Wheeler Oil Mill Adds New Feed Machinery

Begins Making New Product For Feeding Cattle, "Cubed" Cottonseed Meal

Wheeler Cotton Oil company this week announced the addition of a new product to their line of feeds, according to H. M. Wiley, president of the company. New machinery just installed permits manufacture of "cubed" cottonseed meal, which is expected to prove popular with cattlemen of the county.

"In feeding the flaked product heretofore put out," Wiley stated, "there has been a certain amount of waste if fed on the ground, particularly where the land is sandy and the grass thin."

The new machine presses ground cottonseed meal into a tight, round, compact "cube," about an inch in diameter and up to two and a half inches long. After cubing, the product is passed over a screen, all meal and small particles of cake are sifted out, so that the sacked product is entirely free of screenings.

A small quantity of the cake is on display in The Wheeler Times' window.

"Local stockmen who have inspected the product say it is an ideal feed," Wiley declared, "hard enough to hold together, but much easier for cattle to masticate than the hydraulic product."

Owners of this enterprise claim that Wheeler is the smallest town in the world having a cottonseed oil mill. They point out that the mill is giving employment to more people than any other business in town, and that it is certainly helping to keep Wheeler money in Wheeler, and they maintain it certainly is entitled to support of the local community.

Officers of the Wheeler Cotton Oil Co. are Wiley, president; H. E. Tolliver, vice-president, and G. O. McCrohan, secretary-treasurer and manager.

Ford, Mustang center featured Wheeler's play with his hustling brand of play and his nice guarding, according to Stina Cain, assistant coach, in charge of the team during the absence of Coach Bob Clark.

Huth, Whittenberg forward, featured for the opposition, Cain said, with his expert goal shooting, fast floor work and general all-around hustle.

Starting lineup for Wheeler was: Page and Young, forwards; Ford, center; Norman and Jolly, guards.

Wheeler Play Group Closes Year's Work

Meeting Friday Evening Closes Work Of Association for 1936.

Friday evening, December 11, marked the close of the 1936 program of the Wheeler County Recreation association which was organized ten months ago. The association met in the Legion hall in Wheeler with the Heald Home Demonstration club acting as hosts.

Nothing creates the spirit of youth and friendliness more completely than does the role of old-fashioned school activities. Such a procedure was followed during the recreation hour and everyone seemed to dismantle their robes of cares and worries and lose themselves in having a grand time.

During the business session of the meeting the following officers for the ensuing year were elected.

President—Mrs. Jim Risner. Vice-president—Mrs. Hester Dodson.

Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. C. Bryan Witt.

Reporter—Mrs. Alta Lee Merrick. Song leader—Hester Dodson.

DEPUTY SHERIFF DOES NIGHT PATROL IN DOWNTOWN AREA

W. O. Dewese, jailer and deputy under Raymond Waters, sheriff, has been placed on night duty, and is patrolling streets and alleys of the downtown section, under an arrangement whereby part of the expense is carried by the county and part by the city, Dewese informed The Times this week.

McLean Girl Heads District Club Group

Miss Johnston Chosen by Home Ec Girls at Meeting Held in Wheeler Saturday.

Miss Shirley Johnston of McLean was elected to presidency of the district high school home economics club group at their meeting here Saturday.

Other officers elected were: Beth Finley, Shamrock, vice-president; Clella Beth Moody, Wheeler, secretary; Bonnie Adams, Wheeler, historian; Ina Fay Robinson, Mobeetie, reporter, and Irene Hunt, Wheeler, song leader.

Practically all the morning session was spent electing the officers for the coming year.

After the officers were elected, representatives from each school sang their school song.

There were delegations present from McLean, Shamrock, Mobeetie, and Wheeler. The meeting began at 10 o'clock with the registration of the girls. Forty-two girls registered.

The home economics district has been divided this year, because there are too many members for one organization. The northern part of the district met at Wheeler.

Lunch was served at 12:00 o'clock by the Wheeler club.

The afternoon session began at 1 o'clock and the following program was given:

How Our Club Creates Christmas Cheer—Marian Hestlow, Wheeler.

Suggestive Gifts for Christmas—Clella Beth Moody, Wheeler.

"Christmas Bells"—Pauline Oswald, Mobeetie.

Christmas Story—Ruth Faye Garrison, Wheeler.

Suggestions for a Christmas Party—Mabel Back, McLean.

Following the program, tea was served to the guests.

The next meeting will be held at McLean in February.

Five Charged With Violating Safety Law

"Ten Dollars and Costs," Says The Judge to Drivers Failing to Stop for School Buses

Five persons have been charged recently in county court with failing to stop for a school bus, as Wheeler county's contribution to a statewide drive for enforcement of that section of the highway safety law.

Fines of $10 and costs have been assessed by W. O. Puett, county judge, on pleas of guilty in three cases, while two remain yet to be tried, according to records of Dick Craig, county clerk.

County officials and school authorities are determined that safety of school children riding buses shall be protected.

B. T. Rucker, county superintendent, has placed circulars with rural schools for distribution among patrons, calling attention to this law and warning against violation. Rucker calls attention to the fact bus drivers are required to report all license numbers of vehicles disregarding the law.

"This notice," Rucker declared, "was printed and distributed for a twofold purpose, saving the citizenry unnecessary fines and at the same time working for protection of the lives of Wheeler county school children."

Rucker states that those bus drivers, school principals or superintendents who have not received their supplies of these notices should call at the county superintendent's office for them.

Judge Puett declared that while the law provides a fine of $10 to $500, either with or without jail sentence up to 90 days, he has been charging $10 and costs on first offenses. He refused to make a statement as to whether this is a special introductory bargain rate, and would make no promise as to future prices.

District Court Recesses For Week on Monday

District court recessed for the week at 3 p. m. Monday, and Judge W. R. Ewing held a short session Thursday to enter an agreed judgment.

The court granted a divorce in the case of Jewel vs. Asa Organbright.

There remains only the non-jury session next week to complete this term of district court for Wheeler county.

TEACHERS GET QUESTIONNAIRE FOR RETIREMENT PLAN DATA

Office of B. T. Rucker, county school superintendent, this week mailed out questionnaire cards to all teachers in the common schools of Wheeler county.

This was done, Rucker stated, in response to request of the research department of Texas State Teachers association, which is gathering essential data for use in preparing a teacher retirement bill to be introduced in the state legislature.

The snow followed a misty day Thursday with intermittent light showers.

Recent rains have been sufficient to maintain the good winter season resulting from heavy precipitation in the fall.

Mobeetie-Briscoe Beer Election Ruled Invalid

Court Rules Poll Officials and Notice Not According to Law

Three-point-two beer continues to be legal in the Mobeetie and Briscoe justice of the peace precinct, by decision of Judge W. R. Ewing in district court, holding the recent election invalid.

Judgment occurred on agreed statement of facts in the case, and trial was without jury.

The court ruled the election null and void because it appeared that in election precinct No. 2 (Briscoe) there were no properly appointed election officials in charge of the polls, and the further fact that election notices were not properly posted.

Vote at Mobeetie, where vote legality was not questioned, was 140 for beer prohibition and 105 against, but irregularities at Briscoe were held to have invalidated the election.

The court's decision places light alcoholic beverages in the same status as if there had been no election, W. O. Puett, county judge, declared.

Wheeler County Tops District in 4-H Work

More Than Third of Club Members in Area Reside in County, Tarter States

Wheeler county leads the 21 counties of the district in boys' 4-H club work—in fact we have more than a third of the district enrollment, says Jake Tarter, county farm demonstration agent.

Of the 1,012 boys engaged in club work in the entire district, Tarter declared, Wheeler county has 352.

In the past year, six boys have qualified for gold star honors, one for a gold medal, and one has succeeded in winning a free trip to Chicago for excellence in 4-H club work.

Data is being prepared, Tarter says, and will be released soon on club work in Wheeler county this year. He asserts some interesting things will be contained therein for the county's pointers with pride.

Church of Christ reported 43 members and one visitor in attendance, resulting in a percentage of 61, with total of 44 present.

Total attendance at all schools participating was 273, a decrease of seven from the 280 present the previous Sunday.

Peoples Store Sale To Run Eight More Days

Miss Clarice Holt, proprietor of the People's Store, announces there will be eight more days of the special sale, which started in her store on Friday last week.

Miss Holt's message to shoppers of Wheeler county appears in an advertisement on another page.

Advertising matter for this sale was printed by The Wheeler Times job department, and Jack Wilks, who managed the sale for Miss Holt and prepared ad copy, stated the work was exceptionally well handled. "Lots of places I have put on sales, I was unable to get the printing done satisfactorily," Wilks declared. "It might surprise you to know how many printers do not know how to put the necessary punch into work of this character. Wheeler Times printing got the message across to the people with a bang."

SUGGESTIONS FOR SAFETY

Writing in the Portland Oregonian, Ray Conway, manager of the Oregon State Motor Association, gives twelve specific suggestions for reducing accidents that can be easily followed by any commonwealth, with the aid of cities and towns. His suggestions are:

1. Illuminate main traveled highways contiguous to cities.
2. Distinctly mark sections of highways where vision is impaired and passing is dangerous.
3. Erect markers to show maximum speeds allowed in congested areas.
4. Erect "Keep to Right" signs on all highways in the state.
5. Make warning signs standard in size, color and position.
6. Teach highway safety in the public schools.
7. Enforce laws from viewpoint of safety—not revenue.
8. Make statewide inspection of cars compulsory.
9. Subject pedestrians to a uniform, enforced traffic code.
10. Adopt a safety glass law covering all new cars sold.
11. Establish a drivers' school for those who wish to improve their driving.
12. Do not permit left-hand turns in metropolitan areas.

Some of these suggestions may seem of minor importance when compared with others—but all of them are essentials of a comprehensive program to make our streets and highways safer. In many states, traffic codes are outmoded and inadequate. Little has been done in marking danger spots on highways. Cars are permitted to operate irrespective of their mechanical condition. The inevitable result is a soaring death and injury toll.

If every state will bring its laws and highway regulations up to date, a long step toward curbing the reckless and incompetent motorist will be taken.

THE DAY OF LITTLE BUSINESS

It is often argued that the development of large businesses—especially in retail fields—has tended to destroy little businesses and to make it next to impossible for a man without vast capital to set up his own establishment.

This argument has a strong appeal—but apparent facts contradict it. During the depression, thousands of little businesses sprung up in this country—largely because of the difficulties of individuals in finding employment. These little businesses offered specialized services, or lower prices, or were the outgrowth of a new idea of some kind. Many of them found a ready welcome, and have prospered. With the return of better times, they are going ahead—and in due course a percentage of them will become big businesses.

Some of these little businesses failed—because they provided poor service, or did not fill a definite need. But many a large business has failed for the same reasons.

One has only to look around any growing community today and see a legion of opportunities in retail lines for young men and women who are willing to work, and realize that riches can't be earned overnight. The day of little business isn't done—it is just beginning.

Sermon Topic 'First Christmas Presents'

Subject Not Announced for Evening Discourse by Presiding Elder

"The Significance of the First Three Christmas Presents" is the subject announced by Rev. E. C. Raney, pastor of the Methodist church, for the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning.

At the evening hour 7, the presiding elder, the Rev. Mr. Barcus of Clarendon, will be here to preach and hold the first quarterly conference.

"We are sure there will be a good attendance at this service of all officials, even to the trustees and their families, to hear the elder and voice a sentiment for the work of the church another year," Raney said. "Doctor Barcus is very desirous that we have a good number of fine reports for that meeting, all written and ready to surrender to the secretary."

At the morning hour, the pastor announces we will call for the babies to be baptized at the opening of the service, so that if need be they may retire after this part of the service. This will include children up to four years of age. "We should like for parents to let us know as soon as they can about this so we may make the needed preparations for it," Raney stated.

Church school at 9:45. The leagues meet at 6:15 "May we appeal to the parents to help the young people remember the league hour and then let the leaguers remind the parents of the hour for the evening church services," said Raney.

Freight Rates Hamper Industry
Discriminatory freight rates are retarding the industrial development of Texas, according to data compiled by the Texas planning board. In some instances it was discovered that it is cheaper to ship Texas raw material to the Eastern seaboard than it would be to ship the same raw material from the east to Texas.

A Strange Power; Overcomes Gravity

It Is Contrary to the Cosmic Force Yet Scientific

By C. C. MERRITT
(Pastor, Church of Christ)

Gravitation—downward; for the "pull" of it is ever downward. Before there can be motion in the opposite direction, that down pull must be neutralized; yes, entirely overcome. There is nothing centrifugal about gravitation. Nothing ever "flies off" of this earth for there is no "flying" to gravitation. It is the force of accelerating tendency of bodies toward the center of the earth. Levitation is the force that overcomes gravitation. A good illustration is that of an inflated balloon. Fill it with a "lighter-than-air" gas and it immediately feels another force, which gives it a place above the clouds and up it goes.

Christ said, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me." By "lifted up" He refers to His death on the cross. "Hereby know we (His) love, because He laid down His Life for us." Disciples of Christ are not attracted to His "code of ethics," or His philosophy or religion. They were overwhelmed by personal attraction. There was a message. That message was power because it told of Him. Yes, He draws "all men" unto Him. They come deflated. He fills the believing heart with an attraction for the "heavenly places." But before they "soar away" they must serve with Him to bring other deflated "balloons" to a condition for inflation—to be "filled with all the fullness of God." They are to "occupy until He comes" again. They have a stewardship. And a steward "must be found faithful." They are no longer egocentric, the logical effect of ethical codes, or of "religion" even. They are now Christo-centric. As one somewhere said, they are "heartgated, not headgated." If at any time they were a "code-of-ethics" Christian, now they affirm, "I love my Master." They are made His servants forever. Now they serve because of love, love for Him. Paul says, "I bear branded in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus." "Let no man trouble me now. I'm not for sale and I'll not desert Him." Love is greater than loyalty.

Next Sunday, at the "Church with the Open Bible," we will discuss the subjects of "A Biological Miracle" and "The Greatest Miracle of All." These subjects are in line with the season. We appreciate your presence.

Seven games played and seven won is the record so far this season for these hard-playing Allison high school basketball girls. Editorial
 There are only a few more days until sleigh bells can be heard and Santa's reindeer will come prancing through the snow drawing a sleigh loaded with toys for all good girls and boys.

Many already have the Christmas spirit and are planning for beautiful gifts and an enjoyable event during the holidays. Nevertheless, there are those who will never know, but for the time of the year, that such a day as Christmas really exists, for it is all that they can do to keep the wolf from the door.

Let those of us who are more fortunate, not forget that there is someone to whom we can bring joy through a kindly word or deed, even though we cannot present a gift.

Whether we give our happiness or a gift, let us do it in the spirit which that great American poet, Lowell, exemplified when he said:

"It is not what we give, but what we care.
 For the gift without the giver is bare."

Athletic Club Sponsors
 The senior class of Meridian high school will present the three act play, "Here Comes Kitty" Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Kelton gymnasium.

This play is sponsored by the athletic club, and the proceeds from the play will go into the club fund. Admission is 10c and 15c.

"42" Tournament
 Wednesday night of this week, the athletic club will sponsor a "42" tournament in the gymnasium. An admission of 10 cents will be charged each player. After the tournament, there will be a drawing, and the ones holding the lucky tickets will be given prizes. Everyone is invited to attend the tournament. The mam proceeds will go into the athletic fund to buy sweaters for the basketball teams.

Girls Win at Alanreed
 The tournament held in Alanreed last week-end proved another victory for Kelton girls' team. The girls defeated Samnorwood's team with a score of 21-11; Alanreed's team, 54-6; and Samnorwood's team again in the finals, 21-20.

The boys' team was defeated in both the game with Alanreed and that with Samnorwood.

Wednesday night of each week has been set aside as play night for Kelton ball teams. Last Wednesday the fat men's team defeated the lean men's team in their first game. The high school junior girls were defeated by the grade juniors. In the last game the senior boys defeated the faculty team.

The boys' and girls' teams are planning to attend the tournament at Allison this week-end.

Government Class Attends Court
 Members of the high school government class went to Wheeler Thursday to attend district court. The object of the trip was that the class should learn more about the procedure of a case in court. The trip was sponsored by Miss Ozella Hunt.

Owl Hoots
 The senior class officers which were chosen at the beginning of the school term were as follows: president, Ray Webster; vice-president, Bertha Rogers; secretary, Loudene Cooper; reporter, Lorene Harris, and sponsor, Mr. Gandy.

The class met Thursday and ordered invitations and senior rings. The rings will arrive in about four weeks.

The play committee met this week and obtained a number of plays to read in order that they might select one for the class to present about two weeks after Christmas.

We regret that Thurman Richardson and Ralph Marquis are unable to be in school now, and we hope that they may be with us again after the holidays.

All the members of the senior class enjoyed a party given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gandy Monday night.

Junior Snaps
 We are happy that ours is the largest junior class that Kelton school has ever had.

At the first class meeting, the following officers were elected: presi-

We are sorry that one of our students, Truman Henderson, has been ill and had to spend several days in the Wheeler hospital following an operation for appendicitis.

Everyone seems to be exceedingly busy this week, as the time approaches for six weeks examinations. We hope that T. J. Clay, who is suffering a broken wrist, will be able to resume his school work soon.

Soph Whims
 All of our class are preparing for six weeks examinations.

Our home economics class enjoyed preparing and serving a formal dinner last Thursday.

We are all looking forward to old Santa's visit. We hope he will reward us for our good behavior, because we believe we are entitled to a reward.

Seventh Grade Organizes Club
 The seventh grade English class organized a club which will be called the Public Speaking club. The following officers were elected to serve: president, J. D. Henderson; vice-president, Max Britt, secretary-treasurer, Grace Garner; reporter, La Fern Scott. The president appointed Evelyn Perryman, Alvina Kenney, and La Fern Scott to act as a program committee. The social committee members are Evelyn Mason, Christine Smith, and La Fern Scott. Our club meets every Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Our class has drawn names for our Christmas box. We all hope to have an enjoyable Christmas.

The seventh grade is happy to receive two new members, Vernel Killingsworth and Francine Reed, into its class.

First and Second Grades
 The first and second grades have a Christmas tree all lighted in their room. They are very proud of it, because it means that it will not be long until Santa Claus comes. They have already drawn names and are just about ready for Santa to hand the gifts out.

The first, second, and third grades are preparing an operetta, "The Gift of Christmas," for a Christmas program.

Sam Britt is in school again this week after several days' absence.

Alfred Smith withdrew from school Monday to move to Arkansas. We regret to lose him.

Several of the children from our room went to Shamrock Saturday to see Santa Claus.

What Would Happen If—
 We didn't have Christmas to look forward to each year?
 Imogene Beaty didn't get a letter postmarked "Twitty" every week?
 The seniors failed to talk about class parties?
 Muri Kuykendall forgot to "tell the world?"

The basketball girls were seated on "a back seat?"
 George Harral wasn't the only boy in music class?
 Miss Hunt forgot to say, "Close your books, please?"
 Vendell Davis wasn't the prettiest girl in school?
 Genevieve Britt wasn't "dippy" over her new Ford?
 Lorene Harris giggled?

Ten Day Christmas Holiday Announced

Students and Teachers to Receive Annual Winter Vacation

"School will be dismissed Friday, December 18 for the Christmas holidays. The students will have until December 28 before returning to their studies," states Supt. J. L. Gilmore.

Teachers and students plan to use their vacation in various ways.

Miss Imogene Holbert plans to spend the holidays at her home in Amarillo and in south Texas visiting relatives. Julia Lou Tinney plans to spend the Christmas holidays working.

Mrs. J. L. Gilmore is undecided. She may visit in Turkey and spend the rest of the time in Wheeler.

Geraldine Lewis is vacationing in Shamrock.

Helen June George will spend the holidays at her home in Magic City.

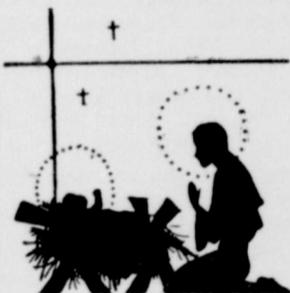

Miss Winona Adams will visit in Amarillo with friends and the remaining days at Wheeler.

The high school does not have any entertainment for Christmas planned. There will be Christmas trees at some of the churches, however. Private parties are also to be given by school students.

EIGHT NEW BOOKS ADDED TO MANUAL TRAINING LIBRARY

The manual training department has added eight new books to their library.

They include several booklets on different phases of manual training.

The Prince of Peace

Although the Thanksgiving season for the current year has already passed into history, there is one spot upon the calendar for which all peoples should duly give thanks.

And that is the occasion of Christmas, which is celebrated throughout the Christian world upon the twenty-fifth day of December.

It little matters if this was the exact date of the birth of our Lord—the fact still remains that we should and shall celebrate this date as the anniversary of that birth.

As one of cognomens of our Lord was that of the Prince of Peace and, as our Christmas is a day set outside of all days to pay honor and reverence to His memory—it behooves us to review for a moment the course of the world.

War—a chaotic, cataclysmic, catastrophic war—is staring at us through blood red eyes. The period of unrest and uneasiness that existed in the stirring days of '14, is but a mild murmuring as compared to the omniscient, unstable frame of mind that exists today. Sword arms are bared, munitions are being stacked to incredible heights and the chip is on every shoulder.

So we approach Christmas with a new and sober thought. The spirit of giving gifts at yuletide season is a noble sentiment, reaching deep into the traditions of our race. But this year, there must be a new kind of giving.

We, as a people and as individuals, must begin a giving that shall continue throughout the coming year and the years to follow that.

We must give our love to other peoples!

How is this to be done? By countless ways. We must regard the world as our neighbor. We must sympathize and try to understand the hopes and ambitions of a foreign race. We must forgive, as a loving and understanding father forgives the shortcomings of his child. We must bear no antagonism,—no rancor—no hate—no malice.

Try this, America, and the worries of war will disappear as certainly as the morning frost disappears before the noonday sun. Try giving yourself this Christmas.

In order to achieve this Herculean task of giving yourself and your love to an entire world, practice at first, this Christmas, giving those things to your loved ones and to the community in which you live.

Remember, that in the words of Elbert Hubbard, "All that we shall carry away with us from this world in our tightly-clenched hands, shall be that which we gave away."

"Funnies" Favorite For Frowning Folk In Hi Study Hall

"Hey, let me see that next," is commonly heard over the study hall during the day. What does this mean? Why, it means, "Let me see that funny paper next." Boys seem to have this fever worse than the girls. All during the day, students are going to the library or sitting at their seat reading the comics.

If a student wants to go to the library to look at the papers, they usually mean the funny papers. In the study hall, if anyone has a newspaper they can't look at it for someone else wanting to see the comic section. There really isn't anything wrong with reading the funny papers except it is hard to read all the funny paper if one has to do some old studying.

Some look at the comic section before they look at the headlines of the paper. And then they forget to look at the headlines.

SPECIAL SUPERVISOR VISITS GRADE SCHOOL LAST FRIDAY

J. W. Gunstream, deputy state superintendent, who visited this school a short while ago was visiting in the grade school last Friday.

Mr. Gunstream was also to have investigated the library at that time, but he had only a short while to stay. Superintendent Gilmore stated that he will return later for a thorough examination.

ACTIVITY PERIOD USED FOR WORKOUT OF VARIOUS TEAMS

The activity period is now devoted in the working out for basketball. The junior boys have a team that is one of the best junior teams that has been in this school for several years. This team is working out at the activity period in the gymnasium.

The girls are doing various things at this period. Some play basketball, others play ping pong, while some of the girls devote their time to tumbling. The volley ball girls are also working out at this period.

GIVE AND BE MERRY!

Many people of today are not appreciative of the comfort in which they live. They forget too easily that there will be numberless persons who will not have a pleasurable Christmas.

Many shut-ins' life would be brightened at Christmas time if a group of young people would sing Christmas carols for them. One does not realize how much happiness it brings to their lonely souls until one is in these weary people's place.

If all the people who have plenty of money would spend their money for food and clothing for the less fortunate instead of useless gifts for ones of their own means, Christmas would mean more to everyone. It would be more like Christ intended for it to be.

There would be more joy in giving to the ones who really need the necessities of life, than mere gifts for the ones who will forget in a short time.

May each person see how much joy he may bring to one in real need of joy and not think of how many gifts he will receive. Christmas shall be filled with a real thrill, if only we would follow the Golden Rule this one time.

ARE YOU GUILTY?

If a book could talk, what do you suppose it would say to you? Are you a student who is guilty of mistreating the library books? If you are, you have an idea what it would say to you.

Special care should be given to the library books. Every student in high school has to give a certain amount of book reports each semester. It is impossible for them to give the reports, if the books are torn too badly to read. Do not disfigure a book by turning down a leaf or leaving a pencil mark to mark the place where you stopped reading. Never leave a book's face downward, or leave a pencil or any other large object in it.

If our books are treated with this abuse, it will not be long before they will be coming apart. No one enjoys reading a book when some of the pages are missing. And as there are many other students who would like to read the book you are reading, avoid mistreating the library books.

FROM OTHER BRANDING IRONS

Personally we can't fathom the "kiss and make up" philosophy. What is so thrilling about this procedure? Especially when you're remembering way back in your mind how silly she was even if she was mad, and you know she is thinking the same about you. Besides the boy gets the raw deal because the girl gets the kiss and the boy gets the "make-up."

"MAVERICKS"

A CHARACTER SKETCH
 BY BEATRICE MILLER

She was a woman of ample proportions and a heart correspondingly large. She doted on rich foods including spaghetti and raviolas, topped with savory Italian cheese.

There was a slight accent in her voice—her English was very broken. She worshipped the voice of Caruso and had all of his arias on records. She was of olive complexion—black heavy eyebrows framing snapping; but kindly black eyes. Her hair was also dark.

She passionately loved her mother country. Of culinary arts, she was an expert. Reared to drink wine, as all of her countrymen are, she had an abundance of white and port wine. The backyard of her home was a profusion of flowers with an occasional pepper plant set here and there. She had left her home with nobility in the old country to come to America to marry. Whether she would have exchanged her fortune now with that of her childhood, she never said.

What is it? a massive forehead or smile crinkles around the eyes that portrays a person's generosity. She had both and would without regret give you anything in her possession, down to her natural goat's hair pillow.

Have you guessed? She was an Italian.

Lost-Found-Wanted

LOST—One of Beatrice's hearts. On the road to Lefors. If anyone runs across it, notify Miss Miller.

WANTED—One good weekend. Parilee Clay.

WANTED — Some basketball players. If you qualify see Coach Clark.

WILL TRADE—At reasonable prices. A class during some period except the last one. See some basketball girls.

WILL ACCEPT—Some snap courses, most students.

LOST — A pair of good lungs by Julia Lou. She thinks they were lost on the basketball court.

FOUND—On Imogine Jamison — at least three rings.

WANTED—By Martha Jane Shipman, a gold wrist watch for Christmas.

INTRODUCING

"Eyes that shine so bright," makes one think of the sparkling eyes of Lorraine Wallace. She is that quiet junior who isn't quite quiet. Here are the A B C's of her life.

Age 16; born February 15, 1920, in southern Oklahoma; came to Texas while still small; detests to have her picture taken; entered Wheeler high school this year; fought with the neighbor children on several occasions.

Goes gaga over anything red; has a brother four years older and a sister four years younger than herself; idolizes Spanish actresses—Dolores Del Rio, Lupe Velez; Jackson is her favorite author; knows volumes about the radio stars; love to go horseback riding; "Me and the Moon" is her favorite song.

No hobby that she can lay claim to; openly admits that she is very mischievous; proud of her claim to the Choctaw Indian blood; quick to help others and take up for them; ran away from home and school, time after time; speaks a little of her mother tongue if she can be persuaded; training to be a secretary.

Uses her spare time reading Radio Guides and Movie magazines; very long, curly, black eyelashes and ebony hair is her claim to beauty. Wants to take a business course in Amarillo next summer.

"Xmas" is going to be a peaceful holiday with her; your friend, Lorraine, will help you if she like you; and as all stories, songs and poems end nowadays, "z'all there is, there ain't no more."

COLTS

Richard Montgomery and Lois Anglin have withdrawn from Mrs. C. J. Meek's section of the fourth grade.

Both sections of the fourth grade are practicing on a Christmas program. They plan to have the program together.

Delaine Badley, of the first grade, has been absent a week, because of illness.

Mrs. John Ficke's section of the first grade will have a Christmas tree Friday. They will also have a program. The mothers of that room have been invited. The room mothers bought the tree and decorating material. They, also, helped decorate.

The first grade students under Mrs. Gordon Phillips, plan to have the following Christmas program, Friday.

"God Rest You Merry Children"—Joy and Foy Bradstreet.

"Silent Night, Holy Night" — All girls.

"Jingle Bells"—Entire class.

"Why Do Bells of Christmas Ring?"—Paul Waters.

Christmas Story—Harold Clark.

Why Santa Comes—Weldon Sanders.

Marie Compton from Mobeetie has entered the fifth grade section B.

Tommie Riley has withdrawn from the sixth grade. She will enter school at Briscoe.

Friday there will be a contest between the sections of the sixth grade on definitions. Two of the best students from each section were selected for the contest. From six A, Bill Mitchell and Juanita Sherwood and from six B, Melba Barns and Harry Garrison have been chosen.

SNUBBING POST

Thoughts of a holiday vacation are flitting through students minds . . . Vauge ideas of what the constitution is all about, eluded the strained brains of the civics class during their exam . . . Amos claims that the bum eye he has, is the result of a game of basketball.

Herbert says it's all over. It's only a guess that it might be a beautiful romance . . . Quite interesting to hear the Spanish debate last Tuesday. If you could understand it . . . Some of the bus drivers "tin-canned" a pup visiting school.

Wave goes in for extremes. She has a white cap and scarf set to contrast with her black hair . . . Judy is already boasting about a red robe and slippers she was given for Christmas . . . General accords gave "Swingtime" the rating of a good show.

Bob Clark was anxious to find his hat as it was his last. It is also reported that he left his watch and pencil at the feast . . . The football boys liked the orchestra music at their entertainment, Monday night.

Guy copied his friendly letter in English from his typing manual . . . Milton seems to be quite a favorite in the journalism room . . . "Angel" (do you recognize the girl) was all decked out to attend a banquet in Childress Tuesday evening.

Wheeler boys evidently don't care for the fellows from Miami because they tried to chase a couple of them off with fireworks, Sunday night . . . Bonnie and Lois were twins in the manner of dress material one day last week.

"Murder in the Moonlight" is unusual.

Robert Guynes has painted his fingernails green. Do they look swell? Phooie!

Aline and Marcelle have suddenly lost their desire to go to town. Why?

SPARKS FROM THE CAMP FIRE

Bad habits gather by unseen degrees, as brooks make rivers and rivers run to seas.

Our deeds still travel with us from afar. And what we have been makes us what we are.

Be what your mother thinks you are.

Character and human sympathy are the only two things that really count in this life.

Let us be content to work, to do the thing we can, and not presume to fret because it is little.

A hundred men may make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home.

Rome endured as long as there were Romans. America will endure as long as we remain American in spirit and in thought.

Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee.

Caught in The Lasso's Noose

Elva Bell had a trying experience the other day. It seems that she was dodging an airplane—believe it or not! She had been to town and as she was coming back, a little boy threw a toy flying machine at her. It flew around her several times and she certainly showed a whirling spirit.

It must be a hobby that some people have—walking up to the library and calling for a magazine. When asked what kind is wanted, they only shake their head and say, "Any knid." Some even call for a boys life, without naming whose.

Oh, students, please be good. Your mothers always thought you could. You wouldn't make any body mad, If you could keep from being bad. The teachers plead with you each day. They think they don't earn their pay. When you play and don't even mind. Oh, students please be kind!

In English III, Miss Holbert asked all the students to write a theme on an ideal boy or girl. Some of the girls wrote some very fine descriptions—of some of the local football heroes.

In music class, Mr. Wynne was telling the students not to slide

Names and Overdue Library Books Given

There are several books that have been checked out of the library that are now overdue. Some of the students do not know this so the names of the books and the person that the book is checked out to are as follows:

- "Skit Musgrave's Luck"—Marion Smith. "Air Service Boy's Over the Atlantic"—J. E. George. "Sky Pilot in No Man's Lands"—Hansel Parker. "Trail of the Lonesome Pine"—Albert Gunter. "The Kings Jackal"—Mary Belle Johnston. "Thunder Mountain"—De Verne Coleman. "Oil for the Lamps of China"—Bonnie Adams. "The Call of the Canyon"—Raymond Smith. "Hunchback of Notre Dame"—J. N. Tucker. "The Girl of the Limber Lost"—Melba Hyatt. "Alice of Old Vincennes"—Margie Bowers. "Crotan"—Dorothy Lee Burke.

All of these books were due on December 14 and should be turned into the library as soon as possible.

The Scout

The world interests in the Boy Scout movement challenges the intelligent understanding of everyone, and yet many people still ask, "What is scouting?" "What do Boy Scouts do?"

The Boy Scout idea is a movement rather than an organization. It aims to supplement existing organizations, such as the home, church, and school, by engaging the boys' leisure time and energies in outdoor games and activities of culture and practical value.

The aim of the scout movement is to inculcate character, which, though essential to success in life, is not taught within the school and, being largely a matter of environment, is too generally left to chance, often with deplorable results.

The scout movement endeavors to supply the required environment and ambition through games and outdoor activities, which lead a boy to become a better man and a good citizen.

Scouting is the process of making real men out of real boys by a real program which works.

Scouting is outdoor life, and so health, strength, happiness, and practical education. By combining wholesome, attractive, outdoor activities with the influence of the scout oath and law, the movement develops character.

It develops the power of initiative and resourcefulness. It helps boys. It insures good citizenship.

The boy scouts movement healthfully and sanely offsets the disadvantage which civilization has caused.

Scouting is one of the greatest educational organization in the world and carries with it, ideals that can only be secured through scouting. Scouting is the advancement in life where a boy is educated in many fields. It is here that he may find his life work through many of the varied activities offered him in the scouting program.

down from one note to the other. Mary Belle spoke up and said, "Well, we have to slide down until we lodge on the right note."

"Wonder why the church bell is ringing?" Miss Holbert asked in English IV. It was only Bob Tillman hitting on the radiator.

We hear that Carolyn has a new boy friend from Mobeetie.

Aline has been wearing a tie clasp on her arm. Now she is wearing a pocket watch around her neck. We are wondering what will be next?

My, but Mr. Clark had a hard time trying to find his hat Tuesday morning. He went to several of the class rooms trying to find it.

Beatrice Miller called Mr. Gilmore, "Mr. Witt," when he came in the journalism room. Mr. Gilmore said that Mr. Witt would probably shoot her for the error.

In history III class during the discussion of the early tariff laws, Miss Adams asked what was Hamilton's proposal. Howard Nations, who suddenly awakened asked, "Who did he propose to?"

What's this we hear about Beatrice Miller riding in the back seat with a certain football quarterback to a Union League meet Thursday night.

ROYAL TYPEWRITER FALLS, FRAME DAMAGED VERY BADLY

One of the Royal typewriters in the typing room fell from the table upon which it was setting and the frame of the typewriter was broken. There has not been a typewriter purchased to replace this one at the present.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Conducted by W. C. Zirkle Vocational Agriculture Instructor

In these days, dangerous in their clamors for bigness, speed and luxury, one needs to remind himself that increase of possessions, whether of property or power, does not insure progress in satisfaction.

This comes from the pursuit and service of truth, beauty and goodness in everyday life, and from helping on the happiness and prosperity of our fellows.

To work in that way for the advancement of the community, state and nation is the large, inclusive aim which animates the Future Farmers of America.

The social unrest, the agricultural discontent in some parts and the disappearance of the love of labor as a source of joy in life, all raise the inquiry: Are we on the right lines in education for safety, prosperity and happiness? Without doubt there is urgent need to transfuse the spirit of the daily task on the farm by high ideals and standards.

These are developed by the kind of vocational education which is becoming an integral part of the rural high schools of the various states. They belong to and grow out of the mood of the mind and manner in which work is done.

Achievement of the individual is made the basis for advancement from rank to rank in the Future Farmers of America. Class work of a higher order, developing a farming program, evidence of thrift and a practical demonstration of leadership are some of the passports to the higher degrees of the organization.

The Future Farmers of America must help to make life worthwhile by great, satisfying purposes in the lives of the plain people; which will find their expression through efficient labor for livehood, the love of learning and the willing service of humanity. To the rural youth of the nation who are seeking to prepare and to perfect themselves for service through the organization of Future Farmers of America, is addressed this motto as embodying the true vocational spirit:

"Learning to do, Doing to learn; Earning to live, Living to serve."

MILTON MOODY ELECTED AS EXCHANGE EDITOR FOR TERM

At the regular class period last week, the journalism class elected Milton Moody to serve as exchange editor of The Corral. His duty will be to collect the papers that have been sent as an exchange.

Milton will hold this position for the remainder of the school term. He attended school in Oklahoma, but he recently enrolled here.

We hear that Amos almost got in an argument with some Miami boys Sunday night. Be careful Amos! Remember they are Warriors.

Wheeler Wins First Game of Season, 23-7

Only One Workout Precedes First Game Of Basketball

High school basketball teams from Wheeler and Shamrock met in the local gymnasium last Thursday afternoon. Each quintet won one game, with the Wheeler lads emerging on top of the scramble by the score of 23-7.

In a game where thrills were many, the Shamrock lassies nosed out the Wheeler girls, 29 to 25. During the last half each team led the other by one point several times and the winner of the game was never decided until the final whistle.

Both Wheeler teams are coached by Bob Clark and Stina Cain and have splendid prospects for the coming season.

The boys who saw service in the game were: Ford, Norman, Page, Young, Groves, Jolly, Derryberry, Green, Weeks, Tillman, Emler and Markham.

Those who played in the girls game were: Tinney, Johnston, Durham, Jaco, L. Ficke, Hampton, Swan, Whorton, Marilyn Johnson, Crawford, Wiley and Adams.

Obnoxious Odor of Something Smelled By Neo-Journalists

"Sniff, sniff, what's that I smell?" "It smells as if someone has polished his shoes."

Some such expressions were among those uttered in the journalism room last Friday. Students were looking at each other's shoes to see if their shoes had recently been polished. After many inquiries it was discovered that Milton Moody was the guilty person.

He had accidentally spilled some alcohol on his clothes.

Students Partied On Last Tuesday Night

Dawn Weatherly was a charming hostess of a group in her home Tuesday night. Part of the guests devoted their time in making candy and popping corn.

Parlor games of bingo, forty-two and others were enjoyed. Singing was one of the main features of the evening.

Candy and popped corn was served to Wave Wallace, Bonnie Adams, Orveta Puett, Ethel Claire Raney, Lula Barr, W. J. Ford, Junior Jamison, Herbert Whitner, Herbert Green, Amos Page, Ray Norman, Milton Moody, Ferrol Ficke, Martha Jane Shipman.

Aline Buchanan, Guy Robison, Bobbie Groves, Wallace Pendleton, Farrell Wallace, Clella Beth Moody, Louise Veale, Ruth Barr, Alvis Jolly, Alton Weeks, Dorothy Lee Burke, Imogene Jamison, H. E. Young, Jack Pitcock, Jack Tate, and Miss Imogene Holbert. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Cliff Weatherly.

Most basketball girls would be willing to give a nickel if they were as fast on the basketball court as Lavell Jaco.

Panhandle Panthers Win Championship

Panhandle Panthers Win First Regional Championship at McLean

The Panhandle Panthers won their first regional championship last Friday by defeating the Flomot Longhorns, 39-0, on Tiger field in McLean.

Most of the scores made by the Panthers were gained by an aerial offense. Sparks, Panther back, was the outstanding player of the game. His runs and passes were the main reason for the Panthers victory.

Light and Amonett were the only backs that could make any headway through the Panther line. Light made several good returns on punts. It was Light's sensational gains that beat the Wheeler Mustangs in a sea of mud on a golf course in Matador three weeks ago.

Paul, left end for the Panthers, was on the receiving end of the passes that beat the Longhorns. Sparks caught a pass and raced 30 yards to a touchdown for the last counter of the game.

After this score was made, the Panhandle substitutes went in and played a brilliant game. They got within five yards of the goal line once before the Longhorn defense stiffened.

The starting lineups were:

GRADES ARE EXPECTED TO BE RAISED BY RECENT TESTS

Three weeks tests were given last week. It is hoped that this will raise the grades of some of the students who are participating in the different sports.

Task For Students To Write Biography

"You won't read these in class, will you?" "I'm not old enough to write that much about myself." "Do you want us to start them this way?" "How shall we start it?" "What do you want us to tell about ourselves?"

These are some of the questions that were repeated over and over, when the English IV Literature students were told that they were to write two pages about their life.

It seemed to be a very difficult task for some of the poor students. It, also, seemed to be a monotonous task for the teacher to answer every question about twenty times. However, when all the questions were answered, the students wrote an autobiography of themselves.

It looks as if the Amarillo Sandies are headed for another state championship. They took Abilene into camp last week, 46-13. They meet the North Side Steers from Fort Worth at Amarillo tomorrow.

Max Schmeling has been signed to meet Jimmy Braddock on June 3. He is confident that he will win and be the first fighter who ever held the crown twice.

Jack Chevigny who is the retiring head coach at the Texas University has been appointed to the state tax board by Governor James V. Allred.

The citizens of Wheeler certainly back the Mustangs. Last Monday night, Buck Britt gave a banquet just for the football team and a few guests. The next year team should also go very far towards winning another conference championship.

The Mustangs should have another good basketball season with seven lettermen back from last years county championship team.

The Mustangs won the first basketball game of the season by defeating the Shamrock Irishmen. Of course, it is too early in the season to predict any outcome, but it looks as if they can beat them again, later on.

FOOTBALL BANQUET GIVEN BY MR. BRITT

turkey, cranberry sauce, dressing and gravy and, to end the meal, with a large slice of chocolate pie.

The main speaker on the program was Dr. Nicholson, who gave how vital points learned in football helps one throughout life. He also stressed that it not only takes teamwork on the gridiron, but it also takes cooperation in the life of every boy who expects to make a good citizen.

Another talk was made by "Babe" Robinson, who has been manager for the last two years. Babe expressed his appreciation to the coaches for their letting him be the manager and also wished the seniors another successful football season.

Speakers Entertain

The two captains, W. J. Ford and Bob Tillman made talks, expressing their gratitude to the team as a whole and to wish the 1937 Mustangs another successful season.

Robert Mayne entertained with imitations of various radio, stage and screen comics. Coaches Bob Clark and Stina Cain gave the accounts of the past season and the main reasons for a successful season. In opening his speech, Coach Cain stated that he thought that a banquet was to eat and not talk. Applause greeted his statement.

Alton Weeks, who has another year of football gave the prospects for the coming season and in closing Alton declared, "I just hope that next year the Mustangs have as clean a record as the Mustangs did this season."

Banquet Donor Talks

Mr. Britt told the football team it was a pleasure to present this banquet to them. He stated, "It is I that is honored and not the football team."

The meal was prepared by the Home Economics girls. Those who served were: Irene Hunt, Lavell Jaco, Helena Jones, Dorothy Winkler, Clella Beth Moody.
