

Board Supports Fringe Benefits For Rail Labor

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—A presidential board today recommended that the nation's railroads give a million rail workers welfare, vacation and holiday benefits worth 150 million dollars a year.

The workers involved are clerks, yard, maintenance, construction and other non operating employees.

The board, named by President Eisenhower to head off a possible nationwide strike during the last Christmas holiday, turned down the 15 unions, most of them affiliated with the AFL, on a number of other requests and granted a half dozen employer demands.

The board, headed by former Chief Justice Charles Loring of the Minnesota Supreme Court, estimated in its report filed at the White House that the cost of its settlement recommendations would be equal to a seven or eight-cent hourly wage increase. No pay boost demands were involved in the case.

The estimated worth of the board proposals about equals the average of what unions in other industries have been getting from employers in collective bargaining. It is also similar to what the railroads have recently negotiated by the railroads for most of their 250,000 operating employees — those who run the trains.

For the nonoperating employees the board recommended:

1. Medical, hospital and surgical care insurance jointly paid for by workers and employers. Details were left to be negotiated, "with reasonable limits on benefits." The unions had asked for an employer-paid plan covering workers and their families, but the families are not included in the board recommendation.
2. An extra week of vacation. The board recommended three weeks' vacation after 15 years service, compared with the present maximum two weeks. The unions had asked for four.
3. Provision that a worker get his regular weekly pay when he works a short week or a holiday. Now a worker loses a day's pay when not working a holiday. He gets and will continue to get time and a half premium pay, in addition to regular pay, for working a holiday.

The board denied union demands for double time extra pay for holidays, for extra Sunday pay, for a minimum $3,500 employee-paid life insurance plan and a fourth week of vacation and free railroad passes for workers and their families. The carriers had put a 630-million-dollar cost estimate on all union demands.

Both industry and unions withheld any immediate comment on whether they would accept the findings. Under the law, the unions are expected to refrain from striking for at least 30 days. The terms of such board recommendations usually form a basis for a settlement in rail disputes.

Armed Forces Day qualified as just about the biggest show in the city's history. Hundreds of those from a wide area shared the celebration with us. There was something going on every minute, so superbly was the occasion managed. After seeing modern aerial equipment and the men who must supply, maintain and operate it, you had an even greater measure of pride in the Air Force — and in the rest of the Armed Forces, too.

For our own part, the Air Force let us in on a jet ride. The speed of those T-33 trainers — which lack a lot being in the class with the fast fighters and super-sonic models — is uncanny. They tell you about Gs, but not until you bear down in one of those turns do you know what they mean — and immediately resolve to work on stomach muscles a little more from now on. Suffice it to say that Capt. Earl Kellgass and his boys could fly those things right into your hip pocket if they were obliged to.

Work actually got underway on Fourth Street last week. Most of it was in the nature of clearing brush and other obstacles. Within a couple of weeks you can see this half million dollar job begin to take shape. Meanwhile, the state highway department this week will open bids on the U. S. 80 freeway west of town.

Tuesday morning's heavy and steady showers gave this area just about the best soaking it has had in years. As a result 90 per cent of the fields will be replanted, but it's just as well, for weeds would have taken the young crops anyhow. Most agree that prospects are brightest in five years, and some think you could make that 15 or even 30 for this time of the year.

A quick rundown on the lakes shows that Lake J. B. Thomas picked up four feet (8 billion gallons); Moss Creek 15½ feet to John Powell.

Airmen Decorated

Medals were presented to three Webb military personnel during the Wing Parade which started off Armed Forces Day festivities here yesterday. Receiving the awards were, left to right, Lt. Richard S. Norris, Distinguished Flying Cross; and S-Sgt. Claborn B. Spivey and A-2C Bobby E. Wolf, Soldier's Medal. The awards were made by Col. Fred M. Dean, Wing Commander. Lt. Dorrance Guy, extreme left, aided Col. Dean in the presentation. Following the presentation of decorations, Col. Dean introduced distinguished guests of the base for the day. Ten Thousand Watch Webb's Big Program

More than 10,000 West Texans got a close-up of what the armed services provide in the way of national defense during a colossal Armed Forces Day show at Webb Air Force Base Saturday.

Military and civilian officials who joined ranks to celebrate the Armed Forces Day and Webb's second anniversary pronounced the observance the biggest and best of its kind in Big Spring history.

Addresses by visiting dignitaries, the presentation of medals and other awards, and an hour-long air show highlighted the program.

There was more air power than anything else on display, but the other services were represented in exhibits set up about the base. In fact, the Army and Navy joined the Air Force in the big exhibition of air power.

On hand from the Army were a helicopter and an L21 liaison plane. The Navy had one of its latest aircraft, the FTU-3 Cutlass, on hand.

Formal program was started with a big wing review Saturday morning. It featured brief talks by Rear Admiral William Studdert; Fred Korth, former assistant secretary for the Army; and Congressman George Mahon.

Col. Fred Dean, WAFB commander, and Mayor G. W. Dabney of Big Spring presented awards to Lt. Richard S. Norris, S-Sgt. Claborn B. Spivey, A-2C Bobby Wolf, and former Marine Lt. George H. O'Brien Jr.

Lt. O'Brien, Big Spring winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor, received a gold, billfold-size "honor citizen" plaque from Mayor Dabney. The special card and a $1,500 savings certificate were presented on behalf of "the people of Big Spring," the mayor said.

Col. Dean pinned the Distinguished Flying Cross to the chest of Lt. Norris and Soldier's Medals went to Sgt. Spivey and Airman Wolf. Lt. Norris received the DFC for heroic aerial action against the enemy in Korea.

Sgt. Spivey and Airman Wolf were presented the Soldier's Medal in recognition for their action at Webb Air Force Base last June 29 when they ejected from a burning wreckage of a crashed jet in an effort to save the pilot.

In reference to the Medal of Honor won by O'Brien, Mayor Dabney told the former Marine that "it always will stand out in our memory that you gave credit to the men who fought and died by your side in Korea."

The mayor said the savings certificate from Big Spring was "in appreciation for the fine fighting spirit and devotion" shown by the young Marine.

"I deeply appreciate this, ladies and gentlemen. I don't feel that I deserve it. However, I thank you very, very much," Lt. O'Brien told the throng.

The various speakers set the mood for the big Armed Forces day show by pointing out the accomplishments made toward unification of the armed services.

Admiral Studdert, of Midland, declared that the exploits of any single branch of the service are representative of all branches. Pointing out that the unification of com-

Arkansas Women Carry On Fight Against Power Poles

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 15 (AP)—Knitting, sewing, card-playing women today carried on their determined fight to prevent the Arkansas Power and Light Co. from hoisting huge utility poles in a residential area.

Several men have jumped into the controversy — on the side of the women.

The reinforcement brought this suburban community from Mrs. Raymond Padgett, firebrand spokesman for the "Light Pole Sitters Union."

"We fought a lonely battle for awhile, but we're not lonely any more. We've got a company now, and they're beautiful."

A company construction crew managed to get up one pole yesterday for the new high voltage line through the area, despite the fact that Mrs. Padgett sat with her feet practically dangling in the hole.

The flaming women indignantly contend that the residents were not consulted about the power line. The Little Rock City Council has authorized the construction.

Mrs. Padgett said a group of neighborhood men and women sat out on their lawn throughout last night when they received a tip that the poles were going to be raised after dark.

Small groups of women today were sitting around the pole holes, playing cards, knitting, sewing and drinking coffee.

Emphasizing the union's determination Mrs. Padgett said: "I've

Reds Pour Fire Upon Key Delta Defense Bastion

By LARRY ALLEN
HANOI, Indochina, May 15 (AP)—Vietminh mortar and heavy machinegun fire poured in today on the key Red River Delta defense post of Phuly, 30 miles south of Hanoi. It looked like a prelude to a big attack there soon by the Communist-led rebel forces.

A French High Command spokesman said today the Vietminh were heavily "harassing" Phuly and were under intense attack by French fighters and bombers.

The French are reinforcing the position, a crossroads leading directly north to the city of Hanoi and to the rich rice and textiles manufacturing centers of the southeastern part of the Red River Delta.

Vietminh forces which had to flee under massive artillery fire and aerial assaults on Thursday after attempts to smash into Phuly are hastily regrouping in limestone hills all around the defense position.

The Vietminh used more than 4,000 regular troops in their first big probing attacks against the French battalions guarding Phuly and are expected to hurl in thousands more when they launch their next assault.

The Vietminh are concentrating most of their fire on Phuly at night. Fighter squadrons heavily attacked the rebels in a strip of fortified places northwest of Kasat, 25 miles southeast of Hanoi.

Thirty fighters and B-36s, Corsairs and Privateers laid down barrages of 500 and 1,000 pound high explosive bombs.

From the Kasat area the Vietminh again last night mined and blew up sections of the highway and railway linking Hanoi with the seaport of Haiphong where American war supplies for the French are landed. Two freight trains were derailed.

French army engineers, protected by tanks and armored cars patrolling the 64-mile stretch of road and railway between Hanoi and Haiphong, had both routes back in operation again by noon today.

Fighter squadrons struck at Vietminh troops advancing on a post called Anxa, just northwest of Thai Binh, which is 55 miles southeast of Hanoi.

Envoys Confer In Secret At Geneva

By LYNN HEINZELING
GENEVA, May 15 (AP)—The Western Big Three huddled secretly today to prepare a firm bid for a quick cease-fire in Indochina.

U. S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith met tonight with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden after an earlier conference with Eden and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault.

No information was released concerning the meetings but they were known to be mapping strategy for the secret sessions to be held with the Communist delegations next week.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai were believed to be opening also on strategy for the formal week ahead.

Monday's meeting will be restricted to delegation heads of the nine parties represented in the conference in Indochina and three advisers each. The delegations will be pledged to secrecy although it is possible communications will be issued.

Viet Nam's chief of state, Bao Dai, stayed his headquarters into a luxurious hotel at Evian on the French side of Lake Geneva late today to be near the conference during the decisive stage about to open.

Although French sources said they expected to lay a detailed plan for a cease-fire before the conference Monday, it was expected that several secret and restricted sessions would be required to get down to real bargaining and determine the chances of peace.

There was a general feeling of urgency about the coming talks. This was expressed particularly by a British spokesman, who said the United Kingdom felt all efforts should be directed toward stopping the shooting.

The disclosure that the United States and France were opening talks on "internationalizing" the conflict added to the tension. French sources said all future talks about a Southeast Asian engagement of NATO would be conducted in Paris and Washington.

The Americans, it was understood tonight, were not happy about the suggestion in the French plan that an "international commission" supervise the military phase of any settlement. Under this definition the Communists might seek to include Communist "neutral" states in the commission as they did in the Korean neutral nations commission.

The United States, it was said, would prefer that the United Nations be designated as the supervisory body.

War Entry Plan Awaited By U.S.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—The United States expects urgent talks now under way with France to produce a quick, concrete French proposal for American intervention in the war in Indochina.

Officials said today that while the U. S. government has advised the French of conditions on which it would consider taking action, the French government has not yet made a request for general intervention nor has it spelled out the terms on which it would like such intervention to occur.

Nor, informants here said, has the United States made any definite commitment to intervene.

American conditions for getting in include formation of a coalition of countries which would all intervene together, congressional approval of whatever course is taken, complete independence for Indochinese states and a reorganization of the French military command in Indochina. What conditions the French might require are not yet known here. They might be concerned with the extent, kind and location of American and Allied action.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles conferred at the White House for about 25 minutes today, presumably on the Indochina crisis. That was before the President left for a weekend in the Maryland mountains and Dulles for a speech at Williamsburg, Va.

Authorities here privately take a rather pessimistic view of the chances of saving Vietnam from Red domination in view of the new power shown by Communist forces in recent weeks. American officials reportedly doubt whether all the conditions can be worked out and decisions made in time for effect.

The eventual decision should be to step in.

Furthermore, the British government is committed to a negotiated settlement of the Indochinese problem at the Geneva conference — if at all possible — on what the diplomats vaguely call "honorable" terms. And at least some officials here are not sure whether the major purpose of the French government now is not a successful negotiation at Geneva rather than preparations for carrying on the war.

Baby Is Born As Tin Mine Heiress Dies

PARIS, May 15 (AP)—A daughter was born to 18-year-old Isabella Patino Goldsmith just before the Bolivian heiress' death cut short her 5-month marriage to the scion of a wealthy British hotel owner.

The baby was reported "doing very well" in an incubator today. Her birth certificate naming her Isabella after her mother was registered in the mayor's office at swank, suburban Neuilly.

The petite, dark-eyed bride died last night at Hartmann Clinic, reportedly of a cerebral hemorrhage. She had been brought there from the American Hospital across the street, where she had given birth to the baby. Friends of the family said the baby weighed five pounds.

The French News Agency said it was a Caesarean birth.

Four doctors, including a brain surgeon and an obstetrician, fought to save the youngest daughter of millionaire Bolivian tin magnate Antenor Patino. The doctors would make no comment on the case.

A friend of the Patino family said Isabella was found lying unconscious yesterday in a hallway of her Paris hotel apartment. She was rushed immediately to the American Hospital, where the baby was born soon afterward.

Hospital attendants and authorities would not say whether Isabella ever had regained consciousness before she died.

At her side when she died were her dashing 20-year-old husband, James Goldsmith, and the elder Patino who tried vainly to halt their runaway marriage in Scotland last Jan. 7.

Patino and his son-in-law were said to have had a reconciliation after the wedding. Isabella had secured several noble suitors of her father's choice to elope with Goldsmith after a 7-month romance.

TREMENDOUS OVATION Queen Is Cheered On London Arrival

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
LONDON, May 15 (AP)—London gave a rapturous welcome home today to Queen Elizabeth II.

Young Prince Charles got so excited his father had to drag him back from the rail of the royal yacht for fear he might tumble overboard.

Elizabeth was tired after her 5,000-mile 8-month tour of the British Commonwealth and she had lost weight. But she was beaming with happiness and obviously glad to be back to the comforts of home. She'll probably get a vacation next week at Balmoral, the royal retreat in Scotland.

The 28-year-old Queen and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, with their children, Charles, 3, and Anne, 2, came right to the heart of London by water. They traveled from the mouth of the Thames to Westminster Bridge by royal yacht and barge.

The royal family stood on the saluting deck of the yacht Britannia to receive a tremendous ovation from Londoners on shore.

Prime Minister Churchill, who went aboard last night, joined the family on the deck as the yacht pulled alongside the pier at London Tower. The aged statesman sat on a chair and rested his hands on a walking stick.

As the yacht pulled alongside the Tower pier, Prince Charles leaped far over the rail. The Duke hastily pulled him back. The Queen looked over the side and spoke to her husband, apparently pointing out the long fall. He looked and nodded, too.

From early morning to midafternoon it was a triumphal procession of many boats on the Thames. Millions of persons swarmed to the banks of the old river to cheer.

London's welcome was a roaring ovation—cannons booming, ship sirens' hooping, church bells ringing, and horses prancing in a stately parade to the palace.

The Queen, on entering the capital, paused at the Tower of London. There the Britanni, which brought her from Tehran, was made fast to a pier. Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret went aboard for lunch.

Then the Queen, the Duke of Edinburgh and the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret stepped across to the royal barge, with its glass-enclosed cabin. London was at its noisiest during the 20-minute trip to Westminster pier, where the official welcome took place.

Crowds outside the palace rushed to snare her several hours. Twice the Queen, Duke and the children came out to the balcony to acknowledge applause. The throng laughed as the Duke leaped up the children so they could see.

Abilene Contractor Convicted Of Fraud

LUBBOCK, May 15 (AP)—Raymond Thomason Sr., prominent Abilene building contractor, was convicted tonight on all seven counts of an indictment alleging he made fraudulent credit reports to a government agency.

A federal jury returned its verdict at 8:15. It got the case at 4:55 p. m.

Judge Joseph P. Dooley did not announce when Thomason would be sentenced.

Thomason still faces a similar indictment of four counts. U. S. Atty. General Hoover said he was arrested in that case Monday. Thomason is free on bond in the latter case.

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

One day in El Paso a Border Patrolman sighted a band of smugglers crossing the Rio Grande in broad daylight. He fell out of his old battered up sedan and leaped up an alley to intercept them.

He said the alley was so narrow that he needed only to raise his elbows to touch either side. Suddenly at the far end of this passage there appeared a big hombre with a rifle. This man whipped up his gun and the patrolman dropped to his knees as he started firing with his sixshooter with the barrel cut off to two inches.

The patrolman said he fired three of the fastest shots of his life but his target disappeared. The rifleman's one shot passed over the patrolman's head and buried itself in an adobe wall. The patrolman got to his feet and started in pursuit of the fugitive, but rounding the corner of a shack he ran smack into another coyote with a rifle. They both fired at the same time. The rifleman missed, but the patrolman's sixshooter slug slammed into the rifle at the muzzle of the stock, knocking it out of the other man's hand, and nobody was hurt.

When things quieted down a bit it was discovered that the first man who had fired his rifle at the patrolman was also a federal officer, also looking for the smugglers, and the second rifleman was a citizen that this other officer had pressed into service.

The strangest thing about it all, however, was the fact that the Border Patrolman who quit his car, ran up the narrow alley, and let go the three fast shots was Charles Askins, now a lieutenant colonel in the U. S. Army, and author of "The Pistol Shooter's Book" recently published, at $6, by the Stackpole Company of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Askins served in the Border Patrol for 10 years, for five of which he did little other than instruct other patrolmen in the use of the sixshooter. He was national pistol champion, the winner of 534 shooting medals and 147 cups and trophies, and in one year alone he fired 334,000 pistol cartridges in practice.

He admitted that on that occasion he did some of his very poorest pistol shooting but, he explained, he was mighty glad of it. But not all his combat shooting was so poor. More than just a few gun swinging contrabandists along the Rio Grande could have attempted that feat—if they had lived, to tell about it. Probably no peace officer in Texas has ever become so well known as a pistolero. In those days Askins wrote several magazine articles on pistol shooting, and in 1939 his first book, "The Art of Handgun Shooting" was published.

"The Pistol Shooter's Book" is described as "a modern encyclopedia" of pistol shooting and it is exactly that, covering all phases of the game from target punching to defense shooting and police training. Askins, incidentally, developed the Border Patrol's pistol training course, and then the FBI course was built on the patrol's plan of instruction.

It is a volume that will be especially valuable to the beginner, and even the oldtimers will be able to learn a great deal from it.

Some 15 to 20 years ago when I was doing a rather tremendous amount of sixshooter work myself, punching out rapid fire double-action targets good enough to be published in Field and Stream, and writing articles on defense shooting and fancy and trick shooting that were published in that magazine, Esquire and others, Askins was the top name among the pistolshooters in this country. He entered the Border Patrol from the Forest Ranger Service in Northern New Mexico, already an accomplished sixshooter artist, and son of Major Charles Askins Sr., of Oklahoma, who was probably the world's greatest authority on shotguns, shotgun loads and scattergun shooting.

At that time the Border Patrol, an organization that has had 20 times as many gunfights as the FBI, and that for the 10 years between 1924 and 1934 turned up a gunfight every two weeks in the El Paso area, didn't have any prescribed course of pistol training for its recruits. Askins played the major role in working this out and became the chief instructor. After having been more than just reasonably familiar with pistols and pistol shooting most of my life, I am frank to admit that this new book has taught me things. It will help any man or woman who would improve the shooting now being done, or who is interested in joining in one of the finest and cleanest sports imaginable, but one that requires a terrific amount of work so hard that it becomes downright drudgery at times. This book is the first I have ever found that completely covers the whole of the subject from top to bottom and back to the top again.

All gun nuts, rifle or pistol, will be interested in knowing, too, that Elmer Keith contributes a chapter to the volume, writing on the subject of reloading sixgun cartridges. Keith also suggests that a handloaded .44 special is twice as powerful as the .357 Magnum, a statement that has stirred up considerable comment among the shooters.

A significantly important chapter in "The Pistol Shooter's Book" is one that states a fact for its title "Gun Accidents Are Made." In this chapter he points out that even Border Patrol recruits, garnered from all over the country, had their share of accidents and had their guns so badly that the headquarters, and barracks above, were liberally plastered with accidentally-fired bullets, that patrolmen shot themselves, shot each other, blasted their own cars and generally were guilty of the most abominable kinds of gun handling. This chapter alone is worth the price of the book to anybody who handles firearms, for as the author warns: "The pistol should never be regarded as a friend, as an old pal or staunch comrade; the thing is as dangerous as a rattler and is forever lying in wait."

One of the chapters in Askins' "The Pistol Shooter's Book" was previously published in "The American Rifleman." It is by Col. A. M. Libasci of the Army Medical Corps who draws a composite of the typical, or average, American pistol champion. This picture covers age, weight, the wearing of glasses, the use of tobacco, coffee or liquor, the years of experience in match shooting, and other averages going into the makeup of the composite champion. The author drew this information from questionnaires submitted to 35 of the country's greatest pistol shooters. Jess Woody of Stanton was one of these, ranking among the top eight of the group.

West Texans who know him will also be interested in the photographs featuring Bill Toney, now chief firearms instructor for the Border Patrol.

Askins, who has had considerable experience in both fields, proves conclusively, in this volume, that defense and target shooting are not at all one and the same thing; that the target shooter cannot be counted on to get his man in a pinch, and that the surest of defense shooter is likely to completely miss a standard target at 50 feet. This book will help the sportsman and the peace officer alike, and both will like it.

IT HAPPENED

Just Any Old Time

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The trouble, the woman explained to firemen when they came roaring up, was with her washing machine. It wouldn't run. She said she didn't know what to do so she called the fire department.

Two Sides To Story

DETROIT (AP)—A showdown came Thursday in mailman Edward Foster's war of nerves with two dogs that have been snapping at his heels and growling threats at him for some time.

A police cruiser got a call: "Mailman trapped by dogs on porch." Police rescued Foster. Mrs. Dorothy Maxwell, owner of the dogs, apologized and assured Foster, "Those dogs don't bite."

"That's what you say, lady," said Foster. "Those dogs tell me different."

Long-Memored Officer Explains Mystery Wagon

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower, reminiscing last night about old Army days, mentioned a "Dougherty wagon." Most of his listeners at an Armed Forces Day dinner wondered what he was talking about.

Even white-haired colonels with years of service had forgotten or never heard of this vehicle in the days before automobiles.

But today an officer whose memory is as long as that of the former five-star general explained the seeming mystery.

A Dougherty wagon, said Maj. Gen. Gilman Mudgett whose service dates back to horse cavalry days, was the forerunner of the automobile-age station wagon—a four-wheeled vehicle, drawn by a team and used to transport officers and their baggage.

The assumption is that it was named after an Army man who devised that cross between a surrey and a freight wagon.

Stabbing Is Favor

DETROIT (AP)—Samuel Wilson stabbed Felix Hammett in the stomach and actually did him a favor, police reported. He explained it this way: The pair argued and Wilson slashed Hammett. Doctors at Detroit's Receiving Hospital looked at the wound and discovered Wilson had laid bare Hammett's appendix.

The appendix was badly infected. Doctors finished the appendectomy and the patient recovered. Wilson didn't seem to mind the 60-day jail sentence, but said he was unhappy about having to pay Hammett's $373 medical bill.

With Rhymes Yet

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—A radio signal from the Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department has been jamming West Texas police radios for two or three days. Thursday, a Lubbock officer tried to say howdy. There was complete silence, then: "All local units beware. A man from Texas is on the air!"

Driven To Drink

CINCINNATI (AP)—The ninth- inning home run that Bob Hofman of the New York Giants hit Wednesday to beat the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, figured in a shoplifting case yesterday.

Hauled into police court on a charge of stealing two sets of cuff links from a downtown store, Ray A. Moore, 54, told Judge A. L. Luebbers:

"I've never done anything like this before in my life. Judge, I was drinking and listening to the baseball game. When Hofman hit

Japanese Premier Refuses To Pose With U.S. Official

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, who is planning to go to the United States next month to discuss military aid to Japan, today refused to pose with U.S. Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson for American photographers.

The crusty Prime Minister sent his refusal to pose through a secretary who said, "you can quote the Prime Minister, he hates photographers."

Most observers said the Prime Minister apparently was talking for home consumption.

Yoshida's administration has been criticized at home for being pro-American. Refusing to pose for American photographers with an American Cabinet member would be interpreted by some Japanese as a planned insult to Americans.

However, the Prime Minister has been fighting with all photographers for the five years he has been in office.

Houston Union Meet Ends In Man's Death

HOUSTON, May 15 (AP)—A pipe-fitter's throat was slashed as death ended a turbulent union meeting here last night.

Grady W. Toler, 39, was dead on arrival at a hospital. His jugular vein was cut.

Osborne Kennedy, 45, was charged with murder. The two men are members of Pipe Fitters Local Union No. 211 (AFL).

Local Police Arrest 212 In Month Of April

Police during April arrested 212 people on charges ranging from drunkenness to murder and issued 1,503 traffic tickets, according to a monthly activity report compiled by Acting Chief M. L. Kirby.

The report also shows that fines totaling $4,420 were either paid or laid out in jail. Actual cash receipts for the month were $2,533.50.

The four patrol cars logged 18,097 miles during the month, and an estimated 1,500 calls were made to and from the police radio station.

More than half the arrests, 108, were on charges of drunkenness. Only five of these people were released without being fined. The total fines for the offense were $1,935.50.

There were 26 people apprehended for vagrancy, and 18 were arrested for creating a disturbance. Thirteen were charged with driving while intoxicated.

Individuals were also arrested on major charges of burglary, car burglary, carrying a deadly weapon, aggravated assault, interfering with an officer, destroying private property, assault with intent to murder and murder.

Traffic fines, assessed for various moving violations, totaled $1,155.50. Parking tickets paid at the window totaled $550.

Two Fined $25 Each On Theft Case Pleas

Harry Spencer and Gene A. Turner were fined $25 each in County Court Saturday when they pleaded guilty to theft charges.

The charges were filed Thursday in connection with the removal of speakers from the Jet and Terrace Theatres.

Spencer also was charged with driving while intoxicated, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $50. Court costs of $23.85 were added to each of the fines.

Local Student Wins Scholarship

Jimmie Joan Bennett, Big Spring, has been named a co-recipients of the Roscoe Wilson Memorial Scholarship award at Texas Tech.

Miss Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bennett, previously had shared in the French Embassy Medal as one of the two outstanding first year French students at Tech. Then she shared the Wilson award, which carried a total of $270, with Travis Francis of Post, who also had shared the French award with her. Both are juniors.

DO IT YOURSELF Here Is Project For Raw Beginner

By BILL BAKER
If you have never had a saw or hammer in your hand before, and if you have never attempted the interesting and practical hobby of working with wood, here is a project for you—a wheelbarrow planter box that will add a richly handsome note of charm to your lawn or backyard while training you to be a woodworker fan.

And even if you are already a skilled woodworker this project is right for you because the usefulness and beauty of this planter box can be yours for only a few minutes of workshop effort.

Unique planter boxes have a way of adding glamour to a garden that no other planting medium can offer. Flower beds and potted plants have a place in the yard, to be sure, but for that added touch of elegance you need something more. This wheelbarrow planter box is the answer.

The simple construction details of my wheelbarrow planter will appeal to you. The planting area is an empty nail barrel, obtainable for only a few cents in most lumber yards and hardware stores. In BILL BAKER'S EXTRA-SIMPLE PATTERN NUMBER 115 you'll find full details on how the top is cut to make it ready for planting.

In the pattern, too, you'll obtain actual size paper pattern pieces for all of the parts in the wheelbarrow planter box. By taping or tacking the pieces to your wood, tracing and cutting is made as simple as it is in women's dress patterns.

Only a minimum number of basic shop tools are required to make this and other items in this series. Power tools and other pieces of elaborate equipment are never needed to turn pattern into finished product.

When you receive your pattern you'll also receive a full list of materials needed, together with easy-to-understand construction directions.

When the wheelbarrow is finished you can turn artist and add some finishing details. As a suggestion, paint the planter a solid color, such as white or bright yellow. On the ends of the barrel, then, make any design in any color. This will add an extra splash of interest to an already interesting item.

So get busy—and learn how much fun woodworking can be. Order your pattern today and be on the way toward brightening your yard with your own wheelbarrow planter box.

And here's another suggestion: next week this series will feature a sensational barbecue bar-b-cue. Make a point to read about it—it's a design every reader will want for his home.

The first step necessary to add a wheelbarrow planter box to your yard is to order the pattern. Just send your name and address (clearly printed) together with only fifty cents (50 cents) in cash, check or money order, to Bill Baker, BIG SPRING HERALD, P. O. Box 1111, Los Angeles 53, California. REMEMBER TO ASK FOR BILL BAKER PATTERN NUMBER 115. Gail Planning For Visit By Lamesa Group

LAMESA, May 15 — Superintendent E. P. Stewart of the Gail School System has notified the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce that some 200 Gail residents are planning to attend the Community Visit sponsored by the Retail Merchants of Lamesa on Monday night.

Under the direction of Ernest Moody, the Lamesa merchants are planning a full evening of entertainment, visitation and refreshments. Featured on the program will be the York Sisters, Lamesa's widely known singing family; Neil Echols, pianist; and the Lamesa High School Sextette.

Skeet Noret will serve as Master of Ceremonies. E. D. David, chamber president, urges all Lamesa residents who can possibly attend the "get together" to do so. Families are invited to attend and bring the children. Special entertainment will be provided for the children. Mr. David expressed the hope that at least 100 residents of Lamesa would make the trip to Gail Monday night. The party will be held in the High School building just completed recently.

Dick Collins, chairman of the Retailers Committee, asks that all retailers plan to have a representative at the meeting. The Gail visit will be the fifth in a series of Good Will Visits made to the neighboring communities in the past six months. The program began during the Christmas holidays when trips were made to Sand, Key, Spangenberg and Welch. All residents planning to make the trip are asked to call the Chamber office, phone 2181, and make a reservation so that the committee will know approximately how many to prepare refreshments for.

Red Cross, Civil Defense Map Cooperative Emergency Plans

Officials of the local Red Cross and Civil Defense agencies here have planned a preparedness program for the Big Spring area in case of a natural disaster or an enemy-caused catastrophe.

The plan calls for cooperation between the two agencies in event of an emergency.

Representatives from the agencies decided last weekend that the Red Cross should take the lead in any program for a natural disaster relief. The Civil Defense organization will be responsible if the area is subjected to enemy attack.

This division of powers was set by Doug Orme and Jake Morgan, representing the Red Cross, and Mayor G. W. Dabney and County Judge R. H. Weaver, representing the Civil Defense organization.

It was felt by the four men that an understanding should be reached to differentiate between the governmental and nongovernmental phases of responsibility. There has been some confusion in the past as to which agency would be in charge during an emergency.

In event of a natural disaster here, the Howard-Glasscock Chapter of the American Red Cross will operate under its congressional charter to maintain an adequately organized disaster organization. During an emergency period the Red Cross would provide food, shelter, clothing and supplementary medical services to individuals affected.

Meanwhile the Civil Defense organization, which works through the government, would be responsible for protecting the public peace, health, and safety. Coordinator of civil defense here is W. D. Berry, who was appointed by the mayor and county judge to marshal the government forces.

It will be the Civil Defense organization's job to warn residents of a pending disaster, set up rescue and voluntary evacuation programs, and maintain peace. The Red Cross will assist the Civil Defense organization if needed.

The American Red Cross will provide rehabilitation assistance on a grant basis to affected families who cannot meet their disaster-caused needs if an enemy-caused catastrophe obviates any rehabilitation program.

The government is responsible for protection and care of civilians subjected to enemy attack. The Red Cross in enemy attack cases would serve under the general direction of Civil Defense or the duly authorized governmental agency.

Under the leadership of the Civil Defense, the Red Cross would assist in development and operation of a mass care program during an enemy attack emergency.

Disaster plans which are scheduled at Webb Air Force Base, Veterans Administration Hospital, Cosden, Texas Electric, T&P Railway, and other establishments would not interfere with the overall plans being set up by the Red Cross and Civil Defense. It is believed. These plans would complement the overall program.

In case of an emergency, a central commission to handle all contributed funds would be made up of Mayor Dabney, Judge Weaver, Orme, Morgan, Berry and a few others. This way a central commission would assure no waste in money.

SUDDEN UNCERTAINTY

Reporter Suffers Loss When Jet Pitches Out For Landing

By CLIFTON LAWHORNE

When time came for the pitchout on our jet airplane ride Saturday, I began to wonder if that trip was really necessary. For it was on the pitchout that I pitched up. Just a few minutes before I had come through a period of what the pilots called acrobatics without any ill effects. And I was just congratulating myself on weathering the "storm" when it happened.

wasn't it" as we passed over Big Spring to start our journey. We were at Lamesa before we could get used to the seat we were occupying, and Brownfield and Levelland followed in close order. We made wide banking turns around the cities and continued on our journey to Reese Air Force Base, where we buzzed the field during Armed Forces Day celebration there. Then we circled the skies above Lubbock, headed out for Plainview, circled back to Littlefield, crossed Lubbock again and headed to Slaton.

planes headed for Webb. We "buzzed" the field at about 400 miles per hour, taking out again for a few more "rollish" turns and the final pitchout—pitchup. Entire flight time was an hour and eight minutes. The pilots gave the four of us every consideration during the flight, explaining the workings of the aircraft and answering any questions we put to them. They didn't even fall out with us when we monopolized the radio in a four-way "passenger" conversation.

Actually we were invited to take the ride in connection with Armed Forces Day celebration at Webb. Young and Kimble represented KBST, and Pickle and myself represented The Herald. Part of the ride was broadcast, with all of us taking a turn at the mike. Capt. Earl L. Kielgass, who was Pickle's pilot, was in command of the flight, and his ship led the others off the field at 10:58 a.m. We were all off the ground and ready to go by 11. My own ship, which was piloted by Lt. John F. McCloskey, was the third to take off in the flight of four.

Issue Taken With Account On Kate Morrison Hedge

Dear Sir: The following is submitted in rebuttal and self defense in connection with two articles that have appeared in your paper within the past few days. board are readily followed. The initiative and integrity of the Latin American people who are interested in the improvement of our school has been deeply hurt because of this incident. It has been only a short time since a compliment was paid this organization for its efforts in raising $1,000 towards the building of a fence around the school ground. The compliment was in view of the fact that destruction to school property, through vandalism, which ran into thousands of dollars, was cut down to three broken window panes since the fence was erected. We do not, by any means, feel that we can do as we please simply because we have contributed financially or through personal sacrifice towards our school, as was implied in one of the articles and surely we are cognizant of the fact that in order to maintain uniform control over schools within our district the decisions and instructions of the board must be strictly adhered to at all times. It is my honest and sincere belief that we have in no way, ever, willfully or with intent, disregarded said instructions.

55 Boys Register For Local Soap Box Derby Due July 4th

As the entry list closed Saturday, the local phase of the Soap Box Derby had 55 boys registered. That means a great show on July 4th, when boys will race for local prizes and the chance to go to Akron, Ohio and compete in the All-American Derby. And the boys—from 11 to 15 years—were already busy shaping up speedy machines. They all use official set of wheels, then are free, within certain limitations, to design the rest of the car. But they have to do all the work themselves. So the sound of hammer and plane may be heard all around the city the next few weeks. Members of the Lions Club, which is sponsoring the event along with Tidwell Chevrolet Co. and The Herald, will make up a list of sponsors this week and assign sponsors to boys. Sponsors will have their

220 Drivers Are Reported To CTC For Violations

There were 220 drivers reported to the Citizens Traffic Commission during April for violating safety rules, while only 65 were reported for courteous practices. The reports were made by members of the CTC Safety-Man Committee, which is headed up by Roy Reeder. Most common violation reported was speeding (52 instances). Other offenses were running a stop sign, 33; running a red light, 31; reckless weaving, 17; no arm signal, 16; illegal left turn, 15; cutting ahead of a vehicle, 14. Running a flashing red light, 6; disregarding pedestrians, 6; turning from wrong side of street, 6; going on wrong side of one-way street; illegal parking, 9; passing on viaduct, 1; defective headlights, 9; double parking, 2; and making U turns, 7. Twenty drivers were cited for courtesy as a result of volunteering right-of-way to another vehicle, and 34 were commended for extraordinary use of signals. Other courteous reports were volunteering right-of-way to pedestrians, 6; displaying unusual caution near school zone, 2; obeying speed limit in school zone, 6; displaying proper caution at intersections, 5; and avoiding accident by unusual skill, 2. Letters are written to the owners of all cars reported for violations or courtesy by CTC executive secretary, George Oldham.

Myrick Gets 2-Year Term

A jury found DeWayne Myrick guilty of theft Friday and fixed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary. Thomas Ray Taylor and Donald Eugene Robinson, who were convicted on robbery charges earlier in the week, accepted sentence Friday. Each was sentenced to 15 years in prison by District Judge Charlie Sullivan. There were three other criminal trials completed during the week. Juan Miller was found guilty of assault with intent to murder and was assessed two years in the penitentiary. George Kean and Herbert Cochran pleaded guilty to charges of breaking and entering. Juries set Kean's punishment at two years imprisonment and gave Cochran a five-year suspended sentence. Myrick was charged with stealing a water well drillbit and three pump bases from city property. Also charged with Myrick were William McNew and James Wren, but Judge Sullivan granted severance for trial of the cases. Several civil suits are set for non-jury trials in 118th District Court this week.

Peso Devaluation May Bring More Tourists, Less Profit

By JACK RUTLEDGE
MEXICO CITY, May 15 (AP)—The recent devaluation of the peso may bring Mexico more tourists but fewer dollars than last year. Officials believe the sharply increased buying power of the dollar will lure more vacation visitors south of the border—possibly a record 450,000 compared with last year's 385,843. But they estimate tourists can get by on about 25 per cent less than before the peso was devalued from 2.05 to 12.50 to the dollar, raising the possibility visitors won't spend as much as before. It's a benefit to both tourists and Mexico. The visitors can buy and see more for less, and even if Mexico's tourist dollar income drops a bit, overall sales of Mexican goods would mount. Ricardo Estrada Berg, director of the Mexican Tourist Assn., optimistically predicts the 450,000 figure, which would top the former 1951 record of around 430,000. Estrada Berg said it is still too early to estimate the exact effect of devaluation on tourists. The drastic monetary move was taken less than a month ago—April 17. What can tourists expect in Mexico now? Well, the government is doing all it can to control prices of the things they spend money on—hotels, gasoline, food, the gadgets to take home. Hotels, always cheap by American standards, on the whole are still charging approximately the old rates, which means they're about 44 per cent cheaper than before devaluation. Gasoline, over which the government has complete control, still sells for 50 centavos a liter for top grade gas, 40 centavos for standard. This figures out at about 10 cents a gallon super, and less than 13 cents standard, which is good enough for most cars. Train fares within Mexico are still on the old basis, and a trip from Laredo to Mexico City on the luxurious Artec Eagle is cut-rate bargain these days. Inter-Mexico plane fares also are under control and have not been raised yet, although a flight from somewhere in the United States to Mexico has been increased to balance the peso devaluation. There are reports domestic flight fares may go up 20 per cent in a few weeks. The package tours in Mexico are cheaper. For example, one which used to cost $125 now can be made for $115. Guides charge about the same, but curbs have gone up. However, haggling over prices, which was on the decline, is now on the upgrade because many dealers know they're upping prices more than they should and expect an argument. Restaurants, except the few operated by the Mexican Tourist Assn., have boosted prices and average of about 10 per cent—some more. Those controlled by the association still charge the same. And many which have kept their increases low offset things by serving less. This is really a blessing in disguise, for some served too much and tourists overate. For those who like liquor, the outlook is not so bright. Prices of all imported drinks soared.

KNOW YOUR COURTS
The District Court is the highest trial court in the Texas judicial system. It has jurisdiction in civil matters from $500.00 to any amount over that figure. It has exclusive jurisdiction over the granting of divorces, together with child custody and maintenance. As to criminal matters, it has jurisdiction over all felonies. A felony is a crime that may be punishable by a term in the penitentiary. Whereas, all other crimes are considered misdemeanors even if punishable by a jail sentence. Appeals are not made from the County Court to the District Court either in criminal or civil matters. It is true, however, that in probate matters had in the County Court without a jury, usually they are appealed direct to the District Court for a jury trial. All appeals from the District Court in civil cases go direct to the Court of Civil Appeals. The hearing in the Court of Civil Appeals is purely upon law problems based on alleged errors of the procedure in the Trial Court. The case appealed may be affirmed; it may be reversed and sent back for another trial; it may be reversed and rendered; and sometimes it is dismissed for want of jurisdiction. An appeal from the Court of Civil Appeals is direct to the Supreme Court of Texas only in certain cases. An appeal to the Supreme Court does not exist as a matter of right. The applicant, for a writ of error to the Supreme Court, must apply for permission to have his case filed and considered by the Supreme Court. So we see that it is very important to have a most able attorney as a Judge in the District Court. A correct trial in the District Court eliminates to some extent a lot of court costs and a long continued adjudication. This discussion is continued to next week.

The Conservation Of Soil And Water Is The Conservation Of Human Life

Mankind Must Have Food And Fiber — Food And Fiber Cannot Be Produced On Wind Or Water Eroded Land

Man is a land animal. He can leave the land for periods of relatively short duration—to go to sea in ships and fly through the air in planes. But to make even these brief excursions he must obtain the materials from the land with which to fashion his ships and planes. His reprieve from the land is limited by the amount of fuel for his engines and food for himself that he can bring from the land, and soon he must return to replenish both.

His habitat is the surface of the earth. Even when he bores in the bowels of the earth for ore and coal he is dependent upon food from the surface. He is bound to the surface of the earth as if he were an integral part of it, and he is actual an integral part of it.

The material part of man is formed of a dollar-or-so's worth of chemicals which come from that thin, superficial layer of the earth's surface called the soil, except for those portions of the oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen and carbon which come from the free air and water. Man's body is derived from the soil and goes back to the soil when he lies down in death, and during the span of his life the soil sustains it.

That is why we say: The Conservation Of The Soil Is The Conservation Of Human Life.

That is why we repeat: Man Must Have Food And Fiber And This Essential Food And Fiber Cannot Be Adequately Produced From Eroded Land.

That is why we urge the conservation of West Texas soil.

Soil erosion is severe in West Texas. Our situation is serious. Soil Conservation Service surveys show that erosion has removed more than three-fourths of the topsoil from more than 60 million acres of land on farms and ranches, and that nearly as large an acreage has lost from one-fourth to three-fourths of its topsoil. Slighter erosion has occurred on almost as much more land.

Erosion destroys more than soil. It cripples agriculture and weakens the whole economic social structure. The billions of dollars wasted by erosion costs is a needless price to pay for wasted soil, declining crop yields, abandoned farms, flood losses, railroad and highway damage, reduced capacity of water reservoirs, and other losses. Payment for this waste comes from everyone's pocket.

Better Crops, Protected Land (Left)

Rotation strip cropping on the contour, such as this with six rows of Blue Panic Grass alternating with 12 rows of cotton, both protects and enriches the land while producing more beautiful crops and giving the farmer eventual grazing for his cattle. The grass strip also helps hold rain where it falls thus providing more moisture not only for the grass itself but for the cotton. This is far different from a field of straight cotton, and the wind erosion that can be expected to follow.

The Return Of The Native Grasses (Right)

This is West Texas rangeland returned to native and imported grasses, among them Blue Grama, Weeping Lovegrass and King Ranch Bluestem. For conservation, the stabilization of the agricultural economy, and the preservation of the soil, hundreds of thousands of acres of West Texas land should never have been plowed and should now be returned to grass before it is too late. Beef, mutton and wool are profitable crops as well as cotton. The West Texas climate is ideal for livestock farming, and all that is needed is more grass and feed crops for finishing out.

Save Every Drop Of Water Where It Falls (Left)

The land on the right was treated with a range pitting machine such as Soil Conservation Districts make available to ranchers at a small rental. The land on the left was not pitted. A rain finally came. The pits held every drop of water that fell in that area, while most of the rain that fell on the range to the left was runoff and the rancher lost the benefit of it. On the pitted range penetration was deep, while on the unpitted area the rain wet the ground down only a few inches because of the hard crust on the surface. Range pitting will grow grass because it will provide water, and range pitting is not an expensive practice.

Proof That Guar Grows Cotton (Right)

This entire West Texas cotton field was planted at the same time and all parts of it received the same amount of rain. On the land in the foreground where the men are standing cotton was planted following cotton. To the right rear of the men was a 10-acre patch of the field that had been planted to Guar the year before. Where cotton followed cotton a stand wasn't gotten. The 10 acres that had been in Guar the year before produced a good crop, the drought considered. Guar adds nitrogen and organic matter to the soil and holds down wind erosion. Soil without nitrogen and organic matter can't grow good cotton. Here is the proof of what conservation farming will do.

Topsoil is priceless. It is usually only a few inches thick. Nature requires from 300 to 1,000 years to build one inch of it; yet one rain can remove as much as one inch of this topsoil from an unprotected field.

Crop yields decline as soil erosion progresses. Farm income, buying power and living standards drop. Country stores, towns and cities lose business. Soils depleted of plant nutrients cannot produce foods having the mineral and vitamin content of those grown on fertile soils. Examinations of men called for service in the Armed Forces have proved that there is a direct relationship between the health of the people and the land in the region in which they live.

Remember—The soil which sustains life lies in a thin layer of an average of seven or eight inches over the face of the land; the earth beneath it is as dead and sterile as the moon. That thin film of topsoil is all that stands between man and extinction. Man's hold upon existence is very tenuous.

Erosion is damaging 94 per cent of Texas cropland; 93 per cent of Texas grazing land; 66 per cent of Texas woodland, and 83 per cent of Texas idle land. There is hardly a ranch or farm in Texas wholly free from the ravages of erosion.

But this need not be true. Erosion can be reduced to the barest minimum, if not entirely prevented, through the use of approved and proven soil conservation practices.

That is why we take this occasion to urge all farmers and ranchers to utilize these proven and approved practices such as range pitting, soil management, cover crops, contour farming, strip cropping, stubble-mulch tillage, terracing, rotation grazing, mechanical land treatment, and other practices.

All this is why we urge the co-operation between all farmers and ranchers, and those friends and neighbors who are the members of the Board of Supervisors of the Soil Conservation Districts. All this is why we urge all farmers and ranchers to take advantage of the opportunities for technical assistance offered them by the specialists of the Soil Conservation Service.

"In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return."

SWC Votes Against Adding Members

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
WACO, May 15 (AP)—The Southwest Conference decided emphatically today it wanted no school to crack the tight barrier against expansion that has held for more than 30 years.

Texas Tech, the most persistent applicant; University of Houston, a bustling young school knocking on the door six years, and Oklahoma, which has been silent on the subject more than a year, were voted down through a system of tabling motions. Thus the conference faculty committee ended its spring meeting. Obviously, the conference was further away from inviting Texas Tech to membership than it was last year when the South Plains school got four votes. This time it could not muster more than three and may not have received that many. Five are needed.

DeWitt Weaver, athletic director of Texas Tech who has conducted a strong campaign to get his school into the 7-member league, said "we will keep on trying" and added Texas A&M was the key to the situation this time.

He named Paul (Bear) Bryant, the new athletic director and head coach at A&M, for causing A&M to reverse its vote. The Aggies were for Texas Tech at the conference meeting last spring in Fort Worth but Weaver said A&M didn't vote for Tech this time. Bryant, he explained, didn't want Tech in the conference because he thought it would mean stronger competition for A&M in getting West Texas schoolboy athletes.

W. L. Penberthy, A&M faculty representative, did not reveal the A&M vote; in fact, he left before anybody could ask him.

The University of Texas faculty representative, Dr. Gus Hodges, introduced a motion to invite Texas Tech. But a motion was made by some other and unidentified school to include University of Houston in the motion. The proposed amendment did not get a

LEopard TIES 880 RECORD

Leon Lepard, ACC's stellar half-mile runner from Big Spring, tied the conference record in the 880 in Abilene Friday, when he covered the distance in 1:55.1.

The record is held by W. C. Burns of Howard Payne and was set in 1932.

Lepard made his run in the annual Texas Conference Meet. ACC was competing as a member for the last time. Leon is a senior.

Dan Owens of Howard Payne ran a shoulder-to-shoulder race with Lepard until the last 75 yards when Leon came up. The Big Spring lad ran on the winning mile relay team, which covered the four laps in 3:19.1. ACC won the meet easily, scoring 85 points.

Braves, Snyder Tangle Today

The Big Spring Braves, a local Negro sandlot team, invade Snyder today for a baseball exhibition with the Snyder Black Tigers. Game time is 3 o'clock.

Either Allen Earl Gilbert or Retha Marshall will be the slab for the Braves. Billy Weatherall will do the catching.

The Braves have won one of three games to date.

The local team plays its next home game next Sunday, at which time it hosts Sweetwater.

Meet The Broncs

JULIO DE LA TORRE Infielder

Brooklyn Wins Over Cardinals

BROOKLYN, May 15 (AP)—Carl Erskine shut out St. Louis with two hits today 1-0 as Brooklyn scored the only run in the second inning on Ray Jablonski's two base error and Billy Cox's single. Erskine retired 17 Cardinals in succession from the third to the eighth.

The last school taken into the conference was Texas Christian-back in 1922. Since 1925 the league has had its present seven members SMU, TCU and Arkansas.

Principal objections against taking in new members are that this might destroy the present system of a round-robin in football and that it would cut out some highly attractive inter-sectional games as played by the conference members. Also, there is the question of Tech offering more competition for athletes if it were in the conference but Weaver said today this was a false premise, that "We already are getting the West Texas boys."

Decided no conference basketball team can play in a post-season tournament other than the NCAA. This obviously was aimed at the National Invitation Tournament in New York.

Took away one year of varsity eligibility for John (Sonny) Ray, Texas A&M freshman last fall, because he received a loan from an A&M alumnus to make a down payment on an automobile. The alumnus' name was not revealed. Ray left A&M at the end of the fall semester because of scholastic ineligibility. The conference decided that if he returned to A&M and re-established his eligibility he could compete only two varsity seasons. If he goes to another member school it will be the same. Ray is from Corpus Christi and is an end.

It was explained that a loan of more than $150 is not allowed and that to get an allowable one a boy would have to be in school a semester.

Texas A&M was picked as the site of next fall's cross-country meet and Houston for the 1935 spring meet, the latter contingent, however, upon Houston having the proper facilities for televising the track meet in the event some sponsor wanted to televise. If not the meet will be at Austin.

The NCAA asked the conference to designate a representative each year for the baseball playoffs and the conference decided it would do so. So a system of selection was set up whereby ties for the championship would be settled either by whether one team had defeated the other more times during the regular season or through the flip of a coin.

In basket ball the NCAA representative will come through the same plan as to ties or through playoffs.

The committee discussed reports of violations of the rule banning high school athletes going to alumni dinners. It was explained an athlete could be taken to such dinners by an alumnus, who pays the expenses, only if the banquet is in the city where the institution the alumnus represents is located.

It was decided that spring football practice can spread its 18 sessions over 28 calendar days instead of 25 as at present, the change being made to give more leeway with bad weather.

Chicagoans Snap 6-Game Winning Streak Of Giants

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Wild throws by Willie Mays and Jim Hearn in the sixth inning helped the Chicago Cubs snap the New York Giants' six-game winning streak today, 4-3, behind Johnny Klippstein's steady three-hit pitching.

Although the Cubs rapped Jim Hearn and Hoyt Wilhelm for 11 hits to the Giants' three, they needed the Giant errors to come from behind.

The Giants led, 3-2, on Jim Hearn's two-run, inside the park homer in the third and Whitey Lockman's homer in the fifth until the Cubs rallied in the sixth to chase Hearn.

Ralph Kiner started Hearn's troubles with a single. After Ernie Banks popped out, the run started. Joe Garagiola singled to right center, moving Kiner to third but Mays' throw, trying to nip Kiner, got past Hank Thompson.

Hearn, who was backing up the play at third, threw wildly to the plate as Kiner scored and Garagiola came all the way around to third. Klippstein's single drove home Garagiola with the tie-breaking run.

Odessans Romp On Big Spring Broncs, 11-4

Odessa, making threatening gestures at moving out of the Longhorn League cellar, put an eight-hit pitching job by the veteran Wes Ortiz to humble the Big Spring Broncs, 11-4, here Friday night.

Three Big Spring hurlers saw action, with starter Larry Cummins absorbing the loss.

Cummins did reasonably well until the seventh, when the Odessans kicked over the traces for six runs.

They followed that with a three-run eighth.

Ortiz was hit fairly hard when the Broncs did tag him, but that wasn't nearly often enough. Five of the eight blows he surrendered went for extra bases.

Tony Martinez, Big Spring first sacker, was the leading hitter of the evening with a triple and a brace of two-baggers.

Huck Doe, playing his first home game in a Big Spring uniform, performed very ably behind the plate, met the ball well every time he came to the dish and drove in the final two Big Spring tallies with a triple in the eighth.

Big Spring got off to a one-run lead in the first and the Odessans had to wait three innings to knot matters.

Bobby Fabian drove in what proved to be the 'go-ahead' run for Odessa in the seventh with one of his three singles. The Odessans dispatched 11 men to bat in the big seventh.

RAMBLING AROUND — Earl Caldwell, Odessa catcher, slammed a change-up pitch thrown in by Cummins for two bases and a run that put Odessa temporarily ahead in the sixth. Tony Martinez made a fine stop of Bob Bauer's ground ball down the first base line in the first, then crawled to the bag to beat the runner. ... Manager Barney Batson of Odessa put up quite a bowl over a play at first base in the Oiler part of the first inning, when Paul Weeks was called out in a close play. ... Martinez, after doubling in the first inning to drive home a run, tried to make it to third on a ball hit to shortstop but was tagged out on the end of a double play.

Mike Rainey, pinch hitter for Orlando Perdomo in the seventh, dribbled a hit just past shortstop. ... Each catcher threw out a would-be base thief—Doe, when he arrested Dan Pace in the sixth and Caldwell, when he caught Bob Martin in the same inning.

BLAZ BAILON

INDIANS HOST LAMESA RED SOX AT 3:30 P. M.

Blaz Bailon's Big Spring Indians seek their first baseball victory of the 1934 season here today, meeting Lamesa's Red Sox in a 3:30 p.m. engagement at the North Side Park.

The Warriors were shaded by the Sox last time out, 12-8, but Bailon says the Indians are in better shape for this one.

Jimmy Fierro, one of three Fierro boys on the club, will probably hurl for the locals. Ray Laos will do the catching.

Among veterans with the Indians are Elias Bambo, for a number of years a regular infielder on the Big Spring Tigers; and Gus Fierro, who played with the team.

Bailon is seeking other games to fill out his team's schedule. He said the Indians would like to play every Sunday, if possible.

FOOTBALL LINEUP Coahoma, Stanton Schedule Toughies

The family tussles in District 4-A football play get under way with the Sundown-Coahoma contest at Coahoma on Friday night, Oct. 1.

All eight teams in the circuit see action the following weekend. Play will continue through Nov. 15.

Sundown is the defending champion and one of the favorites to repeat. However, strong competition is due to come from Stanton, where Melvin Robertson is mounding a rugged, heavy eleven.

Coahoma is the newcomer to the circuit, having been elevated from District 6-B. The Bulldogs went all the way to the Regional finals in 1933.

Coch Fred Salling lost some key men but the Bulldogs should be fairly strong next fall.

The Coahomans will play non-conference games with Stanton, Osoma and Grandfalls before plunging into conference play.

Stanton has non-conference tilts booked with McCassey, Pecos and Fort Stockton.

The schedules (several teams have not completed their non-conference cards):

Oct. 1—Denver City at Sundown; Morton at Pecos; Stanton at Coahoma; McCassey at Stanton; Stanton at Coahoma.

Dakotans Return With Best Hands

ABILENE, Tex., May 15 (AP)—South Dakota State College, winner of the 1933 NAAIA track and field championship, will return with four of the five men who scored the victory when the meet is held here June 4-5.

Strongest challenger to South Dakota State for team honors is Abilene Christian College, 1932 champion. Coach Oliver Jackson's nationally prominent Christians won triple crown honors at the Texas, Kansas and Drake relays this year.

Last year South Dakota scored 48 points at A&M's 42 in the NAAIA.

Yankees Humble Detroiters To Keep Pace With Leaders

DETROIT, MAY 15 (AP)—The aroused New York Yankees swept to their fifth straight victory today, hammering out a four-run lead in the first inning and defeating the Detroit Tigers 7-5 before 27,155 in Briggs Stadium.

Tigers Launch Lone Star League Play At Odessa

With the size of the league still indefinite, the Big Spring Tigers launch Lone Star circuit play in Odessa at 2 p.m. today.

Two games are on tap but only the first one will count in circuit standings. Manager Yves Yanes of the Tigers requested a second game, booking in order to give all his boys a chance to see action.

He now has 20 players working out.

Yanes said the team was available for games with sandlot nines anytime during the week and the Tigers' own diamond on the north side of town could be used.

Indications are the league will go with six teams but as many as eight could take out membership. Yanes stated Eddie Hammond, league president, who headquarters in Odessa, was still hopeful of getting a Sweetwater team.

Steve Gallegos, former pro player, will probably hurl the opening game for the Bengals. Jack Rodgers, who had tryouts with both Midland and Abilene this spring, is set to hurl the afterpiece for Big Spring.

Junior Dutchover will don the catching harness for the Tigers. Gus Sherman will be at first base. Fred Gallindo at second; Jay Hill at shortstop, either Jackie Jen-

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

At this writing, the three New Mexico clubs in the Longhorn League—Artesia, Carlsbad and Roswell—appear to be in a class by themselves while San Angelo and Midland look capable of scrapping it out for the fourth playoff spot. It's a long time between now and September, however. When Sweetwater recently acquired its Longhorn League franchise from Wichita Falls, a Sweetwater party wined Bud: We are sorry to learn that Wichita Falls has lost its ball club, but we understand you were about the only fan the team had. . . . Bud formerly worked for the Sweetwater paper. . . . Tom Arista has rejoined the Big Spring Tigers, the oldest baseball club in Big Spring. . . . He had been playing with another local sandlot bunch. . . . Arista could always keep up with the best of them defensively and his steady bat will help the Tiger attack too. . . . Andrews' success in the State Meet last weekend should be a tipoff on how tough the Mustangs will be on the football field next fall. . . . The Ponies won their division and their track team is practically made up of gridgers, many of whom return this fall. . . . Big Spring opens with Andrews this fall, by the way. . . . That crackerjack junior high footballer mentioned here some time ago definitely is moving to Lubbock after school is out but Big Spring is gaining a fine prospect in Wayne Fields, who is only 15 but who is already a tremendous (and big) all-around athlete. . . . Fields, a brother to the 1952 Big Spring High School baseball team, was the most talked-about Little League baseballer in New Mexico last year. . . . He's now in the Elbow school. . . . The turf at Steer Stadium is still in bad shape and is in need of reworking, especially in the center of the field. . . . If something isn't done about it, it's going to be as hard as asphalt this fall. . . . Here's something for local civic leaders to think about: Three professional baseball clubs—Roswell, Odessa and Carlsbad—are quartered here this weekend, spending money for hotels, meals and etc. . . . In short, pro baseball is spending more money locally than it is taking in.

Fuller Was In Fast Heat At Austin

Big Spring's Bobby Fuller ran his fastest mile in the State Meet at Austin last weekend, covering the distance in 4:41.3 (his best previous time was 4:41.3) but failed to place. . . . He was in the fastest heat and crossed the finish line in seventh place. . . . Fuller had been running in the other heat, he would have wound up second but still run 'out of the money', since the six boys placing all competed in the other group. . . . The experience should do wonders for the Big Spring sophomore, however. . . . Fuller covered the first lap in 33.4 seconds, followed with a 59.1, completed the third 44.0 in 73.3 and ran the last lap in 76.5. . . . Most of the youngsters he was running against were seniors. . . . He should be one of the state's very best next year. . . . Incidentally, Harlingen's Leonard Penney, in winning the Class AA mile, covered the first 800 in 2:03.4. . . . Many a half-mile in schoolboy races is won in slower time. . . . Glen Grooms, Big Spring's leading hurler last year (8 wins, 11 losses) broke even in his first two starts for Pauls Valley in the Sooner State League this season. . . . Will Rawdell, the former Big Spring hurler, is having his troubles in the Western Association. . . . His Lola club lost its first eight games. . . . Brownsville, which is being promoted to Class AAAA of the Texas Intercollegiate League this fall, has a football stadium well on the way toward completion that cost $400,000. . . . It seats 10,000. . . . Oklahoma's name was banded about as a possible entry into the Southwest Conference but the odds of its admittance were very much against it. . . . For one thing, the Sooners dominate their own circuit year after year. . . . For another, they've booked their Big Seven games as far in advance as 1952.

Bolling Brothers Have Kin Here

Dick Stone, the Sweetwater infielder, has twin brothers playing for the Wichita Falls High School baseball team. . . . Dick himself was acquired by Wichita Falls before the city lost its Longhorn League franchise to Sweetwater but never had an opportunity to perform before the home folks. . . . Milt and Frank Bolling, two of the more promising players in the American League, are cousins to Mrs. William (Sandy) Greenlee of Our Town. . . . Sandy is City Judge here. . . . Milt plays shortstop and leads off for the Boston Red Sox. . . . Frank plays first base for Detroit. . . . The two hall from Mobile, Ala. . . . Joe Pearce, the first sacker Midland recently optioned to Baton Rouge, state 42 bases for Panama City in 1951. . . . There's playing ball under Chase Riddle, presently one of the most respected sluggers in the Big State League. . . . No doubt about it, Big Spring has the most lighted park in the Longhorn League. . . . Eddie Jacobs is back in Midland pitching for a semi-pro nine there and serves as insurance for the Midland Indians, in case he's needed. . . . He's one of eight former Longhorn League players performing for a club known as the Tri-Service Drillers. . . . German fighters are coming to these shores in increasing numbers to fight for American gold and glory. . . . Pete Simone, the Carlsbad infielder, shortened his name from Simone to Sim. . . . He's Polak, the Pat Laughton, Carlsbad's manager, says he has no complaints about attendance. . . . His team has been averaging about 1,000 paid admissions a night and he thinks business will get better. . . . There's nothing wrong with Pat's team, now that Elias Osorio is back from San Francisco.

Williams Hitless As Orioles Win

BALTIMORE, May 15 (AP)—The first two appearances at the plate of Ted Williams failed to avert a 3-1 defeat today for the Boston Red Sox by the Baltimore Orioles in a pitching battle between winner Joe Coleman and Truman Clevenger. Williams, after missing the first 18 games with a shoulder he fractured March 1 on his first day of spring training, filed and grounded out in two times at the plate. He also played left field in the eighth inning and had no chances after coming in as a pinchhitter in the seventh. The setting was fittingly dramatic when the 35-year-old slinger appeared. Harry Agganis was on first with the tying run for the Red Sox and none out. Williams, after two slow fouls down first base and a missed swing, then fled out to left field and Agganis was stranded. In the ninth, Williams made the last out of the game by grounding to second baseman Bobby Young who threw him out. Manager Lou Boudreau called off plans to start Williams on account of the rain-drenched outfield. Boudreau said he didn't want to take any chances on another injury to the star, no matter how badly the Red Sox needed him. Without Williams, the Sox now have lost 13 out of 19 games and are in the American League cellar.

Marti Holds Lead In Abilene Tourney

ABILENE, May 15 (AP)—Houston professional Elroy Marti carved out a three-under-par 68 here today to hold his lead at the 36-hole total of the $5,000 Abilene Open golf tournament with a 133 total. Tied in second place were Chicago's Bob Rosburg and Bo Winger of Oklahoma City, one stroke behind. Freddie Hawkins of El Paso, defending Texas PGA champion, scored an even-par 71 today to tie with Ralph Bloomquist of Glendale, Calif., and Sam Schneider of Houston at the next spot with 137s. Buster Cupit, Greggion, had a 138. So did Abilene Amateur Ed Hopkins. At 139 was Kenneth Wright of Clovis, N.M. Gardner Dickinson of Palm Springs, Calif., Mabron Harris of Stillwater, Okla., and Gene McBride of Wichita Falls tied at 140. Former National Amateur champion Billy Maxwell of Abilene and Odessa, now a corporal at Fort Hood, fired a two-under-par 68 today to tie with four other professionals and amateur Ernie Vossler of Fort Worth at 141.

Rookie Outfielder Will Join Broncs

Dennis Elasser, a rookie outfielder, has been optioned to Big Spring by Albuquerque of the WT-NM League. Elasser is due to join the Broncs before they complete their home stand.

Angelo Ace

One of the top hurriers on the mound staff of the San Angelo Colts, who meet the Big Spring Broncs at 3 o'clock here today, is Angelo Ace.

Pale Hose Win In 9th Inning

CHICAGO, May 15 (AP)—Carl Sawatski smashed a single over Gus Zernial's head with two out in the ninth inning today, scoring Bob Boyd with the winning run as the Chicago White Sox shaded the Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 6 before 10,331 fans.

Snead Builds 'Unbreakable' 34-Point Lead

WESTBURY, N. Y., May 15 (AP)—Sam Snead made a mockery of the Meadow Brook Round Robin golf tournament today by shooting a four-under-par 66—best round of the week—to stake himself to a virtually unbreakable 34-point lead. Now only a miracle can keep the 41-year-old Masters champion from clinching his third Round Robin title tomorrow, and the miracles, it seems, are on Sam's side. Snead's 32-34—66 over the 6,640-yard, par 35-35-70 course, piled up 19 additional points in his favor for a grand total of 53 plus points. This left the third round runnerup, Jimmy Demaret, and others in the field 16 far in arrears. Demaret, nine points back of the 51 runner starting today's fourth round, eked to a 75 and lost 11 points, throwing him back into fourth place in the standings. Snead's closest challengers going into the fifth and final round were defending champion Cary Middlecott, and Young Jackie Burke Jr., each with 18 plus points. Demaret followed with 113. Snead and Middlecott are head-to-head in the final round, along with Marty Furgol and Australia's Peter Thomson. To show the virtual impossibility of the task, Middlecott would have to pick up 18 strokes on Snead in the 18 holes to beat him. Following the pace-setters in the standings are tiny Bob Tooni of Livingston, N. J., plus 12 points; Peter Thomson of Australia, who shot a 66 for plus 11; former Open champion Lloyd Mangrum, plus 7; Doug Ford, plus 4; and Gene Littler, National Amateur champion, plus 1. Graying Byron Nelson is even with the board and all the others are minus.

Tiger Jones Upset

NEW YORK (AP)—No fight in 5 to 1. That is the lesson to be learned from Jacques Roger's upset victory over Ralph (Tiger) Jones last night at Madison Square Garden. Nobody gave the 25-year-old Frenchman a chance against the third-ranking middleweight challenger. Nobody except matchmaker Billy Brewer and Jean Brunetel, Roger's manager.

Williams Says Each Swing Is Painful

BALTIMORE, May 15 (AP)—Ted Williams swung a bat with his fractured shoulder for the first time this year in a game today and afterward the Boston Red Sox star reported "it still hurts." "There's no use kidding myself," said one of baseball's greatest, "I get a sharp pain each time I swing hard."

Angelo Cots Face Steeds At 3 P. M.

The San Angelo Colts, now in a fierce struggle with Big Spring and Sweetwater for fifth place in the Longhorn League standings, move into Steer Park today for a 3 p.m. joust with Pepper Martin's provincials. The Colts remain over for an 8:15 engagement, at which time Barga Night will be offered to fans. Any adult will be admitted for 50 cents, which is 24 cents below the regular price. Artesia arrives here Tuesday to begin a two-game series. Manager Martin has indicated his only lefty, Al Mendoza, will face the Colts this afternoon. Mendoza beat the Colts in a previous test. Al was handicapped by a chest cold in his last appearance here but is shipshape now.

Longhorns Win SW Track Title

WACO, May 15 (AP)—Texas won six events and placed in all others except the high hurdles and shot put today to capture the Southwest Conference track and field meet. Texas A&M's three-year domination was resoundingly broken in a flurry of great performances that wiped out two records and tied two others. The mighty Longhorns rolled up a terrific 95 1/2 points by such things as completely sweeping the 200-yard dash. Texas A&M was second with 54 7-12, Southern Methodist third with 33 23-24, Rice fourth with 32 7-12, Baylor fifth with 25 1/2, Arkansas sixth with 15 and Texas Christian last with 14.

Lake Brownwood Draws Several Local Anglers

Lake Brownwood drew several local fishermen last weekend. The Rayston Bucks were there Sunday through Thursday and took about 100 pounds of catfish off their trotlines. They also got a few bass and few drum. Other members of the party included the Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Hardin of Kermit and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gressett of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. Buck says it was pretty stormy and lots of rain fell while they were there. For that reason, he didn't do any casting. As trotline bait they used shad, crawfish and shrimp, catching most of their fish on shrimp.

61st Is Beaten By 12-1 Score

Field Maintenance bristled and updated 61st Maintenance Saturday evening under the City Park lights, 12-1. Weber was in fine fettle, holding the 61st aggregation to one hit, a single by Richards. At the same time, his mates hopped on Polston for six hits and twice as many runs. Coeden measured Webb AFB by a 9-2 count in another Saturday ILL. Gentry kept Webb handcuffed while his mates went to work and batted in four runs the initial inning and doubled the score by the third. Service Center turned the Independents every way but loose Friday evening, 11-5. Cook Edges Webb In Softball, 3-1

Cook's Appliance turned back Webb AFB in a closely played softball game Friday night at the City Park, 3-1. Mize scattered four hits nicely for Cook. He was in trouble only in the fifth when Thompson doubled, moved to third on a fielder's choice and came home when Waitts erred on Fredley's smash. Kirkland scored in the first for Cook, getting winged and advancing on a long single and fielder's choice. Gross homered in the third to stretch the lead and Cook singled and came home on successive singles by Gray and Mims in the seventh. Riley Captures Her 5th Southern Title

By MERCER BAILEY BIRMINGHAM, May 15 (AP)—Polly Riley won her record-breaking fifth Women's Southern golf championship today, defeating plucky Marjorie Burns of Greensboro, N. C., 3-up in 36 holes. Although the medal scores were not particularly good, Miss Riley said it was one of the toughest matches she had ever played. "I wasn't playing my best golf today but I was playing as well as I could," she said, "and I was happy champion. I'd have to run into anyone tougher. She was good and tough today." The slender Miss Burns, decided underdog, gave the sturdy Fort Worth, Tex. girl a much closer battle than expected. She said, "If I could have just got a putt or two to fall, it might have been different." Time and again Miss Burns would send her putts straight to the cup, only to watch them die on the lip. Miss Riley had a 2-up lead after the morning round, and extended it to 3-up after the 34th hole. Miss Burns, making her first appearance in the finals of a major golf tournament, pulled within one hole of Polly on the 31st hole when Miss Riley misjudged the green. The girls halved the next three holes, then gave the crowd its big-

CHICAGO, May 15 (AP)—Carl Sawatski smashed a single over Gus Zernial's head with two out in the ninth inning today, scoring Bob Boyd with the winning run as the Chicago White Sox shaded the Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 6 before 10,331 fans.

Snead Builds 'Unbreakable' 34-Point Lead

WESTBURY, N. Y., May 15 (AP)—Sam Snead made a mockery of the Meadow Brook Round Robin golf tournament today by shooting a four-under-par 66—best round of the week—to stake himself to a virtually unbreakable 34-point lead. Now only a miracle can keep the 41-year-old Masters champion from clinching his third Round Robin title tomorrow, and the miracles, it seems, are on Sam's side. Snead's 32-34—66 over the 6,640-yard, par 35-35-70 course, piled up 19 additional points in his favor for a grand total of 53 plus points. This left the third round runnerup, Jimmy Demaret, and others in the field 16 far in arrears. Demaret, nine points back of the 51 runner starting today's fourth round, eked to a 75 and lost 11 points, throwing him back into fourth place in the standings. Snead's closest challengers going into the fifth and final round were defending champion Cary Middlecott, and Young Jackie Burke Jr., each with 18 plus points. Demaret followed with 113. Snead and Middlecott are head-to-head in the final round, along with Marty Furgol and Australia's Peter Thomson. To show the virtual impossibility of the task, Middlecott would have to pick up 18 strokes on Snead in the 18 holes to beat him. Following the pace-setters in the standings are tiny Bob Tooni of Livingston, N. J., plus 12 points; Peter Thomson of Australia, who shot a 66 for plus 11; former Open champion Lloyd Mangrum, plus 7; Doug Ford, plus 4; and Gene Littler, National Amateur champion, plus 1. Graying Byron Nelson is even with the board and all the others are minus.

Tiger Jones Upset

NEW YORK (AP)—No fight in 5 to 1. That is the lesson to be learned from Jacques Roger's upset victory over Ralph (Tiger) Jones last night at Madison Square Garden. Nobody gave the 25-year-old Frenchman a chance against the third-ranking middleweight challenger. Nobody except matchmaker Billy Brewer and Jean Brunetel, Roger's manager.

New Pool Looms For Northeastern Howard

Another oil pool for northeastern Howard County appeared in strong prospect Saturday with completion of a discovery well west of Vincent.

It is the Van Grisso Oil Company, W. W. Harve of Fort Worth and American Republics Corporation No. 1 Ed J. Carpenter. The zone was not identified, but previously there was much speculation that the horizon was the Wolfcamp.

The well had been projected to test the Pennsylvania reef but operator elected to complete higher when strong shows were logged. It is about five miles south of the nearest tests in the Reinecke pool where the Wolfcamp was tapped. Operator flowed the well for seven hours, filling all storage, with 145 barrels, with 37.8 gravity oil. The flow was natural and there was no water. At no stage had it been necessary to acidize. Operator made the flow through a 22-64th tubing choke. The pressure was from 700 to 625 and gas-oil ratio was 729-1. The oil was all clean.

On the basis of the flow, the well was given a calculated 24-hour potential of 406.8 barrels. Production was coming from five feet of open hole from 6,695-6,700. Operator last week ran the 5 1/2-inch string to 6,695. The initial drillstem test was taken from 6,670-80 and then a second from 6,699-6,700 with the tool open one hour. Gas surfaced in four minutes. Still another test brought gas in six minutes and oil in 15 minutes at the estimated rate of 39 barrels in 45 minutes. Operator took a final drillstem test from 6,699-6,700 with gas in four minutes and recovery of 5,470 feet of clean oil. Decision to complete was reached at this point.

This venture is approximately 20 miles northeast of Big Spring and is three and a half miles west and half a mile south of Vincent.

The location is 1,980 from the south and west lines of section 17-25-H&TC, which puts it roughly midway between two recent test discoveries, the Trans-Texas No. 1 Read, C SE NE, 11-25, H&TC, just southeast of the East Vealmoor pool, and the Russell Maguire No. 1 Chandler (Carpenter), C NW NW, 11-25, H&TC, two miles west of Vincent.

If this is the Wolfcamp, it is the most prolific well from this formation in the immediate area. Cosden recently completed a light Wolfcamp well on the northwest side of the Reinecke pool, to the north and in southeast Borden, and Turner No. 1 Wolf, a work-over on the south side of the Reinecke located as a small producer. Fifteen miles to the south of the Van Grisso No. 1 Carpenter there is the one-well Hutio pool, south of Sand Springs, which produces from the Wolfcamp.

E. Howard Wildcat

Paul DeCleva No. 1-B Louise O'Daniel, et al. six miles south of Coahoma, was under way Saturday and drilling below 920 feet. This test is projected to 3,100 feet and is located 2,310 from the south and 330 from the east lines of section 19-33-15, T&P.

Howard Still Among Leaders In Drilling

Howard County is still one of the busiest rotary drilling areas in the Permian Basin, according to the May 10 survey made by Reed Roller Bit Company.

There are now 23 rigs turning in the county, which places it in a third place Basin tie with Coke County. Basin leader is Lea County, New Mexico, which has 87 rigs. Andrews County is second with 65. Rotary rig activity in the entire Permian Basin reached a new 1954 high with 534 rigs listed on the count. This is an increase of 22 over the April 25 tally and an increase of two over the previous high set April 10.

One year ago the entire Basin had 502 rigs drilling. Despite the high figures for the entire basin, drilling in the immediate area has not increased. Howard County slipped from 29 rigs to 23 between the last two surveys conducted by the Company.

Borden maintained eight rigs on both counts, Dawson slipped from five to four, Glasscock County from seven to six, Midland had a rig increase from 18 to 21, and Mitchell dropped from six to five. Martin was not listed.

Other counties in the survey, with prior count in parenthesis, are: Andrews, 65 (69); Cochran, 7 (5); Coke, 28 (24); Concho, 1 (1); Crane, 18 (18); Crockett, 13 (8); Culberson, 1 (1); Ector, 24 (27); Eddy, 5 (10); Gaines, 27 (24); Garza, 4 (5); Hockley, 6 (6); Jeff Davis, 1 (1); Kent, 9 (4); Lea, 87 (78); Lubbock, 3 (0); Loving, 2 (2); Nolan, 6 (6); Pecos, 13 (9); Reagan, 5 (5); Roosevelt, 2 (4); Reeves, 3 (2); Runnels, 1 (0); Scurry, 18 (13); Schleicher, 17 (7); Sutton, 13 (9); Tom Green, 7 (10); Torrance, 3 (1); Terry, 7 (13); Upton, 16 (17); Ward, 13 (10); Winkler, 9 (8); and Yoakum, 20 (20).

Nolan Prospect Has Good Flow

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-74 Young, southwest Nolan County wildcat flowed 60 barrels of new oil in three and one-half hours from perforated zone at 6,529-39 feet in the Strawn sand. The project is still flowing from that section.

The perforations at 6,529-39 feet had been fractured with 3,000 gallons of sand oil. The three and one-half hour flow of 60 barrels was through a 10-64th inch tubing choke and it came after all of the load oil had been flowed out.

Shakout from the oil produced during the three and one-half hours was eight per cent basic sediment and water. The water source has not been reported. Flowing tubing pressure was 180 pounds. This wildcat is 12 miles southwest of Sweetwater and 600 feet from south and west lines of section 74, block 23, T&P survey.

Texas Drilling Is Down During Week

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP)—Texas drilling dropped to 383 this week, 70 less than the previous week, the Texas Railroad Commission reported today.

There were 228 oil well completions compared with 277 the week before. Gas well completions jumped from 3 to 23. There were 132 dry holes.

Of the 228 new oil wells, 20 were found by wildcaters. Also brought in as wildcats were 5 of the gas wells and 74 dry holes.

Operators have completed 4,409 oil wells this year compared with 3,820 a year ago. Gas well completions are also well ahead, 468 against 342 at this date last year. The total average calendar day crude allowable as of today was 2,940,491 barrels, a gain of 3,299 barrels from last week.

a friend died last Aug. 17 while Hall was flying his airplane over Alaska. Under terms of a will made Aug. 8, the Albuquerque National Bank of Albuquerque was named trustee for the property in New Mexico. The Citizens National Bank of Abilene, Tex., was named trustee for property in Texas.

Much of Hall's estate consisted of stock in the Condor Petroleum Company, a Texas corporation. The certificates for the shares, valued at several million dollars, were in a safety deposit box in the New Mexico bank.

Both banks sought control of the oil stock. As the result of action by the Texas bank, the district court granted an interlocutory injunction seeking to halt the New Mexico bank's claims.

"The judgment appealed from is reversed in part and affirmed in all other parts," the appellate court said, "and the cause is remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion."

More Demand Is Due In June

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP)—Purchasers of Texas crude oil have given advance indication they want slightly more production in June than they sought for May.

Their advance nominations total 2,966,255 barrels per day for June, an increase of 21,794 barrels over what they asked ahead of time for May, the Texas Railroad Commission reported yesterday.

The permissive flow for Texas as of today was 2,940,491 per day. Actual production for May has been running 2,851,000 barrels daily.

The purchasers will have an opportunity to explain their nominations at the statewide prorating hearing Wednesday preceding issuance of the commission oil order for June.

Dividend Declared

ELDORADO, Ark.—At a meeting Wednesday directors of Lion Oil Company declared regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents per share on the common stock of that company to be paid June 15, 1954, to holders of common stock of record at the close of business June 1, 1954.

PROSPECT NOW IS WATERBOUND

McAlester Fuel Co. No. 1 Ray Largent, prospective southwestern Mitchell County Fossilman discovery, was reported water-bound Saturday.

At last reports the test had been flowing from the deep section. However, it was drilled in a dry lake bed which no longer is dry. Only the top of the Christmas tree reportedly was out of the water at the end of the week. Recent rains in that area have been heavy. The last official report on the venture showed 52 barrels in 18 hours. Location is 600 from the south and east lines of section 8-17, SPRR.

Oceanic Gets New Producer

Another producer has been added to the Oceanic-Pennsylvanian field of northern Howard County.

A. O. Wellman & Sons and Texas Crude No. 2-35 Mildred Jones, 330 from the north and 1,650 from the east lines of section 35-33-3n, T&P, had an initial daily flowing potential of 2,106.48 barrels of 42.6 gravity oil. The flow was made through half-inch choke and there was no water. Gas-oil ratio was 618-1, tubing pressure 200 and casing pressure 50. Elevation of the test is 2,692 derrick floor, total depth 8,247, the 5 1/2-in. set at 8,232, and top of pay 8,210.

Warren Petroleum Corp. and H. S. Moss No. 1 Ellis Iden, west edge to the center of the Oceanic pool, was drilling ahead Saturday below 2,303 feet in anhydrite and lime. This test is about 19 miles northwest of Big Spring.

Cosden Petroleum Corp. No. 2 John Jackson, south offset to the operator's No. 1 Jackson which extended production in the Oceanic pool to the east, was at 3,420 Saturday, waiting for cement to set on 8 1/2-inch string at 3,150 feet. Location is 330 from the west and 626 from the south lines of the northwest quarter of section 30-32-3n, T&P.

Extreme N. Howard Prospect To Plug

Pete Lomax of Midland No. 1 Claude Collins, extreme north Howard County wildcat, has been written off as an apparent deep failure.

Operator was preparing to plug and abandon Saturday at 7,948 feet in Pennsylvanian lime.

This exploration was located 660 from the south and 2,308 4 from the east lines of section 36-32-3n, T&P, which puts it almost on the Borden County line. It was about a mile east of outpost production to the Vealmoor pool and about six miles west and slightly north of the East Vealmoor pool.

Moore Adding Well, Offset Has Shows

Another completion was in prospect Saturday for the Moore Field southwest of Big Spring.

John I. Moore & P. D. Moore No. 3 Dunagan, 330 from the north and 1,655 from the east lines of section 19-33-1s, about the center of the pool, was swabbing 11 barrels per hour after acidizing and sandfracing. The well is bottomed at 3,145 feet.

Moore Bros. No. 4 Dunagan, 1-647.5 from the north and 330 from the east lines of section 19-33-1s, T&P, drilled below 2,890 feet.

On the east side of the north edge of the field, Southland Royalty No. 1 Roy M. Phillips had a show at 3,127 feet and operator was watching this closely Saturday. The show was picked up slightly higher than anticipated. Location is 330 from the north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 5-33-1s, T&P, which makes it an east offset to the Duncan No. 1 Homan, which last week completed for 70 barrels per day.

Duncan No. 1-A Homan, 990 from the south and 1,320 from the east lines of section 12-34-1s, T&P, drilled below 3,053 feet.

Duncan No. 1-A Barnett, 2,310 from the south and 990 from the east lines of section 10, 33-1s, T&P, drilled below 3,053 feet. In the extreme northwestern stepout area developed by Duncan, was below 1,585 feet. This test is 990 from the north and west lines of section 33-34-1n, T&P.

Paul DeCleva No. 1-B Rexle Cagle, on the south side of the pool spudded, set the surface string at 150 feet and was waiting on cement to set. Location is 330 from the north and 1,650 from the east lines of section 31-33-1s, T&P.

Borden Test Logs Shows

Texas & Pacific No. 1-A W. D. Johnson, six miles north of the Good pool in southwestern Borden County, had shows of oil and gas on a drillstem test below 8,200 feet.

The test was from the interval of 8,233-40 feet with the tool open three hours. Gas surfaced in 30 minutes, but there was no gauge or estimate of volume. Recovery was 540 feet of 35.4 gravity oil, 2,700 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, and 30 feet of salt water.

Operator will core 50 feet deeper and test. Previously, this wildcat had taken a test from 7,000-15 with recovery of some lightly oil and gas-cut mud.

Wildcat Staked SW Of Vincent

A wildcat oil location has been staked southwest of Vincent to test through the Pennsylvanian.

It will be the P. R. Rutherford of Houston No. 1 Ed J. Carpenter, 467 from the north and west lines of section 8-25, H&TC, a mile and a half southwest of Vincent.

This puts the prospect about a mile and a quarter southeast of the Russell Maguire No. 1 Carpenter, a recent reef discovery two miles west of Vincent. The rig will be operating just north of the Snyder Highway a mile southwest of the Cates Grocery Store.

Contract depth is 8,100 feet which is calculated to take it through all the Pennsylvanian series. Operations will start immediately.

Dawson Prospector Making Progress

Cosden Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Lindsey, deep exploration 12 miles west of Lamesa, was drilling ahead Saturday below 11,952 feet in lime, shale and chert.

This test was taken over recently by Cosden and will be taken to 12,600. It is located 667 from the south and 880 from the east lines of the northwest quarter of section 132-M, E1&R.

Nation Turns Tremendous Crude Value In 25 Years

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—More than 60 billion dollars worth of crude oil has been produced in the United States in the last 25 years, compared with a 16 billion total for all of the preceding 70 years.

That's the story of the tremendous growth of the oil industry in the last quarter-century as told in a silver anniversary publication of the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America (IPAA).

In 1929 alone this country's oil wells yielded production valued at more than 7 1/2 billion dollars, the publication said. This is emphasized, it is more than the annual value of all other minerals combined. It estimated the annual production of coal, iron ore, gold, silver and other minerals at less than 7 billion in value.

In an introduction, IPAA said continuing expansion of U.S. production and productive capacity has served to refine periodic predictions that the United States is running out of oil.

Other highlights of the publication:

The total number of employees in the domestic oil and gas producing industry climbed from under 200,000 in 1929 to 291,935 in 1953 and "a complete enumeration probably would show a total well in excess of 300,000 persons."

Domestic crude oil production prior to the depression of the early '30s had reached a level of 2,760,000 barrels daily. This had increased to 3,842,000 barrels by the beginning of World War II.

In the war years production jumped to about 4,700,000 barrels a day and by 1953 it had reached a record level of almost 6,500,000 barrels daily, nearly 5 1/2 times the output 25 years ago.

Since the first oil well was drilled at Titusville, Pa., in 1859, nearly 48 billion barrels of crude have been produced in this country. Of this, more than 36 billion barrels, or 75 per cent, were produced in the last 25 years.

Present daily production of 5 1/2 million barrels represents the output of more than 500,000 wells, of which 330,000 produce a "relatively small volume per well."

major pipelines that are furnishing any substantial amount of gas are in Texas and Louisiana.

"You take a look at the volume of gas that leaves this state every day, then calculate on the amount of gas being discovered, and it will set you worrying."

Latest records of the Texas Railroad Commission, the state's oil and gas regulatory agency, show Texas exported 205,098,611,000 cubic feet of gas in February of this year. That represented 43 per cent of all gas produced in Texas.

More significantly, perhaps, it was nearly 70 per cent of all Texas gas that went into transmission lines and was 6 per cent more than was exported February a year ago.

"You go from Brownsville (at the southern tip of Texas) to the Panhandle, and all the gas you find that's not already committed (contract) is in the hands of about two firms," commented Small.

And the gas that's not already tied up by contract can attract a better price out of state than it can in Texas, he hinted.

He believed the acuteness of the problem would begin to appear when 20-year contracts made in the 1940's by cities, industrial and commercial uses begin to expire in the 1960's.

While Small foresees a continued boom in gas exports, the Oil and Gas Journal of May 10 said editorially that the laws of supply and demand are catching up with the natural gas transmission industry.

"There is an early end in sight to the spectacular postwar growth period with its breathless rush to string new lines from apparently unlimited supplies of cheap gas to seemingly insatiable rich markets," said the Journal.

Ike's Housing Plan Faces Critical Test

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP) — President Eisenhower's new housing program faces its most critical test next week in five days of closed-door sessions of the Senate Banking Committee.

the 40-year, 100-per cent new home insurance program.

The legislation, a key part of Eisenhower's domestic program, passed the House with little difficulty. But that was before the White House and two congressional committees launched probes of scandals in the Federal Housing Administration.

Democrats on the committee, meanwhile, scheduled a strategy session Monday morning under the leadership of Sen. Maybank (D-SC).

Maybank said the Democrats would offer a series of amendments to the administration measure designed to "plug every possible loophole" but at the same time produce a housing bill to keep the nation's two million construction workers at their jobs.

Ranking committee members said privately at least two presidential proposals are likely to be scuttled as a result of the scandal. They are:

1. A liberalization of the home repair and modernization program which would allow FHA-insured loans up to $3,000 repayable in five years. Home repair loans, which are running a billion dollars a year under the FHA program, are now limited to $2,500, repayable in three years.

2. A brand new program to provide 100-per cent insured loans for new homes costing up to $7,000 and built as a result of slum clearance or some other federal activity. These loans would be repayable over 40 years, the longest term ever requested under government housing programs.

The House has approved both of these programs.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said he would vote to kill outright the home repair loan program. He noted the nation as a whole spends roughly eight billion dollars a year on this kind of construction. The need for the depression-born FHA program of loan insurance has ended, he said.

Not one senator questioned by a reporter said he would support

Col. Freeman Is Speaker At ABC

Pride in the quality of personnel in the Air Force was expressed Friday noon by Col. Cleon E. Freeman, wing executive officer at Webb Air Force Base, when speaking to members of the American Business Club.

"If, as many say, the quality of Russian aircraft is superior to our own, our pilots proved their superiority in Korea," he said. He explained that data on the MIG torn down by our engineers was secret.

Col. Freeman and Lt. Dennis E. McClendon, base public information services officer, were the club's speakers.

McClendon joined Col. Freeman in expressing an invitation to club members to attend Saturday's events.

Col. Freeman also explained the Air Force's objectives with a paraphrase of Secretary of the Air Talbott. "Our most positive defense is a strong retaliatory capability and it is with jet aircraft that we can provide the strong retaliatory power that the joint chiefs of staff believe will stop Russia short of war," he said.

He said that the Air Force, Navy and Marines combined have 33,000 aircraft, roughly one-third of them jets. He said that in the next three years the combined strength will be increased to 40,000 aircraft, more than half jets.

Guests of members at the meeting included Carl Benson and Frank Franklin.

Top Students

Carol Robinson, top picture, is valedictorian of the Knott High School senior class, while Ann Spalding, lower picture, is salutatorian. Miss Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson, has a four-year average of 94.63. Miss Spalding's grade average for four years is 94.57. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spalding.

Water Resources Subgroup Named

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP) — The State Water Resources Committee has asked a subcommittee to investigate and recommend how the state could participate in financing water projects.

Sen. Darsey Hardeman, San Angelo, appointed the three-man subgroup after member Marvin Nichols, Fort Worth consulting engineer, commented that the financing problem has dominated all discussions by 17 water authorities since last December.

The subcommittee will be Gene Klein, former mayor of Amarillo, who will be chairman; Rep. J. F. Gray, Three Rivers; and Rep. John Kimbrough, Haskell.

De Valera Fights To Keep Power In Irish Free State

By TOM OCHILTREE

DUBLIN, Ireland, May 15 (AP) — Prime Minister Eamon de Valera, 71, and nearly blind, fought today with all the political skill at his command to maintain single party government in the Irish republic.

It could be the gaunt old warrior's last battle if he loses at the polls next Tuesday to the coalition forces headed by John A. Costello.

For New York-born De Valera—brooding like some great bird over the republic he did so much to establish—is himself the great issue in Ireland's general election campaign.

Even his political foes regard him with affection touched with awe. Like his friends, they refer to him affectionately as "The Long Fellow" and Dev.

His opponents never question his service to Ireland, but they feel his Fianna Fail (Men of Destiny) party has been in power too long and has lost some of its sense of purpose and direction.

Costello's coalition is animated largely by a desire to displace De Valera. The change of only a handful of seats in the 147-member Dail (Parliament) would give it power.

De Valera was in power from 1932 to 1948. Then the coalition, with Costello as Prime Minister, governed from 1948 to 1951. De Valera has been Prime Minister for the past three years, but recent elections to fill individual vacancies in Parliament seemed to show his Fianna Fail party was slipping.

The parties in the coalition have some trouble staying hitched. Costello's own Fine Gael (United Ireland) is a conservative party traditionally based on large farmers and big shopkeepers. Its most important ally is the Labor party—a political organization with a trade union background and a strong desire for social welfare measures.

Troop No. 6 Plans For Week At Camp

Boy Scouts of Troop No. 6 plan to attend summer camp at the Buffalo Trail Council Ranch in the Davis Mountains during the week beginning June 20.

Dignity for the event was set at a recent dinner meeting attended by Scouts, parents and leaders at the First Christian Church.

Scout leaders attending the event included Bill McRee, Lone Star District field executive; Sam McComb, district campaign chairman; Ray McMahan, Scoutmaster; the Rev. Clyde Nichols; Jack Watkins, neighborhood commissioner; and the troop committee composed of Dr. R. E. Walters, Harold Canning, Mayron Shields and Dan Feather.

Ten-foot and second class badges were presented during the session, and motion pictures of the council camp were shown.

LT. AND MRS. T. L. CLEMENTS ... a magnetic rock attracts attention about as much as it attracts safety pins.

A Rocky Road Led The Clements' To Texas

LT. and Mrs. T. L. Clements are finding out that life in the Air Force gives plenty of opportunity for finding various mineral-bearing rocks. In his collection he has a magnetic rock that was picked up in Magnet Cove, Ark., as they came to Big Spring from Malden, Mo. A safety pin and straight pin sticking to the rock show its property of magnetizing.

The couple lived in Loveland, Colo. before he joined the service, and it was in Colorado A&M that he started his hobby of collecting minerals. From a mine close to Rosa Clara, Ill., he has a pretty piece of fluorite, and from Fort Collins, Colo., came a piece of satin spar. It is well-named, as it looks and shines like satin.

A specimen of barite looks as if it would make a beautiful stone in a piece of jewelry. It came from around Sterling, Colo., and a mineral used in the making of lead and paint came from Joplin, Mo. It is named galene.

Mrs. Clements doesn't have a special hobby, as she is a fairly new homemaker, and has very little spare time from her house-keeping. They both play canasta and both are just learning to play bridge. They were married in July of last year, and he went, almost immediately, to San Antonio for training. The couple is living in the King Apartments.

East Ward P-TA Has Final Meeting

The final meeting of the East Ward P-TA was held recently at the school. Mrs. A. C. Kloven gave the opening prayer. M. R. Turner, principal of East and North Ward Schools, gave a summary of the work of the P-TA for this year.

Mr. Turner, Mrs. Marvin Parkhill and Mrs. M. E. Stroup were appointed to audit the treasurer's book. It was reported from the City Council that a scholarship would be awarded to some boy or girl. Reports on the district meeting recently held in Snyder were given by Mrs. W. C. Bell, Mrs. Elwood Carlisle, Mrs. C. W. Fisher and Mrs. Kloven.

Mrs. Kloven was given a past-president's pin and a Life Membership pin. Her first grade won the room count. Mrs. Stroup and Mrs. Eldon Appleton were hostesses for the tea-hour, at which time, the table was laid with a lace cloth over pale yellow. An arrangement of pink and white stock and asters was flanked by green candles in crystal holders. About 35 members and guests were present.

T&P Ladies Hear About Auto Upkeep

"Nine out of 10 emergency brakes on cars that are found on used car lots don't work," stated Cecil McDonald in a talk before the T&P Ladies Safety Council Thursday at the Settles Hotel.

Mr. McDonald's topic was "Motor Vehicle Maintenance." He said further that a car should be lubricated once a month in sandy country, no matter how new it is.

He said that 80 per cent of new cars now depreciate faster than ever before because of neglect and suggested that off-brand waxes and cleaners not be used because after a time they could cause the paint to peel off necessitating a new paint job and therefore lowering the value of the car.

"A car should have fall and spring checkups every year," he said, and "everyone should read his rule book for driving often," he concluded.

Mrs. R. D. Ulrey gave a safety talk for children and adults. Mrs. D. D. Dyer won the special prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. G. Wilson Jr. to 24. Guests were, besides Mr. McDonald, A. C. LaCroix, W. C. Foster, G. W. Stone and R. C. Parker of Dallas.

Suggestions Given For May Garden Work

By ANNE LAPEVER

May is the month to make sure you will have flowers during the summer months and in the fall. Annuals may still be planted and hurried along, if they are placed in a spot protected from the winds. It takes as much time and care for growing an inferior species as for a better one, and for that reason, a careful selection of plants or seed will repay you in finer flowers.

Aphids are usually more numerous at this time of the year when plants are covered with tender growth. Two or three applications of some good contact spray should rid the plants of these and any other sucking insects. Sprays and dusts should always be applied soon after a rain, in order to get the insects that come from their hiding places to attack the new leaves.

Another pest to be watched for is blackspot or any other fungus diseases, which usually appear on roses, hollyhocks, phlox and other plants during a rainy season. It is easier to prevent this pest than to cure it, and any good fungicide, either spray or dust, will usually keep it from starting.

A weekly dusting or spraying with Massey dust, dusting sulphur, or any of the prepared remedies should be given to the undersides of the foliage, as this is where the spores of the fungus develop. If the presence of blackspot is observed on the roses, every diseased leaf should be picked from the bush and also from the ground and burned.

Now is the time to divide chrysanthemum plants, and they should be set out in new beds where former chrysanthemum plants have not robbed the soil of the nourishment. Sulphur should be dusted over the newly-set plants to prevent rust. Carnations and snapdragons, too, should be dusted with sulphur now.

Chrysanthemums should have plenty of water and protection from the sun during the heat of the day, and their roots should be mulched. This will help hold the moisture

HI--TALK
By Libby Jones

The Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs have elected their officers for next year. Heading the Hi-Y Club next year will be Wade Simpson with Bennie Compton as vice president; Gary Tidwell, secretary; Preston Mason, treasurer; and Tom Guhn, chaplain. Tri-Hi-Y Club president will be Nancy Smith; vice president, Peggy Hogan; secretary, Sally Cowper; treasurer, Margaret Fryar; chaplain, Janice Nalley; historian, and Carolyn Miller, parliamentarian.

The El Rodeo staff held its annual banquet Thursday night in the Garden Room of the Twins Cafe. Mrs. Erma Steward, sponsor, gave each staff member a personalized box of stationery, and the staff presented her with a wrought iron magazine rack. Those attending the banquet were Shale Ward, Frank Long, Janice Nalley, Lety Reynolds, Tommie Jo Williamson, Gary Tidwell, Ginger Hatch, Norman Dudley, Nancy Smith, Charlie Rose, Peggy Hogan, Brick Johnson, Judy Douglass, Frosty Robison, Nina Fryar, Mary Ellen Hayes, Ann White, Joyce Anderson, Mary Ella Bigony, Suzanne Reynolds, Barbara Lawler, Barbara Bowen, Kirk Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worley, Mrs. Gene Harrington, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Steward.

Bright and early yesterday morning about 135 seniors boarded four school buses and headed toward Ahlens State Park at Buffalo Gap for their annual Senior Trip. The seniors breakfasted in Sweetwater, and for lunch they dined on fried chicken delivered from Leslie's Chicken Shack. Activities for the day included swimming, dancing, miniature golf, and other sports. Sponsors accompanying the seniors were Mr. G. T. Guthrie, Miss Sarah Phillips, Miss Edna McGreggor, Mr. Keith Odum, Mrs. Nancy Ames, Mr. Oscar West, Mr. Wilder Roe, Miss Ione McAllister, and Mrs. Erma Steward.

The seniors weren't the only ones who were out of town Saturday. The mechanical drawing class with their sponsor, Mr. Louis Maneley, went on a fishing trip, as did the baseball boys. The baseball boys, accompanied by Coach Roy Baird, journeyed to Buchanan Dam.

Sophomores and juniors have been busy registering all week for next year's classes, while the seniors have been diligently making plans for Baccalaureate and graduation. In senior meeting Wednesday, Mr. George McAllister from HCJC presented trophies to award winning seniors who took honors at the HCJC Senior Day activities. In the talent division, Anne Gray, Patsey Clements, and Marcus Hayworth received trophies; beauty trophies went to Lynette Blum, Mary Ellen Hayes, and Libby Jones.

The final school social event of the year, the All School Picnic, was held at the City Park Friday evening. The Student Council, sponsor of the event, with the help of the Home Ec classes, prepared the eats, sandwiches, potato salad, beans and relishes. Following the picnic, the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y held a dance in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Hodnett Gives Report On THDA

"Eighty-five per cent of the home accidents are the fault of women," Mrs. Merle Hodnett said, in giving her report on the THDA District meeting held recently in Post. She spoke to members of the City Home Demonstration Club at the meeting Friday in the home of Mrs. Alta Underwood.

Roll call was answered with each member giving her favorite time-saver in housekeeping. Mrs. Eldon Appleton gave the devotion. Mrs. Sue Newman, HD agent, gave a lecture and demonstration on care of the feet and shoes.

It was announced that a set of leather tools will be bought for the club. The next meeting will be a tea at 3:30 p.m. in the small auditorium at Howard County Junior College on May 28. Mrs. Horace Garrett will review Phillip Wylie's "Tomorrow." Elbow and Lomax HD Clubs will be guests. Refreshments were served to 15 members, and Mrs. W. T. Stewart won the special prize.

Tina Leser

BY A 'SPECIALIST'

This Would Be Newsy In A Riotous Print

Tina Leser is a "specialist" in fashion. She has a special way of making unexpected color combinations literally sing in harmony; she has a special knowledge of just how much and exactly where to use trimming; and she has that extra-special perception, characteristic of all great designers, that stamp her designs with a special something.

Miss Leser's patterns today demonstrate to perfection just what "specialist" means. She has molded a sleek, fitted midriff to bring out the soft fullness of the tiny pleats across its top, and faces the neckline band that extends into bowed shoulder straps with colorful embroidered ribbon or braid. Thus, when the straps are reversed on the shoulder as shown in the front view sketch, a tiny but effective bit of the trim is exposed.

Originally made in a riotously flowered print (very newsy this season and especially good with velvet facing) Miss Leser later made it in linen. Either of these materials or any cotton, nylon or lawn will make a most pretty production.

This pattern is cut in DESIGNER sizes.

Size 10, bust 34, waist 24, hips 35; size 12, bust 35, waist 25, hips 36; size 14, bust 36, waist 26, hips 37; size 16, bust 38, waist 28, hips 39; size 18, bust 40, waist 30, hips 41.

Size 12 requires 5 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for dress. To order pattern 1084, address Spadea Fashions Inc., P. O. Box 533, Dept. B-5, G. P. O., New York 1, N. Y. State size. Send $1.00. Air-mail handling 25 cents extra. Add 5 cents for bank clearance if paid by check or money order.

Hot Cross Buns

The Greeks and Romans bought bread marked with a cross on top (a possible allusion to the four quarters of the moon) to eat at public sacrifices. The bread was purchased at the door of their temple.

Stumbling Block

When you occupy an aisle seat in a theater, don't block the way of others who want to go out.

Scooped Neckline

This quickly-made little dress concentrates new skirt fullness in soft front pleats! Just as easy to sew this scooped neck with the shoulder—also included in this pattern. No. 2658 is cut in 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24 and 40. For size 16: cap-sleeved version, 3 1/2 yds., 35-in. or 3 1/4 yds., 39-in.

Good News

It must be really good news that has Doris Day, Phil Silvers, Eddie Foy Jr. and Nancy Walker looking so happy in this scene from "Lucky Me," Warner Bros. CinemaScope musical. Doris stars with Robert Cummings in this show, which is also in WarnerColor. It shows today through Tuesday at the Ritz Theatre.

Doris Day Stars In CinemaScope Movie

Doris Day and Robert Cummings star in "Lucky Me," the Warner Bros. CinemaScope musical which shows today through Tuesday at the Ritz Theatre. Also appearing in the film are Phil Silvers, Nancy Walker and Eddie Foy Jr.

Miss Day and company sing ten new songs from the pen of Sammy Fain and Paul Francis Webster during the course of the plot which has to do with a stranded musical comedy troupe in sunny Florida. Said stranding leaves Doris, Silvers, Miss Walker and Foy very, very broke. And the beautiful scenery isn't quite enough to make up for the inconvenience which ends up with the whole party washing clothes in the kitchen of swank Miami Beach Hotel.

Along about this time Candy (Miss Day) runs into Dick Carson (Robert Cummings), a songwriter, who shows interest in her talents. He intends to produce a musical backed by his wealthy fiancée, played by Martha Hyer. This ideal situation doesn't last though, for Miss Hyer shows jealousy for Candy and raises all sorts of trouble. The film was made in WarnerColor, the Warner Bros. color process. Songs in the film include "I Speak to the Stars," "Take a Memo to the Moon," "Love You Dearly," "High Hopes," "Bluebells of Broadway," "Parisian Pretties," "Supplication Song," "I Wanna Sing Like an Angel," "Men" and the title song.

Miss Day dances as well as sings. Silvers handles most of the comedy chores as the baggy-pants comedian whose unrequited love for Candy doesn't stop him from hoping.

'Trent's Last Case' To Show At State Theatre This Week

"Trent's Last Case," which shows Wednesday and Thursday at the State Theatre, is based on the famed mystery novel by E. C. Bentley. Starring in the film are Michael Wilding and Margaret Lockwood with Orson Welles co-starring.

Wilding has the role of Trent, who covers the killing of Sigbee Manderson, a fabulous American financial tycoon, who is found dead. (Welles has the role of the corpse.) The death is at first believed to be suicide but Trent becomes convinced that it is murder instead.

His trained ears and eyes tell him that the widow (played by Miss Lockwood) and the secretary (played by John McCallum) are lying. Yet Trent does not want to believe that the attractive widow is not telling the truth, for he has become attracted to her during his investigations.

The picture is a Republic production.

There are about as many miles of elevator shafts as there are subway tracks in New York City.

He's Suspicious

Trent (played by Michael Wilding) is suspicious of the lovely widow (played by Margaret Lockwood) in "Trent's Last Case," murder mystery film based on a famed book. The picture, a Republic production, shows Wednesday and Thursday at the State Theatre. Orson Welles plays the corpse.

His Highland Lassie

Richard Todd and Glynis Johns are reunited in this scene from "Rob Roy," showing today through Tuesday at the State Theatre. Todd has the title role and Miss Johns plays his sweetheart, Helen Mary. This Technicolor film tells a tale of Scottish rebellion against the British crown.

Richard Todd In Technicolor 'Rob Roy,' Showing At State

Adventure in the Scottish Highlands is featured in "Rob Roy, the Highland Rogue," which shows today through Tuesday at the State Theatre.

Richard Todd and Glynis Johns star in this Technicolor film which is produced by Walt Disney, who first won fame for his movie cartoons but has since branched out into live action films such as his latest picture.

Todd is Rob Roy, the so-called Robin Hood of the Highlands, and Miss Johns has the role of his bonny sweetheart, Helen Mary.

There's action a-plenty in the film for Rob Roy rebels against the English king. This brings battles and man-hunts as he and his MacGregor clan outwit the royal armies to keep the flame of freedom alive.

The film was made in the very location of the story, which has been well chronicled by such storytellers as Sir Walter Scott and the like.

Mirrored lochs, heathered hills and wild mountain glens are featured in the shots of the picture.

'Second Chance' Is Due At Ritz

Showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Ritz Theatre this week is "Second Chance" with Robert Mitchell, Linda Darnell and Jack Palance. The story is filmed in Technicolor against the scenery of South America's Andes Mountains.

Mitchum and Miss Darnell both have roles as individuals who left their past behind them in going to South America. Miss Darnell is fleeing a gangster boy friend and Mitchell, a prizefighter who killed a man in the ring in the United States, is fleeing his bad conscience.

Stalking Miss Darnell is Palance, who plays a professional killer sent after her by the ex-boy friend who wants to make sure that she doesn't testify against him. Mitchell becomes involved when he befriends the lady-fugitive.

The climax comes on a cable car dangling on a cable between two peaks. The two face death both at the hands of Palance, armed with a gun, and from the possibility of being hurled to the ground several thousand feet below when the cable begins to give way.

The picture is an RKO Radio production with Edmund Grainger in charge and Rudolph Mate directing.

'Sadie Thompson' To Show At Jet

Due at the Jet Drive-In Tuesday and Wednesday nights is "Miss Sadie Thompson," pride and joy of Columbia Pictures. Starring in the film, based on the famed W. Somerset Maugham short story, later adapted into a successful play, are Rita Hayworth, Jose Ferrer and Aldo Ray.

Miss Hayworth is aforementioned Miss Thompson, a shady lady who arrives on a South Seas island and stirs the wrath of missionary Ferrer. Ray is Miss Thompson's boy friend.

The film is in Technicolor.

'Three Sailors' Film To Show At Terrace

Jane Powell and Gordon MacRae star in Warner Bros. musical "Three Sailors and a Girl," which shows Tuesday and Wednesday at the Terrace Drive-In. Gene Nelson also appears.

Nelson and MacRae are two of the sailors who invest a whole sub's back pay in a Broadway play starring Miss Powell with near disastrous results. The film is in Technicolor.

There are 32 elements composing all known matter, although some of the elements have more than one form.

FILM DUE HERE TELLS DEVOTION OF GIRL, COLT

That old familiar bugaboo, drought, appears in the film "Gypsy Colt," showing Friday and Saturday at the Ritz Theatre.

A year-long dry spell forces the parents of Meg, played by Donna Corcoran, to sell Gypsy, a colt, to the owner of a facing stable. This nearly breaks the little girl's heart, and the colt shows its devotion, too. The colt twice escapes only to be returned but the third time is a charm.

The colt, with a $1,000 price on its head, eludes trackers with a long trek over mountain and desert, finally returning to Meg. Then, as if it was a miracle, the drought comes to an end with a torrential down-pour.

Ward Bond and Frances Dee co-star in the film as Meg's rancher parents. The film is an M-G-M production and is in Anso Color.

Doris Day, Keel In 'Calamity Jane' Film

Doris Day and Howard Keel appear in Warner Bros. "Calamity Jane," in WarnerColor. Miss Day has the title role although she is much prettier than the legendary Calamity; Keel plays Wild Bill Hickok.

Miss Day sings the hit song "Secret Love," in this musical film. The film shows today and Monday at the Lyric.

Insurance Institute Says Failures Are In Fire Protection

AUSTIN, May 15 (AP)—Insurance company failures in Texas the past 16 months have been confined to the fire and casualty field with one exception, the Life Insurance Research Institute of Texas said today.

The institute, recently organized by public relations man Horace Busby Jr., said life insurance companies organized in Texas under state regulation have maintained a high record of successful operation and policyholder protection.

The press statement obviously was aimed at offsetting unfavorable publicity resulting from two receivership cases involving companies which were in the fire and casualty business.

Of nine companies placed in receivership in the past 16 months, only one was a life company, and it had only 17 policies in force, said the institute.

Fort Worth Man Killed In Accident

FORT WORTH, May 15 (AP)—William Kofsky, 39, a foundry worker, was killed early today in a traffic accident here.

His car and an auto occupied by five teen-agers returning from a high school dance collided. Kofsky's companion, William Oakley, 24, was hospitalized with a head cut and arm fracture. The teen-agers had minor hurts.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Among the readers of this column is Mrs. Gladys Morder, who lives in an Ontario village. She has sent me a letter giving interesting facts about her pet bird, a budgie or parakeet. Her letter reads, in part:

"I am a nurse and have given most of my life to looking after others. I feel that every old person should have a budgie. They are such good company, and seem so human!"

"My budgie, named Peter, came to our home when he was only five weeks old. The past January marked his fifth birthday."

"One morning I heard him repeat exactly what I had said the day before. It's cold out. I will feed the poor little bird."

"Peter knows some nursery rhymes, including Humpty Dumpty and Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater. Once he asked, 'Did you see the Santa Claus parade?'"

"An insurance agent was at the house one day when Peter said, 'Go home now! Time to take your bath! Merry Christmas! Happy Easter!'"

"While an electrician was here, Peter flew down and sat on his shoulder, saying, 'What do you think you are doing here? Did you have your supper?'"

"I had some guests one night. Although Peter is not allowed to come in the dining room, he flew in and perched on my shoulder."

told him that he would have to go back to his cage. After looking at me, first with one eye and then the other, he said, "You are just a spoiled old bird!"

It is the common view that budgies, parrots and other talking birds speak words without knowing what they are saying. This seems to be true most of the time, but I wonder whether some of them do know, at moments, the meaning of their words.

I should like to hear from the owners of other pet budgies. A letter about the words or tricks of your bird would be most welcome. Address me in care of this newspaper.

Two Die In Collision With Truck At Alvin

ALVIN, Tex., May 15 (S-M)—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Milton Tucker, 67 and 64, of Velasco, were killed yesterday near here in a collision with a truck.

Highway Patrolman R. W. Wright said Jerry Lockhart, 25, Galveston, driving a truck and following another, braked so suddenly when the lead truck pulled off the highway that his truck was thrown into the path of the truck in which the Tuckers were returning from Galveston. Lockhart had minor injuries.

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
by Harold R. Porter

Our Story: FROM THE BARRED WINDOW A VOICE CRIES OUT: "HELP ME, NOBLE SIRRS! TEN YEARS HAVE I SPENT IN THIS FILTHY HOLE!"

ABOVE THE CELL THREE ARMED NUBIANS GUARD A PALACE DOORWAY AND THEY SMILE EVILLY AS IF DARING PRINCE VALIANT AND GAWAIN TO ATTEMPT A RESCUE.

SUCH SIGHTS ARE NOT UNCOMMON IN THESE DAYS AND THE TWO FRIENDS PASS ON. THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE, OFTEN RAVAGED BY WAR AND VIOLENCE, IS ONCE MORE BEING REBUILT.

THEY ENTER, AND IN THIS, THE HOLIEST SPOT IN ALL CHRISTENDOM, REDEDICATE THEIR SWORDS TO THE SERVICE OF JUSTICE AND RIGHT.

LEAVING THE CITY THEY CROSS THE KEDRON VALLEY AND REST IN THE GARDEN OF GETHESEMANE. "I WONDER WHO THAT PRISONER IS AND WHY HE HAS BEEN SO HARSHLY PUNISHED," SAYS GAWAIN. "I HAVE BEEN WONDERING, TOO," ANSWERS VAL. "LET US FIND OUT."

BACK IN THEIR LODGINGS THEY ARE DISCUSSING THE PRISONER WHEN PIERRE SAYS: "HIS NAME IS SIR BASIL OF HIGH-MOOR AND HE HAS BEEN TEN YEARS THE PRISONER OF SHERIF BEN EL RASCH. IT'S COMMON GOSSIP AMONG THE SERVANTS, SIR."

SIR GAWAIN GIVES PIERRE A HANDFUL OF COINS, "GO OUT AMONG THE SERVANTS, IN THE BAZAAR, IN THEIR FAVORITE TAVERNS AND LEARN ALL YOU CAN ABOUT BEN EL RASCH AND HIS CAPTIVE!"

PIERRE, HAPPILY JINGLING HIS COINS, HEADS FOR THE NEAREST PLACE OF ENTERTAINMENT, TO LET PLEASURE INTERFERE WITH BUSINESS AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE.

NEXT WEEK—Occupational Hazard.

Reader's Digest Reports: ONLY NEW COLGATE DENTAL CREAM with Miracle Anti-Enzyme Ingredient GARDOL[®] HAS THE CLINICAL PROOF!

Proof that Brings New Hope to Millions for LIFETIME PROTECTION AGAINST TOOTH DECAY

QUICK FACTS FROM THE READER'S DIGEST ARTICLE
"What About Anti-Enzyme Toothpaste?" December, 1953

1. Reader's Digest says—The most effective anti-enzyme toothpaste ingredient tested was developed in the Colgate laboratories.
(It's Colgate's miracle ingredient Gardol (Sodium N-Lauroyl Sarcosinate)—found in no other leading toothpaste!)
2. Reader's Digest says—One of the foremost dental authorities in the world proved that this ingredient binds itself effectively to the teeth—halts acid formation below the decay level in 95 per cent of cases tested.
(Unlike ordinary toothpaste ingredients, effective only for minutes, this protection won't rinse off—won't wear off—all day or all night!)
3. Reader's Digest says—Even 12 hours after brushing, this new Colgate anti-enzyme discovery continues to guard against the enzymes that cause tooth decay.
(This, regular morning and night use guards against decay-causing enzymes every minute of the day and night!)
4. Reader's Digest says—In full-year clinical tests, X-rays showed far fewer cavities for those people who used New Colgate's with Gardol! No new cavities for 4 out of 5.
(Distinguished dentists examined this evidence and agreed—New Colgate's with Gardol gives the most protection against decay ever offered by any toothpaste!)
5. Reader's Digest says—New Colgate Dental Cream is the only toothpaste with clinical proof of such effectiveness in actually reducing the formation of new cavities.

NOW! NEW COLGATE DENTAL CREAM CONTAINS GARDOL
(SODIUM N-LAUROYL SARCOSINATE)

SUDDENLY TARZAN'S SHARP EARS DETECTED GOYAT CRAWLING ON THE ROOF ABOVE. HE CALLED OUT ORDERS IN DISGUISED, GUTTURAL TONES.

GOYAT OBEYED. HE CREEPT TO THE HOLE THROUGH WHICH THE HUT WAS ILLUMINATED AND COVERED IT WITH HIS MASSIVE BODY--

AND THE ROOM WAS INSTANTLY PLUNGED INTO DARKNESS! THE NATIVES GASPER FOR THEY BELIEVED THAT TARZAN HAD WORKED SOME EVIL MAGIC.

NOW THE APE-MAN PRESSED HIS ADVANTAGE. HE MOVED IN THE DARK WITH THE STEALTH OF A BLACK LEOPARD--

Edgar Rice Burroughs

AND SPRANG TO THE FRAMEWORK OF THE HUT. BUT AS HE SCALED THE RAFTERS, SLUG STRIPER'S GUN SPAT OUT IN DEFRANCE-- BULLETS SCREAMED, GRAZING HIS SHADOWY FORM!
