Labor Serves Ultimatum On Price Rollback

Will Demand Removal Of Brown, Scrapping Of Wage Formula
WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—Organized labor served notice today it will demand removal of Price Administrator Prentiss Brown and scrapping of the Little Steel wage formula if prices are not rolled back to the September 15, 1942, level as stipulated by congress and the administration.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor and Philip Murray, head of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, joined in this statement today after a meeting between President Roosevelt and the combined labor war board.

Green said the threat to seek Brown's removal was not made to the president, but that the labor leaders did emphasize to the chief executive that unless prices are reduced they will demand that the war labor board cast overboard the little steel formula, under which wage increases of 15 per cent are permitted to compensate for rises in the cost of living since Jan. 1, 1941.

Murray said no deadline had been set in their conference with the president, but he hoped something satisfactory will be worked out by the time the group sees the president again at an early date.

Labor Board To Get Test Of Its Subpoena Power

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—A contract between the United Mine Workers and Illinois Bituminous Coal Operators, possibly a wedge for final settlement of the prolonged coal wage controversy, offered the War Labor Board today its first opportunity to test its new powers of subpoena.

Providing for a 48-hour week and wage increases of about $3 a day for 35,000 union employees of the Illinois Coal Operators Association, the agreement is contingent on WLB approval and an OPA authorization for increases in coal prices to offset the higher production costs.

There was no indication how the contract would be received by the WLB, which previously had rejected portal-to-portal (non-productive travel time) pay for miners.

It was expected, however, that the board would order hearings to ascertain the basis on which the $1.25 daily portal-to-portal pay in the new agreement was arrived at. Such hearings, board spokesman said, naturally would require the attendance of President John L. Lewis of the UMW. He has ignored the WLB consistently and refused several times to appear before it.

The recently-enacted Smith-Connally law contains a clause authorizing the board to issue subpoenas for witnesses.

The course, made available through the extension services of Texas Tech, has been sponsored by the Big Spring Safety Council.

He's Out Of The War Now, But Has Done Full Share

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 22. (AP)—First Lt. H. (Tex) Bryan is admittedly out of the war, but if it had lasted any longer for him they'd have had to invent some new decorations.

Bryan is a flying ex-crop duster and barnstormer from Dallas, Tex., who became an RAF hero. Today he's in Nichols general hospital.

Of the war, he said: "I'm out, I know it—at least I'll never fly any more. It's nerves, just the jumps." Bryan can't wear all his medals at one time. He keeps the bulky ones in his briefcase.

$100-A-Year Raise Is Authorized For B'Spring Teachers

Trustees Wednesday evening voted a $100 per year raise, clear across the board, to teachers of the Big Spring school system.

The action was taken as members of the board took up consideration of the proposed budget for the 1943-44 school year and set the date for public hearing on the instrument for Aug. 9. There are no strings attached to the raise, for it is to be spread out over the nine-month period.

Citing the lack of adequate space and uncertainty of instructional personnel for such technical subjects, the board declined to accept the offer of equipment for pre-flight and radio training from federal sources.

Opening date of school was announced as Sept. 6—which falls on Labor Day—but only a general faculty meeting will be held on the opening day. Students report first the following morning (Sept. 7).

G. H. Hayward and Robert Stripling were named as two members of the equalization board for the school, and a third member was due to be nominated later.

Depository for the schools for the 1943-45 biennium will be the First National bank and Robert T. Piner will serve as treasurer, according to board action.

Resignation of Laura Mae Evers as a teacher in the Kate Morrison school, and appointment of Mrs. Mildred Bennett as substitute for the remainder of the summer were approved by the board. Merle J. Stewart was given contract to audit the district's books, starting in August.

Nazis Badly Want 'Tito'

By The Associated Press
The Berlin radio announced today that the German military commander in Yugoslavia had offered a reward of 100,000 marks for information leading to the capture—dead or alive—of Josip Broz, Montenegro guerrilla leader popularly known as "Tito."

The broadcast, which was recorded by the Associated Press, acknowledged Tito's whereabouts are unknown, but said "Axis military authorities suspect he is now trying to organize partisan resistance in Slovenia."

As a result of mopping up operations last spring, the broadcast declared, Tito was forced to abandon guerrilla activities in northwest Bosnia and fled to Montenegro with remnants of his forces.

Axis troops were said to have pursued and annihilated most of his remaining forces in the mountains of Montenegro.

"Tito himself again escaped, however," the broadcast said, "with a few of his followers. He evaded pursuing Axis troops and his present whereabouts are not known."

Street Cars, Buses Stopped By Strike In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, July 22. (AP)—A million Angelenos got to work today—somehow—despite a work stoppage that halted cars and buses of the Los Angeles Railway Co. at 3 a. m.

Thousands of motorists, fortified with new gasoline ration A coupons that became good today, backed their cars from garages and filled them with job-bound war plant workers.

Downtown thoroughfares soon took on the semblance of Rose Bowl New Year's day traffic as automobiles thronged the streets that were strangely quiet in the absence of clanging street cars and the rumble of steel wheels.

War plans sent out trucks and trailers equipped with makeshift seats. Chartered buses hauled workers to some airplane plants as usual. Pacific electric railway interrupted cars and bus lines other than the Los Angeles Motor Co., affiliated with the strike-bound street car system, operated as usual.

D. D. McClurg, local president of the AFL union of drivers and motormen, said the transportation tieup would continue for only 24 hours. The 3,000 workers voted the work stoppage in protest of a war labor board's refusal to approve present wages of 80 to 90 cents an hour.

Possibility of army interference in the work stoppage was dispelled with a statement by Brig. Gen. R. E. McQuillen, second in command of the Southern California sector of the western defense command.

"Only the president can declare martial law," he said. "It is absolutely untrue that the army will take over transportation. That would require a directive from the president."

US Submarine Is Missing

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—The navy announced today the American submarine Triton, bold raider of Japanese shipping, "must be presumed to be lost" on a war patrol.

The Triton, which had destroyed more than a dozen enemy warships and merchantmen, was commanded by Lieutenant Commander George Kenneth Mackenzie, Jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The vessel carried a normal complement of about 60 men.

It was the tenth United States undersea boat to be lost in this war, including eight lost as a result of combat in the Pacific and two as a result of non-combat incidents in the Atlantic.

On the other hand, United States subs have accounted for 283 Japanese ships sunk or damaged, including a total of 200 sunk.

The last two previous submarines lost, also on war patrol in the Pacific, were the Amberjack and the Grampus.

Miss Laneous Notes

MARY WHALEY
Watching the thermometer out do itself trying to reach its zenith, it just occurred to us that perhaps the rest of you poor hot people would like to know our recipe for keeping cool.

For years we've been perfecting this method to combat hot days, and for only a small charge we pass it on to you. First of all, you must never think of walking if you can ride, and the best spot of all is lying flat on your back.

No matter how high the humidity or stupidity gets around your vicinity, refuse to get vocal about it for then your blood pressure gets on the move making you hot under the collar, and other places.

View with scientific detachment the fact that beads of perspiration are forming on your forehead and upper lip and that your clothes are clinging to you like you've just taken a shower.

Hire one small boy with large fan and umbrella to alternately fan a breath of air your way and to keep the sun off your skull.

Make as many calls as possible (and stay until you get thrown out) to establishments that are air conditioned. You could, of course, move to a northern climate, but with traveling conditions the way they are, our method is much economical and more practical.

No Speeches In 18 Months—

Record For Senatorial Silence

WASHINGTON, July 22, (AP)—With a modest shrug of his broad shoulders, Senator Eugene Donald Millikin (R. Colo.) conceded today that he may be on the brink of a record for sustained Senatorial silence.

The bald, twinkly-eyed Coloradoan has been a member of the nation's most august debating group for more than 18 months and has yet to make a formal speech in the chamber.

Millikin, who has been dubbed the "Irvin Cobb of the Senate" for his prowess as a story teller, says it isn't modesty that has kept him silent so long. He just thinks that the less talk, the more action.

"Every time I start to say something, I just think, well, if I wait a minute, somebody else will say it—and they usually do," he declared in an interview.

Once in a great while, however, Millikin will join briefly in the debate, which he is nearly always present to hear. Usually he puts his thoughts in one sentence, sits down.

Friends had to read the congressional directory to discover that the Colorado senator went into the last war as an enlisted man in the National Guard and came out as a Lieut. Col. of Engineers with a citation from General Pershing for distinguished and meritorious service.

So far as most of them could recall, Millikin never has drawn on this record, which would qualify him as a military expert in almost any legislative company.

Home Front Today—

LAGGING WAR PRODUCTION BLAMED BY OFFICIALS ON 'OVER-OPTIMISM'

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE
WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—

It took a while for the idea to gain momentum but government officials more and more are talking of "over-optimism" hurting war production.

There are plenty of reasons why production lagged in May and June—not all of them clear yet—but the emphasis now is on "over-optimism" as a cause.

Meanwhile the War Production Board (WPB) is busy trying to learn the causes—so a spokesman says—and to remedy them.

Here is the situation: May production was about the same as April although the figure can still be revised below April. June production—the figures will be released later this week—has been only a little better than May.

June laggards are expected to include heavy trucks, certain types of ammunition, some types of aircraft. Ahead of schedule probably will be tanks, artillery, small arms, equipment for the engineers and the quartermaster.

Merchant shipping most likely will be shown to have been up to June schedules although behind May in which all records for ship deliveries were broken.

On July 20—Charles E. Wilson, WPB's executive vice chairman, said the aircraft industry should produce 8,500 planes in July but probably wouldn't. Immediately Navy Secretary Knox blamed this anticipated failure on complacency which he said robbed the workers of their "will to produce." Already we are feeling the effects of over-optimism about the war's end, he said.

But shortly after Wilson and Knox made their statements Monday, a high WPB spokesman gave these explanations for production troubles: Aircraft production in June is expected to have reached a higher figure than May but still not high enough. The largest factors in this failure he said were in "design changes and some kind of manpower trouble."

He could not be certain, he said, whether manpower shortage in the aircraft industry was to blame or whether new workers were not being trained fast enough.

He said there is a "lot of trouble with secondary producers" and much delay is caused by "components," especially in heavy trucks. For instance, a manufacturer of such trucks in Detroit might be dependent upon a Louisville manufacturer of axle-housings. If the housings were not delivered on schedule, the trucks in their turn could not be delivered on schedule.

Design changes—such as those hurting plane production—can be a factor in other war goods' production faltering as in the case—say—of an anti-aircraft gun.

But the spokesman said: "Looking over the whole field, there is nothing wrong with production."

Former Big Spring Pastor Speaks Before Lions

Blessings of liberty and higher standards of life accrue to nations which maintain a close relationship with God, Melvin J. Wise, Dallas Church of Christ minister and a former Big Spring resident told the Lions club Wednesday.

The Jewish people of Biblical times maintained their status as the chosen people in proportion to their closeness to God, he declared and pointed out that prosperity and liberty conditioned similarly today.

"We sing 'God Bless America,'" said Wise, "but we should be asking what kind of an America can God bless."

J. L. LeBlou, second vice-president, presided in the absence of K. H. McGibbon, president, and Dan Conley, first vice-president, who are attending the Lions International meeting in Cleveland. A message from McGibbon was read at the meeting.

Antonescu Rejects German Demands

ISTANBUL, July 19, (Delayed) (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today that premier Ion Antonescu of Rumania has flatly refused German demands that Rumania participate in the fighting this summer against Russia.

Antonescu was reported to have told Nazi representatives two weeks ago that Rumania already had made great sacrifices and henceforth would only defend her own borders.

The sources also said the Germans, in reprisal for this refusal, had threatened to turn pro-Nazi iron guardists loose in Rumania to continue anti-semitic activity and terrorist campaigns which Antonescu suppressed late in 1941.

MILK PRODUCERS WILL BE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE GUESTS AT MEETING

Milk producers of the Big Spring milk shed will be invited as special guests at the chamber of commerce directors' meeting Monday noon to hear a discussion of milk production problems by local health unit and state health department officials.

Chamber officials pointed out that efforts to reconstitute the milk program here had met with misunderstanding in some instances and that it was felt that a discussion between producers and officials, with community leaders as interested spectators, might be the means of ironing out any difficulties.

B. J. McDaniel, city manager, said that he was contacting Dr. George Cox, state health officer, in an effort to have one of the best men from the milk division here to counsel producers. In addition, Dr. J. A. Olean, Midland, director of the Ector-Midland-Howard county health unit, and V. A. Cross, sanitarian for the Big Spring-Howard county unit, and possibly some city and county officials will attend.

For years Big Spring was on the state milk honor roll, but this year it was left off although local methods of production were not materially different. The problem now is to reconcile practices with state requirements and regain a place on the roll, according to health officials.

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better. Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sensations shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Severe Leaf Worm Problem Can Be Prevented By Use Of Arsenic

Leaf worms have made their appearance in several places in Howard county, but are found only in the oldest cotton. If conditions are favorable for them the next generation may be numerous enough to justify the application of poison. The second generation worms will begin ragging the cotton in the period July 25-August 5.

The severity of the worm infestation will depend on several things. There will undoubtedly be further migration of moths from the South, and wind currents will affect this migration. Sometimes their natural enemies control them, but there seems to be little likelihood of this. The only important parasite found in cotton at this time is the lady bird beetle, which at the present has plenty of food available in the plants. Hee found all over the county.

Then there is the prospect that leaf worms may not hatch because of dry weather.

But it would be much safer to secure enough arsenic to go over cotton once or twice. If many farmers wait too long to buy poison there may develop a shortage that would be disastrous. Remember it is war time and that everything is difficult to get quickly. On the other hand farmers should not buy up large stocks of arsenic that might not be needed and thereby create a shortage elsewhere.

Calcium arsenate is the ideal poison to use as a dust. Lead arsenate is better to use as a spray and less of it is required because it stays suspended better in water.

The general condition of cotton is good. If a few more fields had the weeds hoed out it would be better. At this time the cotton is remarkably free of injurious insects. The danger of flea injury has passed, and regardless of how many leaf worms there are, Howard county farmers will control them if they can get poison.

Wilson Foresees Meeting Here

Possibility of a district or sub-district meeting here as soon as the Farm Security Administration program is made fairly clear was seen today by Marvin Wilson, district FSA supervisor.

Wilson, here for a conference with Dr. D. Kendrick and Mrs. Floyd Sides, said that the meeting would be for the purpose of explaining details of the revised program.

NO SHORTAGE

HILLSBORO, July 22, (AP)—As far as Superintendent of Schools L. W. Hartsfield is concerned, the manpower shortage has been exaggerated. In his annual report he related that there was no vacancy on his faculty, and that he has a growing list of teacher applications on file.

The 500 Millionth Gallon

Somewhere on one of the global war fronts, or at one of the busy training fields here at home, the 500 millionth gallon of powerful 100-octane aviation gasoline made by the Humble Company has gone into action.

500 million gallons is a tremendous quantity of gasoline! Enough to fuel 200,000 four-engined bombers on a round trip raid deep into enemy territory. No, there aren't that many bombers . . . maybe there never will be . . . but, 500 million gallons will fuel 1,000 of these giants for 200 separate raids against the enemy.

Yes, 500 million gallons is lots of gasoline, and all of it has come from Humble's Baytown refinery which holds the distinction of having produced more of this essential war product than any other plant in the world.

But the Humble Company's war work is not confined to the production of 100-octane gasoline. Humble refineries have also produced millions of gallons of 91-octane gasoline for commercial airliners and training planes, and are currently providing, in addition to aviation gasoline, large quantities of the following petroleum products to ride in the raids with the bombers; toluene (since Pearl Harbor, Humble has produced a much more toluene for high explosives than all other sources in the nation combined); aviation engine oils; Univis instrument oils; stratosphere greases, and rust preventives. Humble soon will be producing synthetic rubber for tires, wire insulation, rubber boats, and numerous other essential items needed by the air force.

The Humble Company feels keenly its obligations in the nation's war effort. The same engineering skill, the same refineries which give you Esso and Humble gasoline, Esso, 997, and Valvet Motor Oils for your car and truck, your farm and industrial machinery, have been geared for war production. And 13,000 Humble employees are dedicated to the job of delivering vital war goods in adequate quantities and on time.

C-H-B Packers Add Their Ninth Plant

Purchase of the Pacific Packing company at Oakland, California, in the heart of the fruit district by the California Conserving company of San Francisco, was announced by M. E. Wangenheim, president. A full line of fruits and vegetables, in addition to tomato products, will be packed and marketed under the C-H-B label. This marks a further expansion of the California Preserving company which last year purchased the Knight Packing company of Portland, Oregon, and now operates 9 plants in California and Oregon, from which its products are distributed throughout the United States and foreign countries.

The California Conserving company has been noteworthy in the maintenance of its full sales and merchandising organization and during the war-time period has been putting in some strong efforts in behalf of the government's effort as well as adhering to its normal advertising pace. These were just recently recognized by a Citation for Distinguished Service by the United States treasury department. Its trade character "Pickle Puss" is fast becoming one of America's best known trademarks. In this connection, E. P. Gesellchen, vice-president and general sales manager of the company, states "that he believes this policy particularly necessary in view of the vast influx into the far western territory of so many newcomers... a high percentage of whom are expected to become permanent resident. We want these, as well as our old-time users, to be completely familiar with C-H-B condiments when there once again will be enough to go around."

Meat Alternates Prove Valuable

Many homemakers are wondering about the difference between a meat alternate, sometimes referred to as substitute, and a meat extender? Eggs, cheese, peanuts, dried beans, and soybeans are meat alternates because they provide about the same type of nourishment found in meat.

Meat extenders include such foods as dressings, gravies, cereals and vegetables which stretch meat bulk and flavor which do not actually take the place of meat in the diet.

Good examples of meat extenders are found in the following recipes furnished by Rheba M. Boyles, county home demonstration agent:

Meal-In-One-Dish
1-2 lb. hamburger meat
1-2 medium sized onion
3 tsp. bacon drippings or other fat

1 cup tomato pulp
2 medium size potatoes or 1 1-2 cups cooked rice
4-5 carrots
Season to taste
Salt, pepper, celery salt
Worcestershire sauce

Cook hamburger and onions in bacon drippings until red color is gone. Add salt and pepper, meat sauce or other seasonings to taste. Place left over vegetables in casserole, cover with seasoned meat, top with tomatoes and bake in moderate oven 30-40 minutes. Serve while hot.

Stuffed Meat Loaf
Dressing: 1 cup cornbread, 1 egg, 1-4 cup stock, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons chopped pickles, 1 tablespoon chopped onions, break cornbread into small pieces, add egg and other ingredients and mix well.

Meat: 1 lb. ground meat, 1 egg, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons flour. Mix thoroughly and spread out in thin layer.)

Spread dressing across the center and roll the meat into a compact roll around it. Place in greased pan and bake in moderate oven. May be served with gravy or tomato sauce. Slice across the loaf to serve.

Liver Loaf
1-1-2 lbs. Liver
1 onion
2 1-2 cups soft bread crumbs
2 teaspoons salt
4 slices bacon
1-4 cup chopped parsley
2 eggs, beaten
dash of pepper

Let sliced liver stand in hot water 10 minutes, then grind with onion, parsley and bacon. Add eggs, crumbs and seasoning and pack firmly into loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Serve with tomato sauce. Serves 6.

And here is a meatless loaf which will serve as a meat alternate.

Meatless Loaf
1 cup cooked rice
1 egg
2 teaspoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup crushed peanuts
1 cup cottage cheese
1 tablespoon fat
1-2 teaspoon pepper
Combine all ingredients. Bake in a loaf pan 30 minutes. Serves 6.

These recipes are worthy of being passed on to other homemakers in the state. They include:

Broiled Fresh Fish

Have the fish split down the back, wipe clean and remove any scales and the head and tail if desired. Lay the fish skin side down on a greased shallow pan. If the fish is oily, no fat need be added; otherwise add enough to season well. Place under the flame in a broiler at moderate heat and cook for 20 to 30 minutes. Slip the broiled fish carefully onto a hot platter, season with salt and pepper, pour on the drippings, garnish with cream or parsley and sliced lemon, and serve at once. If the fish is very large and thick, heat for 15 to 20 minutes in a moderate oven before putting under the broiler flame.

Fish Chowder
1 1-3 pounds fresh cod, haddock or any other large fish
2 cups diced potatoes
1 cup diced carrots
1 quart water
1-4 pound salt pork, diced
1 onion, chopped
2 tablespoons flour
1 pint milk
Salt
Pepper
Cut the fish into small pieces and remove the bones and skin. Cook fish, potatoes, and carrots in the water for 15 minutes. Fry the salt pork until crisp, remove from the fat, cook the onion in the fat for a few minutes, add the flour, stir until well-blended, and add the milk. Add this mixture to the fish and vegetables, add the salt and pepper, stir, and simmer for ten minutes longer. Add more seasoning if desired and serve over crackers.

Labor Importation May Be Limited

MEXICO CITY, July 21 (AP)—A possible future need to restrict the number of Mexican harvest workers permitted to go to the United States under contract was foreseen in two moves here yesterday.

One was the announcement that a representative of the Agrarian department would be added to the commission which selects workers permitted to emigrate. The government newspaper El Nacional said the step was taken "in view of the necessity of forecasting when the movement of the workers to the north will have to be "reduced to a minimum."

Reds Launch A New Attack

LONDON, July 22 (AP)—The Russians have launched a strong attack near Leningrad and heavy fighting has been raging since dawn, the German radio said today in a broadcast recorded by the Associated Press.

MOSCOW, July 22 (AP)—German reinforcements, rushed into the Orel breaches by forced marches, counterattacked viciously in desperate efforts to halt the Russian onslaught yesterday but were smashed back on to within nine miles of the German stronghold, the Russians announced officially today.

In a battle of increasing violence which raked 200 miles south of Moscow, the Russians said they beat through masses of enemy tanks and infantry for gains of four to nine miles and overran 90 villages.

The London radio said that Hitler had ordered Orel, hinge of the entire Nazi south-central defense line, held "at all costs."

The three-pronged Russian drive which threatened to outflank the city of 110,000 from the north and south and menaced it from the east, held these positions:

Driving from the north, the Russians had reached Buky, about 40 miles west of the city and within five miles of the crucial Orel-Bryansk railway at a point 35 miles northeast of Bryansk. Another column from the north had topped Optukha, nine miles northeast of Orel on the railway from fallen Mtsank.

Cosden-Jones Test Missing Oil Showing

Twenty feet below the completed depth for the discovery well for which it is a diagonal south-east offset, the Cosden No. 1 Chester Jones drilled ahead below 4,016 feet in a strange formation Thursday without any free oil shows.

The test, located 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 5-25, H&TC, had oil stains in lime at 4,005 feet, but other than more stained sections, it has not yet yielded the producing lime samples logged in the W. S. Guthrie & Cosden No. 1 Pauline Allen, which opened the new Vincent area. The No. 1 Jones was carrying a grayish-brown lime, while the pay in the No. 1 Pauline Allen, picked by many as the Clear Fork lime, was almost white. Bottom of the discovery is 4,096 feet, and it rated 161 barrels daily.

In the same area the W. S. Guthrie & Cosden No. 2 Pauline Allen, northwest offset to the discovery, was reported below 2,300 feet in lime. The Coffield and Guthrie No. 1 Guy Guffey, east offset in section 58-20, LaVaca, and the Magnolia No. 1 Willis Winters, south offset in section 6-25, H&TC, were both reported drilling.

Cosden No. 1 Willard R. Read, 330 feet from the south and west lines of section 48-30-1N, T&P, west outpost to the new Read pool in eastern Howard county, set 5 1-2 inch string at 2,508 before completing a clean up job resulting from a 1,250-quart shot.

Strength Of Jesus Cited By Minister

Jesus was a strong and robust man—not a weakling as artist pictures portray him, declared Melvin J. Wise, Dallas, who is leading in an open air revival at the Church of Christ at 14th and Main at 8:45 p. m. daily.

Wise spoke Wednesday evening from the text, "And Jesus grew in stature, wisdom and in favor with both man and God."

The Savior developed a strong body through living in the open and serving as a carpenter. He was full of wisdom, not gained by going to school but from God; and although his wisdom was tested in every way, his answers always possessed wisdom.

Jesus had a social life, continued Wise, for he mixed and mingled with people; he loved all; he enjoyed some special social connections with the Bethany family.

Moreover, Jesus had favor with God, said the preacher. "Thus," he concluded, "you may have a strong body, apt mind and rank high socially but if you have no favor with God, you have failed in the true objective of life." This evening he speaks on "Christ and the Church."

and one of Sicily's three biggest air bases, was captured in a pre-dawn infantry assault. A huge American armored column of medium and light tanks and half-tracks, exploited the gain, said an Associated Press from the newly-won city.

The city fell so speedily that the defenders had time to destroy only a few of the military installations.

It was disclosed that the often resuscitated 10th Bersaglieri regiment for the third time had been put out of action. It surrendered at Agrigento without firing a shot.

On the east coast, before Catania, the Allied communique said the Germans were resorting to heavy demolitions of roads and bridges and defense minefields to delay the eighth army's advance.

The Americans and Canadians were said to be chasing the retreating enemy northward in the general direction of the escape port of Messina, an advance which, if continued, would quickly put them in position to strike at Catania from the rear.

Observers in the battle zone reported a general Axis withdrawal in progress from the whole central and western region. Italian prisoners were quoted as saying the Germans already had fled to the east coast, taking all transport and leaving the Italians to walk.

With approximately half the island now under Allied domination, the single major highway skirting the north coast is the only avenue still open to the enemy for a large scale retreat.

Sea lions and hair seals are still abundant on the California coast, but the fur seal has disappeared.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Ralls and specialties led another selective recovery jog in today's stock market and assorted new highs for the past 3 to 6 years were well distributed.

Carriers apparently rested to additional pleasing revenue summaries and talk of near-by dividends. Individual business prospects helped some favorites.

Persistently optimistic war developments served as an argument for reinstating sold-out commitments. Skeptics were plentiful in Wall Street, however, and there was a notable absence of any buying rush.

Prices were irregularly improved at the start and, while losers cluttered the ticker tape, closing advances of fractions to a point or more were in the majority. There were a few wider spreads. Transfers were around 900,000 shares.

The only missing items which could be accurately determined as to amount was 150 quarts of home canned foods assigned by the surplus commodity corporation to the project before it closed in the late spring.

Also missing, but in undetermined amounts were dishes, quilts, sheets, and mattresses. Police said that apparently much of the goods had been missing for some time.

She wants to win an unpopularity contest! Elizabeth Jenkins seeks title of "Most hated by Axis in 1943!" THE AXIS has probably never heard of Miss Elizabeth Jenkins—but she's doing her level best to change that! Elizabeth works in an essential industry thereby releasing, in effect, a fighting man. And out of the salary she draws for that work she puts 22% into War Bonds, through the Payroll Savings Plan. She figures that her investment may help to maintain the three fighting men who are closest to her—her two brothers and her father. "They're fighting for me, so the least I can do is to help buy the tools they fight with!" says Elizabeth. Her father commands a brigade of the North Carolina State Guard. He saw action overseas in the last war and his stories have made Elizabeth keenly aware of the importance of her investment in War Bonds. Her father has explained that no matter how much spirit and fight a soldier has, he needs the best equipment that money can buy. He has also pointed out that American soldiers are the best equipped in the world. Miss Jenkins wants to keep them that way, because in addition to her father, she has two brothers in the Army.

Elizabeth Jenkins seeks title of "Most hated by Axis in 1943!" Lieutenant Tom is an antiaircraft artilleryman. Captain Jack is in the Air Corps. So Elizabeth is reasonably sure that in one way or another, the Axis will hear from the Jenkins family in the near future. It makes no difference to Elizabeth whether her War Bond investment buys bombs or shells—either one will get her a few more votes for the title she's seeking. Are you doing as much for America's future as Elizabeth Jenkins? Are you as anxious as she is to get the war over and get the war won? Every dollar you can lend hurries Victory, so . . . Figure it out for yourself! Weren't there a few more dollars in your last pay envelope that could have gone into War Bonds—but didn't? Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, July 22. (AP)—Because they couldn't even guess last spring what football would be like this fall, eastern college athletic directors put off their usual convention . . . but they'll gather here next week to re-make their schedules, hear talks by Major Gen. P. H. Fleming, Congressman Sammy Weiss and others and to talk over the situation . . . Some of the subjects of discussion listed by ASA Bushnell are whether teams should play under their college names or adopt designations like "Camp Kingsbridge," how far they should go in dropping eligibility rules, what steps should be taken to attract "the largest possible crowds with least possible demand upon transportation facilities," and various means of lessening costs and reducing non-essentials. . . .

Today's Guest Star
Kerr Petrie, New York Herald-Tribune: "Joe Louis' tee shot was like one of those lateral passes that finish up with a loss of ten yards."

Gunder Haegg, who prefers Gaffelbritor to vegetables as a training diet, couldn't get enough oranges and grapefruit during his stay in California. . . . Texas sports scribes are trying to steam up a "big game" next fall between Southwestern U. of Georgetown, Tex., and Southwestern Louisiana Institute of Lafayette, La. . . . Never heard of em? Well, the Texas Southwestern has a navy crew of players from Texas and Baylor and other big colleges while S. L. I., Chris Cagle's old school, has landed most of the Rice team in addition to a few Mississippi and Louisiana stars.

Quote, Unquote

Naval Trainees May Compete In Sports
HOUSTON, July 22. (AP)—Capt. Thad Thomson, commandant of V-12 units, informed Coach Jess Neely of Rice Institute that naval trainees at Rice will be free to compete in intercollegiate sports. Naval trainees who meet academic and other standards will be permitted to engage in football and other college sports by allocating to those sports the hour daily which is required for physical training, Captain Thomson said. Trainee gridmen will be permitted to accompany the football team on out of town trips, provided they are not absent from the campus more than 48 hours, the captain said.

SHORTAGE OF LONGEST LONG GREEN REPORTED

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—Of all the things to have to worry about, now the treasury comes along with the disheartening announcement that $10,000 bills are getting scarce. Nearly 4,000 of the longest of this country's long green have found their way back into the treasury in the past two and one-half years. There are fewer than 2,200 at large. The rise and decline in popularity of the big notes follows a pattern that can be traced to darkening war clouds and the imposition of stringent government monetary controls. When there is a demand for the big bills, officials attribute some of it to desire on the part of some foreign nationals to convert their assets into the most compact form of cash. The government some time ago turned a more critical eye on such dealings and added new and sharper controls. Then the notes began to flow back to the banks. The latter, in turn, converted them into smaller currencies. Thus, while the number of $10,000 bills in circulation was declining from a high of 6,029 in July, 1940, other denomination notes grew sharply in volume to keep pace with the vast amount of cash generated by the ever-increasing tempo of war production.

Brooks Split A Pair With Cincinnati

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The house cleaning of the Brooklyn Dodgers may have made them as neat as a pin, but not nearly as sharp. Even before their rebellion they had practically no chance of capturing the national league pennant from the St. Louis Cardinals, but now they look likely to have the Pittsburgh Pirates, who may get revenge for the 23-6 trouncing that the Dodgers administered the day of the revolt in Brooklyn.

The Pirates are the hottest thing in the senior circuit at the moment and have won six of their last seven games, including four out of five from the Cardinals. Yesterday the Buccanera battered the faltering Phillies 10-2 with Bob Kilinger pitching five-ball and Pete Coscarart and Maurice Van Robays leading a 14-hit attack.

This saved their distance behind the Dodgers to a mere three games and gave them a chance to move up this week-end when Brooklyn comes to Pittsburgh for a four-game series.

The Dodgers divided a doubleheader with Cincinnati and were hardly impressive in either game. They were smothered 11-1 in the opener as Elmer Riddle annexed his 12th victory and they stummed to a 8-7 decision in the nightcap with the help of fielding lapses by the Reds. Three times when the Dodgers sacrificed the Reds tried to catch the leading runner and failed and two errors also figured in Brooklyn's scoring.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, lengthened their margin on top of the Dodgers to 4 1-2 games by sweeping a double bill from the New York Giants 3-1 and 14-6. The redbirds were held to three hits in the opener, but made all of them count for runs while Rookie George Munger, drawing his first starting assignment of the season, kept the nine hits well spaced. In the other national league game Hiram Bithorn, the Puerto Rican righthander, bagged his 11 triumph and seventh in eight decisions as the Chicago Cubs beat the Boston Braves 4-1.

The St. Louis Browns, who lost an entire series to the New York Yankees recently in the west, gained a 1-0 verdict over the American League champions at Yankee Stadium in the tenth inning when Vernon Stephens opened with a double and scored on a wild throw by Pitcher Charley Wensloff on Mike Chartak's sacrifice. Wensloff gave only five hits to nine the Yanks made off Steve Sundra.

Lefty Al Smith pitched and batted the Cleveland Indians to a 7-0 shutout over the Philadelphia Athletics, allowing only two hits and getting a triple, double and single himself. Chicago and Boston divided a doubleheader, Tex Hughson taking the first for the Red Sox 3-2 with the help of Leon Culberson's hitting and Orval Grove getting credit for the White Sox's 8-6 triumph in the nightcap as Luke Appling batted in four runs with three hits. It was the ninth victory without defeat for Grove, although he failed to finish.

A three-run rally in the ninth climaxed by George Case's single for the tying and winning runs brought Washington a 6-5 edge over Detroit in a night game after the Tigers had taken a five-run lead in the first three frames. Rudy York hit his 12th homer for Detroit.

CHICAGO, July 22. (AP)—Miss Patty Berg, Minneapolis' famed freckled-faced, red-head, may be playing her last tournament golf in the current Tam O'Shanter extravaganza. Patty, rated the country's best woman golfer, has passed all examinations for the United States Marines Corps.

200 Match Shots For Year's Biggest Prize In Golfdom

Byron Nelson Is Picked For Top Honors

CHICAGO, July 22. (AP)—The big guns of golf fired their mightiest shots over the Tam O'Shanter meadows today to start the $10,000 all-American open tournament, major event of the dazzling three-ring golfing circus which winds up Sunday.

Sixteen of the nation's best women players also started on the first round of a 72-hole play tournament, while 16 of the surviving male amateurs advanced through the third and quarter final rounds. All three tournaments were carried on simultaneously on the same course which probably is a record for mass fairway production.

A field of 200, professionals and amateurs, were in the force attacking the all-American open for the year's richest golf prize. Among them were such distinguished shooters as Byron Nelson of Toledo, who has won the two previous Tam O'Shanter opens; Sgt. Clayton Heafner of the army; Jimmy Demaree; Walter Hagen, 53 year old Chick Evans; Jim Ferrier; Lloyd Mangrum; Chick Herbert and Orval White of Winston-Salem, N. C. White yesterday turned in a 37-33-70, two under par, to win the $150 medal prize for the qualifying pros.

The 35 year old White, who played no major golf for four years because of a heart ailment, is allowed to play only 18 holes a day under doctor's orders. One shot behind White came Johnny Palmer, 25 year old pro from Badin, N. C., and Johnny Rogers, Denver, Colo., veteran and one of the longest hitters in the field.

The blond Nelson was favored to triumph again in a punishing 72-hole test, but not by any wide margin. The field includes at least a dozen other professionals who may give Lord Byron serious trouble before completion of the four 18-hole rounds.

Two years ago Nelson shot the 72 holes in 278, two under par, to eop the $2,000 first prize. A year ago he got around in 280, including one course record round of 63, to the Heafner, whom he defeated 67-71 in the playoff for $2,500.

The battle for the championship in the women's division for $800 in cash and war bond prizes figures to involve Betty Hicks of Long Beach, Cal., recently inducted into the Spar; Miss Patty Berg of Minneapolis, Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, Mo., Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D., and May Byrne of Rye, N. Y., a 25 year old songstress.

Miss Hicks, former women's national champion, won medal honors yesterday with a 41-38-79, three over women's par. Miss Berg, rated as the nation's outstanding woman golfer, trailed with an 80. Mrs. Hill and Miss Tainter had 81's, and Miss Byrne turned in an 82.

The amateur force today found sleepy Bill Chambers, the sailor from the nearby Great Lakes Naval Station, and Wilford Wehrle of Racine, Wis., last year's runner up, playing each other. Each was a double barreled winner yesterday.

Chalky Wright Defeated By Constantino

CLEVELAND, July 22. (AP)—Ancient Chalky Wright interrupted his cigar-smoking last night long enough to lose a fight and enhance the reputation of a promising young featherweight.

New York's Lulu Constantino was awarded a unanimous 10-round decision over the 31-year-old former ruler of the featherweight division.

The 21-year-old Lulu viewed the outcome as the means of getting another shot at lightweight contender Bob Montgomery.

After the fight, Wright gave the youngster a boost saying: "The kid's learned a lot and is improving fast."

Band Music, Too, At Grid Classic

CHICAGO, July 22. (AP)—The musical pageantry at the college all stars-pro football game this year will be under the direction of Raymond F. Dvorak, University of Wisconsin band director and a pioneer in the field of band maneuvers.

Dvorak replaces Glenn Cliff Rainum of Northwestern University who was in charge of the bands at the previous nine all-star games and who now is in the navy. The all-stars will meet the Washington Redskins in Dyche Stadium on the night of Aug. 25.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 22. (AP)—Edward Ray of Tait, Tex., seeded No. 1 in the state junior tennis tournament, and other top-seeded players who arrived late from a metropolitan tournament are expected to add color to the second-round matches as the junior and boys' tourneys enter their second day. Post-War Boom In Sports Seen DETROIT, July 22. (AP)—A post-war sports boom, featuring international football facilitated by aviation, was predicted today by Lloyd Brazil, University of Detroit athletic director.

American sports are being introduced to far countries now by our fighting men and after the war we must have something better than ever before attempted to satisfy this increased fandom, Brazil said. To fill the bill, he predicts that promised developments in aviation should make it easy for football teams to fly from country to country as heretofore they have traveled across state lines.

Another Hogan Is Favorite In Golf

FORT WORTH, July 22. (AP)—Glen Garden's annual invitation golf tournament moved into the second round of match play here today with Royal Hogan, Ben's brother, having been established a slight favorite in an evenly balanced field.

Hogan gained his rating yesterday when he eliminated a fellow Fort Worth player, Frank Latham, 6 and 4, and finished out the round for a 68—the lowest medal score in either practice or official rounds of the tournament.

Hogan meets A. P. Simons today in the second round. Other favorites, including the 15-year-old medalist from Arlington, Charles Sims, advanced yesterday.

Original Anti-Inflation Program Still Stands

The President's original statement of the way to beat inflation still remains the best summary ever made. It was presented April 27 1942. It called for seven steps: (1) Heavy taxation to hold down personal and corporate profits; (2) price ceilings; (3) wage stabilization; (4) farm price stabilization; (5) war bond sales; (6) rationing of scarce commodities; (7) discouragement of credit buying, encouragement of debt retirement and savings.

This discussion concerns itself with Numbers 1 and 5—taxation and war bond sales. These are designed for the double-barreled purpose of financing the war and siphoning off excess money which, if used in the commodity market, would prompt inflation.

The simple way of stating the problem is to say that, there being $45,000,000,000 to be bought money, all we need do is borrow and tax $45,000,000,000, which would leave just enough money to pay normal prices for the available goods.

Following this line, Congress would merely devise a combination of tax and compulsory savings policy which would take from each person his share of the excess $45,000,000,000. To an extent that is what tax plans thus far have had as a goal.

But there is where the real trouble begins. What is any man's fair share of the $45,000,000,000 that needs to be taken out of circulation?

If everybody had been employed when the war program began, and everybody's salary or wage (or income from dividends and interest) had risen by a standard percentage, a practicable if hard-billed method could be found.

There were, however, millions out of work in 1939 who now are earning good wages. There were millions employed at subsistence levels who now are prosperous. There are many—millions, actually—who are earning not one penny more now than they were in 1939. Some receive less.

Thus the buying power of somewhere between 10 and 15 million Americans has skyrocketed; the buying power of perhaps as many more has increased greatly, but that of a third big group has decreased.

We can't, justly, tax the group which has actually lost in purchasing power as heavily as that which has profited enormously from war employment. So we steer toward an excess income tax, to take away profits that have arisen out of the war program.

That is what the Treasury is discussing now.

Will Demand Action on Peace Aims

WASHINGTON — If you are interested, this summer is the time to put your Congressman or Senator on the record for post-war peace plans.

It could very well be that this will be the last recess call Congress will have before some or all of our enemies are defeated. When Congress reconvenes in September, work already on the calendar will keep it humping until the appropriation bill are out of the way early next summer. Most military experts predict that there will be some decisive action against at least the European portion of the Axis by that time.

Sen. Joseph H. Ball (R. Minn.) has served notice on the Senate that he and the co-authors of the B2E2 resolution (for Republican Senators Ball and Burton, Ohio; and Democratic Senators Hatch of New Mexico and Hill of Alabama) will demand action in September on at least a definition of United States world peace aims.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds—'Destination Tokyo' Is Film Containing Real Naval Secret

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—There's a picture on the sound stages now that has a naval secret in it. It's one of those it-really-happened tales that will cause excitement when the Navy sees fit to release it for public information—probably, or so the studio fervently hopes, at some date near the time of the film's release. To put it another way, the picture cannot be released until after the news is out.

"Destination Tokyo" is on a guarded set, admission to which is restricted to those who can obtain a special pass written on (WOW) the studio's best engraved stationery. Axis snappers, even if they got on, wouldn't learn much. The "secret" is but a part of the fictional tale, and the Navy, co-operating in the filming, is taking care of that.

Daves is a pleasant, red-haired chap who has been many things in pictures, from property man to actor, but made his name as a writer of lucid, well-knit scripts. This writer-director thing is becoming contagious, as note the work of Preston Sturges, John Huston, Norman Krasna, Dudley Nichols who has started his first in "Government Girl" and now Daves.

Daves is a Stanford man who came down to Hollywood and learned the ropes under the tutelage of the late James Cruze. He had specialized in law, had studied and taught art, been a commercial artist, an amateur camera fan, and a student of movies since coming to Hollywood in 1927. He turned to directing for a "change of pace." The script he handed him was by Steve Fisher, and at first it was planned as a run-of-the-reel production.

Sen. Joseph H. Ball (R. Minn.) has served notice on the Senate that he and the co-authors of the B2E2 resolution (for Republican Senators Ball and Burton, Ohio; and Democratic Senators Hatch of New Mexico and Hill of Alabama) will demand action in September on at least a definition of United States world peace aims.

In the House, the resolution of Rep. J. William Fulbright (D. Ark.) also demanding a statement of House policy on post-war peace plans, is awaiting assignment of the calendar by the Rules committee, and already has been approved by the Foreign Relations Committee.

That Senate poll, taken about three months ago by The Associated Press, showed that 24 Senators favor taking a stand now for a world police force to keep the peace. While 32 Senators opposed it (many of whom are not by any means isolationists, but objected to the declaration of such a policy now for other reasons), there were another 32 who had not reached any decision on the matter, and only eight who could not be reached for a statement.

It is at least 40—23 Democrats and 17 Republicans—who should be placed "on the record" and the opinions of the other 36 changed, if that's the way you feel about it.

Also it is no secret that Cary Grant and John Garfield are the stars, and that it is Delmar Daves' first job as a director.

Because he was following birds in flight, Columbus would have been led to what is now the United States if his voyage had been in spring rather than fall.

"Somebody suggested that Cary Grant wasn't working and might be available. I groaned. Grant, with approval of story, director and everything else—and this my first directing job? But we tried, and Cary liked the script, and here we are."

The constant demand from our boys in the armed forces to know definitely what we are fighting for has been one of the main factors in forcing sentiment toward action now.

Perhaps some members of Congress have been stirred too by recent reports from the theatres of war that the boys in the Army and Navy are talking loud and long about the day when they come home and "take over the government and run things the way they should be run."

Regardless of the cause, the sentiment for a fairly accurate definition of peace aims in a post-war world is definitely gaining.

It remains now for Congress, which means the voters, since it is their spokesmen, to get "on the record." Congress should return in September armed with the opinion from home.

MURDER IN TIN

By CARL A. PETERSON

Chapter 4

Mirtilo crossed the Avenida Alameda, where the inauguration of Juarez into the historic park, the another century had staged its burnings. I don't know why I recalled this fact now, but I did. I dug into my pockets for a cigarette, but my pack of Delicados was empty. Then the idea hit me that I was being followed.

I turned around. Nobody was following me, I decided. Nobody. And yet I still felt as if I were being followed. I considered that there was still time to turn tail and return to the Hotel Famoso. I was a mining engineer after all. I told myself and there was no use taking on an assignment that I wasn't trained for.

Ahead of me, Mirtilo was leaving the Alameda for the next avenue, the Avenida Hidalgo. I wiped the sweat from my forehead and thought it was quite a trick sweating at night in Mexico City, in this mountain city a mile and a half above sea-level.

The possibility that Sam Taggard's daughter had discovered that I was after her father and had for some reason of her own wanted me to meet Mirtilo made my head spin. At the same time, I had a feeling about Mirtilo. It wasn't a mathematical equation, but I was pretty confident it would add up to something. I was positive that no man could have faked the hate he had shown at the Hotel Famoso.

When he swerved into a small tequila place on the corner, I moved up to the doorway. There was a bar on one side, but Mirtilo wasn't at the bar. He was closing a door after him to the rear.

I went inside. "Tequila," I said to the Mexican with the dapper little mustache behind the bar. He struck me as being a shade too elegant for this spot.

"Si, senior."

I took the glass of tequila he poured me, drank it. After the third drink, I dropped a peso on the bar for payment. The tequila had straightened my thinking out. My best bet was to get in touch with Fall right away. Hurriedly, I picked up the pile of centavos the bartender had substituted for the big shining peso and walked towards the doorway.

The doorway was blocked by a big man who shoved something hard against my stomach. This wasn't true, I thought. It was only now that I looked down at the big man's fist. I laughed. Only tequila could have made me laugh at a gun.

"Shut up," the big man said. In his lapel he was wearing an American flag. He was one of those lanky six-footers with a spread of shoulders like a heavy-weight wrestler.

"You can't do this," I said. "Pitch that squawk of yours a little lower," he said.

The bartender left the bar and swung open the door in the rear. The American grinned at me. "You walk back, feller. Straight back."

I went through the door. Behind me somebody said, "Buenas, Senior." It was Mirtilo. He was sitting on a wooden chair that had once been painted green.

"You release me," I said. "The consul—"

"Ah, the consul," Mirtilo parroted softly.

"Look here," the American said. "We know who you are. Your name's Calder. You're working for the U.S.A."

"All true except the last part," I said.

"How long've you been working for the Government anyway?" the American asked me.

"I don't work for the Government."

"What were you doing over in Texas?" he said. "You've been to the tin smelter twice in the last few months. You've just pulled

War Linguistics Are Streamlining Way To Strange Tongues

By ARLENE WOLF
AP Features Writer

Learn a language. Learn any language. Everybody's doing it. Maybe you're too busy to go to school, but that's no obstacle. Just sit in your living room, turn on the radio, and out comes a language. Or open a neat little case of records, and put one on the phonograph.

Deal A Language

If you're social-minded, there's a playing card method, so you can share new knowledge with the rest of the family. Should you crave variety, there's even a course that gives a smattering of different tongues at one time.

Interest in languages has more than doubled since the outbreak of war, according to conservative estimates. Some authorities link this new interest with a trend toward anti-isolationism. The fact that people want to know other languages, they say, shows a desire to participate in things international.

Important For Servicemen

Others attribute it to the fact that thousands of men and women going into the services feel another language will be a necessity.

"War Linguistics," Dr. Mario Wei's bird's-eye-view course at Columbia University makes the student proficient in identifying various languages—a vital thing for a soldier in a foreign land.

Remember back in high school when you sat and wearily conjugated "I love, you love, he loves, we love, they love, you love?" Those days are gone forever. The new "direct methods" by which millions of Americans are learning today, make a detour around grammar and plunge headlong into practical conversation.

Natural Method

"It's the only natural way to learn," Max Sherover, director of the Linguaphone Institute insists. "A child learns to speak long before he worries about grammar. In past years, we've succeeded in making simple things far too complex. Old school methods taught to read and translate, but not to speak. Today, we're going back to the fundamentals of the spoken word."

Spanish is the most popular new language for Americans today. French, which was number one on the list, fell off with Vichy, but has been making a comeback since

New Production In Wichita Falls Area

WICHITA FALLS, July 22. (AP) Wichita Falls had a new oil field today after the Consolidated Oil company's No. 1 A Lakshul Wildcat blew in from a sandy lime at 4415-85 feet.

Col. W. T. Knight, chairman of the board of the Consolidated company, estimated that the well, situated near the city limits, will be good for at least 1-500 barrels a day.

in from the mines out of Potosi. It's tin all the time with you. Don't tell me you're only a tour ist."

Mirilo got out of his chair, stepping close to me. "Where is Taggard?" he said. I had never seen a pair like Mirilo and this American in one room together. They made an effective combination. "I don't know what you're talking about," I said.

The big American locked the door. The gun wasn't in his hand now and I estimated the chances of breaking out. There was Mirtilo, but the American made it hopeless. He looked as powerful as wire cable. And big as he was, he had followed me like a ghost for days. I had never seen him until he had filled the doorway outside.

"No," said the American. "What about the smelter? How many F.B.I.s they got guarding that smelter? That's a great state, Texas is. My home state."

"Was your state," I said. "Germany's your state now."

He charged in on me, and so quickly I didn't see his hand move he had lashed my cheek with the flat of his palm. Out of the side of his mouth, I heard him say to Mirtilo. "Maybe we'll have to wipe out this lug."

September Drive To Call For More War Bonds Than Ever From Citizens

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP) — Digging deeper than ever into the pockets of the average citizen, Uncle Sam will set out in September to break his own world's record for financing war.

Starting September 9, the nation's third war loan drive will seek to raise $15,000,000,000—and if previous records are any criterion, the response will go far beyond that goal.

All of it is to come from non-banking sources, which is an innovation here in the business of buying the tools of war.

The first drive last December was aimed at a $9,000,000,000 goal, but actually raised nearly $13,000,000,000. In April, the treasury department shot for $13,000,000,000—and got $18,500,000,000. However, in both cases, banking sources brought in about $5,000,000,000 of each total.

In each case, the financing program represented the largest to date, in world history.

Details of the program were announced yesterday by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, who said the job of raising the money will be handled by war finance committees of each state.

$5,000 BOND SET
Bond of $5,000 was set for Paul Harris, charged with rape, after examining trial was held Thursday morning in justice court.

Bombardiers' Exploits Are Disclosed

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP) — The war department today released the story of a Texas bombardier who though wounded remained at his Flying Fortress bomb sight until his bombs were dropped on Bremen, gave aid to a wounded navigator, then revealed his own injuries.

He was S/Sgt. Lewis Fletcher of Sulphur Springs.

A burst of flak ripped through the fortress's plexi-glass nose and sent steel sprinters into Sgt. Fletcher's leg as the bomber approached its target.

Disregarding pain, Fletcher maintained his post, called "bombs away," then turned to aid the navigator, 2nd Lieut. Bryan B. Boschma, Springfield, S. D. Later, 20 to 30 lacerations were found in Fletcher's thighs.

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP) — First Lieut. Howard L. Glick, navigator-bombardier of Galveston, Tex., crawled through a Marauder's cockpit and along a slippery catwalk high above the Mediterranean to release four clusters of fragmentation bombs caught beneath his plane.

The story of his exploit was released today by the war department.

Fighting its way back to North Africa from a raid on Sicily, Glick's B-26 Marauder carried its unreleased bombs.

Lieut. Glick, the war department said, knew there was grave danger of the bombs exploding directly beneath the plane and that in event of a crash landing they would destroy the plane and kill the crew.

With a pair of pliers he crawled to the bay, cut wires engaging the bombs, allowing them to drop free. Then he crawled back to safety.

The plane, pierced by some 75 flak and bullet holes, landed safely.

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP) — Suds are scarce (as though you didn't know). Americans have been drinking rivers of beer. So on the surface the story looks simple:

If Americans drank less beer, they'd have more beer to drink. But there's more to the story:

1. Beer production has fallen off.
2. Some brewing sources say between 20 and 25 percent of the beer produced is going to the armed forces.
3. More people have more money now than ever before to spend on cooling their throats.
4. Brewers have troubles: short ages in corn, hops, even glass bottles. Transportation is another pain.

That is why the corner storekeeper sometimes has to tell you: "Sorry, we're all out of it."

Beer production may pick up but on a wide scale brewers have been rationing their products to retail outlets.

Some of the largest breweries have limited the distance they will deliver their beer. This helps cut the nation's freight load on train and truck.

For that reason: Various areas must get along with more of the local brand than formerly.

The War Food Administration points out: 70 percent of the nation's beer is made in states east of the Mississippi river and north of North Carolina.

Therefore, that heavy beer-making section would have more beer than any other section.

But since population in that section is densest, supply there may not always appear so abundant.

The south, WFA says, has been complaining of a beer shortage for more than three months.

Beer production in 1942—67,700,000 barrels—was the greatest in this country's history. Until last spring, 1943 production was running 10 percent ahead of 1942.

The production drop started in May.

AAFBS Baseball Team Defeated By Carlsbad

A ninth-inning rally that knotted the count failed to save the Big Spring Bombardier School baseball team from its initial defeat of the season Wednesday at the hands of the Carlsbad Army Flying School, 5-4.

After Hallahan's pinch single in the last frame had pushed across the tying run for the Bombardiers, Peoples nicked Shelton for a single to score Hatcher from second for Carlsbad.

The New Mexico boys had one fat inning—the fourth—in which they jumped on Rudolph with everything they had to push across four tallies. After that he settled down and pitched through the eighth.

More Motorists Signing Coupons

Service stations noted no great increase in trade Thursday as the new "A" mileage ration books went into effect, but expected that by the end of the week the new coupons would begin to swell their business.

The motorists seem to be more cooperative in endorsing the coupons before handing them to station operators, managers said, and backed the local ration office's plea to endorse all coupons at the same time in order to save having to endorse the coupons as they are used.

The Japanese current, which tempers California's climate, was discovered by the Spaniards in 1521 and was used by them to speed their galleons to the Philippines.

Unusual! Strawberry Mint Pie

ENHANCE the delicate flavor of your next strawberry pie with a little fresh mint. You'll be delightfully surprised with the result. This recipe for Strawberry Mint Pie is a sugar-saver, too, for it uses glassed syrup as part of the sweetening agent. To fill one pie-shell:

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 2 cups strawberries | 1 baked pastry shell |
| 4 to 6 sprigs mint | 1 1/4 cups cold water |
| 1-2 cup sugar | 1 1/2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin |
| 1-3 teaspoon salt | 3-4 cups glassed syrup (red label) |

Wash and hull strawberries. Drain well. Bruise mint, add sugar, salt and one cup of the water. Simmer this mint mixture slowly for 10 minutes. Soak gelatin in remaining one-fourth cup water. Strain hot mint mixture over the softened gelatin and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add syrup and mix well. Pour the mint gelatin mixture over the strawberries and cool until it begins to set. Then pour entire mixture into a baked pastry shell. Chill thoroughly, serve with sweetened whipped cream and garnish with tiny sprigs of fresh mint. (To whip 15 per cent cream, add one tablespoon of lemon juice to one cup of chilled cream. Sweeten to taste.)

Olive Cauble Takes Lead In Bowling

Olive Cauble grabbed the lead in the women's bowling tournament Wednesday evening, piling up a singles total of 472, which was 17 points ahead of Marie Shaw's 455 for second spot.

However, this lacked a lot being the best individual score for the evening for a booming 502 by Mrs. Shaw and a rousing 525 by Fern Wells in couples competition dwarfed best singles efforts.

Miss Wells' effort, incidentally contributed greatly toward setting the doubles pace, for her partner, Wanda Griffith came through nicely with 405 to give the team a 930-point total.

Singles scores for the tourney, which ends Friday evening, were: Marie Shaw 455, Mrs. Ed Gabriel 397, Lois Eason 415, Minnie Howze 467, Olive Cauble 472, and Vera Dozier 386.

Doubles scores were: Mrs. Gabriel (465) and Elouise Haley (428)—893; Mrs. Cauble (419) and Mrs. Dozier (484)—903; Mrs. Howze (458) and Mrs. Eason (406)—864; Mary Ruth Dozier (395) and Pvt. Patten (399)—794; Isabelle Robb (429) and Pat Knott (460)—889; Zou Parks (407) and Mrs. Shaw (502)—909; Miss Wells (525) and Mrs. Griffith (405)—930; Mary Kathryn Staggs (473) and Mrs. Ruth Diltz (400)—873; and Cozy Walker (491) and Winnie Prescott (390)—881.

Parents Awarded Custody Of Baby

Custody of 22-month-old Phyllis D. Barrett was given to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Barrett, by Judge Cecil Collings in a hearing conducted Thursday morning in 70th District court.

However attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prescott, who have had the care and custody of the child since she was two months old, entered notice of appeal and filed supersedeas bond, which would give the Prescotts the child until the higher court decision is rendered.

The Barretts said they planned to contest the supersedeas bond.

Guard Squadron Lays It On 365th To Tune Of 17-0

Behaving like an old line bunch of MPs, the 1047th Guard Squadron rose up Wednesday in the only game of the enlisted men's softball league at the Big Spring Bombardier School and hit what was left of the once proud 365th squad with everything but the guardhouse.

Over the pile of 365th wreckage, the Guard was able to raise the epitaph: "She died at the hands of the 1047th, 17-0."

Everybody had the hitting habit, and Guard batters smacked two Headquarters pitchers for a combined total of 18 assorted hits, including Sgt. Hamilton's sixth homer of the second half and one of his rare triples.
