Eight Ranger College Players Get Scholarships

Eight of the sixteen sophomore lettermen on the 1959 Ranger College football squad have received scholarships to senior colleges.

Ex-Rangers coach David Slaughter drew the largest group of Rangers, getting two backs and one lineman. James Stanford, Bill Phillips and Jackie Waggoner chose to go to Sul Ross. Phillips and Stanford each won dual honors at Ranger the past season. Both were picked on the All Texas Junior College team and the All Conference team of the Texas Junior College Duniap Attends Conference. Stanford also made both honors in 1958 as a freshman.

Morality isn't enough?

During the first century after Christ, there was a Roman captain in the occupation army in Palestine. He was "a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always." (Acts 10:2)

Yet, strange as it seems this "good" moral man, Cornelius, needed something more. Morality isn't enough to save a man. God told Cornelius to send for Peter, "who shall tell thee words whereby thou . . . shalt be saved." (Acts 11:14) Cornelius needed Christ to save him. Jesus said: "I am the words the state and the said: "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6)

Peter came to Cornelius' house and found his kinsman and near friends ready tound his kinsman and near friends ready "to hear all things that are commanded thee of God." Peter preached Christ as the Son of God, the Saviour of the world. He told how Jesus had lived a perfect life, and died for man's sin on the cross. He called on all to believe in the Lord Jesus. They believed and Peter asked: "Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized... and he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord." (Acts 10:47-8) Faith in Christ leads one to obey Christ, to "repent and be baptized" for the forgiveness of sins. (Acts 2:38) Jesus said: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved..." (Mark 16:16)

Millions today, like Cornelius, are generous, and morally "good," but they need Christ. Even at his best, man is still a sinner. If you have not obeyed the gospel of Christ as Cornelius did, You need the blood of Christ to save you from your sins (I John 1:7). You need to believe in Christ as God's Son, repent of your sins, and be baptized into Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. When you obey Christ in baptism God will add you to the undenominational church of Christ. We urge you to become a Christian today!

Are you willing to follow this wonderful example of Cornelius? Here are five facts you need to face:

Man is lost without Christ and cannol save himself. Remens 3:10, Jeremich 10:23
 Christ alone can save man. John 14:6
 Christ died as the man. John 14:6

2. Christ eleme can save men, som all selvation aveilable to all. Matthew 11:20, 30, 1st John 13 able to all. Matthew 11:20, 30, 1st John 13 able to all. Man must believe in Christ as God's 5an and obey the commands of Christ. Mark 16:15-16, able to all the same the author of sternal selvation unto all them that aboy Him.
