Hijackers Plunder Tobacco Truck Wednesday Afternoon

Secure About $1,000 in Cash and Merchandise During Daylight Holdup On Highway

SHOOT AT TRUCK

Pampa Wholesale Company Vehicle Halted Near Mobeetie—Driven to Side Road, Looted

Driving alongside a Pampa Wholesale company's tobacco delivery truck at a point about four miles east of Mobeetie at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, three hijackers obtained a haul of approximately $1,000 in cash, checks and merchandise after bringing the vehicle to a halt and taking it and the driver, Elmer Wade, 19, to an isolated spot on a side road seven miles due west of this city.

Wade's delay in complying with the order to halt came near costing him his life or serious injury. In an interview here late in the afternoon, Wade stated that his first thought was to attempt a getaway, suspecting a holdup.

The few seconds delay brought prompt action. A shotgun was shoved through the window of the bandit car, a 1936 brown Plymouth sedan, and a charge fired into the left front door of the truck. Heavy shot from the weapon tore a three-inch hole in the outer shell of the door, sending their force against a steel brace supporting the glass. A few inches either way and the charge would have gone through, probably striking the driver about the knees.

When the heavy truck had been brought to a stop, Wade was ordered to dismount. As he did so, a cloth was thrown over his head and tied. He thus had little opportunity to get a look at his captors. However, he did see the bandit car and recognized it, according to a statement made to officers, as one that passed him this side the river bridge between here and Shamrock when he was coming to Wheeler. He also saw the car in Wheeler, he said.

Two of the men got into the truck with Wade and started driving. He was unable to determine the distance or direction taken, except that somewhat rough roads were traversed for quite a ways. Reaching a point west of Wheeler near the Allred place, the truck was stopped and Wade ordered out. His hands and feet were securely bound with adhesive tape.

He could hear the removal of merchandise and injury done to the engine of his truck. Then the hijackers drove away in their car. Freeing himself of the blindfold and tape on his ankles, young Wade made his way to a nearby farmhouse, where assistance was procured to remove the bindings from his wrists. Reaching the nearest telephone, he called officers in Wheeler and notified them of his plight. He also came into town to get help to bring in the truck, which was found to be not seriously damaged.

Absence of Sheriff Raymond Waters and Deputy Walter Davis, who had gone to a conference of Western Oklahoma and Texas peace officers at Memphis, threw major responsibility upon Deputy W. O. Dewese, his son, George, and Constable L. C. McBee of Wheeler. Wide-spread phone and radio alarm was broadcast over the region but no trace of the bandit car or men had been reported late today. Sheriff Waters returned last night when informed of the incident and has been investigating the matter in hopes of unearthing a clue that will lead to capture of the hijackers.

Wade related how a member of the trio reprimanded the one who did the shooting; also how he, himself, thought it a blank cartridge until after releasing himself and inspecting the truck.

The young man's estimate of loss yesterday closely tallies with that made public since by officials of the wholesale company. The loot consisted of about $200 in cash, $300 in checks and $525 worth of merchandise, principally cigars. On his rounds, Wade delivers cigars and tobacco to the trade as required; also collects accounts as he goes; hence the bandits evidently knew his route and surmised that a considerable sum of money might be found in his possession as he neared his home town after a trip.

Grey Bean of Cheyenne, Wyo., came home Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bean, and children, Misses Audrie and Mazie and Robert, for a few days. Mr. Bean has been away two years and four months; during that time he has been employed in a drug store at Cheyenne, Wyo., and at Denver, Colo.

BOLTON BRINGS IN HUGE SWEET SPUD

To date, and practically without a contest, prize recognition goes to G. A. Bolton for the largest sweet potato. Last week Bolton brought in a 3-pounder he just accidentally picked up while digging the tubers. Through negligence, The Times failed to mention the spud. Of course we wouldn't know, but evidently determined to win the mention to which he is justly entitled, this good farmer living just southeast of town, on Tuesday hoisted a 5½-pounder yam up on the office service counter and after a little urging, admitted that he had "kinda looked around" for the mammoth 'tater.

17 County Young Men Enroll for CCC Work

WPA-Welfare and Resettlement Relief Employment Each Gets Portion—May Use More

According to Miss Leona Crossland, county relief administration employe, a total of 17 young men have been enrolled for work in the Citizens Conservation corps. The number is apportioned between two divisions, Resettlement and WPA and Welfare. Names of enrollees, together with postoffice addresses, are as follows: Resettlement—Erbie L. Bowen, Allison; Jack W. Barton, Mobeetie; Robert L. Clemons, Sweetwater, Okla.; Lee Valentine, Shamrock; Edgar O. Walker, Wheeler.

Although this number fills the present county quota, states Miss Crossland, she also expressed the belief that others would be accepted or may be even solicited to engage in CCC work.

Huge Dedication for Quail School Sunday

All-Day Program Includes Prominent Speakers, Basket Lunch and Singing Convention

The new $45,000 high school building will be formally dedicated next Sunday, Oct. 18. This is according to Carl Chaudoin, former superintendent at Mobeetie, who was here Monday inviting Wheeler county friends to attend the big fiesta.

Chaudoin declares preparations have been made to take care of a crowd of 2,000 guests upon this occasion. An elaborate program has been planned. The program is scheduled to begin Sunday morning and will continue into the afternoon, when it will conclude with a singing convention.

Many outstanding speakers of the Panhandle are scheduled to appear; the Wellington band will provide music, and J. D. Wilson, deputy state superintendent, is expected to be present.

The new Quail school, which has been recently completed and equipped, will serve the largest rural high school district in Texas. The occasion of the dedication therefore has attracted state-wide interest. In addition to the new $45,000 building, the school is also served by the old $15,000 structure.

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET TO SHAMROCK THIS YEAR

At a meeting of county school officials, held here Saturday, W. C. Perkins, superintendent of the Shamrock schools, was elected director-general of the county interscholastic league. Upon relinquishment by Mobeetie to priority rights for the spring meeting, Shamrock entered a claim, which was allowed.

G. B. Rush, Shamrock coach, was named director of athletics. Supt. J. L. Gilmore and Mal Wynne, Wheeler, are members of the executive committee.

County Farm Council Adopts Good Program

Meeting Held Here Saturday Afternoon to Consider Outline Year's Activities

Pursuant to the call made by County Agent Jake Tarter, the Wheeler County Farm council met in the court house here Saturday afternoon for the purpose of studying and adopting a program for the coming year. In the absence of the chairman, O. C. Evans was chosen by acclamation as temporary presiding officer.

Jake Tarter gave an outline of the year's work, discussing in detail the topics mentioned in an article in The Times last week. The general proposed program was then adopted.

Other motions made and adopted include: That the organization go on record as favoring two cornless years, in an effort to check spread of the corn borer; that the body favors jackrabbit drives this winter; that it favors chiseling of land as a water and soil conservation measure; that it approves a county-wide farm and home improvement contest.

A motion prevailed that the men's council work with the County Home Demonstration club ladies in promoting the farm and home contest. A committee consisting of Clarence Zybach, Tom E. Laman and Dusan Palkan was appointed to direct this activity.

It was decided that the council meet once a month, the Saturday afternoon before the first Tuesday in each month.

Wheeler Motor Co. Gets New Mechanic

Lloyd Anglin Accepts Place Vacated by Bill Griffin—Moves to Wheeler from Mobeetie

Lloyd Anglin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anglin of Wheeler, has accepted the position of mechanic at the Wheeler Motor Co., Chevrolet sales and service, beginning this week. Anglin succeeds Bill Griffin, who severed connection with the organization.

The Anglin family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Anglin and children, are moving to their residence in the west part of town from Mobeetie, where they have lived for the past two years. He has been operating the county highway tractor in Precinct 1, Commissioner W. W. Adams' district, while living in Mobeetie.

The Anglins are well known here and have a host of friends who will be glad to welcome them back to Wheeler.

Superintendents J. L. Gilmore and B. T. Rucker will be key representatives from Wheeler of the ex-students of West Texas State Teachers college at the giant banquet of federated ex-students of all the Texas teachers colleges. So says a special to The Times from Canyon.

Two thousand five hundred guests are being planned for at the banquet, probably the biggest ever held in Texas, which will take place Nov. 27 as a part of the meeting of the State Teachers association. Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon and Supt. John W. Gregory of McAllen are to be speakers on the program.

OCTOBER TERM OF COUNTY COURT ENDED YESTERDAY

The regular two weeks October term of county court came to a close yesterday. The first week was in session without jury assistance. Early this week the case of Fred Buchanan, charged with assault and battery on the person of B. D. Hutchison, a criminal case, was heard by a jury which returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at 90 days and a $25 fine.

County Gets Drought Freight Rates

Special drought freight rates can only be secured by purchasers of feed if the shipment is consigned to the drought committees in the designated drought counties, announces Jake Tarter, county agent. He has received this information from Texas extension service headquarters at College Station. Wheeler county has recently been admitted to the drought freight rate group.

"Farmers ordering carlots of feed should be sure to remember this," cautions Tarter, "or they will lose the advantage offered by the special rate."

Douglas Jarrell of Amarillo was a Tuesday business caller in Wheeler.

Dedication at Bethel Will Be Held Sunday

One of Largest Grade Schools in State, Serving 90 Sections—Good Program

"You are invited," states a bulletin issued by County Superintendent B. T. Rucker, "to attend the dedication program at Bethel consolidated school on Sunday, Oct. 18, beginning at 2:30 p. m. Outstanding speakers, special music, refreshments served by the home economics department."

These are the highlights of the exercises, which will be given in a well-rounded program to be followed by inspection of the new building.

Bethel is said to be one of the largest grade schools in Texas, serving 90 districts, which formerly had four separate schools within its boundaries. Modern equipment is being installed, including a floor furnace heating system. Special courses will include practical subjects, such as manual training for boys and homemaking for girls.

The new consolidated unit is typical of the progressive school program being sponsored in Wheeler county. Located in the county's newest oil field, Bethel appears destined to become one of the richest grade schools in the state.

STABILIZED CURRENCY

Biggest international economic news in many a moon was the announcement that France had finally left the gold standard and devalued the franc, and that England, the United States and France were at last to co-operate in seeking to stabilize currencies.

There are various ways of looking at France's long anticipated move. Critics say that currency devaluation is simply a dubious scheme for making one dollar into two—that it is simply another word for inflation. England started it, five years ago, and was followed by the United States three years ago, when we changed the fixed price of gold from $22 to about $35 an ounce.

However, the great bulk of commentators feel that France's action and the three-power stabilization compact are good things. Even such strong anti-New Dealers as Frank Kent and Mark Sullivan have given the president credit for authorizing the agreement. The reasons for such approval are two-fold: It is believed that stabilized international currencies will be a spur to lagging world trade and will better the chance for keeping world peace.

There are three main currency units in the world—the franc, the pound, and the dollar. Other currencies hinge upon one or the other of these—that is the purchasing power of the lire, the mark and other currencies is dependent upon what happens to the currencies of the three great financial powers, with their tremendous gold reserves.

As a result, if the franc, the pound and the dollar are stabilized so that their purchasing power in relation to each other does not change from time to time, as it has in the past, the purchasing power of other currencies will likewise remain constant.

The effect of this on the world trade situation is obvious. When currencies move up and down in their relation to each other, normal trade is impossible, for the reason that a country cannot carry on import and export business when it doesn't know what a dollar will buy tomorrow in England, or what a franc will buy next week in the United States. All during the depression the major currencies have been subjected to great fluctuation—and the upshot is that international trade has stayed at a very low level, while domestic trade in most countries has been expanding and approaching "normal" level.

AN INDUSTRIAL TEXAS

For a long time Texas has had the honor of being at the top in the list of states of agriculture and cattle. The Texas Department of Agriculture has offered assistance to farmers and state crops have for a great number of years paid their way.

It seems that a similar department concerned with bringing new industries into being, with finding ways for putting more of the state's natural resources into profitable production and with focussing attention of the industrial world upon Texas would also pay in a large way.

Industries can be operated as cheaply in Texas as anywhere. The state has the largest gas supply for fuel. Raw products such as cotton, wool, mohair and others are produced in abundance. Industries would be near the source of supply of raw products, and if Texas goes after this business in the right way, there is no reason why these industries cannot be secured for Texas.

AMERICA'S SAFETY VALVE

No one can tune in very long on the current presidential campaign without developing a pretty good case of distrust—if not disgust—of and with the professional name-callers. With the campaign approaching the last stretch, some bitter things have been written and broadcast on both sides; but these are not a "patchin'" to what may be heard between now and election day. Candidates are at it tooth and nail, with the sky the limit.

It's just a good old American custom, that's all. Nobody is—nor should be—rebuked for campaign utterances. There may be a few proprietary restrictions on the freedom of speech and of the press, but fundamentally the show goes on without let or hindrance.

One may not like the name-calling,

Texas farmers along the New Mexico state line, especially in Parmer and Curry counties, are becoming desperate from the inroads made on crops by ducks and geese, which have descended upon the vicinity the past week. The farmers have asked the sheriff's office at Farwell if they might open up on the intruders with their guns. The birds are fully protected by law until the latter part of November.—Hereford Brand.

H. A. Talley resigned his position as cashier of the First State bank of Miami, effective Sept. 23, and will devote all his time to his farm and ranch interests in Roberts county. The final score was Clarendon 0, Wheeler 0. Clarendon lost. Clarendon won. All of which may seem a bit befuddled. But nevertheless, each of the statements is a fact. The score was 0-0. Each team had one 20-yard penetration to its credit. And Wheeler had nine first downs, to eight for Clarendon, and was awarded the conference game for this reason. But Clarendon won because the vaunted Mustang delegation was doped to plaster them by at least three touchdowns.—Clarendon News.

The story is going the rounds of a country boy deep into the woods of East Texas who never wore a pair of shoes in his entire life. His father, when he was 18, finally bought him a pair of "brogans." The boy put them on and stood in the same spot for three hours thinking he was tied to the ground. When he discovered he could walk, he traveled the entire 14 miles to his home backwards, just to see his tracks in the deep sand.—Plainview Weekly.

My Trip to the Amarillo Fair

By MARY ALICE LEDGERWOOD
 The Heald Chorus club which sang at the Tri-State Choral contest, Sept. 25, left the school building at 7:30 a. m. and arrived in Amarillo about 9:30 o'clock. We visited the livestock exhibits until assembly at the grand stand, where we with about 300 other school children from over the Texas Panhandle, sang in a massed chorus the songs that were sung at the Texas Centennial exposition at Dallas, June 13.
 Supt. Clift, of the Potter county schools, was chairman of the meet, and Mrs. Graham, county music supervisor of Potter county, directed the sing-song. Mrs. I. D. Cole, president of the Texas Federation of Music clubs, gave a talk to the crowds in the grandstand and to the singers.
 At 11:30 a. m. we entered the contests in the Wilbur C. Hawk Music hall, from where programs were broadcast. We won first place in the rural school division which included many large consolidated schools over the Panhandle. We sang as our two ers, "Texas, Our Texas," and "ne on the Range."
 In the afternoon we viewed the sights on the midway. This took our interest more than did first place in the music contest. We rode on the ferris wheel and "what-nots," went through the crazy house and paid the Siamese twins a visit.
 We returned home about 7 o'clock in the evening. Those singing in the contests from Heald were: Mary Alice and Marnelle Ledgerwood, Bobby Ray and Peggy Jean Blair, Emma Reneau, James Reneau and James Anderson, T. F. Phillips, Senara McCord, Orin Brock, W. D. Clowson, Billie Mae and Bobby Bailey and Iva Dell Rippey.

Liberty School Visits Heald

Miss Morgan, principal of Liberty school, the primary teacher, Miss Massay and some of the trustees, patrons and pupils visited with us last Friday. They were guests at our literary society program, and incidentally, beat us in a playground ball game to the tune of 17 to 7.
 They gave us an invitation to visit them.
Parent-Teachers Meet
 The P-T. A. met Wednesday night with Mrs. Kester Rippey, president. The following program was rendered by the school children:
 Reading, Marnelle Ledgerwood; short story, Bobby Ray Blair; impersonations, Emma Reneau, James Reneau, Mary Alice Ledgerwood and Senara Mae McCord; short skits, Wanda Lane, Orin Brock, Mary Ledgerwood and Leola Nelson.
Literary Society Program
 The Rainbow Literary society rendered the following program last Friday:
 "Eyes of Texas" and "Old Faithful," primary room; reading, J. D. Weeks; story, Johnnie Chilton; song, I Had a Little Doggie, first grade; reading, The Farmer, Donald Holder; Playing Carpenter, third and fourth grade boys; story, Three Little Kittens, Marnelle Ledgerwood; songs, The Clock and The School Bell, primary room.
Spending Prize Money
 By LEOLA NELSON
 With the money won by our Choral club at the Tri-State fair we have decided to spend the day on an outing. We will give a radio program over radio station KASA, Elk City, motor back to Sayre, Okla., where we will enjoy a picnic lunch, return to Shamrock and attend the picture show in the afternoon. We shall select a Saturday so as not to interfere with school work. We plan to go in a school bus and are inviting our mothers to go with us.
Choral Club Broadcasts
 Friday, Oct. 9, was "red letter day" for Heald, the occasion being Jericho Gap celebration at McLean.
 As a result of placing first at Amarillo, we were invited to appear at the Lone Star theatre in McLean from where the program was broadcast by remote control from Pampa. Since ours were the only vocal numbers given and as we were appearing along with artists from Amarillo, Oklahoma City and Pampa we regard this invitation to sing as a signal honor.
 Heald also entered the parade with our school, forming an "H" and bearing a banner in orange and white reading: "Heald crossed Jericho Gap to Win at Tri-State."

Club Notes

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County.

Making a convenient kitchen, dining room, laundry room and storage space for clothes out of a 10 by 12 foot space for a family of five is exactly what Mrs. O. Sandifer, kitchen demonstrator for the Wheeler Home Demonstration club, has done. She had her achievement day Wednesday, Oct. 7. Her visitors learned that she had a place for everything and everything in its place. This kitchen is a real demonstration of what may be done by careful planning and hard work by any family that lives in a small home. Mrs. Sandifer will be glad to show her kitchen to any visitor. She tells the story in her own words.
 "Last spring when our club first began talking about a kitchen demonstrator I made the remark that since my kitchen was not complete it might be a good idea for me to try it, quite without any intention of doing so.
 "A little later I learned the club was planning on me being demonstrator so I said it would be quite all right, thinking I had quite a little time to get it done. My kitchen had never been finished; it had only one window opening with a solid door for a shutter and was not ceiled.
 "Since my kitchen is only 10 by 12 feet and must serve as dining room and laundry as well as kitchen, things must be very compact.
 "So first I built a china closet with the door to open down and form a dining table. It has four deep shelves which provide ample storage room for my dishes. I lined the back and shelves with oilcloth which can be easily wiped clean. Under the table are two small doors with shelves which make a good closet for cleaning things, hammers, nails and many other necessary articles. This was built of crating and scrap lumber left from other work done by my husband and his father; all the expense of this was two pair hinges and the catches for the doors, 75c. Material for the table top, 40c, and oilcloth 38c. Total, $1.53.

 "Then I planned and started a closet which included a clothes closet, linen closet, ironing board, wash board and dirty clothes compartment.
 "This was about as far as the kitchen got until about three weeks before demonstration day, then the entire family went to work. I painted and papered, my husband put in one window made from scrap material and some new. This cost $1.50 for glass, $1.00 for casing and 45c for hinges. A total of $2.95.
 "Up to this time very little had been done to the closet, so my husband and his father both went to work on it, using left over material; we bought only the hardware which was four pair hinges and three catches which came to $1.05. The largest expense came when we were ready to ceil. We used veneer board for the ceiling costing $6.00. My sink is made from a Ford gas tank with about 5 coats of enamel on it. It fits in a little cabinet which provides storage space for my pressure cooker and dish pans.
 "At last this was all finished but we did not have enough light so we added an east window. By using scrap lumber and a lot of extra work this window was completed with $1.10 for glass, 40c for hinges and 15c for the catch; a total of $1.65.
 "To make my floor easily cleaned I cut the best from an old piece of linoleum and painted it and the floor to match. For all my painting I used odd bits of paint; mixing it together I got a lovely gray, so I did not buy any paint. I used three rolls of wall paper which cost 40c.
 "Entire expense of my kitchen was: Ceiling, $6.00; china closet, $1.53; window, $2.95; closet, $1.05; window, $1.65; paper, 40c. Total $13.85."

Editorially Speaking

Close inspection is being made along the lines of throat and mouth diseases among our children. Each parent should see that his or her child's throat and mouth is free from a any disease. A family physician should be consulted about this matter.

It is sincerely hoped that there will be little or no trouble with sore throats this year. If the parents and teachers will work together on this matter absences will be fewer than ever before.

—Cleo Faye Shelburne.

THE POET'S CORNER

JUNIOR CROSSLAND, Editor
 (The poems in this issue were written by seventh grade students).

Animals

There are animals
 Of many kinds.
 The king of them
 Is the bear and lion.

The leopards, green-eyed
 In the brush,
 All of the monkeys
 Run and rush.

A lot of monkeys
 In the trees;
 The bear eating honey
 And fighting bees.

A monkey climbed
 Up in a tree,
 And watched a ship
 Out in the sea.

He wondered
 What the thing could be,
 So he decided
 He would go and see.

He took some sticks
 And made a raft,
 And used bananas
 To paddle his craft.

He reached the ship
 In a very short time,
 But the sides of it
 Were slick to climb.

He paddled up to
 The end of the ship,
 And found a rope
 He knew wouldn't slip.

He climbed the rope,
 He climbed the mast,
 And now he had
 No question to ask.

He ate the bananas
 He had used to paddle,
 But he reached the island
 After a three days battle.
 —BEOVIA BULLARD.

Squirrels

A squirrel is a
 Frisky little fellow.
 His hair is bushy,
 Brown, and yellow.

They like nuts
 Very well;
 They can eat them
 From the shell.

When summer time
 Comes again,
 Then nut gathering
 Time begins.

In his warm and Cozy nest,
 Is the place
 He likes the best.
 —JUNIOR CROSSLAND.

MY VISIT TO THE WILSON PACKING HOUSE

T. J. SAYE

While I was visiting in Oklahoma City last week, I went to the stock yards to learn how packing house meats were prepared. A guide took us through the plant. We saw how the beef was killed and cut up. Hogs, chickens and sheep were also slaughtered and prepared there.

There were many interesting things to be seen. About the most interesting thing was the preparation of weiners.

New Bus Station Built

The children from the Royal oil and gas camp are proud of the fact they have a new bus house to wait in on these cold, rainy mornings. This building is located just north of the main camp, and will accommodate a large number of children.

Other companies plan on building stations soon. The Skelly has had a station three years.

Fire Drill

Since this is Fire Prevention week the fire alarm goes off frequently. Thursday, it took the 166 pupils three-quarters of a minute to vacate the building. Friday is Fire Prevention program.

Play Practice Progressing

Practice on Lighthouse Nan is progressing nicely, with Ichabod Buzzer getting flogged by the wife and flower of his bosom, Molly Buzzer. Ichabod loses his spirits to his beloved wife, and so he just presents her with the cork, also.

Who is Nan's real father, Injun Jim or Mr. John Enlow, a sea coast banking director?

Honorable Sarah Chumley-Choke carries herself nicely through the role of a dignified city girl that must have a room with a bawth. Ned Blake falls for the nymph of the sea, who is Nan, but Sir Arthur Choke thinks he has a chance of winning her hand.

Come see for yourself the night of the carnival. It is going to be a scream.

First Grade News

A doll-house project was started this week in the first grade. This project is being correlated with the various subjects of this class.

The furniture is being made from cigar boxes sandpapered down to a good finish and then painted. While the boys are busy with their coping saws and hammers, the girls are busy making scarfs, luncheon sets, sheets and pillow cases. Pillows, for the windows are also being made. The question of designing the wallpaper and the weaving of the rugs seems to be of great interest among these small people.

Miss Legg states that this project will take some time and a lot of consideration before it is completed.

We are sorry to report the illness of Finis Hansard, who is sick with pneumonia.

The canary bird seems to be happy over his new cage, furnished by Mrs. Frank Seeley.

Miss Christine Legg attended the show in Pampa Tuesday night.

Mrs. Culwell visited school Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. McAnally was a recent visitor in Mrs. Rice's and Miss Robinson's room.

Wilfred Newberry left Friday morning for Wichita, Kans., to visit relatives and friends for a few days. Wilfred came to Kellerville from Kansas at the beginning of the school term. He is a student in the seventh grade.

Sixth Grade

Mrs. D. I. Blackerby and daughter, Virginia, visited in Amarillo Monday. Virginia Blackerby and Juanita Campbell have been exempt from spelling examination by making perfect lessons thus far.

This joke has been a fair one going through school like a hot poker: Slek: "Say, what's on the menu for tonight?"

Mrs. G.: "Lotsa things."

Slek: "Hot-cha! What?"

Mrs. G.: "Beans."

In one sense of the word, we were glad that it rained, because it brought Clayton, William and R. L. back to school.

Seventh Grade

Examinations have been the theme this week. Oh what do they have such things for? I do not see any use in them, you just flunk and everything. (Quotation from a seventh grader).

Clifford and Kenneth Young were absent from school Thursday.

Jean Durrett is not able to be in school yet.

Junior Crossland and Happy Bullard are turning out to be the poets of the seventh grade. When they write a poem about the teachers, and give one teacher a little more praise than they do another, boy—the fat gets in the fire. Oh, no, we just have a right smart of fun about it.

We are very sorry to lose Marie Smith from our class. She is moving to Plainview, Texas.

Great care is being taken in the care of mouths and gums in this grade. Antiseptics, etc., are being brought to school.

Things to think about: Mrs. Gregg and mathematics, Mr. Brister and those awful assignments in history, Miss Robinson and those hard diagrams, but after all is said and done, we cannot talk any of them out of such stuff, so let's join hands and do the best we know.

Second and Third Grades

Katherine Sneed is absent from school. She is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Rainwater, in Oklahoma.

We had a throat and mouth inspection this week. Many cases of sore throat were found, but everyone is doing his best to do better.

We have received our new language books, and are very glad to get them. Patsy Ruth McIntyre is absent from school.

James Saye is ill at his home with a cold.

Doris Smith has moved to Plainview.

J. D. Dorsey, a student here last year, is visiting in Kellerville at the present time. He accompanied his father, Fred Dorsey, from their home in Wellington.

Ernest Lovell is confined to his bed. The staff joins his friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Soccer ball is all the swing at the Kellerville school.

O. C. Cummings is ill with pneumonia at a Pampa hospital. The report has been given that he is worse. Some have been asking about a P.-T. A. organization.

Director-General—W. C. Perkins, Shamrock.

Directors:

Debate—Gordon Gatewood, Lela.

Declamation—J. L. Gilmore of Wheeler.

Extemporaneous Speech—Clyde Brown, Kelton.

Athletics—Garrison Rush, Shamrock.

These directors were named by a representative group of principals and superintendents from the schools of the county. J. L. Gilmore, director-general of last year, acted as chairman of the meeting.

The Mobeetie schools were represented by M. D. Blankinship, J. M. Knowles and J. G. Martin.

Seniors Order Rings

The seniors ordered their rings Monday, Oct. 5. The rings are the prettiest that Mobeetie students have ever had, so the seniors think. The rings are 10 carat gold with a ruby set.

A Mobeetie emblem crowns the ruby. It is impossible to describe the rings as pretty as they really are, so we will wait and let you judge for yourself.

THANKS!

Students of the Mobeetie high school wish to thank Miss Jessie Vernon for a huge stack of magazines, contributed by her to the school. Among them are Holland's, McCalls and the Delineator. Also a two-year's collection of Pathfinder.

We also wish to thank Mrs. Blankinship and Miss Wilson, who have also brought magazines for the use of the school.

The National Geographic, The Literary Digest, Pathfinder, Science News Letter, Health and Physical Education are some of the numerous magazines to be found in Mobeetie high school.

We also wish to thank Mr. Blankinship, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Knowles, who are leaving their daily papers in the study hall.

AGRICULTURE

Last Thursday, Oct. 8, the agriculture class made the experiment, Electrolysis of Water. This experiment was a very interesting one. A bell jar was filled with salty water. Then the electrolysis apparatus was placed in the jar.

After this worked a little while we found that the hydrogen came from the negative current and the oxygen came from the positive current. We also found, of course, that the hydrogen tube filled twice as fast as the oxygen tube. When the hydrogen tube was full, we found that by exposing the hydrogen to flame or fire that it was explosive.

We are having very interesting experiments in the agriculture class.

Home Economics Club

The girls of Mobeetie high school met Friday afternoon, Oct. 9, to organize a Home Economics club. The following officers were elected:

Paul and Omer Harrell, Leonard and Charles Mixon, Adrian Love, Dora Goodnight and Delora Ferguson all spent the day with Eileen and Aileen Lancaster. This was in honor of Eileen's and Aileen's birthday, and also Delora Ferguson's birthday.

The sophomores are proud of the boys from their class who are making the football squad.

School Preparing Amateur Program

Admission Free to "Good-Will" Entertainment on Thursday Evening, October 22.

The faculty and student body are busy working on class stunts and an imitation Major Bowes amateur program. This will be given at the high school gymnasium Thursday night, Oct. 22. A special effort is being made to furnish an evening of entertainment for the patrons and friends of the community.

This "good-will" program is free, and we urge you to come.

Recent Improvements Made by the Janitor

"What is that I smell?"

Something seems to say that our new janitor has made some great improvements and behold! All the teachers' desks and chairs had been varnished; also the desk in the office. This job made the marks and scars, that were so plain, vanish into thin air.

Also the space under the library desk has been converted into a bookcase for all text books not in use at this time. We are all very proud of these kind deeds of Mr. McCain.

FORMER COACH VISITS FRIENDS IN COMMUNITY

Winifred (Lefty) Fowler and family visited in the Knowles home this week end.

Fowler coached the Mobeetie Hornets last year, leaving at mid-term to accept a position at Skellytown.

This year he is assistant coach at Panhandle.

Students Appreciate Repaired Typewriters

Last week all of the old typewriters in the typing department were repaired by Mr. Vahue of Amarillo. He is a representative of the Russell Stationery company, from whom all the typewriters of the department have been purchased. The machines are in much better condition now and the students are appreciative of the improvements which have been made.

Occasionally some student has difficulty with his typewriter and wishes he knew how to correct the trouble as well and as quickly as this Amarillo salesman. However, A. B. thinks he can "fill the bill" until a better typewriter mechanic grows up in Mobeetie.

Mobeetie-Wheeler In Stiff Football Fray

Locals Lose Hard Fought Battle at Wheeler Saturday Night by Score of 12 to 0

Mobeetie met Wheeler on the Wheeler football field Saturday night in a conference game, the fourth Mobeetie had played this season.

The game started with Mobeetie receiving the kickoff. Mobeetie's line was weakened during the second quarter because of necessary substitutions. Wheeler made two touchdowns, which were the only scores made.

The last half was extremely exciting because neither side was able to score. This game was a hard-fought battle on the part of both teams. The final score was 12-0 in Wheeler's favor.

Win On New Field

Rah! Rah! Rah! We won the first game played on the new football field. It did help, didn't it?

It was on Friday with the Pampa Gorillas, second string, that we ran the score of 13 to 0 in favor of the Hornets.

The tackles were Lawrence and Bond; ends, Turner and Mixon; guards, Trout and Bartram; center, Owens; quarterback, Red; halfbacks Morgan, Thompson, and fullback, E. Dart.

Substitutions were Sims, Tr Gordon, Fisk and Barton. War? Thompson made two touchdowns. We got one extra point.

Let's back these boys; they play for us.

The sophomores are working hard on their stunt which is to be given in the program on Oct. 22.

Girl No. 1: Most of them are well-mannered.

Girl No. 2: They are a group that are, as a whole, loyal to the school.

THE FIRST SIX WEEKS

During the first six weeks of school, everyone seems to be progressing nicely. The first few weeks of school, however, were spent in organizing the classes and in getting acquainted with the courses of the year. The six weeks examinations are rolling around and are drawing nearer the goal day by day.

Everyone should be ready for examinations, as all the teachers have helped the students as much as possible, especially the new students and the weaker ones.

We hope that everyone will co-operate with the teachers and do their best. Make the highest peak your goal in school.

Grade School News

At the end of the first month of school the enrollment and average attendance of the grades was as follows:

Grade	Enrollment	Avg. Att
First	33	94.0%
Second	37	98.0%
Third	32	95.0%
Fourth	41	94.0%
Fifth	34	95.8%
Sixth	47	97.7%
Seventh	34	96.4%

The total enrollment is 258 and the average attendance for the seven grades is 95.8%.

Assembly Meetings

All grades have been meeting in the auditorium from 1:00 to 1:30 each Thursday afternoon for assembly. At that time announcements concerning the entire school are made by Mr. Martin, and Mrs. Knowles leads the group in the singing of some familiar songs. One or two special numbers are usually given by some of the students.

At the assembly on Oct. 1, a boys' quartet composed of Art and Janoise Ridgway, Orvel Ferguson and Wayne Sims sang "Ole Suzanna," and a girls' quartet composed of Ella and Dorothy Bradley, Elda Gordon and Wilma Nell Hogan sang "Beautiful Texas." Mary Katherine Miller also played a piano solo. At the last assembly we had only one special, which was a piano solo by Larue Flanagan, that was heartily enjoyed by the group.

Maurine Hunt plays a march while the students march in and out of the auditorium, and there is noticeable improvement in the way in which they enter and leave the room, and also in the length of time it takes.

The seventh grade is represented at the Centennial this week by Maurita Dunn, who went with Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and R. L., Friday morning. She is taking notes on the interesting things she sees and will make a report on her trip when she returns to school.

Pupils of the grade school are saving their nickels and dimes for the carnival, Oct. 31.

New pupils who have entered school recently are Jerry Worthington from Dumas in second grade; Neal Herd and Maxine Huie in third grade; Imogene Herd and W. C. Huie in the fourth grade and Charlie Huie in the first grade.

Our janitor has been busy the past week cleaning the book room and shipping some discarded books back to the state department. He also repaired some leaks in the roof which have been damaging the ceilings.

Two pairs of boxing gloves, for which the boys in the upper grades contributed money, arrived last week and the boys are being coached by Mr. Martin, who had two years of instruction in boxing while he was in college at Canyon.

Most of the work which was left on display in the hallway last spring, has been taken down and new material is being put up to replace it. Pupils who do outstanding work in art or written papers of any kind are rewarded by seeing it displayed on the bulletin board.

This week is examination week. The first six weeks period will soon be over, and when the grades are all in it may be found necessary to do some shifting of pupils to other grades where the work is better adapted to their needs.

Don't forget the carnival, Oct. 31. It is going to be larger and better than ever before, and that's promising something.

We are pleased to report that a number of patrons have visited the school already this year. Teachers and pupils appreciate this evidence of interest on the part of the parents, and a cordial invitation is extended to those interested in the work to visit us at any time. Among those who have visited recently are Mrs. Henry Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Course, Mrs. McCain and Mrs. Price.

The boys of the upper grades have organized a club with Fred Sims as president. They will meet once every two weeks on Tuesday from 1:00 to 1:30. They enjoy singing and a program prepared by the boys. At their last meeting they had the following program.

Duet, Orvel Ferguson and E. H. Patton; tap dance, Eugene Matthews; yodel, J. Baird; duet, Eugene Matthews and Roland Thomas.

The girls have also organized and will meet at the same time that the boys do. Their program committee for the next meeting is Maurine Hunt, Wilma Lester, Maurita Dunn, and Juanita Beck.

Kellerville 4-H Club

During a meeting of the Kellerville 4-H club, held at the school the first of the week, reports on work were made. The club decided to hold a luncheon at the school in the near future and members were instructed on what to bring. No new members were received at this time.

NEWS AND VIEWS

Home Economics

The home economics classes were late getting started, but they have made a good beginning. It takes spirit and willingness to work to make up for the lost time. We feel sure great things can be expected from the home economics classes this year.

Government

Government should be studied by every student in school, not only studied but learned to the extent that it may be applied in our school, our home, and our community.

We are very proud to have Mr. Blankinship for our instructor. He shows how to bring that far-off thing, few students know or understand but very little about, into our classroom in a way that no one could ever forget.

Home Ec. Class Active

The home ec. I class has been busy working on notebook material. Last week they studied hair and complexions. On Tuesday they demonstrated hair styles and make-up, with VaRue Dyson and Ruth Burch as models.

This week they are beginning sewing.

Geometry

The plane geometry class is progressing very rapidly. They have already learned perfectly all the given rules of the course—at least most of them think they have. Even Ida Lou has learned quite a lot, although she thinks Mr. Knowles is part foreigner; he uses such unheard-of words, and some of the old members of the class try to imitate him.

Ida Lou: "Mr. Knowles, what is isosceles?"

Mr. Knowles: "Isosceles is a triangle having two equal sides, and—"

Ida Lou: "Then I guess I must be isosceles; I hope that won't prevent my being a movie star."

Club Notes

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County.

Convenient ways of getting water in and out of the house was the demonstration given by Miss Viola Jones at a meeting of the Wheeler Home Demonstration club which met in the club room Wednesday afternoon, August 5.
"Where there is no water pressure, a well-filled barrel may be kept outside the house," the speaker stated.
Miss Jones also gave a demonstration on making and laying tile for sub-irrigation of yards and gardens, and on installing shower baths in homes where there is no water pressure, by the use of a bucket, a rope and a pulley.

Those present were Mmes. J. M. Porter, Jess Carver, J. H. Watts, Jess Crowder, W. O. Puett, C. B. Witt and Minnie Farmer and Miss Viola Jones.
The next meeting will be on August 19 in the club room. All members are urged to be present, as plans will be made at that time for the club fair in Wheeler on Sept. 11 and 12.

Allison Homemakers Club

Homemakers club met in the home of Mrs. Katie George on Tuesday, August 25, with Lena Brown acting president and Winnie Kiker as secretary.
After Miss Viola Jones, home demonstration agent, reported on some of the things learned at Short Course, committees were appointed for the fair to be held at Wheeler on Sept. 11 and 12. They are: Irma Hickerson, antiques; Maud Keiper and Ann Hamilton, Ball exhibit; Naomi Butler and Edna Begert, fair exhibit jars. The yard exhibitor, Mrs. George, read her story, and showed her plan and yard.
Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ada Wileman and Mrs. George to Winnie Kiker, Olive Warren, Irma Hickerson, Lucille McMillin, Viola Jones, Maud Keiper, Grace Lee, Lena Brown, Beulah McMillin, Ann Hamilton, Ida Begert, Edna Begert, Emily Richardson and Julia Dillon.

"I heard such an interesting talk on quilts, old and new, while at College Station attending the Farmers' Short Course," Miss Viola Jones told the ladies of the Briscoe Home Demonstration club in a meeting August 4, at Briscoe.
"The talk was given by Miss Minnie Eldridge, home demonstration agent of Fannin county," continued Miss Jones. "She said a heap of comfort is to be had from the making of quilts. Quilt making is a release for high tension nerves; and did you know that one of Henry Ford's biggest hobbies is collecting quilts? He is the greatest quilt collector in the United States!
"Consider first the purpose of your quilt. A tacked quilt is warmer for cover; a quilted one makes the better spread. Use a true bias fold of material for binding, and make the corners round."

A score card for judging quilts was given as follows:
Use and size, 5 points; selection of pattern, 15; selection of material, 15; selection and combination of colors, 15; workmanship, 30; quilting, 20; binding and padding, 5.
A score card by which the delegate to Short Course for 1937 will be selected was submitted by the committee and discussed. It was decided to revise it somewhat and have it presented again at the next meeting.
Those present were: Mesdames Clarence Zybach, Bob Greenhouse, J.

L. Smith, Sam Standlee, Inez Higgins, C. H. Candler and Misses Tamsey Riley, Viola Jones and Beulah Mitchell.

Briscoe 4-H Club Meets

"If we think we can do a thing, we can do it," was a statement made by Miss Viola Jones, county home demonstration agent, to the Briscoe 4-H club girls Tuesday, Sept. 1, at the club house.
"There are three kinds of thinking, according to Dr. J. W. Holland," continued Miss Jones. "First, we think about our various desires; second is wishful thinking and third is constructive reasoning. The person who thinks of his various desires never gets farther than 'Where do we go from here, and when do we eat?' The person who is a wishful thinker day dreams, but does little to make his dreams come true. Constructive reasoning is the hardest work on earth, and there are very few who pay the price of thinking that really builds. We will finally conclude that 'as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he,' but what is he when he doesn't think?"
Those present were Georgia Cain, Lorene, Laverne and Lajuana Treadwell, Joy Bill and Betty Riley, Dollie Joe Greenhouse, Delma Lee Satterfield, Betty Jean Ichorn, Oleta Dickerson, Clifferine Sivage, Lola and Lois Meek, Nellie Bea Candler, Cana Fay Newman, Mabel Alice Smith, Olive Bruton, Yvonne Burgess, Elsie May Brouder, Lena Mae Glenn, Syble and Tommy Cook and Miss Viola Jones.

This is my second year in 4-H club work and I have attended every club meeting this year, Doris Mayfield, of the Lela 4-H club wrote in her history for 1936. Her history continues: Poultry and yard demonstrations are being carried on in our county by the 4-H clubs. In our club there is one yard and one poultry demonstrator.

The co-operator's goals for the yards are: have a sanitary disposal of waste, clean and repair, and to plant five trees. The clothing goals for girls over 12 are: make a dress for the clothing contest, a pair of pajamas or undergarments and a piece of bed linen. They are to can 20 quarts for home use and four containers for the fair. They are to have an active reporter.

I am poultry demonstrator this year and my goals are: set five hens and buy 50 day-old chicks, provide at least 20 good pullets for family use, prepare egg dishes at least six times and prepare poultry dishes at least three times. I have more than accomplished my goals.

The first thing I did was to buy my chickens, feeders and feed. I did not have very much money, and my chicken house and pen did not need repairing very much, so I did not spend any time on that. The next thing I did was to put eggs in the incubator and during this period several hens were set. The eggs from some cause did not hatch very good. Each morning the spring before I went to school, I would feed my chickens, and sweep the chicken house and put in fresh water. My mother helped all along and kept an eye on the chickens during the day. With the help of my parents we have raised some very nice chickens, having 200 left after eating and selling fryers. We set 461 eggs this year, and 75 of the chickens were my sister's which we agreed to set on the halves. We bought and hatched 310 chickens. One hundred were Buff Minorcas.

I have kept a poultry calendar through the year. From studying this, I have learned that we spent $15.00 for baby chickens and $12.10 for chicken feed. The rest of the feed we have grown at home. We sold eggs amounting to $27.00; fryers sold, $12.60; fryers eaten, value $4.50; eggs consumed, value $9.54; poultry on hand, value $90.00. This gives a total income from poultry of $143.64.

I have made 11 garments that cost $4.67 and the value is $13.80. I have spent $5.64 for hat, shoes and hose. When I take expenses from income, I find that I have $112.04 for my year's 4-H club work.

The girls in our club have canned 214 quarts vegetables, 33 quarts fruit, 41½ quarts pickles and relishes, set 834 eggs, have 684 chickens living, prepared egg dishes 51 times, prepared poultry dishes 85 times, set the table correctly 40 times, made 23 dresses, 16 undergarments, 52 cup towels, 24 bedroom linens, 5 renovated garments, 5 pajamas, 5 aprons, 1 mattress cover, 1 room papered, 8 gardens planted, 92 trees set, 31 shrubs set.

Besides showing a beautiful well arranged kitchen to the Three Leaf home demonstration club on her achievement day, Oct. 2, Mrs. R. T. Hill displayed a 4-H pantry containing 475 quarts of canned food. Even in this dry year, Mrs. Hill's family will be well fed as she will can peas, greens, beans and a calf before the year is over.

By winning first on canned cherries and cucumber relish and second on sandwich spread and a candlewick bedspread at the Amarillo Tri-State fair Helen Flynt of the Wheeler 4-H club is the proud possessor of $5.75 prize money, besides what she won in the county.

Helen has accomplished all her goals this year. She hatched 93 baby chickens, 26 of which she sold for $10.26; three have been eaten at home, 5 cockerels remain to be sold and she has 33 pullets left for home use. This year a fence has been moved and the yard leveled. Growing in the yard are 3 elms, 2 plums, 1 althea, 3 spirea, and mountain asters and goldenrods grow for a foundation on the north side of the house. She has canned 29 quarts of food and made 10 garments. By winning first place in the county clothing contest in June, she received a trip to Farmer's Short Course at A. & M. college. Counting her prize money, Helen's income from 4-H club work this year is $51.30.

Stings from the Hornet's Nest

What's this the Hornet's Nest hears about Mr. Meek wanting to take up art? Tisk, tisk—two can play that little game, says Mr. Hawkins.

The rumor ran around that a certain little girl in world history class asked if America was discovered before or after Christ. Now who's to blame?

What's this the Hornet's Nest hears about a few of the basketball girls not being able to stand up after a general workout. Is the coach too hard on you girls, or are you just soft?

Passerby: "What's that I hear; a bunch of pigs going to market?"

Hornet's Nest: "O no; it's only the girls playing volleyball in the gym."

A very rough road; an almost empty buss; a girl who can't hold her seat. What about this Myrtle?

In American history the constitution was being discussed by the class.

Mr. Meek: "Who was the father of the constitution?"

Wilber: "James Madison."

Edd: "Well, who was the mother of the constitution?"

Wilber: "Mrs. Madison."

MRS. GORDON WHITENER VISITS WHEELER HOMES

All home economics teachers in Texas are taking a survey of the average home.

Last year a survey was taken but the average seemed too high, so it is being taken again.

When they find the average, the teachers will then teach on this basis.

Mrs. Gordon Whitener, the home economics instructor in Wheeler, is visiting homes in Wheeler and when the average is made of the state, she will then find the average of Wheeler.

Mobeetie Faculty Attends Mentors' Meet

Hears Discussion at Monthly Session of Superintendents and Principals

Members of the Mobeetie faculty attended the monthly meeting of Wheeler county superintendents and principals, held at Wheeler Thursday evening.

W. C. Perkins, superintendent of the Shamrock schools, discussed the teacher retirement amendment. New members were introduced, and short talks given by each one present.

Those attending from Mobeetie were Supt. M. D. Blankinship, J. M. Knowles, W. D. Hawkins and J. G. Martin.

Mud

On an October day,
Five months from May;
The wind was roaring,
And the rain was pouring.

The roads were slick,
And the ditches deep;
And our little bus driver
Was anything but asleep.

The bus started slipping
Across the road,
And all of the pupils
Had to unload.

A team was secured
From a neighboring house,
But they slipped and
Slid as weak as a mouse.

But the bus got out and
We're safe and sound;
And hoping we hit no
More slick ground.

The Social Register

In the past two weeks we have had several visitors in school.

Quentin LaQuey from Hartley, who has been visiting in the home of A. I. Baird, visited Mobeetie high school on Friday, Sept. 25.

On Friday, Oct. 2, Nell Bartram, Susie Sims and Louise Roper were our guests.

Eunice Dyson has been absent from school for some two weeks. She has been in Wellington under the care of a doctor, but has returned to Mobeetie and is now attending school. We're very glad to have you back, Eunice.

J. T. Ward, who will finish during the last semester, visited school on Wednesday, Oct. 7. We checked up on his credits and ordered his class ring.

R. L. Dunn left Friday for the Texas Centennial in Dallas and other points of interest in the South.

Now for some exciting news. On the evening of Oct. 22, the Mobeetie high school will entertain those who wish to come, with a stunt from each of the four classes and after the stunts, an amateur program for those who wish to enter. It will be free to everyone.

Wednesday, Oct. 7, Maxine Sims was a welcome guest.

Monday, Oct. 12, Mrs. N. J. Tyson and Bulah Brewer visited school until noon, when they attended the girls 4-H club.

Floy Seitz was a guest on Monday, Oct. 12.

DO YOU KNOW—

That the Mobeetie Hornets won the first game played on the new field?

That Lawrence Scribner, Berneice Bailey and Alta Mae Kessler have entered the freshman class?

That Miss Wilson and the high school girls have organized a home economics club?

That everyone is working harder this year?

That the basketball girls have been working out?

That the carnival will be Oct. 31?

That there is to be a free program at the high school gym soon?

That the school and community is proud of the football coach and team?

That Mr. Hawkins put on a good experiment of electrolysis of water Thursday?

That Miss Simpson visited in her home at Plainview this week end.

That Mr. Fowler, our former football coach, was visiting in Mobeetie Saturday?

English IV

The English IV class began the course by studying Beowulf. We find that even seniors in high school still read, and enjoy, hero stories.

We then took up Chaucer, which was translated in our texts to modern English. We have studied Milton, Shakespeare and several others, and selections of each.

We wanted very much to have Mr. Blankinship visit class when we were studying Shakespeare, but were afraid he would be offended because he was not invited when we studied Milton, his favorite author. We don't blame him, we appreciate Milton, too.

We intend to better our school very much, by applying what grammar we know—and what we don't know, we are determined to learn.

4-H NEWS

The 4-H club girls met Monday, Oct. 12, at which time officers for the coming year were elected.

Dora Goodnight was re-elected president; Peggy Love, elected vice president; VaRue Dyson, secretary-treasurer; Mildred Eubanks, reporter, and Edna Sims, song leader.

Those present were: VaRue Dyson, Mildred Eubanks, Bulah Brewer, Edna Sims, Dora Goodnight, Juanita Beck, Peggy Love, Juanita Walker, Geraldean Sims, Doris Goodnight; the sponsor, Mrs. Tyson, and Miss Jones, who made an interesting talk and many valuable points were expressed by her.

The girls are looking forward to a very interesting and successful year of work. The next meeting will be a social. All the ex-club boys and girls, also the 4-H club boys are invited to this social.

School Leaders of Wheeler Co. Meet

Tentative Plans for Interscholastic League Meet Discussed—
No Action Taken

Superintendents of Wheeler county met Thursday evening, Oct. 8, for the first time this year at the Maloy cafe. The main speech of the evening was given by Supt. W. C. Perkins of Shamrock, who spoke on "The Teachers Retirement Plan."

"It isn't a pension, but rather an insurance, in which all beginning teachers must participate and old teachers can participate," stated Supt. Perkins.

Supt. Clyde Brown, Kelton, is president of this organization. Plans for the Interscholastic League meet were discussed but no action was taken.

The organization is in its fifth year and has worked out many problems of Wheeler county in the past. The next meeting will be held at Shamrock, Nov. 12.

Few new members have been taken in so far this year.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CLASS MEETINGS TO BE MADE

None of the classes have had a meeting since the election of officers. There is not a time yet planned for class and club meetings.

EXAM STATISTICS STAGGER SCOFFERS

Now that all of the exams have passed, we will try to give you the approximate figures on some of the tests.

Approximately 2,500 sheets of paper were used by high school students during the exams. This would account for 50 packages of paper being used. As nearly as can be figured out each student wrote around 1,800 words.

The teachers used approximately 10 red lead pencils in grading these papers.

The amount of paper used in one day, if laid end to end, would reach almost half a mile. And there was enough ink used to have lasted an ordinary citizen more than a lifetime, provided he only used it for letter writing and incidentals.

It also took 54,000 minutes to write down the answers or, in other words, 37 days, 12 hours and 45 minutes of one student's time.

Spooks and Spirits to Frolic for P.-T. A. On Hallowe'en Night

Do you wish to see a real "spook?" If you do come to the carnival the Parent-Teachers association is giving.

The P.-T. A. will assemble the spookiest "spooks," wierdest sounds, and most blood-curdling moans that have ever graced the Wheeler gymnasium on Hallowe'en night, Oct. 31.

There will be food served in great quantities. The menu will be: "Dark Dungeons," "Ghosts of the Football Field" and "Headless Horseman" that equals the one in the story, "Ichabod Crane."

Ten or 12 booths will be made for entertainment. You can get admission to these booths for a few cents.

The finance committee is Mrs. G. O. McCrohan, chairman; Mrs. R. B. Puckett, Mrs. Gordon Whitener and Mrs. H. M. Wiley.

Plan to be present. Many free attractions given and a complete floor show will end the performance.

SLICK, MUDDY ROADS MAKE BUSES LATE

As a result of the rainy weather last week, the Magic City school bus was late getting to school two days. Wednesday it was the fourth period when they arrived, and Thursday, the second period class had begun as they drove up.

The roads were so muddy and slick it was almost impossible to drive over them. The bus did not have any chains on and if it were not for the bus driver's brother, Hubert Bentley, who pushed the bus up the river hill, there would have been no school for Magic City students.

There was quite a bit of danger to go up the hill on the north side of Red river without chains. While Phillip Bentley was attempting to drive up it, the bus slipped into the banister and almost went over the side.

There could be much improvement done on the roads that would result in helping the bus to arrive on time.

SCHOOL GROUNDS GRADED BY TRACTOR AND DRAG

The school grounds were leveled up the past week under the supervision of Commissioner W. W. Adams. This will greatly help the children who play on the ground during the activity period. It also helps to beautify the campus.

The road leading to the bus station was also graded by the tractor.

Pep Rallies Feature Week Before Contest at Memphis Friday

Students paused to read the Memphis-Wheeler game placards that adorned the stage curtain and other conspicuous places last Tuesday morning in study hall. These signs bearing urges to lead the Mustangs on to victory Friday night are just a small part of the drive being put on by the Pep Squad to incite school spirit.

A full week of activity was planned by the girls. On Tuesday morning a short pep rally was sponsored by the freshman and sophomore classes. Delegates from each group spoke and a yell and song were given.

On Wednesday the juniors were in charge. A general theme of "We're behind you, Mustangs" prevailed.

Senior class led the meeting on Thursday with talks. In the afternoon the football squad and Pep Squad girls took busses and went to Shamrock to see "The Big Game."

Friday morning the girls plan to give out little tags bearing the inscription, "Beat Memphis" to all students in high school.

The pep assembly Friday is in cooperation with the business men. It is planned to have all school students there and the men of Wheeler will give talks for the Mustangs.

Seniors' Pictures of '35 and '36 Framed

Pictures of all seniors of both '35 and '36 have been gathered and put in a brown frame, made by H. E. Cole. This frame adds greatly to the looks of the hall in which it is placed. The frame is 15 by 20 inches and is covered over with glass.

The pictures of the past seniors of Wheeler high school help greatly to decorate the hall of the high school building.

There were 16 seniors who graduated in 1935. Several of these ex-students are employed by business firms in the town, while others have gone off to college or some school of higher learning.

Graduates of the 1936 class numbered 24, which was a gain of eight over the '35 class. Some of these exes have married while others have gone off to college. The majority of this class are still at home.

Martha Jane Shipman had as week end guests Marion Smith and Marilyn Johnson.

APPROVAL GIVEN GOVERNMENT AID

Grant of Slightly Over $20,000 to Apply on Erection of Modern School Structure

Government aid, asked for by the school board last year, has been approved for the new high school building and to help pay for the vocation building. $20,450 was the sum granted, although the board asked $45,000. Plans have not been made yet as to how much the building will cost.

The architect who will make the plans for the building was here Tuesday and met with the board members to help them make the blue prints.

From preliminary observations of the school board they have planned to erect the building on the property line between the gymnasium and the present high school building.

Plans are to have a fully equipped laboratory so that physics may be taught. A study hall large enough that all students may have individual desks is planned.

The building is to be a fireproof structure with modern fire escapes.

Construction on the building will start within the next six weeks.

CORRAL "NEWS GATHERERS" PLACED IN SCHOOL HALL

There has been a box placed in the hall of the high school building, which will be used for gathering news for "The Corral. When anyone has any news that he wishes to be put into the paper he is invited to write it on a slip of paper and put in the box.

This box was made by the manual training department.

Boys In Agriculture Progressing Rapidly

The agriculture boys are progressing very rapidly under supervision of their instructor W. C. Zirkle. The boys are going to visit various farms in the community and will make plans of these farms. Each boy will be required to draw a map of the farm.

The students are expected to choose a project for this year. Fifteen of the projects chosen must be completed for state affiliation.

The agriculture boys will make no field trip this week. A table made last week by H. E. Cole will be placed in the agriculture room to contain the records of the class.

THE CORRAL

Aim: To record accurate accounts of school happenings interestingly.

EXPENSIVE "GYMMY!"

$100.00 was the cost of a little sanding, several cans of plastic wood, a couple of coats of finish preparation and some paint daubed on "Gymmy's" face.

Such trifles for the dear gal are not to be had every day for the asking. But for some reason her guardians, the faculty, are turning eccentric and have requested that the students do not walk on the finished product. Of course, this restriction was not imposed because of the expenditure, but rather that it took several days to refinish her "mug."

Distinct lines and a smooth surface are unfortunately a dire necessity to any game of basketball or volleyball.

Some students are possessed of a strange phobia that seems to drive them to mar property, especially public buildings. Very likely these unfortunates will discover themselves someday in the middle of Gymmy's "map," complete with hob-nail or rough shoes, with no recollection whatever of traversing the expanse.

A woman may make several applications of cosmetics in one day. Gymmy is quite helpless, however, to reach up and wipe off a smudge left by some thoughtless student's heel or apply more powder to a shiny nose. So please consider the floor of the gym and keep its countenance flawless.

WHO DISCOVERED AMERICA?

Who do you think discovered America? This question has been asked very many times, but the answer has not yet been definitely known.

Some people say that Lief Erickson discovered America long before Columbus was even born. Many prominent men say that America still is being discovered. The resources in the few years have been found to be a great discovery.

But anyway, it is taught in most histories and is most commonly believed, that Christopher Columbus was the discoverer on Oct. 12, 1492.

Because of this we now celebrate Oct. 12 as the day of America's discovery.

COLTS

The first grade under the supervision of Mrs. Gordon Phillips has started working on Hallowe'en projects.

Mrs. John M. Ficke, one of the first grade teachers, has enrolled two new pupils. They are Doris Roberts and Franklin Danial. This class of boys and girls have learned to count to 100 by 10. They have started paper cutting this week.

The second grade had as their guests Mrs. R. L. Rogers last Wednesday and Mrs. B. W. Westmoreland last Friday.

Mrs. John Hood is teaching her third grade pupils current events in their tempo. Monday they observed Columbus Day. If you are interested in any sort of Indian work, a visit to Mrs. Hood's class room would prove successful. Each pupil is required to contribute to the Indian collection. They make moccasins out of old felt hats, coats and innertubes. They also make clay pottery and all sorts of posters.

Mrs. Lloyd Davidson's third grade class observed Columbus Day. They made booklets. They, too, are working on an Indian project and Hallowe'en posters. Robert Richards withdrew from school. He will now attend at Mobeetie.

The fourth grade, under Mrs. Morgan, is doing some splendid illustrating in their geography course. They are now doing their first coloring with water colors.

Mrs. C. J. Meek's class is working on an English play. Louis Craig is back from the Centennial. About seven are out picking cotton.

English books have been ordered for the seventh graders, Dixie work books are to be ordered for the sixth grade. The sixth and seventh grades are giving their first book reports. The most popular books are "Silver Chief" and "Smoky." The fifth grade is learning the parts of speech. A large number of pupils are out picking cotton.

people and may destroy an entire community. Last week was fire prevention week, however, one should be careful every week.

One thousand, five hundred and twenty-one persons were burned to death in conflagrations in 1933, and 5,820 others received fatal burns, under circumstances where there was no appreciable damage to property, making a grand total of 7,341 deaths.

From the home 57 per cent of the burns occurred in the kitchen, 19 per cent in the living room, 12 per cent in the bedroom, 5 per cent in the bathroom, 3 per cent in the basement and 4 per cent in the dining room.

"MAVERICKS"

By NORMA WEBB

Sally, age four, saunters into the drug store. She has 10 cents, but does not know what to buy. She spies a man at the other end of the counter, who is drinking a big chocolate jumbo soda. She decides she wants one just like that. Up on the stool she climbs. The attendant hurries to her assistance. He asks her what she will have.

Sally comes to the sudden realization that she does not know what that big drink is called. She begins pointing and mumbling. The attendant is puzzled, as he has not had much experience with children. Finally Sally decides that it might be milk. So she says "Brown Milk." Our attendant is still puzzled. After so long a time he guesses that it might be a chocolate soda. He mixes one up and sets it down before her. Her face changes to a satisfied smile, as she pays him and begins sipping it.

BOOKS WILL ARRIVE SOON

Word has been received from headquarters that a shipment of the new library books has been placed. The books will probably be here some time this week.

FROM OTHER BRANDING IRONS

A new kind of knock-knock came out in the Austin Maroon which is called "Daffying." Here is an illustration:

"What's your business?"
"I'm a baker."
"Hows business?"
"Oh, I'm making pretty good dough at it."

The White Deer Bucks defeated the Whittenburg team 6 to 0 in Borger. They also defeated the Phillips Black Hawks in Borger, 6 to 0.

The Perryton Rangers beat the Canadian Wildcats 43 to 0 in Canadian on Oct. 2.

Tulia defeated Vega 25 to 0 at Vega on Oct. 8.

SNUBBING POST

Four girls spending the week end in McLean wondered where all of the football boys were. Found the most delicious nuts over there, all toasted. Magic seems to have transformed the gymnasium floor. It looks so nice and new it'll be a crime to play on it. . . Enjoy photography and snapping unique scenes.

A varied collection of "charm" bracelets are scattered throughout the school. Irene has the authentic gold one while some of the others were received in exchange for a dime. Guy has one bearing double protection for luck with both a horsehair and rabbit's foot.

Bob Tillman is a rather quiet but efficient cog in the Mustang machine. . . Spain may have her "zero hour" on the front, but those of most students occur regularly each six weeks.

With suits complete, the Pep Squad gave a good exhibition of yelling Saturday night. The girls are endeavoring to raise the school spirit to the top this week, with meetings every day.

Rutha Faye is decidedly complimented in a yellow frock. The civics class is greatly interested in its congressional meetings this week. The senate is under control of the Communist party while the minor party is Socialist.

An exceptional picture, "Green Pastures." Many Broadway-hit stage plays are converted into movies so more people can see them.

"If That Isn't Love" is offered for this week.

This column, if it were permitted to voice public opinion, would leave as a parting thought to the football squad, "We're behind you, Mustangs."

"EXCUSE US, PLEASE!
THE EXAMS TAXED US"

Please bear with the journalism students this week. The paper suffered this week because of the examinations.

Part of the copy should have been in last Friday, but because of the six weeks examinations they did not start until Monday. The paper then had to be written in two days.

Mr. Reader, don't feel bad if the paper is not so good this week! You should sympathize with the poor students.

School Ranks Excellent in Health

So far there has been very little illness among the high school students. There are a few who are now out of school but most of them are working at home.

SPARKS FROM THE CAMP FIRE

Let us crown ourselves with rosebuds before they be withered.
A mend your ways and your doings.
Vanity of vanity . . . all is vanity.
Every fool will be meddling.
Lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.
Love thy neighbor as thyself.

Judge not according to the appearance.
A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation.
Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?
Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

Caught in
The Lasso's Noose

Wonder who "yelled" the loudest, Helena Jones or Ruth Faust, when George Campbell went on the football field Saturday night.

Say, girls! Don't forget the home economics slumber party!

Did you see the pretty yellow gold diamond Velma Hestilow has been flashing around? We are wondering who the boy friend is now.

- It's getting kinda natural to see—
1. W. J. with skinned features.
 2. Imogene wearing a Miami ring.
 3. Farrell putting his thoughts into words.
 4. Aline getting sweet letters (oh yeah?).
 5. Mr. Gilmore making announcements.
 6. Dawn getting letters from Austin.
 7. Ferrol Ficke with short hair.
 8. Wave wearing a red hat.
 9. The halls without Miss Addison.
 10. Magic City students in our midst.
 11. Miss Holbert in our school.
 12. Typing classes getting speed.
 13. Dorothy married.

There are a few who should have passed the six weeks tests, because on a certain bus last Friday morning, everyone was studying and asking other people questions about different subjects.

We wonder why Chlorene is so interested in Arizona. Can it be that her boy friend is living there?

Do you suppose it is people, things or what that is causing so many people to have theme songs this year. Not knowing, it would probably be wisest not to say what. But seriously, there are several who do have such things. Calvin Harmon has a good one.

Nice but quiet,
She's all right;
Juanita Voyles, that's who!

The other day R. C. Hale was seen trying to break a string by expanding his muscle in the study hall.

Our dear friend James Passons was visiting with us Tuesday afternoon.

Call for a smart inventor! Call for a smart inventor! Wouldn't it be the grandest thing one could imagine for each student to have an intelligent machine to pass all the tests for us? It seems to be needed very badly by some of the pupils since the six weeks tests have revealed some of the poor grades.

Did you notice the three rings Imogene Jamison was sporting Tuesday? One was a Wheeler ring with the initials of J. T. on the inside. Another was a Miami high school ring which belonged to B. W. The other ring was also his. The rings go 'round and 'round but they stay on her fingers!

It seems four high school girls spent the week end at McLean. Parilee Clay went with the editor of The Broncho Range. However, she wouldn't go with him until he finally admitted that The Corral was the better paper.

Wonder how come the lipstick on "Cotton" Green's cheek, Wednesday?

Bridal Shower Given for Mrs. C. Robison

At the home of Mrs. Lee Guthrie last Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8, Misses Orveta Puett and Ruth Faye Garrison were hostesses at a miscellaneous bridal shower, honoring Mrs. Carlisle Robison, formerly Dorothy Tolliver.

Mrs. Robison was seated at a table where the gifts were received. Her mother, Mrs. H. E. Tolliver, and the groom's mother, Mrs. C. C. Robison, were on either side of her.

Misses Nerine Young and Louise Craig presided at the punch bowl.

FOOTBALL STANDING IN DISTRICT 3 "B"

	W	L	Pct.
Wheeler	3	0	1.000
Shamrock	3	0	1.000
McLean	3	0	1.000
Wellington	3	1	.667
Memphis	3	1	.667
Clarendon	0	3	.000
Lefors	0	3	.000
Mobeetie	0	3	.000

The outstanding game this week is the Wheeler and Memphis game in District 3.

The Memphis lads hold the edge as the game is at Memphis and winning from Wheeler last year. The Memphis Cyclones' squad is being picked to win by a large score.

Vocational Building Will Be Plastered

Plans for adding another coat of plaster to the manual training building are made. The building will be the same color as the home economics cottage.

Also, lights, drinking fountains, sinks and bookcases are yet to be added to the inside.

GIRLS QUARTET TO BE SELECTED NEXT WEEK

Tryouts for quartets in the Girls' Glee club began Tuesday.

"Selections will not be made until next week," states Mal Wynne, music instructor. "Lack of time has prevented trying all of the student's voices."

We thought lipstick should be used on the lips. Better be sure she uses Kissproof next time, "Cotton."

Jack Williams has been letting a certain junior girl wear his ring. If you want to know who it is, just ask Lois Ficke.

We wonder—

Why so many Mobeetie boys have been coming to Wheeler lately?

Who Helena's boy friend is?

How many dates Bonnie missed going to McLean? (We hear, about four).

Why Betty Jane likes Wheeler so well?

Why Farrell, as well as his sister, likes Mobeetie?

Why Dawn gets so many letters from the university each week?

If Wave still likes a certain Farmer? They are seen at most football games together.

Who came to see Aline, Sunday evening? (Could it have been an ex-senior, Cecil Sherwood).

Why Alvis Jolly can't understand his English teacher?

What happened Sunday to make Ferrol so happy and Bonnie so sad?

Average Schoolboy Spends Day Hoping
Meals Will Hurry

"Oh, gee Ma, I hate to get up. I'm so sleepy. Can't I sleep just a little longer?"

That's the way an average school day is begun.

Slowly oozing out of bed and putting on his clothes, he gets ready for breakfast. A glance at the clock tells him there is only a few minutes 'til time for school.

A grab at his books (if he brought any home) and a rush out the door—our student is off to school!

Through four long periods the pupil has to sit. He is usually wondering:

"What will mother have for dinner? I wish I had something to eat." Sometimes his thoughts are along this line, perhaps:

"I wish I knew how to make Betty like me better. Jane looks so pretty. Wonder if I could get a date with her for that party next week?"

The bell rings. He rushes to the door as a bird let out of a cage. By this time our character is as hungry as if he had been at hard labor all day. My goodness, did you ever see a person eat so much in such a short length of time?

It is now time to hurry back to school because a little too much time was spent reading the daily funnies.

All afternoon during school hours our hero is almost asleep or teasing someone. It is seldom he studies, because he is too smart for that, except just before exams.

School is at last out. If he plays football he works out several hours. If he doesn't, he loafs around 'til time for supper.

Of course, he eats as if he had not had anything in a week or maybe had been on a hunger strike.

Oh, there is a very good movie tonight. He must attend that. Grabbing his hat and coat he is off to the show.

After the show he waits around to see if there is a good looking dame he can escort home, if he didn't get one before he went to the movies.

It is about time to go home and go to bed. He is tired and worn out after such a busy day.

Ho, hum! (Stretch.) Good night!

SCHEDULE CHANGED FOR EXAMINATIONS

Six weeks examinations were given Friday. The first period was used as a study period for the entire group. This gave the students who ride the busses time to get here for the first period classes, and also gave the students an opportunity to do some last minute studying.

The activity period was used for examinations.

CLASSES MOVE BECAUSE OF WORK ON GYM FLOOR

As the floor of the auditorium-gymnasium was to be under construction for a few days, the classes had to change their position.

All the classes under Robert Mayne were meeting in the southwest corner of the gymnasium.

When the work started on the floor, they moved to the stage, where they are having class now.

The classes are caged up because of the screen over the front of the stage.

When the weather is cold, the curtains can be drawn to make it warmer.

Buffalo Wallow Trip Proves Huge Success

Pupils of the Texas history class with their director, Principal C. B. Witt, visited Buffalo Wallow monument Monday morning. They left the school at 10:20 and returned at 12 o'clock.

The monument has been erected in remembrance of the battle between six white men and 125 Kiowa Indians in 1874. The men sought protection in a buffalo wallow and defeated the Indians. Only one white man was killed.

Several other similar trips are being planned by the group.

FICTION BOOKS GIVEN BY SCHOOL STUDENT

Marceil Farmer donated three books to the library Tuesday morning. The names of the books are, "Air Service Boys Over the Atlantic" and "Air Service Boys Over the Enemy's Lines," both by Charles Amory Beach, and "Flying the Coast Skyways" by Ambrose Newcomb.

These books will go on the freshman shelf.

Students Progress
In Manual Training

The manual training students are progressing quite rapidly. Some of them have finished some nice articles this year.

A book trough has been finished by Raymond Badley. Glen Weeks has completed a hat rack. R. J. Puckett has finished a gun rack. Virgil Greenhouse finished some what-not shelves recently and is now working on a wall rack.

Gym Roof and Interior Repaired

The auditorium-gymnasium roof has been undergoing repairs this week. In places where it leaked, it was patched with tar and paper.

The work was done by the bus drivers under the direction of H. E. Cole. The walls of the gymnasium were also scraped and refinished to remove signs of previous rains.

TEACHER FRIGHTENS PUPILS WITH EXAM

"You won't count off for it on this exam, will you?"

"Give us a little time to learn how we should do it."

"You will give us time to get used to it before you count off for it, won't you?"

Such cries as these were heard in the English room last week. The reason was that the new English teacher, Miss Holbert, was giving the students new rules about how to prepare the English papers. The students seemed to be having a hard time learning the rules. There were some who were afraid that they would make failing grades on the six weeks test if the teacher graded off because the papers were not written according to the new instructions which they had not learned well.

INSECTS INDICATE BAD WEATHER HERE

Wham! Bang! What was that? Something hit the window with an awful noise. One of the librarians looked out and there was an enormous grasshopper on the screen. It must have been at least three inches long. Almost like squinting at a bird. Then alongside of it hove a big wasp. This may be a sign of bad weather. Who knows?

Mustangs-Cyclones to Meet In Finish Fight Friday Night

MEMPHIS-WHEELER TILT TO BE GOOD

Ponies Are Primed to Knock Down Vaunted Passing Attack of Memphisites

A different football squad is expected to take the field tomorrow night, when the Wheeler Mustangs meet the Memphis Cyclones on the Memphis gridiron.

A squad of about 22 boys will take the jaunt to Memphis and hope to bring back victory.

Last week the Mustangs barely felled a fighting Mobeetie Hornet team by a score of 12 to 0. The lads from Wheeler looked ragged on both offense and defense, while the Mobeetie eleven played heads-up ball and almost defeated the Mustangs.

The Wheeler eleven have been hustling and it seems that there may be a new team on the field Friday night.

There is no player who is overconfident, for they seem to realize that if they lose this game they will no longer have a standing of a 1,000 per cent in the conference race.

The last two games they have somewhat been over-estimating themselves, but now have seen their mistake and are ready to play ball.

Last year the Mustangs were defeated by the Memphis team to the tune of 13 to 7. The Memphis team scored a touchdown in the last 45 seconds of play. So, therefore, this year the Wheeler eleven has a chance for revenge, but they will have to play football to defeat them.

The Memphis team has one of the finest passing attacks ever seen in class "B" teams. Last week against McLean they threw 41 passes. In the third quarter they marched straight to a tally by just throwing passes.

Coach Bob Clark is drilling his squad on breaking up those heaves thrown by the Memphis boys.

Here is the probable starting lineup:

Emler, le; Noah, lt; Whitener, lg; Weeks, c; Green, rg; Page, rt; Maxwell, re; Ford, fb; Norman qb; Derryberry, hb; Groves, hb.

IF SIGNS MEAN WELL WE'LL BE TOPS TONITE

Say, did you see the signs the Pep Squad girls made and stuck up around in the study hall?

They could hardly be missed. When you entered the study hall the first things that met the eye were the signs.

Seems as if everyone is aching to beat Memphis. We sure hope they do.

Now back to the signs. They consist of several things such as: "Yea, Mustangs Fight," and "We are loyal to you, W. H. S." They are sticking up everywhere that is possible for them to be.

GRIDSTERS NOW GLIDE TO IMPROVE PLAYING

Arkansas with her six-man team was the novel interpretation of football last week.

Now Coach Sachs of Loyola university in Chicago has turned the "he-man" game into a dancing class. Imagine, a graceful terpsichorean "Spring Dance" executed by hulking giants in heavy cleated shoes and complete football trappings.

On the theory that football is a matter of speed and timing, with rhythm essential to the latter, Coach Sachs dragged a piano out on the field and pounded out swing music.

The idea is essentially for the benefit of the backfield men.

HERE THEY ARE FOLKS— THE '36 WHEELER MUSTANGS

There have been so many demands for a list of the football players with the number of their jersey during the game, that we publish herewith that list.

PICTURE'S POSITION PUTS SENIORS AWRY

Will someone please replace the picture in the hall?

It looks so dejected and tired, all drooped down awry from the top of the frame where its original place was.

It seems to be trying to push the other occupants of the frame out of their places so it might have all the space. But I know it doesn't mean to, even if it is a photograph of the seniors of a past class. You know seniors are said to be dignified and consider themselves better than their lower classmen.

So, won't someone take pity and put the picture back in its place. It would help the appearance of the hall very much.

It holds a conspicuous place on the wall and it attracts the eye the very minute you walk in, so it might make one think that our school is not very neat.

SPORT SLANTS

By a Mustang

Again the Mustangs looked ragged in the Wheeler-Mobeetie affray. Let's hope they snap out of it! Especially in the Memphis game!

As usual, I'm wrong. This time a big mistake, at that.

Anyway, I picked Memphis to be one of the top teams, but McLean defeated them by a score of 37 to 7.

So that puts the McLean Tigers up among the big shots, rating with Wheeler and Shamrock.

Next week the Mustangs meet the strong Memphis Cyclones on the Memphis gridiron—Clarendon meets Lefors—Shamrock cracks the tough Mobeetie team—McLean goes to Amarillo to meet the strong Amarillo Sandies—the Wellington team takes a whack at the Lakeview eleven.

Watch these! There may be some upsets.

Those Mobeetie lads surely played good football last Saturday night. The Hornets have prospects for a winning team next year. Good luck to you!

Another word about the Colts. They are working out every afternoon in preparation for their next game.

Basketball is here. Anyway, it is for the girls. They are working out in their physical education period twice a week. They are working on fundamentals but will soon be ready for their basketball season to open.

The Mustangs will really be up against a passing team when they hit the strong Memphis team. Last week the Cyclones heaved 41 passes against the McLean Tigers. Incidentally, they completed a majority of them.

MRS. GORDON WHITENER VISITS WHEELER HOMES

All home economics teachers in Texas are taking a survey of the average home.

Last year a survey was taken but the average seemed too high, so it is being taken again.

When they find the average, the teachers will then teach on this basis.

Mrs. Gordon Whitener, the home economics instructor in Wheeler, is visiting homes in Wheeler and when the average is made of the state, she will then find the average of Wheeler.

Mobeetie Hornets Lose to Mustangs

Two Touchdown Margin Dropped By Stinging Hornets Saturday Night

Showing power the last half, but very ragged form in the first two periods, the Wheeler Mustangs defeated a fighting Mobeetie team by a score of 12 to 0 last Saturday night.

The Mobeetie Hornets proved to be a very scrappy team, battling to the last whistle and never giving up.

The Hornets showed power on defense, especially in breaking up the Wheeler lads' passes. They also stopped drives that the Mustangs had strived to score on.

Only once or twice did the Mustangs show power that they have had at times displayed. Poor blocking and tackling was the main factor, although the fans still have hopes for a district winning team.

Wheeler's first tally came in the second period when Norman on a reverse went over from the five yard line.

The second score came in the same quarter with W. J. Ford carrying the mail over from the six yard line.

"Big" Ford failed to convert from placement both times.

The lineup:

Ends, Maxwell and Emler.
Tackles, Tillman and Page.
Guards, Whitener and Green.
Center, Weeks.
Backfield, Ford, Cole, Norman and Derryberry.

A large crowd is expected to follow the Mustangs to their next game, which is with the Memphis Cyclones at Memphis.

NOBODY'S WORKING ON ROCK PILE ON CAMPUS

Have you noticed the pile of rocks on the northwest side of the main high school building?

Could they really be getting ready to put up the new school building which has been so long awaited.

Perhaps they are not for any certain purpose, but are gathered up from around the school yard to tidy things up a bit.

It might be possible the rocks will be used to make walks from one distant building to another. Walks are very needed, particularly in muddy weather.

Soon will be time for baseball. The large flat rocks could be used for the bases.

What could the large rocks be used for?

THE SPOKEN AND THE WRITTEN WORD

Lesson Text: Acts 17:1, 5-11; I Thess. 2:7-12. Helps: Acts 17:1-15; I Thess. 2:1-12. Devotional Reading: Ps. 119:9-16.

Approach

Search, listen—not that the Thessalonian people, who listened to Paul and his company, were unworthy of further consideration from these Christian workers; but that a Berean heart, satisfied to receive the things heard only when it is found, after diligent searching, to be the teaching of the written word of God—this is more noble because it is a nobler thing to receive a teaching upon the authority of the Word of God than to receive it simply on its own merits. Too many people are satisfied to listen and do not take the time to search. Even if the speaker, to whom the ear is lent attentively, is speaking truth, surely faith would be made stronger and the believer happier if there is this assurance: "Now I know this is a reliable teaching and admiration for I have read it for myself out of God's very Word."

Then, too, because we are living in days when there are so many just guessing at truth; when people are preaching their own opinions about things, and when some have substituted social and reform plans of salvation for God's blood redemptive work in Christ, we should be doubly certain by searching diligently God's written Word as well as to listen to people speak about it.

Historical Setting

Incidents from Acts occurred about A. D. 52. The letter to the Thessalonians was written a year or so later, from Corinth, to the church in Thessalonica.

Amphipolis, Apollonia, Thessalonica and Berea were cities in Macedonia. Corinth was a chief city in Achaia.

THE HEART OF THE LESSON

Introduction

There were oppositions everywhere. Men do not preach the gospel where there are none. Sometimes they are expressed in utter indifference to both the speaker and the things spoken. There are many reasons for this opposition, but these reasons always root themselves in pure selfishness.

It is hard for man—sinful man—to receive the Word of God, because that Word is a living Word and it acts quickly and sharply, cutting to the very center of the heart's interests. And this living Word is so revolutionary in its effect upon the heart of sinful man that the very first impulse of that heart is to repulse it.

And, surely, the life of the speaker of the Word of God must show that the living written Word of God has had just such a revolutionary effect upon him. If his life does not manifest such a change; if there has been only a little reformation; if there is little patching-up; that life does not (because it cannot) bear out the truthfulness of the spoken Word of God.

Nobility is expressed in both a diligent search of God's Word and then willingly, prayerfully and gladly letting that Word have full effect in life.

The Golden Text

For the word of God is quick (living), and powerful (active), and sharper than any two-edged sword.—Heb. 4:12.

Truly, "the pen is mightier than the sword" if that pen is the Spirit of God. And God's pen writes upon "hearts of flesh" and not upon "tables of stone." Hearts of flesh are capable of being cut, for God must "discern the thoughts and intents of the heart."

No wonder so many sinful men and women choose to let that Word of God alone! How tragic that so many professed Christians have neither time nor place for it! How doubly tragic, when the "preacher" preaches so little of the truths found therein, even though he may take his "text" from it!

How about it, are you ready for God to operate on your heart by the Word?

Moved With Jealousy

Acts 17:1, 5-9. And that always leads into trouble. In Gal. 5:20, jealousy is named as a work of the flesh. "And they that are after the flesh mind the things of the flesh . . . the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God . . . for the mind of the flesh is death" (Rom. 8:5-7). How man suffers because of jealousy, both the subject and object of this satanic venom!

Immediate Action

(Vs. 10-11). It was time for these Christian workers to be sent away immediately for this mad mob would stop short of nothing. And, as brands plucked out of the burning, these apostles went on through these fields of ripe grain to bring sheaves into the Father's barn.

And what noble men and women they found in Berea! No wonder God put it into the hearts of the brethren in Thessalonica to send these preachers of the Gospel away. Nobility here it not expressed so much in that these Bereans searched the Scriptures, but that they searched them daily. Many are they who search, but when they learn (as they soon will learn) that it takes patience and an earnest, prayerful, diligent search—that it takes a real surrendered heart—to find in the Word of God the nourishing Bread of Life, they quickly give up that search. One man had said that he received no inspiration from the Word even though he had been through it several times. Some one answered him, "Let it go through you once." And what a difference that would make! So your heart must be wide open to God that He may work His work in you if nobility is fully expressed in your search through the Word.

As a Nurse Cherisheth Her Own

(I Thess. 2:7-12). And as a father pitieth his own children, so Paul worked with those babes in Christ in Thessalonica. Some one has said that some Christians get no further than the third chapter of John. Well, if these were any young Christians in Thessalonica who go no further than being born again, it was not Paul's fault. Too often is the Gospel preached in new fields, people are born from heaven into the Family of God and then left un-nourished. We are glad that it was not so with the people of this lesson. Read the entire letter of I Thessalonians and you will see that they had become strong, well developed men and women in the Lord.

It takes a lot of nourishment to make growing Christians out of hardened sinners. Patiently you wait for years for that little first-born son of yours to become a great and noble man—food, exercise and patient waiting mark your labors. Why then should we expect young Christians to be such strong men and women in the Lord at the very first? Why do we neglect the Bread of Life, and "exercise unto godliness" and "patience and didst not grow weary" in this part of our work? Remember that there are two parts to the great commission: Make disciples . . . teaching them to observe all things.

In Retrospection

In preaching the Word there are four things to be considered:

(a) The place—Paul went to the synagogue; not by chance or yet because it was a religious holiday, but because it was his "custom."

(b) The method—"reasoned from the Scripture," opening them to the minds of men and setting the truths in order.

(c) The subjects for sermons—the atonement; the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ at which time the Lord laid upon Him the sins of us all.

(d) The results—(and God gives the increase)—men were persuaded. The world was "turned upside down."

And that Word thus given will be received "with all readiness of mind" for carefully are they led to a diligent search of the Scriptures.

Not only did they preach and teach through great sacrifice, but there was a consistent example set before these young converts by these preachers—"We behaved ourselves—holily, righteously and unblamably" in your presence.

LESSON QUIZ

1. "A pebble may start an avalanche;" an angry man a mob (make the application to vs. 1 and 5). 2. Is the world already down side up? Or, does the Gospel turn it "upside down"? 3. Does Jesus, like Caesar, have His day, or does He reign forever? 4. Do mobs silence God's spokesmen? 5. Are open minds made "safe and sane" without an open Bible? 6. Do ministers work only on Sundays? 7. What is the difference between self-praise and self-justification? 8. Should all Christians cultivate the characteristics of a gentle and wise nurse? 9. What is a good father's chief concern for his children? 10. Should a Christian conduct himself like an ill-bred, coarse and rustic fellow?

Another RCA Victor TRIUMPH magic Voice

THE MAGIC VOICE removes the only remaining serious obstacle to complete naturalness of music and voice as heard over the radio. It absolutely eliminates the "boom," the effect of talking or singing into a rain barrel, that mars many a fine program and destroys the illusion of reality. By contrast, the Magic Voice produces tones as pure and clear as spring water.

In all Magic Voice RCA Victor instruments the speaker is enclosed in an acoustically sealed chamber, which contains five organ-like pipes—scientifically designed and carefully placed in relation to each other and the speaker. These pipes complete the acoustical sound chamber of the Magic Voice—proportioned, designed and vented as scientifically as a rare old Stradivarius violin.

RCA VICTOR offers Radio's Greatest Value AT ANY PRICE!

CHECK THESE BRASS TACK FACTS

- 1 Only RCA Victor gives you the benefit of 35 years' experience in fine cabinet craftsmanship and musical reproduction—now climaxed by the MAGIC VOICE.
- 2 Only RCA Victor has the MAGIC BRAIN, which provides the ultimate in controlled radio reception.
- 3 RCA Victor was the first with the MAGIC EYE for silent, precise tuning.
- 4 RCA was a pioneer in the manufacture and use of METAL TUBES—the greatest tube advance in 28 years.
- 5 RCA pioneered the first AC tubes and radio operated from the light socket.
- 6 RCA pioneered the first power-operated dynamic-type loudspeaker for the home.
- 7 RCA pioneered the first practical superheterodyne radio for home use.
- 8 RCA Victor is the leader in electrical recording and reproduction of phonograph records.
- 9 Only RCA Victor, of all radio manufacturers, is a member of the great radio family which includes the National Broadcasting Company. Thus, through direct contact with every detail of broadcasting, RCA Victor knows how to build radios for best reception.
- 10 Only RCA manufactures everything in radio from tubes to cabinet—from the microphone in the studio to the loudspeaker in your home.

Vague Vagrancy Seen In Dilatory Nations

Vacuous is the Mind that Falls Back on "Common Sense" Stuff, Asserts Minister

"Common sense salvation," either in economics or religion is, to say the least of it, a very uncommon thing.

For what is common sense, if it is not a sense common to all? And what is that sense that is common to all men? I am forced to say that there is no such thing.

The nearest approach to such is found in some of the backward nations where they are satisfied to sit still and let the world go by. They have no form of economic government. No schools, no education, no written language, and no super-natural religion. They plant just enough to get by on and make no provisions for drought, or for locusts. They wear clothes made of skins. They have no inventions and need none. They marvel at the "white man's" or "Christians" use of civilization.

They are the ones who should pride themselves with "horse sense," for they have only native ability and have not cultivated that.

He who hides behind "common sense" in this modern age is one who is afraid to think and act above the fourth grade and who, usually, would be ashamed to let anyone see his fourth grade card.

But suppose we grant that there is a "common sense" way of solving problems that confront us in this day of compound complications; will the advocate of this method give us his "creed" or his code of operation? Call his hand, and hear him howl: "What is truth? Who knows? And who can find out?" And then he immediately swings around and back to his starting point of "common sense."

It is the part of wisdom to accept a little revelation as we go.

Subjects for discussion at the Church of Christ for next Sunday are: "Where Are We in the History of the World as God Reveals It?" 11:00 a. m. "When Upside Down Is Right Side Up," at 7:30 p. m.

It will put a song in our heart to see you at these services.

Sunday School Nears Goal of 200—Effort Continues—Pastor Makes Statement

Concerning activities of the Methodist church, J. Edmund Kirby, the pastor, has issued the following statement:

Last Sunday the increased attendance at Sunday school and church was just the boost that most of us needed. By all of us working and pulling together we can make Christianity mean a lot to us and to our community. Some of you were perhaps hindered from attending last Sunday, so, we want to urge you to be sure and be there Sunday. We are looking for you and all those present last Sunday. We are still working toward the goal of 200 in Sunday school. Be there Sunday and help us reach this goal. There were 163 present last Sunday. Come and let's make it 200.

There are only three more Sundays until our Annual Conference. The pastor will preach at both the morning and evening hours on these Sundays and wishes to urge the church membership to be present. Come, and let us close out the conference year in a fine way. Your presence means a lot, so be there Sunday. Visitors and friends are always welcome.
