Merchandise Show To Be Attended By Luce Pittmans

Luce Pittman, of Eastland, owner and operator of the Western Auto Associate store here for the past two years, will attend a Western Auto Merchandise Show at Dallas January 10 and 11. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Pittman and daughter, Lana.

"My wife and I really enjoy attending these shows," Mr. Pittman stated. "There are demonstrations and product information clinics designed to help us serve our customers better and formulate our selling plans for the coming year. There are 16 big shows in the United States."

Mr. Pittman explained that the Dallas merchandise show is one of 16 which will be held in January throughout the United States for more than 3,600 home-owned and operated Western Auto Associate Stores. "We're looking forward to seeing brand-new power mowers, appliances, automotive supplies and thousands of other items. These shows are really a mirror of modern day American life all in one exhibition hall," Pittman noted.

Everyone is back in school and working away to try to get ready for the mid-term exam. Everyone seemed to have a very good Christmas but many were wondering just how good a new year it was going to be when they had to start back to school. Everyone is rested, as well as the teachers—and they are piling on the work.

About the only thing happening now days is basketball. I hope that everyone likes it because it is about all that I know to talk about for the next few weeks. Over the holidays the girls were idle but the boys were playing full steam. The Eastland boys defeated the Dublin boys—whom they played again Tuesday night. The locals were defeated 28-27 by Comanche. The Mavericks will be seeking revenge tomorrow night as they play on the local court. January 1 and 2 the Mavs were in the Abilene tournament. Eastland was the only AA team entered. The locals played three AAA schools in the tournament and made a fine showing. Sweetwater defeated the Mavs 68-53 last Friday in a hard fought tight battle Saturday morning Graham defeated Eastland 56-36 and then Brownwood laying it on to the tired Mavs 92-47. Next Tuesday, district begins with Cisco on our home court. I certainly hope that we have some good crowds for these home games.

The Mavericks begin district tonight playing the Winters girls here. Be sure and come out to see this fine group play basketball.

Guess that about wraps it up for this week. See you around.

Revised Social Security Rate Effective Now

A. E. Fogle, Jr., Administrative Officer of the Abilene, Texas office, today called attention to the increase in Social Security tax rates that became effective January 1, 1960, under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

The tax rates increase to 3 percent for employers and 3 percent for employees, or a total of 6 percent. These rates will apply to wages paid or after January 1, 1960, even though the wages were earned prior to that date.

The taxes continue to apply to the first $4,800 of wages paid by an employer to each employee each year.

Internal Revenue Service containing revised Social Security tax tables are now available at all Internal Revenue Service offices.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

A man, a few years ago, produced several paintings—not copies, but originals—that experts proclaimed to be the works of an old master and they sold for tremendous amounts. Afterwards, he confessed that he was the artist and was sent to prison. Now if a man could paint portraits that good, why wasn't he a great artist? What makes a painting great—the painting itself or the name signed to it?

There is a school of book reviewers—and most book reviewers belong to that school—that holds that if the rank-and-file of the people like a book, it can not possibly have much merit. Yet Homer sang his "Iliad" for the people; Burns wrote his poems for the people; Dickens' novels were read by the people and Shakespeare composed his plays to be presented to the people. In each instance, the plaudits of the critics came afterward—a very long time afterward. Who now reads "Raintree County" and "From Here to Eternity"—volumes which were hailed by book page editors as "masterpieces" a few short years ago?

The quiz shows which were so popular featured individuals who gave a lot of information from memory (presumably). What the world needs is not people whose minds are filled with miscellaneous data which is readily available, if and when needed in the World Almanac or a one-volume encyclopedia—but rather people who, given a set of facts, can think.

During the depression of the early '30's a young man held up a service station. He ordered the attendant to open the cash-drawer and hand him a nickel. He was captured soon afterward. When asked why he had taken only five cents when there was perhaps $50 in the drawer, he replied that he had had a quarrel with his girl, was completely broke and wanted a nickel so he could call her on the phone and try to patch up the quarrel.

The "why" was the most interesting thing about the holdup.

Johnson Installed Association Chief

Members of the North Central Texas Firemen's Association from six area towns met in Eastland Tuesday night for their semi-annual meeting and banquet.

Towns represented at the meeting were Cisco, Breckenridge, Ranger, Palo Pinto, Weatherford and Mineral Wells.

A pumper race was held at 7:30 p.m. with Weatherford winning first place with a time of 26 seconds, Mineral Wells took second place with 31.5 seconds and Eastland, who could not compete for the trophy, placed third with 38.1 seconds.

Chief Billy Jack Johnson of Eastland was installed as the Association president for 1960.

The banquet was held immediately following the races at the First Christian Church annex in Eastland.

Veterans Asked To Return Cards Reporting Income

Disabled veterans, and widows and children of deceased veterans who receive monthly non-service-connected pensions from the Veterans Administration were urged today to return promptly the properly filled-in tabulating card sent them for use in reporting their annual income. Failure to return the reporting card within 30 days will result in the stopping of the monthly pension payment, Mr. Edward P. Onstot, Manager of the VA Regional Office in Dallas said. Those without dependents whose income is greater than $1400 a year or those with dependents whose income is greater than $2700 a year may not receive a pension under present law.

At the same time, Mr. Onstot pointed out that the income questionnaire has nothing to do with the new pension law which goes into effect July 1, 1960. All pension recipients will receive further information on the new law in the mail during March. They were urged not to inquire about their status until they have studied this information.

Mr. Onstot pointed out that veterans and dependents receiving service-connected compensation payments will not receive cards and do not have to report incomes.

Regional Band Contest Saturday At McMurry

The McMurry College campus in Abilene will host Saturday, for the twelfth consecutive year, to the Region II All-State Band tryouts. Approximately 400 area high school band students are expected on the campus during the day-long session.

Phillip Hewitt, Eastland band director will enter four Eastland band students in the Regional Contest. Gracie Tankersley will play the tenor saxophone; Mike Potts, snare drum; Bill Moylan, cornet, and Raymond Lusk, baritone. Hewitt will conduct tryouts for all drums. He will also conduct one of the eight numbers of the regional concert which will climax the contest.

Tryouts will begin Saturday morning in a number of audition rooms on the campus. From the anticipated 400 band students, 125 will be selected to represent the Region II Band, with 12 being selected from the 125 to be included in the All-State group.

The All-State Band will consist of some 200 top band students in Texas, and will play in a concert in Austin Feb. 4, 5, and 6. The Regional and State contest are sponsored by the Texas Music Educators Association.

The 125 students chosen, who will be selected by 50 area band director judges, will be treated to an Indian Band concert at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. They will rehearse later for a concert to be presented at 7 p.m. The concert will be open to the public, with no admission charge.

Raymond T. Bynum, director of the McMurry Band, will be host director. Members of his band will carry out various assignments during the tryouts Saturday.

GI Policyholder Annual Policy Dividend Declared

An estimated 261,820 Texas veterans who hold participating GI life insurance will receive $13,084,500 in regular annual policy dividends during 1960, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Dallas, said today.

Onstot said this represents Texas GI policyholders proportionate share in a national 1960 dividend total of $253,500,000 declared recently for participating GI insurance.

He explained that the dividends are primarily a refund to policyholders of part of their premium payments, and are made possible because the death rate among GI policyholders continues to be lower than the tables upon which the premiums were established by law.

Policyholders are requested now to make dividend inquiries in advance since this would delay processing time, Onstot said.

Dividends will be paid as soon as possible after the anniversary date of each policy during 1960. For example, if a policy was issued any September 1, the anniversary date will be September 1, 1960, Onstot pointed out.

He added that dividends will be paid to holders of both term and permanent plan participating NSLI and USGLI policies.

SCOUT SCENES

By JIMMY HORN

Troop Six Scouts attending winter camp at Camp Billy Gibbons were Ray Edwards, Bill Horn and Larry Goldston and their scoutmasters, Jimmy Horn.

The Scouts left Tuesday morning in Victor Edward's car and returned Thursday afternoon.

Tuesday and Wednesday were nice days at camp, but slightly cold. The closing day, Thursday, was cold and rainy, but in spite of breaking camp in the rain and mud, the camp was an enjoyable experience.

We arrived at Camp Billy Gibbons about 1 p.m. Tuesday and immediately began to set up the large Baker tent on the hillside in the cedar breaks. The Scouts, Ray, Larry and Bill, set the front to the southwest and built large reflector fires to reflect the heat into the tent. We slept very comfortably for the duration of the camp.

The Scouts cooked their meals over coals or on camp stoves. Some real fine camp cooking was noticed. Boys in the Order of the Arrow helped to lay the slab floor to the OA building on the bluff overlooking the Council ring down in Plum Hollow. The floor was completed before camp dismissed.

Boys not in O.A. either fished in Brady Creek or explored in numerous caves surrounding this wilderness camp, which is 16 miles deep into the old Gibbon ranch one mile south of Richland Springs.

Flames caught her nightgown while she was using a large piece of newspaper to light the heater. Mrs. Stagner was born August 17, 1887 at Gainesville. She had lived in Ranger from 1918 until moving to Breckenridge. She married James M. Stagner in 1906 at Stephenville. He died June 24, 1956.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Second Baptist Church in Ranger, with Thelma Hostetter, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, and the Rev. Ed Scarbrough, pastor of the Second Baptist, officiating.

Interment was in Colony Cemetery with Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Stagner was a member of the Ranger Assembly of God Church.

Survivors include four sons, Carlton D., M. S., and Denver P., all of Ranger; three daughters, Mrs. Kenneth F. Streater of Odessa, Mrs. L. D. Smith of Midland and Mrs. Huckaby of Breckenridge; four sisters, Mrs. N. A. Brown of Mineral Wells, Mrs. Nellie B. Gooden of Victoria, Mrs. Alma Gooden of Fresno, Calif., and Mrs. C. M. Rodgers of Corpus Christi; two brothers, Grover Lee Baker of Ranger and R. E. Baker of Corpus Christi; 14 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

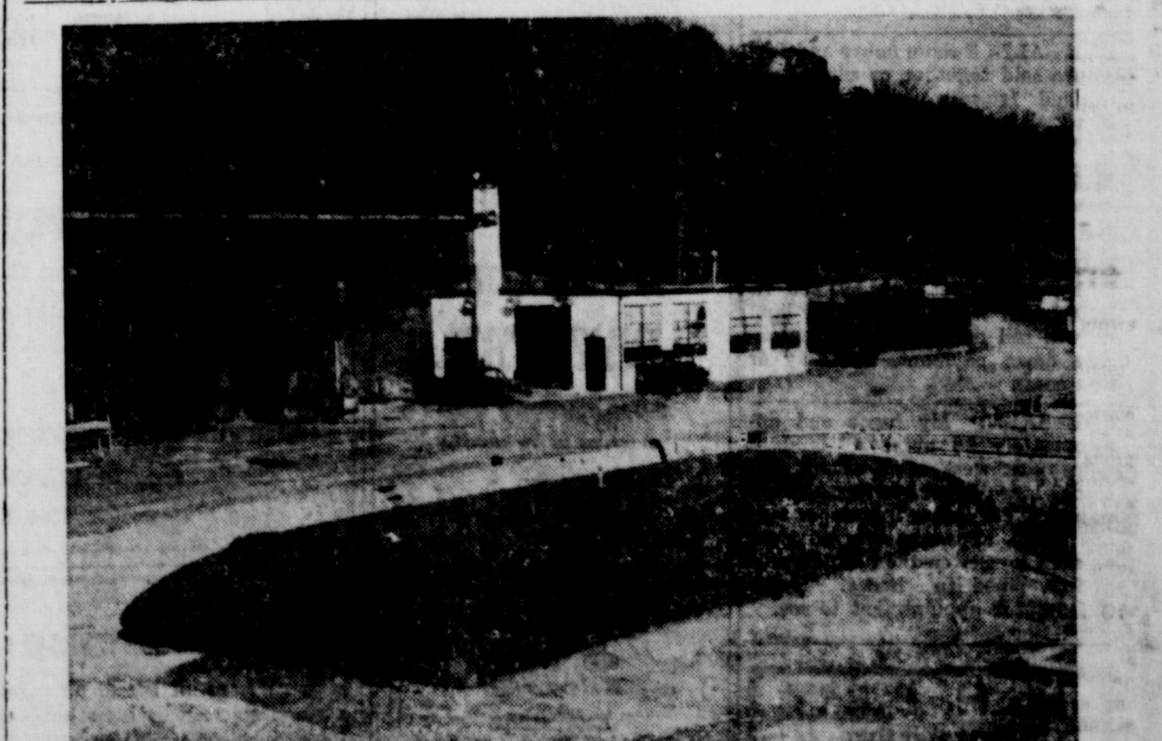

Final Rites For Mrs. Stagner Held Wednesday

Mrs. Winnie Elizabeth Stagner, 72, former Ranger resident, died at 5:30 a.m. Tuesday at Stephens Memorial Hospital in Breckenridge of burns she received Sunday morning.

Mrs. Stagner was burned when she attempted to light a heater at the home of a daughter, Mrs. R. C. Huckaby, in Breckenridge. She had moved to Breckenridge only five weeks ago.

COLLAPSIBLE GIANT—This huge, 50,000-gallon collapsible fuel tank for storage of military fuels has been developed by the U. S. Army Engineer Research and Development Laboratories at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. The tank, believed to be the largest of its kind, is fabricated of two-ply nylon cloth coated with synthetic rubber. The empty tank weighs approximately 2700 pounds and can be rolled and packed for transport in a canvas carrying case. Dwarving the soldier standing alongside, the tank measures 64 feet long by 24 feet wide and stands six feet high when filled to capacity. It was built for the Army by Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

MRS. THOMAS L. ELLISTON
(Nee: Ellen Jane Whatley)

Ellen Whatley and T. L. Elliston Wed

Miss Ellen Jane Whatley and Thomas Leon Elliston were married at 7:36 Saturday evening, January 2, in the First Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whatley of Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. Leon E. Elliston of Dallas are the parents of the couple.

Rev. James H. Campbell, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Decorations in the church included baskets of white gladioli flanked by two pair of white candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

Traditional organ selections were presented by Mrs. Donald L. Kinnaird. She also accompanied the soloist, Wendell Siebert, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Tapers were lighted by Richard Hawkesworth of Houston and Joe Ed Pesch of Breckenridge, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. John Whatley of Fort Worth was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Shirley Allen of Dallas, Mary Anne Duncan of Houston, Caroline Elliston of Dallas, sister of the bridegroom. Their matching dresses of cotillion peau de soie were styled with fitted bodices featuring bateau necklines and large puffed sleeves. Their hats were of tulle and feathers. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of red roses.

Carl Freese of Dallas was best man. Serving as ushers a n d groomsmen were Lindell Howell and Vernon Elliott, both of Dallas, and John Whatley, of Fort Worth, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pearl white hand-clipped chantilly lace over bridal satin. The figurine basque bodice was designed with a scalloped Sabrina neckline embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent paillettes.

The sleeves were long and tapered, and the very bouffant skirt was formed of alternate ruffles of crystal-pleated tulle and scalloped lace. The skirt fell into a chapel train. Her triple veil of French illusion fell from a queen's crown of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a crescent of white gardenias.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony. Baskets of white gladioli decorated the hall. Resting on the registration table was the bouquet of the matron of honor, Mrs. Thomas Keith Humber of Dallas registered the guests.

The bride's table was centered by a white cupid gracefully holding the bridal bouquet. The tiered wedding cake accented with pink rosebuds was featured at one end and the punch bowl at the other.

Other members of the house party included: Mmes. A. A. Pesch of Breckenridge; D. J. Fiency, Art Johnson, Ed F. Willman, H. L. Hassell, D. E. Frazer, Russell Hill, O. M. White, J. L. Roper, Milton Day, Guy Robinson, James Horton, and Miss Verna Johnson, all of Eastland. Misses Judy Hassell and Alice Frazer furnished the music during the reception.

The couple will live in the Cole Manor Apartments in Dallas where the bridegroom is attending Southern Methodist University. He is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School in Dallas and will receive his degree in mechanical engineering in March. He is a member of Pi Tau Sigma. The bride graduated from Eastland High School and attended North Texas State College in Denton.

Thursday Club Honors Husbands On Christmas

The Thursday Afternoon Club held its traditional Christmas dinner for the husbands, on Dec. 17 in the Woman's Club.

The first course was beautifully decorated with many Bella Robbia wreaths. The tables, arranged to carry out the theme of the wreaths, were decorated with aniles and orange.

After the dinner, Mrs. L. C. Inzer welcomed the husbands. Mrs. Harold Durham read the Christmas story from Luke and Mrs. Lovett, chairman of the hostess committee, introduced the committee which was composed of Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mrs. Joseph Perkins, Mrs. Frank Sayre, Mrs. Esco Walter and Mrs. W. P. Leelle.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins gave a Christmas greeting and then introduced the guest speaker, Miss Eudora Hawkins of Abilene.

Miss Hawkins spoke of the women of the Bible in connection with the birth of Christ. Esthe was one of the women she chose. The courage of this one woman saved him from destruction a people from whom Christ would come. She stated that God has a plan in each of our lives. She talked about in Rahab, God took a harlot and showed us the meaning of faith. She emphasized that Ruth, the great grandmother of David, epitomizes fidelity and that we know nothing unpleasant about her. She reminded that these three women were forerunners of Christ and they were in God's plan.

R. B. Hall then sang "Gesu Bambino" and "Sweet Lil Jesus Boy" accompanied by Mrs. Donald Kinnaird.

The following members and their husbands were present at the dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson, Esco Walter, Frank Sayre, Harold Durham, Grady Pipkin, Joseph M. Perkins, I. C. Heck, C. W. Hoffmann, Cecil Collins, L. C. Inzer, Donald Kinnaird, Robert Perkins, Turner Collier, Hubert Jones, Harold Burton, Ben Hamner, Arthur Murrell, Frank Sparks, Larry Kinnaird, Jim Horton, E. R. Townsend, Mrs. Frank Lovett, Mrs. Milburn Long, Mrs. Cyrus Frost and Mrs. Roy Young.

CONSTIPATED?

Medical reports show how folks over 35 can establish regularity. After 35, irregularity often becomes a problem. What you need is something that aids nature and helps establish regularity. Such an aid to regularity is the daily use of SERUTAN. Here's medical evidence: A group of men and women took SERUTAN daily under medical supervision. In case after case SERUTAN, taken daily, helped establish regularity. So, for real relief from constipation after 35, try SERUTAN, powder or granular.

Answer to Television-Dining Problem

By EDNA MILES

The custom of dining in front of the television has been termed a barbaric one. Food must be balanced on a lap tray. Frequently the whole family feeling is disrupted for the evening.

Those who feel they must watch TV while they eat, will be cheered to know they now can do it more gracefully.

One large maker of TV sets has designed a video unit which is placed in a drop-leaf buffet top so that the antennae can be pulled up unobstructed. The set can be removed from the buffet table making it completely portable.

In addition, the company has designed six different custom-made styles to choose from.

As well as the drop-leaf cart, there is a Danish walnut table, a triangular table that fits into a corner, a miniature sideboard and a mobile cart or swivel stand to house your television set.

The furniture can be bought with the set from a television dealer.

Convenient for dining is this television set placed in table.

Dieting and Will Power

Why is it so hard to stay on a diet? If you've ever tried to lose some extra pounds, you know how hard it is to stick to calorie counting long enough to reach your objective. Before you conclude that you are hopelessly lacking in "will power," you might consider some new light shed by medical science on why dieting is so difficult.

While extra poundage is only a minor health problem for most of us, it may be a life-threatening matter for some heart and diabetic patients. But even many of these find it virtually impossible to stick to a diet.

Now some researchers are suggesting that something even more powerful than hunger may be involved in side-tracking our resolve to stop before dessert. In fact, the unpleasant empty feeling that drives us to night-time raids on the refrigerator is probably not hunger but something equally primitive—anxiety.

Even moderate reductions in food intake, these investigators say, may set off uncomfortable tension and anxiety. It is these feelings—rather than a desire for food itself—that drive us back to reassuring second helpings.

If cutting down food intake makes almost anyone feel a little tense and anxious, for the really obese person the anxiety precipitated by a weight-reducing diet can be virtually unbearable. This is because many obese persons have for years used quantities of food—the oldest "tranquilizer"—to quiet anxiety and tension.

This is why the best prescription for losing weight is the one almost none of us can take—eat less! Although some 31 per cent of all Americans are on a diet at any given time, few achieve permanent weight reduction.

There are no magic pills that "melt" off weight while the user continues to eat as much as he wants. Various drugs have been offered in recent years as helpful in reducing appetite. Some of these have been effective for a short time, but apparently their effects are washed out after a few weeks by a rising tide of diet-induced tension.

Recently a new weight-control drug designed to check the tension and anxiety that pushes most of us off a diet has been developed. The new drug, called Appetrol, contains Miltown, the well-known tranquilizer, together with a proven appetite depressant. The tranquilizer has been added to relieve the tensions that build up when the dieter deprives himself of food—tensions that would otherwise drive him back to food. Thus Appetrol, which is available only on a doctor's prescription, considers the dieter's will power as well as weight.

Husband Went Table Hopping

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I went to a dinner and dance given by my husband's firm. There were about one hundred guests at this dinner, all of whom were strangers to me. Of course my husband did introduce me to the people sitting at our table who were very nice. During the course of the evening my husband went around to different tables greeting his business friends and left me at the table with people I hardly knew. I thought it showed lack of courtesy toward me. What is your opinion?

Answer: Having introduced you to the people at your table, he was not discourteous in leaving you alone with them for brief, even though frequent, trips to greet his business friends. Had he left you sitting entirely alone that would be another story.

Listing of Women's Names

Dear Mrs. Post: It is the new policy of our local newspaper to require all articles concerning meetings of women's clubs to list the women by their marriage names and not their given names. When asked about this, I was told that this is the proper procedure. It is my opinion that women in civic clubs are individuals, not their husbands' wives and therefore should be listed by their given names. I am referring to a club composed of women in executive positions.

Answer: Women members of any social club should be listed as Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Henry, etc. and not Mrs. Mary Smith or Mrs. Jane Jones. Business or professional clubs would list their members by whatever names they are known in business or their profession.

Women Sitting At A Bar

Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be improper in the present day, for two women to sit at a bar in a very nice cocktail lounge?

Answer: While it is not uncommon today we see women sitting at a bar, I personally do not approve of this.

Bride Resents Mother-In-Law's Action

Dear Mrs. Post: Last week my newly married son and his bride invited me and a few very close friends of mine to their house for an evening. My daughter-in-law had a dish of candy and another dish of assorted salted nuts on the coffee table for the guests to help themselves. However, none of them seemed to be doing this, so after awhile I got up and passed the dishes around to them. I understand my daughter-in-law has criticized me for doing this and resents my action very much. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

Answer: There was nothing wrong in what you did. But it is easy to see how a young bride, trying to be perfect in her new role of hostess, might resent any action that seems to imply that she needs prompting—especially by her mother-in-law.

With No Formal Introduction

Dear Mrs. Post: There is a young woman working in the same office building that I do whom I see quite often riding up and down on the elevator. I am very much attracted to her and would like to get to know her. Would it be proper for me to speak to her some morning or evening when we meet?

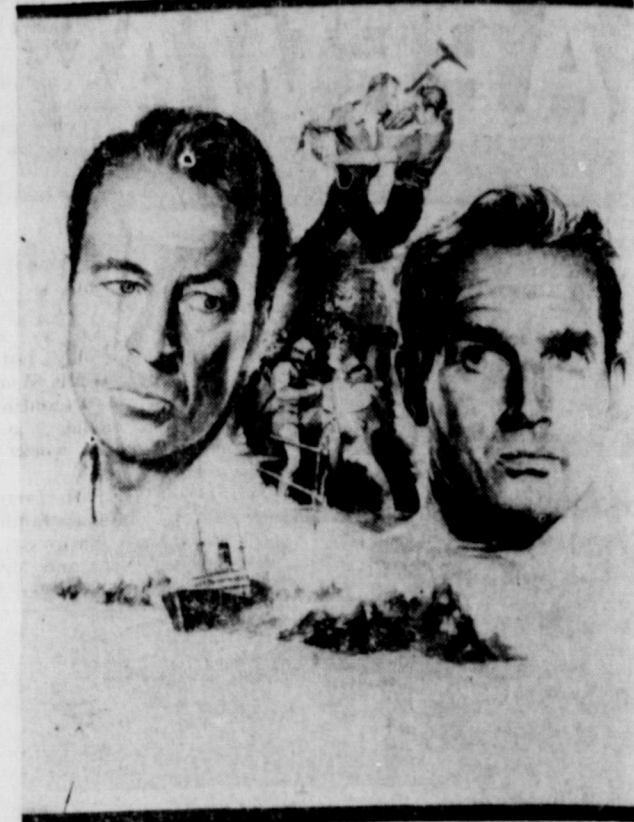

Answer: Strictly speaking, no but you might say a simple "Good morning," and then if she answers and this becomes a daily habit, a few words about the weather, but only with some encouragement from her, might be the beginning of a friendship.

Were Two Tips Necessary?

Dear Mrs. Post: The other day I went to the beauty shop to which I always go, for a permanent wave. My regular operator was busy when I arrived, and so she asked one of the other girls to shampoo my hair while she finished her other customer. I would like to know if I should have given her a separate tip?

Answer: Yes.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-1, entitled, "Announcing the Engagement," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E. P., care of (name of newspaper), P. O. Box 92, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

AT MAJESTIC—"The Wreck of the Mary Deare," adopted from the best-selling novel and Saturday Evening Post story, is set in a mood of foreboding mystery as the freighter, Mary Deare, flounders helplessly on a stormy night in the English Channel. The suspense revolves around several incidents; why the captain, played by Gary Cooper, deliberately wrecks the Mary Deare on rocks surrounding the Channel graveyard of ships; why the crew chose mutiny; what mysterious cargo the doomed ship carried; the sensational trial at the Court of Inquiry where the facts were known by only one man who has no way of proving them. "The Wreck of the Mary Deare" starts Thursday at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland.
