

Texas Bank Closes; Man Kills Himself

LEWISVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The First National Bank of Lewisville closed today and the bank president said $253,000 is missing. The cashier, E. R. Walters, shot himself to death Tuesday. The president, C. Y. Milliken, said, "the books show that $253,000 is missing."

A federal bank examiner, R. H. Bradley, declaring he was in charge of the bank this morning, declared, "the bank is closed. It closed as of the close of business last night and is in the hands of a receiver."

Milliken, his voice trembling after the closing of the bank in this little community of 1,500 about 25 miles northwest of Dallas, said he could not imagine what could have

Texan Arrested In Extortion Try In Bomb Slaying

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Investigation into the bomb trap death of Helen Harris Weaver, wealthy ranchwoman, was on a multi-city front today after the arrest in Oklahoma of a 32-year-old Texan.

Mrs. Weaver, 52, attractive, dark-haired heiress of a huge banking and ranching fortune, was fatally injured 9 days ago when a nitroglycerine bomb was exploded as she set out to visit her ailing mother at a San Angelo hospital.

Reunion With Kidnaped Baby

Ten-month-old Randy Gene Caskey, kidnaped from his Amarillo, Tex., home by a baby sitter, was the target for loving eyes at a family reunion in Denver, Colo. Assistance Sought In Obtaining Truce

MOSCOW (AP)—Britain asked the Soviet Union today to try to restrain the government of Communist China and bring about a cease fire over Formosa lest that dispute break into general war.

Sir William Hayter, the British ambassador, talked at the Kremlin for 30 minutes with V. M. Molotov, the Soviet foreign minister. The British Embassy said Hayter acted with the advance knowledge of the U. S. State Department.

The British ambassador sought to enlist Soviet support for a New Zealand move, backed by Britain, in the United Nations Security Council. This proposal aims to bring about a cease fire, and is understood to include a proposal to invite the Chinese Communists to attend a Security Council meeting to discuss a Formosan peace.

Resolution Asks Cancellation Of Dixon-Yates Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats today forced through the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee a resolution calling on the Atomic Energy Commission to cancel the Dixon-Yates power contract.

The resolution also rescinds a waiver voted by the commission when it was under Republican control last year designed to speed up action on the contract. The waiver gave the committee's right to hold the contract for 30 days of committee consideration with Congress in session.

February Draft Quota Is Lower

The draft call in Big Spring for February will be less than half the number called in previous months, according to Louise Nuckolls of local Selective Service Board No. 71.

Four Big Spring youths will be inducted Feb. 10, she said, and in past months an average of about 10 were called each month. Apparently this reduction is a result of the Army's scheduled cut in draft quotas throughout the nation.

American Aircraft Ready To Strike If War Comes

TOKYO (AP)—American aircraft in the Far East have been deployed to strike the Communists from Alaska to the Philippines at a moment's notice if the Reds start a real war over the Formosan crisis, a responsible American said in Tokyo today.

"We are as alert as we can be—we are ready to go to war this minute," he said.

And that war would inevitably be atomic unless a political decision in Washington withheld the A-bombs.

The source declined use of his name. He has access to official thinking. He rounded out a mobilization picture that has been forming in the Far East for the past week.

Cutie Quizzed In Death Case

NEW YORK (AP)—Police turned to glamor girls today to help them solve the mystery strangle killing of millionaire draft dodger Serge Rubinstein—man of "many enemies."

Virtually without clues, they looked the beauties he acquired to exclusive nightspots could throw light on who might have hated enough to kill.

They particularly wanted to learn the identity of two men who reportedly trailed the 46-year-old financier and his brunette model companion from one of the nightspots only hours before he was slain in his fortress-like Fifth Ave. mansion early Thursday.

SERGE RUBINSTEIN

Oklahoma police said Cordell was traced to Oklahoma City Tuesday. Cordell had been staying with Wilson, Okla., relatives, about 17 miles from Ardmore. He said that except to attend a bowling tournament once, he had never been in San Angelo.

He said he spent Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the Oklahoma City bus station.

"That's where I met this boy," he related. "I felt sorry for him because he was hanging around here so late at night and started talking to me. I don't know anything about this extortion business."

Senate Delay Sought On Fight Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lehman (D-Ill.-N.Y.) told the Senate today that "rash or reckless action" under the terms of the House-approved fight-for-Formosa resolution could plunge this country into war with Red China without allies.

Lehman called for a delay in action as he opened the Senate's third day of debate on the proposal. Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore), an opponent of the resolution, predicted, however, that a final vote would not be delayed.

T&P Rushes Extra Equipment For Cub Scout Train Jaunt

The Texas & Pacific Railway Company was rushing up equipment re-enforcements Friday to handle an avalanche of young boy passengers.

Around 750 Cubs from Midland, Big Spring, Colorado City and Snyder are due to join in a train trip to Sweetwater Saturday. This is the climaxing event to their observance of railroading in their January program.

Sicilian Boy Sure Healing Is To Come

BALTIMORE (AP)—Doctors at Johns Hopkins Hospital are cautious about his chances, but 7-year-old Vincenzo Gammelli of Sicily has faith that he will be healed.

Vincenzo was born with part of his bladder growing outside his stomach wall. Skilled surgeons have performed one operation. Two more are needed.

Secretary Says Navy Not Set For Major Warfare

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas told Congress today the Navy can "adequately cope with any local naval actions" in the narrow Formosan Straits, but is not ready for "a major conflict."

The secretary did not elaborate on Formosa, in a statement prepared for the House Armed Services Committee. But presumably he meant that fleet units could handle foreseeable Communist submarine and air attacks that might be thrown at them in the area.

American Source Thinks U. S. Will Protect Quemoy, Matsu

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—A U. S. source said today he thought American support would be extended to the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu, and conceded that agreement in principle had been reached on evacuation of the Red-threatened Tachens islands.

He said in event of a clash with the Communists he was in favor of giving the commander opposing them full power "without any privileged sanctuaries."

The Tachens are 200 miles north of Formosa and about 20 miles off the Red mainland. They are under direct threat of Red artillery on newly captured Yikingshan island and have been under heavy air bombardment.

Alarmed Women Aid In Capture Of Rapist

DALLAS (AP)—Two women, alarmed because a strange man cruised their neighborhood, had police waiting when the rapist left his victim's home. The 26-year-old man was seriously wounded in a gun battle that erupted yesterday, as police intercepted him. Billy Joe Houston, husky paper mill worker, was hit four times as Patrolman W. H. Hilliard, 30, emptied his revolver in a fast exchange of fire with the scared man. Hilliard was standing by Houston's car when the man, who admitted robbing and raping the wife of an oil company executive, walked across the victim's yard. The patrolman, a slim bespectacled officer, was sent to the quiet North

Wool Program Talks Are Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department will confer with wool industry representatives on proposals for a government-sponsored campaign to promote products of the sheep industry. The Feb. 17 meeting, closed to the public, is to take up suggestions that the department set up a program under which the government would take deductions from wool payments to producers to help finance such a campaign. Legislation enacted last year permits the department to enter agreements with trade groups for such campaigns and to make deductions from government wool incentive payments to pay the bill. Approval by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum would be required before the deductions could be made. Some farm groups have expressed opposition, contending that other commodity producers soon might demand similar programs, with the department being turned into a "collection agency" for promotion campaigns that might, in some cases, be highly competitive.

Excess Quotas In Cotton Charged For Newer Areas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spokesmen for small family-sized cotton farms pleaded yesterday for increased acreage allotments and heard Rep. Bob Poage of Waco blame a state agency for much of the trouble in Texas. Growers in Lavaca and Fayette counties from the Texas Gulf Coast area sent men to testify. Members of the House Agriculture subcommittee which heard the plea indicated the problem is common throughout much of the old cotton-planting sections. Poage put much of the blame in Texas on the Texas State Agricultural Stabilization Service. He said the Texas ASC committee in distributing 10 per cent reserve of the quota the state received from the national acreage allotment has favored those parts of Texas which have gone into cotton production in recent years.

Grandson Of Texas Pioneer Succumbs

FORT WORTH (AP)—Luther Van Zandt Sr., 84, grandson of one of the founders of the state of Texas, will be buried tomorrow. He died yesterday. The son of Dr. Isaac Van Zandt, Luther Van Zandt attended Addran College, forerunner of TCU, and later operated one of the first machine shops here. Dr. Isaac Van Zandt, his grandfather, was a key figure in Texas' entry into the Union in 1845.

Relatives Have Mixed Opinions On Banning Of Travel To China

By The Associated Press
There was some division of opinion today among relatives of Americans imprisoned in Red China concerning the State Department's ban on visits to the prisoners. Secretary of State Dulles yesterday wrote to relatives of the 17 Americans—15 airmen and 2 civilian employees of the Army—that the government had reached the "reluctant conclusion" to forbid travel to Communist China. In identical letters, Dulles termed the trip "imprudent for the time being" considering "the increasingly belligerent attitude" of Red China. Comment of relatives: Roland G. Cameron, Lincoln, Neb., father of prisoner Lt. Lyle Cameron—it was the logical thing to do in the first place, regardless of the Formosa situation. Mrs. W. G. Parks, Omaha, mother of Lt. Roland Parks—that settles it. We won't be going. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson Orange, Va., parents of Airman John Thompson III—Due to the world situation, we don't think it would be wise to go. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fischer, Suez City, Iowa, parents of Capt. Harold Fischer Jr.—It's a terrible letdown. Before the State Department ban the Fischers had said, "We feel it is imperative to accept the Chinese invitation to speed the release of our son." Phillip D. Fecteau, Lynn, Mass., father of civilian Army employe Richard Fecteau—Visits would serve no good purpose. We'll just keep hoping like we've been doing the past few years. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Weller Vadi, Clayton, N.Y., wife of Capt. Eugene J. Vadi—Under the circumstances it is better that the letters remain at home. Irene Kiba, Akron, Ohio, 16-year-old sister of A.I.C. Kiba—I still think someone should be able to go to see the boys. Irene's brother John Kiba, 41, was set to go from New York to Washington today in an effort to talk with Secretary Dulles about making the trip. Spokesmen for Industrialist George Scrimshaw, who had offered to pay travel expenses for those who wished to go to China, said they were not giving up. Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Taylor Missoula, Mont., in-laws of imprisoned Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, also of Missoula, expressed disappointment over the Dulles order. Llewellyn's wife Marjorie was not available for comment.

THIRD OF SESSION State Legislators Close Shop For Long Weekend

AUSTIN (AP)—The Legislature was in its third long weekend recess of the three-week-old session today. Both House and Senate yesterday quit until Monday. The week was spent with introductions of dozens of new bills, passage of a few, and setting of many for later public hearings. One of the newest proposals was another attempt to help solve the state's drought cramps. By Sen. Gus Strauss, Hallettsville, it would empower the Board of Water Engineers to make rules for the drilling of all water wells. Professional well drillers would have to be licensed by the board. Permits would be required for drilling all water wells, either by a person on his own property or by companies working on others' property. Hand-dug or drive-point wells, however, would be exempted from the proposed law. Violators would be subject to a fine up to $250 or imprisonment up to three months in jail or both. Six more bills were set for public hearings by the Senate Highways Committee, which will hold all its hearings at night. Among the settings was a hearing for Feb. 7 to prohibit travel agencies and the like from offering transportation pay on Texas highways in any car not specifically licensed for such purpose. To be heard on the same night will be a bill to regulate loads of vehicles transporting ready-mix concrete. Other settings of the committee included the following: Feb. 14: A bill to regulate the length of vehicles and vehicles-in-charge. Feb. 21: A bill to require all vehicles transporting flammables or explosives to stop at railroad crossings. Also, one to exempt fire-fighting vehicles from registration for taxation. March 7: A bill to prescribe minimum equipment for railroad motor cars transporting employees.

Newspaper Share Of Ad Dollar Up

NEW YORK (AP)—A record total of $8,143,100,000 was spent on national and local advertising in 1954, an increase of 4.3 per cent over the 1953 total of $7,809,200,000, it is reported in this week's issue of Printers' Ink, weekly magazine. National advertising is placed at $4,319,400,000, or 59.1 per cent of the total, a gain of 6.5 per cent over the 1953 national advertising total of $4,052,800,000 which was 58 per cent of the total. Local advertising volume in 1954 is estimated at $3,823,700,000, or 46.9 per cent of the total, an increase of 1.3 per cent over 1953 when local advertising was $3,783,400,000, or 42 per cent of the total. Newspaper continued to receive the biggest share of total dollar investments in advertising. The newspaper total was $2,670,900,000, or 32.8 per cent of the total, an increase of 1 per cent over the 1953 figure of $2,644,800,000. Magazines also scored a 1 per cent gain over 1953 with a $674,100,000 total, while radio slipped 3.3 per cent to $608,100,000.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Q. Which countries have the most sheep?
A. Australia and Russia rank first and second. Australia has 12 times as many sheep as it has people. Russia has about 93 million sheep. Other countries with many sheep are Argentina, India, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa and the United States. Spain, Turkey and Uruguay follow.
Q. Which states in the United States has the most sheep?
A. Texas ranks first. Other important sheep states are Montana, Wyoming, California, Colorado, Utah, Ohio and Iowa. Texas has about two sheep for each family in the state.
Q. Are wool and hair the same thing?
A. Wool is a special kind of hair. When studied under the microscope, wool is seen to be rougher.
Q. Was the first cloth made out of wool?
A. No, one can be certain about the first cloth. It may have been linen made from the fibers or flax, or it may have been woven from thin strips of the inner bark of a tree. It is known, however, that wool dates far back in history. Egyptians, Romans and other persons of long ago wore wool clothing. Cotton cloth also was known in early times, but it seems to have come into use after linen and wool.
Q. What is a fleece?
A. In usual speech, a fleece is the coat of wool of a sheep. Sometimes (but not always) it is cut off in a single piece. Often a fleece is found to weigh from four to six pounds.
Q. Do any animals besides sheep produce wool?
A. Yes, a few other animals have wool of a sort. Certain goats (but not all of them) provide wool. Tomorrow: Ballooning Spiders.

IPAA To Ask Limit On Imports Of Oil

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of independent oil and gas producer organizations have agreed to recommend that Congress limit oil imports to 10 per cent of domestic requirements. William Vaughn of Jackson, Miss., president of the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America (IPAA), said this today. For two days, Vaughn said, representatives of the independent organizations met at the invitation of the IPAA to discuss a possible solution to "the continuing problem presented by excessive imports." Many representatives, he said, have been allotted time before the House Ways and Means Committee Jan. 28 to discuss proposed extension of the Trade Agreements Act.

When He Has Money
Dear Miss Brandow:
My boy friend always takes me to nice restaurants and ultra places to dance. This costs money. I am afraid that he will soon start thinking of me as a gold digger or an expensive luxury, at least. Actually I'm the "old-fashioned girl" type who enjoys "fashionable evenings" once in a while, but who can enjoy wholesome, inexpensive, everyday fun, too. My date knows I worry myself about the prices of things and he just laughs and says he wouldn't take me to such places if he couldn't afford it.
Candis
You are a very, very lucky girl Candis. Obviously you have a very admiring and devoted suitor who can afford to show the way he feels in expensive fun. As long as he has come by his money honestly, enjoy yourself. He knows you are no gold-digger; that is probably one of the reasons he likes you.
Dear Miss Brandow:
We will be giving a party this month and could use a few pointers on how to make it successful.
Gale and Dale
Invite more boys than girls. Don't put girls on the spot by insisting that everyone bring dates, but allow them to bring a friend.
Decorate the house if only with crepe streamers and balloons to put your guests in a party mood. Have more games in mind than you will need. Know exactly what you are going to play so there will be no stumbling around. As soon as your guests seem restless, introduce a new game.
Have a mixture of active and quiet games, of interest to both boys and girls. Have plenty of refreshments that the whole gang

Tobosa Found Most Drought Resistant

COLLEGE STATION — Tobosa, that rugged individual of the grass world, has proven superior as a range cover during periods of prolonged drought.

The effect of soils, rainfall and grazing management on vegetation has been under watchful eye since 1933 at the Texas Range Station near Barnhart. The sixteen pastures comprising the 3,160-acre station have been stocked at different rates and with various combinations of cattle and sheep.

Rangeland grasses on the station are representative of those on several million acres of the Edwards Plateau, says Dr. Gerald W. Thomas and Dr. Vernon A. Young, assistant professor and head, department of Range and Forestry, Texas A&M College System, in a recent publication on the continuing studies. Tobosa, buffalo and curly mesquite grass are the major forage species.

The tests have shown a close relation between growth of forage and annual rainfall (average annual rainfall is about 17 inches). Fluctuations in forage production, however, lagged one to three years behind a variation in the annual rainfall.

A tobosa grass cover for soil and water conservation has proved "superior" to covers of buffalo or curly mesquite.

Tobosa also is the most drought resistant of all grasses in the area. Drought caused high losses in curly mesquite and losses were almost as high in buffalo and three-awn.

Studies of vegetation response to varied degrees of grazing showed: Sideoats, grama, vine mesquite

Record Beer Sales Announced By Pearl

SAN ANTONIO — A record in annual sales for 1954 is reported for Pearl Beer, which also had the distinction of being the largest selling beer in Texas during the year.

These figures are reported by H. B. (Pat) O'Brien, sales manager for the Pearl brewery which, through new expansion completed a year ago, is the largest brewing plant southwest of St. Louis.

He said that 1954 sales were the highest in Pearl's 68 years, and also represented the highest annual sales for any beer in Texas history. The figure was 835,896 barrels.

Datus E. Proper, vice president and general manager announced that additional bottling and canning facilities as well as new pasteurizing equipment are now being added to handle a bigger demand in 1955.

Some Glasscock Ranges Carry Third Of Normal Stock Ratio

By JESS BLAIR M. O. Woody says his ranch northwest of Garden City had nine inches of snow early in January. Ranges in that area are in poor condition with most stockmen carrying only about one third as many cattle as normally. He says some of the old grass is dead, and it will require a year of better than average rainfall to bring pastures back to good condition.

He has been feeding cake and baled hogan on alternate days. Since the irrigated farmers of Martin County have gone in for long staple cotton, the most popular kind is 1517C, though there is still a considerable acreage of DP&L.

Although production has been good with long staple, a few growers are planning to plant Half and Half next year. The reason is that the long staple must be picked, and growers don't like to pick cotton once they have tried pulling it.

From the worker's standpoint, the payoff is a little better in pulling bolls. They got $1.55 for pulling and $2.05 per hundred pounds for picking. They figure a man can pull almost twice as much as he can pick.

The Lewis Grocery and Market, which is located about 17 miles out on the Andrews Highway, has been re-opened after being closed several months. "Hop" Weathers, present owner, has leased it to Bonnie Drewery of Dallas.

"Hop" also owns the store on the Stanton-Lamesa Highway about 12 miles north of Stanton. This one is also leased — to B. C. Cornett.

Perhaps the driest underground area on the South Plains is the country lying below the escarpment just east of Lenora. There are 32 sections of farmland which have only three water wells. Every one else depends on water pumped in by the Martin County Fresh Water District from several small wells near Cottonwood Store. From these wells, water flows through 2-in. lines to farm houses throughout the area. Each farmer pays $57.50 per year for each quarter section he owns or leases, regardless of how many houses on it.

Though they don't have water meters, each household is supposed to limit its water use to 250 gallons per day. This excludes any kind of irrigation, even gardens and lawns.

The district was formed back in the '20s. Present secretary of the district is Harlan Barber, who is also manager of the Planter's Gin at Lenora.

The Tarzan Marketing Association has about given up on local labor. They hired 856 when cotton picking first started, but all left within three weeks.

One farmer said that workers hired out of Big Spring and Midland usually stayed only two or three days.

One farmer who salvaged something out of the cotton allotment program last year is Ted Fields of the Elbow community. Ted grew a bumper crop of cane and hogan on those diverted acres and put it on those diverted acres and put it in underground silos. At present he says he is feeding out a hundred head of cattle on the silage.

Treasury Sets 40-Year Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury has announced it will issue a 40-year bond Feb. 1, a move officially signaling confidence that the business downturn has ended.

Announcement of the ultra-long-term issue—the longest since the 50-year bond of 1911 to pay for the Panama Canal — came late yesterday.

The interest rate will be 3 percent, the same interest lenders got 44 years ago for the Panama Canal issue.

It was one fourth per cent below the rate on a 30-year bond the Treasury issued in April 1953 as the first—and until now only—single long stride in the Eisenhower administration's announced policy of putting more of the public debt into long-term issues.

The objective of this policy is to take chunks of the public debt out of financial play for long periods, giving greater freedom to business investment and the federal monetary policy operations.

Students Finish Course On Safety

The sixth grade class at Washington Elementary School completed the Red Cross safety course, "Youth on Guard Against Accidents," with exceptionally high averages, according to Mrs. Moore Sawtelle, executive secretary of the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the Red Cross here.

The course was conducted by Mrs. H. L. Derrick and consisted of three 45-minute class periods each week.

The 34 students finishing the course were Cecil Adeock, Mickie Fay Angles, Dean Atkinson, Susan Bean, Bobbie Bennett, Bill Bonner, Freddy Brown, Arnold Buford, Louise Burns, Brenda Lou Craig, Jimmie Kaye Friday, Jerry Garrett, Jake Glickman, Wayne Griffith, Ronald Hamby, Bellinda Holmes, Ronnie Holmes, Brenda Hooper, Patsy Holsenbeck, Don Knightstep, Patricia Lamer, Leith Lipscomb, Marjorie Maynard, Barbara McGregor, Judy Mitchell, Emmett Kent Morgan, Larry Moore, Gary Pickle, Tommy Ross, Edward Smith, Barbara Ruth Statser, Tommy Wayne Whatley, Ann Willis, Danny Wise.

Tornadoes have been reported in every U. S. state and in every month of the year.

One advocate of silage feeding is Fred A. Keating of the U. S. Experiment Station in Big Spring. Keating has pointed out several times that a livestock farmer could probably get more for his grain sorghums if put into silage than by selling it in the form of grain or bundles.

There is plenty of moisture in the Luther Community, at least for plowing. Most farmers are busy putting up their land before the moisture gets away from them.

Very little small grain was planted in this area last fall because of the dry soil. Since the recent snow several small fields have been sowed to oats and barley, according to Harold Talbot who farms near the Luther Post Office. He sowed about eight acres on his home place recently.

Talbot is one of the largest poultry raisers in the county. He says 1954 was anything but a banner year for chickens because low egg prices came early and kept hanging on all year. He thinks some of the smaller producers in West Texas may decide to quit unless prices rise.

Wheelbarrow Journey Aids Polio Fund Drive

WELLSBORO, Pa. (AP)—Teams of a north central Pennsylvania softball league are pushing wheelbarrows from Wellsboro to Galeton and vice versa to aid the March of Dimes drive.

They can take a step along their 23-mile route only when a contribution is made. Passing motorists are stopping to help the teams.

At the end of yesterday's round, each team was four miles on its way and the polio fund about $800 richer.

A Bible Thought For Today

But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. (Ex. 14:29).

People Who Protect Voting Right Must Encourage Others To Qualify

Earlier in the month we observed that the people who read editorials probably won't need reminding, but the deadline for qualifying as a voter is perilously close.

Therefore, we appeal to readers of editorials to start a three-day crusade among their circle of friends to encourage—yes, even insist upon—the payment of poll taxes or the securing of exemption certificates. There seems to be no other way for many people to be awakened from their civic lethargy.

You may have noted the reasons given by a number of people interviewed at random. They boil down to this: 1) neglect, 2) belief there wouldn't be any or many elections, and 3) against payment of a tax to vote.

It is significant that nowhere was the charge of $1.75 for a poll tax mentioned as a bar to protecting the right to vote. Those who object to the poll tax (and we do) as a matter of principle overlook the fact that even were the poll tax abolished there would undoubtedly be some registration fee assessed at very little less cost. They also overlook the fact that the only way to change the poll tax requirement will be made is by voting people, either in referendum or in electing representatives so committed.

As for those who think there will not be any elections—or so few as not to matter—we have only amazement. We know beyond a peradventure that there will be at least school district, junior college and city elections. We are fairly certain to catch two or three bond proposals during the year. There could be several other special elections. But even if there weren't any in sight, everyone ought to be prepared to vote. We can't maintain freedom on half-time citizenship.

Latest Soviet Move Might Prove To Be Most Mischievous So Far

The war between Germany and the Soviet Union has finally come to an end by decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet (parliament). This announcement made in Moscow Tuesday at a hurriedly called press conference had some puzzling aspects for the West, but the general impression was that Moscow was up to no good.

In declaring the state of war with both East and West Germany at an end, the Presidium retained the "right and obligation" claimed under the four-power agreement concerning Germany as a whole.

The decree affects to take into account "the views of the German Democratic Republic (Communist East Germany) and the interests of both East and West Germany," but snubbed the Bonn government by failing to refer to it specifically as the German Federal Republic.

First reaction among Western observers was that this was just another move to discourage West Germany from going through with the Western Defense arrangements by encouraging it to hope for better treatment by the Soviet.

But on second thought one American official in Berlin smelled a deeper purpose. He thinks it foreshadows the threat of a new blockade of Berlin, pointing out that ending the state of war enables "sovereign" East Germany to do what the Russians tried unsuccessfully to do several years ago—stare out West Berlin by shutting off supplies.

By pretending that East Germany is now sovereign, Moscow, whose iron control of the Communist sector of Germany would not be relaxed in the slightest degree, could hand the chore of imposing a blockade to its East German satellite, then sit back and disclaim all responsibility. Moscow might even insist that now that the war with all Germany is ended, "sovereign" East Germany could proceed to wipe out the corridor entirely, thus confronting the Allies and West Germany with a fait accompli.

What an action like that would lead to is problematical, but the least effect would be to create a critical situation which might result in bloodshed. In any case Moscow's latest move may well be the most mischievous postwar step she has yet taken.

Today And Tomorrow—Walter Lippmann

Demarcation Line In Far East Will Have To Be Fixed Firmly

The realities of the Formosa question are overlaid with so much propaganda, bluff, and face-saving that it is hard to find one's way around in it. The best clue to a clarified definition of the problem—I am not saying a solution of the problem—is to recognize that there are in fact two lines which mark the limits of what we call "Formosa."

The one line is known to the experts working on the problem as the "jurisdictional line." It is the line laid down in the Japanese surrender terms, the Japanese peace treaty, the proposed mutual security pact with Chiang's government and in the President's message. The line covers Formosa and the Pescadores but not the off-shore islands. The other line is sometimes called "the strategic line," that is a misleading name for a line of which some of the islands at least, such as the Tachen now, Quemoy in September, have been declared of no decisive strategic importance. This second line is in fact the western boundary of the legal territory of China that Chiang's Nationalist government still holds. It is the line where the Nationalist retreat from the mainland ended.

The difference between these two lines, which involve the possession of the off-shore islands, is probably the critical issue in the present phase of maneuver and possible negotiation about "Formosa." The off-shore islands—but not Formosa and the Pescadores—are Chinese territory for which the Chinese civil war is still being fought. They are the last remaining Chinese territories which Chiang actually governs.

That gives these off-shore islands considerable symbolic importance. A clean-cut decision by the United States to stand on the jurisdictional line of the treaties would protect Formosa, it would cut the implied commitment of the United States to support Chiang in a campaign of restoration.

For Peking this would mean acceptance of the fact that they are the de facto government of Chinese territories. It would not recognize that they have title to Formosa. Nobody would have title to Formosa. The allied powers who have made the peace treaty with Japan would remain the custodians of the title to Formosa and the Pescadores.

It is evident that if there is to be a cease fire, there must be a line of demarcation, and that the most reasonable line is the jurisdictional line. East of that line Peking does not have any legal title; armed action would therefore be international aggression. West of the line we have no legal claims, and intervention would be intervention in a civil war. The acceptance by us of the jurisdictional line would put an end conclusively to the notion of a United States intention to intervene. It would, moreover, fix conclusively not only the defense but the custodial character of our presence in Formosa.

The real significance of these off-shore islands is not strategic but legal and political. In forming our policy we cannot expect to find that every consideration is on one side rather than the other. What we shall find is, I believe, that the preponderant weight of the considerations is in favor of our standing on the jurisdictional line.

The objection to doing that is that it means the final abandonment of our support of the Nationalist campaign of restoration, and that this will destroy the morale of the Chinese on Formosa. There can be little doubt that the Formosa Chinese and their supporters in other lands will feel that they have been deprived of the hope of a restoration. But it is not the fact that insofar as they have thought the United States would go to war for a restoration, they have been living on false hopes; I think their sincerest friends in Washington would tell them that American opinion favors the defense of Formosa but it is opposed to a commitment or to taking any risks of war about going back to the mainland.

As against the political disadvantage of the discouragement of non-Communist Chinese, there are probably big advantages on the other side. An American policy based on the jurisdictional line will almost certainly insure the support of our active allies in the Far East. It enables the powers which recognize Mao Tse-tung to recognize also the defense of Formosa, for our Formosa position among the uncommitted nations of Asia and it would provide a sound legal and political foundation for an eventual attempt by the United Nations to bring about a cease fire in the Far East.

I use the word eventual because in a matter of such immense complexity, it is not possible to proceed by big and spectacular steps. The world is an elephant crossing a precarious bridge and it must test its footing. It is sometimes possible to obtain assent, to obtain a willingness not to object, without obtaining an express agreement. But in order to progress at all, no matter how slowly and tortuously, it is necessary that we be clear in our minds about where we do and where we do not stand, where we are not going and where we are going.

"A Radical Idea"

The World Today—James Marlow

Precise Intentions Of Administration On Formosa No Clearer Than Before

WASHINGTON (AP)—There may be some psychological effect—on the American people if not on the Red Chinese—from President Eisenhower's dramatic efforts to get congressional approval for defending Formosa.

But as far as Eisenhower's precise intentions go, they are no clearer—either to the Communists or the American people—than before he sent a message to Congress Monday asking for a blessing on anything he did to save Formosa.

His message, and Congress' approval, may make the Communists feel he means business. And no doubt the American people will be a little better prepared mentally for a war with Red China if it comes.

But possibly the Reds look on it all as a bluff, an attempt by Eisenhower to save face by talking boldly at the very moment he apparently was getting ready to let them capture the Tachen Islands from Chiang Kai-shek.

If the Red Chinese consider it a bluff, and call it by hanging away at some more islands, the United States will finally have to put up or shut up.

There is a missing link which when someday revealed in full, will tell a little more about Eisenhower's thinking and intentions right now.

This was the secret testimony this week by Secretary of State Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, before the Senate's Armed Services and Foreign Relations committees.

Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) spoke of this testimony in the Senate yesterday without disclosing it word for word: "On my word of honor... the secret testimony... would prove... it was contemplated by the administration... that the resolution would authorize in advance the right of the President to order a strike against the mainland before any act of war had been committed against the United States."

Morse meant that, as he saw it, the President was asking Congress beforehand for approval to bomb Red Chinese troop concentrations on the China mainland if he thought they were getting ready to attack Formosa and that was the way to stop them.

The Chinese Communists may be skeptical about Eisenhower's earnestness in asking congressional approval for defending Formosa since he had previously, and emphatically, said Formosa would be defended.

He didn't say what other islands, besides Formosa and the nearby Pescadores, would be defended. Chiang's Nationalists hold a number of smaller islands near the China coast.

The fact that Eisenhower has had three opportunities this week to be clearer, but wasn't, makes it certain he deliberately chose not to. The idea, obviously, is to keep the Reds guessing. He left vague in his message to Congress what other islands would be defended.

Dulles and Radford urged Congress not to be more specific in the resolution. And in a special White House statement yesterday there was no specific mention of islands to be defended.

Woman Who Shed 123 Pounds Crowned Champ

CHICAGO (AP)—A farm woman who shed 123 pounds of excess fat in one year by dieting was crowned champion weight loser today by TOPS, a national women's reducing organization.

Mrs. Esther Conrad, 60, of Appleton, Wis., cut her weight from 315 pounds to 192. Her dress size narrowed from 56 to 42.

She said she got her biggest thrill when her 5-year-old granddaughter climbed into her lap recently and said:

"Grandma, you've got such a nice big lap. The other one always slid off."

TOPS stands for Taking Off Pounds Scientifically. Mrs. Conrad received the award at the organization's third annual meeting at headquarters of the American Medical Assn.

The group, started six years ago by Mrs. Esther Manz, Milwaukee, has helped some 10,000 women lose unnecessary fat. Members lose weight merely by restricting the number of calories in their diet. The weight is lost under a doctor's supervision.

Mrs. Conrad said she suffered from high blood pressure, diabetes, arthritis and severe backache before dieting, and added:

"Now that I have taken off this weight I feel wonderful, have no arthritis or high blood pressure and no more backache. My health is better than it has been in 15 years. My doctor and my friends tell me I look 20 years younger, and I certainly feel it."

Common-Law Marriages Legal, But No Longer Are Necessary

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald. — Editor's Note.

It looks as if members of the State Legislature might finally get around to doing something about Texas' infamous common-law marriages.

Senator Straus of Hallettsville has introduced a bill to outlaw common-law marriages in this state, and the bill has the backing of the judicial section of the State Bar Association.

According to the Associated Press, the bill has been set for a public hearing on Feb. 16 before the Senate's civil jurisdiction committee. Of course, it must still pass the Senate and the House, even with committee approval.

Common-law marriages have been recognized in Texas since Methuselah was a pup, probably originating when there was a scarcity of preachers or priests to tie the wedding knots.

Now, however, every city and hamlet has a good supply of preachers and priests. In addition, there are quite a few County Judges and Peace Justices ready to perform the ceremonies.

Common-law marriage is simply an agreement between a man and a woman, both competent to marry, to become husband and wife and then an actual living together as a married couple.

Those entering such a marriage must not possess any of the legal disqualifications for statutory marriage. They must be single and of the legal age. They cannot be kin to one another.

Court decisions uniformly recognize common-law marriages in this state as being legal. Some such decisions have stated that in addition to an agreement to marry and an actual living together, the couple must hold out each other to the public as husband and wife.

Just what act or acts of living together will suffice to consummate the common-law marriage has never been determined and probably never will be, according to Texas Jurisprudence.

A statement of a man to a woman that they take each other for husband and wife without the two of them living together would not make a common-law marriage, said the decision of Lee vs. State.

Common-law marriage is a real marriage which can be dissolved only by death, divorce or annulment. The parties are husband and wife, and the legal status is that of other married persons. Their children are legitimate and capable of inheriting.

A couple having a common-law marriage can own community and separate estates just like every other married couple, and neither the husband nor the wife can be made to testify against the other in court. Family rights are identical with those for statutory marriage.

Either the husband or wife of a common-law marriage can be charged with bigamy or adultery or any other crime which depends on the marital status.

If a person first enters a common-law marriage, he cannot then enter a statutory marriage with another party. And if he first enters a statutory marriage, he cannot enter a common-law marriage with another party. The second marriage in either case is forbidden.

Since the common-law marriage is the same for all practical purposes as a statutory marriage, there is no reason why there should be two different kinds. The ceremony can be brief or long, depending on the taste, but there should be a ceremony.

CLIFTON LAWHORNE.

Austin Recollections—Raymond Brooks Political Playback

History has made a short-wave playback itself for Sam Rayburn.

The first version was in the Democratic national convention at Chicago in 1952. The echo is in "Mr. Sam's" taking over again as speaker in Congress.

Rayburn, congressman from Bonham, holder of the speaker's chair in more sessions than any other, probably isn't a maker of Presidents. But he is credited by eye-witnesses with making party history by a spot decision that kept one man from being the Democratic nominee for Vice President, and of course giving the honor to someone else. For all that Sam Rayburn and the delegates knew that July night in the Chicago Coliseum, the nominee might have become vice president, and who knows, President of the United States.

Let me put in what everybody knows: Rayburn is a loyal Democrat, and is classified as a liberal. The Dixie conservatives haven't got along well with him. But he's a durable Democrat, nigh indestructible.

Many state preferential primaries had gone for Estes Kefauver, and he went in to the 1952 convention probably the foremost prospect for presidential nominee. He figured heavily in the initial ballots, and those instructed delegates were bound to stick with him as long as his name was before the convention.

The swing developed — as I recall on the second ballot — that showed Adlai Stevenson would be nominated on the next roll-call.

Sam Rayburn was presiding. As the roll-call started, Kefauver rushed to the stand and asked Rayburn to let him interrupt it for a statement. That was to have been a withdrawal, and release of his delegates to Stevenson. That is, Kefauver would have nominated Stevenson. The political corollary is that he would have been stamped into nomination for second place. The play was transparent.

Mr. Sam seems to think fast on his feet. He told Kefauver to stand back and ordered: "Call the roll."

So Kefauver stood there, at the command of the Texan, his hopes for the presidency gone, and saw his big roll-call nominated Stevenson without Kefauver's gesture.

Now the second chapter: Washington reports followed swiftly after the election, assured Democratic control of Congress in 1955-1956 and Rayburn's return to the chair, with the news that Kefauver was angling for a high committee chairmanship that might put him back on the road for another fight for the presidential nomination in 1956. The same reports said that Rayburn, returning to his post of great power in House affairs, was not going to give Kefauver the stepping-stone to become a contender again.

Washington Calling—Marquis Childs

Hammarskjold Visit Important In Opening Up Future Contracts

UNITED NATIONS N.Y.—The 11 American fliers held prisoner by Communist China will be released not altogether but in stages in from one to four months. This is the expectation of those here at the United Nations best qualified to know the consequences of the difficult and delicate diplomatic mission of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold who flew to Peking just after Christmas for a series of talks with Communist Foreign Minister Chou En-lai.

The hope is qualified by the possibility of an adverse reaction in Peiping to President Eisenhower's message to Congress defining American responsibility for defending Formosa. But even a Communist propaganda blast aimed at that message would not, in the view of sources of unquestioned authority here at the U.N., entirely rule out a favorable ending for the American prisoners charged with being spies.

The Hammarskjold mission, which has been widely misunderstood in this country, is one of the most extraordinary in diplomatic history. Interpreted as an effort to bargain for the freedom of the Americans, the task held no such meaning to Hammarskjold from the first moment the trip was contemplated.

Hammarskjold understood that, for Chou and the other Communist leaders newly come to power in China, sentencing of the fliers to long prison terms was the act of a sovereign power which could not be subjected to bargaining or pressure of any kind. Involved in this attitude is Chou's position in Asia and the Oriental concept of "face" and the seriousness with which the loss of prestige is taken. The effort to avoid any appearance of either bargaining or pressure is behind President Eisenhower's appeal for restraint in this period of waiting.

Chou's offer to permit relatives of the imprisoned fliers to visit them came voluntarily after the foreign minister had given Hammarskjold photographs and detailed health reports to take back to U.N. headquarters. Those most familiar with the negotiations believe that this was a propaganda gesture in only a limited sense. It was Chou's way of saying, "If anyone doubts that these men are in good health and well cared for, their relatives may come and see for themselves and we will facilitate in every way their visit."

Chou is far too sophisticated to feel that the visit of a few Americans would have any effective propaganda value insofar as the general picture of Communist China is concerned.

Aside from the prisoners themselves, and Hammarskjold had not the slightest expectation of obtaining their release as an immediate consequence of his visit, the mission did contribute to better understanding of attitudes on both sides. Hammarskjold found that Chou had no concept of how aroused public opinion was in this country over the injustice done to the fliers. Conditioned to thinking in terms of the controlled and manipulated opinion of the totalitarian states, the foreign minister had failed to realize that this was a factor which could mean the difference between peace and war.

From the first Hammarskjold's objective was to maintain a delicate balance. He went to Peking not as a petitioner but in order to explain the attitude in America and in the U.N. and the West on the fliers. And this line was carefully preserved in the talks that added up to a total of 16 hours. Any new threats by Americans seeming to speak authoritatively probably would undo all that was accomplished by the visit.

than stay-at-homes. But I didn't expect the flood of angry mail that came in.

Here is a typical example from a Detroit housewife:

"My dear Mrs. Fish Eggs: You must have flipped your lid to write such a stupid column. As for Miss Nilwit what does she know about housework when she's a complete miss. (Editor's note: The efficiency expert quoted was Madge Lewyt of New York who is not a miss but a Mrs. and makes a career of household surveys and housekeeping shortcuts.)

"I don't have to ask my husband to help with the household chores because he has brains enough and loves me enough to help without being nagged at. . . . What about the children? Does the miss or you have three healthy children to look after? Wash to do every day? Ironing as well? Nourishing meals to prepare? Or do you live on coffee and cigarettes?"

"I slave all day and get no pay—then an ignorant dame like you has to make things worse."

Another writes from Galeton, Pa.: "How many working women do all the little things that a housekeeper does? They send most, if not all their laundry out. They have no one at home all day to clutter up their house. Why would it be dirty? Do they sew? Do they bake bread, cookies, pies? No, they stop at the corner store, buy their meals frozen and pop them into the oven when they get home."

"That gives you a general idea. And I didn't mean to belittle the American housewife. I think she's wonderful whether she works in an office or at home, or both."

Many of us have to do both, like me. And since we don't have much time at home, we develop every possible shortcut to get things done in the least possible time.

I, for instance, find it possible to take care of a good-sized house in the country, travel 100 miles to and from work every day, do all the cooking and sit on the problems of two daughters without too much strain.

I think we do what we have to do—and often that's the fun of it.

Safety And Health Are B&PW Topics

Jolly O'Brien, ground safety director at Webb Air Force Base, spoke to members of the B&PW Club recently at a dinner meeting held at the Settles Hotel.

"Ninety per cent of the accidents are caused by unsafe actions," the women were told. "Eight per cent come from unsafe conditions, and the other two per cent are an act of Providence."

Mr. O'Brien told of how bad habits contribute to accidents and he gave a definition of safety, embracing among other elements, knowledge of the job, patience and discipline.

Continuing the theme of health and safety, Jewel Barton, county health nurse, spoke to the group. Place cards were in the form of small tool kits holding hints for diet and exercise, contributing to good health.

Following the program, a question and answer period was held to assist members in planning for the conference to be here some time this year. This was in charge of Cordelia Taylor of Midland, district director. Lorene Williams was announced as the next district director.

R. H. Weaver Speaks To Altrusans

"A law made in 1878 hamstrings our county government," R. H. Weaver, county judge, told members of the Altrusa Club Thursday at noon when the group met for lunch at the Settles Hotel. He was introduced by Mrs. Loyd Wooten, chairman of public affairs.

In contrasting the city and county governments the speaker cited changes that could be made in the county set-up, whereby efficiency would be increased with a decrease in expense. He also stressed the lack of interest shown by the public in the recent budget hearing, which was attended by only two people, one a newspaper reporter on his beat.

Judge Weaver warned of the danger of having too much power centered in one place, and he told the club that we must be ever watchful to keep the government more localized.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Bill Gries announced the following as a nominating committee: Mrs. M. T. Kuykendall, Mrs. Auda Stanford and Mrs. Clara McLean. Mrs. Lorin McDowell was appointed special chairman to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. J. D. Jones, who has resigned from the club.

Christian Science Lecturer Speaks To Big Spring Group

Healthier, happier, more abundant living is available to all today in the degree this goal is sought in the spiritual understanding of God, man, and the universe, Harry B. MacRae of Dallas said in a Christian Science lecture here Thursday.

Something more than a religious philosophy is needed to heal the sick, redeem the sinner, and solve the problems of daily living, MacRae maintained.

Stressing the universal nature of practical Christianity, he told his audience that the priceless blessings which result from effective prayer are "yours to accept today."

On nationwide tour as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, MacRae spoke under the auspices of the local Christian Science Society in the church auditorium—J. D. Stiecher introduced him.

Speaking on the subject, "Christian Science: Its Correct View of God and Man Brings Healing," MacRae declared that true healing, as taught by Christ Jesus, "rests upon the spiritual understanding of God, as Father-Mother, as All-in-All, and of man as His perfect expression."

He described what he called a scientifically correct view of man and how it had helped the son of a certain woman to be healed. She had sought correction of his crossed eyes and generally retarded development, both through her prayers and treatments. She attended a Christian Science lecture, MacRae said, not taking her son with her. She was so inspired and spiritually uplifted, though she had no conscious thought of her son, she saw everything in a fresh new light. Upon her return home she found her son's eyes were normal and a little later that he could walk, something he had been unable to do.

When man comes to know that Christ is that and the same Christ, Truth, that Jesus proved in His healing is forever our Christ here and now, he learns, the lecturer said, that he is able to heal, according to the degree of his understanding, as the Master did.

In reading the Bible, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy gained from the account of Jesus' healing of the palsied man a clearer view of God's allness and ever-presence, and thus she was healed of the effects of what had appeared to be a fatal accident.

MacRae also discussed how "true prayer heals. Demonstration more than definition explains prayer in Christian Science. No mere words can make prayer fully comprehensible. But demonstrating its power in healing the sick and reforming the sinner, removes all doubt as to what prayer is and what it does."

In practice of Christian Science, prayer and treatment are synonymous, he said. "Treatment is the understanding prayer that affirms God's allness and goodness, the perfection of His idea, man; denies the reality of all error; and thus, heals the sick and meets every human need." In this connection he told how a man facing loss of hearing, despite surgery, had been healed.

"The correct view of God and man which Heals is attainable by all," he emphasized. "The ability to understand the Christ, Truth and to gain radiant health and more abundant living is God-bestowed. This is not a far-off, future blessing, but one here and now."

'BONUS' RING ISN'T GLASS

DETROIT (AP)—High school friends of Lillian Dzialak were impressed by the oversized setting in the ring she has been wearing to school the last few days.

Lillian, 17, agreed it was quite a rock all right, but explained it was nothing but glass. She had found the ring in a paper bag along with some dollar earrings she had bought at a jewelry store near her home in neighboring Hamtramck. The nice clerk, she reasoned, had slipped in a cheap little ring as a bonus.

All the admiration from her friends, though, started Lillian wondering. So she took back the ring and found store employees in a dither. A $1,200 diamond ring was missing.

It was the one Lillian had found in the paper bag.

She still got her bonus, though. The grateful store owner gave her $50 worth of costume jewelry.

Vollmer Suggests Airports Be Given To U.S. Airlines

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—A railroad president yesterday urged government subsidies to air lines could be ended by turning over to them public airport facilities.

"Obviously, the commercial air lines are not financially able to purchase these tax-provided facilities which cost the nation many millions of dollars," said W. G. Vollmer, head of the Texas and Pacific.

"However, adoption of long-range leasing arrangements or else the outright gift of them to the air lines... would, in the long run, justify the contribution by relieving the public of a huge, unjust tax burden."

Vollmer said any lease or gift arrangement would have to be made with the understanding that the airlines would maintain, improve and pay taxes upon the airports just as other businesses do.

He made the statements in a speech prepared for the Southwest Shippers Advisory Board.

Vollmer also asked that truck lines and inland water carriers be forced to pay what he called a more "realistic" charge for the tax-built facilities they use.

Formosa Fleet News Censored

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—American correspondents with the U.S. 7th Fleet off Formosa are subject to an almost complete news blackout under Navy censorship.

The Navy's restrictions forbid any news story touching on the following five subjects:

1. Fleet movements.
2. Fleet size.
3. Fleet disposition.
4. Intentions.
5. Possible damage.

These restrictions have been applied so broadly and severely as to withhold anything but a trickle of minor feature stories.

The Navy insists the restrictions are not censorship. However, the restrictions are actually a censorship much, much tighter than any formal censorship applied by the U.N. Command in the Korean War.

All correspondents with the fleet have been required to sign fresh agreements to submit their stories to the ship captain or higher commander for clearance. Even if the stories pass the captain, they must be sent to the commander of the Pacific Fleet in Pearl Harbor, then to the Navy chief of information in Washington for ultimate release.

As a result, almost no news of the fleet has been cleared for publication.

The fleet commander, Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, has refused repeated requests, some made face-to-face, to allow newsmen to work aboard the flagship.

Although snakes cannot strike as effectively when they are in water, their bites are almost as poisonous under water as on land.

Man's Nature and Need

GOD MADE MAN IN HIS OWN IMAGE

Scripture—Genesis 1:26-31; 6:3-8; Matthew 6:9-10; Mark 7:31-33; Luke 6:25-26; Romans 3:23; Hebrews 2:16-18.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
MAN BEGAN life on this earth, according to the Biblical account of creation, in the Garden of Eden, which is thought to have been somewhere in the Middle East, probably in what is now known as Iraq, our lesson tells us.

How beautiful the Garden of Eden was may be partly made real to the children by the Memory Verse illustration and any other pictures the teacher may be able to gather together to show them. It is newly created. Everything is fresh and exquisite in color and setting. Everything is at peace; there is no fighting or quarrelling among the inhabitants of the Garden; there is nothing but beauty and happiness.

"And God said, Let us make man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

"So God created man in His own image, in the image of God

MEMORY VERSE

"What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that Thou visitest him? for Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor."—Psalm 8:4, 5.

created Him; male and female created He them."

"And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth."

Then God told Adam and Eve that He had given them "every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in which is the fruit of a tree, yielding seed: to you it shall be for meat."

What dignity and power did the Lord give these two people whom He had created and prepared everything to make their lives happy and contented. And then, at the first temptation, they disobeyed God, and throwing away all the blessings bestowed on them.

Driven from their beautiful home with all its blessings, they went out to earn their living by hard work. So sin came to the

You Need Your CHURCH.....Your CHURCH Needs You!

ALL MIXED UP

Johnny's all mixed up! His coat rumpled and twisted! Buttons all wrong!
 Do you know what Johnny's trouble is? He got a bad start. He poked the first button in the wrong hole.
 You see, that first button is all-important. Unless Johnny gets that one right, the other buttons will never follow in pattern.
 Johnny's first years are all-important, too. Without the proper Christian training, Johnny will get all mixed up inside. He will learn bad habits, dishonesty, untruthfulness. His life will become rumpled and twisted.
 Bring your Johnny to Sunday School and Church. Help Johnny to a right start. The rest of his life will follow in the Christian pattern.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Steers Face Snyder Quint This Evening

Their chances for a first place finish in District 1-AAA hanging in the balance, the Big Spring Steers hit the road for two games this weekend.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Writing in the current Interscholastic League, Standard Lambert, who serves the Texas High School Coaches Association as its public relation director, says he's been "playing the game of reclassification" recently and frankly admits he has never won nor sees clearly any way to win.

One way for reclassifying the districts, according to Lambert, would be to "lower the floor" in AAAA and dip down into the next classification to skim the top schools, a move calculated to increase the number of districts in that class from eight to 16.

Under such a plan, where the enrollment requirements would be 750 rather than the present 1,200, Big Spring (with 917) would be included in the top group, along with Plainview and 28 other schools in Texas.

The fallacy of the plan, points out Lambert, would be that schools with enrollment of 750 would be competing with the super high schools that go up to 2,400, which would increase the spread to 1,750 and the percentage of spread to 146 per cent.

Lambert also states the geographical spread of the additional cities does not help much, either, since only Big Spring and Plainview are in West Texas. The others are not too far removed from metropolitan areas.

A few of the schools are actually much closer to being admitted to AAAA at the moment than are Big Spring and Plainview, which has 876 in its first four grades.

McCallum of Austin has 998, Temple 935, South Park 1,065, Harlandale 1,198, Sidney Lanier 1,018 and Burbank 1,072.

Paris, with 750 students, and Port Neches, with 755, are just over the minimum mentioned in the plan.

Standard asks that this not be referred to as the "Lambert Plan." He was merely introducing the reader to the game called "Reclassification" and showing some of the problems involved.

A ten-man committee appointed by the TIL will be playing the game for the next several months and may get no closer to a solution than Lambert.

Junior Arterburn, newly named football coaching assistant at Oklahoma A&M, was in Big Spring and area last week scouting for player material.

Don Stevens, the former HCJC cager, is averaging 11.5 points a game with the Corpus Christi University team this season.

The most recent records showed Don with a total of 172 points in 15 games. The ex-Jayhawk had more free tosses than he had field goals.

Fred Sanner, the Abilene scribe, remarked in a recent column that Joe Kerbel was following a precedent in using the Breckenridge coaching job as stepping stone to a better job when he quit to assume coaching duties at Amarillo High School.

There may be better coaching jobs in Texas than the one at Breckenridge but I doubt it. There may be worse big-time coaching jobs than the one at Amarillo, but I also doubt it.

Powers that be give a man so long to succeed in Amarillo. If he enjoys only moderate success, out he goes. The press becomes hostile and the fans grumble for a change.

And, in District 1-AAAA, Kerbel will be competing against some of the truly great teams in schoolboy circles, year in and year out, with material that may not be adequate. Part of the players, you know, will be going over to Palo Duro High.

At Breck, Joe had boys who wanted to play football. At Amarillo, he may have to sell them on the idea.

Clark Has Chance To Set All-Time Scoring Record

Though he has been held to eight points in two of the last three games he's played, Charles Clark still has an excellent chance to shatter Bobby Maines' all-time Big Spring High School scoring record in basketball.

Maines established the record in 1949-51, when he scored 392 points in 40 games.

In 17 contests, Clark now has 289 points for an average of 17.0 points an outing.

To break the record, Clark would have to average at least 11.8 points a game in the team's remaining eight games.

In addition to seven conference contests, the Steers have a Feb. 8 date with Andrews ahead of them. The game will be played in Andrews.

Maines broke a record that stood for 11 years. The former mark was established by Bobby Savage of the 1939-40 team, who scored 384 points in 23 games.

To shade Savage's record, Maines went into the final game against Midland needing 19 points. He registered 26 against the Bulldogs.

Clark probably would have been much nearer his goal had not the Tri-State Tournament in El Paso, billed for Christmas week, been cancelled out. The Steers would have played a minimum of two games then. As it was, they were idle throughout the holidays.

Following are scoring records for the entire team this season:

Player	GP	PT	FG
Charles Clark	17	289	68
Al Klove	17	156	38
Kenneth Harmon	17	141	35
Bobby Phillips	17	133	32

One of the most popular members of the HCJC basketball team this season is little Jimmy Robinson (above), who hails from Lovington, N. M. He played in the New Mexico all-star game at Albuquerque last year.

Medalist Ousted in Miami Play

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Greta Leone, a native of Denmark who took up golf about four years ago because it looked like fun, pulled the first big upset of the Helen Lee Deherty Amateur Tournament.

Miss Leone, who now lives in Chicago, ousted medalist Ronnie Colby in the first round yesterday when the Hollywood, Fla., girl gambled and lost on No. 16.

Vonnie tried to clear a canal with her second shot at 15 but dunked it into the water. Greta played it short and safe, won the hole and took the match 1-0.

Other favorites survived the first round play. Defending champion Grace Demoss Smith of Miami rallied spectacularly to defeat young Joan Toki of Livingston, N. J., 3 and 1. Joan, niece of pro Bob Toki, 1954's top money winner, had trap trouble on the back nine.

Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., current national amateur champ and runnerup for medalist honors here, defeated Los Angeles' Wilfrid Smith 4 and 3. Miss Romack was only one over par for the 15 holes, best medal score of the day.

Dot Lesser of Seattle defeated Pat Kirby of Atlanta 4 and 2. Miss Kirby, 1951 national amateur queen, sealed her doom on No. 16 when she, like Miss Colby, banged her second shot into the canal.

The Toronto Maple Leafs have the youngest team in the National Hockey League. Their average age is 24.5 years.

The Bears own an 8-7 standing for the year.

The contest, only conference game of the week, is the high point to be a sellout.

Southern Methodist, standing 8-6 for the year, has the better season record of the night's participants and the second best in the conference. TCU sets the pace with a 12-4 record.

The Mustangs, their attack built around 6-foot-8 sophomore center Jim Krebs, have been deadly around the basket while losing only to TCU in conference play.

Baylor has been weak in close but deadly from the outside thanks to the efforts of Murray Bailey, the Bears' great senior forward. Opponents say the Bears could be deadly with a high-scoring center, and Baylor backers hope they've found one in Louis Estes, who scored 22 points against Rice last week.

Baylor battles SMU for the right to share first place with Texas Christian in the Southwest Conference basketball race Friday night as the teams meet in the only game of the evening involving SWC teams.

The two currently are tied for second place in the conference standings with 3-1 records, half a game back of TCU. The winner joins the Horned Frogs in first place with the loser dropping into third place.

The contest at Dallas is expected to be a sellout.

Further play comes Saturday night when Texas plays the University of Houston at Houston and TCU takes on Abilene Christian at Abilene.

Palmer Pacing Thunderbird

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Johnny Palmer, second high money winner of 1955, led the way into the second round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Golf Tournament today.

He whacked out a 10-under par 62 in the first round, and held a one-stroke advantage.

Shelley Mayfield knocked out seven birdies on the back nine yesterday and ended the round with a 63.

Tied at 66 were Peter Thomson, the British Open champion, Wally Ullrich, Jim Turnesa and Mike Souchak.

The 67 bracket was filled with eight players, including Byron Nelson, Lloyd Mangrum, Dutch Harrison and Gene Littler.

Freddie Haas, who won the 1954 tournament, had 70.

Miz Clementine Is Ready For Big One

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—You can bet Calumet Farms won't let a stable foolup keep the classy filly Miz Clementine out of tomorrow's $163,360 Santa Anita Maternity.

Recall last Saturday when three Calumet gals were supposed to go in the Santa Maria Handicap. Low and behold Miz Clementine didn't show up.

A groom was blamed for failing to have her out at the appointed time. Trainer Jimmy Jones was fined $100 and the mixup may have cost Calumet the $18,000 first prize purse since Miz Clementine was favored.

Tomorrow's race is different. In the cash department the victor's share should be about $87,000 if the expected nine go to the post for the mile-and-a-quarter test of 4-year-olds.

And Miz Clementine is expected to give Determine and the other colts plenty of run.

Forsan Buffaloes Decision Wall

CHRISTOVAL (SC) — Forsan moved into the second round of play in the Christoval Basketball Tournament by trouncing Wall, 44-30, here Thursday night.

James Skeen sparked the Buffaloes to victory with 14 points while Albert Olesby chipped in 10 toward the Bison effort.

Dave Olskovsky of Wall led game scorers, however, with 15 points. Sterling City nudged Barnhart, 51-27, in another first round contest.

The Forsan girls clash with Bronte at 2:30 p.m. today.

Joe DiMaggio has a big smile on his face as he talks on the phone in his hotel room in New York after being named to Baseball's Hall of Fame. Johnson, Fuentes Mix It Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — George Johnson, of Trenton, N.J., and Ramon Fuentes, of Los Angeles, try to climb over each other to better days in boxing tonight in their 10-round nationally televised bout at Convention Hall.

The 23-year-old Johnson, who spent most of 1954 in a sick bed with an appendectomy and tonsil trouble is reported in top shape and hopes to improve on his ranking as the 10th best middleweight.

With a record of 28 wins, 21 by knockout, and 5 losses, Johnson hopes to use Fuentes as an eraser to get rid of the stigma of his last night when he lost to Charley Salas at Miami Beach after entering the ring as a 3-1 favorite. His principal claim to fame is a TKO victory over Moses Ward.

Fuentes, 29, is rated fourth in the pack of welterweights trying to get into the ring with champion Johnny Saxton or leading contender Carmen Basilio. He has a record of 31 victories, 4 losses and 1 draw.

NBC will telecast the bout at 10 p.m. EST.

Dickie Moegle First Texan Chosen In Football Draft

By The Associated Press

Dicky Moegle, Taylor, Tex., halfback who made nearly everybody's All-America last season, heads the list of Texans drafted Thursday and early Friday by the National Professional Football League.

Moegle, first Texas college player selected, was the eighth pick in the nation. He was chosen by San Francisco.

The University of Texas and North Texas State dominated the next few rounds of the 30-round draft, each placing three players on the list of the first 10 rounds.

Texas tackle Alex (Buck) Lansford and North Texas halfback Dean Renfro were chosen by Philadelphia and Cleveland, respectively, in the second round.

In all, the states' collegiate football clubs placed 46 men on the list, including single junior college standouts.

The players, schools, positions, and pro teams include:

Rice; Halfback Dick Moegle, San Francisco; end LaMoyné Holland, Cleveland (traded to Detroit).

Texas; Tackle Buck Lansford, Philadelphia; halfback Ed Kelly, Los Angeles; halfback Billy Quinn, Philadelphia; back David Parkinson, Los Angeles; tackle Joe Petersen, Baltimore; quarterback Glen Dyer, San Francisco.

Southern Methodist; End Ed Berner, Pittsburgh; halfback Frank Eldom, Philadelphia; tackle Eric Knebel, Cleveland; end Doyle Nix, Green Bay; back Duane Nutt, Philadelphia.

Beef Record Set But Not In Money

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — You probably ate more beef last year than ever before, but the man who raised the cows, didn't make as much money as he should have, one of them said today.

Jay Taylor of Amarillo said Americans set a new record in 1954 by eating an average of 80 pounds of beef. He is president of the American National Cattlemen's Assn.

The Texan told about 1,000 Alabama cattlemen "the returns on our investments, management, labor and risk are still too low or nonexistent."

Marquette Shows Big Improvement

By The Associated Press

Even Marquette Coach Jack Nagle must be surprised over the Warriors' basketball success this season after their mediocre showing a year ago.

Marquette, the nation's 11th-ranking team, has put together a 14-game winning streak—longest in collegiate circles this season—after an opening loss to Michigan State.

The Warriors extended their skein with a 73-70 victory over Loyola of the South last night. The streak will be on the line when the teams meet again in New Orleans tonight.

Nagle took over the helm at Marquette last season and his team won 11 and lost 15. Although Marquette had 10 lettermen returning for the 1954-55 campaign, Nagle never figured that his club would improve as much as it has.

Last night the Hilltoppers were hard-pressed to repel Loyola. Marquette piled up a 36-22 halftime bulge, but then had to withstand a last-half surge by the New Orleans club.

Rube Schultz led the Marquette attack with 25 points.

Action again was light last night with most of the major teams still idle due to midyear examinations.

Denver broke an 11-game Skyline Conference losing streak by upsetting defending champion Colorado A&M 73-69. Denver led at halftime 35-32 and never was headed.

Johnny Vaught is the 20th football coach at the University of Mississippi. The game was first played by the school in 1893.

Baltimore Gets Ameche, Shaw In Pro Draft

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Two of the slickest quarterbacks of the 1954 college season—George Shaw of Oregon and Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame—may ply their trade within 35 miles of each other next fall and make contenders of two of the weaker sisters in the National Football League.

Shaw, a 185-pound throwing whiz who led the nation's major colleges in total offense, was the surprise bonus pick of the Baltimore Colts in yesterday's prolonged professional draft, enabling the Washington Redskins gleefully to pluck the All America Guglielmi.

Wilbur Ewbank, Los Angeles coach, explained his choice of Shaw, a third-string All America, over the highly touted engineer of Notre Dame's fighting Irish.

"We think Shaw is the best quarterback in the country, barring none," he said. "We know he is a great passer—he proved it with a losing team. We weren't too sure about the passing of Guglielmi because Notre Dame isn't essentially a passing team."

The Colts in their first regular pick selected Alan (The Horse) Ameche, stampeding All America fullback from Wisconsin, giving them a potent one-two punch on the ground and in the air.

Seers of the professional circuit immediately labeled Baltimore a team to be contended with in 1955. The Colts were next to last in the Western Division last fall with a 3-9 record.

The draft tightened the league considerably in my opinion," said Commissioner Bert Bell. "Baltimore and Washington particularly strengthened themselves."

Both Baltimore and Washington expect their top draft choices to be available.

The draft, delayed by careful checks of the military draft status of the various players, continued well into the night.

Today league directors concern themselves mainly with business matters and may even get their teeth into proposed rule changes by late afternoon.

The main proposal is that the ball be declared dead as soon as a player hits the ground. This is to prevent piling on. The suggestion of a seven-point touchdown is headed for the ashcan.

The question of a Canadian-U.S. peace was pigeon-holed for the remainder of the weekend after the new president of Canada's Big Four, Ralph Cooper, of Hamilton, Ont., put in a surprise appearance and announced the Canadians were bent on peaceful settlement of raiding problems.

Cowden Splits With Locals

John Cowden of Midland and Big Spring Junior High's Yearlings broke even in two basketball games played here Thursday evening.

Cowden, rallied to win the Eighth Grade game, 40-36, after trailing by 13 points at half time.

The Ninth Grade Yearlings, led by Jan Laudermilk, rambled past Cowden in the other game, 67-37.

The Big Spring Eighth Graders apparently had the game won but Midland rallied strongly against the Big Spring subs and kept going when the regulars went back into action.

Laudermilk counted 31 points, his best effort of the season, in the

Yearlings Entered In Odessa Meet

ODESSA (SC) — The two-day Odessa Junior High School Basketball Tournament gets under way here at 1 p.m. today, with the Big Spring Yearlings to meet San Jacinto of Midland in the initial game.

Four contests are on tap today. Odessa Crocket squares off with Midland Cowden at 2:30 p.m. San Angelo Lee meets Lamesa at 3:40 p.m. and Odessa Bowie goes against San Angelo Edison at 6:30 p.m.

Winner of the Bowie-Edison contest meets the survivor in the Big Spring-San Jacinto game at noon Saturday.

Should Big Spring lose, it plays again at 9 a.m. Saturday.

The Yearlings are assured of playing three games in the tournament, regardless of how they fare.

Big Spring has beaten San Jacinto twice this year and will carry a 9-3 won-lost record to the tournament but Coach Charles Caraway expects the Midland team to be troublesome.

Record Dallas Budget

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas County will have a record 12-million-dollar budget for 1955. It is up nearly $1,500,000 over 1954. A tax rate of $1.66 cents less than in force currently, was proposed.

Chihuahua Governor's Ouster Is Demanded

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Two groups have demanded the ouster of Gov. Oscar Soto Maynez from power in Chihuahua because of what they call a wide range of injustices.

Alabama Youth Is Held In Rape-Death

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (AP) — An Alabama youth will be charged with first-degree murder, Sheriff M. J. Daffin said, for stabbing and strangling a former El Reno, Okla., band queen.

The rape-slaying 10 days ago of Mrs. Lou Ellen Jones, 21, was described in detail in a statement signed yesterday by George Lowell Everett, 19, the sheriff said.

Everett, from Dothan, Ala., later told newsmen, "My conscience has about run me crazy."

The body of Mrs. Jones, mother of a 2 1/2-year-old son, was found by her husband S. Sgt. Joseph R. Jones when he returned from duty at nearby Tyndall Air Force Base the afternoon of Jan. 18.

Everett, arrested Wednesday night in Dothan, Ala., has been taken to the Raiford (Fla.) State Prison, near Jacksonville, as a precautionary measure before charges are filed, Daffin said.

The Jones moved here from El Reno about nine months ago. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pittman, Long Beach, Calif.

Negroes Lose Ruling

DALLAS (AP) — Dist. Judge Dallas Blankenship ruled yesterday against 15 Negro property owners who brought suit in 1953 charging the city of Dallas with forcing them to move "on account of race and color." The complaints grew out of action taken by the city in acquiring property for expansion of Love Field airport.

Four Youths To Be Quizzed In Gasoline Thefts Case Here

Ted Fields, who resides on Route 2, Big Spring, jotted down an auto license number last night.
This morning Sheriff Jess Slaughter and Juvenile Officer A. E. Long identified four teen-age boys who they believe have been involved in several instances of gasoline theft recently.

Sheriff Slaughter said the four were in the car which left Fields' place last night after they were surprised in the act of taking gasoline from a tractor. The sheriff said the boys, and possibly some others, are suspected of having stolen gasoline at several other places in the county in the last few weeks.

Long said he is to confer with the boys Saturday morning. They were in school today.
Thefts of gasoline from the Grantham Brothers Implement Company, Lamesa Highway, was reported last night also. The fuel was stolen from pumps at the establishment, police said.

Junior Colleges Protest Proposed State Aid Cut

AUSTIN — About 30 presidents and business managers of junior colleges met Wednesday with a House Appropriations subcommittee to protest anticipated cuts in state per capita grants for junior college students.
Dr. Thomas M. Spencer, president of Blinn Junior College, Brenham, and president of the Public Junior College Assn., outlined two main objections to the junior college appropriations set up by the Legislative Budget Board.

They were:
1. The budget, "for the first time," fails to anticipate enrollment growth.
2. Per capita appropriation is set at $50 per student for all over 600 enrolled.

Spencer pointed out that two years ago, the junior colleges' estimates of enrollment for the current biennium missed the mark by only four students.
"Spencer always has been honest with the Legislature in predicting our enrollment, and we've always been conservative," he said. "The budget for 1955 and 1956 makes no provision for enrollment jumps. Legislative budget figures for state aid to the 31 public junior colleges are:

Brother Urges 'Let God Decide'

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — George Stanley, whose 29-year-old sister admits the brutal beating of his 5-year-old son, told officers last night he didn't want her prosecuted, preferring to "leave her fate up to the Lord."

The 32-year-old unemployed father from Houston, Tex., made the statement after visiting the youngster's bedside. Physicians said the child, Lloyd George, was so badly beaten that they have doubts he will recover.

Mrs. Virginia Frances Thompson and her husband Lawrence, 32, were jailed in Pauls Valley Tuesday night. They were arrested at their farm home by officers who were tipped that the 5-year-old youngster was in serious condition.

They found his brother James Edward, 3, also had suffered mistreatment.

Mrs. Thompson said the youngsters annoyed her husband and were "always moaning and groaning."

She said the 5-year-old child is "possessed of the Devil" and that she and her husband prayed for him, but the child "wouldn't help God."

Stanley described his sister as a religious fanatic.

County Raymond Burger said he intended to prosecute Mrs. Thompson.

Switch To Loans In Aid Plan Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — A "loan" approach to foreign aid was proposed today by Rep. Passman (D-La.), head of the House Appropriations subcommittee which will handle bills carrying foreign aid funds.

Passman, who has consistently opposed the foreign aid program as a "giveaway," announced today he hopes to bring new approach to foreign aid.

What he will propose, he said, is that nations receiving U. S. aid set up a currency credit against which this country may draw at some future time.

"I would like to see this shifted from a giveaway program to a loan program," he told a reporter.

AFL Construction Unions Map Road Program Plans

By NORMAN WALKER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heads of all AFL construction unions mapped a campaign today to obtain as much work as possible for their union members under the proposed 100-billion-dollar highway building program.

The ambitious 10-year super-highway construction plan has been recommended to President Eisenhower by a civilian study commission headed by retired Gen. Lucius Clay. The President is expected to send the proposal to Congress soon.

Leaders of the AFL Building and Construction Trades Department, composed of a score of unions claiming more than two million members, are framing strategy during winter meetings here to assure as complete unionizing of the road projects as possible.

The plan, if authorized by Congress and implemented by state matching fund, will probably be the biggest single construction program in the nation for years to come.
