Mavericks Drop Three

By LARRY GOLDSTON
Staff Sports Writer

The Eastland cage team had a streak of bad luck Thursday night—the Baird Teams won three games.

The score for the three games was Boys "A", 62-49, the girls, 48-46, boys "B", 42-31.

The amazing shot of the night was made by Jimmie Moylan. He shot; the ball hit the top edge of the backboard and bounced in for 2 points.

At the end of the first quarter the score was Baird 16, Eastland 10, the second, Baird 42, Eastland 16, and the third, Baird 52, Eastland 24.

The last quarter the boys started picking points up rapidly and the final score was Baird 62, Eastland 49.

On the starting lineup were Terry Treadwell, Mike Miller, Jimmie Moylan, Tommy Beck, and Joe Russell. The high score man for Eastland was Moylan with 17 points.

The Eastland girls were barely defeated, for the first time in district play, by Baird, 48-46.

This thrilling game was keeping the spectators on the edge of their seat. On the starting lineup were Wanda Arther, Judy Seaberry, Kay Morton, Becky McAlister, Carole McCleskey, and Carolyn Thomas.

As the clock showed a minute and a half to play, the score was Baird 45, Eastland 42.

Eastland called time with 35 sec. left. Baird gained 2 points as Eastland fouled. The official score was Baird 48, Eastland 46.

The Eastland "B" team was run over by Baird 42-31. On the starting lineup were Hayden Wilson, Wayne Walden, Larry Wilson, Mike Jones, and Gaylon Griffin. The high scorer was Wayne Walden with 9 points.

Salary Change To Head Court

Consideration of an order placing certain county officials under the salary fund, rather than the fee basis will head the agenda of events to possibly come before the Eastland County Commissioners Court at their regular meeting on Monday, according to an announcement made by County Judge Scott Bailey.

Other possible items to come before the court include the following: (1) consideration of appointment of County Health Officer; (2) consideration of appointment of County Veterans Service officer and four assistants; (3) routine orders for the payment of accounts due for the past month; and (4) any new business that might come before the Court.

Assets Up $400,000 At First Federal

Assets of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Eastland increased by $418,164.00 during 1962 to a total of $2,484,493.00 at year's end, the institution announced today. The Association's statement of condition appears elsewhere in this edition.

L. R. Pearson, president of First Federal said that the new mark continues an average gain of approximately 20% per year for the past four years, and that he had every reason to believe that the average would be maintained each year in the foreseeable future. He stated that the Association's growth had been very gratifying to the officers and directors of the Association and that they were very appreciative of the support that had been given the Association by the people in the area.

According to the institution's annual report for 1962, net savings gains recorded during the year totaled $399,269.00, bringing total savings held by the association to an all-time

Conservation Program Now Is Very Active In Eastland County

The Great Plains Conservation Program is now in active operation in Eastland County. Final approval for the County Program as developed by the County Program Committee, was received this past week. Some dozen applications for participation have already been received at the local Soil Conservation Service offices at Eastland and Rising Star. The County Program Committee will likely assign priorities to these applicants within a few days and their contracts developed in the near future. Many more landowners are expressing interest in Great Plains contracts that had been anticipated.

The Great Plains Conservation Program as provided for in Public Law 1021 is a new tool for conservation and land development in this area. In essence the Program consists of complete farm and ranch conservation plans supported by long-term cost sharing under contract. When the program was first activated in 1957 Eastland County was designated as a fringe county. Upon the request of local agricultural representatives of Eastland County last July, the county was activated and the local county program developed. The Program is an addition and supplement to present going conservation programs such as A.C.P., Conservation Reserve, Soil and Water and Water Facilities Loans, and Soil Conservation Districts. Its primary purpose is a public program is the stabilization of agriculture by speeding up the application of conservation measures and mitigation of climatic hazards through the combination of management

The infant was stillborn at 9:15 p.m. Monday in the Plainview Hospital and Clinic.

FB Directors Meet Monday In Eastland

The Eastland County Farm Bureau Board of Directors met at the office location in Eastland Monday, with the president, Jack Cozart, presiding. Invocation was given by Mitchell Campbell. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Finance report was presented and approved. An applicant must be a resident of the county for six months and of the state a year, land, pasture and range seeding on rangeland where better grasses are needed, brush control for mesquite, brush control for oak and other species, waterways, terracing, diversions, ponds and pipelines for livestock water, and fencing. Such management practices as conservation cropping systems, cover crops, crop residue use, deferred grazing, and proper grassland use, are not cost shared under the Great Plains Program. Management practices however are made a part of the contract as called for in the conservation plan based on the needs of the land. Cost share rates for Eastland County are from 50% of either actual or average costs for such practices as pounds or brush to 80% for revegetation costs.

County's Surplus Program Now Serving 1,600 People

The first of some 1,600 people will begin converging on Eastland County's non-profit grocery store Monday morning.

It will be a scene that's repeated three days in succession every month.

The people will be coming on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from all over the county to pick up the free food items that are given by the state in cooperation with the County Commissioner's Court.

The only profit involved is derived in pleasure. Pleasure that local representative J. J. Porter gets from helping others and from the pleasure the commissions court gets from helping those in our county who need help.

It's been a regular scene in Eastland for the past five years and Porter, a veteran grocery man, has been in charge of the program since its inception here.

The people come by all manner of conveyance to the old Masonic Building at the corner of Plummer and Mulberry St. to get their food items. And the items are solid staples that help a family round out their diet when the going's a little rough and luck's a bit down.

Before being chosen for his present job, Porter traveled for over 39 years with wholesale grocery firms. He knows the business, but likes the present assignment best of all.

"I like the work, and I like the people", the tall, healthy Cisco native tells you.

He's probably a man of two characters, he'll also tell you. To those who come regularly, he represents the man who helps and from the way the people talk to him, you know they like him.

But to some, as is always the case in this type of undertaking, he's subject to question.

"I've made some people mad, I know," he says, "but I have to go by the rules or we couldn't help anyone. The state administers the program and the rules have to be followed."

An applicant must be a resident of the county for six months and of the state a year,

Grid Banquet Highlighted By Fry Speech, Awards

Carol Walters Is Football Sweetheart

SMU Mentor Hayden Fry returned to joke about his youth in Eastland and tell the Mavericks "why they play football" at the annual Quarterback Club football banquet Friday evening.

Speaking at the Lone Cedar Country Club event, Fry recalled that he was born here, and was at one time "chief bat boy" for a wizz girls' softball team which included May Plovman, Ina Ruth Taylor and Fry's sister, Margaret (Butch).

"Why do you play football," he asked, and answered: "To learn the value of hard work ('get with the program'); to learn teamwork; to learn to sacrifice; to learn discipline; and to learn to have the desire to excel."

Carol Walters, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Esco Walters, was introduced as Sweetheart of the team, and was presented flowers by Tommy Beck, and a gold football by Ray Edwards, Dickie Byars announced the winning sweetheart.

Runners-up were Julia Frost and Kay Morton. Winston Boles was introduced by M. C. Wendell Siebert as incoming president of the Quarterback Club, to replace Gle Scallorn.

Scallorn made a surprise presentation for the club when he named Everett Plovman "outstanding booster of this and any year."

Plovman holds the record of Maverick attendance — 1,076 consecutive football games, and over 3,000 athletic events; His record dates since 1939.

Fry is the fourth "hometown" boy to return for such banquets, and Siebert called him the "red-headed youngster on N. Connelley St."

Fry moved with his family in 1936 to Odessa where he went on to distinguish himself in high school football. He repeated for college honors later at Baylor, then returned to Odessa to coach. Back-tracking again, he went back to Baylor for coaching duties; then onto the University of Arkansas. He became SMU's head coach this past year and won himself the "outstanding coach" award for his record there.

"Judging by win-loss (2-8) our record was bad," he said, "but we won because we had some kids who wanted to play football." The same holds for your team. You've got a small club, but you can have a winning club. Your last season record proves that.

"Success follows effort," he emphasized.

Maverick Head Coach Millard Glass told the packed club audience "I would have been

HONORED — Mr. and Mrs. Everett Plovman are shown at the banquet just as he learned that he has been named by the QB Club as the "Outstanding Booster of the year."

C-C Membership?

(First in a series of six)

Certainly anyone who is now a member or who is thinking about joining the Chamber of Commerce will eventually get around to asking, "Why Should I Belong?" Without some reason his membership will mean nothing.

Chamber membership is an investment. The investment is for the future of Eastland.

One single business or individual cannot invest enough of his own money in an enterprise that will make an effort to stimulate the community's growth and in turn the economy.

It is the banding together of these businesses and individuals into an organization which carries on the activities necessary to achieve the goals stated above.

The Chamber's interests are varied and include all segments of community interest. These include Agriculture, Civic Activities, Conventions and Tourist, Legislative Matters, Industrial Development, Transportation, Retail Promotion, Flood Protection, Education and Housing.

It is hoped that the Chamber working as a group of interested individuals and businesses can help improve and stimulate interest and activity in all of these various fields.

Your help is needed. The Chamber will soon kick off its 1963 membership drive. It is our hope when you are contacted by the membership committee that you will have both questions and a desire to know more about YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

World Travelers Give Civic League Program

By MRS. SAMUEL BUTLER

"Travel" was the program subject when the Civic League and Garden Club met in regular session Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Sayre, president, presiding.

Three very gracious and unselfish women, Mrs. James Morris of Ranger, Mrs. James Horton and Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland, were presented by Mrs. Sayre to give a program on their recent travels abroad. The program was beautifully received by the large and enthusiastic club attendance.

Mrs. Morris, who is no stranger in Eastland, gave a resume of her recent trip to Nova Scotia, highlighting points of its early history as only a capable teacher can.

Mrs. Morris touched on:

ents told by Longfellow in "Evangeline" and relating to Acadia.

"Nova Scotia was a haven for Royalists during the American Revolution, and Halifax and the Bay of Funda have a strong Scottish imprint," said Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. James Horton gave a most inspiring and vivid description of her trip to Africa.

From a large map she called attention to the famous cities of the coast of Africa—the pyramids and their world famous museum.

East Africa is where the hunters and writers find all the comforts of living in Nairobi and Kenya. She liked South Africa to America, and its American style architecture made her feel at home.

"If you have an opinion of Africa, change it, for your next port will be so different", said Mrs. Horton.

Mrs. Horton displayed a collection of carved alabaster, ebony and other native woods, also ivory and leather goods.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, always versatile and responsive, spoke on her recent trip to Hong Kong, China. She told many things of interest, especially of a shopping trip in Hong Kong, much to the delight of her audience.

She displayed a beautiful robe made of tribute silk and especially to her order.

Mrs. Perkins added that a friend of hers went shopping also that day and, much to her dismay, returned with the duplicate robe—also made to order.

Since the robes were reversible, one could wear red with black trim while the other wore black with red.

Mrs. Perkins compared the poverty she saw in India with that of Hong Kong and felt that Care packages and the assistance of Church charities are a big help to the situation.

Children were being served hot food from sidewalk kitchens as part of the work of Missionaries.

Imagine her surprise to find among the Missionaries Mr. Sidney Anderson, a former resident of Rising Star who told her that Mrs. Mae Harrison of Eastland was at his home the night he was born.

"Mr. Anderson, after 45 years in the Mission Field, is being delayed in China because he is a valuable coordinator between church societies and the government" said
