O. H. DICK ... sells Telegram

Telegram, Times Sold To New Corporation

The Eastland Telegram and The Ranger Times have been sold by Joe Dennis and O. H. Dick to a corporation headed by J. W. Sitton, publisher of The Cisco Press, according to an announcement Saturday.

30 years as a Ranger newspaper man; plans to retire. Dick, who has lived in the county most of his life, expects to take a vacation and then devote his time to looking after other business interests.

The change of ownership will not effect publication of the three newspapers. The Telegram and The Times are semi-weekly newspapers, and The Press is a tri-weekly.

The three newspapers were under one ownership in the early 1930s when the late Walter Murray acquired them, along with newspapers at Breckenridge, Mineral Wells and Cleburne.

Accreditation Report...

During the last two school years the Eastland Independent School District has been warned by the Accreditation Division of the Texas Education Agency that the twelve grade program in the Negro school at Eastland was not up to the standards required by the state.

Failure to correct such deficiencies could eventually lead to the loss of accreditation to the entire system, since accredited status is dependent on all divisions. (Continued on page five)

A MARKED IMPROVEMENT

There's a couple of ways to say the same thing!

For a long time signs near the water fountains in the court house read unpleasantly:

"Don't spit in the water fountains."

Somebody's come up with a better way to say it.

The signs now read:

"Please help us keep the fountains clean."

Mrs. Pledger plans to rest and concentrate her interests toward raising Appaloosa horses.

Mrs. J. F. Golson will manage the bus station until the Frambrouchs are dis-associated with other business interests including the harvesting of their crops.

The Frambrouchs will take over the management of the station Wednesday, Nov. 1st.

There are 12 Greyhounds schedules through Eastland each day.

SIMPLE BALLOTS

The ballots for the Nov. 14th integration election in Eastland are short and simple.

They were purposefully worded so as to eliminate the possibility of misunderstanding on the part of the voters.

Often, Supt. Wendell Siebert said, ballots are confusing and voters actually vote directly opposite to what they want to vote.

The ballot will read:

FOR: Authorizing the local school Board to integrate school system.

AGAINST: Authorizing the local School Board to integrate the school system.

Posing Time' At High School

Eastland High School Students at Eastland High School are being kept busy this week while individual pictures are being made.

The junior, sophomore, and freshman classes had their pictures made Tuesday and seniors plan to have theirs made Friday and Saturday.

Interest in the annual runs high through the school, and everyone deeply appreciates Mrs. Woloszyn's efforts to make our annual one of the best.

Kathleen Cornelius Weds Thomas Pierce

Miss Julia Kathleen Cornelius became the bride of Tomas Ross Pierce Saturday evening in a double-ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Graham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cornelius of Graham, who formerly lived in Eastland. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pierce, live in Graham.

Rev. Hubert Foust, minister of the church, read the candle-light services before a background of white gladiolas.

Mrs. Gladene Womack Lee, also a former resident of Eastland now living in Graham, sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Porter of Graham.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of embroidered white silk organza over ice-blue taffeta. It was designed with an elongated and jewel neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of teardrop pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stepanotis.

Miss Donna Davis of Graham, the bride's only attendant, wore a street-length dress of blue taffeta. Her bouquet was of white gladiolas.

Jerry Woods of Graham served as best man.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will live in Grand Prairie. Mr. Pierce is an industrial engineering student at Arlington State College. He formerly studied at Rice University. The bride attended Baylor University and Texas Christian University.

Relatives attending the wedding from Eastland were Mrs. Eugene Cornelius, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Florine Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Germany and children Jeffrey and Lisa.

Accreditations—
 ions of the system meeting standards.
 The current Principles and Standards for Accrediting Elementary and Secondary Schools states that in no case may a school system be accredited as a 12 grade system with fewer than four full time teachers in the first eight grades and three full time teachers, other than vocational units, and the superintendent teaching three classes. In effect this would mean a total of eight teachers would be needed at the Douglas School.

However, the Division of School Accreditation has advised the local district that when a district operates two twelve-grade programs, it has been the practice to accept a staff of six in the smaller school as sufficient to meet the intent of the accreditation standard if their remaining standards are met. One of the remaining standards states that on the high school level teachers must be assigned to subjects for which they have completed an approved program of teacher education.

At the present time, one teacher is teaching the majority of high school courses. To correct the deficiency outlined in this one standard would mean the employment of at least three or four additional teachers of which salaries would be paid out of local funds.

Another alternative, of course, would be to integrate the school district and admit Negroes to the white schools. It is generally assumed that if such a move was sanctioned by the voters of the district when they go to the polls to vote the issue on Nov. 14th that the integration would become effective at the beginning of the 1962-63 school year, and that after that date no Negro transfers would be accepted from other school districts in the area.

At the present time only the Eastland, Ranger and Cisco districts have Negro students and the Ranger High School has been integrated for a number of years.

To refuse to accept either of the plans outlined would put the local school districts in position to lose their accredited status and state funds.

SCHOOL SHOW WEDNESDAY

WCSO Observe Week of Prayer With Luncheon and All-Day Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the church parlor for an all day meeting observing the week of prayer and self-denial.

Mrs. Frank Crowell, leader, assisted by several members brought a beautiful and impressive program on "The Three R's of Christian Maturity" (Restoration, Renewal and Relationships Redeemed).

The maroon colored velvet drapery over the table on which rested brass candlesticks and a brass bowl containing a virgill light added to the impressiveness of the service.

At noon a light lunch was served and afterward the program was resumed. The afternoon program was on missions with the scripture being from Luke 4:17, "He opened the book . . ." The program closed with a playlet "Summer Travels" and a prayer by Mrs. Crowell. As the hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be" was sung the members placed an offering on the table and quietly left the room.

The next meeting will be Oct. 31st, a sack lunch at 12 noon. A business meeting and officers report will follow the luncheon. All officers especially are urged to attend as the reports will have to be made and sent to the district officers immediately.
