

School Election In Cisco Is Announced

CISCO — Cisco Independent School District taxpayers will go to the polls July 26 to decide on a proposal for issuing $200,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a new elementary school building.

The election date was set this week after school trustees received a petition signed by 50 taxpayers. In announcing the election the board also revealed a long range program for improvements in school district property and announced they had entered into temporary agreements with a bond brokerage firm and an architect.

The long range improvement program is as follows, according to R. Y. Siddall, president of the board:

1. Voting of $200,000 in bonds immediately to finance a new elementary school building and setting property valuations at 40 percent of their assessed value.

2. Voting on bonds within two years to build a new high school with property values going up another 10 percent to 50 percent of their assessed value to finance this or to pay off the old school debt at an accelerated rate.

3. Providing more tax money for use in raising the salaries of public school teachers.

4. Providing adequate funds for proper maintenance of school buildings and facilities.

The board said the new elementary school building would be erected on property already owned by the schools south of the junior high building. The new structure would include a cafeteria, which would also serve junior high.

The board agreed that when a new high school is built it should be on the site of the old high school (at the intersection of the football stadium) and the stadium should be moved to property owned by the school system to the west.

Ten Wells Drilling In Rising Star Area

There were more active oil and gas drilling locations in the Rising Star area this week than has been the case since the boom times of the mid-twenties.

Coastal State Gas Producing Company alone has 10 wells drilling while Southwestern Gas Producing Company and Bridwell Oil Company of Wichita Falls each have recently completed wells in the area.

Most of the Coastal States operations are in the Okra-Sipe Springs area.

Southwestern Gas Producing Company has completed two wells for gas production just southeast of Rising Star.

Construction of the Coastal States compressor plant on the Judd farm, four miles east of Okra, was underway with pouring of foundations this week.

Land Purchasing Policy Is Set for Hubbard Dam Site

In a meeting of the Board of Directors of the West Central Texas Municipal Water District held in Breckenridge Wednesday it was stated that time for letting of the contract on the Hubbard Creek dam may be moved up to October. Original schedule called for January.

After hearing John Berry of Clyde, and naming him as land man to negotiate purchases, the board announced a price policy on land that will be needed for the reservoir to supply Breckenridge, Anson, Albany, and Abilene.

Berry was authorized to make land trades at up to $100 an acre for purchase of land which will be put under water, $25 an acre for easements on land which might be occasionally flooded and $10 an acre for easements on lands which might be flooded at the lake's highest level.

A little over 25,000 acres of land will be needed for the reservoir, including easements. The Water District already has agreements which landowners on purchases of 9,368 acres and easements on 3,585 acres. There are 7,032 acres remaining to be purchased, and 4,792 acres on which easements are needed.

Celebration Planned

A varied program has been scheduled Monday, July 4th as Dublin rolls out the red carpet for an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration at City Park. Highlighting the activities will be an old fiddlers contest which begins at 8 p.m. Also planned are Little League and Pony League baseball games, a model airplane show, diving exhibitions, band concerts, a fire fighting exhibition and other such activities.

Meters 'Mighty Low'

Response to the straw vote or public opinion poll conducted last week by the Free Press was little short of sensational. At the very most only 60 or 70 voters were expected. Actually, 202 votes were cast in the poll. Although each blank was counted as only one vote, many of the ballots, both for and against, were marked to indicate from two to five votes. One hundred and thirty two opposed the meters and 64 liked them inside the city limits. Outside 73 opposed the meters and 20 favor them.

More Help Is... Needed by Cubs

That all too familiar cry went out again this week. "We need more adult leadership in Cub Scouting," Mrs. Cox stated. Mrs. Cox, a den mother herself, urged any adult who is willing to help to contact Eddie Gallagher, pack master.

New Pension Law For Veterans Now In Effect

The new veterans pension law approved by Congress and the President during 1959 went into effect Friday.

The Veterans Administration said that veterans who file claims after June 30, 1960 and veterans' dependents who file claims based on deaths after June 30, 1960 can be paid pension only under this new law known as Public Law 86-211.

The new law increases both the maximum pension payments and the amount of permissible income from other sources and provides a sliding scale of payments based on need. At the same time, it provides for counting part of the wife's income as the veterans and for considering the net worth of the applicant.

The new law also puts pension eligibility requirements for widows and orphans of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans on the same eligibility basis as those of World War I. It eliminates the previous requirement that a veteran of World War II or Korea have a service-connected disability at time of death.

Veterans and their dependents already on the pension rolls are allowed either to remain under the previous law or to elect to come under the new law. Such an election once made may not be revoked.

Pension is paid to veterans who are permanently and totally disabled even though the disabilities have no relation to their military service. Payments to veterans or their dependents for service-connected disabilities are called "compensation" and are not affected by the pension laws.

Under the law which became operative Friday, single veterans with annual income not exceeding $1,800 who are permanently and totally disabled may be paid pension at a monthly rate ranging from $40 to $85, depending on the amount of other income they have. Similarly disabled veterans who have dependents can draw from $45 to $100 per month, and have a maximum income limitation of $3,000. To each of these amounts, $70 will be added if the veteran requires constant aid and attendance.

Widows alone may be paid from $25 to $60 a month, and the rate increases from $40 to $75 per month for widows with one child. An extra monthly payment of $15 is allowed for each additional child.

Drivers Have Hectic Week In Local Area

It's been a bad week for drivers, sign posts and brick structures in Eastland this week.

Besides two serious highway accidents, one on each side of town on Highway 80, there have been numerous crashes in the city limits. One of the highway crashes claimed the life of a young mother.

Eastland County Pioneer Buried In Cisco Friday

Funeral services for Norma Amron Gray, former Olden merchant and a long-time resident of Cisco, were held Friday afternoon at 5 at Wylie Funeral Home in Cisco.

Mr. Gray died Thursday morning at 7:50 in Graham Hospital in Cisco. He suffered a stroke Monday and had been in the hospital since then. Although not in robust health, he was feeling fine until the seizure Monday.

He was born Oct. 11, 1876, at Thornton, and moved with his late father to Eastland County in 1904, first to Carbon, and later to the community a few miles north of Rising Star that became to be known as Gray's Gin. Mr. Gray and his father engaged in the cotton ginning business and farming in this community for several years before moving to Cisco.

He and his father operated a grocery store in Cisco for several years and later he operated a grocery store in Olden during the boom years.

Mr. Gray retired from business activities several years ago because of his health. He lived at 310 West Sixth Street in Cisco and was a member of the Church of Christ.

He is survived by one brother, R. S. Bud Gray of Clovis, New Mexico; three sisters, Mrs. H. C. Nix of Cisco, and Misses Lillian and Jo Gay of Cisco; one niece, Mrs. Betty Gray Stancill of Houston; and two nephews, Walter Gray of Garland, and Joe Gray of Eastland.

Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery in Cisco.

High Scoring Is Feature of Local Little League

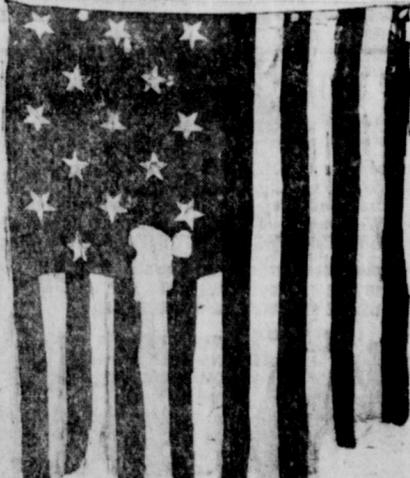

They were stampeding across home plate Thursday night in Eastland Little League play. In the first game of the night the Lions whipped the Medics, 15-7, and then in the second game the Comets edged the Bulldogs, 18-14.

Gregory was the winning pitcher for the Lions and Warren was charged with the Medic loss. Winner for the Comets was Herrera and the loser for the Bulldogs was Mace.

The Fourth of July Recalls The Original "Star Spangled Banner"

The Original "Star Spangled Banner" Which Survived the Bombardment at Fort M'Henry, Baltimore

The flag flew above Fort M'Henry, Baltimore, during a night long bombardment by the British fleet in September, 1814. Francis Scott Key, who had witnessed the shelling of the fort, was so moved to see the flag still flying in the morning that he composed "The Star Spangled Banner" on the spot. The song eventually became our national anthem.

History has it that Col. George Armistead of Fort M'Henry wanted the largest flag possible so that the British, who were blockading Chesapeake Bay, would be sure to see it. As a result the flag was heroic in size, measuring 30 by 42 feet. These strange proportions were caused by the fifteen stripes. There were, of course, fifteen stars too.

The flag was made by Mrs. Mary Young Pickersgill who is listed in the Baltimore directory of that period as a maker of "ships banners and flags." Two nieces were pressed into service to help cut and sew the 400 yards of hand woven bunting which went into the making of this historic banner. It was so large, in fact, that only the malt room of a Baltimore brewery could accommodate it during its making.

Composer Key's phrase, "the rockets red glare," may have influenced a century of Independence Day celebrations which accentuated fireworks and firewater more than patriotic programs. But as the toll of deaths and injuries mounted annually and the public began to demand moderation, many communities in the 20th century passed laws prohibiting the use of fireworks except for cooperative displays set off by experts. Modern observance of the Fourth is more than likely to mean a parade and patriotic speeches, winding up with a family picnic at which our Day of Independence is moderately saluted er, Mrs. Margaret Hartman Doss of Amarillo, and the other injured four people.

An Eastland woman was hospitalized after the car she was driving, a late model Chevrolet, smashed into a brick planter box in front of Poe Floral Wednesday night. The car overturned and skidded on its side for half a block before it ran into a sign in front of Kelley's Grocery. When the car hit the sign it again righted itself. Mrs. Charles Brooks was admitted to Eastland Memorial Hospital with a badly injured arm and other cuts and bruises.

Then Thursday morning the walls literally came tumbling down at the Coca-Cola bottling company. A Coca-Cola truck, after unloading at the plant, pulled out under a brick archway and didn't quite make it. The truck's trailer pulled down not only the archway, but brick on two different buildings and the roof of a parking shed.

One other sign bit the ground too. It was the sign in front of the Eastland Motel. A car took it down in the course of activities.

West Ward P-TA Nets $35 From Softball Game

West Ward P-TA netted $35.38 from their women's softball game this week.

A spokesman for the club, Winnette Maynard, thanked all who helped and paid special thanks to Darwin Miller and the Little League for use of the field.

She also thanked Faye Wilson, Leona Corn and Louise Gregory for running the concession stand. Players who played for West Ward were Winnette Maynard, Jackie Williams, Mae Plovman, Zelma Hendricks, Olene Berry, Betty Doyle, Frances Moore, LaVerne Campbell, Wanda Thomas, Fannie Lindley, Nell Campbell, Dois Morton and Carolyn Collins.

West Ward players were Mary Nicholas, Sandra Reese, Jody Fry, Cleo Duncan, Louise Dorsey, Mrs. Hensley, Lizza Bell Curtis, Monty Faye Warren, Patsy Ables, Imogene Norris, Oma Mae Hughes, Wanda Pack, Billy Brooks, Louise Nelms and Helen Lund.

Ranger Woman's Nephew Dies In Bandera

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blackwell have just returned from Bandera where they attended the funeral services of her nephew, H. A. Meginnis Jr.

Mr. Meginnis died suddenly Monday in Bandera. He was 42 years old and a former resident of Ranger.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Bandera Methodist Church and interment was in the Bandera Cemetery.

Survivors include the wife and five children of Bandera; mother, Mrs. H. A. Meginnis of Corpus Christi; one aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Meginnis of San Antonio; an uncle, J. P. McGlothlin of San Antonio, an aunt, Mrs. Earl Blackwell of Ranger; and two great aunts, Mrs. E. W. Burnett and Mrs. Nora Weaver of Ranger.

Nancy Beck Is Honor Student At Sul Ross

Nancy Bonita Beck, of 305 South Hill Crest, Eastland, recently was named to the Spring Honor List at Sul Ross State College, by Dean of the College, Bevington Reed.

The Dean's List is the mark of distinction of the academic world and is achieved by not more than 15 percent of the student body. Seventy-five students were named for the last semester, of whom eleven achieved a "straight A" average.

President Bryan Wildenthal recently announced to the faculty that several new scholarships have been awarded to Sul Ross students as an indication of renewed interest in the higher academic standards of the school.

Sul Ross State College opened its doors to its first students in June 1920, and according to a recent tabulation, the August graduating class will mark more than five thousand graduates in the forty year history of the institution. Summer Convocation has been announced for August 21.

Ranger Defeats Eastland in Teenage Play

The Ranger Teenagers downed the Eastland teenagers 12 to 9 at Eastland Thursday night behind the pitching of Ronnie Hinds and Bobby Owen.

Hinds started on the mound for Ranger and went four innings before he found himself in trouble. Owen came to the mound in his relief and controlled the game the rest of the way.

The Ranger club found Jody Cooper, the Eastland pitcher who has defeated them two times previously, an easy target and jumped on to him for seven runs before Hayden Wilson came in, the fourth inning to relieve him.

Ranger collected 10 hits with Jess Renteria, Ronnie Hinds and Alex Garcia each getting two hits, while Charlie Santos, Arthur Mendoza, Terry Townzen and Bobby Owen got one each. Eastland collected six hits, with Manuel Herrera getting two and Jody Cooper, Underwood, Larry Howie and Basham getting one.

MRS. DONALD OWEN . . . former Jean Pipkin

Alice Jean Pipkin Becomes Bride of Donald L. Owen

Wedding vows were read Saturday at 6 p.m. for Miss Alice Jean Pipkin and Donald Louis Owen in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pipkin, 200 S. Oaklawn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Turk Pipkin, 300 W. Sadosa. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Owen, 2001 North D. Midland. He was living at 810-A N. Johnson, Amarillo at the time of the marriage.

Rev. James H. Campbell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Eastland, officiated at the double ring ceremony with wedding music being rendered by Mrs. Jack Frost, soloist, and Mrs. D. L. Kinnard, organist. Musical selections included "I Love You Truly" and "O, Promise Me."

The impressive ceremony was performed amid a nuptial setting of floorbaskets of white gladioli flanked by Swedish steel candelabra containing white burning tapers. Palms and the kneeling bench completed the wedding scene.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length dress of white silk organza, the bouffant skirt of which was appliqued in lace. The rounded neckline, embroidered with seed pearls and pastel iridescent sequins, was accented by lace applique. The back of the swirling skirt was caught up into a bustle just below the basque waist.

Self-covered buttons closed the back to well below the waistline. Matching mitts of organza closed with self-covered buttons drew attention to the tiny gathered sleeves. A shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a cap of matching organza and lace outlined with seed pearls.

A single strand of pearls and matching earclips were the bride's only jewelry. She wore white satin slippers. Her bridal bouquet consisted of white stephanotis centered with a white orchid atop a white Bible.

The longtime tradition of "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue" was carried out in the bride's gown, a handkerchief made from the wedding dress of the bride's mother, blue garters made by Mrs. Jess Pipkin of Breckenridge, great-aunt of the bride, and the borrowed Bible.

Miss Mary Jane Hank of Midland, maid of honor, was gowned in the bride's chosen color scheme of pink and white. Her dress was white imported eyelet organdy over pale pink. The fitted bodice was accented by a semi-scoop neckline and full bell sleeves of matching organdy. The full waist-length unpressed pleated skirt featured a deep embroidered hemline with a pink bow at the waistline.

She also wore a matching pink halo hat of the same fabric, short white kid gloves, satin shoes and carried pink and white carnations. Norman Booth of Midland served the couple as best man at the ceremony.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of the bride's grandparents. Members of the houseparty included Misses Sue Mills, Betty Boles, Linda Kay Murray of Midland, Betsy Sadler of Dallas, and Gaye Hickman of Tulsa, Okla.

Mrs. Pipkin, the bride's mother, wore a sheath dress of blue silk with matching blue accessories and an orchid corsage. For her going-away trip, the bride chose a silk suit of underwoven print in pastel blue and green with matching hat. She wore white shoes, gloves, bag and blue jewelry.

Mrs. Owen is a graduate of Midland High School and attended Texas Tech College in Lubbock. The groom was graduated from Kemper Military School and attended North Texas State College and Texas Tech College. Out of town guests included W. D. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Velvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Costin, Mrs. C. R. Skidmore, Jim Dillard, Ronald Overend, Mrs. Jess Pipkin, Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Bowlin, H. B. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hickman and son and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pipkin and family.

Few Precautions Make a Vacation Carefree and Fun

The plans are made, the days marked off on the calendar, and the itinerary mapped—all for the big moment when that long-awaited vacation begins.

This summer, according to travel authorities, some 80 million Americans will embark on a myriad of trips to all parts of the universe and spend around 11.5 billion dollars getting away from it all.

Chances are three to one that you and your family will be among these touring Americans. If so, you will enjoy a more carefree vacation by taking a few precautions.

If you do any driving, remember that the National Safety Council recommends you drive no more than 350 miles a day. Arrange your trip schedule so that you arrive at your destination in daylight and stay only at approved hotels, motels, inns and pension.

When it comes to clothing, the main thing is to guard against a change in the weather. Wear sensible shoes for sightseeing or walking on rough ground.

Stomach upsets are common to travelers. Usually, contaminated food or water is blamed. Often, eating indiscretion may be the real culprit and time schedules may upset regular eating habits. Eat lighter when traveling; save those gourmet expeditions until after you acclimate yourself to the area. Unless milk is boiled, it should be avoided in most countries. Exceptions are the Scandinavian countries, Great Britain, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland. Of course, ice cream, butter and fresh cheese are also taboo if the milk in the country is unsafe. As a safety rule, drink only refrigerated bottled water in these same areas.

For some of us exposure to the sun is an easy natural process and a frustrating problem for most of us. Regardless of your inherent ability "to take the sun", over-exposure may be dangerous. Also, don't be fooled by a cloudy day. Even though the sun is not visible, its ultra-violet rays filter through the clouds and cause a severe burn. Burning can be kept to a minimum either by gradually increasing exposure and by using a chemical which screens out most of the burning rays of the sun.

Of course, remedies should be intended only as preventives or as treatments for minor ills. The cardinal rule—if you get sick, call a doctor—holds true overseas as it does at home. Your travel agent office, airline, hotel, American Consulate office or local medical society office can direct you to adequate medical attention almost anywhere. Make sure, however, if you are abroad, that the physician speaks and understands English.

If you wear glasses, take an extra pair along, or carry the prescription for your lenses with you as an extra precaution.

Do not let needless health worries spoil your trip. With proper precautions you can make your vacation a pleasant and memorable experience.

Christian Science

How health and harmony are gained through understanding the supremacy of God will be brought out at Christian Science churches next Sunday.

Readings from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "God" will include the following from Psalms (145:13): "Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this selection will be read (473:8-10): "God is everywhere, and nothing apart from Him is present or has power."

The Golden Text is from Deuteronomy (11:1): "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments always."

REPORTS IMPROVEMENT
T. L. Fagg, Eastland business man, is in the Hendricks Memorial Hospital following major surgery Wednesday. At the latest report he is recovering satisfactorily and will be able to return home in a week or 10 days.

New Pension-

child. The maximum income limitation for a widow alone is $1,800 and for a widow with children it is $3,000.

Under the old pension system veterans, whether single or with dependents, were paid at a flat rate of $66.15. This payment was increased to $78.75-per-month after 10 years on the rolls or attainment of age 65. Income limitations were $1,400 a year for single veterans, and $2,700 for veterans with dependents. A payment of $135.45 was allowed a veteran needing constant aid and attendance.

The old law provided flat payments of $50.40 for a widow alone, $63.00 for a widow with one child and $7.56 for each additional child.

Detailed information regarding the new pension law may be obtained from any VA office.

Luncheon Honors Miss Pipkin at Lone Cedar Club

First in a series of pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Jean Pipkin, bride-elect of Donald Owen, was held Thursday, June 16, at the Lone Cedar Country Club.

Members of the hostess committee were Meses. Milton Fullen, Truman Brown, Bill Walters, Jr. and Tom Stamey.

The bride's table was laid with pink organza and centered with a bride and groom.

Pink and white carnations flanked by silver candleabra formed the centerpiece for the luncheon table. The menu consisted of a melon plate, breast of chicken, wild rice, English peas, hot rolls, sherbert dessert, iced tea and coffee.

Attending were Mrs. Grady Pipkin, Mrs. Bruce Pipkin, Mrs. James Pipkin, mother of the honoree, Miss Pipkin, Mrs. J. C. Jarrett, Mrs. Joe Collins and Meses Nancy Beck, Judy Inzer, Jamie Stamey and Gaila Walters.

Miss Jean Pipkin Is Honored with Brunch Thursday

Miss Jean Pipkin, bride-elect of Donald Owen, was honored Thursday at 9:30 a. m. with a brunch in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jones, Leon Plant Village.

Hostess for the pre-nuptial courtesy was Miss Rosemary Jones.

The bride's table was laid with a white linen cloth centered with a massive pink rose and grape floral arrangement. Miniature rosebud and bluebird arrangements flanked the centerpiece.

The two course meal consisted of chilled orange juice, cantaloupe balls, strawberries on a stem, pears in blanket, cinnamon coffee squares, scrambled eggs, pecan butter scones, coffee and tea.

Guests wrote recipes and best wishes to fill a decorative file presented to the honoree. The hostess gift of a fruit bowl matching the bride's patio-ware was presented by Miss Jones.

Present were Meses Nancy Beck, Gaila Walters, Jamie Stamey, Mrs. J. C. Jarrett, the honoree, and the hostess.

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. Myrtle McNatt, 510 E. Pershing were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Kenneth Lane and Madolyn of Sunland, Calif.
