

Mavericks Face Tough Football Schedule

Football workouts will begin for the Eastland High School Mavericks on August 14 at 8 a.m. Although the bulk of the 1960 team is gone, eleven boys will report that have had some varsity experience.

Playing their last year as Mavericks will be J. D. Ables, Mike Graham, Gayle Chaney, Jack Whitten, Johnny Shoemaker and Dickie Byars. Several other seniors have indicated that they plan to participate their last year of school.

Other members expected to "man the barricade" for the red and black are Tommy Beck, Larry Howie, Jimmy Moylan, Gary Graham and Mike Jones, Manuel Herrera and Lupe Fuentez, both Freshmen are expected to challenge for a starting berth.

The outlook for a "B" team looks very promising as there are numerous Freshmen and Sophomores in Eastland who have the physical ability to become football players. A six game schedule is planned and then the capable boys will be moved up to the Varsity Squad. Workouts for the "B" team will begin August 16 at 10 a.m.

Though very short on depth and facing a tough schedule, the coaches are optimistic. Conditioning and fundamentals will receive a great amount of emphasis before meeting Comanche on Sept. 1.

With each of the varsity players being able to play forty eight minutes, if needed, and playing every down with all their ability, the season could be a good one in spite of the lack of depth.

Coach Jimmy Hughes stated that he thought he had two of the best assistants in the State, and if the boys want to work and to win as badly as the coaching staff want to, there will be no problem for win or lose, the fans will see a scrappy club that will never give up.

"We are looking for boys who like to play rough; who don't mind making a few sacrifices for the good of football in Eastland," commented Coach Hughes.

Marene Johnson Defines Second Class Mail

"When most people hear the term 'second-class mail,' they think instinctively of advertising matter," says Postmaster Marene Johnson.

Second-class matter includes newspapers and periodicals which have been approved under a special permit of the Post Office Department for mailing at second-class rates of postage. Usually such publications are devoted to news, literature, the sciences, the arts, or some special industry. If they are designed primarily for advertising purposes, they are not eligible for second-class mailing privileges.

Patrons may identify a second-class magazine or newspaper by locating a printed notice on one of the first five pages which contains the name of the publication, the frequency of issuance, the issue number, the subscription price, the post office of publication, and the wording "Second-class postage paid at (name of post office)." If the publication contains such a notice, it may be mailed by a patron at a rate of 2c for the first two ounces and 1c for each additional ounce or fraction thereof, provided complete copies are sent. Incomplete copies or excerpts require the third or fourth-class rate of postage, whichever is applicable.

"Newspapers published weekly, or more often, usually receive the same expeditions handling as first-class mail, so that the subscribers may receive live and current information," says Postmaster Johnson.

It may be pointed out in general here that publishers' rates on second-class mail have traditionally been held lower than on all other classes of mail because of the belief by Congress that the inexpensive transmittal of reading matter is one of the cornerstones of the democratic way of life.

Information about rates and other matters affecting second-class mail may be secured immediately by calling your Post Office.

GRAY MATTER

By JOE GRAY

Perhaps we ought to change the name of the State Commission of School Accreditation to the State Popoff Commission.

As I understand it, they have threatened to take away Eastland's accreditation unless Eastland does something about the colored school.

I don't know whether they can or not, I doubt if they have the authority and if they do I personally know of some legal talent that'll get the chance to do something in the courtroom of Texas.

To start with, this threat from Austin is a hypercritical bluff.

It reminds me of the state law passed a few years ago by the Texas legislature that no school district can integrate without losing state aid to its public educational system. That law is as unconstitutional as a permit to commit murder.

The supreme court of the United States has already ruled on this matter. Segregated schools are unconstitutional and to disaccréditate a school system for inferior conditions in a school that is already unconstitutional is in itself unconstitutional, if you follow my reasoning.

The Texas Popoff Commission can issue statements for the newspapers from now to Doom's Day, but it won't make a bit of difference to any of the issues involved in the Eastland case, nor will it get the colored students of the Eastland schools a better education.

I noticed in the paper that the Commission said several subjects are taught by the same teacher. The Commission seems to think this is a disgrace. This might, on the other hand, be a real accomplishment for something good. Some of the best teachers I ever saw could teach more than one subject. As a matter of fact no

Children Hospitalized After Three Accidents

Childhood accidents are commonplace, but this week in Eastland three small boys were injured in accidents that could have been fatal. Happily in each case, the child though hospitalized, is reported to be making a complete recovery.

The three accidents involved fire, swallowing an object and falling from a tree. Though they occur frequently among children, usually less dramatically.

Gasoline Explodes
Carson McGough, age 10, saved his life by jumping into the lake when his clothing caught on fire. Burning gasoline exploded catching Carson's clothing on fire. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

W. C. McGough who resides at 626 Rice Drive in Andrews. The McGoughs were vacationing at their lake home on Lake Leon.

Young McGough suffered facial burns, burns on his arms and one burn on his chest. His condition has been reported as fine.

Nickel Lodges
Ricky Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Moore, had the misfortune of a nickel lodging in his esophagus. Ricky has been taken to Fort Worth for the object to be removed.

Ricky, age six, swallowed the nickel Thursday afternoon in the Moore home at 608 S. Dixie.

Suffers Head Injury
David Sullivent suffered from a head injury Monday when he fell from a tree. He was pursuing a bird's nest when he slipped and fell into a rock bed. David, who has undergone surgery in the Saint Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth, has been reported as doing nicely.

David, who will be eight in September, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Sullivent, in the Norwood addition.

Cisco Man Hurt; Pickup Collides With Ambulance

Wilson Smith, Cisco service station operator, received a fractured skull when his pickup truck collided with the Rust ambulance which was en route to 1402 W. 13th Street, Cisco, where Tom Stamey of Eastland had suffered a heart stroke. The accident occurred Thursday afternoon.

Stamey was taken to the Eastland Memorial Hospital but was released Friday after his condition improved.

The ambulance turned over and was a total loss. The occupants, C. B. Rust and C. B. Rust Jr. of Rust Funeral Home in Cisco received minor cuts and bruises.

Smith is in the Graham Hospital in Cisco and is reported in fair condition.

Christian Church Buys Moore Home

The First Christian Church has voted to purchase the Virgil Moore home, 608 S. Dixie St., to be used as a parsonage. R. H. Garrett, chairman of the official church board has announced.

The present parsonage at 203 West Olive, after remodeling, will become an educational building for the church. Work is expected to begin by the first of September, Garrett said.

The new parsonage, a three-bedroom frame home with brick trim, was built in 1960.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Heckendorn and their family will move into the house some time this month.

Serving on the building committee which recommended the purchase were Norman Watson, Max Beazley, Jack Chamberlain, Sr., and W. Q. Verner.

Livestock Auction Report

A total number of 786 cattle, 172 sheep and goats, and 109 hogs were sold at the Eastland Auction Company Tuesday. There were 273 sellers and 64 buyers. A strong and active market prevailed on all classes of livestock.

Butcher bulls sold from $16 to $19.10; butcher cows, $14 to $15.60; canners and cutters, $14 and down; and slaughter calves $22 to $23.80.

Middle East Oil Production Is Discussed by Col. Edwin Sayre

Eastland Rotarians heard an address Monday, July 24, by Colonel Edwin M. Sayre, brother of Frank Sayre of Eastland. The regular Army officer discussed the development of oil resources in Kuwait and the importance of Middle East oil in the national defense program.

He gave background on the Iraq claims and threats to take over the tiny nation of Kuwait with its production of over one million barrels of oil daily. He stated that the wells that he observed on a trip into the Kuwait oilfields produced an average of 8,000 barrels of oil per day per well. This quantity of oil from one well as compared to the US average of only 12 barrels per day per well accounts for the ability of oil companies operating in the Middle East to ship oil to the US at a price lower than local oil can be produced.

The advantage of Middle East oil being shipped into the U S is that it conserves our national resources, but Sayre stressed the importance keeping a balance between use of Middle East and U S oil in order that new U S resources can continue to be developed and the entire U S oil industry kept in a healthy state.

Colonel Sayre's knowledge of the

RJC Coaches Attend Texas H.S. Coaching School

Ken Vakey and Jim Lewis, Ranger Junior College coaches are attending the Texas State High School Association Coaches' School in San Antonio, August 6-10.

This annual school, which attracts coaches from all over the state as well as from out of the state, will feature lectures by outstanding coaches in their respective fields from both high schools, colleges, and universities.

Highlights of the school will be the annual North-South all-star basketball game Wednesday night and the North-South football game Thursday night.

Victoria Athlete Signs RJC Letter of Intent

Carl Mudd, a six-foot-three, all-state basketball and baseball player from St. Joseph's High School, Victoria, Texas, has signed a letter of intent to attend Ranger Junior College this fall.

A 1961 graduate of St. Joseph's High School, Mudd, who led his team to the consolation championship in the Catholic State Tournament averaged 14 points per game his senior year.

He is also an outstanding baseball player with two-year pitching record of 14 games won and two lost. He ended his high school career by being chosen for the all-state baseball team.

Coach Jim Lewis, former mentor of Carl in high school, stated that Ranger Junior College is fortunate in securing a boy of his ability. Mudd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Mudd of Victoria, plans to major in accounting.

Gray Matter—

Texas A. and M. football game.

Any other trip to Austin ought to be outlawed and the school boards throughout the state ought to be made to understand that they cannot allow any expense money for a superintendent to go to Austin for any reason.

There is too much dictation of the schools from Austin. Most of the people in Austin doing the dictation don't know what they're talking about.

If the Texas Accreditation Commission wants the situation at the colored school improved, let the state pay for it. Let the state build a new building for the colored people and put a full-time teacher to each grade and a special teacher for every subject in high school.

Then too, there's another solution to this problem. We can integrate our school system, absorb the colored people throughout the school system at no increase in teachers. As a matter of fact we could then get along without the colored teachers at all. The small number of students in the colored school wouldn't work too much of a teaching load on any teacher in the school system and the school board could save the amount of money now going to pay the colored teachers' salaries.

Boy howdy, wouldn't that make Thurgood Marshall and the NAACP madder than a bunch of red ants in a drowned out ant bed?

Which reminds me of a story a colored friend told me the other day. It seems the NAACP sent word down to all of its members that they were to integrate all the Southern churches and if they could be sure an integrate all churches of the Southern Baptist Convention.

One colored man went down to do his bit for the "cause." He went home from his first church service and put in a long distance phone call to Thurgood Marshall in Washington.

"Thurgood," he said when the connection was complete, "didn't you tell us to integrate the Southern Baptist Churches?"

"I sure did," the caller asked, "why didn't you tell us how long that Southern Baptist preacher was going to hold us under the water when he Baptised us?"

Now is Time To Check Your Heating Needs

Summertime is the best time for Ranger residents to check their home heating needs, according to W. T. Eaton, local Lone Star Gas Company manager.

"Cold weather has a way of sometimes hitting without much warning," the Lone Star manager said. "In the interest of your health and convenience, Lone Star is urging all homeowners to compare their existing heating equipment with the family's needs."

Eaton pointed out that by checking now, the homeowner can avoid last minute calls for equipment and service during cold weather when heating contractors are experiencing their busiest season. Lone Star is offering special discounts on gas heating equipment during its annual pre-season heating sales campaign in August and September.

Vented gas heating equipment with its automatic controls is recognized as being safe and dependable and is most economic to operate, said the Lone Star manager.

Lone Star is stressing fresh air heat which minimizes staleness and stuffiness in a home. It aids also in controlling the amount of moisture released in a home by body heat and such day-to-day living habits as bathing and cooking.

The gas company's engineers point out that this stale air condition is controlled to a degree in older homes by air leakage around windows and doors. In newer homes, which have tighter construction and more insulation, normal outside air leakage usually is insufficient.

But, in new gas central heating installations, provisions for adequate outside air can be made easily by providing a fresh air intake in the return duct system, the engineers reported.

Lone Star is offering a special discount on gas lights with the purchase of a vented gas heating system during the heating campaign, the Lone Star manager said.

And you'll enjoy complete freedom of furniture arrangement because electric heating equipment takes up little or no living space.

Electric baseboard heaters are one of several popular types of electric heating equipment.
