Action Taken At Court Session

The county surplus food program will be extended a year, bids for a photocopy machine sought, and quarterly financial statements will be published as the result of action in County Commissioners Court Monday.

The court voted to continue its participation in the food program for another year, under the present set-up of 1,600 individual issues a year. Cost to the county is 36 cents per issue.

Commissioners agreed to buy two fans for the tax assessor's office.

E. L. Jackson of Cisco, president of the Cisco Country Club, appeared before the court and discussed taxes owing by the club. Property owned by the club had been divided by two highways as well as other property having been sold, and an adjustment was asked on taxes. Mr. Jackson was asked to talk with Deputy Tax Assessor Edgar Alton about duplicated renditions, to see if the amount owned by the club couldn't be reduced.

Abstracts of the club's property are not up to date, it was reported, and do not reflect the true amount of land to be taxed.

The court also opened a bid, and agreed to purchase a 1963 Ford dump truck, fully equipped. Roach Motor Co. of Rising Star was low bidder at $3,325.50. The truck will be used in the Rising Star Precinct by Commissioner Buck Collins.

A letter from the state attorney general's office concerning the recent dismissal of the county trapper was read.

The letter said in part: "Department finds that the Commissioners Court has no authority to employ a wolf trapper and pay him a salary out of county funds, regardless of whether or not same was placed in the budget."

No action was taken on the trapper situation.

Commissioner Tip Arther made a motion for the court to advertise in two editions for bids on a photocopy machine and all necessary accessories to be placed in the county clerk's office.

County Clerk Johnson Smith had repeatedly requested such a machine. Cost is expected to be about $9,800.

The treasurer's report will be published each quarter in one of the newspapers in the county. Schedule of publishing agreed upon by the court is as follows: Carbon Messenger, Gorman Progress, Rising Star Record, Ranger Times, Cisco Press and Eastland Telegram.

The court also voted to advertise for bids on a two-ton truck for the Rising Star precinct.

Roy Lee Smith of Eastland was appointed Eastland County Civil Defense co-ordinator by County Judge Bailey.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
The Methodist Youth Fellowship is indeed grateful to the citizens of Eastland for their wonderful support of our car wash.

We indeed wish to thank the employees of Rollins Gulf Service station for putting up with us. Too, we wish to thank the Eastland Telegram, KERC, the Jaycees and the merchants of Eastland for helping to publicize our car wash.

Then, since we have probably left someone out, we wish to repeat ourselves and say a great big thanks to the wonderful people of Eastland.
Sincerely yours,
The Methodist Youth

Class Profits In Capital Trip

Students of the Texas government class of Ranger Junior College returned to Ranger Thursday night from their field trip to Austin, where they gained firsthand information about the operation of various aspects and agencies of the state government.

Upon arrival in Austin the group toured the Governor's mansion and then had lunch in the Employment Commission Building. Next they visited the Sam Houston State Office Building, where former Ranger attorney L. H. Flew-ellen, member of the Texas Board of Control, explained the operation of the Board to them.

They spent some time in the State Archives Building where they examined important historical documents and artifacts deposited there, and then went to the Senate and galleries where the group was recognized and introduced from the floor by Senator Tom Creighton in the Senate and Representative Wayne Gibbs in the House.

Of special interest were the discussions heard of the San Angelo College Bill and the tax bill.

Next in order was a tour of the Capitol, including the vault, conducted by a member of the Governor's staff. Last they visited the Courts Building, where they were guests of Ernest Belcher, Commissioner of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and S. H. Johnson, Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court.

The students were accompanied to Austin by Mrs.

James P. Morris, who made arrangements for the trip. Students making the trip are the following: Buddy Marshall, Armando Cerna, Johnny Valadez, Jim Eager, Karen Lance, Melba Sue Wright, Stanley Neal, Linda Jones, Jan Duke, Janie Riebe, Tommy Green, Craig Adams, Don Fox, Lynn Corn, Ernie Huykman, Annette Miller, Marilyn Young, Alyce Pounds, Beverly Craddock, Betty Weisener, Murrell Robinson, David Ramsey, Tony Torres, Jerry Rench, Harold Pairish, Robert Moore, and Tom Loudermilk.

Magnified a Thousand Times
... is the common conception that it makes no difference, so why worry? The fact that a loaf of bread is taxed about 70 times has little outward criticism from the masses as we resolve ourselves into the complacent attitude that we can do nothing about it. But we should! It isn't Communism, nor Cuba, nor unpredictable Russia that are our greatest threats to survival, but taxes.
