11th Court's Work Load Is From 'East', not 'West'

Contrary to what the fresh representatives from Abilene may claim, most of the work load of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland comes from the "east" and not the "west".

This fact was presented during testimony in Austin Tuesday by Eastland County during a House committee hearing on the proposed move of the court to Abilene.

Reps. Allen Glenn and Rawleigh Brown, both serving their first terms in Austin, recently introduced a bill asking the court's move. The matter went to a sub-committee and is expected to result in any action.

Virgil Seaberry Jr., Eastland attorney who had done extensive research on the court's record, said: Austin, and reported to the chamber of commerce directors in Eastland Thursday, that 53 percent of the court's cases has come from points east of Abilene for the past 16 years.

During the past four years, he said, the percentage has dropped to 38 per cent for Abilene and west, leaving 62 per cent of the cases handled for east of Abilene.

"There is no reason why Abilene and Taylor County taxpayers to bear some $250,000 cost to duplicate the court's facilities," he said.

Speaking for the Eastland C-C and the Eastland County Par Assn., he said, "The sub-committee working on the court problem is a fair and able group and I am sure they will give it thorough consideration. I hope justice will be done and the court left in Eastland."

Cisco Trio 'Not Guilty' On Evidence

Three Cisco youths pleaded "guilty" to setting fires in Eastland County, Thursday during a trial in 91st District Court, but were found "not guilty" by the court when the prosecution failed to present sufficient evidence.

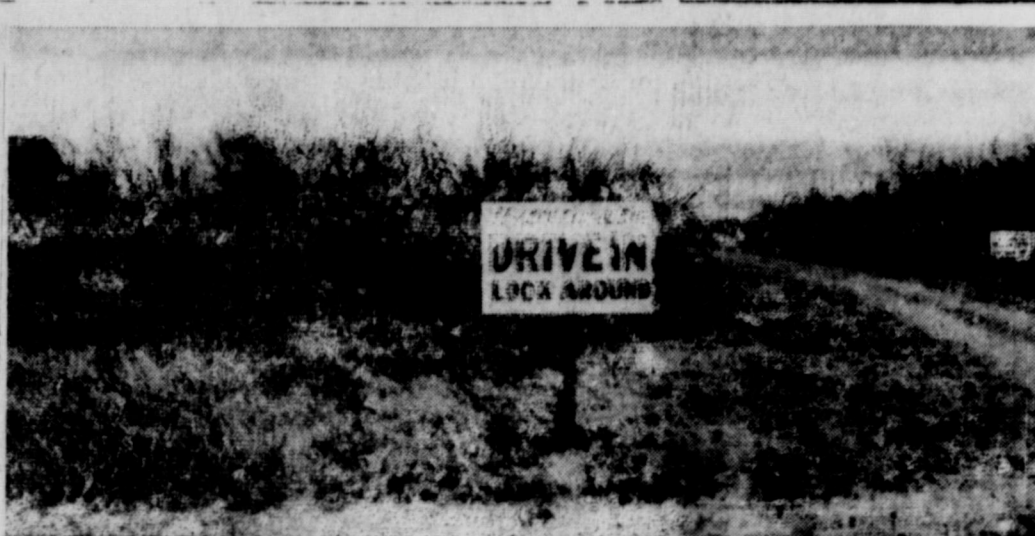

The three, Eddy Langford, 18, Gary Marsh, 17, and Terry Gosnell, 21, all of Cisco, were indicted by a grand jury earlier this month.

Eastland Attorney Frank Sparks was appointed by the court to represent the trio, and a jury trial was waived.

Prosecuting Attorney Earl Conner Jr. offered only one witness for the state.

Walter Kirklia d, who farms some four miles east of Cisco, testified that he had a fire on his place on Feb. 4, but under cross examination by Sparks, said that the fire did not burn.

SIGNS ON SITE—These and other signs were erected this past week on the proposed 11-acre school site on Sadosa St. The sign at the extreme right of this picture says "School site from here to Dixie St. and south 780 feet." Other signs read "Connellee St. to be opened to school area," "11 acre school site. House and barns to be removed," "Heavy chain link, entire length of school ground on highway," and "Proposed route of Highway 6", (located on what would be Walnut St., if extended) (A&C Photo)

2.23 BELOW NORMAL

History Repeating? No Rain

Statistics prove what is otherwise a very obvious fact. It's been mighty dry in Eastland County the first two months of this year.

"We've had less than a half inch of rain—much to the dismay of crop raisers and yard tenders.

February was only slightly less damp than January. Official Weather Observer James Smith reports .22 of an inch in February and .25 for January. For a total of .47—exactly 2.28 inches below normal.

It's not a new situation though, because last year, the early months were dry too—.11 in January and .16 in February.

The total average for the two is 2.75 inches... 1.37 for January and 1.38 for February. Last year the rains started in March and totaled 1.39 before the month ended. Maybe "history" will repeat.

Continued cool nights and warm days are doing a pretty good job of keeping the trees and shrubs "back." However, a small ornamental shrub can be seen in full bloom in a yard at the corner of Sadosa and Connellee Sts.

Last year the area had a hard, killing freeze in early March.

Eastland National Followed Oil Boom

It was in Nov. 5, 1934 following one decade of "fasting" and in the middle of another "fasting" that seven courageous men founded the Eastland National Bank.

Eastland County had experienced an oil boom in the 1920s only to have to suffer, with the rest of the nation, through the Great Depression of the 1930s.

During the height of the oil boom Eastland boasted a population of 25,000 persons and at one time there were five banks doing business in this town. During the depression years, however, they closed one by one until the old Texas State Bank was forced to close its doors. Then there was a period of four years during which Eastland was without a bank.

The bank is joining with other commercial banks across the nation in observing the centennial of the dual banking system.

The organizers of the bank included W. C. Campbell, Albert Taylor, Walter Murray, G. W. Fisher, Grady Pipkin, J. A. Beard, who is currently a member of the board of directors, and Milburn McCarty.

DEATON ANSWERS

City Charter Needs Changes; In Favor of Summer Water Rates

The city charter is very much in need of revision and if I'm elected that's one of the first things I'd want to consider.

This is the comment of City Commissioner Candidate Frank Deaton (I) reply to a series of questions submitted to the six candidates.

Deaton, owner-manager of Eastland Auto Parts, also says that he is definitely in favor of a summer water rate.

Deadline for filing for commission posts has expired and six candidates are running for the three posts to be filled in the April 2 election.

"There is plenty of water available," Deaton answers, "and if it can be determined by a study that the rate could be reduced in order to allow residents to use water for beautification of their property, it would be another asset for our city."

"I'm in favor of doing anything possible to help our traffic conditions," he said in reply to a question about intensifying traffic controls in the city. "There are quite a few places in town that need stop signs," he said, "and if erected, these would help traffic conditions. I'm not saying that Eastland has had traffic problems now, because we don't, but as in most things, there's always places for improvement."

He said he'd want to study the citizens radio band proposition and the question concerning the assistance by the city of helping the school relocate the elementary school. "There's a lot of facts involved," he said, "and I'd need to know more about both before I spoke for or against either."

"But you can be assured," he said in extra comments asked for in the letter of questions, "that if elected, I'll not be influenced by others, and I'll use my own ideas."

Deaton thought that publishing of the city's financial condition on a monthly basis, might be too often, but said, that it definitely should be published twice a year.

On the matter of a possible building code for the city, he said he'd have to study that matter before expressing himself. "I'd want to know all the details about what was involved," he added.

Likewise, he said he'd want to study and consider the question concerning a county-wide "study-group" made up of representatives from the various towns to consider problems and possible mutual solutions.

FIRST ON THE LINE—W. D. Gattis, right, land-owner in the Scranton area, is the first man in Eastland County to sign up for cooperative conservation practices through the Great Plains Conservation Program. Helping get Gattis signed up are Eastland office SCS men W. L. Garner, left, and Guy Horton. Eastland County has only recently been added to the Great Plains program. Local SCS Manager E. E. McAllister reports that applications have been heavy here for participation. (A&C Photo)

W. D. Gattis of Scranton Is First County Signer for Great Plains

By Soil Conservation Office

The Great Plains Conservation Program is bringing new hope as a tool for the rebuilding of Eastland County agriculture.

Since the program was launched the first of January, eight contracts have been completed and signed at the Eastland office of the Soil Conservation Service.

Landowners who have signed contracts are W. D. Gattis at Scranton, B. A. May, south of Eastland, A. W. Harris of Scranton, A. J. Rogers of Chae, Truett Norris of Carbon, R. Don Montgomery at Nimrod, Herman Elson at Gorman, and J. D. Griffin south of Eastland.

A total of 27 landowners have made applications for contracts all of which are in various stages of development. Similar progress is being made in the Rising Star Work Unit Area.

A Great Plains Contract represents the ultimate in conservation planning and cooperation between the landowner, the soil conservation district, and the Federal Government.

THIS WEEK

Public Invited To Local Schools

Monday begins Texas Annual Public Schools Week and the schools in Eastland will be holding "open house" during the week to permit parents and others to inspect their schools in progress.

The Eastland Lions Club will meet at the high school lunch room Tuesday at noon for their regular weekly luncheon meeting, as part of the weeks activities.

West Ward students will observe Public School Week Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. A normal school day will be held but all work will be on exhibit, according to J. W. Turner, principal.

Mrs. H. H. Durham, principal of South Ward, announced that the first and second grade parents will be invited to the school at 2 p.m. and third, fourth and fifth grade parents at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Marshall's first grade will present a Texas Day program with songs and stories about the history of Texas. The children's works will also be on display.

Second grade pupils of Mrs. D. E. Frazer will present puppet shows of stories they have been reading.

A television show of stories read during the year will be presented by Mrs. Don Farnsworth's third grade.

A play on conservation giving sites and geographic facts will be given by the third grade pupils of Mrs. James Young.

Fourth grade pupils of Mrs. Pearson Grimes will present a program on Americanism which will include the American Creed, a playlet, "I Am Your Flag" and the song, "God Bless America."

A program on Great American Heroes will be given by Mrs. Mrs. Harold Durham's fourth grade.

Students of Mrs. Oud Hear's fifth grade will exhibit their notebooks on social studies and give poems and songs.

The Eastland system appears to be "just about ready to get off the state's warned list" with planned construction of a new gymnasium and agricultural shop.

These two areas are the last remaining points of suggested improvements and with the recent approval of the $525,000 bond issue for the construction of a new elementary building, a gym and vocation shop, the system apparently will be cleared and its name removed from the "warned" list.

The local community has the responsibility of offering a good instructional program to its students. Minimum standards are set by the State, and it is the responsibility of the State to give leadership to local schools in improving the program.

To provide leadership, the State Board of Education has approved revisions in the principles and standards used for accrediting elementary and secondary schools. Revisions were made after a two year study of the curriculum by local and a State-wide committee of school people and lay citizens.

The revised principles and standards became effective in September, 1962, and local schools are implementing the standards which have been available for study since November, 1961.

Local schools use the principles and standards to evaluate programs of instruction, to determine the extent to which standards are being met, and to locate areas for improvement. The staff of the Texas Education Agency uses the standards for the evaluation of the local school when making accreditation visits.

When visiting schools, parents and other citizens may be interested in discussing with school personnel the effect of the revised standards on:

1. Course Offerings
2. School Objectives
3. School Board Policies
4. Seventh and Eighth Grade Requirements
5. Graduation Requirements
6. Preparation of Staff
7. Teaching Methods
8. Guidance Services
9. Special Services (school lunch, transportation, and other services)
10. Instructional Materials
11. The Athletics Program
12. The School Plant

Directors To Be Named

A nominating committee was named this week to select replacement directors for the chamber of commerce.

Replacements for Ronald Burton and Mike George will be picked. Both men have moved from Eastland.

Named to the committee at a regular board meeting Thursday were Wendell Siebert, chairman, Hob Perkins and Virgil Seaberry Jr.

Mr. Stock Raiser...

Dear Sir

The Screw-Worm Eradication Program continues to lag in Eastland County, and unless we raise our share along with other livestock producers throughout the State, the program could possibly fold up shortly. It is a known fact, as a result of the work done last year by the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation in their efforts to eliminate the costly screw-worm, that the number of cases of screw-worms was far less this year than any previous years. As a result of these facts, your county and community committees believe in the program, and feel justified in asking you to support it with your contribution.

Thus far, approximately $8,000 has been raised in Eastland County, approximately one-half of what we should raise, according to our livestock census. We would urge each livestock owner to make his donations on the basis of 50c per head on grown cattle and horses, and 10c per head on calves, goats, and sheep.

Please make your contributions payable to SWAHRF, and mail or deliver to any bank in the county, who will forward them on to the County Treasurer for the program. For those of you, who might have already given, we appreciate your efforts, and invite you to help us convince your neighbor, that he should give, also. By your efforts, the screw-worm can be eradicated. Won't you please get behind this program?

Sincerely,
Ed Sargent
Eastland Area Chairman
County Animal Health Committee

BY THE HORNS?

Several towns in the county seem to have "the bull by horns" in the screwworm eradication fund drive, but alas Eastland appears to have firm grip on the tail—and is being wagged.

Both Cisco and Rising Star have each raised twice as much as Eastland.

The letter above is a copy of that sent to almost every raiser in the Eastland rural effort area, in an effort to bring in the funds to roundup the drive before the tentative deadline for closing, March 18th.

All livestock owners are urged to make contributions to the program immediately.

Funds may be turned into Glyn Gilliam at Eastland National Bank or Dick Wesson at Production Credit Ass'n. or to either of these chairman: Ed Sargent, Bernard Frank, B. H. Courtney, Frank Hightower or Clint McCain.

It was the highest in history last year, and with an expected increase in transportation facilities each year we can expect more of the same. A Dozen Colorful Peanut Facts

(This is National Peanut Week—and Eastland Countians might do well to note these items on the wonderful nut.)

Peanuts first came to America from Africa in slave ships. "Goobers" was African for "groundnuts" and groundnuts is still British for peanuts, because they grow under the ground.

American farmers produced about $187,000,000 worth of peanuts last year. (A dollar's worth for every man, woman, and child in the United States.)

About 60% of our peanut crop is eaten by humans. The rest is used for seed, animal feed and oil.

The edible portion of America's peanut crop is used as follows: peanut butter 50%, oil 25%, candy 10%, and roasted peanuts 15%.

An annual per capita consumption of peanuts, in all forms, in the United States is 5.6 pounds.

Americans eat more than 275,000 pounds of peanuts every day.

Peanuts are rich in energy. One analysis says that one pound of peanuts is equal in energy value to four pounds of beef steak, 21 pounds of apples, 10 quarts of milk or 33 eggs.

Under the Federal Farm Support Program, peanuts are one of America's basic crops.

When John F. Kennedy became President his "Executive Order No. 1" exempted all peanut butter from foods supplied to needy families in "distress areas."

The six principal peanut producing states are Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Texas and Oklahoma. Seven other states raise some but these six raise most of them.

Peanut components may someday be a cure for hemophilia. Research is being conducted at the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Laboratory in

Second Spring Luncheon Hosted By Civic League

Mrs. Frank Sayre, president of the Civic League and Garden Club, welcomed members, newcomers and guests to the second in a series of annual spring luncheons Wednesday at the Woman's Club.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. T. L. Ann's Raymond Bell, Milton Post, Robert Perkins, T. E. Richardson and Don Viengover.

A luncheon of Hawaiian chicken and rice, congealed salad, strawberry iced cake and coffee was catered by Mrs. Wendis of Cisco.

Guests were seated four to a table centered with styrofoam Texas maps. Inscribed on the maps were "March 2, 1836", the date Texas declared their independence from Mexico. Each map was surrounded by an arrangement of artificial bluebonnets.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Sayre showed a set of white plastic dominoes presented to the club house by the Civic League.

Persons wishing to file for a place on the April 6th ballot may do so by filing a written application with the County Judge not less than 30 days prior to the election.

The Texas Election Code also requires District School Trustees in districts of less than 500 scholastics to file for election with the County Judge.

Women who cook electrically know...

Electric cooking is FAST because it's flameless

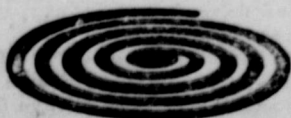

Today's electric ranges start heating instantly, reach cooking heat in seconds. Flameless electric surface units put heat directly into the pans, not into the room, so practically all the heat goes into the food being cooked. That is why electric cooking is fast.

The flameless electric oven reaches baking or roasting temperature quickly. Since it is insulated all around, including the bottom, heat stays inside where it belongs. And because electric heat is instant, the broiler requires no preheating. This means your meals can be cooked in a minimum of time.

Electric cooking also is clean, cool, accurate and economical. Select your flameless electric range at your dealer's now and enjoy all these benefits. Electric cooking is one of the nicest things about living better...electrically!

'FAIR SWAP'—Mrs. Leon Fowler of 506 S. Oaklawn St., receives her change from Dale Troutt during a recent auction sale at Eastland County's new Wagon Yard on East Main St. Trading has been brisk — especially on opening day when several "lots" of goods were sold under the auctioneer's hammer for worthy causes. The sponsoring chamber of commerce sold one lot of goods to pay for the site's brand new sign, and the Eastland Band Boosters raised funds from "discarded" merchandise. Troutt is chairman of the C-C committee in charge of the selling center. Special days are Tuesday and Saturdays, but every day is "fair trade" day with pick-up loads of merchandise on the scene almost constantly. (A&C Photo)

ights for a Sunday Oriental Tea, Program Held At WMU Meeting

An Oriental program and tea of the Women's Missionary Union of the Bethel Baptist Church was held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Following the program, an Oriental style tea was served by Mrs. Harrison Curtis, program chairman, and her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Reese, who recently returned from Germany with her husband and son, Barry.

The table was laid in white and centered with an arrangement of pink roses. The room had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. Curtis with Japanese lanterns and a straw basket filled with flowers.

Ten members and two guests, Rev. H. B. Terry and Rev. Hoston Brewer, attended the meeting.

Mrs. Gene Falk was dressed in an imported Korean costume complete with white kid shoes. In modeling the costume, Mrs. Falk explained how the Korean women enjoy their prize in a suspended necktie.

Mrs. L. C. Brown wore a Japanese tourist costume of aqua and pink satin.

Following the team, Mrs. Curtis opened the program with a song, "We've A Story to Tell the Nation", accompanied by Mrs. Tom Clark, pianist.

The prayer calendar was read by Mrs. James Pittman followed by prayer for missionaries led by Mrs. Stella Roderick.

Following the program were Mrs. L. C. Brown, Mrs. James Pittman and Mrs. Gene Falk.

A devotional from John 13:2-2 was given by Mrs. A. J. Blevins Sr. She stressed the outstanding number of Spanish speaking people in America and God's love for all people.

First Aid Program Given At HD Meeting

A program on first aid was presented by Mrs. Josie K. Nix Wednesday afternoon when 8 members of the Morton Valley Home Demonstration Club met in regular session.

Roll call was answered with "a famous quotation", Mrs. Fritz Huffman, president, presided over the meeting.

The meeting was opened with the club motto, pledge and prayer led by Mrs. C. T. Brockman.

A devotional from John 4:7-11 was presented by Mrs. Robert Kinsaid after which minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. G. M. Hargus and approved by the club. She also reported that $50.50 had been collected for the March of Dimes.

A family night was planned for Friday evening at 7 o'clock. A dinner will be served followed by various games.

Following adjournment, Mrs. Nix led the group in recreation.

Mrs. Hargus, hostess, served doughnuts and coffee to the following: Mmes. H. N. Sherman, E. L. Danler, M. V. Harrison, Lee Bond, H. C. Pounds, Jeff Laughlin, D. J. West, Robert Kinsaid, Fritz Huffman, L. E. Orms, C. M. Pogue, Josie

MR. AND MRS. FRANK WEEDEN (Photo by Capps Studio)

Miss Jettie Seay And Frank Weedon Wed

Miss Jettie Marie Seay and Frank Weedon were married in a double ring ceremony read Friday, Feb. 22, at 8 p.m. in the Bethel Baptist Church by Rev. H. B. Terry, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Seay of 1309 S. Simmons, Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Weedon of Oklahoma City, Okla. are parents of the groom.

The church was decorated in blue and white with candles, gladiolas, carnations and palms.

Musical selections were rendered by Homer Terry, organist, and Wendell Siebert, soloist. Mr. Siebert sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Attending the bride were Mrs. Wayne Ames of Abilene, matron of honor; and Misses Janie Hensley and Sandra Pogue, bridesmaids. Mrs. Jim Mason of Columbus, Ohio, sister of the groom, lighted the candles and Miss Vickie Lee, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl.

They were identically dressed in ensembles of blue brocade satin. Short blue veils were caught to headpieces of blue brocade satin.

D. F. Weedon served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Wayne Ames of Abilene and Kenneth J. Lee of Eastland, cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown fashioned with a bodice of white chantilly lace and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was of chiffon. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a headpiece of orange blossoms. She carried carnations in a white Bible accented with streamers of pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Seay chose a beige linen dress with matching accessories and a white corsage.

Mrs. Weedon, mother of the groom, wore navy blue silk with black accessories and a white corsage.

The reception was held in the Educational Building of the church immediately following the ceremony. The three tiered wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Jim Mason and Mrs. Cliff Richardson, aunt of the bride. The bride's table was complimented with silver and crystal appointments and a floral centerpiece.

Hamburger may be such a regular and popular visitor at your home that you may want to give it the attention it deserves.

Ground meat needs the best care to maintain top quality. Remove the store wrapper, cover loosely with wax paper, then put it in the coldest part of the refrigerator. And don't keep it too long. For best eating, ground meat should be used within 24 hours after purchase. If you want to keep ground meat longer, it's best to freeze it.

Frozen ground beef can be stored for two months in the home freezer at 0 degrees. The storage life is shorter than for solid cuts of beef.

If you shape the ground beef into patties before freezing, you can cook it from the frozen state without thawing. Hamburger may be an old friend but don't forget to give it all the attention it deserves when it comes to your house.

You know, "jello" is a favorite with almost everyone. It can be fixed so many ways and it is low in calories. It can be served as a snack, or as a salad with meals or for dessert—just to name a few. Here is a tip you might use in mind. Save the syrup from canned fruits and use this for part of the "jello" when preparing your jello. This can be done when you add fruit to your jello, too.

Here is an idea for a real "cool" light dessert.

Prepare plain "jello" any flavor.

When ready to serve: Cut "jello" in squares. Top with whipped cream. Sprinkle whipped cream with mixture of finely chopped pecans and crushed vanilla wafers.

W. D. Gattis -

Provision is made within a contract for a complete conservation program item by item in order to treat each acre on the farm according to its needs as well as the use of each acre within its capabilities. All this in accordance with the land-owners desire to fit his system of operation.

Typical of Great Plains contract with W. D. (Bill) Gattis at Scranton. This was the first contract signed in Eastland County.

Bill is a young farmer who has been in process of applying a conservation program for many years.

When Bill returned from the service several years ago, his father, W. J. Gattis, presented his son a new pair of work gloves and proceeded to inform him so that from that day on Bill would do all the farming and he would spend his retirement in the country store he runs at Scranton.

Bill proceeded to take over the family farm and build his family a new home. As opportunity came along he purchased additional land which joined the old family farm until it expanded from the original 230 acres to 872 acres. In addition a other 160 acres of land is leased.

To Bill the development and conservation treatment of this land has been a big challenge. Too often the progress has been slow due to financial and other obstacles. His new contract provides a schedule for a complete job within the next five years.

The total program includes the conversion of 136 acres of old cropland to permanent grass, mesquite control on 293 acres of severely infested mesquite rangeland, control of 113 acres of nest oak timber, and a small amount of terracing still needed on his cropland.

Grass reseeding will be done with all the brush control acreage and on another 98 acres where the brush is already under control. One pond and several fences are to be built to facilitate his grassland management. Each job is scheduled year by year until the whole program is on the la d.

As we look forward to the future there can be little doubt that grassland development and application of complete conservation programs can do much toward stabilizing agriculture in Eastland County. A definite trend may be seen toward the conservation of more and more cropland to permanent grass, along with better management and improvement of native pasture.

The eight Great Plains contracts signed thus far provide for the conversion of over 700 acres of cropland to grass. As Eastland County agriculture converts to grassland farming no doubt the Great Plains Program will be a tool toward more permanent agriculture.

land picnic", Deaton said that might be a very good idea, if promoted on a yearly basis, rather than more frequently because "it might run into a costly job", he said, "if it were too often."

Deaton, immediate past president of the chamber of commerce, added that from his experience on the chamber, that such matters as the picnic and the question regarding promotion of the city as a recreation center, should be considered in cooperation between the city and the chamber.

"These are matters of which the city and the chamber can best work together for the good of the town, and I'm for that," he said. Most definite were his comments on the city charter, which, he said definitely needed "some changes".

Christian Science

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon this Sunday at Christian Science Church.

"I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." These words of the Master taken from John's Gospel (14:6) will be used as the Golden Text.

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Cor. 15:58) is one of many passages that will make up the scriptural readings.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read: "It is possible, yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man, a n d woman,—to follow in some degree the example of the Master
