefors game. Queen Virginia was preceded by Duchesses Marilyn Johnson, Wave Wallace, Irene Hunt and Imogine Jamison; Princesses Bonnie Adams, Lavell Jaco, Orveta Puett, Lula Barr, Clarice Robertson, Fern Davis and Louise Veale.

Miss Burgess was sponsored by the freshman class. She is from Magic City, where she was football queen last year. She is a member of the Home Economics club and plays basketball.

The queen received a total of 264,850 votes.

During the half the band came on the field followed by the Pep Squad and queen's attendants. The queen rode in a new Chevrolet and was crowned by Mayor Robert Holt.

Cleo Sewell was in Shamrock, Sunday.

Elva Willard motored to Corn Valley, Sunday.

SNUBBING POST

The rather useful sign "Who won the game? The Mustangs," continues to hold good. As a matter of fact, the Wheeler boys won the district. Of course this achievement was scheduled to occur from the first of the season, but there were very few fans actually certain of it.

Money seems to be popular in school this week—not the cashable kind though. One boy had a dollar that would go a long way, it was made of rubber. Another Mustang was flipping a Chinese coin.

Here's the jacket of the week: Troy has an attractive brown suede number. Several of the Pep Squad girls got an idea of what to use their sweat-shirts for when Robert Mayne pleaded with the yellsters not to cut them up for polishing cloths.

The students in Miss Adams' civics class are very adept readers. Ask R. J. and H. E. about the matter.

What is this about Lavell and a diamond circlet on her finger? Perhaps the adjective "creamy" used last week should have been saved to describe the new finish applied to the Aggie building. Offered for approval: "I'll Sing You A Thousand Love Songs," taken from "Cain and Mable."

A cage game is to be played either this week or next. It's unfortunate that some of the basketball girls can't sandwich in a period for practice. If a handful of lollipops is evidence, Doug Groves must like them. Sunday night he was passing them out to some senior boys.

As Herbert Hoover would say, Thanksgiving is just around the corner; Christmas is around two of them. Evidently a few of the Spaniards are left in Spain because we're still getting sanguinary warfare reports.

From all reports, "Rhythm on the Range" is a good bet to try in the movie-way. This film though suggesting cowhands, which it really has, also boasts some late song smashes.

Wallace is proudly exhibiting a small hankie from the Centennial with "The Streets of Paris" and a chorus girl worked in the corner.

W. J. Ford is getting to be quite a hero among the small boys. The fourth grade is drawing pictures of a football boy and calling it W. J.

SPARKS FROM THE CAMP FIRE

It is not good that the man should be alone.

Remove not the ancient landmark. As cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

Judge not according to the appearance.

Open rebuke is better than secret love.

Delay always breeds danger.

Every hero becomes a bore at last.

Receive the manners of each other nation.

Remember the old saying, "Faint heart never won fair lady."

You cannot put the same shoe on every foot.

Be not overcome with evil, but overcome evil with good.

Every sweet has its sour; every evil its good.

Render therefore to all, their dues.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

You have there hit the nail on the head.

Caught in The Lasso's Noose

Sylvia Louise Ficke almost fell into the waste paper basket one morning last week. She was looking at something else, reckon?

Wasn't it funny to see some of the boys changing coats to have their pictures taken last week. Alvis was rushed that day.

The latest kind of chewing gum was named by some small boy from Magic City, recently. Looking at a Gold Tip gum box, with winter green flavor, he said: "Wigglemint gum. First time I ever heard of that kind."

We are wondering who it was that Mary Genthe was sitting in the car with after the ball game, Friday night.

Helena Jones seemed to be very popular in Twitty, Sunday and say, Helena, who was the boy in the Ford car?

In English IV literature section, Miss Holbert announced that the class would start studying about Milton. When Bob, who had not been paying very much attention, asked, "Did you say Dillinger?"

Speaking of disgusted people, you should have seen Presley when she was writing her history and the pen point dropped from her pen into the bottle of ink.

Ruth Faye seems to have taken a new interest in a certain Mustang.

Bonnie seems to be interested in two people who are going to school at Lubbock. For further information, see her!

Wave and Beatrice say that Ferrol is beating their time. She happened to be with someone they liked Sunday night.

The history III students tried to play "Bingo" while reviewing Monday.

We don't know whether Aline was on the warpath or not, but she was heard "whooping" like an Indian in the Texas history class.

Earl Gilmore backed out rather hurriedly when he went into the typing room the other day. The journalism class was making the typewriters hum so (or rather pound) that he thought he was getting into the wrong room.

We wonder where all the love affairs are this year? Can it be the football boys' fault or is it just that Mr. Gilmore hasn't said anything about the subject?

Speaking of love affairs, I heard that Alton Weeks has been heard talking about Imogine Jamison a lot here lately. Another Mustang bit the dust!

Wonder why Herbert Whitener has been wearing a tie lately? If I were guessing, I'd say it was some more of those Magic City girls.

Ruth Faye had quite a time in chemistry laboratory the other morning looking through a magnifying glass.

Olen used the word corpse in English III last Tuesday. Wallace asked Miss Holbert what this word meant. When she told him that this meant

INTRODUCING—

Principal C. B. Witt, only member of the faculty serving in the World War, states that he has no hobby and that his ambition is "to inspire students to be diligent, and honest and make good citizens."

Witt graduated from Canyon high school and attended West Texas State Teachers college, where he received his degree. Witt is also a graduate of Harper Bible college at Harper, Kansas. He graduated from North State Teachers college at Denton, while he was in the tenth grade in high school.

Principal Witt taught one year in the Pakan school before he enlisted in the army. He was in service seven months, but did not go overseas.

"MAVERICKS"

"Win This District"

By LOUIS HAVENHILL

Football boys of the Wheeler Mustang team,
All Wheeler is counting on you to win it seems;
All the Panhandle consider you brave and smart,
They look up to you since you got your start.

There are three more games for you to play still
And we believe you can win these if you only will.
You have got what the other teams had when they began,
So win this district for we believe you can.

"Football"

By LOIS FICKE

I have heard football is hard to play,
But most boys play it every day.
It doesn't seem so hard to me,
Because I never played it. But Gee!
The Mustangs act like they enjoy
To roll those Cyclones in the dust, oh boy!

"Plea"

By HERBERT WHITENER

Miss Holbert! Miss Holbert!
Please give me an A.
You it will not hurt,
And 'twill make me so gay!

the deceased, he asked her what the deceased meant. Bob Tillman raised up and said that this was what happened when you "kicked the bucket." Wallace understood that.

Wave went with a Mustang instead of a Hornet Sunday night. How very strange?

We welcome you to our school, Ethel Claire Raney.

Seen: Martha Jane and Troy Shipman expressing brotherly and sisterly love in the study hall.

Miss Kirby: "Everyone must have their notebook by Wednesday. There are 40 problems."
Troy Lee: "I just lack 39."

Howard Nations was flipping a coin in history II while Miss Adams was giving a history test. The questions were true and false. He was having more success than the rest.

A suggestion from an outsider—the outsider, Mrs. D. A. Hunt. The suggestion—that those who have doubt as to "Big" Ford's correct age look at his teeth, as they do all Mustangs.

Careers for English Students Revealed

"Come a-ty ya yipee-yipee-ya!"
"Stop! there is a red light."
"Take this letter, please."
"Shovel in a little more coal."

No, this is not a guessing game, just an explanation of what kind of "lingo" the English IV students, grammar section, will be speaking some day.

They were asked to write a theme on what they would like to be when they launched upon their great career. If they carry out present plans, their lives will be dedicated to helping this world turn around.

Three students plan to be engineers. Do you suppose we will have a railroad through this town, then?

Two people think that coaching would be a great life. (Mr. Clark would be a good example for them).

Two students seem to like home-making and interior decorating, while two others want to be aviators. Ranchers, teachers, secretaries, oil field workers, truckdrivers and merchants will take up the rest of the class. One even thinks a journalist's life would be grand.

PEP SQUAD HOSTESS OF LEFORS PEP SQUAD, BAND

The Pep Squad was hostess to the Lefors Pep Squad after the football game Friday night at the home economics cottage. After getting acquainted with each other, a committee from the Wheeler Pep Squad served the guests with hot chocolate and cookies.

RAMBLINGS ON THE RANGE

Maryian Hestilow was in Shamrock, Saturday night.

Betty Gene Coil and Meta Bruton attended a show in Shamrock, Saturday afternoon.

Merle O'Gorman spent Sunday night with Elva Bell Crouch.

Lawson Hudson was in Shamrock Saturday afternoon.

R. C. Hawk, of Shamrock, visited Lois Walker, Sunday.

FROM OTHER BRANDING IRONS

At Canyon they have an organization of red-heads. There are already 28 student members, but it is estimated that not more than half of the college red-heads are members of the club. There wouldn't be much of an organization if there was one like that in Wheeler school.

Love's "Airy" Thought

She sat by the window
And looked up the street;
She clinched her fingers
And crossed her feet;
She sadly wondered
When the clock struck one,
If he really
Meant to come.
Then breaking the silence
Came the rattle of a can.
She knew he was coming,
The garbage man.

BEAUTY AND SWEETNESS OF AGE

Oranges, apples, lemons, grape fruit and bananas—how we do love to appropriate them unto ourselves! Umm—the very thought makes our mouths fill with the fluid that has the power to transform these fruits into health and happiness! But our fruit, such as we get at our markets, is a commercial sort, it has been gathered altogether too young. Go to the groves where they grow—take a look—eat there. And you will then get the force of this parable.

Yes, men and women, too, should ripen into beauty and sweetness as they grow old. If "experience is the best teacher," then, when we make proper use of blow and compliment; of old shoes, tomatoes and rotten eggs; of bouquets, rice and applause, we could but profit by them. But if we take them with bitterness, we sour to our very hearts. Then, as we grow older, we can but be offensive and a discomfort to others.

"Beauty is just skin deep"—well as the Lord leads us on in life that beauty goes deeper than the skin and will some day be taking root in the very heart. It may disappear from the skin insofar as "the rose, dimple, duple and freckles" are concerned; but beauty is not always in color, it is often expressed in sounds and actions.

I love these words of Mexien De Doux Manion on the subject of "Light."

O Lord, 'twas yesterday I prayed:
Lift me up, high out of the night
To kneel beside Thy Throne of Light;

Clear these eyes that they may see
Unclouded vision of Thy majesty—
Said my Saviour, "Follow me."

Our path led down, deep through a valley dim

With shadow slant and filled with tears;

And swirled about me nameless
dreads and fears,

Till I must needs fix eyes on Him
Who led the way, Who'd trod that path before—

Oh . . . e're we merged, my heart had seen

Miracles!—blackness changed into a sheen

Of dazzling Bright—not only this but more,

For LIVING is the Light, with vict'ry over death

And shadows of the night, and loss
and pain;

With pow'r to cleanse all sin's dark stain;

Upon His bosom I had leaned, and felt His breath

Of life, and from the touch of pierced hands my sight

Unclouded grew, and then I knew that He is Light.

O Lord, in all humility I pray,
Send me down, deep into the night,
And earthen lamp to shine Thy
Light;

Cleanse this life; may others see
It pointing shining-clear to Thee.

Mustangs Next Game Is Still Undecided

Who does the Mustangs play next? This is the question everyone is asking everybody else and still no one knows who the Wheeler lads do play next.

Coach Bob Clark stated that they will play someone sometime, and the Mustangs will be ready at any time.

In the north, the Panhandle Panthers look very fierce and it looks like they will be a strong contender for the regional. While in the south it seems that Paducah has their district in the bag and are ready to take them as they come.

So just hold your hat, for those Mustangs will have plenty of competition soon!

CANADIAN KITTENS DEFEAT COLTS 20-0

The Colts lost their Armistice Day game to the Canadian Kittens by a score of 20-0.

Although the Colts fought a hard battle to win this game, they lost. The main reason for this defeat was because they were outweighed several pounds to the man. The Kittens were a large team and their power lay in plunging through the line. The Colts gained more yards on passes and spinning plays.

The Colts played a good clean game and did not receive a penalty during the period of playing. Their opponents were penalized 45 yards during the game.

The last touchdown of the game was scored late in the fourth quarter when the referee told the Wheeler players that they could lay down as Canadian had called time out. All but three players were laying on the ground when the game was resumed without the referee blowing his whistle to announce that it was time to start playing again. With nine of Wheeler's players on the ground, the Kittens had an easy time crossing the goal line.

The first counter came in the second quarter when a pass was intercepted, giving Canadian the ball in a good scoring position. They made the touchdown three plays later. The kick from placement was good making the score 7-0 in favor of the Kittens. Another touchdown came late in the third period when a Wheeler punt was blocked. The point was made on an end run.

The last counter was made late in the fourth quarter.

Outstanding playing was done by the Wheeler squad and their center, Frank Thompson, played most of the game in the Canadian backfield.

The starting line ups:

Wheeler	Pos.	Canadian
Carver	LE	Weaver
A. Jones	LT	Thrusher
Adams	LG	Chesher
Thompson	C	Reed
Hampton	RG	Henderson
Wright	RT	Pickens
Burke	RE	Mathes

Backfield

Wheeler — Groves, Puckett, H. Jones and Hall.

Canadian—Briggs, Ludden, Gehart and Ficke.

Substitutions: Wheeler—Weeks for Adams; Crowder for Carver; C. Jones for Thompson; Adams for Hampton; A. Nations for A. Jones.

Wheeler Colts Have Successful Season

The Wheeler Colts have turned in their suits for this season. These Sometown-Mustangs have had a very successful season, winning two games and losing two for a 50% average.

They have defeated Pampa 32 to 0 and also have a victory over Kelton 28 to 0. Their defeat came at the hands of the strong Kelton first stringers, 18 to 0. They also lost to the Canadian Kittens, 18 to 0.

Several of these boys will be next year's Mustangs. The following boys have been reporting daily for practice:

Puckett, Hall, H. Jones, Groves, Carver, Cooper, Crowder, A. Jones, Wright, A. Nations, H. Nations, Hampton, Burke and Thompson.

Inquiring Reporter

What do you think of a Student Body Association?

Mr. Witt: At the present time I think we have too many organizations and clubs. However it might work out to be a benefit to the school.

Elva Willard: I think it is a pretty good idea.

W. J. Ford: I think it would be great.

Troy Derryberry: I think it would be grand.

Ruth Faye Garrison: I think it would be a good thing, because it would bring the students and classes closer together.

Mustangs Make 137 Points—Opponents Chalk Up 26 Points

The Mustangs played nine games of football so far this season and at the present have not lost one. They have scored 137 points through scrimmage, passes and extra points and their opponents have only scored 26.

They have made 21 touchdowns and kicked 11 extra points. The Mustangs have had a very successful year on passes and their wins over the stronger teams were mostly made on passes.

The closest game of the season was the Clarendon Bronchos. The Mustangs won this game by one first down.

Four scores were made on intercepted passes. Two were intercepted by Weeks in the Memphis game and Weeks intercepted one and crossed over the pay line in the Shamrock game. Ford intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown in the first encounter of the season with the Miami Warriors.

SPORT SLANTS

How would you like to have a post-season game of football? This game would be played between the north and south part of the district and would be played on Christmas day for charity.

The teams that could participate in the southern part of the district are: Wellington, Memphis, Clarendon and Lakeview. Teams in the north are: Wheeler, Shamrock, McLean, Mobeetie and Lefors.

Then let Coach Joe Coleman of Wellington and Coach "Chesty" Walker of Memphis coach the south and Coach Bob Clark of Wheeler and Coach Garrison Rush of Shamrock coach the north.

People from far and near would come to see the best 22 players battle it out for high grid honors.

Let's all talk this up among the fans and have a grand time Christmas.

The girls tumbling class is progressing very fast. They build a pyramid by putting several on the bottom and grow fewer as it gets to the top. They have learned several different stunts and Mrs. Gordon Whitener, the director, said they would put on a program soon.

The Mustangs are wondering who they will have to play next to win the cup. It will either be Perryton, Paducah, or Panhandle. At least, we know the initial letter.

We understand the Pep Squad is going to keep on pepping for all athletic events this year. This is something unusual, as it ordinarily disbands at the finish of football season. More pep to you, girls!

It seems that the hardest thing for the volleyball girls to learn is getting the ball out of the net. The girls practiced this Monday. They have also practiced "placing" the serve.

The football boys initiated their new suits in the Lefors game last Friday night. And so these new togs have not been stained in defeat—as yet.

The basketball girls all seemed quite disappointed when they couldn't practice because the public speaking class had to have class in the gym.

WHEELER HIGH "MUSTANGS" DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

that any of the previous games of the season.

Wheeler made their first touchdown when they started a drive from their own 13 yard stripe late in the first period. Several runs and two penalties placed the ball on the 23-yard line where a pass from Ford to Derryberry over the goal line made the counter. Ford converted for the point.

Their other score came in the fourth period when Green recovered a fumble over the goal line. Captain Ford kicked out on the 2-yard line where Lefors took the ball. Carruth attempted to kick out of the danger zone. When he caught the ball he fumbled and Green, Mustang guard, fell on the ball for a touchdown. Ford kicked the point.

The Mustangs were outweighed more than they had ever been in any game of the season. The Pirates were penalized 50 yards and the Mustangs received 40 yards in penalties.

The Pirates gave the Mustangs one of their hardest battles of the year. The Pirates had only one victory to their credit and that was over the lowest team in the district, while the Mustangs did not have a defeat on their list. The Mustangs did not have the determination that they have possessed in the games before this one, but the Pirates played their best game of the season.

The Pirates were outplayed during the game, The Mustangs getting 11 first downs and the Pirates' first downs only totaling nine.

Hundreds of fans from all over the Panhandle saw the game. A majority, however, were local fans and the fans of the visiting team. The Lefors band and pep squad were on hand and these two groups put on an exhibition at the half. The crowning of the football queen was staged by the Wheeler Pep Squad.

AN AMBASSADOR IN CHAINS

Printed Text: Acts 28:16-24, 30-31; Rom. 5:6-11. Helps: Acts 23:1-12; 28:16-31; Rom. 1-11; Phil. 1:12-14; 4:2-4. Devotional Reading: Isa. 2:2-4.

Approach

In approaching our lesson, let us bear in mind that we have come to the close of one of the most colorful careers of all the Apostles of Christ; and to that of one of the greatest religious workers of all time.

Would you consider your Christian life a success if, after many years of depriving yourself of the luxuries of life; of physical sufferings; of persecutions, being hounded, imprisoned, stoned and thought dead, accused and arrested of false charges; and, finally, to spend the last few years of your life in prison and to die at the guillotine? Well, this was the lot of the most successful Christian service with which any man has been privileged to glorify his Lord.

Great men, in the eyes of the world and because of worldly service as a humanitarian, social and economic servant, have risen to great fame and acclamation, died, and in a second generation, almost entirely forgotten. Not so with Paul. After more than ninety hundred years he still lives in the hearts of millions of people the world over! Truly, he was "an ambassador on behalf of Christ" (2 Cor. 5:20).

Should we not be ashamed of our fretful, nervous, irritable complaint at our lot when we have not suffered even to the one-thousandth part of what was suffered by either Paul or Christ? Let us not forget the warnings of our Lord in the Parable of the Sower where He warned against "but when trials and persecution ariseth because of the Word, straightway he stumbleth" Mat. 13:21).

Historical Setting

The history of Acts, 28th chapter, was made about A. D. 60-62, at Rome. While at Corinth, Paul wrote the Epistle to Rome about 58 A. D.

THE HEART OF THE LESSON

Introduction

An ambassador is a messenger or agent officially appointed to the service on behalf of others. All Christians should consider themselves appointed to a service on behalf of Christ and by Him. Some are public servants, while others are but "good Samaritans." Some go here and there, far and near; while others remain quietly in one place and in a very small circle. Some starting at a fruitful success of "thirty-fold" increase rapidly through "sixty" to "one-hundred fold." Others advance more slowly, but, by the grace of God, surely. None of these lose their "crown of reward."

Paul's "two chains" (Acts 21:33) were referred to in 24:27, 26:29 and 28:16, 20.

The Golden Text

I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me.—Phil. 4:13.

Christ gives strength when and where strength is needed. And when the strength comes, the work can be done and the worker may then "rejoice in the Lord and in the strength of His might" (Eph. 1:19; 6:10).

But what failures have been suffered by many who would strive to accomplish the Lord's work in their own strength and wisdom! And in our day, many are they who thus strive and the Lord is thus dishonored. Young men and women are sent away to various kinds of schools, colleges and universities for training. They aspire to the "ministry," personal work and to missionary fields. But, whatever may be their training as to knowledge and skill, if they are not well-groomed in the Spirit as one who waits on the Lord (Acts 1:4) for the strength which God supplieth (I Pet. 4:11; Phil. 4:19; Gal. 3:5 first clause), and for wisdom (which "bath been hidden" I Cor. 2:7) which comes in answer to prayer (Jas. 1:5-8), they can but work "after the manner of men."

When We Enter into Rome

The Lord told Paul that he would go to Rome (Acts 23:11). But he was then a prisoner in Jerusalem, and it seemed that the whole Jewish race was bent on his destruction; how was he to get to Rome? Paul did not worry about that, nor did he ask a single question as to the how and when. He, like Abraham, was walking by faith. As a matter of fact, however, it was a long, perilous and terrible journey (Acts 27:1-44; 28:1-16).

Paul Before the Jews in Rome

After a very brief rest (v. 17), Paul called to him the Jews of that city. This was always his custom when entering a new field—"first to the Jews and then to the Gentiles." Although the Jews elsewhere had unjustly and cruelly treated him, he had no accusation to bring against his nation. The love of Christ constrained him (2 Cor. 5:14, 20) to seek their salvation (Rom. 10:1).

Paul's Great Diplomacy

Out of his love for Israel, Paul was "as wise as a serpent" in seeking his coveted opportunity to preach Christ to them (vs. 17-22). He got his opportunity and how wonderfully he used it. The Jews in Rome had the greatest chance to know their Messiah for they had not been prejudiced against Paul and Christ as were the Jews in Judaea. They had heard of "this sect," as they called the Christians, and that in no favorable way. However, they seemed willing to hear and judge for themselves. They heard. Some believed. Others disbelieved.

This is the last attempt of New Testament record to reach Israel as a nation with the Gospel. Rejected as a nation, yet as individuals (as it was also with the Gentiles) they must decide their future before God. Though rejected as a nation, they are not cut off as a people (Rom. 11:1, 2). In Romans 9th, 10th and 11th chapters Paul fully discusses this great theme. They are to be "grafted in again" (Rom. 11:23) after "the fullness of the Gentiles be come in" (Rom. 11:25).

Paul's Subject

Yes, it was the "Kingdom of God." He persuaded them concerning Jesus "from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening" (vs. 23, 31). Now, one would be charged as an extremist and a radical and booted as one to be feared and shunned in some churches.

In Due Season

(Rom. 5:6) After the fall of Adam, God had foreordained the salvation of man through faith in Christ the crucified. And "in due season" the Christ came and died, as a substitute for the sinner on the cross. Yes, "while we were yet weak." For no man is able to save himself or to justify himself before a holy and righteous God.

For Whom Did Christ Die?

(Vs. 7-11) The "ungodly" (v. 6), "sinners" (v. 8), "enemies" (v. 10), those worthy of "the wrath of God" (v. 9).

Not as a Martyr

Let us get this lesson well from the 7th and 8th verses. Few people will die for a righteous man or a righteous cause. They who do are martyrs. For the good man some would even dare to die. Should he, he also would die as a martyr. But Christ did not die for such. He died for unworthy, condemned sinners and enemies to God and to the good. Not as a martyr, but as a sacrifice, an offering for the sinner that His blood might "cleanse" the sinner and save him "from the wrath of God." Yes, His death was an absolute necessity if the sinner is to be saved.

O, my friends, do not deceive yourselves, neither let others deceive you in thinking that your own righteousness or goodness is sufficient ground for your salvation! For then Christ would have died in vain. If, by your own ability to be "good" you should be able to save yourself, then by your goodness you mock the man who tries and tries again to be "as good," but is unable.

And, how such deception mocks God! You are not perfect in your goodness and you know it and you really admit it. Then, just how perfect must you be, if your own "perfection" is your justification? Who set the standard? Did you say "Jesus?" Then all are lost!—and even you, because no man ever patterned perfectly after that "Perfect Pattern." If, then, God saved you on your own imperfect "goodness," is He not unjust, if He does not also save me, who am so far behind you in goodness?

Every sinner has a just right to cry out against God, if God finally rejects him; that is, if salvation is based upon the ground of man's own goodness. But God saves only on the ground of Christ's perfection and the sinner's faith in Him as a just, acceptable substitute before God. And He must pay the penalty of the sinner's transgression as well as furnish the believing sinner with perfection.

LESSON QUIZ

1. Tell how Paul got to Rome. 2. Was Paul a free man? 3. What is an ambassador? 4. Who guarded Paul? 5. And why? 6. What explanation did he give the Jews in Rome of his imprisonment? 7. Had these Jews heard about Christianity? 8. What did they call the Christians? 9. Did the Jews believe Paul's message? 10. What is the great truth of Rom. 5:6-11?

DEAR DISTRESSED DAMSEL:

Perhaps you wonder why the poor motorist is using such a "rich" mixture. Lady, the reason is that the tank contains ordinary low test gasoline.

That's why the driver had so much trouble in starting, and why it is taking so long for his motor to warm-up. With all his yanking on the choke, the engine is still missing and sputtering.

He isn't enjoying it a bit more than you are... and in addition, it is costing him real money because with the choke out he is using up gasoline 5 to 15 times faster than normal! Besides, he is thus diluting the oil in the crankcase, which is one of the chief causes of winter damage to motors.

... How can he correct the trouble? Easily. All he has to do is use Phillips 66 Poly Gas and use less choke. It is made by the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER of natural high test gasoline. This explains its extra high test and the pleasant fact that it costs nothing extra.

It starts cold motors with split-second speed. Warms them up fast. Delivers maximum power with minimum fuel. And obviously, it increases mileage per gallon by decreasing the need for wasteful choking.

Since Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs no more than ordinary gasolines, how can you possibly lose by trying a tankful!

Church Is Steadfast Throughout the Ages

Methodist Pastor Discusses Subject In Announcement of Activities of Denomination

"Men may come and men may go but I go on forever," said the brook. This is a quotation from one of the Brownings, Tennyson, or someone else, but no matter who was the author of this statement, there are some institutions that are as the brook. Men create certain institutions from generation to generation to serve mankind.

One institution man did not originate and as the brook, men may come and men may go but this one organization remains with slight modifications from century to century. Who has not stood on the brook's edge and studied its nature and activity? It is affected by its environment and nonrelated forces. The nature of the soil, the rains, and drouth cause the brook to change its conditions. Flowing through a level section the current is not so swift as in a broken section. The rains cause it to rise and increase its volume and power. The drouth reduces its power and volume and may turn a fresh clear stream into stagnant pools breeding malignant germs.

The church has its seasons of refreshing and drouth and this is due to the ebb and flow of the spirit of the membership of the churches. We are frequently reminded that this is a day of spiritual death. If there is a spiritual dearth this can be turned into seasons of refreshing. Maybe not as we should like to see it nor as some would say, "as it used to be," but for the best interest of the people.

Our church school meets at a convenient hour and the pastor will use, "The Value of the Church School" at 11 Sunday. The Young People's and preaching hours may be changed Sunday night.

At the 11 o'clock hour there will be a public installation of all church officials, church school teachers and workers of the church. It is desired that all of these be present at the morning hour.

At the evening hour the pastor will outline some of the fundamentals of the Christian religion and emphasize some factors necessary for people to be Christians. We hope for a representative gathering of the church membership at this hour.

There will be no change in the weekly meetings of the church. We call attention to the ladies district meeting at Shamrock, Dec. 4, at which time the elder calls a meeting of the preachers and district stewards.

The parsonage folks have been very cordially received by the officials, members of the church and the citizenship of the town. We shall be seeing the folks as rapidly as we can but with all there is coming to our attention it will require a while to get around.

A MESSAGE TO EVERYONE

If you can afford to be without Family Group Insurance this message will not interest you. If you cannot afford to be without Protection you should investigate that Family Group Policy written by Cliff Weatherly unless you have seen this policy before, you will be surprised to know how reasonable you can have this Protection for yourself and family. Amount of policy depends upon the amount you can afford to pay. No medical examination required to secure a policy. Buy only what you can pay for; only a few CENTS per month. Each member of the family can carry a different amount of insurance.

I'm Selling FORDS

After seeing the New 1937 line of Fords on dealer display at Oklahoma City, I realized THAT was the car I wanted to sell and MUST sell to my friends in Wheeler and Wheeler county.

My many years experience as Ford salesman has convinced me that the Ford is the outstanding car in the low price class.

I'm again connected with the old reliable firm
