Investigates Station Robbery

The Ranger Police Department announced today that two investigations have been held and one warrant issued this week by the Department.

An investigation was made in connection with the burglarizing of the Texaco Service Station on Highway 80 near Porkey Pig Drive In. The police have a lead on the burglary and are expecting a quick solution of the crime.

While following out leads in the station burglary, approximately $100 worth of tools were recov-ered that had been stolen last week. A felony warrant has been issued from Judge Ruby Springer's Justice Court for a San Antonio
