Increased Dividend Declared by Federal Savings and Loan

L. R. Pearson, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Ranger, today announced that the Association would pay savers 4 1/4 percent dividends on their savings in 1960. In making this announcement, Pearson stated that increased interest rates on Government Bonds and other investment securities made it desirable that First Federal increase dividend rates from the current 4 percent to 4 1/4 percent to maintain the rate of growth enjoyed by the Association in 1959.

Pearson stated that assets of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Ranger increased by a record $253,756.53, or 13.091 percent. In spite of intense competition for savings and the tightest home credit market in many years, First Federal Savings and Loan Association made important gains on the thrift and home financing fronts in 1959, Pearson also stated.

He stated that many individuals and families continued and even stepped up the savings programs started to off-set possible ill effects of the 1958 recession.

He added that this continued high level of savings, coupled with ever-increasing repayments on loans previously made, enabled the

Public School Week Declared By Governor

For each of the past ten years Public Schools Week in Texas has been set aside as a special time to place increased emphasis on our educational system.

During this period, parents are encouraged to visit the public schools, and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas public schools the finest in the Nation, and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public school will furnish our leaders of tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of February 27 - March 4, 1960, as Public Schools Week in Texas.

Increased Dividend Declared by Federal Savings and Loan

Association to meet the vastly increased demand for home loans that occurred in the area as the business climate improved.

Record payments of earnings to savers for the use of their funds. Dividends totaled $36,362.32, in 1959, 11.369 per cent above the 1958 figure.

An increase of $234,896.55, or 13.111 per cent in the home loan portfolio, increasing the total of sound, quality home loans held by the Association to $990,026.03 at year end.

Pearson forecast an excellent business year for 1960, with recovery from the effects of the steel strike to be relatively slow, but picking up momentum afterwards. Personal incomes should reach new highs, he said, with consumer expenditures expanding accordingly. While housing starts possibly would decline to roughly 1.2 million units from 1959's estimated 1.35 million units, the year would still be one of the best post-war building years, he concluded.

REALISTIC MEDICAL exercises by local civil defense units such as this one at Los Angeles build up a preparedness to meet nuclear attack or natural disaster. Only through such training as this can the nation be ready to care for the millions of casualties that might result from nuclear attack.

Peanut And Cotton Growers Approve New Price Support

The U. S. Department of Agriculture recently announced that peanut and cotton growers have approved the use of marketing quotas for the peanut crop to be produced in the next three years, and the cotton crop for 1960.

In the preliminary tabulation of votes in the Dec. 15 peanut referendum, 94.19 per cent of the 32,731 growers voting approved continuing quotas for another three-year period.

While legislation requires that the Secretary of Agriculture proclaim a peanut marketing quota each year regardless of the supply the quotas may not go into effect unless approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum on the question.

Peanut marketing quotas have been in effect since 1949. The last previous peanut quota referendum was held in December, 1956, when 93.5 per cent of the votes were in favor of quotas for the three following years. Since the peanut growers now have approved quotas for another 3-year period, it will not be necessary for them to vote again before 1962.

Preliminary returns indicate that growers of both upland and extra long staple cotton approved marketing quotas for the 1960 crops in referendum held throughout the Cotton Belt Dec. 15.

Of the growers voting, early results show that 95.2 per cent approved quotas for the 1960 upland cotton crop, and 85.2 per cent approved quotas for the 1960 crop of extra long staple cotton. These results compare with favorable votes a year ago of 92.2 per cent for upland and 88.5 percent for extra long staple of the 1959 crop.

Since quotas on both types of cotton have been approved by more than the necessary two thirds of the growers voting, marketing quotas will continue in effect for next year's cotton crops.

Growers who exceed their applicable farm acreage allotments being subject to penalties on the farm's excess production. Price support will be available to growers who comply with the farm's acreage allotment for the particular kind of crop.

From Our Files

January 10, 1939
County Agent, Elmo V. Cook, has announced more emphasis than ever will be given soil and water conservation work in the county during 1939.

January 8 to 14 has been designated by the legislature as soil conservation week in Texas.

Ray Grimes, manager of the Chisolm buses operating out of Vernon, was in Ranger today and made arrangements with the Paramount Hotel to act as agent for a new bus schedule that will go into effect on Jan. 6.

Rufe Davis' publicity man, Bernie Davison, arrived in town yesterday five days ahead of Rufe. Bernie is supposed to stay a full week ahead of Rufe, but hardly ever does.

Bernie is Rufe's youngest brother and Rufe's name is really Rufus Davison, but that doesn't change him none.

January 10, 1949
Sale of the top four floors of the Petroleum Building in Eastland to T. K. Irwin of Dallas and Earle W. Patton of Austin, by C. D. Porter and Morris Connan was confirmed Thursday by Irwin.

Irwin, Dallas attorney and co-owner of the Irwin-Keasler Building in Dallas, said the $45,000 was paid for the building was an all-cash transaction.

A hope that contracts for seven more miles of paving on the Carbon-Rising Star road will be let in February was expressed this week by E. M. Pritchard, resident engineer for the Texas Highway Department.

Eastland County's bond payment outlook, once gloomy indeed, now is so bright that the county in effect will be making money off its old highway bonds in a couple of years.

Olympics Team Berth Sought

A letter has been written to James L. Sheehan of Boston, Massachusetts, head of the Olympic tryouts in the United States, requesting that Cisco Junior College boxer Glenn Hutson be matched in a tournament with James L. Blythe, National AAU boxing champion of 1959.

If Hutson, at 205 pounds could defeat Blythe, weighing 178 pounds, he would be a top prospect for the U. S. Olympic team. Hutson has won 26 straight fights including 12 knock-outs. He has been picked a definite favorite to win the regional heavy weight title in the Abilene Golden Gloves tournament. Hutson was All-Army heavyweight in 1955.

Hospital To Be Stored In Breckenridge

Breckenridge has been selected to receive an emergency Civil Defense hospital for storage. Hugh McBeath, Stephens County Civil Defense Co-ordinator, announces.

The hospital equipment will be stored at the National Guard armory with Sgt. Tom Briggs as custodian.

Scheduled to arrive in the near future, the hospital will be available for any disaster or emergency which may arise in the immediate area. Sites for the storage of the pre-packaged units, which cost $25,000 each, were selected for their proximity to critical target areas. Since Breckenridge is located within a two-hour drive from such critical areas as Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Abilene, where air bases and plane manufacturing sites would cause them to be likely targets for air attacks, the Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Commission approved the location of the emergency hospital in Breckenridge.

Bank Deposits Jump

Deposits in the First State Bank of Rising Star soared to an all-time high as 1959 ended, with an increase of more than $350,000 over deposits on Oct. 6, 1959, the date of the last preceding call.

Much of the increase reflected in the bank's report of condition called for by the state Banking Commissioners as of Dec. 31, 1959 was due to the influx of peanut crop money, but even so the returns were far below the incomes of many previous years. Deposits in the bank have shown a steady rise during the drought years despite the drop in farm income.

Deposits at the end of 1959 were nearly $240,000 above the figure for the corresponding period of 1958.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mellinger
Phyllis Williams, Don Mellinger
Are Wed December 26 in Illinois

Miss Phyllis Williams of 1415 17th Street, East Moline, Illinois, and Donald Mellinger were married at 1 p.m. Saturday, December 26, in the First Christian Church of Moline. The Rev. Charles Willey officiated before an altar appointed with red poinsettias.

The bride is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams of Ranger. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Mellinger of East Moline.

The bride was attired in a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over tissue taffeta, fashioned with a molded bodice and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The bodice was styled with a high neckline and a net yoke, and the bouffant skirt was designed with a Chantilly lace overskirt and a tulle panel in front.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a pearl crown, and she carried a bouquet of red roses with lily of the valley streamers.

Miss Peggy Gooch of Carbon Cliff, Illinois, attended the bride as maid of honor. Miss Pat Verlinde of East Moline was bridesmaid. The attendants wore identical ballerina length gowns of red velvet, styled in a princess line. The shirred, molded bodices featured scoop necklines and 3-quarter length sleeves. The skirts were designed with the fullness beginning on the sides and extending to the back. They carried white fur muffs decorated with holy and red berries. Their headbands were of matching white fur.

Gary Mellinger of Moline attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Tom Williams of Carbon Cliff and Jack Hermes of Davenport.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the East Moline American Legion Building. The bride's table was centered with the four tiered wedding cake.

For her wedding trip to Texas, Mrs. Mellinger selected a two-piece gray suit with black accessories.

Mrs. Mellinger is a 1958 graduate of Ranger High School. She is employed by the Credit Union of John Deere Harvester in East Moline.

The groom, a graduate of the United Township High School, attended Northwestern University. He served two years with the U. S. Army and is a senior at Western Illinois University in Macomb.

Moore About-

were awhile ago, Jim Jordan who lives at 702 West Commerce really had one the other day. Seems as if a cat got in his air conditioner and they couldn't get it out. He then called on his friend Mr. Seaborn who suggested they get a plumber to get the cat out. About this time, however, Jordans neighbor, Aubrey McBee came Around. Determined that a little cat wasn't going to get the best of three men, they came on the idea to turn the air conditioner up side down, which they did, and the cat went scampering off. Jordan says if anyone else has this sort of a problem if they would just contact him he would be glad to tell them how to get the cat out and save them a plumbing bill.

We just couldn't end this column without saying a few words in our behalf on this electric blanket situation the husband wrote about in his previous column. He mentioned at the first of his column that the blanket was given to me instead of him, so that should settle the whole affair. Being our blanket it does look like we should get the satisfaction of setting the dial. The husband can probably write you a whole book on our electric blanket when he comes back to work after being under it constantly for the past few days.

Guess we are going to have to admit, we just aren't as glib and witty as the husband so better let him keep his column after this. Sure is nice to know what is going to be said about you before the paper is printed though. Sometimes we threaten to make him call every one of the subscribers and tell them the real story about what we have done or said or at least let them hear my side of it. He says the stories wouldn't be half as interesting though if he didn't put in a few ad libs. Well, guess he's right. After trying to think of something to fill this column today, we will gladly hand it back to him on a silver platter.

NOT SO FANCY but plenty comfortable and serviceable are the Army combat boots being carefully fitted to Private John Walter, an Eskimo Scout of the Alaska National Guard, to replace his genuine muk-luks. Michael Kirkpatrick, Quartermaster employee at Fort Ord, California, does the fitting. Private Walter is one of more than 150 Eskimos who arrived at Fort Ord for basic infantry training. They'll return to the 49th State for duty with National Guard units under the "One Army" concept.

The pickings couldn't be better. All 18 of Chevrolet's sizzling new models for '60 are now rolling off the assembly lines again—in greater numbers than ever before. Your dealer's waiting with all the details, including a long list of pluses that will prove to you the only way to buy a car for less than this low-priced Chevy is to buy a lot less car:
Bossier Body by Fisher—with a 25%

smaller transmission tunnel for more foot room.

Pride-pleasing style—combines good looks with good sense.

New Economy Turbo-Fire V8—gets up to 10% more miles on a gallon.

Widest choice of engines and transmissions—no other car gives you a choice of 24 power teams to satisfy the most finicky driving foot.

Mi-Thrift 6—the '60 version of the engine that won its class in the latest Mobilgas Economy Run.

Coil springs at all 4 wheels—for the kind of silent, satiny ride you'd expect only in the most expensive makes.

Quicker stopping Safety-Master brakes—built with Chevy's ever-faithful dependability, they deliver surer stops with less pedal pressure.

Now—fast delivery, favorable deals! See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer.
