Double Ring Ceremony Unites Garlan Love; Freddie Rouch

Miss Garlan Love became the bride of Freddie Rouch in an impressive double ring ceremony Friday, Dec. 1, at 6 p. m. in the Carol Ann Hill Chapel of the Methodist Church.

MRS. FREDDIE ROUCH

Rev. Ray Heckendorn, minister of the First Christian Church, read nuptial vows for the couple.
 Miss Love is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Love of Eastland. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ethel Rouch of Olden.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beige brocade dress with a matching hat and veil. Her corsage was a white orchid.
 Mrs. David Wells III, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She chose a cocoa brown dress with a corsage of white gardenias.

Jerry Adams of Hardin-Simmons, nephew of the groom, served as best man.
 For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Love wore a beige suit complemented by a corsage of white gardenias.
 Mrs. Rouch chose a blue dress with white gardenias.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the couple's new home, 522 E. Conner. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Bill Holliday, Miss Madge Reed of Cisco, Mrs. Kenneth Bullard and Mrs. James Horn.

The bride's table was beautifully laid with a white linen cloth centered with a huge bouquet of white and pink cornations flanked by burning tapers. A miniature bride and groom adorned the table. Punch and wedding cake were served to Mr. and Mrs. Don Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smallwood of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Reid of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Canet, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lowrance, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Horn, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pogue, Mrs. W. E. Ballenbeck, Miss Gladys Green, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collings, Jack Adams, Mrs. G. M. Brashear, Rev. Ray Heckendorn, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams of Holliday, Mrs. Ethel Rouch, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Love, Mrs. David Wells and Jerry Adams of Abilene.

The bride is a graduate of Eastland High School and was formerly employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.
 The bridegroom attended Sul Ross College in Alpine and is presently employed by the Fiesta Bowl.

Card of Thanks
 On behalf of our family, relatives far and near, we take this method to thank each and everyone for their loving kindness in administering to our loving wife, mother, and sister during her long illness; neighbors and friends, for the fine food and every assistance rendered throughout the years; to our physician, management and staff of the Eastland Memorial Hospital, our minister, the pallbearers and all who gave us comfort by their wonderful assistance, kind words, sympathetic letters, cards, beautiful flowers—from relatives and friends for and wide. God bless each and everyone in our prayer.

 The Omar Burkett Family.

Flowers; Pugh Vows Read Here Saturday

Nuptial vows were read Saturday at 4 p.m. in the First Christian Church here for Miss Helen Ruth Flowers of Stephenville and Donald Durwood Pugh, also of Stephenville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frankie B. Flowers of Eastland and the late Charles Haywood Flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Pugh of Waco are parents of the bridegroom. He is the grandson of Mrs. Kate Edwards of Hamilton.

Rev. Ray Heckendorn, minister of the local First Christian Church, officiated the double ring ceremony amid a nuptial setting of white gladiolus, red ribbon bows and silver candelabrum.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Ruel Locke of Hamilton, organist, and Carl Garrett of Eastland, soloist.

Renditions of "Always" and "Because" were given before the ceremony. The bridal party entered to strands of the traditional Wedding March. "The Lord's Prayer" was given during the ceremony. Members of the bridal party exited to the wedding march from "Mid-Summer's Night Dream."

Attending the bride were Mrs. Kathly Jander of Bonham, maid of honor; and Mrs. Patsy Jenkins of Hamilton and Miss Pauline Cogburn of Eastland, bridesmaids.

Attendants wore identical sheath dresses of white peau de soie. Each carried a bouquet of red and white garnet roses.

Gene Davis of Fort Worth attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were A. I. C. G. R. Stifflemire of San Antonio and James Preston Pointer of Hamilton. Leonard Jander of Bonham and Eugene Angerman of Hamilton served as ushers.

Molly Gardner, cousin of the groom, and Sherri Pool lighted the candles. Teresa Pool, flower girl, carried a white satin basket from which she scattered white rose petals.

Stanley Gardner, cousin of the groom, carried the rings on a white satin heart-shaped pillow edged with white lace.

Given in marriage by her uncle, M. J. Kennamer of Dallas, the bride wore a floor length dress of white bouquet taffeta which featured a fitted bodice and a Moyen Age neckline outlined with alecon lace. Long tapered sleeves complimented the gown. The elongated waist was emphasized by folds of taffeta detailed by a cabbage rose on each side of princess panels ending in the back with two large folds and a flowing panel. The side fullness of the bouffant skirt swept back into a chapel train. Her Mantilla fashioned veil featured scalloped edges. Her bridal bouquet was of white feathered carnations topped with a white orchid. She carried a silk handkerchief, belonging to her grandmother, and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a wedding gift from the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Flowers chose a turquoise dress of pure silk. Her attire was complimented by a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Pugh, mother of the groom, wore a blue chiffon dress with a white carnation corsage.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony in the church annex. Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Thura Taylor, R. E. Pool Jr., W. H. Drake and Misses Grace Tansersley and Barbara McCullough.

The bride's table was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth centered with an arrangement of white carnations and candytuft. The three-tiered red, white and silver wedding cake was topped with the traditional miniature bride and groom.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Pugh chose a blue wool dress with ivory accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After January 2, 1962, the couple will be at home at 834 N. Ollie St., Stephenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Pugh, parents of the groom, hosted a rehearsal dinner held Friday evening in the White Elephant Restaurant, Eastland.

Kim Collings Is Honored With Farewell Party

Little Miss Kim Collings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collings, was entertained at a farewell party held Thursday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lund, with their daughter, Paula, as hostess.

Miss Collings is moving with her parents to Ranger.

After guests arrived the honoree opened her farewell gifts. Each guest was given a Santa Claus muggle which they assembled. Moving pictures were taken of the group.

Refreshments were served from a polished dining room table in ladylike fashion. Punch was served from the silver coffee service. They were also served Christmas decorated cupcakes, cookies and candy canes on Santa napkins.

Present were Misses Nancy Seaberry, Lisa Germany, Kim Collings and the hostess, Paula Lund.

Las Leales Members Attend Christmas Party Held Monday

Members of Las Leales Club held their annual Christmas party Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Woman's Club. Guests were greeted by hostesses, Meses. H. L. Hassell, Opal Cross and J. T. Gregory, and registered at a table ornamented with a glowing miniature Christmas tree. After drawing numbers from a red ceramic Santa's boot, they were seated at tables laid in white and centered with a lighted red candle surrounded by gilded magnolia leaves interspersed with red Christmas balls. The large table was laid in white Irish linen. The centerpiece was an arrangement of red carnations and gold foliage flanked by tall red candles. Similar decor was noted on the piano, where golden vigil lights burned in brass candleabra. The hostesses served cranberry punch, salted nuts and wedges of delectable delight preceding the program. Mrs. Hassell welcomed guests and presented Mrs. W. A. Leslie, who told several Christmas legends. She concluded her talk with the Christmas Story given by Perry Como. Mrs. Carrol Shelton reviewed Prarie Christmas by Paul Engle, a nostalgic picture of a country Christmas some 50 years ago. Gifts were distributed from beneath the beautifully decorated green Christmas tree. During the social hour coffee and cookies were served. Members present were Mrs. Anna Grace Bumpass, Wayne Caton, J. M. Cooper, Onal Cross, Maurice Dry, D. E. Frazer, J. T. Gregory, H. L. Hassell, D. L. Kinnaird, W. A. Leslie, Rudolph Little, T. E. Richardson, Floyd Robertson, Carrol Shelton, Wendell Siebert, Homer Smith, Thura Taylor, and Misses Gladys Green and Verna Johnson.

VISITS EASTLAID

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Francis and daughter, Maxine, visited in Eastland Wednesday calling on old friends. The Francis family were Eastland residents approximately 30 years ago. They lived at the gasoline plant south of town where he was employed with Hickok and later that Grayridge Corp. They are presently living at 1350 Sutter St., San Francisco 9, Calif. They have spent the past four weeks visiting in Arkansas and East Texas. They expected to stop in El Paso enroute to California. Their other daughter, Geraldine, and her husband, a retired army officer, also live in California.

Junior Music Club Members Attend Christmas Party Friday

The E G B D F Junior Music Club met for their Christmas party Friday at 4 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson, 512 S. Ammerman, with their daughter, Shannon, as hostess.

The home was beautifully decorated carrying out the Christmas theme. The piano held three choir figurines carrying out the music motif. A beautiful Nativity scene was also noted. Gretchen Hailey, assistant sponsor, presided over a short business session. The members repeated the Junior Club Pledge and the Junior Club Collect.

Mike Siebert was program leader for the afternoon. The group then presented the following program: "O Come All Ye Faithful" was sung accompanied by Gretchen Hailey; A group Scripture reading of Luke 2:7-15 was then given. "It came Upon a Midnight Clear" was sung accompanied by Mary Ann Turner. "Away In a Manger" was accompanied by Ann Whittington. Mary Ann Turner then told the story, "Christ for Christmas." Kimberly Hailey accompanied the group singing "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Mike Siebert accompanied "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day." "Deck the Halls" was accompanied by Mary Ann Turner as pianist.

Program for the afternoon was closed with the group singing of "Silent Night," with Layne Gregory as pianist.

The club then enjoyed a social hour with the exchange of gifts and refreshments of deviled ham and pimento cheese sandwiches, gingerbread men, candy, cookies, nuts and hot fruit punch.

Refreshments were served from a table laid with a white linen cloth centered with a Santa Claus Band, still carrying out the music theme.

Present were Layne Gregory, Mike Siebert, Carolyn Goldston, Lanna Parks, Nanette DeFord, Gretchen Hailey, Grady Gregory, Shelley Siebert, Tamora Green, Mary Ann Turner, Ann Whittington, Kimberly Hailey, Kathy Gregory, Mrs. Drago, teacher, a visitor, Victoria Wilson, Mrs. Tom Wilson and the hostess, Shannon Wilson. Layne Gregory is club president.

Julia Kay Hanna Feted with Sixth Birthday Party

Julia Kay Hanna celebrated her sixth birthday Wednesday with a party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Minton Hanna.
