

Mavs Beat Coleman In District Play

The Mavericks pulled one out of the fire Friday night, scoring four points in the last 15 seconds of play to down Coleman, 38-36, in a District 7-AA game played in Coleman.

The Mavs, playing tight defense, trailed most of the way, but got ahead when it counted. With 15 seconds left on the clock Mickey Garner hit a long shot to tie the score at 36-36. Coleman quickly put the ball in play and with the clock running out attempted a floor shot. Otis Green went high for the Mavs to come down with the rebound. He quickly threw it down court to John Wilson. Wilson made a driving lay-up shot as the final buzzer sounded.

The win put the Mavericks even in district play at one win and one loss. The loss was a 44-39 setback at the hands of Cisco earlier in the week.

John Wilson paced the Mavs again with 14 points. Otis Green and Phil Lewis each had seven points, James Lewis had six and Mickey Garner and Don Wilson had two. Dale Greaves was high for the losers with 12 points.

The Mav B team took a 60-35 beating despite the 20 point effort of Clark Conner. Billy Hays led the winners with 19 points.

The Mavs led in the A game 11-9 at the end of the first quarter. Coleman led 26-20 at halftime and 30-28 at the end of three quarters of play.

Eastland plays Ranger next Tuesday night in another district contest. The Eastland girls will play Baird at 5:30 Tuesday, and the Mav B team plays at 6:30 and the A team game will be at 7:30.

The new capital structure, which came about through the declaration of a 10 per cent stock dividend, will enable the bank to increase its loan limit to $20,000, McCracken said. Temporary approval for the action has been given by the U. S. Comptroller's District.

Veterans Benefit Checks Can Now Be Bank Deposited

Benefit checks from the Veterans Administration may be sent directly to the beneficiary's bank for deposit to his account provided the bank has been given the required power of attorney, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the VA Regional Office in Dallas, said today.

A special U. S. Treasury form is available for the purpose of assigning the power of attorney to the beneficiary's bank. This arrangement is convenient for veterans who travel and those who have frequent changes of address which make it difficult for them to receive their checks with regularity, Onstot pointed out.

A complete explanation of the arrangement and the necessary forms may be obtained by contacting VA office.

Contrary to former legal requirements that a check could not be forwarded to a beneficiary who has moved, checks in payment of monetary benefits may now be forwarded, provided the addressee has left a forwarding address with the post office, Onstot said.

Football Banquet to Be Held Here Monday

Dr. Rhea Williams Is Guest Speaker

Eastland High School and Junior High School football players and members of the coaching staff will be honored Monday at 7 p.m. when the Quarterback Club holds its annual football banquet.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be Dr. Rhea H. Williams, state athletic director of the University Interscholastic League. Wendell Siebert will serve as master of ceremonies.

The banquet will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Quarterback Club, and will be available at the door.

Dr. Williams is a graduate of Clarksville High School. He lettered in football, basketball and baseball in high school, then attended SMU when he earned letters in basketball and baseball for three years each. He was captain of both the basketball and baseball teams in 1932 and won all-Southwest Conference honors in both sports.

Following his graduation, he served as principal and coach at Avery High School and Franklin High School, then went to Pan American College in Edinburg as director of health and physical education. He took the same post later at Southwestern University in Georgetown.

From there he entered the Navy as a lieutenant and served four years. He was released to inactive duty as lieutenant commander.

Upon being discharged, he returned to the University of Texas where he received his doctor's degree in 1947. While at Austin he served as assistant to the director of the League for 14 months. Next he went to North Texas State College as professor of health and physical education, and then in 1948 he became director of the League.

Mike Potts Is Competing for State Honors

Ninety-two high school band members from four regions in the state will meet at Tarleton State College today (Saturday) to compete in try-outs for the All-State Band which will meet in early February in Austin.

Mike Potts will represent Eastland.

Dr. Don W. Morton, chairman for the area and head of TCU's Fine Arts Division, said that approximately 32 judges will determine the best musicians on the piccolo, oboe, alto, bass clarinet, contrabass and E flat clarinets, the bassoon, saxophones, trumpet, trombone, baritone, string bass, tympani, bass and snare drums.

The band students are from region 2, 3, 10 and 14.

Among the schools represented at the Saturday try-outs will be Ozona, Abilene, Snyder, Cisco, Colorado City, Robert Lee, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Albany, Eastland, Hillsboro, Waco, Waxahachie, Marlin, Mexia, Rockdale, Belton, Temple, Corsicana, Killeen, Richardson, Denton, Dallas, Fort Worth, Irving, Garland and Mesquite.

Other schools are from Grand Prairie, Terrell, Rockwall, Arlington, Burkburnett, Henrietta, Wichita Falls, Holiday, Seymour, Bowie, Jacksboro, Iowa Park, Nocona, Graham and Paducah.

It will be the second year that Tarleton State has held the area try-outs on its campus.

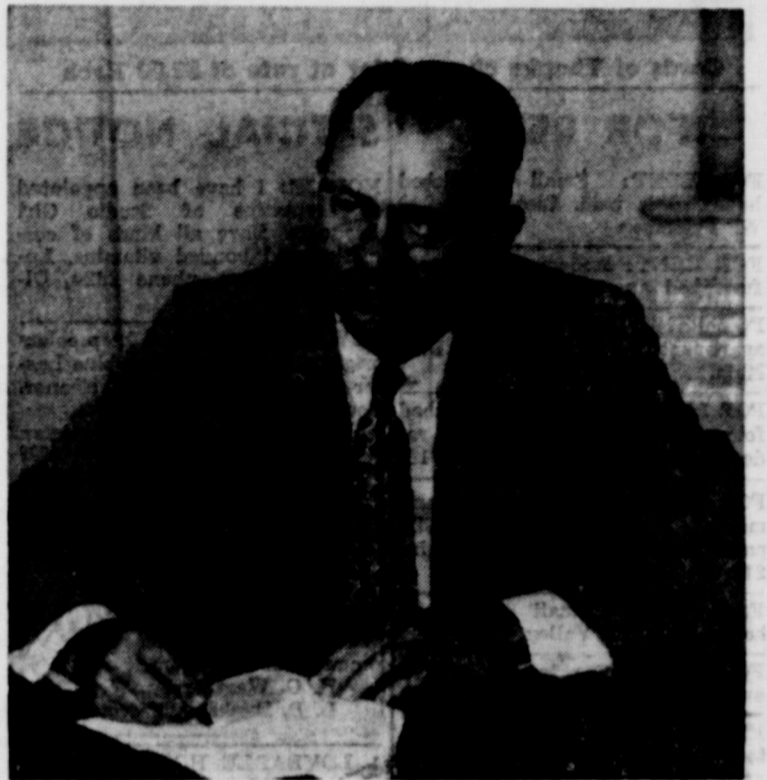

Farm Bureau Urges Payment Of Poll Taxes

"Pay your poll tax before January 31 if you want to have a choice in selecting those who govern you," Glenn Justice, president of Eastland County Farm Bureau, urged all farmers and ranchers in the county today. He stated that Farm Bureau is planning to carry on an intensive citizenship program this year, on all levels.

"It is especially important that each individual participate in the election of public officials this year since this is a presidential election year," the FB Leader said. "Also, there are important local, state, and congressional offices to be filled."

Farm Bureau itself is non-partisan and takes a stand only on issues, Justice stated. Policies for the county, state and National Farm Bureau were decided last fall and winter in conventions held on all those levels. "It is on the precinct level that the citizen has the best opportunity to have a real voice in selection of candidates and in formulating the policies of his party," the FB president stated, and added, "that preserving the present form of representative government in a society where individual freedom is guaranteed is the objective of the Farm Bureau's citizenship program."

Tax Facts for Homeowners Purchase or Improvement

(This is one in a series of articles on federal income tax filing. These articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

In today's economy, with constantly rising prices and land values, it is quite common for the family man to look upon his home as an investment. Not that he entertains the ideal of selling it necessarily, but at least he knows that it will probably climb in value, and that he could then sell it if he wanted to. However, as an investment, the ownership of a home differs in many respects from the ownership of stocks or bonds, and these differences have important tax implications that you should be aware of.

Changing Your Residence

If you sell your house (which is your principal residence) at a profit and move to a new house, you may not have to pay tax on the profit. Let's say you bought a house five years ago for $15,000, which you sold last year for $20,000. Since you held the house for more than six months, the profit of $5,000 is taxable as a long-term capital gain at a maximum rate of 25 per cent. However, if you move into a new house either one year before or one year after the sale, and if the new house costs $20,000 or more, then you pay no tax on the $5,000 profit. If you are having the new house built for yourself and construction begins either one year before or one year after the sale of the old house, then the period of replacement is extended to 18 months from date of sale, providing you occupy it within that period.

The important point here is that the new house must cost as much or more than the amount you receive for the old house. If it cost only $19,000 you must pay the long-term capital gains tax on the balance of $1,000.

You could actually sell your house at a profit and by a new one every few years without paying a tax on the profit, but you aren't really avoiding the tax, you are merely postponing it. The cumulative gain will be taxed when the last house is finally sold without being replaced.

Expenses of Owning a House

A home owner is usually in a more advantageous tax position than a person who rents. This is because home owners who elect to itemize their deductions rather than use the standard 10 per cent deduction are allowed to deduct interest and property taxes paid during the year. They can also deduct the loss on damage to their house and grounds resulting from a fire, storm, earthquake, or other casualty (this was discussed in the first article of the series). Taxpayers who rent their home from others undoubtedly are paying for these costs by rent, but they cannot claim any tax deduction.

Home Improvements and Repairs

Repairs to your home are considered personal expenses. They are not deductible, and for tax purposes, do not increase the cost of your house. Although repairs and maintenance costs are not deductible, they can be used to reduce the amount which must be reported on your return.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

Knoxville is of course the location of the University of Tennessee and it has many beautiful homes, with spacious grounds and stately trees. This testimony is placed in the record last week's description of the picturesquely down-at-the heels public market might give a disproportionate idea of Knoxville to the reader. After all, I might have occasion to revisit the city.

Knoxville is also the home of the 12-cent hamburger. Furthermore, it is made entirely of beef—something that can not be said, truthfully, of all the hamburgers served in Texas, the home of the steer, where the meat is often mixed with stale bread crumbs, soy beans, cotton-seed hulls and similar ingredients. But I digress.

In a Knoxville hamburger emporium, the cashier-waitress-chef has time to keep up a running-fire of comment. The "regulars" she greets with, "Good morning, cousin" and knows what each one wants without being told. A customer who said he wanted a glass of orange juice was asked, "Do you want the (Continued on page two)

by Archer H. Marx, Jr., Manager

HOW WE MANAGE THE TELEPHONE BUSINESS
With the beginning of a new year, many folks take stock of their old resolutions and make any changes that are needed.

Here at the telephone company there's one resolution that never changes, no matter how many times we review it. It is to manage the business in the best interest of the public, employees and shareholders.

The telephone company exists for one purpose: to furnish you the best possible telephone service at reasonable cost—a cost consistent with financial safety and fair treatment of employees.

Service Has Been Improved
Good service, of course, is our first objective. But since the only good service is one that continually improves, a planned program of service improvements is called for. Some examples:

The work on the new dial system here in Eastland is of course the largest improvement service-wise. The new building, as you know, is already completed and finishing touches inside are now being made in preparation for the change over February 7.

We have done considerable work also in replacing un-insulated wire in rural areas with insulated cables. In other areas we have replaced our old paper insulated cables with the new improved plastic insulated cable.

You business folks are becoming more aware of the benefits of more modern telephone systems designed specifically for your individual needs. The push button type systems, along with larger systems, have helped many of you, I am sure. For any of you business people desiring to know more about the new telephone systems that could help you receive better telephone service, please feel free to call the business office where we will be glad to discuss it with you. Our installers aren't bashful. I am sure they will be glad to help you too. An increase in the number of "second telephones" have greatly improved service for many residence as well as business customers.

A Big Job
Improvement of telephone service is a big job, but probably the biggest of all is expanding the telephone network. Just look at the growth here in Eastland: 1992 phone today, compared with 1603 in 1950, and one out of 6.3 residential customers has at least one extension phone.

Good service also takes willing owners, folks who've invested savings in the business and depend on management to run it in a sound, profitable manner. If their money can't earn a reasonable profit in the telephone business, who can expect them to continue investing in it with us?

With good earnings, we can plan ahead with confidence, build for the future, striving always to give you the best telephone service we know how.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Christian Science

The divine source of all existence will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Life" is the Golden Text from Psalms (42:8): "The Lord will command his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto God of my life."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent, Life is everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (28:32).

Scriptural passages will include the following from Psalms: "The glory of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works . . . I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being" (104:31,33).

big or large"? When another customer exclaimed, "You women!" she replied, "Yes, but you like us, don't you?"

From the highway as one leaves Knoxville westward bound, almost everywhere one looks would be a picture for an artist country estates with grounds, acres in extent, of well-wooded grass; then, for contrast, a tract covered with a tangle of native growth; a small house with a large tree forming a complete background; a mansion with Shetlands in a pasture, edged by a brook which is arched by trees; a hillside of stubble with six white turkeys in a group; a ridge tree-lined, with a little notch in which a wisp of vapor rests, like a puff of cotton stuffed into place; a view of a valley half veiled in mist for it is a dark day and we are like the armies at Lookout Mountain above the clouds. Even old sheds and barns and neglected cabins have pictorial qualities.

If an artist painted these scenes faithfully, critics would say he had exaggerated and overcolored.

Your Insurance and Your Future—
... are all bound up together. The family who keeps adequately insured is not only wise but thrifty since insurance provides protection for the thrifty dollar. If loss occurs in the household of the uninsured his life's savings may be wiped out. But not so with the insured person. To be thrifty and wise, be insured. And the less we have the more it is a part of wisdom to guard against financial destruction.
