Taylor, Marvin Smith, Glen Scallorn, Dr. M. A. Treadwell, James Smith, H. V. O'Brien, Ed Freyschlag, Harry Jordan, Bud Miller, Bob Perkins, Bruce Pipkin and James Johnson.

Services Held Saturday For Mrs. Dunlap

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Hamner Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Della Victoria Dunlap of 409 S. High, who died Thursday in Midland where she and her husband were visiting with a son.

Rev. Lee Fields of Carbon officiated the services with interment in the Public Cemetery under the direction of Hamner Funeral Home.

Mrs. Dunlap was born June 7, 1893 in Comanche County, and had lived in Eastland since 1945. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

She was married to S. W. Dunlap on Oct. 10, 1910 in Comanche.

Survivors include her husband; four sons, Herman W. of Cisco, Lee A. of Midland, Vernon C. of Brownwood and L. D. of Midland; three brothers; four sisters; 12 grandchildren; and five great grandchildren.

Nephews served as pallbearers for the services.

Special Week Has Been Set

E. W. Seale Jr., headquarters representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, arrives in Eastland Monday for a week of special activity with the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, 204 N. Dixie, according to J. W. O'Shields, presiding minister.

Highlights of the week will be a model ministry school and service meeting, a Bible research program; and the public Bible talk delivered by Seale.

Cooper, Graham Score Twice Each For Third Maverick Victory, 26-0

Halfback Joe Cooper primed the pump for the third Maverick victory Friday with a 90-yard kick-off return against the Gorman Panthers.

Another tally by Cooper, two more touchdowns by Gary Graham, Joe's associate at the half-back slot, and a couple of extra points ran-over by Quarterback Tommy Beck filled the record for a 26-0 win for Eastland.

The packed Eastland side of the stands was barely seated after the kick-off before Cooper started his long, twisting run for the first paydirt.

Try for extra point was no good.

In the second quarter Cooper snagged a Panther pass and zig-zagged about 50 more yards for another score.

Beck ran the extras over. The Mavericks were scoreless in the third quarter.

Graham topped off a 60-yard run in the fourth on a punt return for six more points. Extra point try went bad.

Graham did it again later from the eight on an off-tackle play.

It was a crowd-pleasing night for improvising by both teams. Gorman showed its first when a fourth-down punt situation missed the kicker's hand. He was rushed but still got off a good late punt.

Graham was faced with the same situation shortly afterwards when the snapped ball jumped out of his hands. Set to kick, he elected to run instead and picked up some 30 yards for his efforts.

The same husky Graham dazzled the stands a little later with the punt return.

Gaylon Griffin intercepted a Panther pass in the fourth, picked up about 30 yards, and set the stage for the final scoring finale.

Tackling and good blocking were vital ingredients in the Mavericks' big night.

Registering key tackles were: Stan Underwood, 5; David Taylor, 2; Griffin, 1; Beck, 1;

Dickie Byars, 3; Jim Wright, 1; Mike Jones, 2; Joe Herring, 2; and Ray Edwards, 2.

State Commission Okays Walnut Routing of Hwy. 6

The Texas Highway Commission today agreed to join with the City of Eastland and Eastland County in a relocation of 2.3 miles of State Highway 6.

The relocation will take place extending from the present State Highway 6 near the south city limit of Eastland, north along Walnut Street, to present State Highway 6 north of Eastland. It will include a grade separation at the T. & P. Railroad.

The Highway Department will participate in the purchase of right of way to the extent of $25,000 and will construct the new highway location and the railroad grade separation at an additional cost of $280,000.

The City and County of Eastland will provide the necessary right of way for the project with the Highway Department participating in the cost.

The project is to be submitted to the Highway Commission for financing in the next available highway program.

GIs, Through the USO, Are Among UF Benefactors

Now in its 21st year, the USO is still maintaining a "home away from home" for men and women in service—but continuing to change its program to meet the needs of American armed forces around the globe.

A federation of six voluntary agencies, USO is supported in Eastland through the United Fund. The USO was organized in 1941 by the YMCA, YWCA, Salvation Army, National Catholic Community Service, National Jewish Welfare Board and National Travelers Aid Association as a war-time measure, but the continuation of the Draft Act and maintenance of a standing army of approximately three million have made its continuing services ever more necessary.

Is the USO needed today? General Anthony C. McAuliffe, USA (Ret.) hero of Bastogne in World War II, later Military Governor of Berlin, states: "When someone is shooting at you from all directions, you need no lectures from the Pentagon as to the reasons why we must fight. But our GIs in this so-called peacetime have a greater strain placed upon them than we did in the shooting war."

"We have placed in their hands tremendous fire power and we ask them not to use it—but to be ready to use it. This is like asking a lad to run a 100-yard dash—get-on-your-mark, get-set, ready—forget it, come back tomorrow."

"This draft is the body and the spirit. This is why the USO world wide program is so important. It provides the weary GI what the dugout in Yankee Stadium provided to a weary Mickey Mantle between innings."

Jim Parks, U F Chairman, said that with hundreds of men and women from 140,000 Texans now in service, USO deserves the same support Texas and Texans have given every armed forces effort since the Alamo.

USO is a member agency of the Texas United Fund, along with ten other vitally important state and national organizations which combine for one appeal through United Funds and Community Chests in Texas.

Do GIs use USO facilities? Last year 21,071,968 visits were made by military personnel to USO operations; USO

New City Hall 'In Business' On N. Seaman

The old City Hall has an abandoned look and the new one has taken on an inhabited air. City employees were open for business bright and early Tuesday morning. The big move was made Monday afternoon.

The new building is bright and cheery in the form of light brown floor tile, light pine paneling and light brown tone walls.

Occupying the front office will be Mrs. Rowena Hart and Mrs. Gene Cox. Facing their office is the spacious lobby which as yet has few furnishings.

City Manager Jimmy Young's office which also serves as City Commission meeting room is painted in a cheerful yellow. The office of Police Chief Ray Laney and the store room are done in the same hues as the receptionist's offices.

Adding to the facilities of the building are a coffee bar and rest rooms.

In the future, employees hope to have ceiling high shelves to store their records and copies of all births and deaths which occur in Eastland County. Also present in the store room is the photocopier machine.

Located in the rear of the building is the shop for city machinery.

Also, in the future it is hoped to have the parking space paved in an all-weather paving material.

Directly north of the main office is the fire department which will house four trucks and six firemen, two of which are on duty at all times. Firemen are on duty for 48 hours and off for 24 hours. Their quarters are located north of the engine room. Furnishings will be installed later as the building is in the process of being painted.

In an interview with a city employee, it was revealed that city tax statements were mailed Tuesday evening and will be payable at the new office anytime. A 2 percent discount will be given if taxes are paid during the month of October. All taxes become delinquent after February 1, 1963.

Old-Man Peanut is loaded with laurels after this weekend's third annual Peanut Bowl.

Hundreds and hundreds of people came to Eastland to pay their respect and join in the biggest celebration of the year.

Prospects for what is expected to be a bumper peanut crop this year undoubtedly brought out the best in all the visitors.

The celebration got underway Tuesday when Miss Jane Williford, a Cisco Junior College freshman, was crowned Miss Peanut Bowl for 1962.

Runner-up for the honor was Eastland's own Miss Julia Frost.

Carol MacMoy, last year's reigning queen, crowned the new royalty during Majestic Theater ceremonies.

Tension mounted throughout the week in anticipation of the weekend's highlights. Fans were picking their favorite for the grid-iron clash Saturday night.

Bright and early Saturday morning, the square began to fill as youngsters and their parents came to town for the annual giant twirling contest held on the square.

High jinx and hurrying and scurrying marked the day until 2 p.m. when the mile-long parade got underway.

Competing trophies were bands, riding clubs and floats from near and far.

The sponsoring Eastland Jaycees added more color to the event with their new bright, red vests, and black derby hats.

Most of the visitors were ready for chow after the long parade and the barbecue plates were ready up at City Park, where a hillbilly entertainer performed among a surge for good food.

A pre-game show at Maverick Stadium featured bands and precision marching groups, and set the stage with the packed stands for the extraordinary show to follow.

Kick-off time for the sugar game between RJC and CJC was 8 p.m. and both clubs came loaded for bear.

Half-time presentations were brief but impressive, and without question, the most impressive was the introduction of Miss Jackie Payne Williams, who wore the Miss Texas crown in the recent Miss Universe Contest.

Good Representation

Recent action by Cong. Omar Burleson falls into a category which we call good representation.

A last-second objection by Burleson last week blocked House approval of a $1,600,000 peanut research laboratory at Dawson, Ga.

After Burleson objected, it was decided to postpone action on the issue until Wednesday.

Burleson, claiming a quorum was not present, objected to a 56-41 vote which gave House approval to the project.

The vote, on a motion by Rep. E. L. (Tic) Forrester, D-Ga., would have given House approval to a Senate amendment to the agricultural appropriations bill providing the $1,600,000.

The action came during House debate on the conference report on the appropriations bill.

House conferees refused to budge from their original position that no money should be spent on the Dawson laboratory. Forrester's motion would have overruled the committee and would have put the House in support of the project.

Forrester pleaded for the laboratory. He said it would be unwise to delay construction and pointed out that Dawson already provided the land.

In an exchange with Burleson, Forrester asked "Won't you let Georgia just have this crumb?"

Burleson replied that the only thing wrong with Forrester's argument was that Georgia is only the center of the runner peanut industry and not the center of the entire peanut world which stretches from Virginia to Texas.

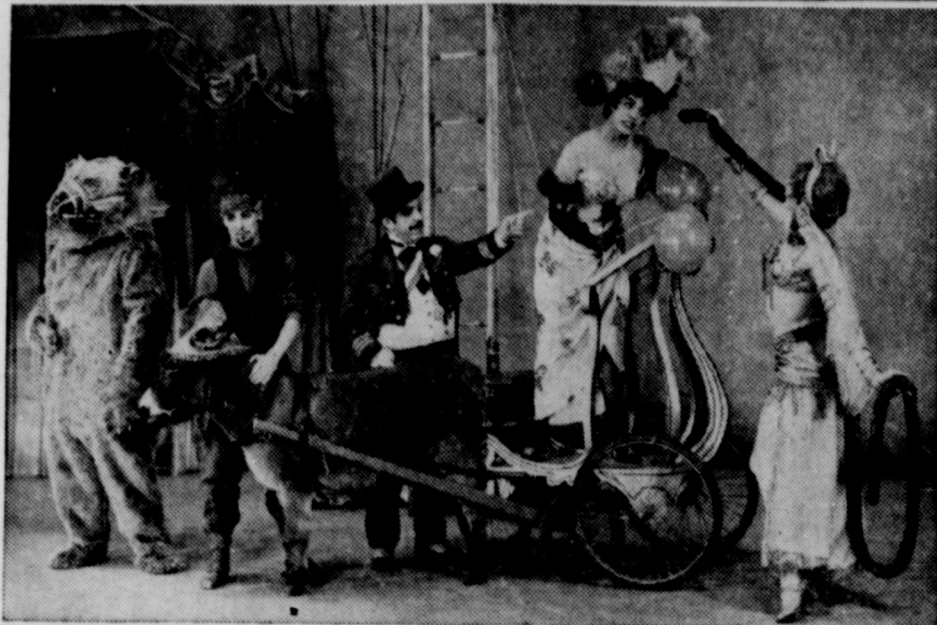

Burleson called it a "political laboratory."

"You are asking for something that is unfair," Burleson told Forrester.

"I don't think anybody is going to say that Georgia outrates Texas over there in the agricultural department," Forrester retorted.

Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Texas, also expressed unequivocal objection to the laboratory. He said each needing one should establish its own laboratory on a cooperative basis with the federal government.

'CARNIVAL' TO BE STATE FAIR SHOW

"Carnival," award-winning Broadway musical hit, will be a top theatrical attraction at the 1962 State Fair of Texas in Dallas. "Carnival" is a show the whole family can enjoy, a tureful and sentimental frolic complete with puppets, jugglers, clowns, trained dogs, a stilt walker, strong man, aerialist, dancing girls and even a performing "bear." The musical will have 24 performances Oct. 5-21.

rests containing controls for the electric windows (standard equipment). Assist grips on the back of the front seat aid entry and exit. Both front and rear seats contain center arm rests.

"Another new model is the 98 Custom Sports Coupe, a sophisticated sports car combining the distinction of 98 exterior appearance with the excitement of bucket seats, power console and the outstanding maneuverability of the famous Starfire engine," he added.

"In all these cars, 88's, 98's and Starfires," Wolfram continued, "are important advancements toward the greater comfort, convenience and safety of the driver and his passengers."

"Another important improvement is Oldsmobile's optional Tilt-Away steering wheel," he said. "By operating a small lever at the base of the steering column, the driver may position the steering wheel at whatever angle best suits him. He may also tilt the wheel to its most vertical position for easier entry and exit."

Wolfram said that other engineering advances include revised rear suspension geometry and newly designed body mountings for more all-round driving pleasure through amazingly quiet and smooth operation. The cars corner better due to improvements in sway control. For added maneuverability, turning diameter has been reduced almost three feet.

Standard on all Oldsmobiles for 1963 is a positive crankcase ventilation system which greatly diminishes crankcase fumes. "An exclusive Oldsmobile development," Wolfram explained, "this ventilation device contains a dual act-on-valve.

A new generator, the Delcotron, improves charging at idle speeds, thus prolonging battery life.

The Rocket engine, rated at 280 horsepower with two-barrel carburetor and 10.25 to 1 compression ratio, is standard on the Dynamic 88.

The Super 88 and most 98 models are equipped with the Strycket engine, using the same compression ratio but developed 330 horsepower with a four-barrel carburetor.

Oldsmobile's high performance engine, the 345 horsepower Starfire, is standard on both Starfire models and the new 98 Custom Sports Coupe.

In addition, 2,525 individual performances of USO "live" shows were arranged for a total audience of 3,855,581 in overseas areas, wherever American military personnel were stationed or sent.

Parks said, "In spite of the big statistics—the one and only purpose of USO remains that of providing an individual, personal service for every man and woman in uniform. Certainly it is no more than we would do ourselves if we could be there."

The Current Campaign here is seeking to raise $7,300 for health, welfare and character-building agencies in its 1963 campaign.

Members of the Stewardship Group met Tuesday in the Educational Building for a meeting. Mrs. L. C. Brown read the prayer calendar and the prayer for missionaries was given by Mrs. A. J. Blevins Sr.

man and approved by the group. Mrs. L. C. Brown read the prayer calendar and the prayer for missionaries was given by Mrs. A. J. Blevins Sr. A short business meeting was then conducted by Mrs. Tom Clark, president, during which the Community Missions project was discussed. Mrs. Falk is present project chairman. Anyone wishing to order a 1963 yearbook are asked to give 25c to Mrs. Clark. Plans for a nursery to be open during W.M.U. meetings was discussed in order to enlist more young women. Miss Odie Matthews volunteered to keep the nursery. A report from the nominating committee was given by Mrs. L. C. Brown. The following officers were elected: Mrs. James Pittman, vice president; Mrs. Tom Clark, enrollment chairman; Mrs. Wade Coan Sunbeam leader; Mrs. A. J. Blevins Sr., Bible Study chairman; Mrs. Harrison Curtis, prayer and program chairwoman; Mrs. Gene Falk, Community Missions and Stewardship chairman; Mrs. J. C. Allison, publicity chairman.

The offices of president, two G. A. leaders and one Sunbeam leader is yet to be filled. Mrs. Curtis, present Stewardship chairman, then presented a devotional followed by prayer led by Mrs. James Pittman. A skit on Stewardship was then presented by Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Brown. The meeting was closed with prayer led by Mrs. Allen Thomas.

Mrs. Davenport
Hosts Circle
Meet Tuesday

Two offices and one committee were appointed at the meeting of the Mary Davenport Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Fred Davenport.

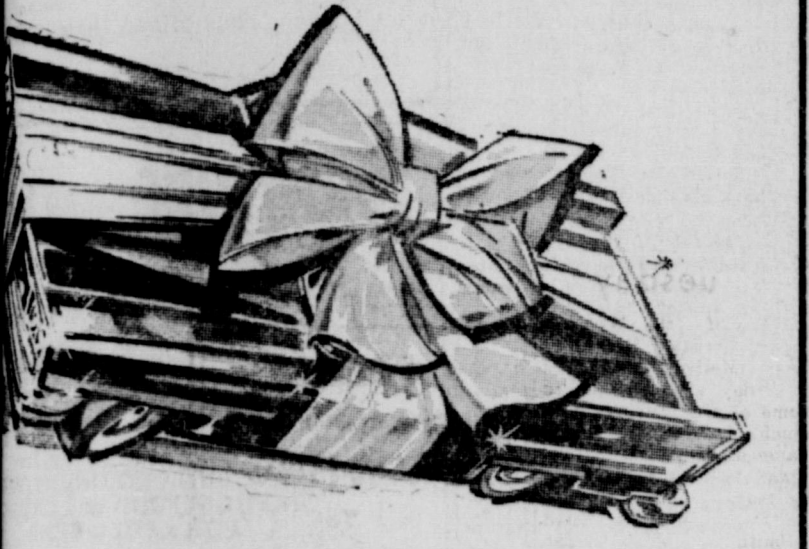

Mrs. Davenport, chairman of the circle, presided over the meeting during which Mrs. Frank Deato was appointed assistant chairman and Mrs. W. P. Leslie, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. B. O. Harrell, Mrs. T. L. Fagg, Mrs. C. M. Pogue, Mrs. M. A. Clyatt and Mrs. S. H. Brock were appointed as members of the telephone committee.

After a discussion the group voted to hold a rummage sale Oct. 5th and 6th. Other plans will be announced at a later date. Mrs. Jim Horton will represent the circle as she works with the general chairman, Mrs. Charles Lovelace.

Mrs. Horton presented the program on the United Nations and the work of UNESCO. After the program a Bible quiz was held. A refreshment plate of coffee and two nut breads were served to Mrs. R. E. Sikes, B. O. Harrell, S. H. Brock, Milborn Long, Cecil Collins, T. M. Collie, M. A. Clyatt, Frank Denton, James Horton, W. P. Leslie and the hostess, Mrs. Fred Davenport.

Thursday Club Tea To Honor President

The Thursday Afternoon Club will hold its opening meeting Thursday in the form of an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. T. M. Collie, new president. The tea will be held in the home of Mrs. H. J. Buigerin at 3:15 p.m.

Yearbooks for the new year will be distributed and Mrs. Bulgerin, yearbook chairman, will explain certain aspects of the programs and make available to the members materials which have been collected to aid in the program preparations.

Assisting Mrs. Bulgerin as hostess for the afternoon will be members of the yearbook committee, Meses. Frank Crowell and W. S. Fisher.

HD Program Is Given By Mrs. Pogue

Mrs. C. M. Pogue presented a program on "Flower Arrangement" to 13 members and one visitor at the regular Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Morton Valley Home Demonstration Club. She created several floral arrangements from both cut and artificial flowers.

Visiting the meeting were Mrs. Jimmy Horn and son, Paul.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Joe Bond, president, after which Mrs. I. E. Walker presented the devotional.

Mrs. G. M. Hargus called the roll which was answered with "My favorite flower". Minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were given by Mrs. Hargus.

During the business meeting plans were discussed for a float which was entered in the Peanut Bowl parade.

A Thank You note was read from Mrs. Carl McCall for a gift for her new home.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments of cookies and spiced tea were served by Mrs. Pogue.

The following members attended the meeting: Meses. G. M. Hargus, Joe Bond, Jeff Laughlin, I. B. Walker, H. C. Pounds, Robert Kincaid, Fritz Huffman, C. T. Brockman, Jessie Nix, M. V. Harrison, D. J. West, C. M. Pogue and Alvin Kincaid.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 10, at which time Mrs. Huffman will serve as hostess.

"The steam iron continues to grow in popularity and has become standard equipment in most homes. For economy, the steam iron should not replace the conventional iron for starched and dampened ironing. When buying a steam iron, check these features:

Comfort: Weight, shape of handle, room for hand and location of cord.

Balance: Steady when the iron is on its heel rest.

Water opening: Convenient size and location.

Temperature settings: Easy to see and have a wide range, especially a low setting for synthetic fabrics.

Soleplates: Stainless steel is easier to keep but more expensive than aluminum.

Reservoirs: Stainless steel or brass corrode less than aluminum.

Special features: "Spray sprinkle" for dampening, water level indicator, extra long cord, left or right hand design.

Service and parts: Should be available.

How to care for your iron: Read and follow manufacturer's instructions. For best results use on distilled or demineralized water. Demineralizers have changed color, they must be replaced.

Know capacity and measure correct amount of water. For safety, disconnect iron from electric outlet while filling. Protect soleplate from scratches-avoid ironing over pins or snags. When ironing is completed, turn steam switch to "dry" to prevent corroding of the valve and disconnect cord. Drain iron while still hot. When cooled, store in upright position.

To clean your iron: Soleplate: Clean while iron is cool. Use mildest method that will do the job—first a damp cloth; detergent; scouring powder or soap filled steel wool. Wire clean. Rub heated iron over waxed paper, then on dry cloth.

If the vents of the steam chamber become clogged, return the iron to the manufacturer for cleaning."

In my office I have a bulletin: "The Steam Iron" which contains information on the types of steam irons and tips for buying and care. If you would like a copy of this bulletin you may write me at Box 495 Eastland or call me at my office.
